9 Yet Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul and said, Wilt thou goe vp to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cessars iudgement seat, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things wherof they accuse me, no man to pleasure them, can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Council, hee answered, Haft thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 ¶ And after certaine daies, king Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus declared Pauls cause vnto the king, saying, there is a certaine man left in prison by Felix,

15 Of whom when I came to Hierusalem, the high Priests and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the manner of the Romans for fauour to deliuer any man to the death, before that hee which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I fate on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought forth, they brought no crime of such things as I supposed:

19 ⁵ But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of question, I asked him whether he would goe to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be referred to the examinor on of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cæsar.

22 ⁶ Then Agrippa said vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow sayd he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come, and Bernice with great pompe, and were entered into the Common hall with the chiefe captaynes and chiefe men of the citie, at Festus commandement Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus sayd, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, yee see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iewes have called vpon me both at Hierusalem, & here, crying that he ought not to lue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death that he hath committed: neietherles, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whom I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my Lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For mee thinketh it vnreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are laid against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

^a Paul in the court of Agrippa, 4 declares his life from his childhood, 16 and his calling, 28 with such efficacy of words, 28 that almost beyer's worth him in Christianity: 35 But he and his company depart, doing nothing in Pauls matter.

THEN Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

1 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer this day before thee, of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly because thou hast knowledge of all customes and questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Hierusalem, know all the Iewes.

5 Which I knew mee heretofore, even from my Elders (if they would testifie) that after the most fruitfull of our religion I liued a Pharise.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly serving God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O King Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Hierusalem: for many of the Saints I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authority of the high Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more mad against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to Damascus, with authority, and commission from the high Priests,

13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heaven, passing the brightness of the sunne, shine round about mee, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou mee? It is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

15 Then I sayd, Who art thou, Lord? And he sayd, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witness, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee;

17 Deliuering thee from this people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darknesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of finnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision, 20 But shewed first vnto men of Damascus, and at Hierusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turne to God, and doe works worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught mee in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Neuertheless, I obtained helpe of God and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things then those which the Prophets and Moses did say I should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto this people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art biddest thy selfe, much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus; but I speake the words of truth and sobernesse.

26 For the King knoweth of these things before whom also I speake boldly: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleuest.

28 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul said, I would to God that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the King

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Paul 9. foretels the perill of the voyage. 11 bus seruiccs beleeued. 12 They are told to and fro with the tempest. 21. 41. and suffer shipwracke: 34 Yet all safe and sound. 44. escape to land.

Now when it was concluded, that we should saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coasts of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Iulius courteously entreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence wee lunched, and sayled hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then failed wee ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italy, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many daies, and scarce wee came against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by Candie, neere to Salomone,

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the city Laſea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now iopardous, because also the 8 Feast was now past, Paul exhorted them,

10 And said vnto them, Sirs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt, and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuerthelesse the Centurion beleeued rather the gouernour and the master of the shippes, then thote things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, thers to winter, which is an haue of Candie, and lyeth toward the South-west and by West, and North-west and by West.

13 And when the Southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to attaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sayled by Candie.

14 But anon after there arose by e, it a stormy winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, wee let her goe, and were carried away.

16 And we ran vnder a little yle named Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boat.

17 Which theyooke vp and vfed all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtis, and they strake saile, and fo were caried.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starrs in many daies appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the mids of them, and sayd Sirs, ye should haue hearkened to me, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any maus life among you, saue of the ship onely.

23 For there stood by me this night the Angell of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee freely, all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, Sirs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shall be so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit, wee must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in the Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shippers deemed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And founded, & found it twenty fathomes: and when they had gone a little further, they founded againe, and found fiftene fathomes.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Now as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boat into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ankers out of the foreship,

31 Paul sayd vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, yee cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meat, saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye haue taried, and continued fasting, receiuing nothing:

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meat: for this is for your safegard: for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God in the presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meat.

37 Now wee were in the ship in all two hundred threefcore and sixtene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken vp the ankers, they committed the ship vnto the Sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoysed vp the maine saile to the wind, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place where two seas meette, they thrust in the ship: and the forepart stucke fast, and could not be mooued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

5 God spareth the wicked for a time, for his elect and choicest sake.

6 The promise is made effectall through faith.

7 We attaine and come to the promised and sure saluation through the mids of tempests and death itselfe.

8 For Plume with which the Adriaticall sea teareth upon the East shore of Sicily, that they drew neere to some countrey.

9 There is none so soule an arte, whereunto distrust and euill conscience doe not enuaine men.

10 Although the performing of Gods promises doeth not simply depend vpon celestiall canes, yet they make themselves unworthy of Gods bountie.

11 Therefore, which doe not embrace those means which God offereth them, either vpon rationall or distrust.

12 When the tempest, the faithfull alone be not onely quiet, but confirme others by their example.

13 This is a promise which the Hebrews w, whereby it means, that they shall safe, and not one of them perishe.

14 Then the tempest is most of all to be feared and looked for, when the port or haven is necesse.

15 A creeke is a sea within land, as the Adriaticall sea and the Persian sea.

16 So the ship was broken, because the sea was so much faster.

1 Paul with many other prisoners, & through the mids of many deaths, is brought to Rome, but yet by Gods owne hand as it were, and set forth and commended vnto the world with many singular testimonies.

* 2 Cor. 11. 15. a Which was an high hill of Candie.

ward: neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh.

29 But he is a Iewe which is one within, & the circumcision is of the heart in the x spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men but of God.

CHAP. III.

1. Hee giueth the Iewes some 2. preferment for the covenant sake, 3. but yet such as wholly depend on Gods meritt. 4. That both Iewes and Gentiles are sinners, 11. See promise by Scripture: 19. and sheweth the use of the Law, 28. he concludeth that we are iustified by faith.

What 1 is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profite of circumcision?

2 Much every manner of way: for 1 chiefly, because vnto them were of credite committed the o racles of God.

3 For what, though some do not c beleue? shall their vnbeleife make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and every man a liar, as it is written, That thou mightest be c iustified in thy words, and overcome, 1 when thou art iudged.

5 Now if our vnrighteousnes commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake as a man)

6 God forbid: (elie how shall God iudge the world?)

7 For if the *v*eritie of God hath more abounded through my liuent to his glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme, that we say) why doe we not eull, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 4 What then? are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are k vnder sinne.

10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no one true.

11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue become altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doth good, no one true.

13 * Their throat is an open sepulchre: they haue vied their tongues to dequite: * the poyson of aspes *v*nder their lips.

14 * Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 * Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction & calamitie are in their wayes,

17 And the 1 way of peace they haue not known.

18 * The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Nowe we knowe that whatsoever the *l*aw sayeth, it sayeth it to them which are vnder the Lawe, that *e*very mouth may be stopped.

6. Therefore I speake not these words in mine owne person, as though I thought so, but this is the call of many witnesses, which is not within the will of God.

3 A third obiection, which addeth somewhat to the former, If sinnes doe tene to the glory of God, they are not only not to be punished, but we ought rather to giue our selues to them: which blasphemie Paul contenting himselfe to saye and deeth, pronounceth iust punishment against such blasphemers. The truth and confutation.

4 Another answer to the first obiection: that the Iewes if they be considered in themselves, are no better then other men are: as it hath been long since pronounced by the mouth of the Prophets. *k. Are guilty of sinne, * Psal. 14. 1, 2, 3. * Psal. 53. 10. * Psal. 143. * Psal. 107. * Eia. 59. 7.*

1 A innocent and peaceable life. * Psal. 36. 1. 5 He prometh that this glorious accusation which is recited by David and Elias doth properly concerne the Iewes, in the *L*aw of Moses. 6 A conclusion of all the former disputations from the 18. verse of the first Chapter. Therefore saith the Apostle. No man can hope to be iustified by any Law, whether it be that general Law, or the particular Law of Moses: and therefore to be faulde: seeing it appeareth (as we haue already proued) by comparing the Law and mans life together, that all men are sinners, and therefore worthy of condemnation in the sight of God.

and all the world bee n subiect to the iudgement of God.

20 Therefore by the *w*orkes of the Law shall no flesh bee i justified in his v sight: for by the Law cometh the knowledge of sinne.

21 7 But now is the righteousness of God made manifest without the Law, hauing witness of the Law, and of the Prophets, 22 8 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of i Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are deprived of the *g*lory of God.

24 9 And are iustified *f*reely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus.

25 10 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his x blood, to declare his righteousness, by the forgiveness of the sins that y are passed.

26 Through the *p*atience of God, to shew at this time his righteousness, that he might bee i iust, & a iustifier of him which is of the d faith of Iesus.

27 11 Where is then the reioicing? It is excluded. By what c Law? of works? Nay: but by the Law of faith.

28 Therefore wee conclude, that a man is iustified by faith, without the workes of the Law.

29 12 God, is he the God of the i Iewes only and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God, who shall iustifie *c*ircumcision of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

31 13 Doe wee then make the Law of n none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, we *e*stablish the Law.

8 The matter, as it were of his righteousness, is in Christ Iesus apprehended by faith, and for this end offered to all people, as without him all people are without out from the kingdom of God. f. Which we owe to Iesus Christ, or which resteth vpon him.

1 By the glory of God, n means that marke which all we shew to rest in, that is, euerglasting life, which standeth in that we are made partakers of the glory of God. 9 Therefore this right conscience touching vs, is altogether freely giuen, for it standeth vpon those things which we haue not done our selues, but such as Christ hath suffered for our sakes, to deliver vs from sinne. o. Of his free gift, and merer liberality.

10 God then is the author of that free iustification, because it pleased him, and Christ is here, which suffered punishment for our sinnes, and in whose we have remission of them: and the merer whereby we apprehend Christ, is faith. To bee short, the end is the setting forth of the goodness of God that by this means it may appeare, that hee is mercifull in deede, and constant in his promises, as hee hath lately, and of merer grace iustifieth the beleeuers.

11 The name of blood, calleth vs backe to the figure of the olde sacrifices, the truth and iustification of which sacrifices is in Christ. 3 Of the sinners which wee commit as when we were his enemies. 2 Through his patience, and suffering nature. 4 To wit, when Paul wrote this, b That he might bee found exceeding true and faithful. c Making him iust, and without blame, by imputing Christs righteousness vnto him. d O the number of them which by faith lay hold vpon Christ, contrary to whom, are they which looke to be saved by circumcision, that is, by the Law.

11 An Argument to proue this conclusion, that we are iustified by faith without workes, taken from the end of iustification. The end of iustification is the glory of God alone: if therefore we are iustified by faith without workes: for if we were iustified either by our owne workes only, or partly by faith, and partly by workes, the glory of this iustification should not bee wholly giuen to God. e By what doctrine I now the doctrine of workes hath this condition ioynt with it, if thou dost, and the doctrine of faith hath this condition, if thou beleuest.

12 Another argument of an absurdity: if iustification depended vpon the Lawe of Moses, then should God be a Saviour to the Iewes only. Again, if hee should save the Iewes after one sort, and the Gentiles after another, hee should not be one and like himselfe. Therefore hee will iustifie both of them after one selfe same manner, that is, to say, by faith. Moreover, this argument may be ioynted to that which followeth next, that his conclusion may be firme and euident. f God n sayd is to be their God, after the manner of the Scripture, whom hee loveth and reuereth. g The circumcised. 13 The taking away of an obiection: yet is not the Law taken away therefore, but is rather established, as a stable declared in his prophecies. b Vaine, void, to no purpose, and of no force. i We make it effectual and strong.

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at that time died for the vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a righteous man: but for a good man it may be one dare die.

8 But God's lethereth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shalbe saued fro^o wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shalbe saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom we haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne^{ne} entered into the world, & death by sinne, & so death went ouer all men: in whom all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time of the Law was sin in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no law.

14 As death reigned from Adam to Mo^{ses}, euen ouer them all that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

15 But yet the gifts not so as the offence: for if through the offence of that one, many bee dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by the grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue that abundance of grace, and of that gift of that righteousnesse, a reigne in life through one, that is Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefit abounded toward all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners, so by that obedience of that one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Moreover the Law entered thereupon, that the offence should abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more.

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousnesse vnto eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

contrary side, the righteousnesse of Christ, which by Gods mercie is imputed to all believers, iustificeth them, that they may become partakers of everlasting life. Not only because our sinnes are forgiven vs, but also because the righteousnesse of Christ is imputed vnto vs. 18 The ground of this whole comparison is this, that these two men are let as two stocks or roots, so that out of the one sinne by nature, out of the other righteousnesse by grace doeth spring forth vnto others. 19 So therefore entered into vs only by following the steps of our forefather, but we take corruption of him by inheritance. 20 The word Law, is (against this word, a few. 19) a preventing of an objection: why then did the Law of Moses enter thereupon? that men might be so much the more guiltie, and the benefit of God in Christ lesse to be so much the more glorious. A Beate that deserveth which all men were in-fested withall by being assailed with one mans sinne the Law enterd. B Grace was powred plentifully from heauen, this is did not onely counteruail sinne, but also man's nature is purified.

CHAP. VI.

1 He cometh to justification, without which, that to men partaken Christ's righteousness, the growth of Baptisme, 12 and thereupon exhorteth to holiness of life, 16 briefly making mention of the Law transgressed.

What I shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we, that are dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that all we which haue bene baptized into Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 Wee are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead to the glory of the Father, so we also should walke in newnesse of life.

5 For if wee bee planted with him to the

1 He passeth now to another benefit of Christ, which is called sanctification or regeneration:

2 In that corruption: for though the guiltiness of sinne be not imputed to vs, yet the corruption remaineth still in vs: to the which sanctification that followeth iustification by little and little

3 There are three parts of this Sanctification, to wit, the death of the old man or sinne, his buriall and the resurrection of the new man, depending into vs from the veritie of the death, buriall and resurrection of Christ, of which benefit our baptisme is the figure and pledge.

4 To the end that growing up in one with him we should take his strength to growe in sinne in vs, and to make vs new men.

5 Coloss. 12. d That Christ himselfe, being disjoined of his infirmities and weaknesses, might liue in glory with God for ever.

6 And we which are his members, rise for the end, that bring made partakers of the selfe same verities, we should begin to lead a new life, as though we were already in heaven.

The ground of hope is an assured confidence of the conscience, by the gift of the holy Ghost, that we are beloved of God, and that is nothing else but that which we call faith, whereof it followeth, that through faith our confidences are quieted.

10 Wherein the law is our comfort

11 Aduertise that our peace and quietness of conscience be not troubled: for he that followed them that were of no strength

12 And while they were yet sinners, that he died for them, how can he neglect them being now sanctified and liuing in him?

13 In time fit and convenient, which the Father had appointed.

14 Tit. 2.11. 1. Cor. 1.3. 18

15 An amplifying of the loue of God toward vs, so that we cannot doubt of it, who deliuered Christ to death for the vniuersal, and for them of whom he could receive no commodity, and that more in 16 How can it be then that Christ being now alive, should not save them from defolation, when by his death he iustificeth, and reconciles? 3 In the dead of sinners in man.

4 Her death out before vnto vs, that in her death of ourselfe, sin may know assuredly, he will keepe vs with vs.

5 While sinne reigned in vs, it brought affliction and destruction. 9 Hence we passeth ouer to the other part of iustification, which consisteth in the free imputation of the obedience of Christ: so that to the remission of sinnes there is added moreover and besides, the gift of Christ's righteousnesse, imputed or put vpon vs by faith, which I will now set forth.

10 From Adam, in whom all haue sinned, both guiltiness and death, which is the punishment of the guiltiness, came vnto vs.

11 By Adam, who is compared with Christ, life is giuen to them, that also of him take those which are the fruits of that they haue bene so willing in, that shall deriue life from them that were our sinners, and that is death: but Christ maketh them that are his partakers of his righteousnesse by grace, and that vnto life.

12 By sinne is meant that sinne which is ours by inheritance, and not commonly called original sinne: for he which seeth the sinne in the singular number, whereas I see speake of the sinne of it, he seeth the sinne in the plural number, calling it sinnes.

13 Thus in Adam. 14 That this is so that both guiltiness and death began not after the giuing and transgressing of Moses Law, it appeareth manifestly by that, that man died before that Law was giuen: for in that they died sinne, which is the cause of death, was then: and in fact, that was also imputed: whereupon it followeth that there was then some Law, the breach whereof was the cause of death.

15 Euen from Adam to Moses. 16 Where there is no Law made, no sin is punished or punished.

17 But that this Law was not the vniuersal Law, and that that death did not proceed from any shall giue of every one particularly, it appeareth hereby, that the very sinners which neither could nor know nor transgressed that naturall Law, are notwithstanding dead as well as Adam.

18 Our sinners. 19 Not for that but as the sinne that is of most years, following their lusts, but yet the whole posterity as corrupted in Adam, when as he misteiged and willingly sinned.

20 Now that first Adam answered the latter, whose Christ, as it is afterward declared.

21 Adam and Christ are compared together in this respect, that both of them die giue and yeeld to their sinne: which is their sinne: but herein first they differ, that Adam by nature hath spread his fault to the destruction of many, but Christ's obedience hath by grace ouerflowed many.

22 That is, Adam. 23 An other inequality consisteth in this, that by Adams one offence men are made guiltie, but the righteousnesse of Christ imputed vnto vs freely, doth not onely absolve vs from that one fault, but from all other.

13 The Law is the Spirit and the fleſh, and therefore of the Law of God, and one wickedneſſe. For ſince that the Law in a man regenerate bringeth forth death only, therefore in him it may eaſily be accuſed: but ſeeing that in a man which is regenerate, it bringeth forth good fruit, it doth better apper, that cuill actions proceed not from the Law, but from ſinne, that is, from our corrupti-nare: and therefore the Apoſtle teacheth alſo, that the true virtue of the Law is, in reprobating ſinne in the regenerate, vnto the end of the chapter 22 ſaie before (to wit, from the ſeuenth verſe vnto this ſeuenth) he declarerh the will of it in them which are not regenerate.

14 The deeds of my liſe, faith he, and were not, may, they are contrary to my will: Therefore by the conſent of my will with the Law, and repugnance with the deeds of my liſe, it appeareth euidently, that the Law and a right rule will, doe perſwade one thing, but corruption which in her ſea-ſelle the regenerate and her thing. 15 It is to be noted, that one ſelle ſinne in him ſaied to will, and not to will in him reſpect to it, he is ſaied to will, in that he is regenerate by grace: and not to will, in that, that he is not regenerate, or that, that he is in one, he was borne. But because the part which is regene-

16 *That natural corruption, which cleauech liſe to themſelues as regenerate not cleane conque-

17 Was then that which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but ſinne, that it might appear ſinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that ſinne might be yout of meaſure infulfill by the commandment.

18 For we know that the Law is ſpiritual, but I am carnall, ſold vnder ſinne.

19 For I allow not which I do: for what I would, that do I not but what I hate, I do I. 16 If I do then that which I would not, I conſent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I that doe it, but ſinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know, that in me, that is, in my fleſh, dwellen no good thing: for to will is preſent with me: but I find a noe meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing, which I would, but the euill, which I would not, that do I.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the ſinne that dwellen in me.

21 And then that when I would do good, I am thus yoked, that cuill is preſent with me.

22 For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the inner man.

23 But I ſee another law in my members, rebell againſt the law of my mind, and leading me captive vnto the law of ſinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who ſhall deliuer me from the body of this death!

25 I thanke God through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. Then if my ſelfe in my mind ſerue the Law of God, but in my fleſh the law of ſinne.

26 The Law is the Spirit and the fleſh, and therefore of the Law of God, and one wickedneſſe. For ſince that the Law in a man regenerate bringeth forth death only, therefore in him it may eaſily be accuſed: but ſeeing that in a man which is regenerate, it bringeth forth good fruit, it doth better apper, that cuill actions proceed not from the Law, but from ſinne, that is, from our corrupti-

CHAP. VIII.

1 Hee concludeth that, there is no condemnation to them, who are graued in Chriſt, though the Spirit, 2 how power he be as he be damned with ſinne, 3 for they that through ſpirit, 14 whoſe testimony is dwelt in any all ſerue, 28 and reliquies our perſonality.

Now then there is no condemnation to them that are in Chriſt Ieſus, which 2 walke not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit.

3 For the Law of the Spirit of life which is in Chriſt Ieſus, hath freed mee from the law of ſinne and of death.

4 For (that that was) impoſſible to the Law, in as much as it was weak, because of the fleſh, God ſending his own Son in ſimilitude of fleſhly fleſh, and for ſin, he condemned ſin in the fleſh.

4 That that righteous nes of the Law might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that it are after the fleſh, ſauour the things of the fleſh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wiſdom of the fleſh is death: but the wiſdom of the Spirit is life and peace.

7 Becauſe the wiſdom of the fleſh is eni-micitie againſt God: for it is not ſubied to the Law of God, neither in deed can be.

8 So then they that are in the fleſh, cannot plea of God.

9 Now ye are not in the fleſh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Chriſt, the ſame is not his.

We gather hereby, that there is no condemnation to them that have that virtue, because ſayth he, that virtue of the quickening Spirit which is weak in vs, may perfect & moſt mighty in Chriſt, and being imputed vnto vs which belene, canſeſh vs to be ſanctified, as though there were no reliques of corruption, and death in vs: Therefore Paul diſtinctly ſpeaketh of ſinne, and imputation of ſinne, ſaying the Law and alſo of ſanctification which is begun in vs: but now he ſpeaketh of the perfect imputation of Chriſtianship, which part was neceſſarily required to the full appealing of our conſciences: for our ſinne is defeated, by the blood of Chriſt, and the guiltieſſe of our corruption is covered with the imputation of Chriſts obedience: and the corruption it ſelfe which the Apoſtle calleth full ſinne is healed in vs by little & little by the gift of ſanctification, but yet it ſeemeth beſides that another remedy, to wit, the perfect ſanctification of Chriſtianship, which alſo is imputed.

10 The power and authority of theſe 2, a ſanctiſm which is the ſanctiſm of ſinne. 2 Which manerſhip the old man, as 3 ſeruech the new man, 4 To wit, as though he were perfect, 5 For Chriſt ſanctification being imputed vnto vs perfecteth our ſanctification which is begun in vs. 6 Heuelt no argument here, but expounded the myſtery of ſanctification, which is imputed vnto vs, in becauſe, ſayth he, that the virtue of the Law was never ſuch: and that by reaſon of the corruption of our nature, that it could make man pure and perfect: and for that reaſon killed the diſeaſe of fin, then did put it out and extinguiſh it, there our God clothed his Sanna in fleſh like vnto our full fleſh, wherein he vtiely abolished our corruption, that being accounted thoroughly pure and without fault in him apprehended and layd hold on by faith, we might be freed from haerſhip that ſingular perfection which the Law requirerh: and therefore that there might be no condemnation in vs, which is imputed to the Law, but ſanctification by our faith. 7 In man not borne anew, who ſaied ſe the Law could purſue out, but ſe could not heale. 8 Of our nature which corrupteth our fleſh, unwillenly ſanctified. 9 To aboliſh in our fleſh & ſheweth that ſinne had no right in vs. 10 The very ſubſtance of the Law of God might be full ſile, or that one which the Law requirerh, the way he ſanctified before God, for ſin with our full ſanctification there is hope, that Chriſt ſanctification is imputed to vs, we are ſanctified according to our perfect ſinne, for which the Law was never ſuch. 11 Hee returneth to ſay, that he ſaied, that the ſanctification which is begun in vs, is a ſure testimony of our ingraſting into Chriſt, which is a moſt plentiful fruit of a goodly and honeſt liſe. 12 A reaſon why to walke after the fleſh agreech not to them which are graued in Chriſt, but to walke after the Spirit agreech and is meet for them: becauſe, ſayth he, that they which are after the fleſh, ſauour the things of the fleſh, but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 13 They that liue as the fleſh leadeth them. 7 He propoſeth the conſequent: becauſe that where the fleſh ſauoureth, ſhading death death: and where the Spirit ſauoureth that tendeth to ioy and liſe eternalling. 8 A reaſon & prooof, why the wiſdom of the ſiſt in death ſe becauſe, ſayth he, it is the enemy of God. 9 A reaſon why the wiſdom of the fleſh is enemy to God: becauſe it neither will neither can be ſubied to him. And by fleſh he meaneth a man not regenerate. 10 The conſequent, that they that are not ingraued in the fleſh cannot plea of God: whereby it followeth, that they that are not ingraued into Chriſt. 11 Hee cometh to the other, to wit, to them which walke after the Spirit, in whom we haue to vnderſtand ſanctification things to the former: and firſt of all he deſcribeth what it is to be in the Spirit: it is to be ſanctified: to wit, to ſe the Spirit of God dwelling in them: then he declarerh, that ſanctification is obtained and knit to our graſting in Chriſt, that it can by no meanes be ſeparated.

1 A conſequent of all the former diſtinction, from ver. 16 of chap. ſerue, to this place: Seeing that we being iuſtified by faith in Chriſt, doe obtaine remiſſion of ſins, & imputation of righteouſneſſe, and are alſo ſanctified, it followeth hereon, that they that are graued in Chriſt by faith, are ſanctified by faith, to be out of all feare of condemnation. 2 The fruits of the Spirit, or of ſanctification which is begun in vs, doe not ingrat vs into Chriſt, but do declare that we are graued to him, a ſanctiſm in the fleſh for their guide for re it was ſayd to liue after the fleſh, that haue only God for his rule, whoſe ſometimes he ſeem ay. 3 A preſenting of an obſecration: Seeing that the virtue of the ſpirit which is in vs, is ſo weak, how may wrath, and to make his power known, suffer with long patience the y vessels of wrath, prepared to 23 And that hee might declare the riches of his glory vpon the vessels of mercy, which hee hath prepared vnto glory?

24 24 Euen vs whom he hath called, not of the Jewes onely, but alſo of the Gentiles,
25 25 As he ſaith alſo in Oſee, * I wil call them
My people, which were not my people: and her,
Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shall bee in the place where it was said vnto them, * Yee are not my people, that there they shall be called, The children of the living God.

27 ²⁶ Also Eſaias cryeth concerning Iſrael,
* Though the number of the children of Iſrael were as the ſand of the ſea, yet ſhall but a remnant be ſaved.

28 For he wil make his account, and gather it into a ^b short summe with righteousnesse: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.

29 * And as Eſaias ſaid before, Except the Lord of e hoſtes had left vs a ſeede, wee had bene made as Sodome, and had bene like to Gomorrah.

30 27 What shall wee say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousness, haue attained vnto righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 28 But Israel which followed the Lawe of righteousnesse, could not attaine vnto the Law of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the ^l workes of the Law, maye their owne folly. 23 The second answer is this, that besides that he doth iustly decree what hee will: hee doeth decree, on in executing of his decrees, as declareth his singular iustitie, in that, that hee suffereth them a long time, and permitteih and singular benefites, vntil at length he iustly condemne them:

and purpose, to wit, to shew himselfe to bee an enemye and hater, that it may appeare what power hee is of by these sentences, by comparison of contraries, to wit, to shew in deed, how he is able to doo all things. y By these, the Hebrews understand all things. 23. Therefore againe, wee may say with Paul, that some

CHAP. X.

1 He handles the effects of election, 3 that some refuse, and some embrace 4 Christ, whom the end of the Law. 15 Freshness that Moses foretold the calling of the Gentiles, 20 and Elias the hardness of the Jews.

BRethren, I mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3^d For they, ^abeing ignorant of the righte-ousnesse of God, and going about to ^bestablish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnesse of God.

4 * 3 For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousnes vnto^d euery one that beleueth.

5 ¶ + For Moses thus describeth the righteous-nesse which is of the Law, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, * e Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is to bring Christ from above)

7 Or, who shall descend into the deepe? that s to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 5 But what faith it? * Theſe word is neere thee, even in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt gconfeſſe with thy mouth
the Lord Ieſus, and ſhalt beleeuẽ in thine heart, that h God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man i beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with the mouth man confes-seth to saluation.

11 7 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoever * beleueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all that call on him.

Elia (the Apostle) denieth it, and witnesseth that the Gospel was translated to them to the Gentiles, because the Iewes neglected it, and therefore all the Apostle teacheth, that that outward and universal calling, which is set forth by the creation of the world, sufficeth not to the knowledge of God: yes, and that the particular also which is by the word of God, is of itself of small or no efficacy, unless it be apprehended or layd hold on by faith, by the gift of God: otherwise by vnbeliefe it is made void of itself, and that by the only fault of man, who can pretend no ignorance.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they have not beleueed? 9 and how shall they beleue in him, of whom they have not heard? and how shall they here without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautiful are the feet of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 10 But they have not 1 all obeyed the Gospel: for Eliaias faith, * Lord, who hath beleueed our report?

17 11 Then faith ^{is} by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 12 But I demand, Have they not heard?

* No doubt their sound went out through all the earth, and their wordes into the ends of the world.

19 13 But I demand, Did not Israel know God? First Moses saith, * I will prouoke you to enmie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Eliaias is bolde, and saith, I was found of them that sought mee not, and have bene made manifest to them that asked not after mee.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long have I stretched forth mine hand vnto a disobedient, and gaineaying people.

If calling bee a testimony of election, were not the Iewes called? why should I not grant that, faith the Apostle, seeing that there is no nation which hath not been called: much lesse can I say, that the Iewes were not called.

CHAP. XI.

1 Tell the calling off of the Iewes should bee limited according to the outward appearance, 4 He sheweth that the Iewes many times have refused, 16 and that seeing they haue an holy roote, 23 may of them hereafter be saved. 18, 24 Hee setteth the Gentiles to see howe, 33 and crieth out, that Gods judgement is vnchangeable.

1 Now the Apostle sheweth how this doctrine is to be applied to those abiding still in his propound and case. Therefore he teacheth that all the Iewes in particular are not cast away and therefore we ought not to pronounce rashly of private persons, whether they be of the number of the elect or not. 2 The first proofe: I am a Iew, and yet beleued, therefore we may ought fully to reioyce vnto our election, as hath been before said: but of another, we may not be so certainly resolved, and yet ours may cause us to hope well of others. 3 The second proofe: Because that God is faithful in his league with Israel, although men bee faithfull: so that seeing that God hath said, that hee will be the God of his vnto a thousand generations, we must take heede, that we thinke not that the whole race and offspring is cast off, by reason of the vnbeliefe of a few, but rather that we hope well of every member of the Church, because of Gods league and covenant. 4 Which hee loved and chose from euersing.

4 The third proofe, taken from the same that was made to Elia: even then also, when there appeared openly to the face of the world no elect, yet God knew his elect and chosen, and of them also good hope and number. Whereupon this also is concluded, that we ought not rashly to pronounce of any man as one a reprobate, seeing that the Church is often times brought to that state, that euen the most wastefull and thicke sighted pitious thinke it to be cleare extinct and put out. * 1st 13. 7. 10.

4 But what faith the answer of God to him?

* I haue ^{been} referred vnto my selfe leuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then, at this present time is there a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if it bee of grace, it is ^{no} more of works: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace, or els were work no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest have bene ^{so} hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath given them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And David saith, * Let their table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling block, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demand then, Have they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall, saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to provoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them bee the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance bee?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office,

14 To trie if by any means I might prouoke them of my flesh to follow them, and might saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them bee the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiuing bee, ^{but} life from the dead?

25 For if the first fruits bee holy, so is the whole lump: and if the roote bee holy, so are the branches.

CHAP. XV.

1 The stronger must imploy their strength to strengthen the weaker. 3 By Christs example, 7 who receiued. 8 Not only the Iewes, 10 but also the Gentiles, 15 The cause why he wrote this Epistle.

1 WHICH are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weak, and not to please our felues.

2 Therefore let every man please his neighbour in that which is good to edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuked thee, fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things are written aforetime, are writte for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures might haue hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation giue you that ye be like minded one toward another, according to Christ Iesus,

6 That ye with one mind, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the true trust of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the Fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God, for his mercy, as it is written, * For this cause I will be confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe he saith, * Reioyce ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, * Prayfe the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laud ye him all people together.

12 And againe Elias saith, * There shall bee

a roote of Iesse, and hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in beleeuing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 * And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that I ye also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheless, brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore wherof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not speake of any thing, which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deede,

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the spirit of God: so that from Hierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yet, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 * Therefore also I haue bene of set to come vnto you:

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * bene desirous many yeeres agoe to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my journey into spaine, I will come to you for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, after that I haue bene some what filled with your company.

25 But now goe I to Ierusalem, to minister vnto the Saints,

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia & Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saints which are at Ierusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their debtors are they: * for if the Gentiles be made partakers of their spiritual things, their duties is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue sealed them this fruit, I will passe by you into spaine.

29 And I know when I come, that I shall

7 He sealeth vs as increase all the former treatise with prayer, willing all that to bee giuen them of the Lord, that hee had commanded them, in whom we hope, k. Abundantly and plentifully

8 The conclusion of the Epistle, wherein hee first exhorteth himselfe, that hee hath written somewhat as large vnto you, rather to warne them, then to teach them, and that of necessity, by reason of his vocation, which bindeth him peculiarly to the Gentiles.

9 Of our owne accord, and of our selfe, in B, the offering up of the Gentiles, hee nameth the Gentiles them. seue. 1. whom he offered to God as a sacrifice.

10 Hee commendeth his Apostleship highly by the effect, but yet so, that hee moueth and besides that hee speaketh all things cruelly, hee giueth all the glory to God as the only author: and doth not properly respect himselfe, but rather that hee might lesse doubt of the truth of the doctrine which hee propounded vnto them.

11 Christ was with me in all things, and by all meanes, that I would neuer so fauour, as I cannot say, what hee hath done by me to bring the Gentiles to obey the Gospel.

12 In the first place this word, Power, signifieth the force and working of wonder in piercing mens minds: and in the latter, it signifieth Gods mightie power which was the worker of these wonders. * He 5. 15. Chap. 1. 11. 10 Hee writeth at large to the Romanes, and that familiarly, his singular good will towards them, and the state of his affairs, but so, that the Iwarth not a iote from the ende of the Apostolical doctrine: 2 for hee declareth nothing, but that which appertaineth to his office, and is godly: and commanding by a little digression as were the liberality of the Churches of Macedonia, hee proueth them mildly to follow their godly deede. * Thess. 1. 12. P. Doing this duty for the Saints, to carrie home that money which was gathered for their use. 11 Almes are voluntary: but yet such as we owe by the law of charitie. * 1 Corinthus 6. 11. 9 To persevere therein, as * Prayed if faithfull, and laud it is more with singing. f. The name which was gathered for the sake of the Saints which almes it was first called: fruit. 12 Hee moueth them through the blessing of God, not to come empty warne them: and requiring of them the duties of prayer, hee sheweth what thing we ought chiefly to rest upon in all difficulties & aduersities, come 8 Another objection: But how could it be that those which are carnal could not perceive this wisdom? Paul answereth: because we preach things which are foolishness to them, which are the wisdom of God. 1 Cor. 1. 18.

9 But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not seen, neither ear hath heard, neither came into mans heart, etc. which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them vnto vs by his Spirit: for this Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, (saith the Spirit of a man, which is in him) except he be taught of the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speake, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.

14 But the natural man perceiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness vnto him, neither can hee know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritually discerneth all things: yet 15 hee him selfe is iudged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he might instruct him? But we haue the minde of Christ.

10 He teacheth that fourth by a similitude, which hee spake of the inspiration of the Spirit. As the force of mans wit searcheth out things pertaining to man, so doeth our minds by that power of the holy Ghost, vnderstand heavenly things. 1 The minde of man which is enuied with itselfe to vnderstand and iudge. 2 The Spirit which we haue receiued, doeth not teach vs things of this world, but lifteth vs up to God: and thus place teacheth vs, as if the Papies, what faith is, from whence it cometh, and what it becometh. 3 That which hee spake generally, hee relearneth now by teaching what God hath opened vnto vs of our salvation in Christ. 4 Tell that any man should separate the Spirit from the preaching of the word and Christ: or will thinke that those that are called are taught by the Spirit of God, which vnderstandeth the word, then vpon them their vaine imaginations for the secrets of God. 5 This word (word) taken here in a proper sense for true knowledge, which the Spirit of God worketh in vs. 6 Now hee returneth to his purpose, and concludeth the argument which hee began vnto 6, and it is this: The words must be applyed to the matter, and the matter must be set forth with words which are meet and convenient for it: now this wisdom is spiritual and not of man, and therefore it must be deliuered by spiritual kinde of teaching, and not by teaching words of mans eloquence, that the simple and yet wonderful maiesty of the holy Ghost, may therein appeare. * Chap. 1. 17. apt. 1. 16. 7 Applying the words vnto the matter to wit, that as we teach spiritual wisdom, so we must kinde of teaching be spiritual. 8 Again hee searcheth an offence or stumbling block which commeth in to passe that we allow these things. This is not to be maraile at, sayeth the Apostle, seeing that men in their natural powers (as they terme them) are not enuied with that faculty, whereby spiritual things are discerned, (which faculty commeth another way) and therefore they accompt spiritual wisdom as foolish: and it is as if he should say, It is no maraile that blinde men cannot iudge of colours, seeing that they lacke the light of their eyes, and therefore light is to them as darkness. 9 The man that hath no further light of vnderstanding than that which hee bringeth with him, euen from his mothers wombe is like darkness. 10 Iude 19. 9 By the vertue of the holy Ghost. 11 He amplifieth the matter by contraries. 12 vnderstanding and discerneth. 13 The wisdom of the flesh, sayeth Paul, determineth nothing certainly, no not in its owne affairs, much lesse can it discerne things, that is, spiritual things. But the Spirit of God, whereby spiritual men are endued, can be deceiued by no man, and therefore we are to commend no man. 14 Of no man: for whom the Prophet is iudged of the Prophet. 15 is the Spirit that in us, and not the man. 16 Elai 40. 13. from 1. 3. 16 A reason of the former saying: for hee is called spiritual, which hath learned that by the vertue of the Spirit, which Christ hath taught vs. Now if that which wee haue learned of this Master, could be reprooued of any man, hee must needs be wiser then God: whereupon it followeth that they are not only foolish, but also wicked, which thinke that they can deuise some thing that is either more perfect, or that they can teach the wisdom of God a better way then they knewe or taught, which vnderstandeth were endued with Gods Spirit. 17 Lay his head to bus, no teach him what he should doe. 18 We are endued with the Spirit of Christ, who openeth vnto vs his secrets, which by al other means are vnsearchable, and also all things whatsoeuer.

CHAP. III.

1 Hereby is a reason why he preached small matters vnto them: 2 He reuieweth how they ought to esteeme of Ministers: 3 The Ministers office. 4 To true forme of edifying. 16 He warneth the Corinthians, that they be not drawn away to prophetic things. 18 Inuolue the great wisdom of the flesh.

And I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spiritual men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto babes in Christ.

2 I gave you milke to drinke, and not meat: for yee were not yet able to beate it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the Ministers by whom ye beleueed, and as the Lord gaue to every man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gaue the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth, any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and hee that watereth, are one, * and every man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we are together as Gods labourers: yee are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skilful master builder, I haue layd the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heede how hee buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, than that which is layd, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man builde on this founda-

carnall, which are as yet ignorant, and therefore to expresse it the better, he termeth them babes. 6 Substantiall meat, or strong meat. 7 To be fed by mee with substantiall meat: Therefore as the Corinthians grew vpon age, say the Apostle now teach them by teaching first with milke, then with strong meat, which difference may only be in the manner of teaching. 8 By the square and compass of mans wit and iudgement. 9 Alter that he hath sufficiently reprehended ambitious teachers, and their foolish followers, now hee sheweth how the true ministers are to be esteemed, that we attribute not vnto them more or lesse then we ought to doe. Therefore he teacheth vs, that they are they by whom we are brought to faith and salvation, by as yet the ministers of God, and such as doe nothing of themselves, but God working by them as it pleaseth him to furnish them with his gifts. Therefore we haue need to marke or consider what minister is that teacher, knowing hee spoken: and wee must depend vpon him which hee speaketh by his fruits. 3 He beautifieth the former sentence, with his similitudes first comparing the companie of the faithful to a bilde, which God maketh himself when it is sowne and watered through the labour of his seruants: next, by comparing it to an house, which in deede the Lord buildeth, by the hands of his workemen, some of whom hee vseth in laying the foundation. others in building of it. Now, both these similitudes tend to this purpose, to shewe that all things are wholly accomplished by God, onely author in it, and might, so that wee must onely haue an eye to him. Moreover, although that God vseth some in the better part of the worke, we must not therefore commend one, in respect of them, and much lesse may we diuide or set them apart, (as these malicious men did) seeing that all of them labour in Gods businesse, and in such sort that they serue to finish one selfe same worke, although by a diuers manner of working, in so much that they neede one anothers helpe. 11 12. Galat. 6. 12. Letting, under him. 13 You may see that I am not another, not waiting of my owne strength, but as I haue giuen mee by Gods grace, so I haue beene able to do that which I do. Look chapter 1. 10. and 2. 10. and 3. 10. and all the increase that cometh by their labour, which is procured from God, that no part of the praise of it may be giuen to the vnder seruants. 4 Now hee speaketh to the teachers themselves, which succeeded him in the Church of Corinth, and in their person, to all that were after or shall bee Pastours of Congregations, seeing that they succede into the labour of the Apostles, which were planted and chief builders. Therefore he warneth them first, that they prouide not themselves that they may build after their owne fantasie, that is, that they may propound and set forth any thing in the Church, either in matter or in kinde of teaching, different from the Apostles which were the chief builders. 5 Moreover, he sheweth what this foundation is, to wit, Christ Iesus, from which they may not turne away one iota in the building vp of this building. 6 Thirdly, hee sheweth that they must take heede that the upper part of the building be answerable to the foundation, that is, that the doctrines, exhortations, and whatsoever pertaineth to the edifying of the flocke, be answerable to the Doctrine of Christ, as well in matter as in forme: which doctrine is compared to golde, siluer, and precious stones of which matter, Elias also and Iohn in the Reuolution builde the heavenly Citie. And to these is opposed, wood, hay, stubble, that is to say, curious and vaine questions or decrees: and besides, to be shorn all that kinde of teaching which serueth to ostentation. For false doctrines, whereof hee speaketh not here, are not layd properly to be built vpon this foundation, vnlesse peraduenture in few only.

Having declared the worthines of heavenly wisdom, and of the Gospel, and hauing generally condemned the blindness of mans minde, now at length hee applieth it particularly to the Corinthians, calling them carnal, and such as are carnal, in whom as yet the flesh prevaileth against the spirit and hee bringeth a double testimony of it: first, for that hee had proved them to be such, in so much that hee dealt with them no otherwise then with ignorant men, and such as are almost babes in the doctrine of godlinesse: and secondly, because they shewed in deede by these distinctions, which speaking vpon by reason of the ignorance of the vertue of the Spirit: and heavenly wisdom, that they had produced very little or nothing.

1 Hereby is a reason why he preached small matters vnto them: 2 He reuieweth how they ought to esteeme of Ministers: 3 The Ministers office. 4 To true forme of edifying. 16 He warneth the Corinthians, that they be not drawn away to prophetic things. 18 Inuolue the great wisdom of the flesh.

it followeth in this place, that Paul ther would have

11 He taketh away occasion of suspicion by the way, that it might not be thought that he wrote this, though he challenged it was not payed him. Nay Psychicall. I had rather be free, then continue in this purpose to preach the Gospel for money. For I am bound to preach the Gospel, seeing that the Lord hath intoyed me to this office, because I do it willingly and for the love of God, nothing is to be. I would that I do. It had rather that the Gospel should be free spoken of than that I should not require my wages, then would it appear that I took these paines not so much for the Gospels sake, as for my gaines and advantages. But I say, this was not to vie, but abuse my right and libertie. Therefore not only in this thing, but also in all other (as much as I could) I am made all things to all men, that I might winne them to Christ, and might together with them be become to Christ.

12 By taking nothing of them, I am free to preach. * 1. Cor. 16. 3. Gal. 2. 3. p. The word (Law) in this place is not referred to the ceremonial Law. 9 In matters that are indifferent, which we be done or not done, or with good conscience: as if he said, I changed my selfe into all flesh, as for all men I might be done, yea I was both Law and to whom I preach the Gospel, may receive fruit by the Gospel. 10
He bringeth in another case of this mischief, to wit, that they were given to gluttony, for there were several hankers of sacrifices and the rite of the Priests was always too much celebrated and kept. Therefore it was hard for them which were accustomed to intemperance, especially when they pretended the libertie of the Gospel, to be refrained from these banquets: but contrariwise, the Apostle calleth them by a pleasant similitude, and also by his owne example, to sobriety and metification of the flesh, shewing that they cannot be free to consume or worship (as then the state of illumes were) which pampers up their bodies: and therefore affirming that they can have no reward, while they take another course and trade of life.

13 Ye be as those that abstain,

11 * 7 If we have sown vnto you spiritual things, * 7 is a great thing if we reape your carnall things?

12 * 8 If others with you be partakers of this power, are not we rather? neither the less we have not vied this power: but suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 * 9 Doe ye not know that they which minister about the * 7 holy things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which wait at the Altar, are partakers with the Altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should live of the things of the Gospel.

15 But I have vied none of these things: * neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my reioicing vaine.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to reioyce of: for necessity is laid vpon me, and woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I do it willingly, I have a reward, but if I do it against my will, I will not taking the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verily that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ * free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the more.

20 * And to the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the * 7 Law, as though I were vnder the Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Law:

21 To them that are without Law, as though I were without Lawe (when I am not without Lawe as pertaining to God, but am in the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law:

22 To the weakke I became as weakke, that I may winne the weakke: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with * you.

24 * Know ye yet, not that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the price? so runne that ye may obtaine.

25 And every man that contendeth of masteries, abstaineth from all things: & they do it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainly:
so fight I, not as one that beatech the ayre.

to subiection, left by any meanes after that I have they please not themselves, but rather that they prevent the subtilties of Satan. Yet he vtieth an insinuation and comforteth them, that he may not seeme to make them altogether like to those wicked idolaters and contenters of Christ, which perished in the wilderness.

11 A digression which the Apostle voucheth, letteth when he spake of the superiouritie of men, and lower degree of women in consideration of the policie of the Church, should bee taken as though there were no measure of this inequalitye. Therefore hee teacheth that men haue in such sort the pre-eminence that God made them not alone, but women also; and woman was made of man, that men alio be borne by the means of women, and this ought to put them in minde to observe the degree of every exalt in such sort that mutual contumaciousness be cherisht.

12 By the Lord, 13 The virginitie argument taken from the common sense of nature. 14 To be a covering for her, and such a covering as should procure a child. 15 Against such as are doubtfully contentious, we haue to oppose this, that the Churches of God are not contentious. 16 Hee pisseth now to the next treatise concerning the right administration of the Lords Supper. And the Apostle voucheth this chapter preface, that the Corinthians might vnderstand, that whereas they observed generally the Apostolikes commandments, yet they fouly neglected them in a matter of the greatest importance. 17 To celebrate the Lords Supper aright, it is requisite that there be not onely content of doctrine, but also of affection; that it be not prophaned. 18 Although that schismes and heresies proceed from the deuil, and are evil, yet they come awaie by chance, not without cause; and they turne to the profit of the churche. 19 From experience hathing the use of sound Religion and godliness. 20 Thus an usurpation of bread, whereby the Apostles church that faile, which many did not well. 21 As a rebuke to man, and a rebuke to the church. 17 The Apostle thinketh it good to take away the loose lraies, for their abuse, although they had bene a long time and with commendation vied in the Churches, and were appointed and inflituted by the Apostles. 18 Wee must take a true forme of keeping the Lords Supper, out of the institution of it, the parts whereof are these, touching the Pastors, to shew forth the Lords death, by preaching his words: to bleesse the bread and the wine by calling vpon the Name of God, and together with prayers to declare the institution thereof, and finally to deliver the bread broken to bee eaten and the cup receiued to be drunke with thanksgiving. And touching the flocke, that euerie man examine himselfe, that is to say, to proue both his knowledge, his faith, and his repentance, to shew forth the Lords death, that is, in true faith, to yeeld vnto his word and institution; and last of all, to take the bread at the Ministers hand, and to cate it, and to drinke the wine, and to giue God thanks: This was Pauls and the Apostles manner of ministering. * Math. 26. 26, 27, 28, 29. 19 This word (Broken) voucheth out vnto the Christians of old, for although his legges were not broken as the stoakes legges were, yet was his body rent & pierced, and so he, and a brauisa.

27 Wherefore, whoeuer shall eate this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord vnworthily, shalbe guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 Let euery man therefore examine himselfe: and so let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because he discerneth not the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many sleepe.

31 For if wee would iudge our selues, wee should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when yee come together to eat, tary on for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home, that yee come not together vnto condemnation. 35 Other things will I set in order when I come.

no knowledge of Christ, or not sufficient, although they profess Christian religion: and other such like. 1 The place besteth downe the faith of credit, or vnapproved faith which the Payles maintain. 20 He voucheth to distinguish the Lords body, that is, the consideration of the work of his, and therefore cometh to the end of the treatise with great reverence. 21 The prophaning of the body and blood of the Lord in his mysteries, is sharply punished of him, and therefore such a mischief ought diligently to be prevented by iudging and correcting of a nauie life. * 2 Tric and examine our selues, by faith and repentance, separating our selues from the wicked. 22 The Supper of the Lord is a common action of the whole Church, and therefore there is no place for private suppers. 33 The Supper of the Lord was instituted not to feed the belly, but to feed the soule with the Communion of Christ, and therefore it ought to be separate from common baskets. 34 Such things as pertaine to order, as place, time, forme of prayer, and other such like, the Apostle tooke order for in the Congregation, according to the consideration of times, places, and persons.

CHAP. XII.

1 To shew away the Corinthians from contention and pride, hee sheweth that spiritual gifts are therefore awaie by gift.

2 That the same thing is vnto each other explained, 21 we may grow up together into one body of Christ in such equality of operation and measure, 20 as the wine of mens body do.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not haue you ignorant.

2 Yee know that yee were Gentiles, and were carried away vnto the dumbe idoles, as yee were led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Iesus execrable, alio no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but the same God.

brethren, abideth thus to a vaine ostentation, and so robbed the Church of the vife of the gifts. On the other side, the inferior sort coveted the better, and went about to make a deuytury, to that all that body was at it were content and content in pieces. So then hee going about to remedie these abuses, willett them first to consider diligently, that they haue not the gifts of themselves, but from the free grace and liberallitie of God, to whose glory they ought to bestow them all. A Ignorant to what purpose these gifts are giuen you. 2 Hee proueth the same by comparing their former state with that wherein they were at this time ended with these excellent gifts. 3 As touching Gods seruice and the Communion, were freer, 4 The conclusion: Know ye therefore that they cannot for much as manye year lye to hon in Christ willt, but by the grace of the holy Ghost. * 1 Cor. 12. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19. 20 Deth curse him, or by any means shall beauer dimitteth his anger. 21 In the second place, hee layeth and foundation to wit, that these gifts are diuers as the functions alio are diuers, and their effects diuers; that one telle me Spirit and God is the giuer of all these gifts, and that one end, to wit, to the profit of all. 22 The Spirit is plainly distinguished from the gifts. 23 Paul calleth it inward force which cometh from the holy Ghost, and maketh men fit to wonder if things.

g The wise and benefits of the Church.

h We declareth this manifold diversity, and reckoneth up the chiefest gifts, bearing that into their heads, which bee laid before, to wit, that all these things proceeded from one selfe same spirit.

i Wisdom is a most excellent gift, very requisite not only for them which teach, but also for them which are to be taught, and comfort, which is the gift of the Holy Spirit, as the word of wisdom is given to the church.

k By operation hee meaneth those great workings of Gods mighty power which passe and excell all wisdom, as the delivery of his people Israel by the hand of Moses: that which hee did by Elias against the Kings of Baal, in sending downe fire from heaven to consume the sacrifice, and as which hee did by Peter in the matter of Ananias and Sapphira.

m Whereby false prophets are knowne from true, wherein Peter passed Philip in discovering Simon Magus, A. 12. 3. 10. Rom. 12. 3. Ephesians 4. 7. 6 He addeth moreover some thing else, to wit, that though these gifts are vnequall, yet they are most wisely diuised, because the will of the Spirit of God is the rule of this distribution. 7 He setteth forth his former saying by a similitude taken from the bodie. This lieth hee, it manifestly seeme in the body, whose members are diuers, yet they are knit together, that they make but one body. 8 The applying of the similitude. So must we also thinke, with hee of the mystrical body of Christ: for all we that beleeue, whether we be Iewes or Gentiles, are by one selfe same Baptisme ioyned together with his oord, that by that means, there may be framed one body compact of many members: and we haue drinke one selfe same Spirit, that is to say, a spiritual feeling, presence, and motion common to vs all, out of one cuppe. 9 Christ stayned together with his Church. 10 To become one body with Christ. 11 By one quai-ling drinke of the Lords blood were made partakers of his holy Spirit. 12 He amplifieth that which followed of the similitude: as if he should say, The vinity of the body is not onely not let by this diuersity of members: but also it could not be a body, if it did not consist of many and thos diuers members. 13 Now hee buildeth his doctrine vpon the foundations which hee laid last: and fill of all hee continueth in his purposed similitude, and afterward hee goeth to the matter barely and simply. And first of all hee speaketh vnto them, which would haue separated themselves from this li- faith hee, as if the loote should say, it were not of the body, because it is not the hand, or the ear, because it is not the eye. Therefore all parts ought rather to defend the vinity of the body, being coupled together to serue one the other. 14 Again, speaking to them, hee sheweth them that if they should come to passe which they desire, to wit, that all should be equal one to another, there would follow a destruction of the whole body, yea, and of themselves: for it could not be a body, vnlesse it were made of many members knit together, 15 2 diuers one from the other. And that no man might haue fault with this diuision vnequall, hee addeth that God himselfe hath coupled all these together. Therefore all must remaine coupled together, that the body may remaine in safety.

God is the same which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to euery man to profit withall.

8 5 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom: and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is given faith by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 And to another the operations of great workes: and to another, the prophesie: and to another, the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh one and the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man severally, as he will.

12 7 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: so euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are wee all baptized into one body, whether we be Iewes, or Grecians whether we be bond or free, and haue bene all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 9 For the body also is not one member but many.

15 10 If the foot would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, it is therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 11 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members yet but one body.

21 12 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no need of thee, nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to bee more feeble, are necessary.

23 And vpon those members of the body, which we thinke most vnhonour, put wee more honestly one: and our vncomely parts haue more comeliness on.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked.

25 Left there should be any diuision in the body: but that the members should haue the same care one for another.

26 13 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member bee had in honour, all the members reioice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members for his part.

28 * And God hath ordained some in the Church: as first, Apostles, secondly, Prophets, thirdly, teachers, then them that doe miracles. After that, the gifts of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersity of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the gifts of healing? doe all speake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 14 But desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shew you a more excellent way.

community both in commodities and discommodities. Of the smallest and vilest officers, and therefore really accounted of, of the rest. 9 We more carefully count them. 10 Should bestow their operations and office to the profit and preservation of the whole body. 13 Now he applieth the same doctrine to the Church, without any allegory, warning them that seeing there are diuers functions and diuers gifts, it is their duty, not to offend one against another, either by enuie or ambition, but rather that they be ioyned together in loue and charity one with another, euery one of them below to the profit of all, that which hee hath received, according as his ministry doth require. For all Churches wherefore they are dispersed thorow the whole world are diuers members of one body. Ephesians 4. 11. 8 The offices of Deacons. 10 He setteth forth the order of Elders, which were the stewards of the Churches discipline. 14 He teacheth them that are ambitious and enuious, a certaine holy ambition and enuie, to wit, if they giue themselves to the best gifts, and such as are most profitable to the Church, and so if they content to excell one another in loue, which fauour passeth all other gifts.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He sheweth that there are no gifts so excellent, which in Gods sight are not corrupt, as charity is: and therefore hee directeth vnto the commendation of it.

Though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or as tinkling cympan.

2 And though I had the gifts of prophesie, and knew all secrets and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I could remooue mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feed the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body that it be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth mee nothing.

the ede wherefore those gifts are given. For to what purpose are those gifts due to Gods glory and the profit of the Church, as is before pronounced? so that those gifts without Charity, haue no right life. A very excellent kind of amplying a matter as if he said, If there were any teachers of Angels, and I be them, and not as I were to the benefit of my neighbours, it were nothing else but a noise and prating kind of talking. 8 That growth and increase of charity is the best and most profitable of all gifts, and that it is the best in which we should dwell, which cannot be won of charity at the other way. Mat. 17. 10.

23 Now on the other side, he speaketh vnto them which were induced with more excellent gifts, willing them not to dispute the inferior as vnprofitable, and so though they seemed to no one: for God, faith, hee hath in such sort tempered this inequality, that the more excellent and beautiful members can in no wise lacke the more abied and such as we are ashamed of, and that they should haue more care to see vnto them and to couer them: that by this means the usefulness which is in all parts might keepe the whole body in peace and concord: that although if each part be considered apart, they are of diuers degrees & conditions, yet because they are ioined together, they haue a community both in commodities and discommodities.

Of the smallest and vilest officers, and therefore really accounted of, of the rest. 9 We more carefully count them. 10 Should bestow their operations and office to the profit and preservation of the whole body. 13 Now he applieth the same doctrine to the Church, without any allegory, warning them that seeing there are diuers functions and diuers gifts, it is their duty, not to offend one against another, either by enuie or ambition, but rather that they be ioyned together in loue and charity one with another, euery one of them below to the profit of all, that which hee hath received, according as his ministry doth require. seeing hee knoweth not what thou sayest?

18 ¶ I thank my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake 9 few wordes with mine vnderstanding, than I might also instruct others, then ten thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 ¶ Brethren, bee not * children in vnderstanding, but as concerning maliciousnesse bee children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, * By men of other tongues, & by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare mee, saith the Lord.

22 ¶ Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: but prophesying serueth not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue.

23 ¶ If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueeth not, or one vnlearned, hee is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all,

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face, and worship God, and say plainly that God is in you in deed.

26 ¶ What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalm, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 ¶ If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaks languages and let him speake to himselfe and to God.

29 ¶ Let the Prophets speake: two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne and all may haue comfort.

32 And the * spirits of the Prophets, are subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, we in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 ¶ Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also * the Law sayth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home, for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 ¶ Came the word of God out from you either came it vnto you only?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to bee a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandments of the Lord.

38 ¶ And if any man be ignorant, let him bee ignorant.

39 ¶ Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things bee done honestly, and by order.

ought not to care for such a be flubborious [sore], & will not but the forward notwithstanding in those things which are please ought simply to be retained and kept in Congregations is not to be forbidden, but all things must be done orderly.

¶ The Gospel that Paul preached. ¶ The death and resurrection of Christ. ¶ Paul and Christ. ¶ He had preached in all the Churches of Christ. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour.

¶ O reouer, ¶ brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue also receiued, and wherein yee continue.

2 And whereby yee are saved, if ye keepe in memory, after what manner I preached it vnto you, except ye haue beleued in vaine.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, how that Christ died for our finnes, according to the * Scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that hee arose the third day according to the * Scriptures,

5 * And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that he was seene of more then five hundred brethren at once, whereof many remaine vnto this present, and some also are asleepe.

7 After that he was seene of Iames: then of all the Apostles.

8 ¶ And last of all he was seene also of mee, as of one borne out of due time.

9 ¶ For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 ¶ But by the grace of God I am that I am: and his grace which is with me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, ¶ Christ is risen and last of all by his owne. ¶ Gal. 1. 1. ¶ In the presence of all the brethren. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour.

16 A general conclusion of the treatise of the righte of Christ. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour. ¶ He was much a minister. ¶ The first fruit of his labour.

8 Hee propounded himselfe for an example, both that they may be ashamed of their foolish ambition, and also that hee may cleaue all suspicion of enuie. ¶ A very few words. ¶ Now hee reprotheth them freely for their childlike folly, which hee not how this gift of tongues which was giuen to the Church is turned by their ambition into an instrument of confounding, seeing that this Iames also contained a amongst the punish ments where with God punished the flubboriousse of his people, that hee dispersed them amongst strange: whose language they vnderstand not. ¶ Math. 18. 3. ¶ By the Law be vnderstandeth all the words of Scrip ture. ¶ Iam. 18. 11. ¶ The conclusion. ¶ Therefore the gift of tongues serueth to punish the faithfull and vbelievers: velle is hee referred to prophesie (that is to say, to the interpretation of Scripture) and that that which is spoken, be by that means vnder stood of the hearers. ¶ 3. Another argument. The gift of tongues with out prophesie is not only vnprofitable to the faithfull: but also doth very much hurt as well to them as to the vnfaithfull which should be welcome in the publicke assemblies. For by this meanes it cometh to passe, that the faithfull seeme to other to be mad, much lesse can the vnfaithfull be instructed thereby. ¶ 1. Look Aft. 13. 12. The conclusion. The edifying of the Congregation is a rule & measure of the righte of all spiritual gifts. 13. The manner how to vse the gift of tongues. It may be lawfull for one or two, or at the most for three to vse the gift of tongues, one after another in an assemblie, so that there be come to expound the same: but if they bee come to respond, let him that hath that gift speake to himselfe alone. 14. The manner of prophesying. Let two or three propound, and let the other iudge of that is propounded, whether it be agreeable to the word of God or no: If in this examination the Lord giue any man ought to speake, let them giue him leave to speake. Let euery man be admitted to prophesie liberally and in his order, so farre forth as it is requisite for the edifying of the Church. Let them be content to be subiect to others judgement. ¶ The doctrine which the Prophets bring which is a gift from God to his Spirit. ¶ 15. Women are commanded to be silent in publicke assemblies, and they are commanded to aske of their husbands at home. ¶ 1. 7. 1. 12. ¶ 1. 7. 1. 12.

countenance (which glory is done away)

8 How shall not the manifestation of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of righteousness exceede in glory.

10 For even that which was glorified was not glorified in this point, That is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For it: that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such trust, wee are great boldnes of speech.

13 * And we are not as Moses, which put a vail upon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the end of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the olde Testament, which vails in Christ is put away.

15 But even vnto this day when Moses is red, the vail is laid ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheless, when their heart shall be turned to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all behold as in a mirrour the glory of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

1 The Lawe, and for as much as the Lawe is together with Moses, it is abolished, if we consider the ministration of Moses a part by itselfe. 2 Hee sheweth wherein his shadow sheweth this glory of the preaching of the Gospel, to wit in that which letteth forth plainly and evidently, that which the Lawe shewed darkly, for he lent them that heard it, to be healed of Christ, which was to come, after it had wounded them. 3 Exod. 34. 34. 4 He expoundeth by the allegory of Moses his couering, which was a token of the darkness and weake that is in men, which were rather dulled by the bright shining of the Lawe, then lightened: 5 which couering was taken away by the coming of Christ who lighteth the hearer, and turneth them to the Lord, that we may be brought from the shadow of this world, and let in the liberty of the light, by the vertue of Christs Spirit. m Into the very bottom of Moses his ministration, in Christ is that Spirit, which letteth away that couering, by working in our hearts wherewith the Lawe is selfe catted vs, though in vain, because it speaketh to dead men, vntill this Spirit quicken vs. * John. 4. 14. 5 Going forward in the allegory of the couering, he compareth the Gospel to a glasse, which although it be most bright and sparkling, yet doth it not only not dazzle their eyes which looke into it, as the Law doeth, but also transformeth them with it beames for that they also be partakers of the glory and shining off it, to lighten others: as Christ said vnto his, You are the light of the world, where as he himselfe was the only light. We are also commanded in another place to shine as candles before the world, because we are partakers of Gods Spirit: but Paul speaketh here properly of the ministers of the Gospel, as it appeareth both by that that goeth before, and that that cometh after, and that setting before them his owne example and his fellows.

CHAP. III.

1 The strength that hee hath laboured in preaching the Gospel, 4 that such are the blinded of Satan who doe not perceive the brightness thereof, 7 that the same is certaine carnall respect, 10 who are subject to many miseries: 16 and therefore be exhorteth them by his owne example to be our ioungs. 17 and to renewe their present life.

Therefore, seeing that we have this ministration, as we haue receiued mercie, wee are faint not:

2 But haue cault from vs the clothes of shame, and walke not in craftines, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully but in declaration of the truth, we approue our felues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

1 Now he plainly witnesseth that both hee and his fellows (through the mercy of God) doe their vocation & duty willingly and sincerely neglecting all dangers. 2 Though we are broken in peace with miseries and calamities, yet we yield not. 3 Subtiltie, and kinde of deceipt, which men hunt after as it were demes and working holes, to cover their shamefull dealing withall. 4 This is that in the former Chapter he called making merchandise of the word of God, a Anobscuration: Many haue called Gospel, and yet are no more lightened thereby, then by preaching of the Law. He answered, The fault is in the men themselves, whose eyes stand plucked out, who will not see this world. And yet notwithstanding death here and his fellows followeth the most precious light of the Gospel to be true and be holden seeing that Christ whom only they preach, is hee in whom only God will be knowne, and as it were seene.

4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For we preach not our felues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our felues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkness, is he which hath shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 And we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 Wee are afflicted on euery side, yet are wee not in distresse: we are in doubt, but yet wee despair not.

9 Wee are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where we beare about in our body the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because we haue the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, "I beleueed, and therefore haue I spoken, wee also beleue, and therefore speake."

14 Knowing that he which hath raised vp the Lord Iesus, shall raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that that most plenteous grace by the thankgiuing of many may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore we faint not: but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed dayly.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vs to vs a farre more excellent and an eternal weight of glory:

18 While we looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are seene, are temporal: but the things which are not seene, are eternal.

hee, that all men may perceiue that they stand not by any mans vertue, but by the singular vertue of God, in that they die thousand times, but neuer perish. 6 An amplification of the former sentence, wherein hee compareth his afflictions to a daily death, and the vertue of the Spirit of God in Christ, to life, which opposeth that death. 7 So Paul causeth that miserable ease and contentment, that the flesh findeth, but especially the ministers are in. 8 Which like this life, to wit, by the Spirit of Christ among many and great miseries. 9 Subject to that miserable condition. 10 A very cunning conclusion: as it he would say. Therefore to be short, we die, that you may liue by our death, for that they venturing into all the dangers for the building of the Churches sake, and they ceased not to continue all the faithful with the examples of their patience. 8 He declareth the former sentence, shewing that he and his fellows die in a sort to purchase life to others, but yet notwithstanding they are partakers of the same life with them: because if they themselves doe first beleue that, which they propose to others to beleeue, to wit, that also shall be saved together with them in Christ. m The same faith by the inspiration of the same Spirit. * Pal. 116. 10. 9 He sheweth how this constancie is interpreted in them, to wit, because they iustify Gods glory, and the salvation of the Churches committed vnto them. 10 Whom shall praise God to deliuer me, and restore me to you that that exceeding benefit which shall be poured upon mee, shall in like sort redound to the glory of God by the thankgiuing of many. 11 Hee addeth that it were a triumph long, how that he is once daily afflicted, but inwardly he profiteth dayly, and passeth not at all for all the miseries that may be sustained in this life, in comparison of that most constant and eternal glory. 12 As it were now strength that the outward man be overcome with the miseries which come: as it were upon the thankgiuing of many, being rewarded with a spiritual strength with the strength of the inward man. 13 Whom we call liue, as though they were liue of themselves, but liue in the power of God, which remaineth for our firme and stable, and as weauer be shaken.

He sheweth the Corinthians a picture of a true minister, in his own example, and Titimous and Silvanus to the end, that as he purposed from the beginning he might procure authority to himselfe and his like.

1 He sheweth the Corinthians a picture of a true minister, in his own example, and Titimous and Silvanus to the end, that as he purposed from the beginning he might procure authority to himselfe and his like.

2 He declareth and sheweth instead.
3 Cor. x. 4. He fillt of all reckonings, yea those which are neither alwayes in the ministers nor without exception, velle it bee according to the affection of the mind, patience onely except, which also is one of the vertues which ought to be alwayes in a good minister.
5 In saying so and fro, giving no place of his antiquity.

6 Secondly he reckoneth vpon such vertues as are necessary, and ought alwayes to be in them, and where by at by good armour, all lent and his demerits may become com.

7 Preaching of the Gospel.
8 Power to worke miracles, and to bring vnder the yoked.

9 Verifying himselfe.

10 Going about to reuenge them he, faith full, what he dealeth with them, sincerely and with an open and plaine heart, and therewithal complaineth that they do not like in loosing againe their Father. 11 The opening of the mouth and heart, to shew a most earnest affection in him that speaketh at first heartily, and then as it were in some greater. 12 You are in mine heart, as in an house, and that no narrow or strait house, for I haue opened my whole heart vnto you, but you are inwardly strait laced to me and. 13 After the manner of the Hebrewes, he calleth those tender afflictions, which rust in the heart, bowels. 14 Now be rebuketh them boldly, for that they became fellows with infidels, in outward idleness, although it were a thing indifferent. And this is the fourth part of this Epistle, the conclusion whereof is, that such as the Lord hath vouchsafed the name of his children, must keepe themselves pure, not onely in mind, but also in body, that they may wholly be holy vnto the Lord. 15 1 Cor. x. 16. 17. fuccoured thee : behold now the accepted time, behold now the day of oblation.

3 Wee giue no occasion of offence in any thing that our ministry should not bee reprehended.

4 But in all things we bapproue our selues as the ministers of God, 4 in much patience in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses.

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours.

6 By watchings, by fastings, by purity by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindenesse, by the holy Ghost, by loue vnfained.

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteounesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by euill report, and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true :

9 As vnknewen, and yet knowne : as dying, and behold, we liue : as chastened, and yet not killed :

10 As forrowning, and yet alway reioicing : as poore, and yet making many rich : as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our mouth is open vnto you : our heart is made large.

12 Ye are not kept strait in vs, but ye are kept strait in your owne bowels.

13 Now for the same recompence I speake as to my children, Be you also enlarged.

14 7Be not vnequally yoked with the Infidels : for what fellowship hath righteounesse with vnrigheteounesse ? and what communion hath light with darkenesse ?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial ? or what part hath the beleeuer with the infidel ?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idoles ? * for ye are the Temple of the liuing God : as God hath said, * I will dwell among them, and walke there : and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 * Wherefore come out from among them, and separate your selues faith the Lord and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 * And I will bee Father vnto you, and yee shall becomy sonnes and daughters, faith the Lord Almighty.

19 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idoles ? * for ye are the Temple of the liuing God : as God hath said, * I will dwell among them, and walke there : and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

20 * Wherefore come out from among them, and separate your selues faith the Lord and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

21 * And I will bee Father vnto you, and yee shall becomy sonnes and daughters, faith the Lord Almighty.

22 * And I will bee Father vnto you, and yee shall becomy sonnes and daughters, faith the Lord Almighty.

23 * And I will bee Father vnto you, and yee shall becomy sonnes and daughters, faith the Lord Almighty.

2 * Receive vs : we haue done wrong to no man : wee haue corrupted no man : wee haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation : for I haue said before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speach toward you : I reioyce greatly in you, I am filled with comfort and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on euery side, fightings without, and terrors within.

6 But God that comforteth the debaich, comforted vs at the comming of Titus.

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith he was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent mind to me ward, so that I reioiced much more.

8 * For though I made you sorry with a letter I repent not, though I did repent : for I perceive that the same Epistle made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance : for ye sorrowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 For godly sorrow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of : but the worldly sorrow caueth death.

11 For behold this thing that yee haue bene godly sorry, what great care it hath wrought in you : yea, what clearing of your selues : yea, what indignation : yea, what feare : yea, how great desire : yea, what a zeale : yea, what reuenge : in all things yee haue shewed your selues, that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted because yee were comforted : but rather wee reioiced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed : but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

17 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

18 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

19 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

20 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

21 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

22 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

23 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

24 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

25 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

26 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

1 He returneth againe from that aduersion to his owne petition opening the testimony as both of his faithfulness and also of his continual good will towards them. 2 Let me haue some place among you, that I may teach you. 3 To condone you of vncleane fear sickness. 4 Whose heares are soft downe, and are very farr spent. 5 With those things which Time sold me of you as his comming to you, how fruitfully you receiued my letter, more than I expected : that I an exceedingly refreshed with his presence.

2 An objection : But thou hast handled vs roughly : the Apollonius saith that he uisited this roughness with his griefe. And he addeth moreover, that he is also glad now, that he had done them to that sorrow, although it was against his will, since it was profitable vnto them : for there is sorrow not onely praise worthy, but also necessary, to wit, which reuoluntance groweth by certaine degrees, for the which repentance he prayeth them highly. And this is the first part of this Epistle.

3 Inasmuch as I sorrowed much good toward the annding of you to Iudgement and sinne.

4 Godly sorrow is when we are not satisfied with the feare of punishment.

5 But because I met feele we haue offended God, our most mercifull Father : contrary to this, there is another sorrow that only teacheth punishment, or when a man is vexed for the lust of some worldly goods : the fruit of the first is repentance, the fruit of the second is desperation : whilste the Lord helpe speedily. 6 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

6 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

7 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

8 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

9 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

10 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

11 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

12 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

13 It was not colour to me : for I reioice but such as I desire should be true to God.

* Tois of body and soule, that by this means the sanctification may be perfect, consisting in both the parts thereof.

CHA VII.

1 Left by overmuch urging them, he should dissuay their tender minde, 2 he prometh that all that he sayeth, 3 proceeded of the great good will he beareth vnto them. 8 and therefore they should not be offended that he made them sorry, 10 and brought them to repentance not to leaue of.

Seeing then we haue the promises, dearly beloved, let vs cleane our selues from all filthines of the flesh and spirit, and finish our sanctification in the feare of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He exhorteth them by the example of the Macedonians, 2 and as shew of Christ himselfe, 3 to 10 to labour towards the faith 16 for which purpose, he sheweth that Titus, 18 and another brother came vnto them.

WE doo you also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Hierusalem might be holpen in time conuenient. And first of all he telleth how before them the example of the Churches of Macedonia, which otherwise were brought by great misery to extreme penurie, to the end that they should follow them. 2 The benefit that God bestowed vpon the Churches.

3 The first part of this epistle concerning diuers exhortations to stirre up the Corinthians to liberallitie, wherewith v poverty of the Church of Hierusalem might be holpen in time conuenient. And first of all he telleth how before them the example of the Churches of Macedonia, which otherwise were brought by great misery to extreme penurie, to the end that they should follow them. 4 The benefit that God bestowed vpon the Churches.

ches of Macedonia.

2 Because in ^b great triall^c of affliction thy joy abounded, and their most exche pueritie abounded vnto their rich liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea and beyond their power they were ^e willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance, that we would receive the ^g grace, and fellowship of the ministring which they did the Saints.

5 And thus they said, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne leues, fitt to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God.

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as hee had begun, so he would also accomplishe the same grace among vs also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, ^h thus so sit that ye abound in this grace also.

8 This I say not by commandement, but because of the ⁱ diligence of others: therefore proue I the ^k liberallnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pueritie might be made rich.

10 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to doe only, but also to ^l w.l.a. yee agree.

11 Now therefore performe to do it also, that as ^m there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may performe it of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be eased and you grieved, But vpon ⁿ like condition, at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke:

14 That also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitie.

15 As it is written, ^o "hee that gathered much had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse."

16 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea he was to carefull, that of his owne accord hee went vnto you.

18 And we haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise ^p is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches.

19 (And not so only, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iourney concerning this ^q grace that is ministrif by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde.)

20 Auiding this, that no man should blame vs in this ^r abundance that is ministrif by vs.

21 ^s "Providing for honest things, not only before the Lord, but also before men."

22 And we haue sent with them our brother whom we haue of times proued to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great consideration which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe exhort of Titus, ^t be in y fellow and helper to youward, or ^u of euil brethren, they are not helpers of the Churches, and the ^v glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore sit ye toward them, and shew the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioicing that we haue of you.

dealing in whole presence you see, for much as you see the minister, whom they haue chosen, shall their content, and so their reioicing.

CHAP. IX.

3 Why, all the fresh blood at their ready will. 3 yea. 4 the speciall attention, 4 the speciall attention, 4 the speciall attention, 4 the speciall attention.

Or ^w as touching the ministrif to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of mind, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioicing over you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue said) be ready.

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, wee, that we may not say, you should be ashamed in this my ^x constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come beere vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of nigardliness.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As currency ^y witheth in his heart, ^z so let him give, nor ^a grudgingly, or of necessity: ^b for God loueth a cheerefull giver.

8 And God is able to make ^c all grace to abound toward you, that ye always hauing all sufficiency in all things, may abound in euery good worke.

2 He sheweth with what confidence, 4 with what weapons, 6 and with what revenge, he armed against the casualties of the wicked. 7 and that, when he is present, he denateth haue no left power, 11 shew his words be true when he is absent.

NOW ¹ I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meeknesse, and ² gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, ^{am} bafe, but am bold toward you being absent:

2 And thus I require you, that I neede not to be bolde, when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though we walked ^b according to the flesh.

3 ^a Neuertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet doe we not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through ^d God, to cast downe holdes.)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, ³ and bringing into captivity euery thought to the obedience of Christ.

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 ^a Looke ye on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christs, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he ^{is} Christs, euen so are we Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 Thus I say, that I may not seeme as if we were to faue you with letters.

10 For the letters, sayeth shee, are fore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speech is of no value.

3 Being constrained to reuell the foolish bragging of certain ambitious men, hee winneth, that they are able to bring nothing but that they lafully perfwade themselves of themselves, and as for himselfe although hee bragge of excellencies, yet hee will not putt the bounds which God hath measured him out according whereunto hee come euen vnto them in preaching the Gospel of Christ, and trusteth that hee shall goe further, when they haue so profited that hee shall not neede to carie any longer amongst them to instruct them. And hereunto is added an amplification, in that hee neuer succeeded other men in their labours. d ¹⁰ This is spoken after at coming fore.

CHAP. XI.

2 He reuileth that for the great lawes that he heareth to the Corinthians he is compelled, 5 to utter his owne prayer: 9 and that he bestoweth his labour on them without any reward, 13 that the false apostles should not surpass him in any thing, 22 whom he far exceedeth in those things which are praise worthy in deed.

WOULD ¹ to God yee could suffer a little my foolishnes, and in deed ye suffer me.

2 For I am ialous ouer you with ^a godly ielousie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, ^b to present you ^{as} a pure virgin to Christ.

3 But I feare lest as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtilty, so your mindes should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in ^d Christ:

4 ² For if he that cometh, preacheth ^e another Iesus whom we haue not preached: or if ye receiue another spirit whom ye haue not receiued: either another Gospel which yee haue not receiued, ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chiefe Apostles.

7 ^a Haue I committed an offence, because I abused my selfe that ye might be exalted, & because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches and tooke wages of them to do you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had neede, ^a I was not slouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia

But herein sayeth the Apostle, what can you say against me, but that I was content to take any paines for your sakes, and when I lacked to trauell for my living with mine owne handes in part, and partly also when pouertie constrained me. 4 He concludeth, that he will only let his mercies against the vaine bragges of the false Apostles, and therein also reuolue himselfe, for that by their importunity, he was constrained to be like to make of these things as he did: to wit, because that if his Apostleship were substantiated, his doctrine might needs fall.

1 That I may see the vertue of Ch. 12 more and more: For the weaker that our arguments are, the more doth Christ's vertue appear in them.

2 I do not only see them inwardly and with a good heart, but also I see great pleasure in them.

3 Again he marketh the Corinthians witnesses of those things whereby God had sealed his Apostleship amongst them, and again he declareth by certain arguments, how farre he is from all conceitnesse, and also how he is alloted towards them.

4 The arguments whereby it may well appear, that I am indeed the Apostle of Iesus Christ.

5 Chap. 11. 9. 10 I was not feigning in getting my word band, that I might not be burdened to you. 6 He putteth away another most grievous slander, to wit, that he did subtilly, and by others, make his gaine and profite of them.

7 He concludeth, that he wretcheth not these things unto them, as though he needed to defend himselfe, for hee is guilty of nothing: but because it is beneuolent for them to doubt nothing of his fidelity who intreated them, as As it becometh him to speake truly and sincerely, that professeth himselfe to be in Christ, thus he saies to let a Christen man 8 Having confirmed his authority vnto them he rebuketh them sharply, and threatneth them also like an Apostle, shewing that he will not spare them hereafter, vntill they repent, seeing that this is the third time that he hath warned them.

for thee: for my power is made perfect through weaknesse. 4 Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: yee haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great works.

13 For what is it, wherein ye were inferior vnto other Churches, * Except that I haue not bin so flouthfull to your hinderance? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be flouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestow, and will be bestowed for your souls, though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not: yet for as much as I was crazie, I looke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe-same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, thinke ye that wee excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I feare lest when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found vnto you such as you would not, and lest there be strife enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God abase me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse which they haue committed.

that he did subtilly, and by others, make his gaine and profite of them. 7 He concludeth, that he wretcheth not these things unto them, as though he needed to defend himselfe, for hee is guilty of nothing: but because it is beneuolent for them to doubt nothing of his fidelity who intreated them, as As it becometh him to speake truly and sincerely, that professeth himselfe to be in Christ, thus he saies to let a Christen man 8 Having confirmed his authority vnto them he rebuketh them sharply, and threatneth them also like an Apostle, shewing that he will not spare them hereafter, vntill they repent, seeing that this is the third time that he hath warned them.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Comming the third time, 2 He denounce to the flasper vengeance towards them, 3 who haue apostatized from the power of Christ in his Apostleship: 4 As long he prayeth for their repentance, 5 And willeth them to persevere.

1 Oe, this is the third time that I come vnto you. * In the matter of two or three witnesses shall euery word stand.

2 I told you before, and tell you before: as though I had bene present the second time, I wrote I now being absent, to them, which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare.

3 Seeing that ye seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in mee, which toward you is not weak, but is mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his infirmity, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And we no doubt are weak in him, but wee shall liue with him, through the power of God toward you.

5 * 2 Proue your selues whether ye are in the faith. examine your selues: know yee not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God that ye doe none euill, not that we should seeme approved, but that ye should doe that which is honest: though wee be as reprobates.

8 For we cannot doe any thing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For wee are glad when we are weak, and that ye are strong: this also we wish for, even your perfection.

10 Therefore write I these things being absent, lest when I am present, I should vse sharpnesse, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen me, to edification, and not to destruction.

11 4 Finally brethren, fare ye well: be perfect: be of good comfort, be of one mind: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shall be with you.

12 5 Greete one another with an holy kisse. All the Saints salute you.

13 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, and the loue of God, and the communion of the holie Ghost be with you all, Amen.

30 But what faith the Scripture? * Put out the servant and her sonne: for the sonne of the servant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the servant, but of the free woman.

For the children of the bondmaid shall not be heires.

CHAP. V.

1 Flaming declared that we came of the free woman, hee sheweth the price of that freedom. 13 And how we should use the same, 16 that we may obey the Spirit, 19 and resist the flesh.

2 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and be not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

3 * Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye bee circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

4 For I testifie againe to euery man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Lawe.

5 Yee are * abolished from Christ: whosoever are iustified by the Lawe, ye are fallen from grace.

6 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness through faith.

7 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but e faith which worketh by loue.

8 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the truth?

9 It is not the perswasion of him that calleth you.

10 A little leaven doeth leaven the whole lump.

11 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwi e minded: but he that troubleth you, shall beare his condemnation, whosoever he be.

12 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse abolished.

13 Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe so disquiet you.

14 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: * onely vs not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

15 For all the Law is fulfilled in one word which is this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

16 Ye bite and deuoure one another, take heed least ye be consumed one of another.

17 Then I say, * walke in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

18 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary one to another, so that ye cannot doe the same things that ye would.

19 And if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not vnder the Lawe.

20 Moreover the works of the flesh are manifest, which are adulterie, fornication, vncleanes, wantonnesse,

21 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulations, wrath, contentions, editions, heresies, 22 Enuie, murders, drunkennesse, gluttonie, and such like, whereof I tell you before, as I also haue tolde you before, that they which do such things, shall not inherite the kingdom of God.

23 But the fruite of the Spirit, is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

24 Meekenes, temperancie: * against such there is no Lawe.

25 For they that are Christs, haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lusts.

26 I we live in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the Spirit.

27 Let vs not be desirous of vaine glory, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

Rom 7. 14. 1. For 7. 15. For the flesh dwelleth in euil in the regenerate man, but the Spirit resisteth, although not without great strife, as in large yet further Rom. 7. 16. He testifieth out that patiently, which he spake generally, reckoning vs none chiefe effects of the flesh and opposing them to the fruits of the Spirit, that no man may preterpound. * Therefore they are not the fruits of free will, but so farre from it as our will is made free by grace. 17. Let that any man should object, that Paul plaied the Sophister, as one who vrging the Spirit, vttereth nothing but that which the Law commandeth. hee sheweth that hee requirith not that literal and outward obedience, but spiritual, which proceedeth not from the Law, but from the Spirit of Christ, which doth beget vs againe, and maketh a change to be in the mind and guide of our life. I f we bee made mad with the queneing Spirit, which causeth vs to die to sinne, and thus to God, let vs shew in our end, that vs, by holiness. 18. Hee addeth petre and his exhortations according as he knewe the Galatians subiect to diuine vices, and full of all the wantrenesse to take heed of ambition, which vice hath two fellows, backbiting and enuie, out of which two it cannot be, but many contentions must need arise.

CHAP. VI.

1 Now hee intreateth particularly of charity towards such as offend, 6. and then the mini- of the word, 12. and those that are of the household of faith, 13. Not let vs such who haue a counterfeite zeale of the Lawe, 14. glorying in the wangling of the flesh, 15. and againe in the crosse of Christ.

1 Brethren, * if a man be suddenly taken in by any offence, ye which are spiritual, * restore such one with the spirit of meekenesse, * considering thy selfe, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Hee condemneth importunate reproaches, because that teachers reprehensions ought to be moderated and tempered by the spirit of meekenesse. 3 Through the weakness of the flesh and the world. 4 Which are exhortations by the name of Gods Spirit. 5 Labour to kill up that that is wrong in him. 6 This is a kind of speech which the Hebrews vsed, saying I understand thereby, that all good things come from God. 7 He toucheth the foile: for they commonly are most severe iudges, which forget their owne infirmities.

3 Hee sheweth that this is the end of reprobation, to raise up our brother which is fallen, and not proudly to oppress him. Therefore every one must keene to have commendation of his owne life by approving himselfe, and not by reprehending others.

4 Christ plainly and that words, calleth the commandments of chastity his commendement.

11 ¶ Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to take a faire shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised, only because they would not suffer persecution for the crosse of Christ.

13 For they themselves which are circumcised keepe not the Law, but desire to have you circumcised, that they might reioice in you.

14 ¶ But God forbid that I should reioice, but in the crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, whereby the world is crucified vnto me, & I vnto y^e world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace shall be vpon them, and mercy, and vpon the Israel of God.

17 ¶ From henceforth, let no man put me to businesse for I beare in my body the markes of the crosse of Iesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you & spirit, Amen.

10 Taking his farewell of them, he willeth them grace, and the Spirit, against the deceits of the false Apostles, which laboured to beat those outward things into their braines.

11 With your mindes and hearts.

9 The fourth and last part of the Epistle, wherein hee returneth to his principall end and purpose: to wit, that the Galatians should not suffer themselves to be led away by the false apostles: and be painted out of hole false apostles in their colours, reproving them of ambition, as men that do care that which they do, for any affliction, and zeale they have to the Law, but only for this purpose, that they may purchase themselves honour amongst their own sort, by the circumcision of the Galatians.

10 He setteth a faire shew against them that were crucified, and yet be chargeable in the forme of circumcision.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

¶ After the salutation, 4 he increaseth of the free election of God, 5 and adoption. 7 12 from whence manns salvation floweth, as from the true and naturall fountaine: and because so high a mystery cannot be understood, 16 hee praish that the full 20 knowledge of Christ, may by Gods be revealed vnto the Ephesians.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, to the Saints, which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Iesus.

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 ¶ Blessed be God, 3 and the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, 4 which hath blessed vs with all spiritual blessings in heauenly things in Christ,

¶ The first part of the Epistle, wherein hee handleth all the parts of our salvation, propounding the example of the Ephesians, and vsing diuers exhortations, and beginning after his manner with thanksgiving. 3 The efficient cause of our salvation is God, not considered confusedly and generally, but as the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ. 4 The next final cause in respect of vs, is our salvation, all things being bestowed vpon vs which are necessarie to our salvation, which kinde of blessing is heavenly and proper to the Elect. b With all kinde of gracious and bountifull goodnes, which is heauenly in deeds, and from God only.

¶ The second part of the Epistle, wherein hee handleth all the parts of our salvation, propounding the example of the Ephesians, and vsing diuers exhortations, and beginning after his manner with thanksgiving. 3 The efficient cause of our salvation is God, not considered confusedly and generally, but as the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ. 4 The next final cause in respect of vs, is our salvation, all things being bestowed vpon vs which are necessarie to our salvation, which kinde of blessing is heavenly and proper to the Elect. b With all kinde of gracious and bountifull goodnes, which is heauenly in deeds, and from God only.

4 ¶ As hee hath chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world, 7 that wee should be holy, and without blame before him in loue:

5 ¶ Who hath predestinate vs, to be adopted through Iesus Christ in himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 ¶ To the praise of the glory of his grace, 10 whereuer hee hath made vs freely accepted in his beloved,

7 ¶ By whom wee haue redemption through

¶ He declareth the efficient cause, or by what means God the Father saueh vs in his Sonne: because faith hee, he chose vs to glorifying in his Sonne. d To be adopted in him.

7 He expoundeth the next final cause, which hee maketh double, to wit, sanctification, and iustification, whereof hee will speake hereafter. And hereby also two things are to be noted, to wit, that himselfe of life cannot be separate from the grace of election: and againe, what putteth forth is vs, is the gift of God, who hath freely of his merite chosen vs.

8 Another plainer exposition of the efficient cause, and eternall election, whereby God is said to haue chosen vs in Christ, to wit, because it pleased him to appoint vs out when we were not yet borne, whom hee would make to be his children by Iesus Christ: for that there is no reason before of our election to be sought, but in the free merite of God, neither is faith which God forelaw, the cause of predestination, but the effect. b God reprobeth no thing, either that present, or that is to come, but himselfe only.

9 The vnto and chiefest final cause is the glory of God the Father, who saueh vs freely in his Sonne. c That as his bountifull goodnes defendeth vs from all sin, so alitt should be feared and punished.

10 Another final cause moe necesse, is our iustification, which hee freely receiued vs to iust in his Sonne. 11 Expounding of the materiall cause, how wee are merite acceptable to God in Christ, for hee it only, whose factiue by the merite of God is imputed to vs, for Gods giue effect of faues.

1 1. Cor. 1. 2.

4 1. Cor. 1. 3.

¶ The first part of the Epistle, wherein hee handleth all the parts of our salvation, propounding the example of the Ephesians, and vsing diuers exhortations, and beginning after his manner with thanksgiving. 3 The efficient cause of our salvation is God, not considered confusedly and generally, but as the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ. 4 The next final cause in respect of vs, is our salvation, all things being bestowed vpon vs which are necessarie to our salvation, which kinde of blessing is heavenly and proper to the Elect. b With all kinde of gracious and bountifull goodnes, which is heauenly in deeds, and from God only.

12 Now he cometh at length to the formall cause, that is to say, to vocation or preaching of the Gospel whereby God executeth that eternall counsell of his free re-conciliation and saluation in Christ.

And putting in place of the Gospel all wisdom and vnderstanding he sheweth how excellent it is.

13 By which gracious gentleness and bonitasse.

14 I perswade and I am wisdome.

15 For vnto the Lord had opened vnto us that mystry.

16 In euery creature I haue found as much as I desire of it our felicitie.

his blood, even the forgiveness of sinnes according to his rich grace :

8 ¹² k Wherby he hath bin abundant toward vs in all wisdom and vnderstanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs the ^m mystry of his will ¹³ according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed in himselfe,

10 ¹⁴ That in the dispensation of the fulnesse of the times, he might ⁿ gather together in one all things, both which are in heauen, and which are in earth, even in Christ :

11 ¹⁵ In whom all of wee are chosen when wee were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh ^o all things after the counsell of his owne will,

12 That we, which first trusted in Christ should be vnto the praise of his glory :

13 ¹⁶ In whom all of ye haue trusted, after that yee heard the ^p word of truth, even the Gospel of our saluation, wherein also after that ye beleue, yee were ^q sealed with the holy ^r Spirit of promise,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, for the ^s redemption of that libertie purchased vnto the praise of his glory.

15 ¹⁷ Therefore also after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 ¹⁸ That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ, that Father of ^t glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the ^u acknowledging of him.

18 That the eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightened, that ye may know what the ^v hope is of his calling, & what the riches of his glorious inheritance ^w in the Saints, from the beginning of the worlde (otherwise wandering and separated from God) are gathered together : of which some were then in heauen, when he came into the earth, (to wit, such as by faith in him to come, were gathered together) and other being found vpon the earth, were gathered together to him, and the rest are dayly gathered together ^y The faithful are said to be gathered together in Christ, because they are inwardly, either with him through faith, and become ^z as were one man.

15 Happeth fearefully the benefit of vocation to the beleuing lawes, giue backe to the very fountain, that euen they also may not attribute their saluation, neither to themselves, nor to their flooke, nor to any other thing, but to the only grace and mercy of God, both because they were called, and also because they were first called. ^a All things are attributed to the grace of God without exception, and yet for all that, we are not flooke, for he giueth us grace both to will, and to be able to do the good things that are good. Philip. 2. 13.

16 Now he maketh the Ephefians (or rather all the Gentiles) equal to the Iewes, because that notwithstanding they came last, Yet being called by the same Gospel, they imbraced it by faith, and were sealed vpon with the same spirit, which is the pledge of election, vntill the inheritance it selfe bee seene, that in them also the glory of God might shine forth, and bee manifested.

17 That word which is true in all, because it is common to all. ^b This is a borrowed kinde of speech taken for a feare, which bringeth not to any thing maketh a difference betweene those things that are vnderstood, and others that are not.

18 With that Spirit, which bringeth not to a Law but the promise of free adoption.

19 Full perfection.

20 Hee returneth to the former gratulation concluding two things together of those things that went before. The first is, that all good things come to vs from God that Father in Christ and by Christ that for them he may be praised of vs. The second is that all these things (which hee bringeth to two heads, to wit, faith and charity) are increased in vs by certain degrees, so that we may define lawes & his grace, from whom we haue the beginning, and of whom we hope for the end.

21 The causes of lawes, are God the Father lightening our sin with his holy Spirit, that we may imbrace Christ according to the Gospel: to the obtaining of euertlasting life, and the setting forth of Gods glory.

22 With maiestie.

23 For it is not enough for vs to haue known our God, but we must know him every day more and more.

24 What blessings they are which hee call vs to hope for whom hee calleth to Christ.

25 The excellency of which is declared by the effects, because the mightie power of God is let forth and shewed therein.

Chap. 3. col. 22.

20 ²⁰ Which he wrought in Christ, when hee raised him from the dead, & set him at his ²¹ right hand in the heauenly places,

21 Farre aboue all principality, and power, and might, and domination, and cuery ²² Name, that is named, not in this world onely, but also in that that is to come,

22 ²³ And hath made all things subiect vnder his feet, and hath giuen him ouer all things ²⁴ to bee the head to the Church,

23 Which is his body, even the ²⁵ fulnesse of him that filleth all in all things.

weakeness of the flesh.

1 To be strong Gods right hand, is to be a partaker of it. I am as much as he hath on all creatures. A Every thing which must be, or about all things that they should be such power or excellency.

2 That we should not think that that excellent glory of Christ, is a thing wherein hee hath made too doo, hee willeth it, that he was appointed of God the Father head of all the Church, & therefore the body must be in euery way head which otherwise it would be a maymed thing without the members which notwithstanding is one of the chiefest (seeing that the Church is rather quickened & fulfilled by the only vertue of Christ to be of it is, that hee feedeth the fulnesse thereof) but of infinite good will and pleasure of God, who vouchsafeth to ioynes to his Sonne, 6. I am such that there is nothing in us which I will. c For the loue of Christ is great to make the Church that though hee use fully I will all things, yet hee often times I will not as a man would and vnderstand, vntill hee haue the Church in I will to him as a man.

CHAP. II.

1 The letter to be on the grace of Christ, but with a comparison, calling them in minde, 5 that they were together called as one and alwayes, 6 that they are rescued by grace, 13 and brought nere, 16 by preconciliation through Christ, 27 by I will be by the Gospel.

ANd ¹ as you hath ² quickened, that were ³ dead in ⁴ trespasses and finnes,

2 Wherein, in times past ye walked, ⁴ according to the course of this world, and ⁵ after the prince that ruleth in the ayre, even the spirit, that now ⁶ worketh in the ⁷ children of disobedience,

3 Among whom we also had our conuersation in time past in the lusts of our ⁸ flesh, in fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the mind, and ⁹ were by nature the ¹⁰ children of wrath, as well as ¹¹ others.

4 But God which is rich in mercy, through his great loue wherewith hee loued vs,

5 Euen when we were dead by finnes, hath quickened vs together in Christ, ⁶ by whose grace ye are faued,

6 And hath raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ ⁷ Iesus.

1 He declareth against the greatness of Gods good will, by comparing that miserable state whereto we are borne, with that dignitie wherunto we are advanced by God the Father in Christ. So that he declareth that hee doth in such sort, that hee faith, that touching spiritual motions we are not onely borne halfe dead, but wholly and altogether dead.

3 A Loue Rom. 6. 2.

4 So then hee calleth them dead, which are not regenerate: for as the immortality of them which are damned in this life, so the lasting continuance of body and soules, is properly life: but death in them which are not raised by the Spirit of God.

5 Hee sheweth that we are called to death, to wit, from sinne.

6 Here prometh by the effects that all were spiritually dead.

7 Hee meaneth it shall be to be in euery way, in euery way as all are sinners of Satan, 4. At the pleasure of our prince.

8 Men are therefore slaves to Satan because they are willingly rebellious against God.

9 They are called the children of disobedience, which are ignorant of God.

6 After that hee hath fully condemned the Gentiles, hee confesseth that the Iewes, amongst whom hee himselfe himselfe himselfe, are not a witte better.

2 By the name of Iesus in his place, hee meaneth the whole man, which hee diuideth into two parts: Into the flesh, which is the part that the Philosophers seare without reason, and into the thought, which is the reasonableness that hee teacheth nothing in our halfe dead, but somewhat that the whole man is of nature the soule of wrath.

7 The conclusion: All men are borne subject to the wrath and curse of God.

8 Men are Iesus to be the children of wrath, because it is to say, guide of euertlasting death by the indwelling of God, who I argue with him, for please people which I am not God.

9 Nowe herof followeth another member of the comparison, declaring our excellency to wit, that by the vertue of Christ we are delivered from that death and made partakers of euertlasting life, to the end that at length we may reigne with him. And by euertlasting fundly meanes hee beareth this into their heads, that the efficient cause of this hee be the free mercede of Gods and Christ himselfe: I will the material cause: and death is the instrument which also is the free gift of God: and the end is Gods glory.

2 To wit, as hee addeth afterward in Christ, for as yet hee is not fulfilled in us, but only in our end, by whose spirit we haue beene raised to life, and to Iesus to God, with that we be Iesus, brought to euertlasting life, yet hee hope is certainer, for we are as Iesus of that we are of that we are not received already.

7 That hee might shew in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace through his kindeife towards vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by his grace are yee faued through faith, and that not of your felues: it is the gift of God;

9 Not of works, least any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good works, which God hath ordained, that we should walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no hope, and were without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, by making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one body by his crosse, and by his blood thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were as farre off, & to them that were neere.

18 For through him we both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore yee are no more strangers and foreigners but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God.

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles & Prophets, Iesus Christ him selfe being the chiefe corner stone, 21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord.

22 In whom yee also are built together to bee the habitation of God by the Spirit.

For this cause, I Paul, am the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to youward,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto mee (as I wrote aboue in fewe words,

4 Whereby when yee reade, yee may knowe mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not opened vnto his sonnes of men, as it is now reueiled vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheritors also, and of the same body and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto mee through the effectual working of his power.

8 Euen vnto mee the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the Gentiles the vncircumcible riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the mysterie is, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that now vnto principalities and powers in heavenly places, might be known by the Church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternall purpose, which he wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord, 12 By whom we haue boldnes and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whom is named the whole familie in heaven and in earth)

16 That he might grant you according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man.

17 That Christ might dwell in your hearts by faith:

18 That yee, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may be filled with all fullnesse of God.

20 Vnto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in vs,

preaching and hearing of the word: which are needfull not only to them which are younglings in religion, but euen to the oldest also, that they growing up more and more by faith in Christ, being confirmed with all spiritual gifts, may be grounded and increased in the knowledge of that inmarisable loue, whereby God the Father hath loved you in Christ, seeing that the whole familie whereof ye are already receiued into heaven, and part tye here on earth, dependeth vpon that adoption of the heavenly Father, in his only Sonne.

And that whet people, which hath but our benedict Father, and that is the Church, which is adopted in Christ.

According to the greatness of his meritt. Look Rom. 7.22. b. Wherein God loveth vs, which is the roote of our election. I. How perfit that worke of Christ is in every part. k. Which God hath shewed vs in Christ.

l. Which passeth all the capacities of mans wit, to comprehend it fully in his mind. For otherwise who hath the Spirit of God, precludeth somewhat (according to the measure that God hath giuen him) as is sufficient to salvation. m. So that we haue alowly in our hearts, what things are requisite to make vs perfit with God. a. Hee beareth forth into a thanksgiving, whereby the Ephesians also may be confirmed to hope for any thing of God.

1 Hee maintaineth his Apostleship. pag. 21. the defence of the crosse, whereon all hee taketh an argument to confirm himselfe, affirming that hee was not only appointed an Apostle by the mercy of God, but was also particularly appointed to the Gentiles, to call them into euery mans conscience.

because God had determined it from the beginning, although hee deferred a great while the manifestation of that his council.

a. These words, the prisoner of Iesus Christ, are taken piously, that it is to say, I Paul am cast in prison, for maintaining the glory of Christ.

b. Rememeth not that none (neue the calling of the Gentiles) before, few: new of it, and so; that did knowe, as the Apostles. And is reucaled vnto them now: as it is and vnder figure.

The vnto look for calling of the Gentiles, was as it were a promise to the heavenly Angels, where in they might behold the marvellous wisdom of God.

c. God neuer had in any way only, to save men by his it had diuersi fission and forms.

d. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

e. God neuer had in any way only, to save men by his it had diuersi fission and forms.

f. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

g. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

h. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

i. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

j. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

k. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

l. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

m. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

n. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

o. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

p. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

q. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

r. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

s. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

t. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

u. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

v. Which was before all beginnings, as it were a promise, that the efficacy of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore we ought to loue prayers with it.

h. So then, Grace, that is to say, the gift of God and faith doe stand one with another, so which two things are contrary. To be faued by our felues, or by our merites. Therefore who means they which would saye together things of so contrary nature? 9 Hee taketh away expressly and namely from our workes the praise of iustification, seeing that the good workes themselves are the effects of grace in vs.

i. Hee taketh here againe a confirmation of nature: therefore hee the workes neither for good, neither for euill, are they that are the effects of grace.

j. Applying the former doctrine to the Gentiles, he sheweth that they were not only as the Iewes by nature, but also as for an especiall sort, strangers and without God: and therefore they ought to much the rather remember that same for great a benefite of God.

k. You were called in other wise than Gentiles, that all the world might knowe of your vncircumcise.

l. Of the Iewes which were known from you by the marks of the circumcision: marks of the covenant.

m. Hee beginneth first with Christ who was the end of all the promises.

n. You had no right or rule to the common wealth of Israel.

o. Christ is the only bond of the Iewes and Gentiles, whereby they are reconciled to God.

p. As by the ceremonies and worship appointed by the Law, the Iewes were diuided from the Gentiles, so now Christ, having broken downe the partition wall, inuethment both together, both himselfe, and betwixt himselfe, and to God. Whereby it followeth, that who soeuer establisheth the ceremonies of the Law, maketh the grace of Christ voyde and of none effect.

Col. 2. 14. o. Hee alludeth to the sacrifice of the Law, which represented that true and only Sacrifice.

p. For he destroyed death by death, and fastened it as it were to the crosse.

q. The preaching of the Gospel, is an effectual instrument of this grace, common as well to the Iewes as to the Gentiles.

r. Small instrument of this grace, common as well to the Iewes as to the Gentiles.

s. Christ is the gate as it were, by whom we come into the Father, and the holy Gospel.

t. The conclusions: The Gentiles were taken into the fellowship of salvation.

u. And he describeth the excellencie of the Church, calling it the temple and house of God.

v. The Lord committed the doctrine of salvation, first to the Prophets, and then to the Apostles, the end whereof, and matter was, and substance is Christ. Therefore that is in deed the true and Catholique Church, which is builded vpon Christ by the Prophets and Apostles, as a spiritual temple consecrated to God.

Thiis, the head of the building, for the foundation: as it is were the head of building. f. So that God is the workman not only of the foundation, but also of the whole building.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee declareth that therefore hee suffereth many things of the Iewes 3 because hee preached the mysterie touching the saluation of e Gentiles, 8 at Gods commandment: 13 After hee desireth the Ephesians not to faint for his afflictions: 14 And for this cause he prayeth vnto God, 18 that they may vnderstand the great loue of Christ,

2 He declareth his good will to-wards them there-withall the way by or what means chiefly they may be conuicted, to wit, by continual prayer.

3 He heueth what things wee ought chiefly to desire, to wit, that we may increase in the true knowledge of God (so that we may be able to discern things that differ one from another) and also in charity, that even to the end we may give our selves to good workes indited to the glory of God by the power of Christ.

4 If righteously good workes in this present world be de-claimed, when they say that mores are the cause of righte-ousness.

5 He preventeth the offence that might come by his perfection, whereby diuers rooke occasion to dis- grace his Apostleship, to whom he answereth, that God hath blessed his imprisonment in such wise that hee is by that means become more famous and the true cause of the Gospel by this occasion is greatly enlarged, although not with like affection in all men, yet in- deed.

6 For Christ his sake.

7 In the Emperours court.

8 The Gospel is called the Word, so that the Word is the substance of it.

9 Not with a mere murder for other- wise their doctrine was pure.

10 Heueth by setting forth his own example, that the end of our afflictions is true joy, and that through the vertue of the Spirit of Christ, which hee giueth to them that seek it.

11 Under a goodly colour and theme: for they made Christ a cloake for their ambition and enuie.

12 We must continue euento the end, with great content, hauing nothing before our eyes but Christs glory onely whether we liue or die.

14 Having let downe the things before in manner of a Prelace, hee descendeth now to exhortation, warning them first of all, to consent both in doctrine and minde, and after ward, that being thus knit to- gether with the common band, they continue through the strength of faith to beare all aduersities in such sort, that they admit nothing vnworthy the profession of the Gospel.

15 The word of Christ, so stand fast, and it is prayer to mortall sinners that stand fast, and for which was a force.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray that your loue may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement.

10 That ye may allow those things which are best, that ye may be pure, and without offence vntill the day of Christ.

11 Filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glory and praise of God.

12 ¶ I would ye vnderstood brethren, that the things which now come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel.

13 So that my bands in Christ are famous thoroughout all the iudgement hall, and in all other places.

14 Inasmuch that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bands, and dare more frankly speake the Word.

15 Some speake Christ euen through enuie and strife, and some al of good will.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of contention, and not purely, supposing to adde more af- fliction to my bands.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 ¶ What then ye Christ is preached al manner ways, whether it be vnder a prentence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my saluation through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ.

20 ¶ As I feruently looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life and in death aduantage.

22 ¶ And whether to line in the flesh were profitable for mee, and what to chuse, I know not.

23 For I am distressed betweene both, desiring to be looked and to be with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Neuerthelesse, to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of your faith.

26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in I E S U S C H R I S T for me, by my coming to you againe.

27 ¶ Onely let your conseruation be as it be- cometh the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters, that ye also continue in one spirit, and in one mind, fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 ¶ Under a goodly colour and theme: for they made Christ a cloake for their ambition and enuie.

29 We must continue euento the end, with great content, hauing nothing before our eyes but Christs glory onely whether we liue or die.

30 For example of a true shephard: who maketh more account how he may profit his sheepe, then he doeth of any commodity of his owne what- soeuer.

31 Having let downe the things before in manner of a Prelace, hee descendeth now to exhortation, warning them first of all, to consent both in doctrine and minde, and after ward, that being thus knit to- gether with the common band, they continue through the strength of faith to beare all aduersities in such sort, that they admit nothing vnworthy the profession of the Gospel.

32 The word of Christ, so stand fast, and it is prayer to mortall sinners that stand fast, and for which was a force.

23 ¶ And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and that of God.

29 ¶ For vnto you it is giuen for Christ, that not onely ye should beleue in him, but also suffer for his sake.

30 ¶ Having the same fight which yee saw in mee, and now heare to be in me.

himselfe both of our saluation, and of the destruction of the wicked. 30 He pro- ueth that his saying, that perfection is a token of our saluation, because it is a gift of God to faileless Christ, which giveth bestoweth vpon his owne, so he doth the gift of faith. 31 Now heueth, or what purpose hee made mention of his af- flictions.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth them about all things, 2 to humilitie, 3 and that by the example of Christ, 4 he promisseth to send Timo- theus shortly vnto them, 5 and exhorteth the long suffering of B. apodictus.

1 ¶ There be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercie,

2 Fulfill my ioy, that ye be like minded, ha- uing the same loue, being of one accord, and of one iudgement.

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meeknesse of minde euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Look not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 ¶ Let the same mind be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equal with God:

7 But hee made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was found in shape as a man.

8 He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 ¶ Wherefore God hath al so highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name aboue every name,

10 That at the Name of Iesus should every knee bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth.

11 And that euery tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 ¶ Wherefore my beloved as ye haue alwayes obeyed me, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in mine absence: so make an end of your owne saluation with feare and trembling.

13 ¶ For it is God which worketh in you both in the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

14 ¶ Do all things without murmuring and reasonings,

15 ¶ For it is God which worketh in you both in the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

16 ¶ Do all things without murmuring and reasonings,

17 ¶ For it is God which worketh in you both in the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

18 ¶ Do all things without murmuring and reasonings,

19 ¶ For it is God which worketh in you both in the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

20 ¶ Do all things without murmuring and reasonings,

21 ¶ For it is God which worketh in you both in the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

9 We ought not to be discouraged but rather encour- aged by the per- secutions; which the enemies of the Gospel imagine, & practise against us: seeing that they are certaine tri- bules from God

10 He pro- ueth that his saying, that perfection is a token of our saluation, because it is a gift of God to faileless Christ, which giveth bestoweth vpon his owne, so he doth the gift of faith. 31 Now heueth, or what purpose hee made mention of his af- flictions.

1 A most exact request to remove all those things whereby that great and special consent and agree- ment is commonly broken, to wit, contention and pride, whereby it cometh to passe that they sepa- rate themselves one from ano- ther.

2 Any Christian comfort.

3 Any feeling of inward love.

4 Let alone.

5 He teache before them a most perfect example of all modetic and sweete conuersation.

6 Christ Iesus, whom we ought to follow with all our might: who abased himselfe so farre for our sakes, although hee be- came all, that hee took vpon him the forme of a le- vant, to wit, our flesh willingly, subiect to all in- firmities, euen to the death of the crosse.

9 ¶ For it is God which worketh in you both in the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

sitteth at the right hand of God.

2 Set your affections on things which are a-boue, and not on things which are on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ which is our life, shall appeare, then shall we also appeare with him in glory.

5 Mortifie therefore your members which are on the earth, fornication, vncleanness, the inordinate affection, euill concupiscence, and couetousnesse which is idolatry.

6 For the which things take the wrath of God against the children of disobedience.

7 Wherein yee also walked once, when ye liued in them.

8 But now put ye away euill all these things, wrath, anger, maliciousnesse, cursed speaking, filthie speaking, out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, y^e seeing that yee haue put off the old man with his works,

10 And haue put on the new: which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him,

11 Where is neither Grecian nor Iewe, circumcision nor vncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, free: But Christ is all, and in all things.

12 Now therefore as the elect of God, holy and beloved, I put on the bowels of mercie, kindness, humblenesse of minde, meeknesse, long suffering:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man haue a quarrell one to another: euen as Christ forgave us, euen so doe yee.

14 And aboute all these things, put on loue, which is the bond of perfectnesse.

15 And let the peace of God I rule in your hearts, to the which yee are called in one body, and be ye thankfull.

16 Let the word of God dwell in you plentifully in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing your owne selues in Psalmes, and hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing with a grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever yee shall doe, in word or deed, doe all in the Name of the Lord Iesus, giuing thanks to God, euen the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit your selues vnto your husbands, as it is comely in the Lord.

19 Husbands, loue your wiues, and be not bitter vnto them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for that is wellpleasing vnto the Lord.

21 Fathers, prouoke not your children to anger, lett they be discouraged.

22 Seruants, be obedient vnto them that are your masters according to the flesh, in all things, not with eye-seruice as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatsoever yee doe, doe it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men, 24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receiue the reward of the inheritance: for yee serue the Lord Christ.

25 But hee that doeth wrong, shall receiue for the wrong that he hath done, and there is no respect of persons.

26 Of seruants, that fearing God live like to whom their obedience is acceptable, they reverently, submissively, and from the heart, obey their masters. Eph. 6, 5. iiii. a. 9. 1. pet. 3, 18. For that thou y^e self haue boundly obeyed your masters, the same shall come that you shall be made ioynt owners of the heavenly inheritance. 15 He requirith of masters, that beinge mildfull howelett they themselves also shall render an account before that heavenly Lord and Master, which will eneege wrongfull doings without any respect of masters or seruants, they shew themselves iust and upright with equite vnto their seruants.

CHAP. IIII.

2 Hee remembreth to general exhortations, 3 touching prayer and gracious speech, 4 and so endeth with greetings and commendations.

Ye masters, doe vnto your seruants, that which is iust and equall, knowing that yee also haue a Master in heauen.

2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving.

3 Praying also for vs, that God may open vnto vs the doore of vnterance, to speake the mystery of Christ: wherefore I am also in bonds.

4 That I may utter it, as it becommeth me to speake.

5 Walke wisely toward them that are without, and redeeme the season.

6 Let your speech be gracious alwaies, and powdered with salt, that yee may know how to answer every man.

7 Tychicus our beloued brother, and faithful minister, and fellow seruant in the Lord, shall declare vnto you my whole estate.

8 Whom I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose that he might know your state, & might comfort your hearts,

9 With Onesimus a faithful and a beloued brother, who is one of you. They shall shew you of all things here.

10 Aristarchus my prison fellow saluteth you, and Marcus Barnabas cousin (touching whom yee receiued commandments: If he come vnto you, receiue him)

11 And Iesus which is called Justus, which are of the circumcision. These I onely are my work-fellows vnto the kingdom of God, which haue bene vnto my consolation.

12 Epaphras the seruant of Christ, which is one of you, saluteth you, and alway trieth for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect, and full in all the will of God.

13 For I beare him record, that hee hath great zeale for you, and for them of Laodicea, and them of Hierapolis.

2. Tim. 4. 11.

14 * Luke the beloued phyſician greeteth you, and Demas.

15 Salute the brethren which are of Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the Church which is in his houſe.

16 And when this Epistle is read of you, cauſe that it bee read in the Church of the Laodiceans alſo, and that ye likewiſe read the Epistle written from Laodicea.

17 And ſay to Archippus, Take heed to the miniſterie, that thou haſt receiued in the Lord, that thou fulfillit.

18 The ſalutation by the hand of mee Paul. Remember my bands. Grace bee with you. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAVL TO THE THESSA- LONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Heerefore legimeth with thankſgiving, 4 ſupps them in waude, that whatſoeuer we praife worſhip in the Lord, it come of Gods goodwilke: 8 auaith that they are examples vnto others.

PAUL and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Theſſalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Ieſus Chriſt: Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

2 We giue God thanks alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceaſing, remembering your effectual faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in the Lord Ieſus Chriſt, in the ſight of God, euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that yee are a elect of God.

5 For our Goſpel was not vnto you in word onely, but alſo in power, and in the holy Ghoſt, and in much aſſurance, as yee know after what manner we were among you for your ſakes.

6 And yee became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with ioy of the holy Ghoſt.

7 So that yee were as enſamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you founded out the word of the Lord, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your faith alſo which is toward God, ſpread abroad in all quarters, that we need not to ſpeake any thing.

9 For they themſelues ſhew of vs what manner of entering in we had vnto you, 5 and how yee turned to God from idoles, to ſerue the liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his ſonne from heauen, whom hee raiſed from the dead, euen Ieſus which deliuered vs from that wrath to come.

his doctrine, which hath bene ſo many wayes conſirmed vnto them, euen from heauen as they themſelues did well know. 4 Paul beſtoweth by two things, that there ſhould be great fruit of his preaching, to wit, by the gift of the holy Ghoſt, and that certain aſſurance which was thoroughly ſealed in their minds, as appeared by their ready bearing of the croſſe. 5 Another reaſon, becauſe euen to that day, they embraced the Goſpel with great cheerefullneſſe, in ſomuch that they were an example all their neighbours: ſo that it ſhould be more thane for them to ſoaine in the mid care. 6 With ioy which cometh from the holy Ghoſt. 7 All the believers. 8 It is no true conuerſion forſake the idoles, vntill a man there with all worſhip the true and liuing God in Chriſt the onely Redeemer. 9 That word (that) is not put here without cauſe; and by (waith) it meant that reuerſe and puniſhment ſhould be vnto the Lord with the world as length in horrible wrath.

CHAP. II.

1 Heere declareth how faithfull hee reached to the Goſpel vnto them, 5 ſeeking neither gaine, 6 nor praife: ſunt he, and hee prometh the ſame by their owne teſtimony. 14 That they did courageouſly beare perſecutions of their committing: 17 that bee deſirous very much to ſee Ieſus.

FOR yee your ſelues know, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in vaine,

2 But euen after that we had ſuffered before, and were ſhamefully entreated at * Philippi, (as yee know) wee were bold in our God, to ſpeake vnto you the Goſpel of God, with much ſtriving.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleanneſſe, nor by guile,

4 But as wee were allowed of God, that the Goſpel ſhould be committed vnto vs, ſo wee ſpeake, not as they that pleaſe men, but God, which approueth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer vie flattering words, as yee know, nor coloured couetouſneſſe, God is record,

6 Neither ſought we praife of men, neither of you, nor of others, when we might haue bene chargeable, as the Apoſtles of Chriſt.

7 But we were gentle among you, euen as a nouriſher cheriſheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Goſpel of God onely, but alſo our owne ſoules, becauſe yee were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, * our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, becauſe we would not bee chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Goſpel of God.

10 Ye are witneſſes, and God alſo, how holily and iuſtly, and vnblameably wee behaued our ſelues among you that beleeue.

11 As yee know how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and beſought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That yee would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cauſe alſo thanke wee God without ceaſing, that when yee receiued the word of God, which ye heard of vs, yee receiued it not as the word of men, but as it is indeed the word of God, which alſo worketh in you that beleeue.

d Which liketh and alloweth of them. 5 To ſubmit himſelfe them to the baſt, to winnethem, and to eſchew all pride. 6 When it might lawfully haue liued vpon the expence of the Church. 7 We were not rough, but gentle, and gentle, as a nouriſher, as neither ambitious nor contentious, but ſaketh all paines as patiently, as if we were a mother. 8 To haue the flocke that is committed vnto him, in more eſtimation, then his owne life. 9 To depart with his owne right, rather then to be chargeable to his hearers. 10 Allet so 34. 1 cor 4. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 12 He confirmeth them in their afflictions which they suffered of their owne people, because they were afflicted of their owne countrymen, which came awell (saith he) to the churches of the Iewes, as to them, and therefore they ought to take it as good part.

13 Which Church hath gathered together.

14 Euen of them which are of the same country, and the same language that remaine.

15 He preuenteth offence which might be taken for the Iewes especially at one all other persecuted of the Gospel. That is no new thing, saith he, seeing they flew Christ himselfe and his prophets, and have banished me also. 14 He reuelleteth the utter desolation of the Iewes, leil any man should be moved by their rebellion. 15 For the Iewes would neither enter into the kingdom of God themselves, nor suffer others therein. 16 Unill that wickedness of them, which they have by me since as it were of their fathers, be grown so great, that the measure of their iniquity being filled, Gods wrath come forth to wrath. 17 The iudgement of God being angry, which indeed appeareth forth in the destruction of the city of Ierusalem, whether many reported euen out of diuine propheet, when it was befelld. 18 He meeteth with an obiectiō, when he came nēt to them, that he might beeing in so great misery, I desired oftentimes (saith he) and sayd it not in me, but I had hindered mine endeauours, and therefore I lent Timothy his faithful companion vnto you, because you are much deare vnto me.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in Christ Iesus, because yee haue also offered the same things of your owne countrymen, euen as they haue of the Iewes.

15 Who both killed the Lord Iesus & their owne Prophets, & haue persecuted vs away, & God they please not, & are contrary to all men.

16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fulfill their sinnes alwaies: for the wrath of God is come on them to the vtmost.

17 Forasmuch, brethren, as we were kept from you for a season, concerning fight, but not in the heart, wee enforced the more to see your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twice) but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crowne of reioicing? for are not euery one in the presence of our Lord Iesus Christ at his coming?

20 Yes, ye are our glorie and ioy.

That is no new thing, saith he, seeing they flew Christ himselfe and his prophets, and have banished me also. 14 He reuelleteth the utter desolation of the Iewes, leil any man should be moved by their rebellion. 15 For the Iewes would neither enter into the kingdom of God themselves, nor suffer others therein. 16 Unill that wickedness of them, which they have by me since as it were of their fathers, be grown so great, that the measure of their iniquity being filled, Gods wrath come forth to wrath. 17 The iudgement of God being angry, which indeed appeareth forth in the destruction of the city of Ierusalem, whether many reported euen out of diuine propheet, when it was befelld. 18 He meeteth with an obiectiō, when he came nēt to them, that he might beeing in so great misery, I desired oftentimes (saith he) and sayd it not in me, but I had hindered mine endeauours, and therefore I lent Timothy his faithful companion vnto you, because you are much deare vnto me.

CHAP. III.

1 To shew his affection toward them he sendeth Timothy vnto them: 2 He is to man e by the report of their prosperous life 3 that he cannot give sufficient thanks, 4 and therefore he breaks forth into prayer.

Wherefore since wee could no longer forbear, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone.

2 And haue sent Timothy our brother and minister of God, & our labour fellow in the Gospell of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching faith:

3 That no man should be moued with these afflictions: for ye your felues know that we are appointed thereto.

4 For verily when we were with you, we tolde you before that we should suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye know it.

5 Euen for this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent him that I might know of your faith, lest the tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timothyus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwaies, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you:

7 Therefore brethren, wee had consolation in you, in all our affliction and necessity through your faith.

8 For now are wee alie, if yee stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can wee recompense to God againe for you for all the ioy wherewith we reioice for your sakes before our God.

10 Night and day, praying exceedingly, that we might see your face, and might accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himselfe, euen our father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you.

12 And the Lord increase you and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as we doe toward you:

13 To make your hearts stable, & vnblameable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

in charitie to all men, & in ward puritie of the heart, the account wherewith is deferred to the next coming of Christ. His work by the same grace, wherewith he begun it in vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorts them 2 to holinesse, 3 and brotherly loue, 13 He rebuketh them to forsake after the manner of his faith, 15 He seteth out the history of our reuelation.

And furthermore we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Iesus, that yee increase more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke and to please God.

2 For ye know what commandements wee gaue you by the Lord Iesus.

3 For this is the will of God, euen your sanctification, and that ye should abstaine from fornication,

4 That euery one of you should know how to possesse his vessel in holinesse and honour, 5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any manner: for the Lord is auenger of all such things, as we also haue tolde you beforetime, and testified.

7 For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannesse, but vnto holinesse.

8 He therefore that despiseth these things, despiseth not man, but God who hath euen giuen you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, yee neede not that I write vnto you: for yee are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Yea, and that thing verily yee doe vnto all the brethren, which are thoroughout all Macedonia: but we beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more:

11 And that ye study to be quiet, & to meddle with your owne businesse, & to to worke with your owne hands, as we command you:

12 That yee may behaue your felues honestly toward them that are without, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

13 I would not brethren, haue you ignorant concerning the: which are asleepe, that yefor now not euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if we beleue that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleepe in Iesus, will God bring with him.

6 Thirdly he requirith a ready mīde to all manner of louing kindeesse and exhorteth them to profit more and more in that vertue. 7 Iohn 13. 14. and 15. 12. 1. iohn 18. and 21. 7 Hee condemneth inuirituall, and such as are curious in matters which appertaine vnto them. 8 Hee rebuketh idleness and slothfulness, which vices whicouer are giuen vnto, fall into other wickednesse, to the great offence of the Church. 9 The third part of the Epistle, which is entituled among the former exhortations (which hee returneth vnto afterward) wherein he speaketh of mourning for the dead, and the manner of the resurrection, and of the latter day. 10 Wee must take heed that we doe not immediately bewaile the dead, that is, that they rise to doe which thing that they are verily perished. 11 A confirmation: for death is but a sleep of the body (for hee speaketh of the faithful) vntill the Lord cometh. 12 A reason of the confirmation, for seeing that the dead is risen, the members shall rise; and that by the vertue of God. 13 They doe not in Christ, which continue in faith thereby they are graffed into Christ euen to the last passage. 14 Will call their bodies and of their graine, and soyme their ioyes to them againe.

3 Another part of the Epistle, wherein he speaketh of the duties of a Christian life, and he bewaileth that expectation of a Christian life consisteth in woethings, to wit, in affliction wherof he will then perit his work by the same grace, wherewith he begun it in vs.

1 Diuers exhortations, the ground wherof is this, to be minded of those things which they haue heard of the Apostle.

6 Loue is in 17. 17.

7 Another reason, because it detraineth the body.

8 The third because the Saints are disordered from them which know not God, by honesty and piety.

* 16. 1. 2 The will of God, who calleth his on this condition, to bring them to glory by affliction, in a most sure remedy against all afflictions. 2 Because they haue beene thence so well forward, hee exhorteth them againe to make in ende of the rest of their ioy, seeing that theria all they shall doe him their Apollie great pleasure. 3 For now you can not otherwise shinde a safe and in good case, vntill ye see forward to religion and faith. 4 Rom. 1. 12. and 15. 2. 6 Paul was content, strained through the impatience dealing offi. 7 To come the building which hee had feared because: And for this cause he had left Silas and Timothy in Macedonia, and when Timothy came to Athens to him, hee sent him backe againe through the way. So that hee desired to see the brethren againe, as hee was then only accomplished their faith and religion, which was as perfect as yet.

* Psalm 68. 5 * Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest 4 with vs, * as when the Lord Iesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his mighty Angels,

8 In flaming fire, reuending vengeance vnto them, * that doe not know God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shall be punished with everlasting perdition from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power.

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be made marueilous in all them that beleue (7 because our testimony toward you was beleued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, we also pray alwaies for you that our God may make you worthy of his calling, & fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodnesse, and all the works of faith with power,

12 That the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and yee in him according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

1. 1. Thess. 4. 16. 13 A most glorious description of the Lord coming of Christ, to be set against all the miseries of the world, and triumphs of the wicked. 2. There is no knowledge of God vnto saluation, without the Gospel of Christ. 3. The children of God shall be counted by the faith which they haue in the Gospel, which is preached vnto them by the Apostles. 4. Seeing that we haue the market before vs, it remaineth that we goe vnto it. And we goe to it by certain degrees of euilles: first by the free loue and good pleasure of God by yette where all other creatures caule to come: from thence proceedeth the free calling to Christ, and from calling, faith, wherupon followeth both the glorifying of Christ in vs, and vs in Christ. 5. By calling he meaneth not the very act of calling, but that life same thing wherunto we are called, which is the glory of that eternally kingdom. 6. Which be determined long time, merely vpon his gracious and merciful goodnesse toward you. 7. So then, faith is an excellent work of God in vs: and we (see here plainly) that the Apostle teacheth nothing of the free will, as some doe make with Gods working therein, as the Papias doe.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that the day of the Lord shall not come, till there be a departing from the faith, 3 and that Antichrist be reuelled, 8 whose destruction he seteth out: 15 and sheweth exhorteth to constance.

1. The second part of the Epistle, concerning an excellent prophesie of the state of the Church, which shall be from the Apostles time vnto the latest day of judgement.

2. He sheweth earnestly vpon that commendable glory, which he sheweth vnto the latest day of judgement.

3. He sheweth earnestly vpon that commendable glory, which he sheweth vnto the latest day of judgement.

worshipped: 4 so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that hee is God.

5 Remember yee not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And now yee know what whicholdeth that he might be reuiled in his time.

7 For the misterie of iniquitie doeth already worke: 7 onely he which now withholdeth, shall till he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that wicked man be reuelled, * whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightness of his coming,

9 Euen him whose coming is by the effectual working of Satan, with all power, and signes, and many wonders,

10 And in all deceiuablenesse of vntougltenesse, among them that perish, because they receiued not the loue of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And therefore God shall send them * strong delusion, that they should beleue lies,

12 That all they might be damned which beleue not the truth, but had pleasure in vnrigheteousnesse.

13 But wee ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloued of the Lord, because that God hath from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through his Sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of truth,

14 Whereunto hee called you by our Gospel, to obtaine the glorie of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and keepe the instructions, which yee haue bene taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Now the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father, which hath loued vs and hath giuen vs everlasting consolation and good hope through grace,

17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in euery word and good worke,

1. Word for word, that lampest followe it as is sayd, he that shall read Gods Law shall vnder foot. 2. I say, i. 4. 3. Bring in night. 4. With his word: for the true Altar of the word are at the mouth, whereby the Lord becometh one as is sayd, and our lasting word which shall beake euery man in sunder, as is writt withan yew rodde. 5. He telleth that Sata will bestow all his might and power, and all the false miracles that hee can to establish that feare, and that with great success, because the wickednes of the world doth defende it yet to, that onely the faithfull shall with stand through his decreit. 6. Which as partly faith, and partly word, to establish a faith. 7. A most mightie working to decreit a faith. 8. They that liue well, that they had pleasure in them, which is the greatest comfort that may be. 9. The cleid shall stand stedfast and safe from all these miseries. 10. Now election is known by these evidences: Faith is gathered by sanctification: faith, by that we accord vnto the truth: truth, by calling, through the preaching of the Gospel: from whence we come at length to a certaine hope of glorification. 11. To sanctify you. 12. Faith which is faith, shall not be upon him, but upon the word of God, which is the Gospel. 13. By our preaching. 14. The conclusion: It remaineth then, that we continue in the doctrine which was deliuered vnto vs by the mouth and writings of the Apostles, through the free good will of God, which comforteth vs with so inuincible hope and also in all godlinesse our whole life long.

CHAP. II.

4 He telleth that Antichrist, thar is, whose name bee be that shall occupie that state that shall fall away from God, shall not reign with the Church, but in the very bowels of his Church, 5 This prophesie was continually declared to the ancient Church, but it was neglected of them that followed.

6 Euen to the Apostles time the foundations of the Apostolical sed were layd, but yet so that they decreed men.

7 He telleth that when the Empire of Rome is taken away, the seat that shall away from God shall succede and shall holde in place, as the old writers, I. scilicet, Chrysostome and Hierome doe expound it.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHEVS.

CHAP. I.

3 Setting forth a perfect pattern of a true Pastor, whose office is to instruct in teaching, 4 he warneth him that gives from let apart, he teacheth things, 5 which further charity and faith: 6 and that his authority be not condemned, 7 he sheweth what an one he is made through the grace of God.

Paul: An Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the I commandment of God our Saviour, and of our Lord Ie-sus Christ our hope,

2 Vnto Timotheus my naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, and mercie, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest warne some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heede to fables and begoneologies which are endlesse, which breed questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

5 For the ende of the commandment wike among 7 you inordinately, and worke nor at all, 8 but are busie bodies.

9 Therefore them that are such, we warne & exhort by our Lord Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnesse, and eate their owne bread,

10 And ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

11 If any man obey not this our saying in this letter, note him, and haue no company with him, 12 that he may be ashamed:

13 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

14 Now the Lord himselfe of peace giue you peace alwayes by all meanes. The Lord be with you all.

CHAP. V.

Having set down a manner how to rebuke an degree, 5 the miserable widows, who then were chosen for the service of the Church: 7 Then he committeth to Elders, 23 and speaketh somewhat concerning the heads of the body.

Rebuke ¹ not an Elder, but exhort him as a father, and the younger men as brethren.

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all pureness.

3 Honour widows which are widows in deed.

4 But if any widows have children, or nephews, let them learne first to shewe godliness toward their owne house, and to recompence their kinned: for that is an honest thing, and acceptable before God.

5 And she that is a widow in deede, and left alone, trutheth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that lieth in pleasure, is dead, while she lieth.

7 These things therefore warne them of, that they may be blamelesse.

8 If there be any that provideth not for his owne, and namely for his household, hee denieth the faith, and is worse then an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threecore yeere old, that hath bene the wife of one husband.

10 And well reported of for good works: if shee have nourished her children, if shee have lodged the strangers, if shee have washed the Saints feete, if shee have ministered unto them which were in aduersitie, if shee were continually giuen vnto every good work.

11 But refuse the yonge. widows: for when they haue begun to waxe wanton against Christ, they will marie.

12 Having damnation, because they haue broken the first faith.

13 And likewise also being idle, they learne to go about from house to house: yea, they are not onely idle, but also praters and busibodies, speaking things which are not comely.

14 I will therefore that the yonger women marry, and beare children, and gouerne the house, and giue none occasion to the aduersary to speake euill.

15 For certaine are already turned backe after Satan.

16 If any faithfull man, or faithfull woman haue widowes, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be sufficient for them that are widowes in deede.

Churches, and such as are free from all reproch of vchastitie, and are well reported of for their diligence, chastitie, and integrity. b That hath had no more husband, but one at anytime. c This is spoken in rebell of the manner of those countries. 10 The first reason why yonger widowes are not to be admitted to this ministration, to wit, because for the lightnes of their age, they will at length make off that burden that Christ hath layd vpon them, and thinke rather vpon marrying againe: and so will forsake the ministration whens they haue bound themselves. 11 Take them not into the circle of widowes. 12 Another reason: because they are for the most part praters and busibodies, and gadders vp and downe, neglecting their charge and dutie. 13 The third rule: Let yonger widowes marry and gouerne their houses godly. 14 The first rule: Let the faithfull helpe their widowes at their owne charges as much as they can, and let not the Congregation be charged with this expence.

17 ¶ The Elders that rule well, let them be had in double honour, specially they which labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, *Thou shalt not mouell the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: and, *The labourer is worthy of his wages.

19 Against an Elder receive none accusation, but vnder two or three witnesses.

20 ¶ Them that sinne, rebuke openly, that the rest also may feare.

21 ¶ I charge thee before God and the Lord Iesus Christ, and the clef Angels, that thou obseruesth these things, without putting one to another, and doe nothing partially.

22 Lay hands, suddenly on no man, neither be partakers of other mens sinnes: keepe thy selfe pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but vse a little wine for thy stomackes sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 ¶ Some mens sinnes are open before hand, and goe before vnto iudgement: but some mens follow after.

25 ¶ Likewise also the good works are manifest before hand, and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

*led to the manner of the Congregation, the other did decide that at one upon preaching and prayer, to as for the congregation. * Deuteronomy 19. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.*

The third rule: Let the Elders be committed deere beloved only, that they may be an example to others.

Chapter 6. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

The fourth rule: Let the Elders haue indifferent consideration of their neibhs, in the manner of their diet. 20 Because hypocrites sometimes creepe into the ministration, although there be neuer a great diligence used, the spoile will leaue the Pastours not to be troubled therefore, or backe any whit of their diligence in their ministration, because the Lord hath appointed a time to discourt the laitie of such men, and it is our partes to take heed that we offend not therein.

21 Another comfort belonging to them, which sometime are blaudered and misreported of.

CHAP. VI.

1 He resemeth the duties of seruants: 2 and what a misbehaviour and euill conuersion: 3 and howing from the seruants of men men beare against their bidels 1 Timothy, 20 to couer some of the seruants beabing.

Let ¹ as many seruants as are vnder the yoke, count their masters wortheie of all honour, that the Name of God, and his doctrine bee not euill spoken of.

2 And they which haue beleeuing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather do seruice, because they are faithful, and beloued, and partakers of the benefite.

3 The e things teach and exhort.

the common state. And this is the first rule: Let the seruants that are come to the faith, and haue infidels to their masters, serue them not with standing with great fidelity. 2 The reason: Let God should teeme by the doctrine of the Gospel to shure vp men to rebellion and all wickednesse. 3 The second rule: Let not seruants that are come to the faith, and haue also masters of the same profession and religion, abuse the name of brotherhood, but let them do much the rather obey them. 4 Let the be seruants. That as they haue the things which are pertuene to euerting this life they are partakers of the same good will and love of God, as those masters who are in the same. 5 A general conclusion: that the thing ought not only to be simply caught, but must with much care be diligently beaten into their heads.

He commendeth faithfully, and excommuni-cates out of the Church as proud men, such as content not themselves with Christ's doctrine, (that is to say) the doctrine of god-liness) but war-re with themselves and others in vaine gossiping, (for all others are vain) because they content not themselves in Christ's doctrine: and as saying de-ceitfully, because they favour or found of nothing but vanity: as mad men, because they trouble themselves so much in matters of nothing:
as mischievous plagues, for that they cause great contentions, & confusions in minds and iudgements:
to be short, as prophane and wicked, because they abuse the precious name of godliness and religion to filthy lucre.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and con-fesseth not to the wholesome words of our Lord Ie-sus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness,

4 Hee is put vp and knoweth nothing, but doteth about questions and b trifles of wordes, whereof commeth enuie, strife, railings, euill surmising,

5 Froward c disputations of men of corrupt minds and defeture of the truth, which thinke that gaine is godliness: from such separate thy selfe.

6 But godliness is great gaine, if a man bee content with that he hath.

7 For he brought nothing into the world, and it is certaine, that we can carrie nothing out.

8 Therefore when wee haue foode and raiment, let vs therewith be content.

9 For they that will bee rich, fall into tentation and inirases, and into many foolish and noisome lustes, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.

10 For the desire of money is the roote of all ouill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and pearced themselves thorow with many sorrowes.

11 But thou, O e man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousnesse, godlines, faith, loue, patience, and meekenesse.

12 Fight the good fight of faith: lay holde of eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

5 Strivings about words, and not about matter: and by words Ie meaneth all those things which haue no pith in them, and whereby we can scape no profit. c Such as wee see in those schollers of Popes, which are nothing else but vain babbling and prating. 6 Hee turneth away his name of gaine and lucre, confessing that godliness is great gaine, but late after another loot, to wit, because it bringeth true subtenite. 7 Hee mocketh their folly, which doe so greedily gaze after fraille things, that they can in no wile bee satisfied, and yet know withstanding they cannot enjoy that excessive. 8 He feareth Ti-motheus from contentions: after another sort, to wit, because it draweth with it an infinite sort of follies, and thoe very hurtfull, wherewith contentous men doe torment themselves so farre forth, that in the end they call away from them their faith and falsation. d Sorrow and griefe doe as it were pearce thorow the mind of man, and are the hurtfullest and truest of contentions. e A peculiar exhortation to diuers vertues, wherewith it behooveth the Pastours especially to be furnished, o Whom the Spirit of Godline.

the word, to wit, that they eschew all vaine babblings of sophistrie, and continue in

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHEVS.

CHAP. I.

5 Hee commendeth Timotheus faith, 6 and exhorteth him to goe on faithfully in the charge committed vnto him, 8 and that re-sister for bonds, 15 nor the revelling of others, but faint.
11 Hee triumpheth of this Apostleship. 14 Hee willeshim to haue care of the thing committed, vnto him, 16 and prayeth Omniphora.

Aul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, * according to the promise of life which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 I I thanke God, * whom I serue from mine e elders with pure conscience, that without a Sent of Gods preach that I willeth transid in Christ Ies. The chiefe marke that in this Epistle, is to confirm Timothee to continue constantly and man-fully euen to the ende, setting first before him the great good will be heareth him, and then reckoning vp the excellent gifts which God would haue, as it were to be by inheritance in Timothee, and his benefactors, which might so much more miske him bound to God.
* Act 22. 3. From Arabians, Iacub and Iacob: for see speakeb us of Ponijus, and of Christians.

ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfaired faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 * 2 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou * stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hath first giuen to vs the Spirit of deare, but of power, and of shoue, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimo-on the contrary side much labour as much as we can to suffer and abide in labour. d To percey vs thorow, and * crye vs as men whom the Lord will deliuer. 3 He reprocheth that the ignominie or shame of the crosse, is not onely not to be ashamed of, but also that it is glorious and most honourable: first, because the Gospel wherefore the godly are afflicted, is the testimonie of Christ: and secondly, because at length the great vertue and power of God appeareth in them.

2 He willeth vs to test the innumerable power of the Spirit, which God hath giuen vs against those forms which may and do come vpon vs.
e The gift of God is as it were cer-

16 At my first answering no man assisted me, but all orfooke mee : I pray God, that it bee not laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord assisted me, and strengthened me, that by me the preaching might be fully beleevd, and that all the Gentiles should heare : and I was deliuered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord will deliuer mee from euery euill worke, and wil preserve me vnto his glauiously Kingdome : to whom be praise for euer and euer. Amen.

¶ The second Epistle written from Rome vnto Timothy, the first Bishop elected of the Church of Ephesus, when Paul was prented the second time before the Emperour Nero.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHS.

CHAP. I.

¶ Hee sheweth what kinde of men ought to bee chosen Ministers : 10 how vaine talkers ministers should bee stopped : 12 and through this called he toucheth the nature of the Cretians, 14 and the Jewes, who put holiness in outward shewes.

PAUL ^a a seruant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, ^a and the acknowledging of the truth, which is according vnto godlines,

2 Vnto the hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lye, hath promised before the world began :

3 But hath made his word manifest in due time through the preaching, which is committed vnto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour.

4 To Titus my naturall sonne according to the common faith, Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldst continue to redrefie the things that remaine, and shouldst ordeine Elders in euery cite as I appointed thee,

6 If any be vnreproueable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of riot, neither are v disobedient.

7 For a Bishop must bee vnreproueable, as Gods steward, not self willed, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lere,

8 But harberous, one that loueth goodnesse, a wife, righteous, holy temperate,

9 Holding fast that faithfull worde according to doctrine, so that hee also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and conuince them that say against it.

10 For there are many disobedient and vaine talkers and deceiuers of minds, chiefly they of the Circumcision, 11 Whose mouthes must bee stopped, which subuert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

12 One of them Iesus euen one of their own prophets said, The Cretians are alwayes liars, euill beasts, flow bellies.

13 This witness is true: wherefore conuince them sharply, that they may be found in faith.

14 And not taking heede to Iewish fables, and commandments of men, that turne away from the truth.

15 Vnto the pure : are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnbeleewing nothing pure, but euen their o mindes and consciences are defiled.

¶ Epimenides, who was counted a Prophet amongst them. Looke vpon Laertes and Ciferon in his first booke of Dimination. He roughly and plainly saith of these liars, which went about to vayne Christ and the Law together. 1 Tim. 1. 4. 11 Hee sheweth in few words, that purity consisteth not in any external worship, and that is according to the difference of meates and washings, and o theistic things, which are abolished in the minde & conscience : and whose teaching otherwise, know not what is true religion indeede, and also are nothing lesse then that that they would seeme to be. Rom. 14. 20. o frowne minde and consciences bee vncleane, whos cleanness is cleere in vs before generation.

CHAP. II.

¶ Hee setteth out the duties of husbands and fathers, 6 and willeth him to instruct the Church in manners. 11 He draweth an argument from the end of our redemption, 12 which is that we shew godly and uprightly.

BE SPEAKE thou the things which become wholesome doctrine,

2 That the elder men bee watchfull, graue temperate, sound in the faith, in loue, and in patience.

3 The elder women likewise, that they be in such behaviour as becometh holinesse, not false accusers, not subiect to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the young women to bee sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children,

5 That they be temperate, chaste, keeping at home, good and subiect vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort young men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 In all things shew thy selfe an example to An applying of the generally proposition to a particular: the Cretesians about all other neede sharpe reprehensions: both because their mindes are naturally giuen to lies and foolishnesse, and also because of certaine ceterous lyes, which vnder a colour of godlinesse doo partly certayne vaine traditions, and partly olde ceremonies with the Gospel.

Of the liars, or rather of those liars, which went about to vayne Christ and the Law together. 1 Tim. 1. 4. 11 Hee sheweth in few words, that purity consisteth not in any external worship, and that is according to the difference of meates and washings, and o theistic things, which are abolished in the minde & conscience : and whose teaching otherwise, know not what is true religion indeede, and also are nothing lesse then that that they would seeme to be. Rom. 14. 20. o frowne minde and consciences bee vncleane, whos cleanness is cleere in vs before generation.

The first admonition: The doctrine must not only be generally pure, but also be applied to all ages & orders of men according to diversity of circumstances, which are the chiefest vntures for old and young, both men & women: and where they ought to be stirred vp vnto them continually. 1 Negadid vnto and done. 2 Ephes. 5. 3. The first admonition: That both the husbands life and doctrine must be sound.

o Of Titus.
f Pretious me pure from committing any thing unworthily my Apostleship.
g To make the partaker of his kingdom.

x Hee voucheth his Apostleship, (not for Titus, but for the Cretesians sake) both by the testimony of his outward calling, and by his content wherein hee agreeth with all the elect from the beginning of the world.

a A Minister, as Christ himselfe, in that that hee is a Minister, and a brad of the Prophetie, as called a servant, Eia. 43. 10.

b Of those whom God hath chosen.

c The faith wher in all the elect consent, is the true and sincere knowle: ge of God, tending to this end, that woe shipping God a right, they may at length obtaine life everlasting according to the promise of God, who is true, which promise was exhibited in Christ in due time, according to his eternal promise.

e Hope is the end of faith.

d Truly, and of his meere liberality.

1. 9. 1 Pet. 1. 20. e Look, a Tim. 1. 9

f The word (Sanctus) doth not onely signify a preiurer of life, but also a giver of life.

g The Apostle moutheth the Cretesians to heare Titus, by setting forth his consent and agreement with him in the faith, and there withall sheweth by what speciall note we may distinguish true ministers from false.

h There is but one way of saluation, common both to the Pastor and to the flocke.

i The first admonition, to exhort the Elders to euery cite. L. Tim. 3. 2.

j This word a proper is better than a word, which will not abide the poke.

k The second admonition, that false Pastors who be comprehended be deliuered from the word Elders ought to be voyd of, & what vertue they ought to haue.

l Phases the Lord hath appointed steward of his gifts. i Not hard denaunt, and a singular example of modesty.

m The third admonition: The Pastor must hold fast that the faithfull worde, and pertaine to saluation, leaving all curious and vaine matters.

n The fourth admonition: To apply the knowledge of true doctrine vnto vs, which consisteth in two things, to wit, in gouerning them which shew themselves apt to heare and confuting the obstinate,

6 Not such a quarrel as to drive men from communion to the minister, but such a way as to them to come in with reverence and honesty.

3 * For we our selves also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, decieved, seruing the lustes

4 But when that bountifullnesse and that loue

8 3 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldst affirme, that they which have beloued God, might be careful to shew forth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWEES.

THe drift and end of this Epistle, is to shew that Iesus Christ the Sonne of God both God and man, is that true eternal and only Prophet, King, and high Priest, that was shadowed by the figures to the old Law, and is now indeed exhibited: of whom the whole Church ought to be taught, governed and sanctified.

CHAP. I.

To shew that the doctrine which Christ brought, is most excellent in it as in the knitting up of all prophetes, a he aduceth him aboute the Angels 10 Anip^ouath by diuers testimonies of the Scripture, that hee farre surpasseth all other.

A T sundry times and in diuers manners God spake in the olde time to our Fathers by the Prophets: in these last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, 2 Whom he hath made his heire of all things,
by whom also hee made the worlds,
3 Who beinge the brightness of the glory and the ingraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mighty word, hath by himselfe purged our sins, and hath sitteth at the right hand of the Maiestie in the highest places, 4 And is made to much more excellent then the Angels, in as much as hee hath obtained a more excellent Name then they.
5 For vnto which of the Angels sayd hee at any time, Thou art my Sonne, * this day begate I thee? and againe, I will be his Father, and he shall be my Sonne:
6 And againe, when he bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, he sayeth, * And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 * And of the Angels he saith, * Hee maketh the spirits = messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.
8 But vnto the Sonne he saith, * O God, thy throne is for euer P and euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousness.
9 Thou hast ruled righteously and hated iniquity. Wherefore God euen thy God, hath anointed thee with the oile of gladnes, above thy fellows.
10 And * Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.
11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine, and they all shall waxe old as doeth a garment.
12 And as a vesture shalt thou fould them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same and thy yeeres shall not faile.
13 ¶ Vnto which also of the Angels laid hee at any time, * Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstoole?
14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent

CHAP. II.

Wherefore we ought diligently to giue heed to the things which we haue heard, least at any time we be runne out.
2 For if the word spoken by Angels was steadfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward, 3 How shall we escape if we neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached doctrine maie and Priesthood is well perced, he hath an exaltation taken from a comparison, a Hee maketh himselfe an heare, b They are said to be the word was made a full when they haue heard it, c The Law which appeared punishment for it offenders: and which Paul hath man given by Angels, Gal.
3. 19, and Stephen, Acts 7. 53. d If the breach and transgression out of the word spoken by Angels was not suffered unpunished, much less shall it be lawfull for vs to neglect the Gospel which the Lord of Angels preached and was confirmed by the voice of the Apostles, and with many figures and wonders from heauen, and especially with so great and mighty working of the holy Ghost.

*e Now as it were putting with himselfe, & throwing to what end and purpose a these things were spoken to us, to shewden for the excellencie of Christ above all creatures, that his doctrine maie and Priesthood is well perced, he hath an exaltation taken from a comparison, a Hee maketh himselfe an heare, b They are said to be the word was made a full when they haue heard it, c The Law which appeared punishment for it offenders: and which Paul hath man given by Angels, Gal. 3. 19,
and Stephen, Acts 7. 53. d If the breach and transgression out of the word spoken by Angels was not suffered unpun-ished, much less shall it be lawfull for vs to neglect the Gospel which the Lord of Angels preached and was confirmed by the voice of the Apostles, and with many figures and wonders from heauen, and especially with so great and mighty working of the holy Ghost.*

4 He applyeth the former doctrine to this end, shewing all men by the words of David to heare the Sonne himselfe speake, and to give full credit to his words, seeing that otherwise they cannot enter into that externall rest. 1 To my disciples, 2 He calleth that excellent effect of faith (whereby we cry), Abba, that is, Father: confidence and confidence bee in his hope. 3 Tyl 19. 8. Chap. 7. 1 So that God was to speake once againe after David, 2 In the day that he shall see the Lord or shewe with him. 3 They are not, so much as we are, made.

which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose house we are, if we hold fast that confidence and that reioycing of that hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the pronocation, according to the day of the temptation in the wilderness,

9 Where your fathers tempted mee, prouoed me, and saw my works fourtie yees long.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they known my wayes.

11 Therefore I ware in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest, 12 Take heed, brethren, lest at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 * For we are made partakers of Christs, if we keepe vnto the end that beginning, where-with we are vpholden,

15 So long as it is said, To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the pronocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was hee displeased fourtie yeres? was he not displeased with them that sinned, whose carkeises lye in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them who obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

20 Now hee considereth these words, If you heare his voyce, &c. shewing that they are spoken and meant of the hearing of faith, againe which hee teacheth hardening through vnbeliefe. *4 That beginning of iust and confidence: and after the manner of the Hebrews, hee calleth this beginning, which is the clefitt. 1 So long as this voyce is heard, &c. * Num. 14. 37.*

CHAP. III.

1 Hee teacheth the hearers with this saying, If they, euen as their fathers were, be deprived of the rest offered vnto them, 1. Lest they, euen as their fathers, be brought into the state of Christs Priesthood.

Let vs feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entering into his rest, any of you should seeme to be deprived.

2 For vnto vs also the Gospel preached as also vnto them, but the word that they heard, profited not them, because it was not mixed with faith in the heart that heard it.

3 For wee which haue beleueed, doe enter

1 By the waye he sheweth that David meant the preaching of Christ, who was then also preached, for Moses & the Prophets repeated some other. 2 Hee compareth the preaching of the Gospel to drinke, which being drunke, that is to say, heard & profited nothing, vntill it be tempered with faith. 3 Lest any man should obiect, that those words were meant of the land of Canaan, and of Moyses doctrine, and therefore cannot well be drunke to Christ, and to eternall life, the Apostle sheweth that there are two maner of rest spoken of in the Scriptures: the one of the sixteenth day, wherein God vnto him that haue rested from all his works another is said to be that same, wherein God vnto him that hee led the people; but this rest is not the last rest whereunto we are called, and that hee prooeth by two reasons. For seeing that David so long time after speaking to the people, which were then placed in the land of Canaan, vnto these words, To day, and threatneth them that they shall not enter into the rest of God, which they refused the voice of God, which sounded in their eares, we must needs say, that he meant another time then the time of Moses, and another rest then the rest of the land of Canaan: And that is that eualluating rest, wherein we begin to lye to God after that this day of this life ceaseth: as God rested the sixteenth day from moile works, that is to say, from making the world. Moreover, the Apostle therewithall signifieth that the way to this rest, which Moses and the land of Canaan and all that order of the Law, did shadow, is opened in the Gospel onely.

into rest, as he said, to the effect, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For hee take in a certaine place of the sixteenth day on this wife, * And God did rest the sixteenth day from all his works.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereto, & they to whom it was first preached, entered not therein for vnbeliefs sake:

7 Againe hee appointed in David a certaine day, by To day, after so long a time, saying as it is said, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this haue spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, hath also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is lively, and mightie in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and enenthr thorow, euen vnto the diuiding asunder of the soule and the spirit, and of the ioynts, and the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, with whom wee haue to doe.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs hold fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which can not bee touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore go boldly vnto the throne of grace, that wee may receiue mercie, and finde grace to helpe in time of need.

1 Hee sheweth the assistance of the hie Priest: 5 Secondly, that Christ is appointed of God to see our hie Priest, 7 and that hee haue full power of all things belonging thereto.

CHAP. V.

For every high Priest is taken from among men, and is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both gifts and sacrifices for finnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them that are ignorant, and that are called after the order of men.

3 The first part of the second comparison: these as wee are made high Priests, and the end that feeling the same infirmities in themselves which is in all the rest of the people, they should in their own and the peoples name offer gifts and sacrifices, which are witness of common faith and repentance.

of the second com-

being exceedingly afflicted, & exceedingly merciful.

asked not for his sins, for he had none; but for his fear, & obtained his request, and covered himselfe for all his.

the Father, as the author of revelation, and an high Priest for ever, and therefore he is

3 And for the fumes sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 * 3 And no man taketh this honor vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour, to be made the high Priest, but he that said vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this day be-gatte I thee, name it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh,
* Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec,

7 4 Who in the 8 daies of his flesh did offer vp prayers & supplications, with strong cryings and teares vnto him, that was able to haue him from death, and was also heard in that which he feared.

8 And though he were the Sonne, yet he learned his obedience, by the things, which he suffered,

9 And being consecrated, was made author
of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an high Priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 6 Of whom we haue many things to say,
which are hard to be vttered, because yee are dull
of hearing.

12 7 For when as concerning the time yee ought to be teachers, yet haue ye need againe that we teach you what are the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue need of milke, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that vetch milke, is inexpert
in the word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their minds exercised, to discern both good and euill.

15 6 Of whom we haue many things to say,
which are hard to be vttered, because yee are dull
of hearing.

16 7 For when as concerning the time yee
ought to be teachers, yet haue ye need againe that we teach you what are the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue need of milke, and not of strong meat.

17 8 And though he were the Sonne, yet he learned

24 15 6 Of whom we haue many things to say,
which are hard to be vttered, because yee are dull

25 16 7 For when as concerning the time yee
ought to be teachers, yet haue ye need againe that we teach you what are the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue need

26 17 8 And though he were the Sonne, yet he learned his obedience, by the things, which he suffered,

27 18 9 And being consecrated, was made author
of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

28 19 10 And is called of God an high Priest after
the order of Melchisedec.

29 20 11 6 Of whom we haue many things to say,
which are hard to be vttered, because yee are dull
of hearing.

30 21 12 7 For when as concerning the time yee
ought to be teachers, yet haue ye need againe that we teach you what are the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue need of milke, and not of strong meat.

31 22 13 For every one that vetch milke, is inexpert

word of God: and are become such as haue need of milke, and not of strong meat.

35 26 17 8 And though he were the Sonne, yet he learned
his obedience, by the things, which he suffered,

36 27 18 9 And being consecrated, was made author
of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

37 28 19 10 And is called of God an high Priest after
the order of Melchisedec.

5 And haue tasted of the good word of God, and of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they crucified againe to themselves the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 3 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbe herbes meet for them by whom it is drused, recei-ueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reproboued, and is nere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 4 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany sal-uation, though we thus speake.

10 5 For God is not vngracious, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed toward his Name, in that yee haue ministered vnto the Saints, and yet in this.

11 And we desire that every one of you shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end,

12 6 That yee be not slouthfull, but followers of them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 7 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare otherwise by, he sware by himselfe,

14 8 Saying, * Surely I will abundantly bless thee, and multiply thee marvellously.

15 And so after that hee had waited patiently, he enioyed the promises.

16 For men verely sware by him that is greater then themselves, and an oath for confirmation among them is an end of all strife.

17 So God, willing more abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promise, the steadfastnes of his counsell, bound him selfe by an oath,

18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God should lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to lay hold vpon that hope, which is set before vs,

19 9 Which hope we haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and steadfast, and it encreth into that which is within the vaile,

20 10 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred in, euen Iesus that is made an high Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

21 11 6 Of whom we haue many things to say,
which are hard to be vttered, because yee are dull

5 Hee giueth a reason why he saith that our high Priest is in the heavenly Sanctuary, and not in the earthly: because, faith he, if he were now on the earth, he could not minister in the earthly Sanctuary seeing there are yet Leuitical Priests, which are appointed for him, that is to say, to be patternes of that perfect example, and to what purpose should the patternes serve when the true and original example is present.

* Exod. 28. 40. alies 7. 34. 6 He entred into the composition of the old and transitorie Testament or covenant being but for a time, whereas the Leuitical Priests were mediators with the new, the everlasting Mediator whereof is Christ, so shew that this is not onely better then that in a respect, but also that it was abrogated by 7 He proueth by the testimonie of Ieremie, that there is a second Testament or covenant, and therefore that the first, was not perished.

* Iere. 31. 31, 32, 33, 34. Rom. 12. 7. chap. 10. 1. d. e Hee calleth it an house, as it were one house of the whole kingdom: for whereas the kingdom of David was divided into two Testaments, the Prophet speaketh us to understand that though he the new Testament be said to be renewed against the old, the conclusion is therefore by the latter and the new, the first and old is taken away, for it could not be called new, if it differed not from the old. And againe, that time is as length taken away, which is liable to corruption, and therefore impeded.

C H A P. IX

9 Comparing the Grace of the Tabernacle, 10 and the ceremonies of the Law, 11 unto the truest set out in Christ, 15 hee concludeth that now there is no more need of another Priest, 24 because Christ himselfe hath himselfe offered himselfe under the new covenant.

THEN the first Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a wordly Sanctuary.

2 For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlesticke, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the Holy places.

3 And after the second vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden center, and the Ark of the Testament overlaid round about with gold, wherein the goldenpot, which had Manna was, and * Aarons rod that had budded, and the * tables of the Testament.

5 * And our the Ark were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the * Mercy seat: of which things we will not now speake particularly.

* *The holiest Sanctuary, * Num. 17. 10. * 1. King. 8. 9. 2. Chron. 5. 10. * Exod. 25. 22. d. The Hebrews call the row of the Ark of the testament, the Mercy seat, as being by the Cherubims and so follow.*

6 Now then these things were thus ordained, the Priests went alwaies into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the * high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which hee offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, whereas yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for that present time, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make holy, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stood in meats and drinks, and diuers washings, and carnall rights, which were enioyned, vntill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the holy place, and obtained eternall redemption for us.

13 * For if the blood of buls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vnecleane, sanctifyeth as touching the k purifying of the flesh,

14 How much more shall the * blood of Christ, which through the eternall Spirit offered himselfe without fault to God, * purge your consciences from dead works to the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of

to say, if the worshippers were not purged by them) why then were those ceremonies vied to wit that men might be called backe to that first example, that is to say, to the way that should correct all those things at his coming. For that time that the figure had to life. Another reason why they could not make cleane the conscience of the worshipper, to wit, because they were outward and carnall or corporall things. For they were a yew would say a burden, from which Christ delivered vs. 6 Nowe hee entred into the declaration of the figures, and first of all comparing the Leuitical high Priest with Christ, (that is to say, the figure with the thing it selfe) hee attributeth to Christ, the administration of good things to come, that is, euellall, which those carnall things had respect vnto. 7 An other comparison of the first corruptible Tabernacle with the latter, (that is to say, with the humane nature of Christ) which is the true incorruptible Temple of God, whereinto the Sonne of God entred as the Leuitical high Priests entred into the other which was fraille and transitory. 8 By a more excellent and better. 9 Another comparison of the blood of the sacrifices with Christ. The Leuitical high Priest entering by those their holy places into their Sanctuary, offered corruptible blood for one yeete onely: but Christ entering into that holy body of his, entered by it into heauen it selfe, offering his own pure blood for an euellall redemption: For one selfe same Christ answerech both to the high Priest and the Tabernacle, and the sacrifices, and the offeringes themselves, as the truth to the figures, for that Christ is both high Priest and Tabernacle and the Sacrifice, yea, all these both together and for euere. 10 For in this yeete sacrifice of reconciliation there were two kinds of sacrifice, the one good the other a better, or calfe. * Leuit. 16. 14. num. 19. 4. 9 If outward priming of blood and ashes of beastes, was a true and effectfull signe of purifying and cleansing, how much more shall the thing it selfe and the truth being present, which in times past was shadowed by those externall Sacraments, that is to say, his blood, which is in such sort more blood, than is all the blood of the Sonne of God, and therefore hath an excoerting vertue of purifying and cleansing doeth. 10 The conclusion of the former arguments. Therefore seeing the blood of beastes did not purge finnes, the new Testament which was before time promised, wherein the true outward things had respect, is nowe indede established, by the vertue whereof all transgressions might be taken away, and heauen indede opened vnto vs: whereof it followeth that Christ did his blood al for vs Fathers. For he was shadowed by those old ceremonies, otherwise, vntill they had learned to represent him, they had been nothing at all profitable. Therefore this Testament is called the latter, not concerning the vertue of it, (that is to say, remission of finnes) but in respect of that time, wherein the thing it selfe was finished, that is to say, wherein Christ was indede exhibited to the world, and fulfilled all things which were necessary to our saluation.

Now hee cometh to the sacrifices, which hee diuident into those daily sacrifices, and thateuery yeere offering into the Holiest of all, with blood, of which the high Priest onely, but once euery yeere entering into the Holiest of all, with blood, offered for himselfe and the people. * *Exod. 30. 10. *Leuit. 16. 2. For the sinnes, *Leuit. Chap. 1. 2. Of that yeere-lyrite and ceremonie hee sheweth that the way was not by such sacrifices opened into heauen, which was shadowed by the Holiest of all: For why did the high Priest alone enter in thither, shutting out all other, and that to offer sacrifice there, both for himselfe and for others and after did hee the Holiest of all againe? An oblation: If the way were not opened into heauen by those sacrifices, that is,

Rom. 5. 6.
2pet. 3. 18.

14 A reason why the Testament must be abolished by the death of the Mediator, because this Testament hath the condition of a Testament of gift, which is made effectual by death; & therefore that it might be effectual it must needs be that he that made the Testament, should die.

Gal. 3. 15.
12 There must be a proportion between the things which purify, & those which are purified: Vnder the Law all those figures were earthly, the Tabernacle, the books, the vessels, &c. sacrifices, although they were the figures of heavenly things.

There fore it was requisite that all those should be purified with some matter of the same nature, to wit, with the blood of beasts, with water, wool, hyssop. But vnder Christ all things are heavenly: an heavenly tabernacle, an heavenly sacrifice, an heavenly people, an heavenly doctrine, and heavenly life is set open before us for an euangelizing habitation.

Therefore all these things are sanctified in like sort, to wit, with that everlasting offering of the quickening blood of Christ. As the Lord hath commanded, u. He is to be offered. Exod. 24. 8. O the similitude of beauty things were earthly, and therefore they were to be offered with earthly things, as with the blood of beasts, and wool, and hyssop. Vnder Christ all things are heavenly, and therefore they could not be sanctified with the offering of his earthly blood.

13 Another double compulsion: The Levitical high Priest entered into the Sanctuary, which was made doored by the commandment of God, but yet with mens hands, that it might be a pattern of another more excellent, to wit, of the heavenly palace. But Christ entered even into himself. Again, he appeared before the Father, but Christ before God the Father himself. 14 Another double compulsion: The Levitical high Priest offered blood, but Christ offered his own body. One iterated his offering: Christ offering himself but once, abolished sinne altogether, both of the former ages & of the ages to come. 15 An argument to prove that Christs offering ought not to be repeated: Seeing that sinne was to be purged from the beginning of the world, and it is proved that sinne cannot be purged, but by the only blood of Christ: he must needs have died of so many times since the beginning of the world. But a man can die but once: therefore Christs oblation which was once done in the latter days, neither could, nor can be repeated. Seeing then it is so, surely the verbe of it extendeth both to sinnes that were before, and to sinnes that are after his coming.

In the latter dayes, p. The whole order of sinne. v. He speaketh of the natural state and condition of man: For as for Language and ceremonies, he saith, that it was no usualizing thing extraordinary, and as for that which he saith, he changed them, it is a kind of doubt. 2 Cor. 13. 14. 1 Pet. 5. 8. 2. 3. 8. That the natural things were offered to the Father, and were by the offering of the will of our election, not in the first count of God, but in the benefit that our faith receiveth, and we must continue from sin, as well as to the high, the low, the middle, we cannot say it is more certain and shall we be moved, 1. 6. Shortly by the way heleth out Christ as a lodge, partly to testify them, which doe not rest themselves in the only oblation of Christ once made, and partly to keep the faithful in their duty, that they go not backe.

the New Testament, that through * death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must be the death of him that made the Testament.

17 For the Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it is alive.

18 Wherefore, neither was the first ordained without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to the people, according to the Law, hee tooke the blood of calves and of goats, with water and purple wooll and hyssop, and * sprinkled both the booke, and all the people.

20 Saying, This is the blood of the Testament which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreover, hee sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heavenly things should be purified with such things: but the heavenly things themselves are purified with better sacrifices than are these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuary, but is entered into very heaven, to appeare now in the sight of God, for vs.

25 Not that hee should offer himselfe often as the high Priest entered into the holy place, every yeere with other blood,

26 For then must hee have often suffered since the foundation of the world; but now in the end of the world hath hee become made manifest, once to put away sin by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall * once die and after that commeth the iudgement:

28 So * Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of * many, * and vnto them that looke for him, shall hee appeare the second time without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

Hebrews 10. 1. Hebrews 10. 1. The sacrifices of the Law were imperfect, a because they were yearly renewed. 5 But that the sacrifice of Christ was and perpetual, 6 he pronounceth by David in Psalms: 12 Then he addeth an exhortation, 23 and a curse through them that will the praise of Christ. 26 In the end he presseth patience, 38 that cometh of faith.

1 For the Law hauing the shadowe of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer yeere by yeere continually, sanctifie the comers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bin offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sin?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes every yeere.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of buls and goates should take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when hee cometh into the world, he saith, * Sacrifice & offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou ordained me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Loe, I come (in the beginning of the booke it is written of me) that I should do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sin offerings, thou wouldest not haue, neither hast pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law)

9 Then I say, Loe, I come to do thy will, O God, hee taketh away the first, that hee may stablish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, even by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And every Priest standeth daily ministering, and oft times offereth one manner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after hee had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God,

13 And from henceforth tareth * till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For with one offering, hee hath beene consecrated for euer that hee is sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that hee had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I will make

1 He pronounceth a priuile oblation. VVhen then were those sacrifices offered? The Apostles were not, but those which yearly sacrifice, which was the solemnity of all, wherein (saith he) there was made euer yeere a remembrance againe of all former sinnes. Therefore that sacrifice had no power to cleanse vs to what purpose should those sinnes which are purged be repeated againe, and wherefore should new lanes come to be repeated euer yeere, if those sacrifices did abolish sinne?

2 Of things which are everlasting, which were promised by the Father, and are realized in Christ.

3 A conclusion following of those things that went before, and comprehending also the other sacrifices. Seeing that the sacrifices of the Law could not do it, therefore Christ speaking of himselfe as of one his Priest manifested into flesh, windeeth evidently that God relecth not in the sacrifices but in the obedience of his Sonne our high Priest, in which obedience he offered vp himselfe once to his Father for vs. 6 The course of Goats sacrifice into the world, when he was made man. 7. 1. *John. 40. 7. c. It is word for word in the Hebrew text, That he offered minores etiam, that is, that he was made man, and willing to suffer. 4. 1. Then the sacrifice is to be offered, that is, the word of God. 2. A conclusion with the other part of the compulsion. The Levitical high Priest repeated the same sacrifices daily in his Sanctuary: hereupon it followeth that neither those sacrifices, neither those offerings, neither those his Priests could take away sinne. But Christ, having offered one sacrifice once for the sinnes of all men, and having sanctified his owne for euer, sitteth at the right hand of the Father, having all power in his hands. c. 11. 1. *Heb. 10. 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

vnto them after those daies, faith the Lord, I will put my Lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them.

17 And their finnes and iniquities will I remember I no more.

18 Now where remission of theſe things is, there is no more offering for a ſinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Ieſus we may bee bold to enter into the Holy place,

20 By the new and liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his fleſh:

21 And ſeing we haue an hee Prielt, which is ouer the houſe of God,

22 Let vs drawe neere with a true heart in aſſurance of faith, our hearts being pure from an euill conſcience,

23 And waſhed in our bodies with pure water, let vs keepe the proſcription of our hope, without wauering, (for he is faithfull that promiſed)

24 And let vs conſider one another, to provoke vnto loue, and to good works,

25 Not orlake the fellowship that we haue among our ſelues, as the manner of ſome is: but let vs exhort one another, and that ſo much the more, becauſe yee ſee that the day draweth neere.

26 For if we ſinne willingly after that we haue receiued and acknowledged that truth, there remaineth no more ſacrifice for finnes, 27 But a ſcarefull looking for of iudgement, and violent fire, which ſhall deuoure the adulteries.

28 He that deſpiſeth Moſes Law, dieth without mercy * vnder two or three winneſſes.

29 Of how much ſorer puniſhment ſuppoſe ye ſhall he be worthy, which treadeth vnder foot the Sonne of God, and counteth the blood of the Teſtament as an vnholy thing, wherewith hee was ſanctified, and doth deſpite the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath ſaid, * Vengeance belongeth vnto me: I will recompence ſaith the Lord. And againe, The Lord ſhall iudge his people.

31 It is a ſcarefull thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God.

32 Now call to remembrance the daies that are paſſed, in the which after yee had receiued liſſe, ye endured a great fight in afflictions,

33 Partly while ye were made as galling ſtock both by reproches and afflictions, and partly while ye became companions of them which were ſo torſed to and fro.

34 For both yee forrowed with mee for my bonds, and ſuffered with ioy the ſpoiling of your goods, knowing in your ſclues how that ye haue in heauen, a better, and an enduring ſubſtance.

35 Caſt not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For yee haue need of patience, that after ye haue done the will of God, yee might receiue the promiſe.

37 For yet a very little while, and he that ſhal come, will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the iuſt ſhall liue by faith: but if any withdraw himſelfe, my ſoule ſhall haue no pleaſure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdraw our ſelues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conſeruatiſon of the ſoule.

CHAP. XI.

He declareth in the whole chapter, that the Father, which from the beginning of the world were approuen of God, attained ſalvation no other way then by faith, & that the ſeueral wayes know that by the ſame onely, they are knit vnto the Fathers in an holy communion.

Now faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not ſeene.

2 For by it our Elders were well reported of.

3 Through faith wee vnderſtand that the world was ordained by the word of God, ſo that the things which wee ſee, are not made of things which did appeare.

4 By faith Abel offered vnto God a greater ſacrifice then Cam, by the which hee obtained witness that he was righteous, God teſtifying of his gifts: by the which faith alſo hee being dead, yet ſpeaketh.

5 By faith was Enoch tranſlated, that hee ſhould not ſee death: neither was he found: for God had tranſlated him: for before he was tranſlated, he was reported of, that he had pleaſed God.

6 But without faith it is vnpoffible to pleaſe him: for hee that cometh to God, muſt beleue that God is, and that hee is a rewarder of them that ſeek him.

7 By faith * Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not ſeene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the ſauing of his houſhold, through the which Arke hee condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteousneſſe, which is by faith.

8 By faith * Abraham, when hee was called obeyed God, to goe out into a place, which hee ſhould afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promiſe as in a ſtrange country, as one that dwelt in tents with Iſaac & Jacob heires with him of the ſame promiſe.

10 For he looked for a city hauing a foundation, whoſe builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith * Sara alſo receiued ſtrength to conceive ſeede, and was deliuered of a childe when ſhee was paſt age, becauſe ſhee iudged him faithfull which had promiſed.

12 And therefore ſprang thereof one, euen of one which was dead, ſo many as the ſtarrs of the ſkie in multitude, and as the ſand of the Sea ſhore which is innumerable.

the promises, but saw them afarre off, and beleev-ed them, and received them thankfully, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrimes on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a country.

15 And if they had been min^{is} full of that country from whence they came out they had leifure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauently: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith Abraham offered vp Isaac, when he was tried, and he that had received the promises offered his only begotten sonne.

18 (To whom it was said, * In Isaac shall thy seed be called.)

19 For hee considered that God was able to raile him vp euen from the dead: from whence he received his alife after a fort.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Iacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob when hee was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Ioseph, and * leauing on the end of his flate worshipped God.

22 By faith Ioseph when hee died, made mention of the departing of the children of Isaac and gaue commandment of his bones.

23 By faith Moyses when hee was borne, was hatched three monthes of his parents, because they saw he was a proper childe, neither o fear'd they the kings commandment.

24 By faith Moyses when hee was come to age, refused to bee called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of sinnes for a season.

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches, then the treasures of Egypt: for hee had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forooke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenesse of the king: for he endured, as hee that saw him which is inuisible.

28 Through faith hee ordeined the Passoe-uer and the effusion of blood, lest hee that destroyed the first borne, should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the red sea as by dry land, which when the Egyptians had assayed to doe, they were swallowed vp.

30 By faith the walles of Jericho fell downe after they were compassed about seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when she had received the spies peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would be too short for me to tell of Gedion, of Barac, and of Samson, and of Iephthae, also of Dauid, and Samuel, and of the Prophets:

33 Which through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteousness, obtained the promises, stopped the mouthes of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weakes were made strong, waxed valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliantes.

35 They themouered their dead, raised to life: other also were racked, and would not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better reur-rection.

36 And others haue bene tryed by mocking and scourges, yea, moreouer by bonds, and prisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen asunder, they were tempted, they were flaine with the sword, they wandred vp and downe in shepes skinned, and in goates skinned, being destitute, afflicted, and tormented.

38 Whom the world was not worthy of: they wandered in wildernesses, and mountaines, and dennes, and caues of the earth.

39 And these all through faith received good report, and received a not the promise,

CHAP. XII.

He doeth not only by the example of the Fathers re- cited, exhorteth vs to patience and constancy, 3 but also by the example of Christ, 11 That the chastening of God cannot bee rightly iudged by the outward sense of our flits.

Wherefore, * let vs also, seeing that wee are compassed with so great a cloude of witnesses, cast away euery thing that presteth downe, and the sin that hangeth so fast on: let vs run with patience the race that is set before vs, 2 Looking vnto Iesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the voy that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against sinners, lest ye should be wearied and faint in your mindes:

4 Yee haue not yet resisted vnto blood, stri-uing against sinne.

5 And yee haue forgotten the consolation, which I speake vnto you as vnto children, * My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth:
and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiveth.

7 If yee endure chastening, God offereth himself vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whom the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore yee bee without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are yee bastards, and not sonnes.

9 Moreouer we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and wee gaue them reuerence: should we not much rather bee in subiection vnto the Father of Spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened themselves: for how great is Iesus in comparison of vs, and how far more glorious things did he suffer for us? 4 He taketh an argument of the profit which commeth in vs by Gods chastisements, inlesse we be in fault. First of all because sinne or that rebellious wickednesse of our flesh is by this means restrained. 5 Secondly, because they are testimonies of his Fatherly good will toward vs, inasmuch that they shew themselves to be chastened, which cannot abide to be chastened of God.

6 Thirdly, if all men yeeld this right to fathers, to correct their God we owe this tribute, that they may rightfully correct the children. Iudas here note be much more subiect to that our Father, who is the author of our lasting liue. 7 An amplification of the same argumēt uous chastening. Iudas aduersus. Ioh. our Father, to profit, to make 31 Another Argument taken of the happy end of the elect, is this, that whereas also Christ goes before vs both in example and vertue, as one who suffered most precious torments unto death, although but in one part only of him, to wit, in the flesh or man nature: but yet became conquerour by the vertue of his divinity.

32 Before vs he manhood, for his body was dead, and his soule felt the torments of death 22 A secret objection: Christ indeed might do this, but what is that to vs? yes (saith the Apostle) for Christ hath redeemed us with this vertue in all ages both to the resurrection of the godly, were they neuer so few and miserable, and to reuenge the rebellion of his enemies. 23 It appeareth by the historie of the flood: for Christ is he which in those dayes (when God through his patience appointed a time of repentance to the world) was present not in corporall presence, but by his diuine vertue, preaching repentance: euen by the mouth of Noe himselfe who then prepared the Arke. To those disobedient spirits which are now in prison waiting for the last recompense of their rebellion, and saved those leues (that is, eight onely persons) in the water. 1 By the vertue of which Spirit, that is to say, of the diuinity which dwelleth in that word, Spirit, cannot in this place be taken for it to soule. But we will say, that Christ was raised vp againe, and quickned 24 by the vertue of his soule. 1 He catcheth them spirits, in respect of his time, not in respect of the time that they were in the flesh. 20 This word (one) sheweth that there was a further death appointed, and that were once past, there should be no more. * Gen 6. 14. mat. 24. 36. Luke 17. 16. o Men. 23 A proportionall applying of the former example to the times which followed the coming of Christ: for that preservation of Noe in the waters was a figure of our Baptisme, not as though that materiall water of the Arke saued vs, as those waters which bare vp the Arke saued Noe, but because Christ with his inward vertue, which the outward Baptisme doth figure, preferreth vs being washed, so that wee may call vpon God with a good conscience. p The conscience being sanctified by the inward call vpon God. 21 That selfe same vertue, whereby Christ rose againe, and now being caried vp into heauen, hath receiued all power, doth at this day defend and preserue vs.

CHAP. III.

1 He bringeth in Christ by example, and applieth 6 to the mortification of the flesh, especially commending Charity: 12 And joining thereto of patience. 17 That it is necessary that correction begin at the Church.

2 Having ended his digression and sliding from his matter, now he returneth to the exhortation which he brake off taking occasion by that which he said touching the death, and resurrection of Christ, to the defining our sanctification, that to be sanctified, is to be made as he is.

3 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

4 For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lusts of the Gentiles walking in wantonnes, lusts, drunkennes, in gluttony, drinkings, & in abominable idolatries.

5 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that ye run not with them vnto the same excess of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

6 Which shall giue account to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

7 For vnto this purpose was the Gospell to be renued by the vertue of the holy Ghost, that we may lead the rest of our life which remaineth, after the will of God. 8 As much of this present life as remaineth yet to be purified. * Ephes 1. 22. 4 By putting vs in minde of the dishonesty of our former life led in the fifth of sinne, he calleth vs to earnest repentance. 1 Wickedly and unrighteously by the name of the Gentiles. 3 That wee be not moued with the enemies perverseness and slanderous iudgements of vs, we haue to say against them that last iudgement of God which remaineth for them, for none, whether they be then found liuing, or were dead before, shall escape it. 6 They think it a new and strange matter. 4 A digression because he made mention of the last generall iudgement. And he presenteth an objection, that seeing Christ came very lately, they may seeme to be excusable which died before. But this the Apostle denieth for (saith he) this selfe same Gospell was preached vnto them also: for they sinned vnto the Iewes, & that to the same end that I now preach it vnto you, to wit, that the flesh being aboliſhed and put away (that is to say, that wicked and naughty corruption which reigneth in men) they should deliver themselves to be governed by the vertue of the Spirit of God.

preached also vnto the dead, that they might be condemned according to men in the flesh, but might liue according to God in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Bee ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But about all things haue feruent love among you: * for love shall couer the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye * harborous one to another, without grudging.

10 Let every man as he hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good disposers of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him speake as the words of God. If any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God minnistrereth, that God in all things may be glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom is praise and dominion for euer, and euer, Amen.

12 Dearly beloved, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery trial, which is among you to proue you as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings that when his glory shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 If ye be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glorie and of God resteth vpon you: which on their part is euill spoken of, but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or an euill doer, or as a bushebinder in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behaue.

17 For the time is come that iudgement must begin at the house of God. 17 If it first begin at vs what shall then be end of them which obey not the Gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved,

* Rom. 13. 6. phil. 3. 14. 9 A reason, because that what gift soener we haue, we haue receiued it of God vpon this condition, to be his disposers and stewards.

10 He recometh vpon two kindes of these gifts to be giue, to wit, the office of teaching in the Church, and the other Ecclesiasticall functions, wherein two things specially are to be observed, to wit, that the pure word of God be taught, and whatsoever is done, be directed to the glorious God the Father, in Christ, as to the proper matter.

11 Because the cross is ioynd with the sincere profession of Religion, the Apostle first repeateth that which he touched before warning vs not to be troubled at persecutions and afflictions, as a newe and strengthening thought.

12 As though some new thing had befallen you, which you neuer thought of before. 23 The last reason: Because the Lord meaneth not to consume vs with this fire (as it were) but to purge vs of our dross, and make vs perfect.

13 Another reason: Because the afflictions of the godly and wicked differ very much, and chiefey in three points. First, because the godly communicate with Christ in their afflictions, and therefore shall in their time be partakers also of his glory. * Math. 5. 10. 14 Secondly, because that although the impious think false otherwise, who blaspheming the godly, blaspheme God, yet the teacheth by this argument of a comparison of them together, that the godly shall glory, and their adoration be led in them by the Spirit of God. 23 Spirit be meaneth the gift of the Spirit. 15 The third difference: for the godly are not afflicted for their euill doings, but for righteous sake as Christians: whereby it commeth to passe that the cross, seeing it is a testimonie vnto them of faith and righteousness, minnistrereth vnto them not an occasion of sorrow, but of vnlikeable ioy: now the Apostle propoundeth the third difference vnder the forme of an exhortation. 16 The third reason because the Lord of all the world being especially carefull for them of his household, doeth therefore chastise them first of all, yet so that he keepeth a measure in his greatest severity: And as he hath alwayes vied to doe to the flesh, so doeth he now specially when as hee exhibeth of himselfe in person to his Church. 17 Let the godly should be offended and stumble at their vaine shadow of felicitie of the wicked, as though God were not the gouernour of the world, for that the wicked are in good case, and the godly in euill, the Apostle teacheth by this argument of a comparison of them together, that the godly shall not his owne, but our terrors them vnder the cross, will let length in his time handle the rebellious and wicked farre otherwise, whom hee hath appointed to vtter destruction. * Prouerbs 2. 31.

He returneth to his purpose, vying an argument taken from the circumstance of the time, because the last end is at hand, and therefore we must to much the more diligently watch and pray with due sobriety of minde.

6 He commendeth charity of one toward another, because it doth as it were bury a multitude of sinnes, and therefore preceth and maintaineth peace and concord: for they that loue one another, doe easily forgive one another their offences.

* Thom. 1. 12. 7 Of all the duties of charity, he commendeth one, namely, which was at that time most necessary, to wit, hospitality, which he will haue to be voluntary and most courteous and benefitfull.

* Rom. 12. 13. 13. 2. 8 He sheweth the vic of charity, to wit, that every man be fellow that gift which he hath receiued to the profit of his neighbour. * Rom. 13. 6. phil. 3. 14. 9 A reason, because that what gift soener we haue, we haue receiued it of God vpon this condition, to be his disposers and stewards.

10 He recometh vpon two kindes of these gifts to be giue, to wit, the office of teaching in the Church, and the other Ecclesiasticall functions, wherein two things specially are to be observed, to wit, that the pure word of God be taught, and whatsoever is done, be directed to the glorious God the Father, in Christ, as to the proper matter.

meaneth the gift of the Spirit.

15 The third difference: for the godly are not afflicted for their euill doings, but for righteous sake as Christians: whereby it commeth to passe that the cross, seeing it is a testimonie vnto them of faith and righteousness, minnistrereth vnto them not an occasion of sorrow, but of vnlikeable ioy: now the Apostle propoundeth the third difference vnder the forme of an exhortation.

17 Let the godly should be offended and stumble at their vaine shadow of felicitie of the wicked, as though God were not the gouernour of the world, for that the wicked are in good case, and the godly in euill, the Apostle teacheth by this argument of a comparison of them together, that the godly shall not his owne, but our terrors them vnder the cross, will let length in his time handle the rebellious and wicked farre otherwise, whom hee hath appointed to vtter destruction. * Prouerbs 2. 31.

18 The conclusion. Seeing the godly are afflicted by chance, bury the will of God, they ought not to despair, but goe forward, notwithstanding in the way of holinesse and well doing, commending themselves to God, their faithfull Creator, that is to say, their Father.

where shall the vngodly and the sinner appeare?
19 Wherefore let them that latter according to the will of God, commit their soules to him in well doing, as vnto a faithfull Creator.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL

OF JOHN.

CHAP. I.

He testifies that he brings the eternal word, wherein is life, and which is God will be merciful unto the faithful, if you will only be the burden of their sin, they learn to live unto his mercy.

1 He beginneth with the description of the person of Christ, whom he maketh one and not two: and him both God from eternall (for he was with the Father from the beginning, and is that eternal life) and also made true man, whom Iohn himselfe and his companions, both heard and beheld, and hand led,

2 I heard him speake I saw him say I felt with mine eyes, I handled with mine hands him that is very God, being made very man, and not 2 alone, but others also that were with mee

3 That same everlastinge Word, by whom all things are made, and to whom none is like

4 Being sent by him, and that doctrine is rightly said to be shewed, for no man could so much as have thought of it, if it had not bene thus shewed

2 The vice of this doctrine is this, that all of vs being compied and ioyned together with Christ by faith, might become the Sonnes of God, in which thing only consisteth all happiness.

3 Now he putteth it into a question, whereby we may understand that we are ioyned together with Christ, to wit, if we be governed by his light, which is perceived by the ordering of our life. And thus hereafter, God is in himselfe most pure light, therefore he agreeth with them, which are lightfome, but with them which are darkelome he hath no fellowship. * Iohn 8. 12. 4 God is said to be light of his own nature, and to be in light, that is to say, in that everlastinge influence, light, holiness: and we are said to walk in light, in that the beams of that light doe shine vnto vs in the world. 4 A digression or going from the matter hee is in hand with, to the remission of finnes: for this our sanctification which walke in the light, is a testimony of our ioyning and knitting together with Christ: but because this our light is very dark, we must needs obtaine another benefit in Christ, to wit, that our finnes may be forgiven vs being sprinkled with his blood: and this in conclusion is the prophe and stay of our salvation. * Heb. 9. 28. 1 Peter 1. 10. 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

CHAP. II.

Hee declares that he is our mediator and advocate, 3 & sheweth that the knowledge of God, which is in him, is the source of life, 12 which appertaineth to all those, 14 that depend on Christ alone: 15 Thus having exhorted them to continue the word, 18 & to give warning that Antichrist be avoided, 20 and that the knowers of his sin stand in it.

Y^e little children, these things write I vnto you, that ye may know: and if any man sinne, we have an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

2 And he is the reconciler for our finnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the finnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his commandments.

4 Hee that faith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But he that keepeth his word, in him is the founte of God perfect indeede: hereby we know that we are in him.

6 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his commandments.

7 Hee that faith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

8 But he that keepeth his word, in him is the founte of God perfect indeede: hereby we know that we are in him.

9 Hee that faith he remaineth in him, ought even so to walke as he hath walked.

10 Brethren, I write no new commandment vnto you: but an old commandment, which ye have had from the beginning: this old commandment is that word, which ye have heard from the beginning.

11 Again, a new commandment I write vnto you, that which is true in him: & also in you: for the darkenes is past, & that true light now shineth.

12 Hee that faith that he is in that light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenes, vntill this time.

13 He that loveth his brother, abideth in that light, and there is no occasion of euill in him.

14 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth neither whether he goeth, because that darkenesse hath blinded his eyes.

15 Little children, I write vnto you, because your finnes are forgiven you for his Names sake declaring what it is to walke in the light, to wit, to keepe Gods commandments. Whereby it followeth that holies do not consist in those things which men have devised, with their vaine profession of the Gospel. 4 The small bee is the founte of such knowledge, as faith walketh with it, and not of a common knowledge. 5 For the tree which is the fruit, 3 holiness, that is, a life ordered according to the precept of Gods commandments how weak soever they be, is of necessity ioined with faith, that is, with the true knowledge of the Father in the Sonne. 6 He that keepeth Gods commandments, Iouth God indeed. He that loveth God, is in God, or is ioined together with God. Therefore he that keepeth his commandments, is in him. 7 Whereby we love God. 8 He meaneth our communion with Christ. 9 Methinks is one with Christ, must needs lose his life, that is, must walke in his steps. 10 The Apostle going about to expound the commandment of charity one toward another, telleth first, that when he vergeth holiness he bringeth no new trade of life (as they vicio do which their disciplines, once over another) but putteth them in minde of the same law which God gave in the beginning to wit, by Moses, at that time that God began to give Law to his people. 7 He addeth that the doctrine indeed is old, but it is now after a fore new birth in reformation of Christ, and also of vs: in whom he through the Gospel, engrafteth his Law effectually, not in the flesh, but in our minde. 8 Which thing to wit, that the doctrine is new of which I write vnto you, is true in him and in you. 8 Now he cometh to the second Table, that is to charitable towards another, & denieth that that man hath true light in him, or is indeed regenerate and the son of God, which hateth his brother: and such an one wandeth miserably in darkenesse, because he never in great knowledge of God, for that wittingly and willingly he casteth himselfe headlong into hell. * Chap. 3. 14. 9 He returneth againe to sanctification to remission of finnes, because that true reconciliation in Christ is the ground of our salvation, whereupon afterwards sanctification must be built as upon a foundation. 1 Therefore I write vnto you, brethren, if ye are in this number whom God hath reconciled to himselfe. 10 For his own sake. 11 And in that he nameth Christ, so I write vnto you, and others, whether they be in house or earth.

20 He sheweth that this doctrine agreeth with all ages, and first of all speaking to old men, he sheweth that Christ and his doctrine are paying ancient, and therefore if they be delighted with old things, nothing ought to be more acceptable unto them.

21 He doth certify young men, if they be desirous to shew their strength that they have a most glorious combat here before them, to wit, Satan the worst enemy, who must be overcome: willing them to be assured of victory, as if they had already gotten it.

22 Finally, he sheweth to children, that chaste Father, from whom they have to look for all good things, is yet loath to give them in \S Gospel.

23 He addeth afterward in like order, as many exhortations as he should say, Remembere your fathers, as I wrote unto you, that the everlasting Sonne of God is revealed to vs. Remember ye young men, that that strength whereby I said that you put Satan to flight, is given you by the word of God, which dwelleth in you.

24 The world which is full of wicked desires, lustful pleasures, and pride, is utterly hated of our heavenly Father, therefore the Father and the world cannot be together, and this admonition is very necessary for grece and flourishing youth.

25 He preaches of sin, as is agreeable with the will of God, for contrary to Gods will is to be sin, as I said in the first Epistle, when I said that I wrote to you of the world, and of the Father is loved.

26 He sheweth how much better it is to obey the Father will, than the lusts of the world, by both threats and vntike deeds.

27 Now he turneth himself to little children, which notwithstanding are well instructed in the summe of religion, and willett them by diverse reasons to shake off foolishnesse, which is too too familiar with that age.

28 He exhorteth this world (little) not because he speaks to children, but to shew them the more by what force words.

29 First, because the last time is at hand, so that the matter should not be delayed.

30 Secondly, because Antichrist, that is, such as fall from God, are already come, even as they heard that they should come. And it was very requisite to warneth vnto vnder and wastefull age of that danger.

31 A digression against certaine offences and stumbling blocks, whereto that rude age especially might fall, and be shaken. Therefore that they should not be terrified with the false falling backe of certayne, as if he maketh plaine vnto them, that although such as fall from God and his religion are cast out of the Church, yet they were not of the Church, because the Church is the company of the clea which cannot perill, and therefore cannot fall from Christ.

32 A soft word to be used to new fall from grece.

33 Secondly, he sheweth that these things fall out to the profane of the Church, that hypocrites may be plainly knowne.

34 Thirdly, he comforteth them to make them stand fast, inasmuch as they are anointed of the holy Ghost with the true knowledge of salvation.

35 The grace of the holy Ghost: and this is a good knowledge of prechation from the anoints of the Law.

36 From Christ which is primarily called holy, as the taking away of an oblation. He warneth not the things as to men which are ignorant in religion, but rather as to men which do well know the truth, yet so late forth that they are able to discern truth from falsehood.

37 He sheweth now plainly the false doctrine of the Antichrists, to wit, that either they fight against the principal Christ, or his office, or both together, and at once. And that they do so do vaine boast and glory in God, for in trying the Son, the Father is made knowne, as is the true Christ. They therefore are deceiued both in the doctrine themselves, which say that the Father and other saints worship the same God who we do.

38 The while preaching of the Prophets and Apostles is contrary to that doctrine. Therefore it is very to be careful and this wholly to behold and keep, which leadeth vs to fecke eternal life in the free promise, that is to say, in Christ alone, who is giuen vs of the Father.

13 I write vnto you fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning.

14 I write vnto you, young men, because ye have overcome that wicked one.

15 I write vnto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

16 I have written vnto you fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning, I have written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome that wicked one.

17 Loue not this world, neither the things that are in this world. If any man loue this world the love of the Father is not in him.

18 For all that is in this world, (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of this world.

19 And this world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God abideth euer.

20 Little children, it is the last time, and as ye have heard that Antichrist shall come, now there are many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.

21 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they should have continued with vs.

22 But this cometh to passe, that it might appear, that they are not all of vs.

23 But ye have an oymntment from that Holy one, and know all things.

24 I have not written vnto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

25 Who is a liar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is Christ? the same is that Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

26 Whofoeuer denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

27 Let therefore abide in you that same that strength whereby I said that you put Satan to flight, is given you by the word of God, which dwelleth in you.

28 The world which is full of wicked desires, lustful pleasures, and pride, is utterly hated of our heavenly Father, therefore the Father and the world cannot be together, and this admonition is very necessary for grece and flourishing youth.

which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye shall also continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, even that eternal life.

26 These things have I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But that anointing which ye received of him, dwelleth in you: and ye neede not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true & is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appear, we may be bold, and not ashamed before him, at this coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, know ye that he which doth righteously, is borne of him.

30 Ignorance of these things, and therefore I teach them not as things that were new heard of, but all them to your remembrance as things which you doe know.

31 He commeth with both the doctrine which they had embraced, and a high praise, both their faith and the diligence of such as taught them, yet so, that hee taketh nothing from the honour due to the holy Ghost.

32 The conclusion both of the whole exhortation, and also of the former treatise.

33 A pausing note to the treatise following, which teacheth us the same purpose, but yet is more ample, and handleth the same matter after another order: for before he taught vs to goe from the effects to the cause, and in this that followeth, he goeth downe from the cause to the effects. And this is the summe of this argument: God is the fountaine of all righteousness, and therefore they that giue themselves to righteousness, are knowne to be borne of him, because they resemble God the Father.

CHAP. III.

1 Setting downe the unspeakable glory of this that we are Gods sonnes, he sheweth that none of us ought to be lifted up by good works, whereby we think we are justified.

2 And a prayer to God.

3 Behold, what loue the Father hath giuen to vs, that we should bee called the sonnes of God: for this cause this world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

4 Dearly beloved, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it is not made manifest what we shall be: and we know that when hee shall be made manifest, we shall be like him: for wee shall see him as he is.

5 And every man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himself, even as he is pure.

6 Whofoeuer committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

7 And ye know that he was made manifest, that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

8 Whofoeuer abideth in him, sinneth not: whofoeuer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath known him.

9 Little children, let no man deceiue you, hee that doeth righteously, is righteous, as hee is righteous.

10 Knowen to the world, for the world knoweth not God the Father: therefore this dignity is not fully made manifest to our selves, but we are yet one of the accomplishment of it, inasmuch that to the Sonne of God we know him, and shall enjoy his sight indeed, such as hee know: but yet notwithstanding this deferred until his next coming.

9 Whoſoeur is borne of God sinneth not: for his * seede remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 ¶ In this are the children of God knowne, and the children of the deuill: whoſoeur doeth not righteousnesse, is not of God, * neither hee that loueth not his brother.

11 ¶ For this is the message that yee heard from the beginning, that * we should loue one another.

12 Not as * Cain which was of that wicked one, and slew his brother: * and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marueil not my brethren, though this world hate you.

14 ¶ Wee know that we are translated from death into life, because we loue the brethren: * he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 ¶ Whoſoeur hateth his brother, is a man-ſlayer: and ye know that no man ſlayer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 ¶ Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he laide downe his life for vs. therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 ¶ And whoſoeur hath this * worke good, and seeth his brother haue need, & p shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

CHAP. III.

¶ Having spoken somewhat touching the trying of spirits: 4 For some speake of the world, 5 and some after God. 7 Hereturneth to charity, 11. 15 and by the example of God behorth to brotherly loue.

¶ Dearly beloved, beleeue not euery a spirit, but trie the spirits whether they are of God: for many false Prophets are gone out into the world.

2 ¶ Hereby shall yee know the Spirit of God, Every spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come into the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit that confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whom yee haue heard, how that he should come, and now already he is in this world.

4 ¶ Little children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is hee that is in you, then he that is in this world.

5 ¶ They are of this world, therefore spake they of this world: and this worlde heareth them.

6 ¶ We are of God, * hee that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God heareth vs not. Hereby know we the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 ¶ Beloued, let vs loue one another: 7 for loue: cometh of God, and euery one that loueth is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 ¶ Hee that loueth not, knoweth not God: 8 for God is love.

¶ The Spirits of God, which are thought to be fallen from impure spirits which are to be echeued. 2. Then spoken by the figure Metonymy, and is as these had said, Belieue not everyone that sayeth that hee hath a gift of the holy Ghost to doe the office of a Prophet. 2. Hee giueth a certaine and propitious rule to know the doctrine of Antichrist by, to wit, if either the diuine or humane nature of Christ, or the true vniuing of them together be denied: or if the least rule that may bee, bee derogate from his office who is our onely King, Prophet, and euertailing high Priest. 6. Hee speaketh simply of the doctrine, and not of the person, C. The true Messiah. 4. Is true man. 5. Hee comforteth the elect with a most true hope of victory: but yet so, that he teacheth them that they fight not with their owne ouercome, but with the vertue and power of God. 4. Hee bringeth a reason: why the world receiveth these teachers more willingly, then the true to wit, because they breake out nothing but that which is worldly: which is another necesse to know the doctrine of Antichrist by. 5. Hee testifieth vnto them that his doctrine and the doctrine of his fellowes is the assured word of God, which of necessitie we haue boldly to set against all the mouths of the whole world, and thereby discern the truth from falshood. 2. Iohn 8.47. C. The Prophets against whom are set false prophets, that is, such as erre through lures, and lead others into error. 6. Hee returneth to the commanding of brotherly loue and charity. 7. The first reason: Because it is a very diuine thing: and therefore very dear for the sonnes of God: so that whoſoeur is voyde of it, can not bee layde to know of God aright. 8. A confirmation: For it is the nature of God to loue men, whereof we haue a most manifest proofe aboue all other: in that that of his onely free and infinite good will toward vs his enemies, hee deliuered vnto death not a common man, but that his owne Sonne, yea, his onely begotten Sonne to the end that we being reconciled from blood, might bee partakers of his everlasting glory. 9. In that hee called God, Loue, bee so much more than if hee had said that hee loueth vs infinitely.

¶ Math. 11.23, Iohn 15.7 and 16. 12. The conclusion: That faith in Christ, and loue one towards another are things joined together, and therefore the true testimony of sanctification must and doe answer that inward testimony of the Spirit giuen to Hee meaneth the ¶ Taking occasion by the name of the Spirit, left loue and charity should be separated from the worship of God, which chiefly dependeth of his true knowledge: he returneth to that which he spake in the second Chapter touching the taking heed of Antichrists. And he will haue here to take heed of two things, the one is, that feeling there be many false prophets, we do not lightly giue credite to euery man: the other is, that because many men teach false things, we should not therefore beleeue any. ¶ We must be able to discern a meane, that we may be able to differ that beleue in the Name of that Sonne of God, that ye may know that yee haue eternall life, and that yee may beleue in the Name of that Sonne of God.

14 And this is that assurance that we haue in him, * that if we aske any thing according to his will he heareth vs.

15 And if we know that he heareth vs, whatsoever we aske, we know that wee haue the petitions, that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shal giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. * There is a sinne vnto death, I say not that thou shouldest pray for it,

14 Because we do not yet see effect obtaine that which we hope for, the Apostle ioyntly inuocates or prays with faith, which he will haue to proceed from faith and more, and more beconced in such fact, that nothing be asked but that which is agreeable to the will of God: and such prayer cannot be vaine. Chap. 3.22. 15 We haue to make prayer not only for ourselves, but also for our brethren: which do sinne that their sinnes be not vnto them, to death: and yet hee excepteth that sinne, which is neuer forgiven, or the sinne against the holy Ghost, that is to say, a vniuersall and willfull falling away from the knownen truth of the Gospel. 1 This is as much as if he said, Let him desire the Lord to forgive him, and hee will forgive him being so desired. * Ioh. 1.12, 13. marke 3.29.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that whoeuer is born of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God keepeth himselfe, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 Wee know that we are of God, and this whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 But we know that that Sonne of God is come, and hath giuen vs a mind to know him, which is true, and we are in him that is true, that is, in that his Sonne Iesus Christ, the same is that very in God, and that eternall life.

21 Little children keepe your selues from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF IOHN.

1 This Epistle is written to a woman of great renoume, who brought up her children in the feare of God: 6 be exhorted her to continue in Christian charitie, 7 that she accompanie not with Antichrist, 10 to auoid them.

HELDER to the elect b Ladie, and her children, whom I loue in the truth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knownen the truth.

2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shall be with vs for ever:

3 Grace be with you, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with c truth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in d truth as we haue receiued a commandment of the Father.

5 And now beseech I thee, Lady, (not as writing a new commandment vnto thee, but the same which we had from the beginning) that we

* loue one another.

6 And this is that loue that we should walke after his commandments. This commandment is, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, yee should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into this world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceiver and an Antichrist.

8 Lookoe to your selues, that we loofe not the things which we haue done, but that we may receiue a full reward.

9 Whoeuer transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, * receiue him in not to house, neither bid him God speed.

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his euil deeds. Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet would I not write with paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.

12 The finnes of thine elect sister greete thee, Amen.

senc doctrine.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF IOHN.

1 Hee commendeth Gaius for hospitalitie, 9 and reprobati Diotrephes for want of glory: 10 For exhorteth Gaius to continue in well doing: 12 and in the euile commendeth Demetrius.

HELDER vnto the beloued Gaius whom I loue in the truth.

B Beloued, I with helpe that thou prosperest and farest well as thy soule prospereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came & testified of the truth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater ioy then * thee, that is, to heare that my sonnes walke in veritie.

5 Beloued, thou doest b faithfully, whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers,

6 Which bare witness of thy loue before the Churches, whom if thou c bringest on their iour-ney as it becometh according to God, thou shalt doe well.

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.

8 Wee therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be d helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote vnto the Church, but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueh vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will call to your remembrance his deeds which hee doeth, prating against vs with malicious words, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueh the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloued follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: he that doth well is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not e seene God.

d That wee our selues may helpe somewhat to the preaching of the truth.

12 Ambition and contention, two pestilent plagues (especially to them which haue any Ecclesiastical function) are condemned in Diotrephes person.

e This true profession conflicteth both in loue one toward another which the Lord hath commanded, and also especially commandment of God is a found and sure foundation both of the rule of manners and of doctrine, and these cannot be separated the one from the other. d According as the truth is directed to them. * Ioh. 1.12.

1 Vnto the Angel of the Church of Epheſus write, 2 Theſe things ſaith he that holdeth the ſeven ſtarres in his right hand, and walketh in the mids of the ſeven golden candleſtikes.

3 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canſt not beare with them which are euill, and haſt examined them which ſay they are Apoſtles, and are not, and haſt found them liars.

4 And thou waſt burdened, and haſt patience and for my Names ſake laboured, and haſt not fainted.

5 Neuertheleſſe, I haue ſomewhat 2 againſt thee, becauſe thou haſt left thy firſt loue.

6 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent and doe the firſt workes: or elſe I will come againſt thee ſhortly, and will remove thy candleſtike out of his place, except thou amend.

7 But this thou haſt that thou hateſt the workes of the Nicolaitanes, which I alſo hate.

8 Let him that hath an eare heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches: To him that ouercometh, will I giue to eate of the tree of life which is in the middes of the Paradife of God.

9 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church of the 8 Smyrnians write, Theſe things ſaith hee that is firſt and laſt, which was dead and is aliue.

10 I know thy workes and tribulation, and povertie (but thou art rich) and I know the blaſphemie of them, which ſay they are Iewes, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

11 Feare none of thoſe things, which thou ſhalt ſuffer: behold, it ſhall come to paſſe, that the deuill ſhall caſt ſome of you into priſon, that yee may be tried, and yee ſhall haue tribulation ten dayes: be thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

12 ¶ Let him that hath an eare heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches. He that ouercometh ſhall not be hurt 10 of the ſecond death.

13 ¶ And to the Angel of the Church, which is at 4 Pergamus write, Thus ſaith he which hath that ſharpe ſword with two edges.

14 I know thy workes, and where thou dwelleſt, euen where Satans throne is, and thou keepſt my Name, and haſt not denied my faith, euen in thoſe dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was ſlaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

15 But I haue a few things againſt thee, becauſe thou haſt there them that maintaine the doctrine of Balaam, which taught Balac to put a ſtumbling blocke before the children of Iſrael, that they ſhould eate of things ſacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

16 Euen ſo haſt thou them that maintaine the doctrine of 5 13 Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

17 Repent thy ſelfe, or elſe I will come vnto thee ſhortly, and will fight againſt thee with the ſword of my mouth.

18 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit ſaith vnto the Churches. To him that ouercometh, will I giue to eate 15 of theſe Manna that is hid and will giue him a 16 white ſtone, and in the ſtone a new 17 name written, which no man knoweth, ſauiug he that receiueu it.

19 ¶ And vnto 18 the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, Theſe things ſaith the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his ſeete like fine bruiſe.

20 I know 19 thy workes and thy loue, and iſeruice and faith, & thy patience, & thy workes, and that they are moe at the laſt, then at the firſt.

21 Notwithſtanding, I haue a few things againſt thee, that thou ſufferſt the woman Iſeabell which calleth herſelfe a propheteſſe, to teach and to deceiue my ſeruants, to make them commit fornication and to eat meate ſacrificed vnto idoles.

22 And I gaue her ſpace to repent of her fornication, and he repented not.

23 ¶ And to the Angel of the Church which is at 24 Sardis write, Theſe things ſaith he which is the firſt and the laſt, which was dead, and is aliue, and he ſaith, Bleſſed are they which waſh their robes, that they may not come into the ſecond death. 25 ¶ I know thy workes, and thou art ſmall, but thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the dead, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the beaſts, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the ſunne, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the moonne, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the ſtarres, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the fire, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the ayre, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the ſea, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the wind, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the ſunne, and thou haſt kept my commandments, that thou ſhouldeſt not worſhip the moonne, and thou haſt kept my CHAP. III.

1 The first Epistle sent to the Pallors of the Church of Sardis, 7. of Philadelphus. 14. And of the Laodiceans, 16. that they be not lukewarm, 20. but overcome: a further Catechism.

1 And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Sardis. These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars. 2 I know thy works: for thou hast a name that thou livest, but thou art dead.

2 But awake, and strengthen the things which remaine, that are ready to die: for I haue not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast received and heard, and holde fast and repent, 4 If therfore thou wilt not watch, I will come on thee as a thiefe, and thou shalt not know what houre I will come vpon thee.

4 Notwithstanding thou hast a few names yet in Sardis, 5 which haue not defiled their garments: and they shall walke with me in white:
 for they are worthy.

5 He that ouercometh, shall be clothed in white array, and I will not put out his Name out of the booke of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

7 And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphus. These things saith he that is holy and True, which hath the key of Dauid, which openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth.

8 I know thy works: behold I haue set before thee an open doore & no man can shut it:
 for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make thee of the Synagage of Satan, which call themselves Iewes, & are not, but doe lie, behold, I say, I will make them that they shal come & worship before thy feet, and shall know that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of temptation, which will come vnto all the world, to try them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Behold I come shortly: hold that which thou hast, that no man take thy crowne.

12 Him that ouercometh, I will make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall goe no more out: 13 And I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is the new Ierusalem, which cometh downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, I care what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith Amen, the faithful and true witness, that is beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou werest cold or hot.

16 Therefore because thou art lukewarme, and neither cold nor hot, it will come to passe that I shall spew thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and haue need of nothing, & know-est not how thou art wretched and miserable, and poore, and blind, and naked.

18 I can tell thee to buy of me gold tryed by the fire, that thou mayst be made rich: and white rayment, that thou mayst be clothed, and that thy filthy nakednesse doe not appeare: and anoint thine eyes with eye saluie, that thou mayst see.

19 As many as I loue, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and amend.

20 Behold, I stand at the doore, and knocke

21 I any man heare my voice, & open the doore,
 I will come in vnto him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

23 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. These remedies which are offered, verse 18. Pro. 3. 12. Heb. 12. 5. & Zealously against him which is neither hot nor cold. 14. This must be taken after the manner of allegory, as 1. John 14. 23.
 15. The conclusion, consisting of a promise, a chaste, verse 16. 20. of exhortation hitherto hath bin the first part of the booke of the Apocalypse.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Another vision concerning the glory of Gods Maiesty, 8. which is magnified by the four beasts, 10. and the four & twenty Elders.

After this I looked, and behold, a doore was opened in heauen, and the first voice which I alotgether propheticall, retelling those things which were to come: as was said before, Chap. 1. 19. This is diuined into two different: one common vnto the whole world vnto the 9. Chapter, and another singler of the Church of God, thence vnto the 22. chapter. And these histories are said to be described in several bookes, Chap.

 1. 2. and 10. 2. Now this verse is said to be a passage from the former part vnto the second: where it is said, that the heauen was opened, that is, that heauenly things were vnlocked and that a voice as of a trumpet sounded in heauen to stirre vp the Apostles, and call them to the vnderstanding of things to come. The first history hath two parts: one of the causes of things done, and of the next Revelation, in this and the next chapter. Another of the Ades done in the next chapters. The principall causes according to the dissolution of persons in the vnto of the diuine efficacy and according to the economic or dispensation thereof, are two. One the beginning, which none can apprehend vnto that is, God the Father, in whom is spoken in this chapter. The other, the Sonne, who is the mediator called, as to be apprehended vnto, in respect that he is God and man in one Person, of whom, Chap. 5.

2 That is, neither into the ayre, into which the tops of trees are aduanced. 3 Now God provided against the danger of his elect by his commandment, verse 3. and 9. and by signs or figures, both for choice of the nation of the Jews, because vnto the 3. verse, & also of the Gentiles, verse 9. 4 Not only another, nor differing in manner, but the common Angels of God, but also in essence off, and operations excellent. That is, by the text the eternal Angel or word of God, and mediation of the covenant. So hereafter Chap. 8. and 10. 5 That is, of the Jews a number certain in it selfe before God, and figured by the number of vnto which cause all the same is here set downe as certain. But of the elect which are of the Gentiles, the number indeed is in it selfe certain with God but of vs not possibly to be numbered, as God, Gen. 15. 5. & often elsewhere, and is figured most excellently, Chap. 49. and 60. This therefore is spoken with respect, when a certaine number is put for one vnto election. Conferre this with verse 6. 6 He bopped Dauid, & reuelled to Leui. 7 Of Leui, who wrote the Chronicles. 8 For he had had the 3. vnto him, where he is called Leui. 9 Here the tribe of Leui is reckoned vnto in common with the rest, because all the Israelites were equally made Priests with them in Christ by his Priesthood, Chap. 1. 6. and Rom. 12. 1. & 1. Pet. 2. 9. The name of Dauid is not mentioned because the Danites long before forsaking the worship of God, were fallen away from the fellowship of God people vnto the part of the Gentiles, which hath many ages before Isaac forebode, Gen. 49. 10. In which cause also there is no mention made of this tribe in the first 12. and 18. In which cause also there is no mention made of this tribe in the first 12. and 18. In which cause also there is no mention made of this tribe in the first 12. and 18.

not blow on the earth, neither on the sea, neither on any tree.

2 And I saw 4 another Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loud voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea, saying,

3 Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till we have sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed 5 an hundred and foure and fourtie thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. 8 Of the tribe of 9 Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of 9 Ioseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I beheld, and loe, a great multitude, 7 which no man could number, of all nations, & kinreds, & people, & tongues 8 stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long white robes, and palmes in their hands.

10 And they cried with a loud voyce, saying, Saluation cometh of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beasts, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen, Praise and glory, and wisdom, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might, be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto me, What are these which are arrayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he said vnto me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, & haue made their long robes white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serue him 4 day and night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne will dwell among them.

16 * They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

17 For the Lambe, which is in the midst of the throne, shall gouerne them, and shall leade them vnto the liuely fountaines of waters, and * God shall wipe away all teares from their eies.

CHAP. VII.

1 After the opening of the seventh seale, 3 the Saints prayers are offered vnto him. 6 The seven Angels come for 12 month trumpets. 7 The first Angel bloweth, and fire falleth on the earth, 8 the sea, 9 the iurment into flood, 10, 11, the waters become bitter, 12 and the flames are darkened.

1 And when hee had opened the seventh seale, there was silence in heauen about half an hour.

2 And I saw the seuen Angels, which 3 stood before God, and to them were giuen 4 seuen trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came and stood before the Altar, hauing a golden censer, and much odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden Altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smooke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, 5 went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the Altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselves to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was hale and fire mingled with blood, and they were caste into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene graffe was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, justly determined to afflict the world. 2 Now followeth the third branch of the common history, as enen now I said: which is the execution of the iudgements of God vpon the world. This is first generally prepared vnto the 6. verse, then by several parts expounded according to the order of those that administered the same vnto the end of the Chapter following. Vnto the preparation of this execution are declared these things: first, who were the administrators & instruments thereof in this execution. Secondly, what is the work both of the Princes of Angels shining order for this execution, mooue vnto the 5. ver. and of his admistrators in 5. 6. ver. The administrators of the execution are said to be seuen Angels: their instruments, trumpets, whereby they should as it were sound the alarme at the commandment of God. They are propounded seuen in number, because it pleased God not at once to powre out his wrath vpon the rebellious world, but at diuers times, and by piece meale, and in slow order, and as with an unwilling mind exercise his iudgements vpon his creatures, lo long called vpon both by word and signes if happily they had learned to repent. A Which appeares before him as his ministers. 3 This is that great Emperor, the Lord Iesus Christ our King and Saviour: who both maketh intercession to God the Father for the Saints, filling the heavenly Sanctuary with most sweet odour, and offering vp their prayers, as the Caluers and burnt sacrifices of their lips, in his verse: in such sort as crye one of them (O powerful is that sweet fauour of Christ, & the efficacy of his sacrifice): he is held in reconciliation with God and himselfe: he made most acceptable vnto him verse 4. and there also out of this treasury, and from the same sanctuary powreth forth vpon the world the fire of his wrath, adding aliquid as tokens thereto: and by that means (as of old the Herald of Rome were wont to doe) he proclaineth warre against the rebellious world. 4 Our prayers are working words, which tell that true and sweet fauour of that only obligation he offereth before and for all things with them, that is to say, unless we being first of all inflamed through faith in his sweet, & acceptable vnto him. 4 This is the work of the administrators. The Angels the administrators of Christ, only by sounding trumpet & voyce (for they are only as Herald) do effectually call forth the instruments of the wrath of God, through his power. Hitherto haue beene things general. Now followeth the narration of things particular, which the Angels fix in number wrought in their order set forth in the 1. ver. of the next chapter and is concluded with the declaration of the cunctis which follow vpon their third sound in the world, and in the 10. & 11. chapters. 2 The first execution at the first Angel blow of the earth, that is, the inhabitants of the earth (by Metonymy) & vpon all the fruits thereof, as the comparing: I this with the second & third of the 2. ver. that, not only, but, &, &, & the second execution, vpon the sea in this verse and all things that are therein the next verse.

3 He sheweth the 4 Leuites, which served day and night, for else there is no light in heauen. 5 Cr, vpon them, whereby I meant Gods defence and protection, and more towards them, who are as safe, as men on the Lords steed. 6 Eia, 13. 8. Chap. 11. 4.

1 He returneth to the history, and the scales of the book, which the Lambe openeth. The seventh seale is the next forefiguration, and a preface commandment of the most heavy iudgements of God vpon this wicked world, which heere signifies being vnderstood by the scale, all things in heauen are silent, and in horror throw admiration vntill commandment of execution be leuallly giuen of God vnto the ministers of his wrath. So he passeth vnto the third member which I haue before in Chap. 6. ver. 1. which is of the execution of those vices where with God most and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 7 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen, burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the star is called ⁸ worme-wood : therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moone, and the third part of the starres, so that the third part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 10 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

7 The third execution vpon the floods and fountaines, that is, vpon all freth waters, in this verse: the effect whercof is, that many are destroyed with the bitterness of waters, in the verse following.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first Angel bloweth his trumpet, 3 and spring locusts come out. 13 The sixt Angel bloweth, 16 and bruiſeth fourth part of the earth with fire. 20 to deſtroy mankind.

And the first Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 4 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

1 The fifth execution vpon the wicked men inhabiting the earth (as a little before the Angel said) wrought by the infernall powers, is declared in this place vnto the eleuenth verse. And after the sixth execution thence vnto the nineteenth verse. And lastly in shewed the common cunct that followed the former execution in the world, in the two last verse . That is that the Angel of God glittering with glory, as a flame fell down from heauen. Whether thou take him for Christ , who hath the keys of hell of himselfe, and by Princely authority, Chap. i. vers. 18. or whether for some inferior Angel, who hath the same key permitted vnto him, and occupied therewith by his office of his ministry here, and Chap. i. to the world being taken, Gen. ii. vers. 6. and Heb. 6. The key was giuen to this Angel.

For those powers of wickednesse are thrall down into hell, and bound with chaines of darknesse : and are there kept vnto damnation, woele God for a time decd thee lose it, Pet. 2. Jude. 6. and of thisooke, Chap. 20. as the historie of which chapter hath agreement of time with this present chapter. A By the tomesle

Q Vnto this is added the smoke of the hellish and infernall spirits all darke, and darkening all things in heauen and in earth. the spirittual darknesse is the disorder of the soules of men, and of the angels, and of the creatures of the world. the five first the darknesse lies in his kingdom, that the migrate onto and with our impietie ouerthrow all things and peruerit it as were possible cleat themselves By this darknesse all spirittual light, both adine as of the Sunne, and pasior, as of the ayre which is lightened by the Sunne, is taken away : and this is that which gooth before the spirts : it followeth of the spirts themselves. This A deceptions of the malignant spirts inuading the world, came from their nature, power, lawe and order. From their nature, for that they are like vnto certaine locustes in quicknesse, facility, hardness, number, and such like, in this verse.

The second cause of darkness is due hane, for our battell is nott here with Birth and blood, but with powers, ec. Eph. 6. 12. This place of the power of the Demits, generally noted in this verse, is particularly declared afterwards in the three next verse,

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they should not kill them, but that they should be vexed five months, and that their paine should be as the paine that commeth of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

6 * Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death; and shall not find it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flie from them.

7 And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto the battell, and on their heads were as it were crownes, like vnto gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of Lyons.

9 And they had habbergions, like vnto habbergions of yron, and the found of their wings was like the found of charets when many hories runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were stings in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men fise moneths.

11 ⁸ And they haue a king ouer them, which is the Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greeke hee is named Apollyon, that is, destroying.

 9. a passage vnto the next point, and the history of the time

10 The first execution done upon the world by the tyrannical powers thereof, working in the four parts of the earth, that is in most cruel manner executing their tyrannous dominion through the whole world, and killing the miserable people with punishment, which before was not lawful for them to do in that sort, as I shewed you 4th ver. This narration hath two parts: a command from God in the 14th ver. and an execution of the commandment in the words following.

12 As if he should have said, These things have bene so bound by the power of God, that they could not freely run upon all men, as they are lusted, but were stayed and restrained at that great flood of Euphrates, that is, in their spiritual Babylon (for this is a Periphrasis of the spiritual Babylon, by the limits of the spiritual Babylon long since overthrown) that they might not commit those horrible crimes, which they long breathed after. Now goe to, let loose those four Angels, that is, ministers of the wrath of God, in that number that is convenient to execute the bridge, that is, the four quarters of the world: loose them up, and give them the bridge, that is, nothing out of that Babylon of theirs, which is the seat of the wicked ones, they may give up and with the world, therein to rage, and most licenciously to exercise their tyranny, as God hath ordained. This was done when Gergon the monk by public authority established for law his own Decretals, by which he might lawfully lay traines for the life of simple men, for who is it that feareth not that the laws Decretal most of them are as snare to catch souls withall? Since that time (O good God!) how great slaughters have there bene? how great massacres? All histories are full of them: and this onrage aboundeth with most horrible and menish examples of the same.

13 The execution of the commandment is in two parts: one, that those butchers are let loose, that out of their tower of the spiritual Babylon they might with furious rancour abroad through all the world, as well the chiefe of that crew which are most preeminent to slay, as they their multitudes, both most copious, of which a number certain is named for a number infinite, Verse 16, and in themselves by all means fully furnished to hide and to hurt, Verse 19, as being armed with fire, smoke and brimstone, as appeareth in the colour of their armour, which dazzleth the eyes of all men: and have the strength of Lyons to hurt withall, from which (as out of their mouth) the fierce, smokier, and stinking darts of the Pope are shot out, Verse 18. The other point is, that the butchers have executed the commandment of God by fraud and violence, in the two verses following.

14 That is, they are harmful every way on what part soever thou thinkest band vnder them or they touch there, they do hurt. So the former are called Scorpions, Verse 3. 15 Now remaineth the event (as I said upon the fifth verse) which followed of so many and so grievous judgments in the most wicked world; namely, an impenitent obduracy of the vengely in their impetuous and vengeful course, though they feele themselves most vehemently pressed with the hand of God: for their obstinate vengedness he shewed in this verse, and their vengefulness in the verse following. Hitherto hath bene the general historie of things to be done vnderfall in the whole world; which because it doeth not so much belong to the Church of Christ as herefore to expressly distinguished by certainty of time and other circumstances, but is woven, as they say with a slight hand. Also there is none other cause why the historie of the fourth Angel is passed over in this place, then for that the same more properly apperaineth unto the historie of the Church. But this is more diligently let out according to the time thereof, Chap. 11, and 16, as shall appere upon their places. 2 Psa. 115. 4. and 135. 15.

16 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacinth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: and out of their mouths went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

17 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouths.

18 For their power is in their mouths, and in their tails: 19 for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and 21 idols of gold, and of silver, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

22 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their fornicie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

23 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and I heard a voice from the golden altar, which is before God, 24 Saying to the sixth Angel, which had the trumpet, 25 Loose the four Angels, which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

26 And the four Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an hour, at a day, at a month, and at a yeere to slay the third part of men.

27 And the number of horsemen of warre were twenty thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

28 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacinth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: and out of their mouths went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

And I sawe 2 another mightie Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloud, and the rainebowe vpon his head, and his face was as the sunne, and his feete as pillars of fire.

2 And hee had in his hand a 3 little booke open, and hee put his right foot vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voyce, as when a lion roareth: and when hee had cried, seven thunders vttered their voyces.

4 And when the seven thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, 5 Seale vp those things which the seven thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, 6 lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things that therein are, 7 that a time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the 8 voyce of the seventh Angel, when hee shall begin to blow the trumpet, 9 euen the myserie of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto mee againe, and said, 9 Goe, and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea, and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and said to him, 10 Giue mee the little booke. And he said vnto mee, Take it, and eat it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall bee in thy mouth as sweet as honey.

10 Then I tooke the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweet as honey: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto mee, 12 Thou must prophesie againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many Kings.

13 And he said vnto mee, 14 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be, in the booke of this prophecy.

15 And I said vnto him, 16 Lord, thou knowest the things which shall be. And he said vnto mee, 17 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be, in the booke of this prophecy.

18 And I said vnto him, 19 Lord, thou knowest the things which shall be. And he said vnto mee, 20 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be, in the booke of this prophecy.

21 And I said vnto him, 22 Lord, thou knowest the things which shall be. And he said vnto mee, 23 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be, in the booke of this prophecy.

24 And I said vnto him, 25 Lord, thou knowest the things which shall be. And he said vnto mee, 26 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be, in the booke of this prophecy.

27 And I said vnto him, 28 Lord, thou knowest the things which shall be. And he said vnto mee, 29 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be, in the booke of this prophecy.

A Now Saint John passeth vnto the other Prophetical historie, which is of the Church of God, as I shewed that this booke should be distinguished, Chap. 4.

This storie reacheth hence vnto the two and twentieth Chapter. And this whole Chapter is but a transition from the common historie of the world, vnto that which is peculiar of the Church. There are in this transition or passage, two preparatiues as it were, vnto this Church storie comprised in this whole Chapter. One is the authoritie of Christ revealing his myserie, and calling his seruants vnto the seventh verse. The other is Saint Iohns his calling, proper vnto this place, and repeated from before vnto the end of this chapter.

Authority is given vnto this Revelation by the things first, by the appearing of him heauen in this habit and countenance, strong, ready, glorious, seeing all things by his prouidence and governing them by his omnipotence, verse the first. Secondly, that he brought not by chance, but out of a booke, this open Revelation, forth vnto the eyes, to signify the same vnto the sea, and land, as Lord generally, Verse the second. Thirdly, that he offered the same out whispering or muttering, as a come in the prophets doe, but crying out with a loud voyce vnto them which sleepe, and with a lyonish and terrible noise voyse vnto the seene: the very thunders themselves giving testimony therunto, Verse the third. Lastly, for that he confirmed all by an oath, Verse 5, 6, 7.

Christ leake, see the fourth Chapter, and the second verse. Namely, a speciall beate of the affaires of Gods Church, for the booke that containeth things belonging vnto the whole world, is said to be kept with the Creator, the first Chapter and the first verse, but the booke of the Church, with the Redeemer: and out of this booke is taken the rest of the historie of this Apocalypse.

4 A godly care is laudable, but must bee ioynd with knowledge. Therefore nothing is to be taken in hand, but by calling, which must bee expected and waited vnto the grailly. 5 Kepe them selfe. 6 This was a gesture vnto the sea, for the things that are in time: but that the world come to it as hym which is altogether of eternitie and beyond all times. 7 Three habdwere bee as one time.

8 Whereof Chap. 11, and 16, 17. 9 The other part of this Chapter, concerning the particuler calling of Saint Iohn to the receiving of the propheticall writing which is enioyned him, first by signe in three verses, then in plain words in the 14th verse. Vnto the setting forth of the signe belongeth these things: That Saint Iohn is taught from heauen to demand the booke of the Prophecie in this verse: for these motions and desires God doeth incline: 2^d that demanding the booke, he is charged to take it in a figurative manner, the vnto which also is expounded, verse the ninth, as in the second Chapter of Ezechiel, and the ninth verse where this similitude is borrowed: lastly, for that Saint Iohn at the commandment of Christ tooke the booke, and found by experience that the same as proceeding from Christ was most true, but that in that respect hee collected the affections of the Church it was most bitter vnto his spirit.

8 A simple and plaine declaration of the things before going, witnessing the diuine calling of S. Iohn, and laying vpon him the necessity thereof.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and said to him, 10 Giue mee the little booke. And he said vnto mee, Take it, and eat it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall bee in thy mouth as sweet as honey.

10 Then I tooke the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweet as honey: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto mee, 12 Thou must prophesie againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many Kings.

13 And he said vnto mee, 14 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be, in the booke of this prophecy.

15 And I said vnto him, 16 Lord, thou knowest the things which shall be. And he said vnto mee, 17 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall be, in the booke of this prophecy.

13 Then I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, The dead which die in the Lord, are fully blessed. Euen so saith the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their works follow them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and behold, ¹⁰ a white cloud, and vpon the cloud one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, ¹¹ hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a ¹² sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loude cry to him that had the sharpe sickle, and sayd, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyard of the earth, and cast them into that great winepresse of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepresse was troden without the citie, ¹⁵ and blood came out of the wine-

CHAP. XV.

1 The seven Angels having the seven last plagues. 3 They have conquered the beast praise God. 6 To the seven Angels 7 seven vials full of Gods wrath are delivered.

ANd I sawe another signe in heaven, great and maruelous, seven² Angels hauing the seven last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 3 And I saw 4 as it were a glassie sea, mingled with fire, and 5 them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, 6 stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God.

3 And they sung 7 the song of Moses the ^a seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, ^b Great and marueilous are thy works, Lord God Almightie: iust and true are thy ^a ^b wayes, King of Saints.

4 * Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name! for thou onely art holy, and all nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that, I looked, and behold, the Temple of the tabernacle of Testimony was open in heaven.

6 And the seven Angels came out of the Temple, which had the ¹⁰seven plagues, clothed in ¹¹pure and bright linen, and having their breasts ¹²girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the ¹³ foure beasts gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God which liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God & of his power, and ¹⁴ no man was able to enter into the Temple, til the seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

And I saw an Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he took the dragon that old serpent, which is the deuil and Satan, and he bound him 3 a thousand yeeres:

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and he shut him vp, & sealed the doore vpon him, that hee should deceiue the people 4 no more till the thousand yeeres were fulfilled: for a later that he must bee loosed for 5 a little season.

the history of the dragon is double: First of the first victory after which he was bound by Christ, vnto the 6. verse. The second is of the last victory, whereby he was thrown downe into euill lasting punishment, thence vnto the 10. verse. This 11 history happened in the first time of y^e Christian Church, when the dragon owne downe to beauen by Christ, went about to molest the new birth of y^e Church in the earth. Cha. 12. 17. 18. For which cause I gave warning, that this story of the Dragon must be excused vnto that place. 2 That is of tell, whether God threw downe the Angels which had sinned, and bound them in chains of darkness to be kept vnto damnation, 3. The thow fowles were fallen perfectly vpon the times of this wicked Hildebrand, who was called Gregorie the seventh, a most damnable Necromancer and forerunner, whom Satan vsed as an instrument when he was loosed out of bonds, thenceforth to annoy the Saints of God with most cruel persecutions, and the whole world with diffinition, and most bloody war: as 25. And this is the first victory gotten over the Dragon in the earth. 4 Namely, with that public and violent deceit which he attempted before Cha. 12. & which altera thow fowles (a lake for war) hee most mightily procured in the Christian world. 5 Which being once expired, the second battell and victory shall be, of which Verse 7. 8. reigned with Christ a thousand yeere.

5 10 But the rest of the dead men 11 shall not liue againe, vntill the thousand yeeres be finished: this is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he, that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the 12 second death hath no power: but they shall be the Priests of God and of Christ, 13 and shall reigne with him a thousand yeeres.

7 14 And when the 15 thousand yeeres are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 16 And shall goe out to deceiue the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: even 17 Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whole number 18 as the sand of the Sea.

9 And they went vp into the 19 plaine of the earth, and they compassed the tents of the Saints about, & the beloued citie: but 20 fire came down from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 21 And the deuil that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where that beast and that falsse prophet are, and shall bee tormented euen day and night for euermore.

vnto whom the faithfull shall have associated themselves more then was meete, to dealing with them of their impurity of doctine and life. 16 The worse or worse of this, which is the first member of a fulling in the verse before (going) to describe the whole world, euery one of the members of the church to come them against the y^ele of God, in this verse, & to be able to myrror the Church, with his own strength, in the verse following. 17 The worse or worse of this, which is the whole face of the earth, from part of the earth, as a flood. 18 The worse of God, consuming the head of the earth, and overthrowing all their enterprises, Heb. 10. 27. And this is the second member mentioned ver. 7. the overthrow of Satan. 19 The third member, eternal diffinition against those that are overcome: as I noted in the same place. 20 The second part of this Chapter, in which is described the iudgement in this verse and the last iudgement in the verse following. 21 That is, a tribulation least most Princelike and glorious: for to death the Grecke word also signifies. 22 That is, Christ, before whom when he cometh vnto iudgement, heauen and earth shall perish for the greatneste of his maiestie, a Peter 3. 10. &c. 23 That is, Christ, the judge, 2 Cor 5. 10. 24 As I were, our books of reckoning or accounts: that is, the testimony of our conscience, and of our works, which by many means can be auoyled. This is found after the manner of the 1. Pet. 3. 5. and 1. 2. Pet. 1. 2. 25 The booke of the eternall y^ele of God, which is the Go the Father hath heere & in Christ according to the good pleasure of his will, those that shall be hereticks of life. This also is spoken according to the manner of men.

26 This is a predition or an answer to an objection: for happily some man will say, but they are dead: whom the sea, death and the grave hath consumed, how shall they 27 appear before the iudge? S. Iohn answereth, by resurrection from death, whereunto all things (howeouer expagnant) shall in this resurrection be at the commandment of God, as Dauid 28. The last sentence which is death shall be abolished by Christ (that he may once make any attempration) vs 1 Cor 15. 2. and death shall feede vpon the 29 obact in hell for euermore, according to the righteous iudgement of God, in the next verse.

a This whole booke is concluded with a confirmation, and a salutation. The confirmation hath three places: The words of the Angel vnto the 15. verse, the words of Christ: vers. 16. 17. and the oblation made by Saint Iohn from diuine authority, thence vnto the 20. verse. By the speech of the Angel: this prophesie is confirmed, vnto the 8. verse, and then he speaketh of the vfe of this booke in the verses following. The prophesie is first confirmed by the Angel from the nature thereof, that it is infallible and true. Secondly from the nature of the efficacie cause, both principall which is God, and instrumentall, which is the Angel, in this verse. Thirdly, from the promises of God concerning his coming to effect all these things, and concerning our saluation, ver. 7. Fourthly, from the testification of S. Iohn himselfe, ver. 8. The rest of the speech of the Angel tending to the same end S. Iohn interrupted, or brake off by his vnadvised act of worshipping him, in the same verse, which the Angel forbidding, teacheth him that adoration must be giuen onely to him, but onely to God: as for himselfe, that he is of such nature and office, as he may not be adored: which thing also was in like manner done, chap. 16. 10. * Chap. 19. 10. 3 The Angel returneth vnto his former speech: in which he teacheth the vfe of this booke, both towards our selues in this and the next verse, and in respect of God for declaration of his truth, thence vnto the 15. verse. 4 That is, propound this prophesie openly vnto all, and conceale no part of it. The contrary wherunto is commanded, Esa. 8. 16 5 An obiection preceined. But there will be some that will abuse this occasion vnto euill, and will wrest this Scripture vnto their own destruction, as Peter saith, What then? saith the Angel, the mysteries of God must not therefore be concealed, which it hath pleased him to communicate vnto vs. Let them be hurtfull vnto others, let such bee more and more vile in themselves, whom this Scripture doeth not please: yet others shall be further conformed thereby vnto righteousnesse, and true holinesse. The care and reformation of these may not be neglected, because of the voluntarie and malicious offence of others.

4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheades.

5 * And there shall be no light there, and they need no candle, neither light of the Sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 2 And hee said vnto mee, These wordes are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angell to shew vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is hee that keepeth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke.

8 And I am Iohn, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, * I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angell which shewed me these things.

9 But he said vnto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worship God.

10 3 And he said vnto me, 4 Seale not the wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 5 He that is vniust, let him be vniust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 6 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, * to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they, that doe his Commandments, 7 that their right may be in the tree of life, & may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without, shall be dogges and enchanters, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth or maketh lies.

16 8 I Iesus haue sent mine Angell, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the root and the generation of Dauid, and the bright morning Starre.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come: and let him that is athirst, come: and * let whosoever will, take of the water of life freely.

18 9 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, If any man shall add vnto these things, God shall add vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 10 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Euen so, come Lord Iesus.

21 12 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with you all, Amen.

Iohn himselfe who by a most holy prayer, calleth Christ to take vengeance of them.

11 The salutation Apostolical, which is the other place of the conclusion, as I said verse 6. and is the end of euery Epistle, which we write vnto the Church, and to all the holy and elect members thereof in Christ Iesus our Lord, vntill his coming to iudgement, Come Lord Iesus and do it. Also (saith God by the Angel) though there should be no vfe of this booke vnto men: yet it shall be of this vfe vnto me, that it is a witness of my truth vnto my glory, who shall come shortly to glorie and execute iudgement, in this verse who haue taught that the things haue their being in me, in the 13. verse, and haue denounced bloodiednesse vnto my seruants in this Church, verse 14. & reprobation vnto the vngodly, verse 15.

A brieft

A briefe Table of the interpretation of the proper names which are chiefly found in the Old Testament, where the first number signifieth the Chapter, the second the Verle.

WHereas the wickednesse of time, and the blindness of the former age hath bene such that all things altogether haue bene abused and corrupted, so that the very right names of diuers of the holy men named in the Scriptures, haue bene forgotten, and now seeme strange vnto vs, and the names of infants, that should euer haue some godly aduancements in them, and should be memorials and markes of the children of God receiued into his household, haue bene hereby also changed and made the signes and badges of idolatrie and heathenish impietie: we haue now set forth this Table of the Names that be most vsed in the Old Testament, with their interpretations; as the Hebrew importeth, partly to call backe the godly from that abuse, when they shall knowe the true names of the godly Fathers, and what they signifie, that their children now named after them, may haue testimonies by their verie names, that they are within that faithfull familie, that vntill their doings had euer God before their eyes, and that they are bound by these their names to serue God from their infancy, and haue occasion to praise him for his workes wrought in them, and their fathers, but chiefly to restore the names to their integritie, where by many places of the Scriptures and secret mysteries of the holy Ghost shall better be vnderstood. We haue medled rarely with the Greeke names, because their interpretation is vncertaine, and many of them are corrupted from their originall, as we may also see the Hebrew names set in the margin of this Table, which haue bene corrupted by the Grecians. Now for the other Hebrew names that are not here interpreted, let not the diligent Reader bee carefull: for hee shall finde them in places most conuenient amongst the annotations: at least for so many as may seeme to make for any edification, and vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

The Golden number.

THe Golden number is so called, because it was written in the Kalender with Letters of Gold, right at that day whereon the Moone changed: and it is the space of 19. yeeres, in the which the Moone returneth to the selfe same day of the Sunne: and therefore it is also called the Circle of the Moone, in the which the Solstices and Equinoxials doe returne to all one point in the Zodiacke.

To finde it every yeere, you must adde one yeere to the yeere of Christ (for Christ was borne one yeere of the 19. already past) then divide the whole by 19. and that which resteth, is the Golden number for that yeere: if there be no surplussage, it is then 19.

Note that the Golden number and Dominicall letter doeth change every yeere the first day of January. Note also that the yeere of our Lord beginneth the xxv. day of March, the same day supposed to be the first day vpon which the world was created, and the day when Christ was conceived in the wombe of the Virgin Mary.

THE BOOKE OF COMMON

prayer, and adminstration of the Sacraments.

¶ The order where Morning and Euening prayer shall bee vsed and sayd.

¶ The Morning and Euening prayer shall be vsed in the accustomed place of the Church, Chappell, or Chancel, except it shall be otherwise determined by the Ordina^y of the place, and the Chancels shall remaine as they haue done in times past.

¶ And here it is to be noted, that the Minister at the time of the Communion, and at all other times, in his ministrations, shall vse such Ornaments in the Church, as were in vse by authoritie of Parliament, in the second yeare of the reigne of King Edward the sixth, according to the Act of Parliament, in that case made and provided.

¶ At the beginning both of Morning prayer, and likewise of Euening prayer, the Minister shall reade with a lowd voyce some one of these Sentences of the Scriptures that follow: And then hee shall say that which is written after the sayd sentences.

T* what time soeuer a sinner doeth repent him of his sinne from the bottome of his heart, I will put all his wickednesse out of my remembrance, saith the Lord.

Psal. 51. 3.

* I doe know mine owne wickednesse, and my sienne is alway against me.

Psal. 51. 9.

* Turne thy face away from our sinnes (O Lord) and blot out all our offences.

Psal. 51. 17.

* A sorrowfull spirit is a sacrifice to God: despite not (O Lord) humble and contrite hearts.

Izel. 2. 13.

* Rent your hearts and not your garments, and turne to the Lord your God, because he is gentle and mercifull, he is patient, and of much mercie, and such a one that is fory for thy afflictions.

Dan. 9. 9. 10.

* To thee (O Lord God) belongeth mercie and forgiveness, for we haue gone away from thee, and haue not hearkened to thy voyce, whereby we might walke in thy Lawes which thou hast appointed for vs.

Iez. 10. 24.

* Correc^t vs (O Lord) and yet in thy iudgement: not in thy fury, lest wee should bee consumed and brought to nothing.

Psal. 6. 1.

* Amend your iues, for the kingdome of God is at hand.

Matth. 3. 2.

* I will goe to my father, and say to him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen and against thee: I am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

Luke. 15. 18.
19.

* Enter not into iudgement with thy seruants, O Lord: for no flesh is righteous in thy sight.

Psal. 143. 2.
1. iob. 11. 8.

* If we say that we haue no sinne, wee decciue our selues: and there is no truth in vs.

D Earely beloued brethren, the Scripture mooueth vs in sundry places, to acknowledge and confesse our manifold sins and wickednes, and that we should not dissemble nor cōke the trefes: the face Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by his infinite goodnesse & mercy. And although we ought at a times humbly to acknowledge our sins be'ore God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble & meet together, to render thanks for his great benefites that we haue receiued at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy word, and to aske those things that be requisite & necessary, as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as be here present, to accompany mee with a pure heart and humble voyce vnto the Throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

A Lmighty and most mercifull Father, wee haue erred & strayed from thy wayes like lost sheepe: wee haue followed too much the deuires and desires of our owne hearts: wee haue offended against thy holy Lawes: wee haue left vndone those things which wee ought to haue done, and wee haue done those things which we ought not to haue done: and there is no health in vs: but thou, O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faults: Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankind in Christ Iesu our Lord; and grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter liue a godly, tighteous and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The absolution or remission of sinnes to be pronounced by the Minister alone.

A Lmighty God, the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turne from his wickednes, and liue, and hath giuen power and commandement to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sinnes, hee pardoneth and absolveth all them which truly repent, and vnfeignedly beleue his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant vs true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we doe at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, to that at the last we may come to his eternall ioy, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answer,

Amen.

Then shall the Minister begin the Lords prayer with a lowd voyce.

O V^r Father which art in Heauen, halowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our dayly bread. And forgive vs our trespases, as we forgive them that trespase against vs. And lead vs not into temptation. But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer,

And our mouth shall shew forth thy prayse.

Minister,

O God make speede to saue vs.

Answer,

O Lord make haste to helpe vs.

Minister,

Glory be to the Father, and to the &c.
As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

A

Praise

Praise yee the Lord.

¶ Then shall be said or sung this Psalm following.

Penite exult.
arous.
Psal 95.

O Come, let vs vsing vnto the Lord: let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation,
Let vs come before his presence with thanksgiving:
and shew our selues glad in him with Psalmes.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King aboue all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hilles is his alfa.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the drie land.

O come, let vs worship and fall down: and kneele before the Lord our maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his hands.

To day if wee will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

When your father tempted me: proued mee, and saw my workes.

Fortie yeeres long was I grieved with this generation, & said: it is a people that do erre in their hearts, for they haue not known my wayes.

Vnto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning is now, &c.

¶ Then shall follow certaine Psalmes in order as they be appointed in a Table made for that purpose except there be proper Psalmes appointed for the day, And at the end of euery Psalm through out the yeere, and likewise in the end of Benedicite, Benedicite, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis shall be repeated.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

¶ Then shall be read two Lessons distinctly with a loud voyce, that the people may heare. The first of the old Testament, the second of the New, like as they be appointed in the Kalender, except there be proper Lessons assigned for that day: the Minister that readeth the Lesson, standing, and turning himselfe, as he may best be heard of all such as be present. And before euery Lesson, the Minister shall say thus, The first, second, third, or fourth Chapter of Genesis, or Exodus, Matthew, Marke, or other like, as is appointed in the Kalender. And in the end of euery Chapter, he shall say, Here endeth such a Chapter of such a Booke.

And (so the end the people may the better heare) in such places where they doe sing, there shall the Lessons be sung in a plaine tune, after the manner of distinct reading, and likewise the Epistle and Gospel.

After the first Lesson, shall follow Te Deum laudamus in English daily through the whole yeere.

W E praye thee, O God: we knowledgeth thee to be the Lord.

All ¶ earth doth worship thee: ¶ Father euerlasting. To thee all Angels cry aloud: the heauens and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin & Seraphin: continually do cry.

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabaoth.

Heauen & earth are ful of the Maiesty of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs: praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world: doth knowledgeth thee.

The Father: of an infinite maiesty.

Thou art the euerlasting Sonne: of the Father.

When thou tookest vpon thee to deliuer man: thou diddest not abhorre the Virgins wombe.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpnesse of death: thou didst open the kingdome of heauen to all beleeuers.

Thou sittest on the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.

We beleue that thou shalt come: to be our Iudge.

Wee therefore pray thee helpe thy seruants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints: in glory euerlasting.

O Lord saue thy people: and bleste thine heritage. Goue: them: and lift them vp for euer.

Day by day: we magnifie thee,

And we worship thy Name: euer world without end, Vouchsafe, O Lord: to keepe vs this day without sinne.

O Lord haue mercy vpon vs: haue mercie vpon vs.

O Lord let thy mercy lighten vpon vs: as our trust is in thee.

O Lord in thee haue I trusted: let me neuer be confounded.

Benedictus, Lutke 1.68.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel : for he hath visited and redeemed his people.
 And hath raised vp a mighty saluation for vs : in the house of his seruant David.
 As hee spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets : which haue been since the world began.
 That we should be saved from our enemies : and from the hands of all that hate vs.
 To performe the mercie promised to our forefathers : and to remember his holy couenant.
 To performe the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham : that he would giue vs.
 That wee, being deliuered out of the hands of our enemies : might serue him without feare.
 In holiness and righteousness before him : all the dayes of our life.
 And thou child shalt be called the Prophet of the highest : for thou shalt goe before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes.
 To giue knowledge of saluation vnto his people : for the remission of their finnes.
 Through the tender mercie of our God : whereby the day spring from an high hath visited vs.
 To giue light to them that sit in darkenesse, and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feete into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.
 As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.
Or this C. Psalme. Imbilate.

O Be ioyfull in the Lord, al ye lands : serue the Lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a Song.
 Be ye sure that the Lord hee is God : it is hee that hath made vs, and not we our selues, we are his people and the sheepe of his pasture.
 O goe your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise : bee thankfull vnto him, and speake good of his Name.

MY soule doth magnifie the Lord: and my spirit hath reioyced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.

For behod from hencefoorth: all generations shal
call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that feare him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arme: hee hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hart.

Hee hath put downe the mighty from their seate:
and hath exalted the humble and meeke

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

Heremembring his mercie, hath holpen his seruant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham, and his seed for euer.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne: and to the holy Ghost,

As it was in the beginning, is now and euer shall be: world without end.

Or the 98. Psalm.

O Sing vnto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marueilous things.

With his own right hand, and with his holy arme:
hath he gotten himselfe the victory.

The Lord declared his saluation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heauen.

He hath remembered his mercie and trueth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world haue seen the saluation of our God.

Shew your selues ioyfull vnto the Lord all ye lands:
sing, reioyce and giue thanks.

Prayle the Lord vpon the harpe: sing to the harpe with a Psalm of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and Shawmes: O shew your selues ioyfull before the Lord the King.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is:
the round world and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands: and let the hills be ioyfull together before the Lord: for hee is come to

With righteousness shall he iudge the world: and the people with equity.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

rest and quietnes, through the merits of Iesus Christ our Saviour, Amen.

Luk. 2. 29.

Deus miseratur.
Psal. 67.

Qui inquit vult.

Whoſoeuer will be ſaued: before all things it is neceſſary that he hold the Catholike faith. Which faith except eury one doe keepe holy and vndefiled: without doubt he ſhal periſh euerlaſtingly. And the Catholike faith is this: that wee worſhip one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Vnity. Neither confounding the perſons: nor diuiding the ſubſtance.

For there is one perſon of the Father, another of the Sonne: and another of the holy Ghoſt.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghoſt, is all one: the glory equal, the Maieſty coeternall.

Such as the Father is, ſuch is the Sonne: and ſuch is the holy Ghoſt.

The Father vncrate, the Sonne vncrate: and the holy Ghoſt vncrate.

The Father incomprehenſible, the Sonne incomprehenſible: and the holy Ghoſt incomprehenſible.

The Father eternall, the Sonne eternall: and the holy Ghoſt eternall.

And yet they are not three eternals: but one eternal. As alſo there be not three incomprehenſibles, nor three vncrated: but one vncrated, and one incomprehenſible.

So likewiſe the Father is Almighty, the Sonne Almighty: and the holy Ghoſt Almighty.

And yet they are not three Almightyes: but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Sonne is God: and the holy Ghoſt is God.

And yet they are not three Gods: but one God.

So likewiſe the Father is Lord, the Sonne Lord: and the holy Ghoſt Lord.

And yet not three Lords: but one Lord.

For like as we be compelled by the Chriſtian verity: to acknowledge eury perſon by himſelfe to bee God and Lord.

So are they forbidden by the Catholike Religion: to ſay there be three Gods or three Lords.

The Father is made of none: neither created nor begotten.

The Sonne is of the Father alone: not made, nor created, but begotten.

The holy Ghoſt is of the Father, & of the Son: neither made nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers, one Son, not three Sonnes: one holy Ghoſt, not three holy Ghoſts.

And in this Trinitie none is afore or after other, none is greater or leſſe then another.

But the whole three perſons be coeternal together: and eoequal.

So that in all things as is aforeſaid: the Vnity in Trinity, & the Trinity in Vnity is to be worſhipped. He therefore that will be ſaued: muſt thus thinke of the Trinitie.

Furthermore it is neceſſary to euerlaſting ſaluation: that he alſo beleue rightly in the incarnation of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

For the right faith is, that wee beleue and confeſſe that our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, the Sonne of God, is God and man.

God of the ſubſtance of the Father, begotten before the worlds: and man of the ſubſtance of his mother, borne in the world.

Perfekt God and perfect man of a reaſonable ſoule: and humane fleſh ſubſiſting.

Equall to the Father as touching the Godhead: and inferior to the Father touching his manhood.

Who although he be God and man: yet he is not two, but one Chriſt.

One, not by conuerſion of the Godhead into fleſh: but by taking of the manhood into God.

One altogether, not by conſuſion of ſubſtance: but by vinity of perſon.

For as the reaſonable ſoule and fleſh is one man: ſo God and man is one Chriſt.

Who ſuffered for our ſaluation, deſcended into heil: roſe againe the third day from the dead.

Hee aſcended into heauen, hee ſitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty: from whence he ſhall come to iudge the quick and the dead.

At whoſe coming all men ſhal riſe againe with their bodie: and ſhall giue account for their own works.

And they that haue done good ſhall go into life euerlaſting: and they that haue done euill, into euerlaſting fire.

This is the Catholike faith, which except a man beleue faithfully, he cannot be ſaved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

¶ Thus endeth the order of Morning and Evening prayer throughout the whole yeere.

A prayer for the Kings Maiestie.

O Lord our heavenly Father high & mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only ruler of princes, which doest from thy throne behold all the dwellers vpon earth, most heartily we beseech thee with thy fauour to behold our most gracious souereigne lord King Iames, and so replenish him with the grace of thy holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will and walke in thy way, endure him plentifully with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealch long to liue, (strengthen him, that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies, and finally after this life, he may attaine euerlasting ioy and felicitie, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty God, which hast promised to be a Father of thine elect, and of their seed, we humbly beseech thee to blesse our gracious Queene Anne, Prince Charles, Frederick the Prince Elector Palatine, and the Lady Elizabeth his wife: endure them with thy holy Spirit, enrich them with thy heauenly grace, prosper them with all happinesse, and bring them to thine euerlasting kingdome, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty & euerlasting God, which only worst great maruells, send down vpon our Bishops and Curats, & all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace, & that they may truly please thee, powere vnto them the continual dew of thy blessing: grant this (O Lord) for the honor of our Advocate and Mediator Iesus Christ, Amen.

A prayer of Chrysostome.

Almighty God, which hast giuen vs grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications vnto thee. & doest promise that when two or three be gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests: fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy seruants, as may be most expedient for them, granting vs in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life euerlasting.

The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, and the loue of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost, be with vs all euermore. Amen.

¶ For Raie, if the time require.

O God heavenly Father, which by thy Son Iesus Christ hast promised to al them yeeke thy kingdome & the righteouines thereof, al things necessary to their bodily sustenance, send vs we beseech thee, in this our necessity, such moderate raie & shewes, that we may receiue the fruits of the earth to our comfort, & to thy honour, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

For faire weather.

O Lord God which for the sinne of man didst once drown all the world, except eight persons, & afterwards of thy great mercie didst promise neuer to destroy it so again: we humbly beseech thee, that although we for our iniquities haue worthily deserved this plague of raie and waters, yet vpon our true repentance thou wilt send vs such weather, whereby we may receiue the fruits of the earth in due season, and learne both by thy punishment to amend our liues, and for thy clemencie to giue thee praise and glory, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

In the time of warre.

O Almighty God, King of all kings, and gouernor of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth iustly to punish sinners, and to be mercifull vnto them that truly repent: saue and deliver vs (wee humbly beseech thee) from the hands of our enemies, abate their pride, assuage their malice, and confound their devices, that we being armed with thy defence, may be preserved euermore from all perils, to glorifie thee which art the onely giuer of all victory, through the merits of thy onely Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

In the time of any common plague, or sickness.

O Almighty God, which in thy wrath in the time of king David, didst slay with the plague of pestilence threescore and ten thousand, & yet remembering thy mercy didst saue the rest: haue pity vpon vs miserable sinners, that now are visited with great sickness and mortality, that like as thou didst then command thine Angel to cease from punishing, so it may now please thee to withdraw from vs this plague & grievous sickness, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

O God, whose nature and property is euer to haue mercie and to forgive, receiue our humble petitions: and though wee be tied and bound with the chaine of our sinnes, yet let the pitifulnes of thy great mercie loose vs, for the honour of Iesus Chrills sake, our Mediatur and Advocate, Amen.

O God our heavenly Father, who by thy gracious providence doest cause the former & the later raie to descend vpon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the vse of man: wee giue thee humble thanks, that it hath pleased thee in our greatest necessity, to send vs at the last a ioyfull raie vpon thine inheritance, and to refresh it when it was drie, to the great comfort of vs thy vnworthy seruants, and to the glory of thy holy Name, through thy mercies in Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

A thankesgiving for faire weather.

O Lord God, who hast iustly humbled vs by thy late plague of immoderate raie and waters, and in thy mercie hast relieved and comforted our soules by this seasonable and blessed change of weather, wee praise and glorifie thy holy Name for this thy mercie, and will alwaies declare thy louing kindnesse from generation to generation, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

A thankesgiving for plenty.

O Most mercifull Father, which of thy gracious goodnesse hast heard the deuout prayers of thy Church, & turned our dearth & scarcitie, into cheapnesse and plenty: Wee giue thee humble thanks for this thy especial bounty, beseeching thee to continue this this thy louing kinnesse vnto vs, that our land may yeeld vs her fruits of increase, to thy glory and our comfort, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

A thanksgiving for peace and victorie.

O Almighty God, which art a strong tower of de-lence vnto thy seruants, against the face of their enemies: we yeld thee praise and thanksgiving for our deliuerance from these great and apparant dangers, wherewith we were compassed: we acknowledge it thy goodnesse, that we were not deliuered ouer as a pray vnto them, beseeching thee stil to continue such thy mercie toward vs, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliuere, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

A thanksgiving for deliuerance from the plague.

O Lord God, which hast wounded vs for our sins and consumed vs for our transgressions by thy late heuuy and dreadful visitation, and now in the midst of iudgement remembering mercie, hast redeemed our soules from the lawes of death: we offer vnto thy fatherly goodnesse, our selues, our soules and bodies, which thou hast deliuered, to be a liuing sac-crifice vnto thee, alwayes praising and magnifying thy mercies in the midst of the congregation, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Or this.

WE humbly acknowledge before thee (O most mercifull Father) that all the punishments which are threatned in the Law, might iustly haue fallen vpon vs, by reason of our manifold transgressions and hardnesse of heart: yet seeing it hath pleased thee of thy tender mercie, vpon our weake and vnwor-thy humiliation, to asswage the noysof pestilence, wherewith we lately haue been sore afflicted, & to restore the voice of ioy & health into our dwelling, We offer vnto thy diuine Maiesty the sacrifice of praye and thankgiuing, lauding and magnifying thy glorious Name for such thy prefection and prouidence outr vs, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

The end of the Collects.

The order for the administration of the Lords Supper, or holy Communion.

Om any as intend to be partakers of the holy Communion, shall signify their names to the Curate ouer night, or else in the morning before the beginning of Morning prayer, or immediately after.

And if any of those be an open and notorious will luer, so that the Congregation by him is offended, or haue done any wrong to his neighbours by word or deed: the Curate hauing knowledge thereof, shall call him, and aduertise him in any wise, not to presume to the Lords Table, untill he haue openly declared himselfe to haue truly repented and amended: it is former naughty life, that the Congregation may thereby be satisfied, which afore were offended, and that he haue recompensed the parties whom he hath done wrong vnto, or at the least, declare himselfe to be in full purpose so to doe, as soone as he conveniently may.

The same order shall the Curate vse witht' ofe betwixt whom he perceiue malice and hatred to reigne, not suffering them to be partakers of the Lords Table, untill he know them to be reconciled, and if one of the parties so at variance, bee content to forgive from the bottoome of his heart, all that the other hath trespassed against him, and to make amends for that he himselfe hath offended, and the other partie will not be perswaded to a godly unity, but remaine still in his frowardnesse and malice: the Minister in that case ought to admit the penitent person to the holy Communion, and not him that is obstinate.

The Table at the Communion time, hauing a faire whitelinnen cloth vpon it, shall stand in the body of the Church, or in the Chancell, where Morning and Evening prayer be appointed to be said, And the Priest standing at the North side of the Table, shall say the Lords prayer, with this Collect following.

The Communion.

Almighty God, vnto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidde, cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, that wee may perfectly loue thee, and worthy magnifie thy holy

Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister rehearse distinctly all the tenme Commandements, and the people kneeling, shall after eue-ry Commandement, aske Gods mercy, for their transgression of the same, after this sort.

ship them: For I the Lord thy God am a iealous God, and visite the sinne of the fathers vpon the children, vnto the third and fourth generation of them that hate mee, and shew mercy vnto thousands, in them that loue me, and keepe my commandements.

and thy sonne, and thy daughter, thy manseruant, and thy maid seruant, thy cattell, and the stranger that is within thy gates: for in sixe daies the Lord made heauen, and earth, the Sea, and all that in them is,
and rested the seventh day, wherefore the Lord blest
the seventh day, and hallowed it.

People.

Lord haue mercy vpon vs, &c.

ueth thee.

People,

People.
Lord haue mercy vpon vs, and write all these thy Lawes in our hearts, wee beseech thee.

¶ Then shall follow the Collect of the day, with one of these two Collects following for the King, the Minister standing vp, and saying.

¶ Let vs pray.
Almighty God, whose kingdome is euertlasting and power infinite, haue mercy vpon the whole Congregation, & so rule the heart of thy chosen fer-uantes, our king and gouernour, that he (knowing whose minister he is) may about all things seeke thy honour and glory, and that we his subiects (dug-ly considering whose authoritie he hath) may faithfully serue, honor, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed word & ordinance, through Iesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the holy Ghost, liueth and reigneth, euer one God world without end, Amen.

Almighty and euertlasting God, we be taugth by thy holy word, that the hearts of kings are in thy rule & gouernance, and thou doost despise & turne them as it seemeth best to thy godly wisdom: wee humbly beseech thee, so to dispose and gouerne the heart of Iames thy seruour our King and gouernour, that in all his thoughts, words and works, he may e-uer seeke thy honour and glory, and study to preluce thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and godlinesse: Grant this O merciful Father, for thy deare Sonnes sake Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ Immediately after the Collects, the ministers shall read the Epistle, beginning thus.

The Epistle written in the Chapter of

¶ And the Epistle ended, he shall say the Gospel, beginning thus.

The Gospel written in the Chapter of

¶ And the Epistle and Gospel being ended, shall bee said
the Creed.

Believe in one God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible, and inui-sible: and in one Lord Iesus Christ, the only begotten Sonne of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made, who forvs men, and for our saluation, came downe from heaven and was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgine Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for vs vnder Pontius Pilate. Hee suffered and was buried, & the third day he rose againe according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come againe with glory to iudge both the quicke and the dead:
whose kingdome shall haue none end. And I beleue in the holy Ghost, the Lord and giuer of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Sonne, who with the Father and the Sonne together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the Prophets. And I beleue one Catholike and Apostolike Church. I acknowledge one Baptisme for the remission of sinnes And I looke for the resurrectione of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

After the Creed, if there be no Sermon, shall follow one of the Homilies already set forth, or hereafter to be set forth by common authoritie.

After such Sermon Homily, or exhortation, the Curate shall declare vnto the people, whether there be any holy daies or fasting dayes the week following, and earnestly exhort them to remember the poore, saying or out more of these following.

tences following, as he thinketh most convenient by his discretion.

* Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorifie your Father which is in heauen.

* Lay not vp for your selues treasure vpon the earth where the rust and moth doth corrupt, and where theues breake through and steale: but lay vp for your selues treasures in heauen, where neither rust nor moth doth corrupt, and where theues do not breake thorow and steale.

* Whatsoeuer ye would that men should doe vnto you, euen so do vnto them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

* Not euery one that saith vnto mee, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdome of heauen: but hee that doeth the will of my Father which is in heauen.

* Zache stood forth and said vnto the Lord, Behold
I Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore, and if I haue done any wrong to any man, I restore foure fold.

* Who goeth a warfare at any time of his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? Or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

* If we haue sowne vnto you spirituall things, is it a great matter if we shall reape your worldly things?

* Doe ye not know that they which minister about holly things, lue of the sacrifice? and they which wait of the altar, are partakers with the altar? Euen so hath the Lord also ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should lue of the Gospel.

* He that soweth little, shall reape little: and he that soweth plenteously, shall reape plenteously. Let euery man doe according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudging, or of necessity, for God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

* Let him that istaught in the word, minister vnto him that teacheth, in all good things. Be not decei-ued, God is not mocked: For whatsoever a man soweth that shall he reape.

* While we haue time, let vs do good vnto al men, & specially vnto the which are of the household of faith.

* Godlines is great riches, if a man be content with that he hath: for we brought nothing ino the world, neither may we cary any thing out.

* Charge them which are rich in this world, that they be ready to giue, and glad to distribute, laying vp in store for themselves a good foundation againe
the time to come, that they may attaine eternall life.

* God is not vnrighteous, that he wil forget your works, and labor that proceedeth of loue: which loue ye haue shewed for his Names sake, which haue ministred vnto the Saints, and yet doe minister.

* To do good and to distribute forget not, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

* Who lo hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

* Giue almes of thy goods, and turne neuer thy face from any poore man: and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee.

* Be mercifull as thy power. If thou hast much, giue plenteously. If thou hast little, doe thy diligence gladlie to giue of that little: for so gatherest thou thy selfe a good reward in the day of necessity.

* Hee that hath pittie vpon the poore, lendeth vnto the Lord: and looke what he layeth out, it shall bee paid him againe.

* Blessed is the man that provideth for the sick and needy: the Lord shall deliuer him in the time of trouble.

¶ Then shall the Churchwardens, or some other by them appointed, gather the donation of the people, and put the same into the poore man's box, and vpon the offering dayes appointed, every man and woman shall pay to the Curate, the due and accustomed offering. After which done the Priest shall say, ¶ Let vs pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth.

If there be no almes given to the poore, then shall the words (not accepting our almes) be left out vsaid.

Almighty and euellouing God, which by thy holy Apostles haue taught vs to make prayers and supplications, and to giue thanks for all men: we humbly beseech thee most mercifully (to accept our almes) to receiue these our prayers, which we offer vnto thy diuine Maiestie, beseeching thee to inspire continually the vniuersall Church with the spirit of truth, vniuity and concord: & grant that all they that doe confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and liue in vniuity and godly loue. We beseech thee also to saue and defend all Christian kings, princes, and gouernours, and specially thy seruant Iames our King, that vnder him we may be godly and quietly gouerned: and grant vnto his whole counsell, and to all that be put in authority vnder him, that they may truly and indifferently minister iustice, to the punishment of wickednes and vice, and to maintenance of Gods true Religion and vertue. Giue grace (O heauenly Father) to all Bishops, Pastors, and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and liuely word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments: and to all thy people: giue thy heauenly grace, and specially to this congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reuerence, they may here and receiue thy holy word, truly learning thee in holinesse and righteousness all the dayes of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodnesse. O Lord, to comfort and succour all them which in this transitory life be in trouble, sorrow, need, sicknesse, or any other aduersitie: grant this, O Father, for Iesus Christs sake our onely Mediatour and Advocate Amen.

¶ Then shall follow this exhortation at certaine times, when the Curate shall see the people negligent to come to the holy Communion.

Whe come together at this time (dearely beloved brethren) to feed at the Lords Supper, vnto the which in Gods behalfe I bid you all that be here present, and beseech you for the Lords Iesus Christs sake, that ye will not refuse to come thereto, being so louingly called and bidden of God himselfe. Ye know how grievous and vnkinde a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feast, decked his table with all kinde of prouision, so that there lacketh nothing but the guests to sit downe, and yet they which bee called (without any cause) most vnthankfully refuse to come. Which of you in such a case would not be moued? Who would not thinke a great iniury & wrong done vnto him? Wherefore most dearely beloved in Christ, take ye good heed, lest ye withdrawing your selues from this holy Supper prouoke Gods indignation against you. It is an easie matter for a man to say, I will not communicate, because I am otherwise letted with worldly businesse: but such excuses bee not so easily accepted and allowed before God. If any man say, I am a grieuous sinner, and therefore am afraid to come: Wherefore then doe ye not repent and amend? When God calleth you, be ye not ashamed to say, you will not come? When you should returne to God, will you excuse your selfe, and say that you be not ready? Consider earnestly with your selues, how little such fained excuses shall auail before God. They that refused the feast in the Gospel, because they had bought a Farme, or would try their yokes of oxen, or because they were married, were not so excused, but counted vnworthy of the heauenly feast. I for my part am here present, and according to mine office, I bid you in the Name of God, I call you in Christs behalfe, I exhort you as you loue your own soules on, that ye will be partakers of this holy Communion. And as the Sonne of God did vouchsafe to yeelde vp his soule by death vpon the Crosse for your health: euen so it is your duty to receiue the Communion together in the remembrance of his death, as hee himselfe commanded. Now if you will in no wise thus do, consider with your selues how great iniury you doe vnto God, and how fore punishment hangeth ouer your heads for the same. And whereas you commend God so fore in refusing this holy banquet: I admonish, exhort and beseech you, that vnto this vnkindnesse ye will not add any more: which thing ye shall doe, if ye stand by as gazers and lookers on them that doe communicate, and bee not partakers of the same your selues. For what thing can this be accounted else, then a further contempt, and vnkindnesse vnto God? Truly it is a great vnthankfulness to lay myn, when ye be called: but the fault is much greater, when men stand by and yet will neither eat nor drinke this holy Communion with other. I pray you what can this bee else, euen to haue the mysteries of Christ in derision? It is said vnto all, Take ye, and eate, take and drinke ye all of this, doe this in remembrance of me. With what face then, or with what countenance shall ye hear these words? What will this be else, but a neglecting, a despising, and mocking of the Testament of Christ? Wherefore rather then ye should so do, depart you hence, and giue place to them that be godly disposed. But when you depart, I beseech you, depart with your selues from whom you depart. Yee depart from the Lords Table, ye depart from your brethren, and from the banquet of most heauenly foodes. These things if ye earnestly consider, ye shall by Gods grace returne to a better mind. For the obtaining wherof we shall make our humble petitions, while we shall receiue the holy Communion.

¶ And sometime shall this be said also, at the discretion of the Curate.

Dearely beloved, forasmuch as our duty is to render to Almighty God our heauenly Father, most hearty thanks, for that hee hath giuen his Sonne our Saviour Iesus Christ, not only to die for vs, but also to be our spiritual food and sustenance, as it is declared vnto vs, as wel by Gods word, as by the holy Sacraments of his blessed body & blood, the which being to comforte a thing to them which receiue it worthily, & so dangerous to them if we presume to receiue it vnworthily. My duty is to exhort you to consider the dignity of the holy mystery, & the great peril of the vnworthy receiving thereof, and so to search & examine your own consciences as you should come holy and cleane to a most godly & heauenly Feast, so that in no wise you come but in the marriage garment required of God in holy Scripture, and as hee & be receiued, as worthy partakers of such an heavenly table, the way & meane thereto, is: First to examine your liues and conuersation, by the rule of Gods commandments, and when in fewer ye shall perceiue your selues to haue offended, either by will, word, or deed, there bewaile your owne sinfull liues, and confesse your selues to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life. And if ye shall perceiue your offences to be such, as be not only against God, but also against your neighbors: then ye shall reconcile your felus vnto them, ready to make restitution and satisfaction, according to the uttermost of your powers, for all injuries and wrongs done by you to any other, and likewise being ready to forgive other that haue offended you as you would haue forgiveness of your offence at Gods hand: For otherwise the receiving of the holy Communion, doth nothing else but encrease your damnation. And because it is requisite that no man should come to the holy Communion, but with a full trust in Gods mercy, and with a quiet conscience: therefore if there be any of you, which by the means afore said, cannot quiet his owne conscience, but requireth further comfort or counsell, then let him come to me, or some other discreet and learned Minister of Gods word, and open his griefe, that he may receive such ghostly counsell, aduise and comfort, as his conscience may be relieved, and that by the ministry of Gods word he may receive comfort, and the benefite of absolution, to the quieting of his conscience, and auoyding of all scruple and doubtfulness.

Dearely beloved in the Lord, ye f^r mind to come to the holy Communion of the body & blood of our Sauour Christ, most consider what Saint Paul writeth to f^r Corinth aⁿ, how he exhorteth all persons diligently to try & examine themselves, before they presume to eate of that bread, and drinke of that cup. For as the benefite is great, if with a true penitent heart & lively faith we receiue that holy Sacrament: (For then we spiritually eate the flesh of Christ, and drinke his blood, then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in vs: we be one with Christ, and Christ with vs:.) So is the danger great, if we receiue the same vnworthily. For then we be guilty of f^r body & blood of Christ our Sauour, we eat and drinke our owne damnation, not consider the Lords body: We kindle Gods wrath against vs: we prouoke him to plague vs with diuers diseases, and sundry kindes of death. Therefore if any of you be a blasphemer of God, an hinderer or slanderer of his word, an adulterer, or be in malice, or enuie, or in any other grieuous crime, bewaile your sin, and come not to this holy Table, lest after the taking of f^r holy Sacrament, the deuil enter into you, as he entered into Iudas, & fil you full of all iniquities, and bring you to destruction both of body & soule, Iudge therefore your selves (brethren) that ye be not iudged of the Lord. Repent you truly for your sins past: haue a lively and steadfast faith in Christ our Sauour. Amend your liues, & be in perfect charity with all men, so that you be meet partakers of those holy mysteries. And about all things, ye must giue most humble and hearty thanks to God the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, for the redemption of f^r world by the death & passion of our Sauour Christ both God and man, who did humble himselfe vnto the death vpon the crosse for vs miserable sinners, which lay in darkness and shadow of death, that he might make vs the children of God, and exalt vs to everlasting life: And to the end that we should a way merited the exceeding great loue of our master and onely Sauour Iesus Christ, thus dying for vs, & the innumerable benefites which by his precious blood shedding he hath obtained to vs: he hath instituted and ordained holy mysteries, as pledges of his loue, & continual remembrance of his death, to our great & endless comfort. To him therefore with the Father & the holy Ghost let vs giue (as we are most bounden) continual thanks, submitting our selues wholly to his holy will and pleasure, and studying to serue him in true holiness and righteousness all the daies of our life. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say vnto them that come to receiue the holy Communion,

Ye Ou that doe truly & earnestly repent you of your finnes & be in loue and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from hence forth in his holy wayes: draw neere, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort, make your humble confession to Almighty God, before this congregation: here gather ed together in his holy Name, meekely kneeling vpon your knees.

¶ Then shall this generall confession be made in the name of all those that are minded to receiue the holy Communion, either by one of them, or elsby the Minister himselfe, all kneeling humbly vpon their knees,

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Iesus Christ maker of all things, Iudge of all men, we know ledge and bewaile our manifold sins and wickednes, which we fro time to time most grievously haue committed, by thought, word and deed, against thy diuine Maiesty: prouoking most iustly thy wrath and indignation against vs: we doe earnestly repent, and bee heartily sorry for these our misdoings: the remembrance of them is grieuous vnto vs: the burthen of them is intollerable. Haue mercy vpon vs, haue mercy vpon vs, most mercifull Father, for thy Sonne our Lord Iesus Christs sake, forgive vs all that is past, and grant that we may euer hereafter serue and please thee in newnes of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister, or the Bishop (being present) stand up, and turning himselfe to the people, say thus,

Almighty God our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of finnes, to all them which with hearty repentance and true faith turne vnto him: haue mercy vpon you, pardon and deliuer you from all your finnes, confirme and strengthen you in all goodnesse, and bring you to euermolting life, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister also say,

Here what comfortable words our Sauour Christ saith to all that truly turne to him.

* Come vnto me all ye that are trauailed, and be heavy laden, and I will refresh you. * So God loued the world, that he gaue his onely begotten Sonne, so that ead that al that beleue in him should not perish, but haue life euermolting.

Heare also what S. Paul saith.

* This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Iesus Christ came into the world to saue sinners.

Here also what S. Iohn saith.

* If any man sinne we haue an aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the righteous, and hee is the propitiation for our finnes.

¶ After which the Minister shall proceede, saying, Lift vp your hearts.

Answer.

We lift them vp vnto the Lord.

Minister.

Let vs giue thanks vnto our Lord God.

Answer.

Mat. 11. 28.
Iohn 3. 16.

1. Tim. 1. 15.

1. Ioh. 2. 1, 2

Answer.

It is meet and right so to doe.

Minister.

It is very meete, right, and our bounden duty that we should at all times, and in all places giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty euertlasting God.

¶ Here shall follow the proper Preface, according to the times, if there be any specially appointed: or else immediately shall follow. Therefore with Angels, and Archangels, &c.

¶ Proper prefaces.

Vpon Christmas day and seven dayes after.

Because thou diddest giue Iesus Christ thine only Sonne to bee borne as this day for vs, who by the operation of the Holy Ghost was made very man, of the substance of the Virgin Mary his Mother, and that without spot of sinne, to make vs cleane from all sin, Therefore with Angels, &c.

Vpon Easter day and seven dayes after.

But chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious resurrection of thy Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord: for he is the very Paschall Lambe, which was offered for vs, and hath taken away the sinne of the world, who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life againe, hath restored to vs euertlasting life, Therefore with Angels, &c.

Vpon Ascension day and seven dayes after.

Through thy most deare beloved Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord, who after his most glorious resurrection manifestly appeared to all his Apostles, and in their sight ascended vp into heauen, to prepare a place for vs, that where he is, thither might we also ascend, and reigne with him in glory. Therefore, &c.

Vpon Whitsunday and sixe dayes after.

Through Iesus Christ our Lord, according to whose most true promise the holy Ghost came down this day from heaue, with a sudden great sound as it had bene a mighty wind, in the likenesse of fiery tongues lighting vpon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth, giuing them both the gift of diuers languages, and also boldnes with feruent zeale constantly to preach the Gospel vnto all nations, whereby we are brought out of darkness and error, into the cleare light, and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Sonne Iesus Christ. Therefore, &c.

Vpon the Feast of Trinity onely.

It is very meete, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places giue thanks to thee, O Lord Almighty, & euertlasting God, which art one God, one Lord, not one only person, but three persons in one substance. For that which we beleue of the glory of the Father, the same we beleue of the Sonne and of the holy Ghost, without any difference or inequality. Therefore with Angels, &c.

After which Prefaces shall follow immediately.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heauen, we laud and magnifie thy glorious Name, euermore praying thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts. Heauen and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most High.

¶ Then shall the Minister kneeling downe at Godsbord, say in the name of all them that shall receive the Communion, this prayer following.

We doe not presume to come to this thy Table, (O merciful Lord) trulling in our owne righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We bee not worthy so much as to gather vp the crumbs vnder thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whole property is alway to haue mercy: grant vs therefore gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ, and to drinke his blood, that our sinfull bodies may be made cleane by his body, and our soules washed through his most precious blood, and that we may euermore dwell in him, and he in vs. Amen.

Then the Minister standing vp shall say as followeth.

Almighty God our heavenly Father, which of thy tender mercy didst giue thine only Son Iesus Christ, to suffer death vpon the crosse for our redemption who made thee (by his one oblation of himselfe once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the finnes of the whole world, and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command vs to continue a perpetuall memory of that his precious death, vntill his coming againe, Heare vs, O mercifull Father, we beseech thee, and grant that we receiuing these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Sonne our Sauour Iesus Christs holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed body & blood, who in the same night that he was betrayed tooke bread, and when hee had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat this is my body which is giuen for you, doe this in remembrance of me. Likewise after Supper hee tooke the cup, and when hee had giuen thanks, he gaue it to them, saying, Drinke yeal of this, for this is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for remission of finnes: doe this as oft as yee shall drinke it, in remembrance of me.

¶ Then shall the Minister first receive the Communion in both kinds himselfe, and next deliuer it to the other Ministers (if any be there present) that they may helpe the chiefe Minister, and after to the people in their hands, kneeling. And when he deliuereth the bread he shall say.

The body of our Lord Iesus Christ, which was giuen for thee, prelerue thy body and soule into euertlasting life: and take and eat this in remembrance that Christ dyed for thee, and feed on him in thine heart by faith with thanksgiuing.

¶ And the Minister that deliuereth the cup, shall say.

The blood of our Lord Iesus Christ, which was shed for thee, prelerue thy body and soule into euertlasting life: and drinke this in remembrance that Christs blood was shed for thee and be thankfull.

¶ Then shall the Minister say the Lords prayer, the people repeating after him euery petition. After shall bee said as followeth.

O Lord and heavenly Father, wee thy humble seruants sentirely desire thy Fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise & thanksgiuing most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Sonne Iesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtaine remission of our sins, and all other benefites of his passion. And where we offer and present vnto thee, O Lord, our selues, our soules, and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and liuely sacrifice vnto thee, humbly beseeching thee, that all wee which bee partakers of this holy Communion, may bee filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be vnworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer vnto thee any sacrifice: yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and seruice, not weighing our merites, but pardoning our offences, through Iesus Christ our Lord, by whom and with whom, in the vnticity of the holy Ghost, all honour and glory be vnto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Or this.

Almighty and euertlasting God, we most heartily thanke thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed vs, which haue duely receiued these holy Mysteries, with the spiritual foode of the most precious body and blood of thy Sonne our Sauour Iesus Christ, and dost assure vs thereby of thy fauour and goodnesse towards vs, & that we be very members in corporate in thy millicall body, which is the blessed company of all faithfull people, and bee also heires through hope of thy euertlasting kingdom, by the merites of the most precious death and passion of thy deare Sonne: wee now most humbly beseech thee, O heauenly Father, to assist vs with thy grace, & we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for vs to walke in, through Iesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end, Amen.

¶ Then shall be said or sung.

Glory bee to God on high, and in earth peace, good will toward men. We praise thee, we beseech thee, we worship thee, we glorifie thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory. O Lord God heauenly King, God the Father Almighty, O Lord the only begotten Sonne Iesus Christ, O Lord God, Lamb of God, Sonne of the Father, that takest away the sinnes of the world haue mercie vpon vs. Thou that takest away the sinnes of the world, haue mercie vpon vs. Thou that takest away the sinnes of the world, receive our prayers. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, haue mercy vpon vs: for thou only art holy thou only art the Lord, thou only O Christ, with the holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father, Amen.

¶ Then the Minister or the Bishop, if he be present, shall let them depart with this blessing.

The peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, keepe your hearts and minds in the knowledge and loue of God, and of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost be amongst you, and remaine with you alwayes, Amen.

Vpon the holy dayes (if there be no Communion) shall be said all that is appointed at the Communion, vntill the end of the Homily, concluding with the generall prayer (for the whole estate of Christs Church militant here in earth) and one or more of these Collects before rehearsed, as occasion shall serue.

And there shall be no celebration of the Lords Supper except there be a good number to communicate with the Minister according to his discretion.

And if there be not above twentie persons in the parish of discretion to receive the Communion, yet there shall be no Communion, except foure or more at the least communicate with the Minister.

And in Cathedrall or Collegiat Churches, where bee many Ministers and Deacons, they shall all receive the Communion with the Minister euery Sunday at the least, except they haue a reasonable cause to the contrary.

And to take away the superstition which any person hath or might haue in the Bread and Wine: it shall suffice that the Bread be such as is vsuall to be eaten at the Table with other meates, but the best and purest wheat Bread that conveniently may be gotten. And if any of the Bread or Wine remaine, the Curate shall haue it to his owne vse.

The Bread and Wine for the Communion, shall be provided by the Curate and Churchwardens, at the charges of the Parish, and the Parish shall be discharged of such summes of money or other duties, which hitherto they haue payed for the same by order of their houses euery Sunday.

And note that euery Parishioner shall communicate at the least three times in the yeere, of which Easter to bee one, and shall also receive the Sacrament, and other Rites, according to the order in this Booke appointed. And euery at Easter euery Parishioner shall reckon with his Payson, Vicar, or Curate, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, and pay to them, or to him all Ecclesiasticall duties, accustomedly due them and at that time to be payed.

¶ Collects to be said after the Offertory, when there is no Communion, euery such day one. And the same may bee said also as o't as occasion shall serue, after the Collects at the beginning of Morning and Evening prayer, Communion, or Lectury, by the discretion of the Minister.

Assist vs mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy seruants toward the attainment of euertlasting saluation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may euert bee defended by thy most gracious and ready helpe, through Christ our Lord, Amen.

O Almighty Lord and euertlasting God, vouchsafes we beseech thee, to direct, sanctifie, and gouerne, both our hearts and bodies in the wayes of thy lawes, and in the workes of thy commandements, that thou through thy most mighty protection, both here and euert, we may be preferred in body and soule, through our Lord and Sauour Iesus Christ, Amen.

Grant wee beseech thee Almighty God, that the words which wee haue heard this day with our outward eares, may through thy grace bee so grased inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in vs the fruit of good liuing, to the honour and praise of thy Name, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Preuent vs, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious fauour, and further vs with thy continuall helpe, that in all our workes begun, continued and ended in thee, wee may glorifie thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercie obtayne euertlasting life, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty God thy fountaine of all wisdom, which knowest our necessities before we aske, and our ignorance in asking, we beseech thee to haue compassion vpon our infirmities, and those things which for our vniworthinesse wee dare not, and for our blindness wee cannot aske, vouchsafe to giue vs for the worthinesse of thy son Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty God, which hast promised to heare the petitions of them that aske in thy Sonnes Name, we beseech thee mercifully to incline thine eares to vs, that haue made now our prayers & supplications vnto thee, and grant that those things which we haue faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the reliefe of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

The administration of Baptisme to be vsed in the Church.

LT appeareth by ancient writers that the Sacrament of Baptisme in the old time was not commonly ministered but at two times in the yeare. At Easter and Whitsuntide. At which times it was openly ministered in the presence of all the Congregation: Which custom now being grown out of use (although it cannot for many considerations bee well restored againe) it is thought good to follow the same, as were as conveniently may be. Wherefore the people are to be admonished, that it is most convenient that Baptisme should not bee ministered but upon Sundayes and other holy dayes, when the most number of people may come together: as well for that the Congregation there present may testify the receiving of them that be newly baptized into the number of Christs Church, as also because the Baptisme of Infants, every man present may be put in remembrance of his owne profession made to God in his Baptisme. For which cause also it is expedient that Baptisme be ministered in the English tongue. Nevertheless (if necessity so require) children may at all times bee baptized at home.

When there are children to be baptized upon the Sunday or holy day, the Parents shall give knowledge over night, or in the morning afore the beginning of Morning prayer, to the Curate. And then the Godfathers, Godmothers and people with the childrer, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the last Lesson at Morning prayer, or else immediately after the last Lesson at Evening prayer, as the Curate by his discretion shall approve. And then standing there, the Minister shall aske wth either the children be baptized, or no. If they answer, No: then shall the Minister say thus,

Dearely beloved, forasmuch as all men be conceived and borne in sinne, and that our Sauour Christ saith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and borne anew of water and of the holy Ghost: I beseech you to call vpon God therfor, through our Lord Iesus Christ, that of his bounteous mercy hee will grant to these children that thing which by nature they cannot haue, that they may be baptized with water and the holy Ghost, and receiued into Christs holy Church, and be made lively members of the same.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

¶ Let vs pray,

Almighty and euermlasting God, which of thy great mercy diddest saue Noe and his family in the Arke from perishing by water, and also didst safely lead the children of Israel thy people through the red sea, figuring thereby thy holy baptisme, and by the baptisme of thy welbeloued Sonne Iesus Christ, didst sanctifie the flood Iordan, and all other waters, to the mytticall washing away of sinne: Wee beseech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully looke vpon these children, sanctifie them, and wth them with the holy Ghost, that they being delivered from thy wrath, may be receiued into the Ark of Christs Church, and being stedfast in faith, ioyfull through hope, and rooted in charitie, may so passe the waues of this troublesome world, that finally they may come to the land of euermlasting life, there to reigne with thee world without end, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty and immortall God, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succor, the life of them that beleue, & the resurrection of the dead: wee call vpon thee for these Infants, that they comming to thy holy Baptisme, may receiue remission of their sinne: by spirituall regeneration. Receiue them: O Lord as thou hast promised by thy welbeloued Sonne, saying, Aske, and you shall haue, seeke, and you shall find, knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you. So giue vnto vs that aske: let vs that seeke, since: open the gate vnto vs that knocke, that these Infants may inioy the euermlasting benediction of thy heauenly washing, and may come to the euermlasting kingdom, which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

¶ Here the words of the Gospel written by S. Marke in the tenth Chapter.

AT a certaine time they brought children to Christ that he should touch them. And his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Iesus saw it, he was displeased, and said vnto them, Suffer little children to come vnto me, and forbid them not, for to such belongeth the kingdom of God. Verily I say vnto you, whosoever doeth not receiue the kingdom of God as a little Child, he shall not enter therein. And when he had taken them vp in his armes he put his hands vpon them and blessed them.

Mar. 10. 13.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brieue exhortation vpon the words of the Gospel

Friends, you heare in this Gospel the words of our Sauour Christ, that hee commanded the children to bee brought vnto him, who hee blamed those that would haue kept them from him, how hee exhorted all men to follow their innocency. You perceiue how by his outward gesture and deed, he declared his good will toward them: For he embraced them in his armes, he laid his hands vpon them, & blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly beleene that he will likewise fauourably receiue these present Infants, that he will embrace them with the armes of his mercy, that hee will giue vnto them the blessing of euermlasting life, & make them partakers of his euermlasting kingdom. Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heauenly Father toward these Infants, declared by his Sonne Iesus Christ, and nothing doubting but that hee lauborably alloweth this charitable worke of ours in bringing these children to his holy Baptisme: let vs faithfully and deuoutly giue thanks vnto him, and say.

Almighty and euerlasting God, heavenly Father, we giue thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call vs to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirme this faith in vs euer more: giue thy holy spirit to these infants, that they may be borne againe, and bee made heires of euerlasting saluation, through our Lord Iesus Christ, who liueth and reigneth with thee and the holy spirit, now and for euer, Amen.

Welbeloued friends, ye haue brought these children here to be baptized, ye haue prayed that our Lord Iesus Christ would vouchsafe to receiue them, to lay his hands vpon them, to blesse them, to release them of their finnes, to giue them the Kingdom of heauen, and euerlasting life. Ye haue heard also that our Lord Iesus Christ hath promised in his Gospel, to grant all these things that ye haue prayed for: which promise, he for his part will most surely keepe and performe. Wherefore after this promise made by Christ, these infants must also faithfully for their part promise by you that be their sureties, that they will forsake the deuill and all his workes, and constantly beleue Gods holy word, and obediently keepe his Commandements.

¶ Then shall the Minister demand of the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise.

Doest thou forsake the deuill all his workes, the vaine pompe, and glory of the world, with all couetous desires of the same, the carnall desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them?

Answer.

I forsake them all.

Minister.

Doest thou beleue in God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth? And in Iesus Christ his only begotten Son our Lord? And that he was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Mary, that he suffered vnder pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, that he went down into hell, and also did rise againe the third day, that he ascended into heauen and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence shall come againe at the end of the world to iudge the quicke & the dead? And doest thou beleue in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholike Church the Communion of Saints, the remission of sinnes, the resurrection of the flesh, and euerlasting life after death?

Answer.

All this I stedfastly beleue.

Minister.

Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?

Answer.

That is my desire.

¶ Then shall the Minister say.

O Mercifull God, grant that the old Adam in these children may be so buried, that the new man may be raised vp in them. Amen.

Grant that all carnall affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the spirit, may liue and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may haue power and strength to haue victory and to triumph against the deuill, the world and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whatsoever is here dedicated to thee by our office & ministry, may also be indued with heavenly vertues, and euerlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who doest liue, and governe all things world without end. Amen.

Almighty euerlasting God, whose most dearly beloued Son Iesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our finnes, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood, & giue commandement to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father, the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost, regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation, and grant that all thy seruants which shall be baptized in this water, may receiue the fullness of thy grace, and euer remaine in the number of thy faithful & elect children, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

¶ Then shall the Minister take the child in his hands, and aske the name: and naming the child, shall dip it in the water, so as be discreetly and warily done, saying,

NI baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ And if the child be weak, it shall suffice to poure water vpon it, saying the words.

NI baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall make a crosse vpon the childes forehead, saying,

We receiue this child into the Congregation of Christs flocke, and doe signe him with the signe of the crosse, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confesse the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight vnder his banner against sinne, the world & the deuill, and to continue Christs faithful souldier, and seruant vnto his liues end. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say.

Seeing now, dearly beloued brethren, that these children be regenerate, and grafted into the body of Christ Congregation, let vs giue thanks vnto God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers vnto Almighty God, that the way lead the rest of their life according to this beginning.

¶ Then shall be said,

Our Father which art in heauen, &c.

¶ Then shall the Minister say.

We yelde thee hearty thanks, most mercifull Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this infant with thy holy spirit, to receiue him for thine owne child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Congregation: And humbly wee beseech thee to graunt, that he being dead vnto sinne, and liuing vnto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucifie the old man and vicerly with all the whole body of sinne, that as hee is made partaker of the death of thy Sonne, so hee may be partaker of his resurrection: so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Congregation, he may be inheritor of thine euerlasting kingdome, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Forasmuch as these children haue promised by you to forsake the deuill & all his workes, to beleue in God, & to serue him: you must remember yt is your parts and duties to see that these infants be taught, so soone as they shall be able to learne what a solemne vow, promise, and profession they haue made by you. And that they may know these things the better, yee shall call vpon them to heare sermons, and chiefly you shall prouide that they may learne the Creed, the Lords prayer, & al other things which a Christiā man ought to know & beleue to his soules health, & that these children may be veriuously brought vp to leade

a godly & a Christiā life, remembering alwayes that Baptisme doth respect vnto vs our profession, which is to follow the example of our saviour Christ, and to be made like vnto him, that as he died & rose againe for vs, so should we which are baptized, die from sin, and rise againe vnto righteousness, continually mortifying all our euill and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godlinesse of living.

The Minister shall command that the children be brought to the Bishop, to be confirmed of him, soe one as they can say with in vngor or tongue, the Articles of the Faith, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandements, and be further instructed in the Catechisme set forth for that purpose, according as it is there expressed.

¶ Of them that are to be baptized in priuate houses in time of necessitie, by the Minister of the Parish, or any other lawfull Minister that can be procured.

His Pastors and Curates shall often admonish the people, that they desire not the Baptisme of infants any longer then the Sunday or other holy day next after the child be borne, vntill vpon a great and reasonable cause decayed to the Curate, and by him approued.

And also they shall warne them, that without great cause and necessitie, they procure not their children to be baptized at home in their houses. And when great need it all cometh them so to doe, then Baptisme shall be administered on this fashion.

First let the lawfull Minister and them that be present call vpon God for his grace, and say the Lords prayer, if the time will suffer. And let the child being named by some one that is present, the said lawfull Minister shall dip it in water, or pour water vpon it, saying these words,

NI baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And let them not doubt, but that the child so baptized, is lawfully and sufficiently baptized, and ought not to be baptized againe. But yet remember this, if the child which is after this sort baptized, doe after a while, it is expedient that it be brought into the Church, to the intent, that if the Priest or Minister of the same Parish did himselfe baptize that child, the Congregation may be certifie of the true forme of Baptisme which priuately before vsed. Or if the child were baptized by any other lawfull Minister, that then the Minister of the Parish, where the child was borne or christened, shall examine and trie, whether the child be lawfully baptized or no. In which case if those that bring any child to the Church, doe asseure that the same child is already baptized, then shall the Minister examine them further, saying,

By whom was the child baptized?
who was present when the child was baptized?

And because some things, essentiall to this Sacrament, may happen to be omitted through fear or haste in such times of extremitie: therefore I demand further of you,

With what matter was the child baptized?
With what words was he child baptized?
Whether thinke you the child to be lawfully and perfectly baptized?

And if the Minister shall slide by the answers of such as bring the child, that all things were done as they ought to be: then shall he not christen the child againe, but shall receive him as one of the flocke of the true Christian people, saying thus.

ICertifie you, that in this case all is well done. and according vnto due order, concerning the baptizing of this child, which being borne in original sin, and in the wrath of God, is now by the lauer of regeneration in baptisme receiued into the number of the children of God, and heires of euerlasting life. For our Lord Iesus Christ doeth not denie his grace and mercie vnto such infants, but most lovingly doth call them vnto him, as the holy Gospel doth witness to our comfort on this wise.

AT a certaine time they brought children to Christ that he should touch them. And his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Iesus saw it, hee was displeased, and said vnto them, Suffer little children to come vnto me, and forbid them not, for to such belongeth the Kingdome of God. Verily I say vnto you, whosoever eth not receiue the Kingdome of God as a little child, hee shall not enter therein. And when hee had taken them vp in his armes, he put his hands vpon them, and blessed them.

Mat. 10. 13.

After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this exhortation vpon the words of the Gospel.

FRIENDS, you heare in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought vnto him, how he blamed those that would haue kept them from him, how he exhorted al men to follow their innocencie. Ye perceiue how by his outward gesture & deed he declared his good wil toward them, For he embraced them in his armes, he laid his hands vpon them, & blessed the. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly beleue that he hath likewise fauorably receiued this preter infant, that he hath embraced him with the armes of his mercy, that hee hath giuen vnto him the blessing of eternall life, and made him partaker of his euerlasting kingdome. Wherefore we being thus persuaded of the good will of our heavenly Father, declared by his Sonne Iesus Christ vnto this infant, let vs faithfully and devoutly giue thanks vnto him, and say the prayer which the Lord himselfe himself taught, and in declaration of thy faith, let vs recte the Articles contained in our Crede.

¶ Here the Minister with the Godfathers and Godmothers, shall say.

¶ Our Father which art in heaven, &c.

¶ Then shall the Priest demand the name of the child, which being by the Godfathers and Godmothers pronounced, the Minister shall say.

Doest thou in the name of this child, forsake the deuill and all his workes, the vaine pompe, and glory of the world, with all the couetous desires of the same, the carnall desires of the flesh, and not to follow and be led by them?

Answer.

I forsake them all?

Minister.

Doest thou in the name of this child profess this faith to beleue in God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth? And in Iesus Christ his only begotten Sonne our Lord? And that he was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the virgine Mary, that he suffered vnder Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried: that he went down into hell, and also did rise againe the third day, that he ascended into heauen, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence he shall come againe at the end of the world to iudge the quicke & the dead? And doe you in his name beleue in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholique Church, the Communion of Saints, the remission of sinnes, resurrection, and euerlasting life after death?

Answer.

All this I stedfastly beleue.

Let vs pray.

Almighty and euerlasting God, heauenly Father, wee giue thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call vs to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge and confirme this faith in vs euermore: giue thy holy spirit to this infant, that he being borne againe, and being made heire of euerlasting saluation, through our Lord Iesus Christ, may continue thy seruant, and attaine thy promise, through the same our Lord Iesus Christ thy Sonne, who liueth and reigneth with thee in the vnitie of the same, holy spirit euerlastingly. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister make this exhortation to the Godfathers and Godmothers.

¶ Orasmuch as this child hath promised by you to forsake the deuill and all his workes, to beleue in God, and to serue him: you must remember that it is your part and due tie to see that this infant be taught, so soone as hee shall be able to learne, what a solemne vow, promise, & profession he hath made by you. And that he may know the things the better, ye shall call vpon him to heare sermons, & chiefly ye shall provide that he may learne the Crede, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandements in the English tongue, and al other things which a Christian man ought to know and beleue to his soules health, and that this child may be vertuously brought vp, to leade a godly and a Christian life, remembering alway that Baptisme doth represent vnto vs our proxiion, which is to follow the example of our Sautour Christ, and be made like vnto him, that as he dyed and rose againe for vs, so should we which are baptized, die to our sinnes, and rise againe vnto righte conscience, continually mortifying all our euill and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godlinesse of living.

And so forth as in Publique B. ptisme,

¶ But if they which bring the infants to the Church, doe make such vncertaine answers to the Priests questions, as that it cannot appeare that the child was baptized with water, In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost, (which are essentiall parts of Baptisme) then let the Priest baptize it in forme aboue written, concerning publike Baptisme, (saying that at the dipping of the child in the Font, he shall vse this forme of wordes.

If thou bee not already baptized, N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

The order of Confirmation, or laying on of hands vpon children baptized, and able to render an account of their faith according to the Catechisme following.

To the ende that Confirmation may be ministered to the more edifying of such as shall receive it, (according to Saint Pauls doctrine, who teacheth that all things should be done in the Church, to the edification of the same) it is thought good that none hereafter shall bee confirmed, but such as can say in their mother tongue the Articles of the faith, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandements, and can also answer to such questions of this short Catechisme, as the Bishop (or such as hee shall appoint) shall by his discretion appoynt him. And this order is most convenient to be observed for diuers considerations.

First, because that when children come to the yeeres of discretion, and haue learned what their Godfathers and Godmothers promised for them in Baptisme, they may then themselves with their owne mouth, and with their owne consent, openly before the Church, ratifie and confirme the same, and also promise that by the grace of God, they will euermore endeavour themselves faithfully to observe and keepe such things, as they by their owne mouth and confession haue assented vnto.

Secondly, forasmuch as confirmation is ministered vnto them that be baptized, that by imposition of hands and prayer they may receive strength and defence against all temptations to Sinne, and the assaults of the world and the deuill, it is most meete to be ministered when children come to that age, that partly by the frailtie of their owne flesh, partly by the assaults of the world and the deuill, they begin to be in danger to fall into sundry kindes of Sinne.

Thirdly, for that it is agreeable with the vsage of the Church in times past, whereby it was ordained that Confirmation should be ministered to them that were of perfect age, that they being instructed in Christs religion, should openly profess their owne faith, and promise to be obedient vnto the will of God.

And

And that no man shall thinke that any detrimēt shall come to the childrē by deferring of their Confirmation, hee shall know for truthe, that it is certaine by Gods word, that children being baptiz'd, haue all things necessary for their saluation, and be undoubtedly sau'd,

A Catechisme, that is to say, An instruction to bee learned of euery childe, before he be brought to be confirmed by the Bishop.

They did promise & vow three things in my name, First, that I should forsake the euill & all his works, the pompe, and vanitie of the wicked world, and all the sinfull lusts of the flesh. Secondly that I should beleue all the Articles of the Christian faith. And thirdly, that I should keepe Gods holy wil and commandments, and walke in the same all the dayes of my life.

Question.

Amen.

Question.
You saide that your Godfathers and Godmothers did promise for you, that you should keepe Gods commandments, Tell me how many there be.

Tenne.

Answer.

Question.
Which be they?

Answer.

The same which God saie in the xx. Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

i. Thou shalt haue none other Gods but me.

ii. Thou shalt not make to thy selfe any graven image, nor the likenes of any thing that is in heauen above, nor in the earth beneath, nor in the water vnder the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: For I the Lord thy God am a ielous God, and visit the sinnes of the fathers vpon the children, vnto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shewe mercy vnto thousandes in them, that loue me, and keepe my commandements.

iii. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord will not hold him guiltles that taketh his Name in vaine.

iiii. Remember that thou keepe holy the Sabbath day. Sixe dayes shalt thou labour and doe all that thou hast to doe: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt doe no manner of worke, thou and thy son, and thy daughter, thy manservant and thy maidservant, thy catle, and the stranger that is within thy gates: for in sixe dayes the Lord made heauen and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day, wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

v. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

vi. Thou shalt doe no murder.

vii. Thou shalt not commit adulterie.

viii. Thou shalt not steale.

ix. Thou shalt not beare false witnesse against thy neighbour.

x. Thou shalt not couet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not couet thy neighbours wife, nor his servant, nor his maide, nor his ox, nor his asse, nor anything that is his.

Question.

What doeſt thou chiefly learne by these commandments?

Answer.

I learne two things: My duty towards God, and my duty towards my neighbour.

Question.

What is thy dutie towards God?

Answer.

My dutie towards God, is to beleue in him, to feare him, & to loue him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soule, and with all my strength. To worship him, to giue him thanks, to put my whole trust in him, to cal upon him, to honor his holy Name and his word, & to serue him truly all the dayes of my life.

Question.

Question.

What is thy duty toward thy neighbour?

Answer.

My duty towards my neighbour is to love him as my selfe, and to doe all men as I would they should doe vnto me. To loue, honour, & succour my father and mother. To honour and obey the King and his Ministers. To submit my selfe to all my gouernours, teachers, spiritual pastors, and masters. To order my selfe lowly and reuerently, to all my betters. To hurt no body by word or deede. To be true and iust in all my dealing. To beare no malice nor hatred in my heart. To keep my hands from picking and stealing, and my tongue from euill speaking, lying, and slandering. To keepe my body in temperance, sobriety, and chastity. Not to couet nor desire other mens goods, but to learne and labour truly to get mine owne liuing and to doe my duty in that state of life, vnto the which it shall please God to call me.

Question.

My good child, know this, that thou art not able to doe these things of thy selfe, nor to walke in the commandments of God, and to serue him, without his speciall grace, which thou must learne at all times to call for by diligent prayer. Let me heare therefore if thou canst say the Lords prayer.

Answer.

O Vr Father which art in heauen. Hal'owed be thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our daily bread. And forgie vs our trespases, as wee forgie them that trespasse against vs. And leade vs not into temptation. But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Question.

What desirest thou of God in this prayer?

Answer.

I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the giuer of all goodnesse, to send his grace vnto me, and vnto all people, that we may worship him, serue him, & obey him as we ought to doe. And I pray vnto God, that hee will send vs all things that be needfull both for our soules and bodies. And that hee will be mercifull vnto vs, and forgie vs our finnes, and that it will please him to saue and defend vs in all dangers, ghostly and bodily, and that hee will keepe vs from all sinne and wickednesse, and from our ghostly enemy, and from euerlasting death. And this I trust he will doe of his mercy and goodnesse, through our Lord Iesus Christ. And therefore I say Amen, So be it.

Answer.

Repentance, whereby they forsake sinne: and Faith, whereby they stedfastly beleue the promises of God, made to them in that Sacrament.

Bread and Wine which the Lord hath commanded to be receiued.

The strengthening and refreshing of our soules by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are by the Bread and Wine.

Answer.

To examine themselves whether they repent them truly of their former finnes, stedfastly purposing to leade a new life: haue a lively faith in Gods mercie through Christ, with a thankfull remembrance of his death, and be in charitie with all men.

¶ So soone as the children can say in their mother tongue the Articles of the faith, the Lords prayer, and the nine Commandments, and also can answer to such questions of this short Catechisme, as the Bishop (or such as he shall appoint) shall by his discretion oppose them in: then shall they be brought to the Bishop by one that shall be his Godfather or Godmother, that every childe may haue a witness of his confirmation. And the Bishop shall confirme them on this wise.

¶ Confirmation.

Answer.

Minister.
 Lord heare our prayers.

Answer.
 And let our crye come vnto thee.

Let vs pray.

Almightie and euerliuing God, who hast vouchsafed to regenerate these thy seruants by water and the holy Ghost, and hast giuen vnto them forgiveness of all their finnes: strengthen them we beseech thee, O Lord, with the holy Ghost the Comforter, and dayly increafe in them thy manifold gifts of grace, the spirit of wisdom and vnderstanding, the spirit of counsaile and Ghostly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godinesse, and fulfill them (O Lord) with the spirit of thy holy feare, Amen.

¶ Then the Bishop shall lay his hand vpon every childe severally, saying,

Defend, O Lord, this childe with thy heauenly grace, that he may continue thine for euer, and dayly increafe in thy holy Spirit more and more, vntill he come vnto thy euerlasting kingdome, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Bishop say,

Let vs pray.

Almightie and euerliuing God, which makest vs both to will, and to doe those things that be good and acceptable vnto thy Maiestie, we make our humble supplications vnto thee for these children, vpon whom (after the example of the holy Apostles) we haue laid our hands, to certifye them (by this Signe) of thy fauour and gracious goodnesse toward them: let thy Fatherly hand, we beseech thee, euer be ouer them: let thy holy Spirit be euer with them, and so leade them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that in the end they may obtaine the euerlasting life, through our Lord Iesus Christ, who with thee and the holy Ghost liueth and reigneth one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then the Bishop shall besse the children, saying thus,

THe blessing of God almightie, the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, be vpon you, and remaine with you for euer. Amen.

The Curate of every Parish, or some other at his appointment shall diligently vpon Sundayes and Holydayes, halfe an houre before Evening prayer, openly in the Church, visit and examine so many children of his Parish sent vnto him, as the time will serue, and as hee shall thinke conuenient, in some part of this Catechisme.

And all Fathers, Mothers, Masters, and Dames, shall cause their children, seruants and prentises (which haue not learned their Catechisme) to come to the Church at the time appointed, and obediently to heare and be ordered by the Curate, vntill such times as they haue learned all that is here appointed for them to learne. And whensoever the Bishop shall giue knowledge for children to be brought before him to any conuenient place for their confirmation, then shall the Curate of every Parish, either bring or send in writing the names of all those children of his Parish, which can say the Article of the Faith, the Lords prayer, and the ten commandments, and also how many of them can answer to the other questions contained in this Catechisme.

And there shall none be admitted to the holy Communion, vntill such time as he can say the Catechisme, and be confirmed.

The forme of solemnization of Matrimonic.

First, the Banes must be asked three severall Sundayes, or Holy dayes, in the time of Service, the people being present, after the accustomed manner.

And if the persons that would be married dwell in diuers Parishes, the Banes must be asked in both Parishes: and the Curate of the one Parish shall not solemnize Matrimonic betwixt them, without a Certificate of the Banes being three asked from the Curate of the other Parish.

At the day appointed for solemnization of Matrimonic, the persons to be married, shall come into the body of the Church, with their friends and neighbours, and there the Priest shall say thus,

Dearely beloved children. we are gathered together heere in the sight of God, and in the face of his congregation, to ioine together this man and this woman in holy Matrimonic, which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in Paradise, in the time of mans innocence, signifying vnto vs the myssicall vnion that is betwixt Christ and his Church: which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of S. Paule to be honourable among all men, and therefore is not to be enterprised nor taken in hand vnadvisedly, lightly, or wantonly, to satisfie mens carnall lusts and appetites, like brute beasts that haue no vnderstanding, but reuerently, discretely, advisedly, soberly, and in the feare of God, duly considering the causes for which Matrimony was ordeined. One was, the procreation of children, to be brought vp in the feare and nurture of the Lord, and praise of God. Secondly, it was ordeined for a remedie against sinne, and to avoid fornication, that such persons as haue not the gift of continencie might marrie, and keepe themselves vn-defiled members of Christs body. Thirdly, for the mutual socie'tie, helpe and comfort that the one ought to haue of the other, both in prosperitie and aduersitie: into the which holy estate these two persons present come now to be ioyned. Therefore if any man can shewe any iust cause why they may not lawfully be ioyned together, let him now speake, or els hereafter for euer hold his peace.

¶ And

¶ And also speaking to the persons that shall be married, he shall say.

I Require & charge you, (as you will answer at the dread full day of iudgment, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed) that if either of you doe know any impediment why yemay not be lawfully ioyned together in Matrimony that yee confesse it. For be ye well assured, that so many as be coupled together otherwise then Gods word doth allow, are not ioyned together by God, neither is their Matrimony lawfull.

¶ At which day of marriage, if any man doe allege and declare any impediment, why they may not be coupled together in Matrimony by Gods Law, or the Lawes of this Realme, and will be bound, and iustifie themselves with him to the parties, or else put in a caution to the full value of such charges as the persons to be married doe susteine, to prove his allegation, then the solemnization must be deferred vnto such time as the truth be tried. If no impediment be alleged, then shall the Curate say vnto the man.

N Will thou haue this woman to thy wedded wife, to liue together alter Gods ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Will thou loue her, comfort her, honour, and keepe her in sickness and in health, and forsaking all other, keepe thee onely to her, so long as you both shall liue?

The man shall answer:

I will.

Then shall the Minister say to the woman.

N Will thou haue this man to thy wedded husband, to liue together alter Gods ordinance, in the holy estate of Matrimony? Will thou obey him, and serue him, loue honour, and keepe him in sickness and in health, and forsaking all other, keepe thee onely vnto him, so long as you both shall liue?

The woman shall answer.

I will.

Then shall the Minister say.

Who giueth this woman to be married to this man?

¶ And the Minister receiving the woman at her fathers or friends hands, shall cause the man to take the woman by the right hand, and say vnto her thus: I plight thee my troth.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to haue and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to loue, and to cherish, till death vs depart, according to Gods holy ordinance: and theeto I plight thee my troth.

¶ Then shall they loose their hands, and the woman, taking againe the man by the right hand, shall say,

I N. take thee N. to my wedded husband, to haue and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to loue, cherish, and to obey, till death vs depart, according to Gods holy ordinance: and thereto I giue thee my troth.

¶ Then shall they againe loose thir handes, and the man shall giue vnto the woman a Ring, laying the same vpon the bookes, with the accustomed deuote to the Minister and Clerke. And the Minister taking the Ring, shall deliver it vnto the man to put it vpon the fourth finger of the womans left hand. And the man taught by the Minister shall say,

With this Ring I thee wedde, with my body I thee worship, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow: In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then the man leauing the Ring vpon the fourth finger of the womans left hand, the Minister shall say,

¶ Let vs pray.

O Eternal God. creator and preseruer of all mankind, giuer of all spirituall grace, the autour of euermlasting life, send thy blessing vpon these thy seruants, this man and this woman, whom we blesse in thy Name, that as Isaac and Rebecca liued faithfully together, so these persons may surely perseuer and keepe the vowe and covenant betwene them made (whereof this Ring giuen and receiued is a token and pledge) and may euer remaine in perfect loue & peace together, and liue according vnto thy Lawes, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Those whom God hath ioyned together, let no man put asunder.

¶ Then shall the Minister speake vnto the people, Forasmuch as N. and N. haue consented together in holy wedlocke, and haue witnesed the same before God and this company, and therefore haue giuen, and pledged their troth either to other, and haue declared the same by giuing and receiuing of a Ring, and by ioining of hands, I pronounce that they be man and wife together. In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ And the Minister shall adde this blessing. God the Father, God the Sonne, God the holy Ghost, blesse preferue, and keepe ycu, the Lord mercifully with his fauour looke vpon you, and so fill you with all spirituall benediction and grace, that you may so liue together in this life, that in the world to come yemay haue life euermlasting. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister or Clerke going to the Lords Table, shall say or sing the Psalmes following.

Beati omnes. Psal. 128.

Blessed are all they that feare the Lord: and walke in his wayes.

For thou shalt eate the labour of thy hands: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

Thy wife shall bee as the fruitfull Vine: vpon the wallies of thine house.

Thy children like the Oliue branches: round about thy table.

Loe, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

The Lord from out of Sion shall so blesse thee: that thou shalt see Hierusalem in prosperitie all thy life long.

Yea, that thou shalt see thy childrens children: and peace vpon Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Or this Psalm

God be merciful vnto vs, and blesse vs: and shew vs the light of his countenance, and be merciful vnto vs.

That thy way may bee knownen vpon earth: thy sauing health among all nations.

Let the people prayse thee, O God: yea, let all the people prayse thee.

O let the nations reioyce & be glad: for thou shalt iudge the folke righteously, and gouerne the nations vpon the earth.

Let the people prayse thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, euen our owne God shall giue vs his blessing.

God shall blesse vs: and all the ends of the world shall feare him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and euer shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ The Minister.

O Lord heare our prayer,
Answer.

And let our cry come vnto thee.
Minister.

O God of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, bleesse these thy seruants, and for the seed of eternall life in their mindes, that whatsoever in thy holy word they shall profitably learne, they may indeed fulfill the same. Looke, O Lord, mercifully vpon them from heauen and bleesse them. And as thou didst send thy blessing vpon Abraham, and Sara to thy great comfort: so ouerchale to send thy blessing vpon these thy seruants, that they obeying thy will, and alwayes being in safetie vnder thy protection, may abide in thy loue vnto their liues ende, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ This prayer next following shall be omitted, where the woman is past childbearing.

O Mercifull Lord, and heauenly Father, by whose gracious gift mankind is increased: we beseech thee alft with thy blessing these two persons, that they may both be fruitfull in procreation of children, and also liue together so long in godly loue & honesty, that they may see their childrens children, vnto the third and fourth generation, vnto thy praise and honour, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

O God, which by thy mighty power hast made all things of nought, which also (after other things set in order) diddest appoint that out of man (created after thine own image and similitude) woman should take her beginning and knitting them together, diddest teach, that it should neuer be lawfull to put asunder those, whom thou by Matrimony hast made one: O God, which hast consecrated the state of Matrimony to such an excellent myserie, that in it is signified and represented the spiritual marriage and vniue between Christ and his Church: looke mercifully vpon these thy seruants, that both this man may loue his wife, according to thy Word, as Christ did loue his spouse the Church, who gaue himselfe for it, to using an cherishing it, euen as his owne flesh; and also that this woman may be louing and amiable to her husband as Rachel, wife as Rebecca, faithfull and obedient as Sara, and in all quietnesse, forietie and peace, be a follower of holy and godly matrons, O Lord bleesse them both, and graunt them to perse-thy euerlasting kingdome, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Then shall the Minister say.

Almighty God, which at the beginning did create our iust parents Adam and Eue, and did sanctifie and ioine them together in marriage, powre vpon you the riches of his grace, sanctifie and bleesse you that ye may please him both in body and soule, and liue together in holy loue vnto your liues end, Amen.

¶ Then shall beginne the Communion. And after the Gospel shall be saide a Sermon, wherein ordinarily (so oft as there is any marriage) the office of man and wife shall be declared, according to holy Scripture. Or if there be no Sermon, the Minister shall reade this it as followeth.

All ye which be married, or which intend to take the holy state of Matrimonie vpon you, heare what holy Scripture doeth say as touching the dutie of husband toward their wiues, and wiues toward their husband.

S. Paul in his Epistle to the Ephesians the fifth Chapter, doth giue this commandment to all married men, Yee husband, loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the Church, & hath giuen himselfe for it, to sanctifie it purging it in the fountaine of water through the word, that he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Congregation, not hauing spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holy & blameles. So men are bound to loue their owne wiues as their owne bodies. Hee that loueth his owne wife, loueth himselfe: For neuer did any man hate his owne flesh, but nourisheth & cheriseth it, euen as the Lord doth the Congregation for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones, for this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall be ioyned vnto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This myserie is great, but I speake of Christ and of the Congregation. Neuerthelesse, let euery one of you so loue his owne wife, euen as himselfe.

Likewise the same S. Paul, writing to the Colossians, speaketh thus to all men that be married: Yee men loue your wiues, and be not bitter vnto them.

Heare also what S. Peter the Apostle of Christ, which was himselfe a married man, saith vnto all men that are married: Ye husband, dwell with your wiues according to knowledge, giuing honor vnto the wife as vnto the weaker vessel, and as he is together of the grace of life, so that your prayers be not hindered.

Hitherto ye haue heard the duty of the husband toward the wife. Now likewise yee wiues, heare and learne your duties toward your husbands: euen as it is plaied forth in holy Scripture.

S. Paul (in the forenamed Epistle to the Ephesians) teacheth you thus: Yee women submit your selues vnto your owne husband, as vnto the Lord. For the husband is the wifes head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and he is also the Saviour of the whole body.

Therfore as the Church or Congregation is subiect vnto Christ: so likewise let the wiues also bee in subiection vnto their owne husbands in all things. And againe he saith. Let the wife reuerence her husband. And (in his Epistle to the Colossians) S. Paul giueth you this short lesson. Yee wiues submit your selues vnto your owne husband, as it is convenient in the Lord.

S. Peter also doeth instruct you very goodly, thus saying: Let wiues be subiect to their owne husband, so that if any obey not the Word, they may be wonne without the Word, by the conuersion of the wiues, while they behold your chaste conuersation coupled with feare. Whole apparell let it not be outward, with broided haire, and trimming about with gold, either in putting on of gorgeous apparel: but let the hidde man which is in the heart, be without all corruption, so that the spirit be milde and quiet, which is a precious thing in the sight of God. For after this manner (in the old time) did the holy women which trusted in God, apparell themselves, being subiect to their owne husbandes, as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord, whose daughters ye are made, doing well, and not being dismayed with any feare.

The new married persons (the same day of their marriage) must receive the holy Communion.

¶ The order for the visitation of the sicke.

The Minister entering into the sicke persons house shall say:
Peace be in this house, and to all that dwell in it.

When he commeth into the sicke persons presence, he shall say kneeling downe.

Rememb'rt not Lord our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers. Spare vs good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with vs for euer,

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Christ haue mercie vpon vs.

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Our Father which art in heauen. &c.
And leade vs not into temptation.

Answer.

But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Minister.

O Lord saue thy seruant.

Answer.

Which putteth his trust in thee.

Minister.

Send him helpe from thy holy place.

Answer.

And euermore mightily defend him.

Answer.

Let the enemy haue none aduantage of him.

Answer.

Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.

Minister.

Be vnto him, O Lord, a strong towre.

Answer.

From the face of his enemy.

Minister.

O Lord heare our prayers.

Answer.

And let our cry come vnto thee.

Minister.

O Lord looke downe from heauen, behold, visite and relieue this thy seruant, Looke vpon him with the eyes of thy mercy. giue him comfort & sure confidence in thee, defend him from the danger of the enemy and keepe him in perpetuall peace and safetie, through thy Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear vs Almighty and most mercifull God and Sauour, extend thy accustomed goodnesse to this thy seruant which is grieved with sickness: visite him O Lord, as thou diddest visite Peters wives mother, and the Caprains seruant. So visite and restore vnto this sicke person his former health (if it bee thy will) or else giue him grace so to take thy visitation, that after this painefull life ended, he may dwell with thee in life euermlasting. Amen.

Then shall the Minister exhort the sicke person after this forme, or other like.

Dearely beloved, know this that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and ouer all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weakenesse and sickness. Wherefore, whatsoever your sickness is, know you certainly that it is Gods visitation. And for what cause soeuer this sickness is sent vnto you, whether it be to try your patience for the example of other, and that your faith may be found in the day of the Lord, laudable, glorious, and honorably, to the increase of glory and endless felicitie, or else it bee sent vnto you to correct and amend in you whatsoever doeth offend the eyes of your heavenly Father: know you certainly, that if you truly repent you of your sinnet, and beare your sickness patiently, trusting in Gods mercy, for his deare Sonne Iesus Christs sake, and tender vnto him humble thanks for his Fatherly visitation, submitting your selfe wholly to his will, it shall turne to your profit, and helpe you forward in the right way that leaeth vnto euermlasting life.

If the person visited be very sicke, then the Curate may end his exhortation in this place.

Take therefore in good worth the chastisement of the Lord. For whom the Lord loveth, hee chastiseth, yea, as Saint Paul saith, hee scourgeth euery sonne which hee receiveth. If yee endure chastisement, hee offereth himselfe vnto you, as vnto his own child: en. What sonne is he that the father chastiseth not? If yee be not vnder correction (whereof all true children are partakers) then are yee bastards and not children. Therefore, seeing that when our carnall fathers doe correct vs, we reuently obey them: that we not now much rather be obedient to our spirituall Father, and so liue? and they for a few dayes doe chastise vs, after their owne pleasure. But hee doeth chastise vs for our profit, to the intent he may make vs partakers of his holines. These words (good brother) are Gods words and written in holy Scripture for our comfort and instruction, that we should patiently and with thanksgiving, beare our heavenly Fathers corrections, whensoever by any manner of aduersitie it shall please his gracious goodnesse to visite vs. And ther should bee no greater comfort to Christian persons, then to be made like vnto Christ, by suffering patiently aduersities troubles, & sicknesses. For he himselfe went not vp to ioy, but first he suffered paine, hee reuered not into his glory, before hee was crucified: So truly our way to eternall ioy is to suffer here with Christ, & our doore to enter into eternall life is, gladly to die with Christ, that we may rise againe from death, and dwell with him in euermlasting life. Now therefore taking your sickness, which is thus profited for ye up, patiently, I exhort you in the Name of God, to remember the profession which you made vnto God in your baptism. And forasmuch as after this life there is account to be given vnto the righteous Iudge, of whom all must be iudged without respect of persons: I require you to examine your selfe, and your state, both toward God and man, that accusing and condemning your selfe for your own faults, ye may find mercy at your heavenly Fathers hand for Christs sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearful iudgement. Therefore I shall shortly rehearse the Articles of our Faith.

Faith, that you may know whether you doe beleue as a Christian man should, or no.

Here the Minister shall rehearse the Articles of the faith, saying thus,

Doeſt thou beleue in God the Father Almighty ? (And ſo fourth as it is in Baptisme)

Then ſhall the Miniſter examine whether he be in charitie with all the world, exhorting him to forgiue from the bottom of his heart all perſons that haue offended him, and if he haue offended other, to aſke them forgiuenes, & where he hath done iniury or wrong to any man, that he make amends to the riterneſſe of his power. And if he haue not aſore diſpoſed of his goods, let him then make him ſelfe and alſo declare his debts, what he oweth, and what is owing vnto him, for diſcharging of his conſcience, and quietnes of his Executors. But men muſt be oft admoniſhed, that they ſet an order for their temporall goods and lands, when they bee in health.

Theſe words before rehearſed, may be ſaid before the Miniſter begin his prayer, as he ſhall ſee cauſe.

The Miniſter may not forget, nor omit to moue the sicke perſon, & that moſt earneſtly to liberty toward the poore.

Here ſhall the ſicke perſon make a ſpeciall confeſſion, if he feele his conſcience troubled with any weighty matter. After which confeſſion, the Miniſter ſhall abſolve him after this ſort,

Our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, who hath left power to his Church to abſolve all ſinners which truly repent and beleue in him, of his great mercie forgiue thee thine offences, and by his authority committed to me, I abſolue thee from all thy finnes, in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, & of the holy Ghoſt. Amen.

And then the Miniſter ſhall ſay this Collekt following.

¶ Let vs pray.

O Moſt mercifull God, which according to the multitude of thy mercies, doeſt fo put away the ſins of thoſe which truly repent, that thou rememberſt them no more, open thine eye of mercy vpon this thy ſeruant, who moſt earneſtly deſireth pardon and forgiuenes. Renew in him (moſt louing Father) whatſoeuer hath been decayed by the fraude and malice of the deuil, or by his owne carnal will and fraileneſſe: preſerue and continue this ſicke member in the vniuity of the Church, conſider his couerition, accept his teares, aſſwage his paines, as ſhall be ſeen to thee moſt expedient for him. And forasmuch as hee putteth his full truſt only in thy mercy, impute not vnto him his former finnes, but take him vnto thy fauour, through the merits of thy moſt dearly beloued Son Ieſus Chriſt. Amen.

Then ſhall the Miniſter ſay this Pſalme.

In thee, O Lord, haue I put my truſt, let me neuer be put to confuſion: but rid me, and deliuer me in thy righteouſnes, encline thine eare vnto me, and fauour me.

Be thou my ſtrong hold, whereunto I may alway reſort: thou haſt promiſed to helpe me, for thou art my houſe of defence, and my caſtle.

Deliuer mee, O my God, out of the hand of ſſ vnrighteous and cruel man.

For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope euen from my youth.

Through thee haue I been holden vpon ever ſince I was borne: thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe, my praiſe ſhall alway be of thee.

I am become as it were a monſter vnto many: but my ſure truſt is in thee.

O let my mouth bee filled with thy praiſe: (that I may ſing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

Caſt me not away in the time of age: forſake mee not when my ſtrength faileth me.

For mine enemies ſpeake againſt mee, and they that lay wait for my ſoule, take their counſell together, ſaying: God hath forſaken him, perſecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliuer him.

Goe not farre from me, O God: my God haſte thee to helpe me.

Let them be confounded and periſh that are againſt my ſoule: let them bee couered with ſhame and diſhonour, that ſeek to doe me euill.

As for mee, I will patiently abide alway: and will praye thee more and more.

My mouth ſhall dayly ſpeake of thy righteouſnes and ſaluation: for I know no end, thereof.

I will goe forth in the ſtrength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteouſneſſe only.

Thou O God, haſt taught me, from my youth vp vntill now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.

Forſake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: vntill I haue ſhewed thy ſtrength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteouſnes, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou haſt done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

O what great troubles and aduerſities haſt thou ſhewed me: & yet diſt thou turne and reſreſh me: yea, and broughtſt me from the depth of the earth again.

Thou haſt brought me to great honour: and comforted me on euery ſide.

Therefore will I praye thee and thy faithfullneſſe (O God) playing vpon an inſtrument of muſicke: vnto thee will I ſing vpon the harpe, O thou holy One of Iſrael.

My lips will bee ſeaſine when I ſing vnto thee: and ſo will my ſoule whom thou haſt deliuered.

My tongue alſo ſhall talke of thy righteouſnes all the day long: for they are confounded and brought vnto ſhame that ſeek to doe me euill.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Adding thus,

O Sauour of the world, ſaue vs, which by thy Croſſe and precious blood haſt redeemed vs, helpe vs we beſeech thee, O God.

Then ſhall the Miniſter ſay,

The Almighty Lord, which is a moſt ſtrōg to wre to all them that put their truſt in him, to who all things in heauen, in earth, & vnder the earth do bow and obeye, be now and euermore thy defence, & make thee knowe and feele, that there is none other name vnder heauen giuen to man, in whom, and through whom thou mayeſt receiue health and ſaluation, but only the Name of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt. Amen.

¶ The Communion of the sicke.

Forasmuch as all mortall men be ſubiect to many ſudden perils, diſeaſes, and ſickeneſſes, and euer vn certaine what time they ſhall depart out of this liſe: therefore to the intent they may be alwayes in a readineſſe to die whenſoeuer it ſhall pleaſe Almighty God to call them, the Curates ſhall diligently from time to time, but ſpecially in the plague time exhort their pariſhioners to the oft receiuing (in the Church) of the holy Communion of the bodie and blood of our Sauour Chriſt: which if they doe, they ſhall haue no cauſe in their ſudden viſitation to be vnquiet for lacke of the ſame.

At the buriall of the dead.

But if the sicke person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house, then he must give knowledge ever night, or els early in the morning to the Curate: signifying also how many bee appointed to communicate with him. And having a convenient place in the sicke mans house, where the Curate may reverently minister, and a good number to receive the Communion with the sicke person, with all things necessary for the same, he shall ever minister the holy Communion.

The Collect.

Almightie everliving God, maker of mankinde, which doest correct thole whom thou doest love, & chastest every one whom thou doest receive: we beseech thee to have mercie vpon this thy servant, visited with thy hand, and to grant that he may take his sickness patiently, and recover his bodily health (if it be thy gracious will) and whensoever his soule shall depart from the body, it may be without spot presented unto thee, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

MY sonne, despise not the correction of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him, For whom the Lord loveth, him he correcteth: yea, and he scourgeth every sonne whom he receiveth.

The Gospel.

Verely, verely I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and beleueth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into damnation, but passeth from death to life.

At the time of the distribution of the holy Sacrament, the Priest shall first receive the Communion himselfe, and after minister unto them that be appointed to communicate with the sicke.

But if a man either by reason of extremitie of sickness, or for want of warning in due time to the Curate, or for lacke of company to receive with him, or by any other iust impediment, do not receive the Sacrament of Christs body and blood: then the Curate shall instruct him, that if hee doe truly repent him of his finnes, and stedfastly beleue that Iesus Christ hath suffered death upon the Crosse for him, and shed his blood for his redemption, earnestly remembrance the benefitis he hath thereby, and giving him hearty thanks therefore, he doth eat and drinke the body and blood of our Saviour Christ profitably to his soules health, although he doe not receive the Sacrament with his mouth.

When the sicke person is visited, and receiveth the holy Communion all at one time, then the Priest for more expedition, shall cut off the forme of the visitation at the Psalme (In thee O Lord, have I put my trust) and goe straight to the Communion.

In the time of Plague, Sweate, or such other like contagious times of sicknesses, or diseases, when none of the parish or neighbours can be gotten to communicate with the sicke in their houses, for feare of the infection, upon speciall request of the diseased, the Minister may alone communicate with him.

The order for the buriall of the dead.

The Minister meeting the corps at the Church stile, shall say, or els the Minister and Clerkes shall sing, and so goe either unto the Church, or towards the grave.

Ioh. 11. 25.
26.

Am the Resurrection and the life (saith the Lord) he that beleueth in mee, yea, though hee were dead, yet shall hee liue. And whosoever liueth and beleueth in me, shall not die for ever.

Iob 19. 25.
26, 27.

I know that my redeemer liueth, and that I shall rise out of the earth in the last day, and shall be covered againe with my skin; and shall see God in my flesh: yea, and I my selfe shall behold him, not with other but with these same eyes.

1. Tim. 6. 7.
Iob 1. 21.

Where brought nothing into this world, neither may we carry any thing out of this world. The Lord giueth, and the Lord taketh away, Euen as it pleaseth the Lord to commaundeth things to passe: Blessed be the Name of the Lord.

When they come to the grave, while the corps is made ready to be layd into the earth, the minister shall say, or the minister and the Clerkes shall sing.

Iob 14. 12.

Man that is borne of a woman, hath but a short time to liue, and is full of misery. He cometh vp and is cut downe like a flowre: he fleeth as it were a shadow, & neuer continueth in one stay. In the midst of life, we be in death: of whom may we seeke for succour but of thee, O Lord, which for our finnes iustly art displeased? Yet O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, Oholy & most mercifull Saviour, deliuer vs not into the bitter paines of eternal death. Thou knowest Lord thy secrets of our hearts, shut not vp thy mercifull eyes to our prayers: But spare vs Lord most holy, O God most myghty, Oholy and mercifull Saviour, thou most worthy Iudge eternall, suffer vs not at our last house for any paines of death to fall fro thee,

Then while the earth shall be cast vpon the body, by some standing by the Minister shall say.

Forthmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his great mercy, to take vnto himselfe the soule of our deare brother here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in sure and certaine hope of resurrection to eternal life, through our Lord Iesus Christ, who shall change our vile body that it may be like to his glorious body, according to the mighty working wherby he is able to subdue all things to himselfe.

Then shall be sung or said.

I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord: euen so saith the Spirit, that they rest from their labours.

Reu. 14. 13.

Then shall follow this Lesson taken out of the 15. Chapter to the Corinthians, the first Epistle.

Chrisť is risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that sleepe. For by a man came death, and by a man came the resurrection of the dead. For as by Adam all die, euen so by Christ shall all be made alive, but every man in his owne order. The first is Christ, then they that are Christs at his coming. Then cometh the end when he hath deliuered vp the Kingdome to God the Father, when hee hath put downe all rule, and all authority, and power. For he must reigne till he hath put all his enemies vnder his feete. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. For hee hath put all things vnder his feete, But wher he saith, All things are put vnder him, it is manifest that hee is excepted which hath put all things vnder him. When all things are subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him

1. Cor. 15. 20

him that put all things vnder him, that God may bee all in all. Els what do they which are baptized our the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized our them? yea, and why stand we alway then in iopardy? By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die dayly. That I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what advantage it meit the dead rise not againe? Let vs eate and drinke, for to morrow we shall die. Be not deceiued, euill words corrupt good manieres awake truly out of slepe, and sinne not. For some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame. But some man will say, How rise the dead? With what body shall they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest, is not quickened except it die. And what sowest thou? thou sowest not the bodie that shall be, but bare corne, as of wheate, or some other: but God giueth it a body at his pleasure, to euery seede his owne body. All flesh is not one manner of flesh: but there is one manner of flesh or men, another manner of flesh of beasts, another of fishes: another of birds. There are also celestiall bodies, and there are bodies terrestiall. But the glory of the celestiall is one, and the glory of the terrestiall is another. There is one manner of glory of the Sunne, another glory of the Moone, and another of the Starres. For one Starre differeth from another in glory: so is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it riseth againe in incorruption: it is sown in dishonour, it riseth againe in honour: it is sown in weaknesse, it riseth againe in power. It is sown a naturall body, it riseth againe a spirituall body. There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body: an it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule, and the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is naturall, and then that which is spirituall. The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord from heauen, heauenly. As is the earthy, such are they that bee earthy. And as is the heauenly such are they that are heauenly. And as we haue borne the image of the earthy, so shall we beare the image of the heauenly. This say I brethren that flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God neither doth corruption inherite incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery, we shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed, and that in a moment in the twinkling of an eye, by the last trump. For the trump shall blow and the dead shall rise incorruptible, and wee shall be changed: for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortalitie. When this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on im-mortalitie, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, Death is swallowed vp into victory: Death where is thy sting? heil where is thy victory? The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the Lawe: but thanks bee vnto God, which hath giuen vs victory through our Lord Iesus Christ. Therefore my deare bretheren, be ye stedfast and vnmoueable, alwayes rich in the worke of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know how that your labour is not in vaine in the Lord.

The Lesson ended, the Minister shall say.

Almighty God, with whom doe liue the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and in whom the soules of them that be elected, after they be deliuered from the burden of the flesh, bee in ioy and felicitie: Wee giue thee hearty thanks for that it hath pleased thee to deliuer this N. our brother, out of the miseries of this sinful world, beseeching thee that it may please thee of thy gracious goodnesse, shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdome, that we with this our brother, and all other departed in the true faith of thy holy Name, may haue our perfect consummation and blisse, both in body and soule, in thy eternall and euertlasting glory. Amen.

The Collect.

O Mercifull God, the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life, in whom whosoever beleueth shall liue, though he die, and whosoever liueth, and beleueth in him, shall not die eternally, who also taught vs (by his holy Apostle Paul) not to be sorry, as men without hope, for them that sleepe in him: wee meekely beleeue thee, O Father, to raise vs vp from the death of sinne vnto the life of righteousnesse, that when we shall depart this life we may rest in him, as our hope is this our brother doeth: and that at the generall resurrection in the last day wee may be found acceptable in thy sight, and receiue that blessing which thy welbeloued Sonne shall then pronounce to all that loue and feare thee saying, Come ye blessed children of my Father, receiue the kingdome prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech thee, O mercifull Father, through Iesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ The thankesgiuing of women after childbirth, commonly called the Churching of women.

¶ The woman shall come into the Church, and there shall kneele downe in some conuenient place, nigh vnto the place where the Table standeth, and the Priest standing by her shall say these words or such like, as the case shall require.

Orasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his goodnesse to giue you safe deliuerance, and hath preserved you in the great danger of childbirth, yee shall therefore giue hearty thanks vnto God, and pray.

Then shall the Priest say thus Psalm.

I haue lifted vp mine eyes vnto the hill: whence cometh my helpe.

My helpe cometh euen from the Lord: which hath made heauen and earth.

After Morning prayer, the people being called together by the ringing of a Bell, and assembled in the Church, the English Leetany shall be said after the accustomed manner: which ended the Minister shall goe into the pulpit, and say thus.

BRechren, in the Primitiue Church there was a godly discipline, that at the beginning of Lent such persons as were notorious finners, were put to open penance, & punished in this world, that their soules might be saued in the day of the Lord: & that other admonished by their example, might be the more afraid to offend.

In the stead whereof, vntill the said discipline may be restored again (which thing is much to be wished) it is thought good, that at this time in your presence should be read the general sentences of Gods cursing against impenitent finners, gathered out of the 27. Chapter of Deuteronomie, and other places of Scripture and that ye should answer to euery sentence, Answer: to the intent that you being admonished of the great indignation of God against finners, may the rather bee called to earnest and true repentance, and may walke more warily in these dangerous dayes, fleeing from such vices, for the which yee asseme with your owne mouthes the curse of God to be due.

Cursed is the man that maketh any carved or molten image, an abomination to the Lord, the worke of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place to worship it.

Now seeing that all they bee accursed (as the Prophet Dauid beareth witnesse) which doe erre and goe astray from the Commandements of God, let vs (remembering the dreadful iudgement hanging ouer our heads, and being alwayes at hand) returne vnto our Lord God, with all contrition and meeknesse of heart, bewailing and lamenting our sinful life, knowledgeing and confessing our offences, & seeking to bring forth worthy fruits

Then * shall appeare the wrath of God in the day of vengeance, which oblitare sinners, through the stubbornnesse of their heart haue heaped vnto themselves, which despised the goodnesse, patience and long sufferance of God, when hee called them continually to repentance.

Mat. 3. 12. * Then shall they call vpon mee (sayth the Lord) but I will not heare, they shall seeke mee early, but they shall not finde mee, and that because they hated knowledge, and receiued not the feare of the Lord, but abhorred my counsell, and despised my correction. Then shall it be too late to * knocke, when the doore shall be shut, and too late to crie for mercie: when it is the time of iustice O terrible voyce of most iust iudgement, which shall be pronounced vpon them, when it shall bee sayd vnto them, * Goe yee cursed into the fire everlasting, which is prepared for the deuil and his angels.

Pre. 1. 28, 29 * Therefore brethren, take wee heed betime, while the day of saluation lasteth, for the night commeth, when no man can worke: but let * vs while we haue the light, beleeue in the light, and walke as children of the light: that wee be not cast into the ytter darknesse, * where is weeping and gnashing of teeth. Esa. 1. 18, 30. * For he was wounded for our offences, and smitten for our wickednesse, Let vs therefore returne vnto him, who is the mercifull receiuer of all true penitent sinners, assuring our selues, that he is ready to receiue vs, and most willing to pardon vs, if wee come to him with faithfull repentance, if wee will submit our selues vnto him, and from henceforth, walke in his wayes, * if we will take his Thisif we doe, Christ will deliuer vs from the curse of the Law, and from the extreme malediction which shall light vpon them that shall be on the left hand, and hee will set vs on his right hand, and giue vs the blessed benediction of his Father, commanding vs to take possession of his glorious kingdome, vnto the which hee vouchsafe to bring vs all for his infinite mercy. HAue mercie vpon mee, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies doe away mine offences.

Wash mee thoroughly from my wickednesse: and cleanse me from my sinne.

For I knowledg my faults: and my sinne is euer befor mee.

Against thee onely haue I sinned, and done this euil in thy sight: that thou mightest bee iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceiued me.

But loe, thou requirist truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to vnderstand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge mee with hyssop, and I shall be cleane: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter then snow.

Thou shalt make me heare of ioy and gladnes: that the bones which thou hast broken, may reioyce.

Turne thy face from my sinnes: and put out all my misdeeds.

Make me a cleane heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

O giue mee the comfort of thy helpe againe: and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

Then shall I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted vnto thee.

Deliver me from blood guiltnesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

Thou shalt open my lips (O Lord): my mouth shall shew thy praise.

For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I giue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart (O God) wilt thou not despise.

O Lord we beseech thee mercifullly heare our prayers, and spare all those which confesse their sins vnto thee, that they (whose consciences by sinne are accused) by thy mercifull pardon may bee absolved, through Christ our Lord, Amen.

O Most mighty God and mercifull Father, which hast compassion on all men, and hatest nothing

The Psalmes of Dauid, of that Translati- on, which is commonly used in the Churches.

Morning
prayer.

Beatus vir qui non abiit. Psal. 1.

Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsell of the vngodly, nor stand in the way of sinners: and hath not sit in y seat of the scornfull.

2 But his delight is in the Law of the Lord: and in his Law will he exercise himselfe day and night,

3 And he shalbe like a tree planted by the water side; that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

4 His lease also shal not wither: and looke whatsoeuer he doeth, it shal prosper,

5 As for the vngodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaffe which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the vngodly shal not be able to stand in the Iudgement: neither the sinners in the Congregation of the righteous,

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the vngodly shal perish.

Quare fremuerunt. Psal. 2.

Why doe y heathen so furiously rage together: & why doe the people imagine a vaine thing?

2 The kings of the earth stand vp, and the rulers take counsell together against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3 Let vs breake their bonds asunder: and cast away their cords from vs.

4 He that dwelleth in heauen shal laugh them to scorn: the Lord shal haue them in derision.

5 Then shal hee speake vnto them in his wrath: and vexe them in his sore displeasure,

6 Yet haue I set my king: vpo my holy hil of Sion,

7 I will preach the Law, whereof the Lord hath said vnto me: Thou art my Sonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall giue thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the vttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruite them with a rod of yron: and breake them in peeces like a potters vessell.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be learned ye that are Iudges of the earth.

11 Serue the Lord in feare: and reioyce vnto him with reuerence.

12 Kisse the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way: if his wrath be kindled (yea but a little) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Domine quid. Psal. 3.

Lord how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soule: there is no helpe for him in his God,

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter vp of my head.

4 I did call vpon the Lord with my voyce: and he heare me out of his holy hill.

5 I lay me downe and slept, and rose vp againe: for the Lord sustained me.

6 I wil not be afraid for ten thousands of people: that haue set themselves against me round about.

7 Vp Lord, and helpe me, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enemy: vpon the cheeke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 Saluation belongeth vnto this Lord: and thy blessing is vpon the people.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. 4.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: for thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble, haue mercie vpon me, and hearken vnto my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaþeme mine honour: and haue such pleasure in vanity, and seeke after leasing?

3 Know this also that the Lord hath chofen to himselfe the man that is godly: when I call vpon the Lord, he will heare me.

4 Stand in awe and sinne not: commune with your owne heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness: and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that say: who will shew vs any good?

7 Lord lift thou vp: the light of thy countenance vpon vs.

8 Thou hast put gladnes in mine heart: since the time that their corne and wine and oyle increased.

9 I will lay me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou Lord only y makst me dwell in safety.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. 5.

Ponder my words, O Lord: consider my meditation.

2 O hearken thou vnto the voice of my calling, my King & my God: for vnto thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voyce shalt thou heare besides, O Lord: early in the morning will I direct my prayer vnto thee, and will looke vp.

4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickednesse: neither shal any euill dwell with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shal not stand in thy sight: for thou hast set all them that work vanity,

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speake leasing: the Lord will abhorre both the bloodthirsty and deceitfull man,

7 But as for mee, I will come into thy house, euen vpon the multitude of thy mercies: and in thy feare will I worship toward thy holy Temple.

8 Leade me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies: make thy way plaine before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in his mouth: their inward parts are very wickednesse.

10 Their throat is an open sepulchre, they flatter with their tongue.

11 Destroy thou them, O God, let them perish through their owne imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their vngodlinesse, for they haue rebelled against thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in thee, reioyce: they shall euer be giuing of thanks, because thou defendest them, they that loue thy Name shalbe ioyfull in thee,

13 For thou, Lord, wilt giue thy blessing vnto the righteous: and with thy fauourable kindnesse wilt thou defend him as with a shield.

Domine ne in fure. Psal. 6.

O Lord rebuke mee not in thine indignation: neither chasten me in thine displeasure.

2 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lord, for I am weake: O Lord heale me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soule is also sore troubled: but Lord how long wilt thou punish me?

Evening
prayer.

4 Turne thee, O Lord, and deliuer my soule: Oh saue me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who will giue thanks in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groning, euery night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my teares.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worne away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me all ye that worke vanity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receiue my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shal be confounded & sore vexed: they shal be turned back, & put to shame suddenly Domine Deus meus. Psal. 7.

O Lord my God, in thee haue I put my trust: saue me fro all them that persecute me & deliuer me.

2 Lett he deuoure my soule like a Lion, and teare it in pieces: while there is none to helpe.

3 O Lord my God, if I haue done any such thing or if there be any wickednes in my hands.

4 If I haue rewarded euill vnto him that dealt friendly with me; eay, I haue deliuered him that with-out any cause is mine enemy.

5 Then let mine enemy persecute my soule, & take me: yea, let him tread my life downe vpon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Stand vp, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift vp thy selfe: because of the indignation of mine enemies, arise vp for me in judgement that thou hast commanded.

7 And to shall the congregation of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore lift vp thy selfe againe.

8 The Lord shall iudge the people, giue sentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteounes, and according to the innocencie that is in me.

9 O Let the wickednesse of the vngodly come to an end: but guide thou the iust.

10 For the righteous God: trieth the very hearts and reins.

11 My helpe commeth of God: which preferueth them that are true of heart.

12 God is a righteous Iudge, strong and patient: and Ged is prouoked euery day.

13 If a man will not turne, he wil whet his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

14 Hee hath prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordeineth his arrows against the perfecters.

15 Behold, he trauaileth with mischiefe: he hath conceived sorrow, and brought forth vngodlines.

16 He hath grauen and digged vp a pit: and is fallen himselfe into the destruction y he made for other.

17 For his trauell shall come vpon his owne head: and his wickednes shall fall on his owne pate.

18 I wil giue thanks vnto the Lord, according to his righteounes: and will prayle the Name of the Lord the most High.

Domine Dominus. Psal. 8.

O Lord our gouernor, how excellent is thy Name in all the world: thou that hast set thy glory about the heauens!

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordeined strength, because of thine enemies, thou mightest still the enemy and the auenger.

3 For I will consider the heauens, euen the works of thy fingers: the Moone and the stars which thou hast ordained.

4 What is man that thou art myndful of him: and the sonne of man that thou visitest him?

5 Thou madest him lower then the Angels: to crowne him with glory and worship.

6 Thou madest him to haue dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete.

7 All sheep and oxen: yea, & the beasts of the field.

8 The fowles of the ayre, and the fishes of the Sea: & what soeuer walketh thorow the paths of the seas.

9 O Lord our gouernour: how excellent is thy Name in all the world!

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 9.

I Will giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, with my morning whole heart: I will speake of all thy marueils morning prayer.

2 I wil be glad & reioyce in thee: yea, my songs wil I make of thy Name, O thou most High.

3 While mine enemies are driuen backe: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou art set in the Throne that iudgeth right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, & destroyed the vngodly: thou hast put out their name for euer & euer.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetuall end: euen as the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memoriall is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for euer: he hath also prepared his seat for iudgement.

8 For he shall iudge the world in righteounes: and minister true iudgement vnto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed: euen a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name, will put their trust in thee: for thou Lord hast neuer failed them that seeke thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion: shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaints of the poore.

13 Haue mercie vpon mee, O Lord, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate mee: thou that liftest me vp from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I wil reioice in thy saluation.

15 The heathen are sunke downe in the pit that they made: in the same net which they bid priuily is their foote taken.

16 The Lord is knowne to execute iudgement: the vngodly is trapped in the works of his owne hands.

17 The wicked shal be turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.

18 For the poore shal not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meeke shal not perish for euer.

19 Vp Lord, and let not man haue thee vpper hand: let the heathen be iudged in thy sight.

20 Put them in feare (O Lord) that the heathen may know themselves to be but men.

Ut quid Domine. Psal. 10.

Why standest thou so farre off (O Lord): & hidest thy face in the needfull time of trouble?

2 The vngodly for his owne lust doeth persecute the poore: let them be taken in the crafty wilnes that they haue imagined.

3 For the vngodly hath made boast of his owne hearts desire: and speaketh good of the couetous whom God abhorreth.

4 The vngodly is so prond, that he careth not for God: neither is God in all his thoughts.

5 His wayes are alwayes grievous: thy iudgements are farre above our of his sight, and therefore desiereth he all his enemies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, I shal neuer be be cast downe: there shall no harme happen vnto me.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit and fraude: vnder his tongue is vngodlinesse and vanitie.

8 He sitteth lurking in the theeuish corners of the streets: and in priuily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent, his eyes are set against the poore.

9 For he lieth waiting secretly, even as a lion lurketh he in his denne: that he may raiſe the poore.

10 Hee doth raiſe the poore: when hee getteth him into his net.

11 He falleth downe and humbleth himselfe: that the congregation of the poore may fall into the hand of his captaines.

12 He hath said in his heart, Tush, God hath forgotten: he hideth away his face, & he will neuer see it.

13 Arise (O Lord God) and lift vp thy hand: forget not the poore.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God: while he doth say in his heart, Tush, thou God careſt not for it?

15 Surely thou hast seene it: for thou beholdest vngodlinesse and wrong.

16 That thou mayest take the matter into thy hand: the poore committeth himselfe vnto thee, for thou art the helper of the friendlesse.

17 Breake thou the power of the vngodly & malicious: take away his vngodlinesse, & thou shalt finde none.

18 The Lord is King for euer and euer: and the heathen are perished out of the land.

19 Lord thou hast heard the desire of the poore: thou preparest their heart, & thine eare hearkeneth thereto.

20 To helpe the fatherlesse and poore vnto their right: that the man of the earth be no more exalted against them.

In Domino confido. Psal. 11.

In the Lord put I my trust: how say you then to my soule, that the shouldest see as a bird vnto the hill?

2 For loe, the vngodly bend their bow, and make ready their arrowes within the quiver: that they may priuily shoote at them which are true of heart.

3 For the foundations will bee cast downe: and what hath the righteous done?

4 The Lord is in his holy Temple: the Lords seat is in heauen.

5 His eyes consider the poore: and his eye liddes tryeth the children of men.

6 The Lord alloweth the righteous: but the vngodly, and him that delighteth in wickednesse doth his soule abhorre.

7 Vpon the vngodly he shal raine snares, fire, and brimstone, storme and tempest: this shall bee their portion to drinke.

8 For the righteous Lord longeth righteousness: his countenance will behold the thing that is iust.

Saluum me fac. Psal. 12.

Help me Lord, for there is not one godly man left: for the faithfull are diminished from among the children of men.

2 They talke of vantage euery one with his neighbour: they doe but flatter with their lips, and dissemble with their double heart.

3 The Lord shall root out all deceitfull lips: and the tongue that speaketh proude things.

4 Which haue said, with our tongue wee will preuaile: wee are they that ought to speake, who is Lord ouer vs?

5 Now for the comfortles troubles sake of the needy: and because of the deepe sighing of the poore.

6 I will vp (saith the Lord:) and will help euery one from him that wellet against him, and will set them at rest:

7 The words of the Lord are pure words, euen as the silver which from the earth is tryed, and purified seven times in the fire.

8 Thou shalt keepe them, O Lord: thou shalt preserve him from this generation for euer.

9 The vngodly walke on euery side: when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

Vsq̃ueque Domine. Psal. 13.

How long wilt thou forget me (O Lord) for euer: how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I seeke counsell in my soule, and be vexed in my heart: how long shall mine enemies triumph ouer me?

3 Consider and heare me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, that I sleepe not in death.

4 Left mine enemy say, I haue preuailed against him: for if I be cast downe, they that trouble me will reioyce at it.

5 But my trust is in thy mercy: and my heart is ioyfull in thy saluation.

6 I will sing of the Lord, because hee hath dealt so lovingly with me: yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord, most High.

Dixit missiens. Psal. 14.

The soule hath said in his heart there is no God.

2 They are corrupt and become abominable in their doings: there is not one that doeth good (no not one.)

3 The Lord looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that would vnderstand and seeke after God:

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues haue they deceived: the poyson of Aspes is vnder their lips.

6 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: their feet are swift to shed blood.

7 Destruction and vnhappinesse is in their waies: and the way of peace haue they not knowne, there is no feare of God before their eyes.

8 Haue they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of mischief: eating vp my people as it were bread?

9 And call not vpon the Lord, there were they brought in great feare (euen where no feare was): for God is in the generation of the righteous.

10 As for you, ye haue made a mocke at the counsaile of the poore: because hee putteth his trust in the Lord.

11 Who shall giue saluation vnto Israel out of Sion: when the Lord turneth the captiuitie of his people, then shall Iacob reioyce, and Israel shall be glad.

Domine qui habitabis? Psal. 15.

Lord who shall dwell in thy Tabernacle: or who shall rest vpon thy holy hill?

2 Euen hee that leadeth an vncorrupt life: and doeth the thing that is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

3 Hee that hath vsed no deceit in his tongue, nor done euill to his neighbour: and hath not slaundered his neighbours.

4 He that setteth not by himselfe, but is lowly in his owne eyes: and maketh much of them that feare the Lord.

5 He that sweareth vnto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not: though it were to his own hindrance.

6 Hee that hath not giuen his money vpon vsu-ries.

rie: nor taken reward against the innocent.

7 Who fo doeth these things: shall neuer fall.

Confirma me. Psal. 16.

PReferue me, O God: for in thee haue I put my trust.

2 O my soule, thou hast saide vnto the Lord: thou art my God, my goods are nothing vnto thee.

3 All my delight is vpon the Saints: that are in the earth: and vpon such as excell in vertue.

4 But they that runne after another god: shall haue great trouble.

5 Their drinke offrings of blood wil I not offer: neither make mention of their names within my lips.

6 The Lord himselfe is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou shalt maintaine my lot.

7 The lot is fallen vnto me in a faire ground: yea, I haue a goodly heritage.

8 I will thanke the Lord for giuing me warning: my reines also chasten me in the night season.

9 I haue set God alwayes before mee: for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

10 Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glorie reioyced: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

11 For why? thou shalt not leaue my soule in hel: neither shalt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

12 Thou shalt shew mee the pathes of life, in thy presence is the fullnesse of ioy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for euermore.

Exaudi Domine iustitiam. Pal. 17.

Heare the right, O Lord, consider my complaint: and hearken vnto my prayer: that goeth not out offained lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: and let thine eyes looke vpon the thing that is equall.

3 Thou hast proued and visited mine heart in the night season, thou hast tryed mee, and shalt finde no wickednesse in me: for I am viterly purposed, that my mouth shall not offend.

4 Because of mens workes that are done against the words of my lips: I haue kept me from the waies of the destroyer.

5 O hold thou vp my goings in the pathes: that my footsteps slip not.

6 I haue called vpon thee, O God, for thou shalt heare me: encline thine eare to me, and hearken vnto my words.

7 Shew thy marueilous louing kindnesse, thou that art the Sauour of them which put their trust in thee: for such as resist thy right hand.

8 Keepe me as the apple of an eye: hide me vnder the shadow of thy wings.

9 Fro' n the vngodly that trouble me: mine enemies compasse mee round about to take away my soule.

10 They are inclosed in their owne fat: and their mouth speaketh proude things.

11 They lie waiting in our way on euery side: turning their eyes downe to the ground.

12 Like as a Lion that is greedie of his pray: and as it were a Lions whelpelurking in secret places.

13 Vp Lord, disappoint him, and cast him downe: deliuer my soule from the vngodly, which is a sword of rhine.

14 From the men of thine hand, O Lord, from the men, I say, and from the euill world: which haue their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid Treasure.

15 They haue children at their desire: and leaue the left of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for mee, I will beholde thy presence in righteousnesse: and when I waite vp after thy likenesse, I shall be satisfied with it.

Diligam te. Psal. 18.

I Will loue thee (O Lord) my strength, the Lord is my stony rocke and my defence: my Sauour, my God, and my might, in whome I will trust, my buckler, the horne also of my saluation, & my refuge.

2 I will call vpon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised: fo shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The sorrowes of death compassed me: and the ouerflowings of vngodlinesse made me afraide.

4 The paine of hell came about me: the snares of death ouertooke me.

5 In my trouble I will call vpon the Lord: and complaine vnto my God.

6 So shall he heare my voice out of his holy Temple: and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter euen into his eares.

7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations also of the hills shooke and were remooued, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence: and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coales were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also and came downe: and it was darke vnder his feet.

10 He rode vpon the cherubims and did flie: he came flying vpon the wings of the winde.

11 He made darkenesse his secret place: his Paulion round about him, with darke water, and thicke cloudes to couer him.

12 At the brightnesse of his presence his cloudes remooued: hailestones and coales of fire.

13 The Lord also thundred out of heaven, and the highest gaue his thunder: hailestones and coales of fire.

14 He sent out his arrowes and scattered them: he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seene, and the foundations of the round world were discouered at thy chiding, O Lord: at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 He shall send downe from the high to fetch me: and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliuer me from my strongest enemy, and from them which hate me: for they are too mighty for me.

18 They preuented me in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my vpholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of libertie: he brought me forth, euen because he had a fauor vnto me.

20 The Lord shall reward me after my righteous dealing: according to the cleannesse of my hands shall he recompence me.

21 Because I haue kept the wayes of the Lord: and haue not forsaken my God, as the wicked doth.

22 For I haue an eie vnto all his Lawes: and will not cast out his Commandements from me.

23 I was also vnconcorrupt before him: and eschewed mine owne wickednesse.

24 Therefore shall the Lord rewarde mee after my righteous dealing: and according vnto the cleannesse of my hands in his eyesight.

25 With the holy, thou shalt be holy: and with a perfect man thou shalt be perfect.

26 With the cleane, thou shalt bee cleane: and with the froward, thou shalt learne frowardnesse.

27 For thou shalt saue the people that are in aduersitie:

Evening prayer.

fitie: & shalt bring downe his high looks of the proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle: the Lord my God shall make my darkenesse to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discomfit an host of men: and with the help of my God, I shall leape ouer the wall.

30 The way of God is an vndeified way: the word of the Lord also is tryed in the fire: he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

31 For who is God but the Lord: or who hath any strength except our God?

32 It is God that girdeth mee with strength of warre: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like Harts feet: and setteth me vp on high.

34 He teacheth my hands to fight: & mine armes shall breake euen a bow of Steele.

35 Thou hast giuen mee the defence of thy saluation: thy right hand also shall hold mee vp, and thy louing correction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make me enough vnder me for to goe: that my footsteps shall not slide.

37 I will follow vpon mine enemies, and ouertake them: neither will I turne againe till I haue destroyed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall not bee able to stand: but fall vnder my feet.

39 Thou hast girded mee with strength vnto the battell: thou shalt throw downe mine enemies vnder me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turne their backs vpon me: and I shall destroy them that hate me.

41 They shall cry but there shall be none to helpe them: yea, euen vnto the Lord shall they cry, but hee shall not heare them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind: I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliuer me from the strivings of the people: and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I haue not knownen: shall serue mee.

45 As soone as they heare of mee, they shall obey me: but the strange children shall dissemble with me.

46 The strange children shall faile: and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The Lord liueth, and blessed bee my strong helper: and praised be the God of my saluation.

48 Euen the God, which seeth that I bee auenged: and subdueth the people vnto me.

49 It is he that deliuereth me from my (cruell) enemies, and setteth me vp aboue mine aduersaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I giue thanks vnto thee (O Lord) among the Gentiles: and sing praises vnto thy Name.

51 Great prosperity giueth he vnto his King: and sheweth louing kindnesse vnto Dauid his annointed, and vnto his seed for euermore.

Celestianant. Psal. 19.

THe heauens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handy worke.

2 One day telleth another: and one night certifieth another.

3 There is neither speech nor language: but their voyces are heard among them.

4 Their found is gone out into all lauds: and their words vnto the ends of the world.

5 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the Sunne: which commeth forth as a bridegrome out of his chamber, and reioycesth as a Giant to run his course.

6 It goeth forth from the vntermost part of the heauen, and runneth about vnto the end of it againe: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The Law of the Lord is an vndeified Law, conuerting the soule: the testimonie of the Lord is sure, and giueth wisdom vnto the simple.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, and reioyce the heart: The Commandement of the Lord is pure, and giueth light vnto the eyes.

9 The feare of the Lord is cleane, and endureth for euer: the iudgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they then gold, yea, then much fine gold: sweeter also then honey, and the honny combe.

11 Moreouer by them is thy seruant taught: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth: O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keepesthy seruant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion ouer me: so shall I be vndeified, and innocent from the great offence.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart: be alway acceptable in thy sight.

15 O Lord: my strength and my redeemer, Exaudi te Dominus. Psal. 20.

THe Lord heare thee in the day of trouble: the Name of the God of Iacob defend thee.

2 Send thee helpe from the Sauerour: and strengthen thee out of Sion.

3 Remember all thy offerings: and accept thy burnt sacrifice.

4 Grant thee thy hearts desire: and fulfill all thy minde.

5 We will reioyce in thy saluation, and triumph in the Name of the Lord our God: the Lord performe all thy petitions.

6 Now know I that the Lord helpeth his anointed, and will heare him from his holy heauen: euen with the whole some strength of his right hand.

7 Some put their trust in charerts, and some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the Lord our God.

8 They are brought downe and fallen: but we are risen and stand vpright.

9 Saue Lord, and heare vs, O King of heauen: when we call vpon thee.

Dominus in virtute. Psal. 21.

THe King shall reioyce in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy saluation.

2 Thou hast giuen him his hearts desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt preuent him with the blessings of goodnesse: and shalt set a crowne of pure gold vpon his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gauest him a long life: euen for euer and euer.

5 His honour is great in thy saluation: glory and great worship shalt thou lay vpon him.

6 For thou shalt giue him euermlasting felicity: and make him glad with the ioy of thy Countenance.

7 And why? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord: and in the mercy of the most Highest, he shall not miscarie.

8 All thine enemies shall feele thine hand: thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt makethem like a fierie out in time of thy wrath: the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their suit shalt thou root out of the earth: and his seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended mischief against thee: and imagined such a device as they are not able to performe.

12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted Lord in thine owne strength: fo will we sing and praise thy power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. 22.

Evening
Prayer.

MY God, my God (looke vpon mee) why hast thou forsaken mee: and art so farre from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest.

3 And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.

4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou diddest deliuer them.

5 They called vpon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But as for mee, I am a worme, and no man: a very scorne of men, and the outcast of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorne: they shoote out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,

8 He trusted in God, that hee would deliuer him: let him deliuer him, if he will haue him.

9 But thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet vpon my mothers breasts.

10 I haue beene left vnto thee euer since I was borne: thou art my God euen from my mothers wombe.

11 O goe not from me, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to helpe me.

12 Many oxen are come about mee: fat bulles of Balan clofe me in on euery side.

13 They gape vpon me with their mouthes: as it were a ramping and roaring Lion.

14 I am powred out like water, and all my bones are out of ioynt: my heart also in the midst of my bodie is euen like melting waxe.

15 My strength is dried vp like a potheard, and my tongue cleaueth to my gummies: and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.

16 For (many) dogs are come about me: and the counsell of the wicked layeth siege against me.

17 They pearced my hands and my feet, I may tell all my bones: they stand staring & looking vpon me.

18 They part my garments among them: and cast lots vpon my vesture.

19 But be not thou farre from mee, O Lord: thou art my succour, hasten thee to helpe me.

20 Deliuer my soule from the sword: my darling from the power of the dogges.

21 Save mee from the lions mouth: thou hast heard me from among the hornes of the Unicornes.

22 I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the midst of the Congregation will I praise thee.

23 O praise the Lord ye that feare him: magnifie him all ye of the seed of Iacob, and feare him all ye seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the low estate of the poore, he hath not hid his face from him: but when he called vnto him, he heard him.

25 My praise is of thee in the great Congregation: my vowes will I performe in the sight of them that feare him.

26 The poore shall eat and be satisfied: they that seeke after the Lord shall praise him, your heart shall liue for euer.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned vnto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

28 For the kingdome is the Lords: and hee is the gouernour among the people.

29 All such as bee lat vpon earth: haue eaten and worshipped.

30 All they that goe downe into the dust, shall kneele before him: and no man hath quickned his owne soule.

31 My seed shall serue him: they shall be counted vnto the Lord for a generation.

32 They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteousnesse: vnto a people that shall be borne, whom the Lord hath made.

Dominus regit me. Psal. 23.

THe Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lacke nothing.

2 He shall feede me in a greene pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

3 He shall conuert my soule: and bring me forth in the pathes of righteousness for his Names sake.

4 Yea, though I walke through the valley of the shadow of death, I will feare no euill: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staffe comfort me.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before mee against them that trouble mee: thou hast anointed my head with oyle, and my cup shall be full.

6 But thy louing kindnesse and mercie shall follow me all the dayes of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for euer.

Dominus terra. Psal. 24.

THe earth is the Lords, and all that therein is: the compasse of the world, and they that dwell therein.

Morning
Prayer.

2 For he hath founded it vpon the seas: and prepared it vpon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord: or who shall rise vp in his holy place?

4 Euen hee that hath cleane hands, and a pure heart: and that hath not lift vp his minde vnto vanitie, nor sworne to deceiue his neighbour.

5 Hee shall receiue the blessing from the Lord: and righteousness from the God of his saluation.

6 This is the generation of them that seeke him: euen of them that seeke thy face, O Iacob.

7 Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp yee euerlasting doores: and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is the King of glory: it is the Lord strong and mightie, euen the Lord mightie in battell.

9 Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp yee euerlasting doores: and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is the King of glory: euen the Lord of hostes, he is the King of glorie.

Ad te Domine. Psal. 25.

VNto thee, O Lord, will I lift vp my soule, my God, I haue put my trust in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph ouer me.

2 For all they that hope in thee, shall not be ashamed: but such as transgresse without a cause, shall be put to confusion.

3 Shew me thy wayes, O Lord: and teach me thy pathes.

4 Leade me forth in thy trueth, and learne me: for thou art the God of my saluation, in thee hath bin my hope all the day long.

5 Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies: and thy louing kindnesse which hath bin euer of olde.

6 Oh, remember not the finnes and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy thinke thou vpon me (O Lord) for thy goodnesse.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that be meeke shall he guide in iudgment: and such as be gentle, them shall he learne his way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth vnto such as keep his Couenant, and his testimonies.

10 For thy Names sake, O Lord: be mercifull vnto my sinne, for it is great.

11 What man is hee that feareth the Lord: him shall he teach in the way that he shall chuse.

12 His soule shall dwell at ease: and his seed shall inherite the land.

13 The secter of the Lord is among them that feare him: and he shall shew them his Couenant.

14 Mine eyes are euer looking vnto the Lord: for he shall plucke my feet out of the net.

15 Turne thee vnto me, and haue mercy vpon me: for I am desolate and in misery.

16 The sorrowes of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my trouble.

17 Looke vpon mine aduersitie & miserie: and forgive me all my sinne.

18 Consider mine enemies how many they are: and they beare a tyrannous hate against me.

19 O keepe my soule, and deliuer me: let mee not be confounded, for I haue put my trust in thee.

20 Let perfectnesse and righteous dealing waite vpon me: for my hope hath bene in thee.

21 Deliuer Israel, O God: out of all his troubles.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. 26.

BE thou my Iudge, O Lord, for I haue walked innocently: my trust hath bene also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

2 Examine me, O Lord, and prouoe mee: try out my reines and my heart.

3 For thy louing kindnesse is euer before mine eyes: and I will walkein thy truth.

4 I haue not dwelt with vaine persons: neither will I haue fellowship with the deceitfull.

5 I hate the Congregation of the wicked: and will not sit among the vngodly.

6 I will wash my hands in innocencie, O Lord: and so will I goe to thine altar.

7 That I may shew the voice of thankes-giuing: and tell of all thy wonderous workes.

8 Lord, I haue loued the habitation of thy house: and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

9 O hat not vp my soule with the sinners: nor my life with the bloodthirstie.

10 In whose hands is wickednesse: and their right hands are full of gifts.

11 But as for me, I will walke innocently. O Lord deliuer me, and be mercifull vnto me.

12 My foot standeth right: I will praise the Lord in the Congregations.

Domineus illuminatus. Psal. 27.

THE Lord is my light and my saluation, whome then shall I feare: the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked (euen mine enemies and my foes) came vpon me to eate vp my flesh: they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an hoste of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid: and though there rose vp warre against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

4 One thing haue I desired of the Lord, which I will require: euen that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the dayes of my life, to behold the faire beautie of the Lord, and to visite his Temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his Tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me vp vpon a rocke of stone.

6 And now shall hee lift vp mine head: aboue mine enemies round about me.

7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladnesse: I will sing & speake praises vnto the Lord.

8 Hearken vnto my voice, O Lord, when I cry vnto thee: haue mercy vpon me, and heare me.

9 Mine heart hath talked of thee, seeke yee my face: thy face Lord will I seeke.

10 O hide not thy face from me: nor cast thy seruant away in thy displeasure.

11 Thou hast bene my succour: leaue mee not, neither forsake me: O God of my saluation.

12 When my father and my mother forsake mee: the Lord taketh me vp.

13 Teach me thy way, O Lord: and lead me in the right way, because of mine enemies.

14 Deliuer me not ouer into the will of mine aduersaries: for there are false witnessers risen vp against me, and such as speake wrong.

15 I should vterly haue fainted: but that I beleeue verily to see the goodnesse of the Lord in the land of the liuing.

16 O tary thou the Lords leisure: be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart, and put thou thy trust in the Lord.

Ad te Domine. Psal. 28.

VVnto thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: thinke no scorn of mee, lest if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go downe into the pit.

2 Heare the voice of my humble petitions when I cry vnto thee: when I holde vp my hands toward the Mercie seat of thy holy Temple.

3 O plucke mee not away (neither destroy mee) with the vngodly and wicked doers: which speake friendly to their neighbours: but imagine mischief in their hearts.

4 Reward them according to their deedes: and according to the wickednes of their own inventions.

5 Recompence them after the worke of their hands: pay them that they haue deserved.

6 For they regard not in their minde the workes of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands: therefore shall he breake them downe, and not build them vp.

7 Praise be the Lord: for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

8 The Lord is my strength and my shield, my heart hath trusted in him & I am helpe: therefore my heart daunceth for ioy, and in my long will I praise him.

9 The Lord is my strength: and he is the whole some defence of his anoynted.

10 O saue thy people, & giue thy blessing vnto thine inheritance: feed them, and let them vp for euer.

Afferte Domine. Psal. 29.

BRing vnto the Lord (O ye mightie) bring young Drums vnto the Lord: ascribe vnto the Lord worship and strength.

2 Giue the Lord the honour due vnto his Name: worship the Lord with holy worship.

3 It is the Lord that commandeth the waters: it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder.

4 It is the Lord that ruleth the Sea, the voyce of the Lord is mightie in operation: the voice of the Lord is a glorious voyce.

5 The voyce of the Lord breaketh the Cedar trees: yea, the Lord breaketh the Cedars of Libanus.

6 He made them also to skip like a calfe: Libanus also and Syron like a yong Unicorn.

7 The voice of the Lord diuiderh the flames of fire, the voice of the Lord shaketh the wildernesse: yea, the Lord shaketh the wildernesse of Cades.

8 The voyce of the Lord maketh the Hindes to bring forth yong, and discovereth the thicke bushes: in his Temple doth euery man speake of his honour.

9 The Lord stretcheth aboue the water flood: and the Lord remaineth a King for euer.

10 The Lord shall giue strength vnto his people: the Lord shall giue his people the blessing of peace.

Exultabo te Domine. Psal. 30.

I Will magnifie thee, O Lord, for thou hast set mee vp: and not made my foes to triumph ouer me.

2 O Lord my God, I cryed vnto thee: and thou hast healed me.

3 Thou Lord hast brought my soule out of hel: thou hast kept my life from the that goe downe to the pit.

4 Sing praises vnto the Lord (O ye Saints of his:) and giue thanks to him for a remembrance of his holinesse.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life: heauinesse may endure for a night, but ioy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperitie I said, I shall neuer be remoued: thou Lord of thy goodnesse hadst made my hill so strong.

7 Thou diddest turne thy face (from me:) and I was troubled.

8 Then cryed I vnto thee, O Lord: and gate mee vnto my Lord right humbly.

9 What profite is there in my blood: when I goe downe to the pit?

10 Shall the dust giue shankes vnto thee: or shall it declare thy truth?

11 Heare, O Lord, and haue mercy vpon me: Lord be thou my helper.

12 Thou hast turned my heauinesse into ioy: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladnesse.

13 Therefore shall euery good man sing of thy praise without ceasing: O my God, I wil giue thanks vnto thee for euer.

In te Domine speravi. Psal. 31.

IN thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let me neuer be put to confusion: deliuer me in thy righteousness.

2 Bow downe thine eare to me: make haste to deliuer me.

3 And be thou my strong rock, and the house of defence: for thou mayest saue me.

4 For thou art my strong rocke, and my castle: be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy Names sake.

5 Draw me out of the net that they haue laide priuily for me: for thou art my strength.

6 Into thy hands I commend my spirit: for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

7 I haue hated them that hold of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath bene in the Lord.

8 I wil be glad, and reioyce in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble, & hast knowen my soule in aduersities.

9 Thou hast not shut mee vp into the hand of the enemy: but hast let my feet in a large roome.

10 Haue mercy vpon mee, O Lord, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is consumed for very heauinesse, yea, my soule and my body.

11 For my life is waxen olde with heauinesse: and my yeeres with mourning.

12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquitie: and my bones are consumed.

Morning
prayer.

13 I became a reproofe among all mine enemies, but specially among my neighbors: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me, and they that did see me without, conueyed themselves from me.

14 I am cleane forgotten, as a dead man out of minde: I am become like a broken vessel.

15 For I haue heard the blaspemy of the multitude: and feare is on euery side, while they conspire together against mee, and take their counsell to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath bene in thee, O Lord: I haue said, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in thy hand, deliuer me from thy hand of mine enemies: and from them that persecute me.

18 Shew thy seruant the light of thy countenance: and saue me for thy mercies sake.

19 Let mee not be confounded, O Lord, for I haue called vpon thee: let the vngodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lips be put to silence: which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully speake against the righteous.

21 O how plentifull is thy goodnesse, which thou hast laide vp for them that feare thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, euen before the sonnes of men.

22 Thou shalt hide them priuily by thine owne presence, from the prouoking of all men: thou shalt keep them secretly in thy Tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the Lord: for hee hath shewed me marvellous great kindnesse in a strong Citie.

24 And when I made haste, I said: I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Neuertheless, thou heardest the voyce of my prayer: when I cryed vnto thee.

26 O how the Lord alye his Saints: for the Lord preserveth them that are faithfull, and plenteously rewardeth the proud doer.

27 Be strong, and he shall establish your heart: all ye that put your trust in the Lord.

Beati quorum. Psal. 32.

Blessed is hee whose vnrightheousnesse is forgiven: and whose sinne is couered.

2 Blessed is the man, vnto whom the Lord imputeth no sin: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away through my dayly complayning.

4 For thy hand is heavy vpon mee day and night, and my moysture is like the drought in Summer.

5 I will knowledgye my sinne vnto thee: and mine vnrightheousnesse haue I not hid.

6 I said, I will confesse my finnes vnto the Lord: and so thou forgavest the wickednesse of my sinne.

7 For this shall euery one that is godly make his prayer vnto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water floods they shall not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compasse me about with songs of deliuerance.

9 I wil enforme thee, & teach thee in thy way wherein thou shalt goe: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not liketo horse and mule, which haue no vnderstanding: whose mouthes must be holden with bit and bridle, lest they fall vpon thee.

11 Great plagues remaine for the vngodly: but who so putteth his trust in the Lord mercy embraceth him on euery side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and reioyce in the Lord: and be ioyfull all ye that are true of heart.

Exultate

Evening
prayer.

Exultate in istis. Psal. 33.

R Eioye in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the iust to be thankfull.

2 Praise the Lord with Harpe: sing Psalmes vnto him with the Lute and instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing vnto the Lord a new song: sing psayles lustily (vnto him) with a good courage.

4 For the word of the Lord is true: and all his workes are faithfull.

5 Hee loueth righteousness and iudgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the Sea together, as it were vpon an heape: and layeth vp the deepe as in a treasure house.

8 Let all the earth feare the Lord: stand in awe of him all ye that dwell in the world.

9 For he sape, and it was done. hee commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The Lord bringeth the counsell of the he: then to nought: and maketh the deuices of the people to bee of none effect, and cisteth out the counleis of Princes.

11 The counsell of the Lord shall endure for euer: and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.

12 Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord Iehoua: and blessed are the folke that hee hath chosen to him to be his inheritance.

13 The Lord looked downe from heauen, & beheld all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling he considereth all the that dwell in earth.

14 Hee fashioneth all the hearts of them: and vnderstandeth all their workes.

15 There is no king that can be saued by the multitude of an hoste: neither is any mighty man deliuered by much strength.

16 An horse is counted but a vaine thing to saue a man: neither shall hee deliuer any man by his great strength.

17 Behold, the eye of the Lord is vpon them that feare him: and vpon them that put their trust in his mercie.

18 To deliuer their soules from death: and to feed them in the time of death.

19 Our soule hath patiently taried for the Lord: for he is our helpe and our shield.

20 For our heart hath reioyce in him: because wee haue hoped in his holy Name.

21 Let thy mercifull kindnesse (O Lord) be vpon vs: like as we doe put our trust in thee.

Benedicam Domino. Pal. 34.

I Will alway giue thanks vnto the Lord: his praise shall euer bee in my mouth

2 My soule shall make her boast of the Lord: the humble shall heare thereof and beglad.

3 O praise the Lord with mee: and let vs magnifie his Name together.

4 I fought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he deliuered me out of all my feare.

5 They had an eye vnto him, and were lightned: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 Loe, the poore cryeth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and sauech him out of all his troubles.

7 The Angel of the Lord tarieth round about them that feare him: and deliuereth them.

8 O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O feare the Lord ye that be his Saints: for they shal feare him, lacke nothing.

10 The lions doe lacke, and suffer hunger: but they which seeketh the Lord, shall want no manner of thing that is good.

11 Come ye children, and hearken vnto me: I will teach you the feare of the Lord.

12 What man is he that lusteth to liue, and would faine see good dayes: keepe thy tongue from euill, and thy lips that they speake no guile.

13 Elchew euill, and do good: seeke peace, & ensee it.

14 The eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous: and his eares are open vnto their prayers.

15 The countenance of the Lord is against them that doe euill: to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

16 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them: and deliuereth them out of all their troubles.

17 The Lord is nigh vnto them that are of a contrite hart: & will saue such as be of an humble spirit.

18 Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lord deliuereth him out of all.

19 He keepeth all his bones: so that not one of them is broken.

20 But misfortune shall slay the vngodly: and they that hate the righteous, shall be consolate.

21 The Lord deliuereth the soules of his seruants: and all they that put their trust in him, shall not be deliuite.

Iudica Domine. Psal. 35.

P Lead thou my cause, O Lord, with them that strue with me: and fight thou against them that fight against me.

2 Lay hand vpon the shield and buckler: and stand vp to helpe me.

3 Bring forth the speare, and stop the way against them that persecute mee: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischief for me.

5 Let them bee as the dust before the winde: and the Angel of the Lord, scattering them.

6 Let their way be darke and slippery: and let the Angel of the Lord persecute them.

7 For they haue priuily laid their net to destroy me without a cause: yea, euen without a cause haue they made a pit for my soule.

8 Let a sudden destruction come vpon him vnawares, and his net that hee hath laid priuily, catch himselfe: that he may fall into his owne mischief.

9 And my soule, be ioyfull in the Lord: it shall reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like vnto thee, which deliuereth the poore from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poore and him that is in miserie, from him that spoileth him.

11 False witnesse did rise vp: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me euill for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

13 Neuertheless, when they were sicke, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soule with fasting: and my prayer shall turne into mine owne beseechment.

14 I behaued my selfe as though it had bene my friend, or my brother: I went heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine aduersitie they reioyned, and gathered them together: yea, the very aduersaries came together against me vnawares, making mowes at mee, and ceased not.

16 With the flatterers were busie mockers: which gnaw vpon me with their teeth.

Morning prayer.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities which they bring on me, and my darling from the Lions.

18 So will I giue thee thanks in the great Congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 O let not them that are mine enemies triumph ouer me vngodly: neither let them winke with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitfull words against them that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped on mee with their mouthes, and said: Fie on thee, fie on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast seene, O Lord: holde not thy tongue then, goe not farre from me O Lord.

23 Awake and stand vp to iudge my quarrell: avenge thou my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Iudge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteousness: and let them not triumph ouer me.

25 Let them not lay in their hearts, There, there, so would we haue it: neither let them, say, We haue deuoured him.

26 Let them be put to confusion and shame together that reioyce at my trouble: let them be cloathed with rebuke and dishonour that boast themselves against me.

27 Let them bee glad and reioyce that fauour my righteous dealing: yea, let them lay alway, Blessed be the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prosperitie of his seruant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shall bee talking of thy righteousness: and of thy praise all the day long.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. 36.

MY heart sheweth mee the wickednesse of the vngodly: that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

1 For he flattereth himselfe in his owne sight: vntill his abominable sinne be found out.

2 The words of his mouth are vnrighteous, and full of deceit: he hath left off to behaue himselfe wisely, and to doe good.

3 He imagineth mischief vpon his bed, and hath set himselfe in no good way: neither doth he abhorre any thing that is euill.

4 Thy mercy, O Lord reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy faithfullnesse vnto the cloudes.

5 Thy righteousness standeth like the strong mountaines: thy iudgements are like the great deepe.

6 Thou Lord shalt saue both man and beast: how excellent is thy mercy, O God, & the children of men shall put their trust vnder the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be facilitated with the plenteousnesse of thy house: and thou shalt giue them drinke of thy pleasures, as out of the riuier.

9 For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue forth thy louing kindnes vnto them that know thee: and thy righteousness vnto them that are true of heart.

11 O let not the foot of pride come against mee: and let not the hand of the vngodly cast me downe.

12 There are they fallen (all) that worke wickednes: they are cast downe, & shall not be able to stand.

Noli amulari. Psal. 37.

FRet not thy selfe, because of the vngodly: neither be thou enuious against the euill doers.

2 For they shall soone bee cut downe like the grasie: and be withered euen as the greene herbe.

3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and bee doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the Lord: and hee shall giue thee thy hearts desire.

5 Commit thy way vnto the Lord, and purthy trust in him: and he shall bring it to passe.

6 Hee shall make thy righteousness as cleare as the light: and thy iust dealing as the noone day.

7 Hold thee still in the Lord, and abide patiently vpon him: but grieve not thy selfe at him whose way doeth prosper, against the man that doth after euill counsailes.

8 Leau off from wrath, and let goe displeasure: fret not thy selfe, els shalt thou be moued to doe euill.

9 Wicked doers shall be rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherite the land.

10 Yet a little while, and the vngodly shall be cleane gone: thou shalt looke after his place, and hee shall be away.

11 But the meeke spirited shall possesse the earth: and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The vngodly seeketh counsell against the iust: and gnasherh vpon him with his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh him to scorne: for hee hath seene that his day is coming.

14 The vngodly haue drawn out the sword, and haue bent their bow: to cast downe the poore and needy, and to slay such as be of a right conuersation.

15 Their sword shall goe through their owne heart: and their bow shall be broken.

16 A small thing that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of the vngodly.

17 For the armes of the vngodly shall be broken: and the Lord vpholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lord knoweth the dayes of the godly: and their inheritance shall endure for euer.

19 They shall not be confounded in the perilous time: and in the dayes of dearth they shall haue enough.

20 As for the vngodly, they shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall consume as the fat of the Lambes: yea, euen as the smoke shall they consume away.

21 The vngodly borroweth, and payeth not againe: but the righteous is mercifull and liberall.

22 Such as be blessed of God shall possesse the land: and they that be cursed of him shall be rooted out.

23 The Lord ordereth a good mans going: and maketh his way acceptable to himselfe.

24 Though hee fall, he shall not be cast away: for the Lord vpholdeth him with his hand.

25 I haue bene yong and now am olde: and yet saw I neuer the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging their bread.

26 The righteous is euer mercifull, and lendeth: and his seed is blessed.

27 Flee from euill, and doe the thing that is good: and dwell for euermore.

28 For the Lord loveth the thing that is right: he forsaketh not his that be godly, but they are preferred for euer.

29 The righteous shall be punished: as for the seed of the vngodly, it shall be rooted out.

30 The righteous shall inherite the land: and dwell therein for euer.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom: and his tongue will be talking of iudgment.

32 The Lord is his God in his heart: and his goings shall not slide.

33 The vngodly seeeth the righteous: and seeketh occasion to slay him.

34 The Lord will not leaue him in his hand: nor condemne him when he is iudged.

35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keepe his way, & he shall promote thee that thou shalt possesse the lands when the vngodly shall perish, thou shalt see it.

36 I my selfe haue seene the vngodly in great power: and flourishing like a Greene Bay tree.

37 And I went by, and loe, he was gone: I sought him, but his place could no where be found.

38 Keepe innocencie, and take heed vnto the thing that is right: for that shall bring a man peace at the last.

39 As for the transgressors they shall perish together: and the end of the vngodly is, they shall be rooted out at the last.

40 But the saluation of the righteous cometh of the Lord: which is also their strength in the time of trouble.

41 And the Lord shall stand by them, & saue them: he shall deliuer them from the vngodly, and shall saue them, because they put their trust in him.

Domine ne in furem. Psal. 38.

Put mee not to rebuke (O Lord) in thine anger: neither chasten me in thy heauy displeasure.

2 For thine arrowes stick fast in mee: and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sinne.

4 For my wickednesses are gone ouer my head: and are like a sore burden too heauy for me to beare.

5 My wounds stinke, and are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery: that I goe mourning all the day long.

7 For my loines are filled with a sore disease: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and fore smitten: I haue roared for the very disquietnesse of my heart.

9 Lord, thou knowest all my desire: and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panted, my strength hath failed me: and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My louers and my neighbors did stand looking vpon my trouble: and my kinsmen stood a farre off.

12 They also that sought after my life, laid snares for me and they that went about to do me euil, talked of wickednesse, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deafe man, and heard not: and as one that is dumbe, which doeth not open his mouth.

14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reproofes.

15 For in thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust: thou shalt answer for me, O Lord, my God.

16 I haue required that they (euen mine enemies) should not triumph ouer me: for when my foot slipped, they reioyced greatly against me.

17 And I timely am set in the plague: and my heaviness is euer in my sight.

18 For I will confesse my wickednesse: and bee sorie for my sinne.

19 But mine enemies liue and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reioyced euil for good, are against me: because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forfake me not, O Lord my God: be not thou farre from me.

22 Hastie thee to helpe me: O Lord God my saluation.

Dei. Confidam. Psal. 39.

I said, I will take heed to my waies: that I offend not in my tongue,

2 I will keepe my mouth (as it were with a bridle:) while the vngodly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea euen from good words, but it was paine and grieueto me.

4 My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my dayes: that I may be certified how long I haue to liue.

6 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long: and mine age is euen as nothing in respect of thee, and verily euery man liuing is altogether vanity.

7 For man walketh in a vaine shadow, and disquieteth himselfe in vaine: he heapeth vp riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

8 And now Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is euen in thee.

9 Deliuer mee from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke vnto the foolish.

10 I became dumbe and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from me: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauy hand.

12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sinne, thou makest his beauty to consume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: euery man therefore is but vanity.

13 Heare my prayer, O Lord, and with thine eares consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

15 Oh spare mee a litle, that I may recouer my strength: before I goe hence, and be no more seene.

Expectans expectans. Psal. 40.

I waited patiently for the Lord: and he inclined vnto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the myre and clay: and set my feet vpon the rocke, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth: euen a thankesgiuing vnto our God.

4 Many shall see it, and feare: and shall put their trust in the Lord.

5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord: and turned not vnto the proude, and to such as goe about with lies.

6 O Lord my God, great are thy wonderous works which thou hast done: like as be also thy thoughts which are to vsward, and yet there is no man that ordereth them vnto thee.

7 If I would declare them, and speake of them: they should be more than I am able to expresse.

8 Sacrifice and meate offering thou wouldest not haue: but mine eares hast thou opened.

9 Burnt offerings and sacrifice for sinne hast thou not required: then said I, Loe, I come.

10 In the volume of the booke it is written of me, that I should fulfill thy will. O my God: I am content to doe it, yea, thy law is within my heart.

11 I haue declared thy righteousness in the great congregation: loe, I will not reframe my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest.

12 I haue not hid thy righteousness within my heart: my talking hath bene of thy truth, and of thy saluation.

13 I haue not kept backe thy louing mercy and truth from the great congregation.

14 Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me: O Lord:

Lord: let thy louing kindeſſe and thy truth alway preſerue me.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about mee, my ſinnes haue taken ſuch hold vpon mee, that I am not able to looke vp: yea, they are mo in number then the haire of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

16 O Lord, let it bee thy pleaſure to deliuer mee: make haſte (O Lord) to help me.

17 Let them be aſhamed and confounded together that ſeek after my ſoule to deſtroy it: let them be driven backward and put to rebuke that with me enill.

18 Let them be deſolate and rewarded with ſhame, that ſay vnto me: Fie vpon thee, fie vpon thee.

19 Let all thoſe that ſeek thee, be ioyfull and glad in thee: and let ſuch as loue thy ſaluation, ſay alway, The Lord be praized.

20 As for me I am poore and needy: but the Lord careth for me.

21 Thou art my helper and Redeemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

Beatus qui intelligit. Pſal. 41.

Blessed is he that conſidereth the poore (and neceſſie:) the Lord ſhall deliuer him in the time of trouble.

2 The Lord preſerue him and keepe him aliue, that hee may be bleſſed vpon earth: and deliuer not thou him into the will of his enemies.

3 The Lord comfort him when he lieth ſick vpon his bed: make thou all his bed in his ſickenſſe.

4 I ſaid, I ord be mercifull vnto mee: heale my ſoule, for I haue ſinned againſt thee.

5 Mine enemies ſpeake euill of me: when ſhall he die, and his name periſh?

6 And if he come to ſee me, he ſpeaketh vanity: and his heart conceiueſh falſhood within himſelfe, and when he cometh forth, he telleth it.

7 All mine enemies whiſper together againſt me: euen againſt me doe they imagine this euill.

8 Let the ſentence of guiltineſſe proceede againſt him: and now that he lyeth, let him riſe vp no more.

9 Yea, thou mine owne familiar friend whom I truſted: haueſt thou alſo eaſe of my bread, haſt layd great wait for me.

10 But bee thou mercifull vnto me, O Lord: raiſe thou me vp againe, and I ſhall reward them.

11 By this I know thou fauoureſt me: that mine enemies doth not triumph againſt me.

12 And when I am in my health, thou vpholdeſt me: and ſhalt ſee me before thy face for euer.

13 Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael: world without end. Amen.

Quemadmodum. Pſal. 42.

Like as the Hart deſireth the water brookes: ſo longeth my ſoule after thee, O God.

2 My ſoule is athiſt for God, yea, euen for the liuing God: when ſhall I come to appeare before the preſence of God?

3 My teares haue bin my meate day & night: while they dayly ſay vnto me, Where is now thy God?

4 Now when I thinke thereupon, I powre out my heart by my ſelfe: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the houſe of God.

5 In the voice of praife and thankſgiuing: among ſuch as keepe holy day.

6 Why art thou ſo full of heauineſſe, (O my ſoule:) and why art thou ſo diſquieted within me?

7 Put thy truſt in God: for I will yet giue him thanks for the helpe of his countenance.

8 My God, my ſoule is vexed within mee: therefore will I remember thee, concerning the land of Iordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

9 One deepe calleth another, becauſe of the noyſe of the water pipes: all thy waues and ſtormes are gone ouer me.

10 The Lord hath graunted his louing kindeſſe on the day time: and in the night ſeaſon d d I ſing of him, and made my prayer vnto the God of my life.

11 I wil ſay vnto the God of my ſtrength, why haſt thou forgotten me: why goe I thus heauily, while the enemy oppreſſeth me?

12 My bones are ſmitten aſunder, as with a ſword: while mine enemies (that trouble me) caſt me in the teeth.

13 Namely, while they ſay dayly vnto mee: where is now thy God?

14 Why art thou ſo vexed, O my ſoule: and why art thou ſo diſquieted within me?

15 O put thy truſt in God: for I wil yet thanke him which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Inducam Deus. Pal. 43.

Give ſentence with me, O God, and defend my cauſe againſt the vngodly people: O deliuer me from the deceitfull and wicked man.

2 For thou art the God of my ſtrength, why haſt thou put mee from thee: and why goe I ſo heauily, while the enemy oppreſſeth me?

3 O ſend out thy light and thy truth, that they may leade me: and bring me vnto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

4 And that I may goe vnto the altar of God: euen vnto the God of my ioy & gladneſſe: & vpon the Harp will I giue thanks vnto thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou ſo heauie, O my ſoule: and why art thou ſo diſquieted within me?

6 O put thy truſt in God: for I will yet giue him thanks, which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Deus in auxilium. Pſal. 44.

Wee haue heard with our eares, O God, our fathers haue told vs: what thou haſt done in their time of old.

2 How thou haſt driven out the Heathen with thy hand, and planted them in: how thou haſt deſtroyed the nations, and caſt them out.

3 For they gate not the land in poſſeſſion through their owne ſword: neither was it their owne arme that helped them.

4 But thy right hand and thine arme, and the light of thy countenance: becauſe thou haddeſt a fauour vnto them.

5 Thou art my King, (O God:) ſend helpe vnto Iacob.

6 Through thee will we overthrow our enemies: and in thy Name will we tread them vnder that riſe vp againſt vs.

7 For I will not truſt in my bow: it is not my ſword that ſhall help me.

8 But it is thou that ſuſt vs from our enemies: and putteſt them to confuſion that hate vs.

9 Wee make our boſt of God all day long: and will praife thy Name for euer.

10 But now thou art farre off, and putteſt vs to confuſion: and goeſt not forth with our armies.

11 Thou makeſt vs to turne our backs vpon our enemies: ſo that they which hate vs, ſpoile our goods.

12 Thou teſteſt vs to be eaten vp like ſheepe: and haſt ſcattered vs among the Heathen.

13 Thou ſelleſt thy people for naught: and takeſt no money for them.

14 Thou makeſt vs to be rebuked of our neighbours: to be laughed to ſcorne, and had in deriſion of them that are round about vs.

15 Thou

Evening
prayer.

Morning
prayer.

15 Thou makest vs to be a by-word among the heathen: and that the people shalke their heads at vs.

16 My confusion is daily before mee: and the shame of my face hath couered me.

17 For the voice of the slanderer and blasphemers: for the enemie and auenger.

18 And though all this be come vpon vs, yet doe we not forget thee: nor behaue our selues frowardly in thy covenant.

19 Our heart is not turned backe: neither our steps gone out of thy way.

20 No not when thou hast smitten vs into the place of Dragons: and couered vs with the shadow of death.

21 If wee haue forgotten the Name of our God, and holden vp our hands: to any strange god: shal not God search it out? for he knoweth the very secret of the heart.

22 For thy sake also are we killed all the day long: and are counted as sheepe appointed to be slaine.

23 Vp Lord, why sleepest thou: awake, and be not absent from vs for euer.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face: and forgettest our miserie and trouble?

25 For our soules is brought low euen vnto the dust: our belly cleaueth vnto the ground.

26 Arise and helpe vs: and deliuer vs for thy mercies sake.

Exultauit cor meum. Psal. 45.

MY heart is inditing of a good matter: I speake of the things which I haue made vnto the King.

2 My tongue is the pen: of a ready writer.

3 Thou art fairer then the children of men: full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for euer.

4 Gird thee with thy sword vpon thy thigh, O thou most mighty: according to thy worship and renowne.

5 Good lucke haue thou with thine honour: ride on, because of the word of truth, of meeknesse, and righteousness, and thy right hand shall teach thee terribles things.

6 Thy arrows are very sharpe, and the people shal be subdued vnto thee: euen in the middelt among the Kings enemies.

7 Thy keate (O God) endureth for euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a right scepter.

8 Thou hast loued righteousness, and hated iniquitie: wherefore God (euen thy God) hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellowes.

9 All thy garments smell of Myrrhe, Aloes, and Cassia: out of the luoric palaces, whereby they haue made thee glad.

10 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: vpon thy right hand did stand the Queene in a vesture of golde (wrought about with diuers colours.)

11 Hearken (O daughter) and consider, encline thine eare: forget also thine owne people, and thy fathers house.

12 So shall the king haue pleasure in thy beautie: for he is thy Lord (God) and worship thou him.

13 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift: like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.

14 The kings daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

15 She shall be brought vnto the King in raiment of needle worke: the virgins that be her fellowes shal beare her company, and shal be brought vnto thee.

16 With ioy and gladnesse shall they be brought: and shall enter into the Kings palace.

17 In Reade of thy fathers thou shalt haue children: whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.

18 I will remember thy Name from one generation vnto another: therefore shall the people giue thanks vnto thee world with out end.

Deus noster refugium. Psal. 46.

GOD is our hope and strength: a very present helpe in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not feare though the earth be moued: and though the hills be caried into the middelt of the Sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell: and though the mountaines shake at the tempest of fime.

4 The riuers of the flood thereof shall make glad the citie of God, the holy place of the tabernacle of the most highest.

5 God is in the middelt of her, therefore shal she not be removed: God shall helpe her, and that night early

6 The heathen make much ado, and the kingdomes are moued: but God hath shewed his voyce, and the earth shall melt away.

7 The Lord of hosts is with vs: the God of Iacob is our refuge.

8 O come hither, & behold the works of the Lord: what destruction he hath brought vpon the earth.

9 He maketh warres to cease in all the world: he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the speare in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the Heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is with vs: the God of Iacob is our refuge.

Omnnes gentes plaudite. Psal. 47.

O Clape your hands together, (all yee people:) O sing vnto God with the voyce of melody.

2 For the Lord is high, and to be feared: hee is the great king vpon all the earth.

3 Hee shall subdue the people vnder vs: and the nations vnder our feere.

4 Hee shall chuse out an heritage for vs: euen the worship of Iacob whom he loued.

5 God is gone vp with a merry noyse: and the Lord with the found of the trumpe.

6 O sing praises, sing praises vnto our God: O sing praises, sing praises vnto our King.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing yee praises with understanding.

8 God reigneth ouer the heathen: God sitteth vpon his holy seate.

9 The princes of the people are ioyned vnto the people of the God of Abraham: for God (which is very high exalted) doeth defend the earth as it were with a shield.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. 48.

GREAT is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the Citie of our God, euen vpon his holy hill.

2 The hill of Zion is a faire place, and the ioy of the whole earth: vpon the North sidelieth the Citie of the great King, God is well known in her palaces, as a sure refuge.

3 For loe, the Kings of the earth: are gathered and gone by together.

4 They maruelled to see such things: they were astonished, and suddenly cast downe.

5 Feare came there vpon them, and sorrow: as vpon a woman in her trauaile.

6 Thou shalt breake the ships of the sea: through the East winde.

7 Like as we haue heard, so haue we seene in the City of the Lord of hosts, in the City of our God :

God vpholdeth the same for euer.

8 Wee waite for thy louing kindnesse (O God :)
in the middes of thy Temple.

9 O God according vnto thy Name, so is thy praise vnto the worldsend thy right hand is full of righteousnesse.

10 Let the mount Sion reioyce, and the daughters of Iuda be glad : becaule of thy iudgements

11 Walke about Sion, and go round about her :
and tell the towres thereof.

12 Marke well her bulwarkes, set vp her houses :
that ye may tell them that come after.

13 For this God is our God for euer and euer : he shall be our guide vnto death.

And he becomes. P'sal. 49.

O Heare ye this al ye people : ponder it with your eares all ye that dwell in the world.

2 High and low, rich and poore : one with another.

3 My mouth shall speake of wisdomes : and my heart shall muse of vnderstanding.

4 I wil incline mine eare to the parable : and shew my darke speech vpon the Harpe.

5 Wherefore should I feare : in the dayes of wickednesse : and when the wickednesse of my heeles compasseth me round about ?

6 There bee some that put their trust in their goods : and boast themselues in the multitude of their riches.

7 But no man may deliuer his brother : nor make agreement vnto God for him.

8 For it cost more to redeeme their soules : so that he must let that alone for euer.

9 Yea, though he liue long : and see not the graue.

10 For he seeth that wise men also dye, and perish together as well as the ignorant and foolish, and leaueth his riches for other,

11 And yet they thinke that their houses shall continue for euer : & that their dwelling places shall endure from one generation to another, and call the lands after their owne names.

12 Neuerthelss man will not abide in honour :
seeing he may be compared vnto the beasts that perirish : this is the way of them.

13 This is their foolishnesse : and their posterity praiseth their laying.

14 They lie in the hell like sheep, death gnaweth vpon them, and the righteous that haue domination ouer them in the morning : their beauty shall consume in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.

15 But God hath deliuered my soule from the place of hell : for he shall receiue me.

16 Benot thou afraid though one be made rich :
or if the glory of his house be increased.

17 For he shall carry nothing away with him when he dyeth, neither shall his pompe follow him.

18 For while he liued, he counted himselfe a happy man : and so long as thou doest wel vnto thy selle, men will speake good of thee.

19 He shall follow the generation of his fathers :
and shall neuer see light.

20 Man being in honor, hath no vnderstanding :
but is compared vnto the beasts that perish.

Diu. deorum. P'sal. 50.

The Lord, euen the most mighty God hath spoken : and called the world from the rising vp of the sun, vnto the going downethereof.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared : in perfect beauty.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence :
there shall go before him a consuming fire, & a might-ie tempest shall be stirred vp round about him.

4 He shall call the heaven from above : and the earth, that he may iudge his people.

5 Gather my Saints together vnto mee : those that haue made a couenant with me, with sacrifice.

6 And the heauens shall declare his righteousness :
for God is iudge himselfe.

7 Heare, O my people, and I will speake : I my selfe will tell thee againt thee, O Israel, for I am God, euen thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee becaule of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt offerings : becaule they were not al-way before me.

9 I will take no bullocke out of thine house : nor hee goates out of thy foldes.

10 For all the beasts of the Forrest are mine : and so are the cattels vpon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowles vpon the Mountaines :
and the wilde beasts of the field are in my sight.

12 If I bee hungry, I will not tell thee : for the whole world is mine, and all that is therein.

13 Thinkest thou that I will eate Buls flesh : and drinke the blood of goates ?

14 Offer vnto God thanksgiving : and pay thy vowes vnto the most High.

15 And call vpon mee in the time of trouble : so will I heare thee, and thou shalt prayle me.

16 But vnto the vngodly said God : Why doest thou preach n y lawes, and takest my couenant in thy mouth ?

17 Whereas thou hatest to be reformed : and hast cast my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thiefe, thou contentedst vnto him : an I haue bene partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speake wickednesse :
and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

20 Thou satelst and spakest againt thy brother :
yea, and thou hast slandered thine owne mothers son.

21 The secret things hast thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly that I am euen such a one as thy selfe : but I will reprove thee, and let before thee the thing that thou hast done.

22 O consider this ye that forget God : lest I pluck you away, and there be none to deliuer you.

23 Who so offendeth me thanks and praise, he honoureth mee : and to him that ordereth his conuersation right, will I shew the saluation of God.

Miserere mei Deus, P'sal. 51.

HAue mercy vpon mee, O God, after thy great goodnesse : according to the multitude of thy mercies doe away mine offences.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickednesse : and cleans me from my sinne.

3 For I knowe my faults : and my sinne is e-uer before me.

4 Againt thee only haue I sinned, and done this euill in thy sight : that thou mightest be iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse : and in sinne hath my mother conceived me.

6 But loe, thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to vnderstand wisdomes secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssope, and I shall be cleane : thou shalt wash mee, and I shall bee whiter then snow.

8 Thou shalt make me heare of ioy and gladnesse :
that the bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

9 Turne thy face from my finnes : and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make

10 Make mee a cleane heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 O giue mee the comfort of thy helpe againe: and stablish me with thy free spirit.

13 Then shal I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and sinners shall be conuerted vnto thee.

14 Deliuere mee from blood guiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

15 Thou shalt open my lips (O Lord:) my mouth shall shew thy praise.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I giue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart (O God) shalt thou not despise.

18 O be fauourable and gracious vnto Sion: build thou the walles of Ierusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt offerings and oblations: then shal they offer yong bullocks vpon thine altar.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. 52.

Why boastest thou thy selfe, thou tyrant: that thou canst doe mischief?

2 Whereas the goodnesse of God: endureth yet daily,

3 Thy tongue imagineth wickednesse: and with lies thou cuttest like a sharpe rasor.

4 Thou hast loued vnrighteousnesse more then goodnesse: and to talke of lies more then righteousness.

5 Thou hast loued to speake all words that may doe hurt: O thou false tongue.

6 Therefore shall God destroy thee for euer: hee shall take thee, and plucke thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the liuing.

7 The righteous also shall see this, and feare: and shall laugh him to scorn.

8 Lo, this is the man that tooke not God for his strength: but trusted vnto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himselfe in his wickednesse.

9 As for mee I am like a greene Oliue tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercy of God for euer and euer.

10 I will alwayes giue thanks vnto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy Name, for thy Saints like it well.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. 53.

The foolish body hath said in his heart: there is no God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickednesse: there is none that doth good.

3 God looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that would vnderstand and seeke after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doeth good, nor one.

5 Are they not without vnderstanding that worke wickednesse: eating vp my people as if they would eat bread? they haue not called vpon God.

6 They were afraid where no feare was for God hath broken the bones of them that besieged thee, thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

7 Oh that the saluation were giuen vnto Israel out of Sion: oh that the Lord would deliuer his people out of captiuitie.

8 Then should Iacob reioyce: and Israel should be right glad.

Dens in Nomine. Psal. 54.

Saueme, O God, for thy Names sake: and auenge me in thy strength.

2 Heare my prayer, O God: and hearken vnto the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen vp against me: and tyrants (which haue not God before their eyes) seeke after my soule.

4 Beholde, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that vphold my soule.

5 Hee shall reward euill vnto mine enemies: destroy thou them in thy truth.

6 An offering of a free heart will I giue thee, and praise thy Name (O Lord) because it is so comfortable.

7 For he hath deliuered me out of all my troubles: and mine eye hath seene his desire vpon mine enemies.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. 55.

Hear my prayer, O God: and hide not thy selfe from my petition.

2 Take heede vnto mee, and heare me: how I mourne in my prayer, and am vexed.

3 The enemy cryeth so, and the vngodly cometh on so fast: for they are minded to doe me some mischief, so maliciously are they set against me.

4 My heart is disquieted within mee: and the feare of death is fallen vpon me.

5 Fearefulnesse and trembling are come vpon me: and an horrible dread hath ouerwhelmed me.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a doue: for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I get me away farre off: and remaine in the wilderness.

8 I would make haste to escape: because of the stormie winde and tempest.

9 Destroy their tongues, (O Lord) and diuide them: for I haue spied vnrighteousnesse and strife in the citie.

10 Day and night they goe about within the wals thereof, mischief also and sorrow are in the middes of it.

11 Wickednesse is therein: deceit, and guile goe not out of their streets.

12 For it is not an open enemy that hath done me this dishonour: for then I could haue borne it.

13 Neither was it mine aduersarie that did magnifie himselfe against mee: for then (peraduenture) I would haue hid my selfe from him.

14 But it was euen thou my companion: my guide, and mine owne familiar friend.

15 We tooke sweet counsell together: and walked in the house of God as friends.

16 Let death come hastily vpon them, & let them goe downe quicke into hell: for wickednesse is in their dwellings, and among them.

17 As for me, I will call vpon God: and the Lord shall saue me.

18 In the euening and morning, and at noone day will I pray, and that instantly: and he shal heare my voice.

19 It is hee that hath deliuered my soule in peace, from the battell that was against me: for there were many with me.

20 Yea, euen God that endureth for euer, shal heare me, and bring them down: for they wil not turne nor feare God.

21 He laid his hands vpon such as be at peace with him: and he brake his Couenant.

Morning
prayer.

22 The words of his mouth were softer then butter hauing warre in his heart: his words were smoother then oyle, and yet they be very swords.
23 O calt thy burthen vpon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee: and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for euer.
24 And as for them: thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.
25 The bloodthirsty and deceitfull men shall not line out halfe their dayes: neuerthelesse, my trust shall be in thee, O Lord.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. 56.

BE mercifull vnto me, O God, for man goeth about to deuoure me: hee is daily lighting, and troubling me.

2 Mine enemies are daily in hand to swallow me vp: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most highest.

3 Neuerthelesse, though I am sometime afraid: yet put I my trust in thee.

4 I will praise God because of his word: I haue put my trust in God, and will not feare what flesh can doe vnto me.

5 They dayly mistake my words: all that they imagine, is to doe me euill.

6 They hold all together, and keepe themselves close: and marke my steps, when they lay wait for my soule.

7 Shall they escape for their wickednesse: thou (O God) in thy displeasure shalt catch them downe.

8 Thou tellest my sittings, put my teares into thy bottell: are not these things noted in thy booke?

9 Whensoeuer I call vpon thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight: this I know, for God is on my side.

10 In Gods word will I reioyce: in the Lordes word will I comfort me.

11 Yea, in God haue I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can doe vnto me.

12 Vnto thee (O God) will I pay my vowes: vnto thee will I giue thanks.

13 For thou hast deliuered my soule from death: and my feete from falling: that I may walke before God in the light of the liuing.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. 57.

BE mercifull vnto me, O God, be mercifull vnto mee, for my soule trusteth in thee: and vnder the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge vntill this tyranny be ouerpast.

2 I will call vnto the most high God: euen vnto the God that shall performe the cause which I haue in hand.

3 He shall send from heauen: and saue mee from the reproofe of him that would eat me vp.

4 God shall send forth his mercy and trueth: my soules are among Lions.

5 And I lie euen among the children of men (that are set on fire:) whose teeth are speares and arrowes, and their tongue a sharpe sword.

6 Set vp thy selfe, O God, about the heauens: and thy glory about all the earth.

7 They haue laid a net for my feet, and pressed downe my soule: they haue digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the middes of it themselves.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and giue praise.

9 Awake vp my glory, awake Lute and Harp: I my selfe will awake righteasily.

10 I will giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will sing vnto thee among the nations.

11 For the greatnesse of thy mercy reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy trueth vnto the clouds.

12 Set vp thy selfe, O God, about the heauens: and thy glory about all the earth.

Surre, vique. Psal. 58.

ARe your mindes set vpon righteousness, O ye congregation: and doe ye iudge the thing that is right, O ye sonnes of men?

2 Yea, ye imagine mischief in your heart vpon the earth: and your hands deale with wickednesse.

3 The vngodly are froward euen from their mothers wombe: as soone as they be borne, they go astray and speake lyes.

4 They are as venomous as the poison of a serpent: euen like the deafe Adder that stoppeth her eares.

5 Which refuseth to heare the voice of the charmer: charme he neuer so wisely.

6 Breake their teeth (O God) in their monthes, smite the law bones of the Lions, O Lord: let them fall away like water that runneth apace, and when they shoot their arrowes, let them be rooted out.

7 Let them consume away like a snail, and bee like the vntimely fruit of a woman: and let them not see the Sunne.

8 O euer your pots be made hote with thornes: so let indignation vex him, euen as a thing that is raw.

9 The righteous shall reioyce when he seeth the vengeance: hee shall wash his footsteps in the blood of the vngodly.

10 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: doubtlesse there is a God that iudgeth the earth.

Erripe me de inimicis. Psal. 59.

Deliuer me from mine enemies (O God): defend me from them that rise vp against me.

2 O deliuer mee from the wicked doers: and laue me from the bloodthirsty men.

3 For loe, they lie waiting for my soule: the mightie men are gathered against mee, without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They rane and prepare themselves without my fault: arise thou therefore to helpe mee, and be hold.

5 Stand vp (O Lord God of hostes) thou God of Israel, to visite all the heathen: and be not mercifull vnto them that offend of malicious wickednesse.

6 They goe to and fro in the euening: they grin like a dogge, and ronne about thorow the citie.

7 Beholde, they speake with their mouth, and swords are in their lips: for who doth heare?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt haue them in derision, and thou shalt laugh all the heathen to scorne.

9 My strength will I ascribe vnto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.

10 God sheweth mee his goodnesse plenteously: and God shall let me see my deliue vpon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget it: but scatter them abroad among the people: and put them downe, O Lord, our defence.

12 For the sinne of their mouth, and for the words of their lippes, they shall be taken in their pride: and why? their preaching is of cursing and lies.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume them, that they may perish: and know that it is God which ruleth in Iacob, and vnto the ends of the world.

14 And in the euening they will returne: grinning like a dogge, and will goe about the citie.

15 They will runne here and there for meat: and grudge if they be not satisfied.

Evening
prayer.

16 As for me, I will sing of thy power, & will praise thy mercy betimes in the morning: for thou hast bin my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Vnto thee (O my strength) will I sing: for thou, O God, art my refuge, and my mercifull God.

Deus repulisti nos. Psal. 60.

O God, thou hast cast vs out, and scattered vs abroad: thou hast also bene displeased, O turne thee vnto vs againe.

2 Thou hast moued the land, and diuided it: heale the sores thereof, for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people heauy things: thou hast giuen vs a drinke of deadly wine.

4 Thou hast giuen a token for such as feare thee: that they may triumph because of the truth.

5 Therefore were thy beloued deliuered: helpe me with thy right hand, and heare me.

6 God hath spoken in his holinesse, I will reioyce and diuide Sichem: and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head, Iuda is my lawgiuer.

8 Moab is my washpor, ouer Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia be thou glad of me.

9 Who will lead me into the strong Citie: who will bring me into Edom?

10 Hast thou not cast vs out, O God: wilt not thou O God, goe out with our hostes?

11 O be thou our helpe in trouble: for vaine is the helpe of man.

12 Through God shall we doe great acts: for it is he that shall tread downe our enemies.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. 61.

Hear me crying, O God: giue eare vnto my prayer.

2 From the ends of the earth wil I call vnto thee: when my heart is in heauinesse.

3 O set me vp vpon the rock that is higher then I: for thou hast bene my hope, and a strong towre for me against the enemy.

4 I will dwell in thy Tabernacle for euer: and my trust shall be vnder the covering of thy wings.

5 For thou O Lord, hast heard my desires: and hast giue an heritage vnto those that feare thy name.

6 Thou shalt grant the King a long life: that his yeeres may endure throughout all generations.

7 Hee shall dwell before God for euer: O prepare thy louing mercy and faithfulness, that they may preferue him.

8 So will I alwaies sing praise vnto thy Name: that I may dayly performe my vows.

Domine Deo Psal. 62.

My soule truly waiteth still vpon God: for of him cometh my saluation.

2 He verily is my strength and my saluation: hee is my rock, so that I shall not greatly fall.

3 How long wil ye imagine mischief against euery man: yee shall be blaine all the fore of you, yea, as a tottering wall shall ye be, and like a broken hedge.

4 Their device is onely how to put him out whom God will exalt: their delight is in lies, they giue good words with their mouth, but curse with their heart.

5 Neuertheless my soule, wait thou still vpon God: for my hope is in him.

6 Hee truly is my strength and my saluation: hee is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

7 In God is my health and my glory: the rocke of my might, and in God is my trust.

8 O put your trust in him alway (ye people:) poure out your hearts before him, for God is our hope.

9 As for the children of men, they are but vaine: the children of men are deceitfull vpon the weights, they are altogether lighter then vanity it selfe.

10 O trust not in wrong and robbery, giue not your selues vnto vanity: if riches increate, set not your heart vpon them.

11 God spake once and twice: I have also heard the same, that power belongeth vnto God.

12 And that thou Lord art mercifull: for thou rewardest euery man according to his worke.

Deus meus Psal. 63.

O God thou art my God: early will I seeke thee, 2 My soule thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee: in a barren and dry land, where no water is.

3 Thus haue I looked for thee in holinesse: that I might behold thy power and glory.

4 For thy louing kindnesse is better then the life it selfe: my lips shall praise thee.

5 As long as I liue will I magnifie thee on this manner: and lift up my hands in thy Name.

6 My soule shall be satisfied euen as it were with marrow and fatnesse: when my mouth praiseth thee with ioyfull lips.

7 Haue I not remembered thee in my bed: and thought vpon thee when I was waking?

8 Because thou hast bene my helper: therefore vnder the shadow of thy wings will I reioyce.

9 My soule hangeth vpon thee: thy right hand hath vpholden me.

10 These also that seeke the hurt of my soule: they shall goe vnder the earth.

11 Let them fall vpon the edge of the sword: that they may be a portion for foxes.

12 But the King shall reioyce in God, all they also that sweare by him shall be commended: for the mouth of them that speake lies shall be stopp'd.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. 64.

Hear me voyce, O God, in my prayer: preferue my life from feare of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the gathering together of the forward: and from the insurrection of wicked doers.

3 Which haue bent their tongue like a sword: and shont out their arrowes, euen bitter words.

4 That they may pruiely shoot at him which is perfect: suddenly doe they hit him, and feare not.

5 They courage themselves in mischief: and commune among themselves how they may lay snares, and say that no man shall see them.

6 They imagine wickednesse and praise it: that they keepe secret among themselves, euery man in the deepe of his heart.

7 But God shall suddenly shoote at them with a swift arrow: that they shall be wounded.

8 Yea, their owne tongues shall make them fall: in so much that who so seeth them, shall laugh them to scorn.

9 And all men that see it shall say, This hath God done: for they shall perceiue that it is his worke.

10 The righteous shall reioice in the Lord, and put his trust in him: and all they that are true of heart shall be glad.

Tedeest hymnus. Psal. 65.

Thou O God, art praised in Sion: and vnto thee shall the voice be performed in Hierusalem.

2 Thou that hearest the prayer: vnto thee shall all flesh come.

3 My misdeeds preuaile against me: O be thou mercifull vnto our sinnes.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou chooseth, & receivest vnto thee: he shall dwell in thy Court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, euen of thy holy Temple.

5 Thou shalt shew vs wonderfull things in thy righteousnesse, O God of our saluation: thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remaine in the broad Sea.

6 Which in his strength setteth fast the mountaynes: and is girded about with power.

7 Which stilleth the raging of the Sea: and the noise of his waves, and the madnesse of his people,

8 They also that dwell in the vntremost parte of the earth, shall be afraid at thy tokens: thou that makest the outgoings of the Morning and Evening to praise thee,

9 Thou visitest the earth, and blestest it: thou makest it very plenteous.

10 The river of God is full of water: thou preparest their corne, for so thou providest for the earth, 11 Thou waterest their furrowes, thou sendest raine into the little valleys therof: thou makest it soft with the drops of raine, and blestest the increase thereof.

12 Thou crownest the yeele with thy goodnesse: and thy clouds drop fatnesse.

13 They shall droppe vpon the dwellings of the wilderness: and the little hilles shall reioyce on euery side.

14 The folds shall bee full of sheepe: the valleys shall stand so thicke with corne, that they shall laugh and sing.

Tribulate Deo. Psal. 66.

O Be ioyfull in God all ye Lands: sing praises vnto the honor of his Name, make his praise to be glorious.

2 Say vnto God, O how wonderfull art thou in thy workes: through the greatnesse of thy power shall thine enemies be found liars vnto thee.

3 For all the world shall worship thee: sing of thee, and praise thy Name.

4 O come hither, and behold the workes of God: how wonderfull hee is in his doing toward the children of men.

5 Hee turned the Sea into dry land: so that they went through the water on foot, there did we reioyce whereof.

6 Hee ruleth with his power for euer, his eyes behold the people: and such as will not beleue, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

7 O praise our God (ye people:) and make the voyce of his praise to be heard.

8 Which holdeth our soule in life: and suffereth not our feet to slip.

9 For thou (O God) hast proued vs: thou also hast tryed vs, like as siluer is tryed.

10 Thou broughtest vs into the snare: and laydest trouble vpon our loynes.

11 Thou sufferdest men to ride ouer our heads: we went through fire and water, and thou broughtest vs out into a wealthy place.

12 I wil goe into thy house with burnt offerings: and will pay thee my vowes which I promised with my lippes, and spake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

13 I will offer vnto thee fat burnt sacrifices, with the incense of Rammes: I will offer bullockes and goates.

14 O come hither & hearken, all ye that feare God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my soule.

15 I called vnto him with my mouth: and gaue him praises with my tongue.

16 If I incline vnto wickednesse with mine heart: the Lord will not heare me.

17 But God hath heard mee: and considered the voyce of my prayer.

18 Praised be God, which hath not cast out my prayer: not turned his mercy from me.

Deus miseratur. Psal. 67.

God be mercifull vnto vs, and blese vs: and shew vs the light of his countenance, and be mercifull vnto vs.

2 That thy way may be knownen vpon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations reioyce and be glad: for thou shalt iudge the folk righteously, and gouerne the nations vpon earth.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: & God, euen our own God shall giue vs his blessing.

7 God shall blese vs: and all the ends of the world shall feare him.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. 68.

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him, flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drie them away: and like as waxe melteth at the fire, so let the vngodly perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad and reioyce before God: let them also be merrie and ioyfull.

4 O sing vnto God, and sing praises vnto his Name: magnifie him that rideth vpon the heauens as it were vpon an horse, praise him in his Name, yea, and reioyce before him.

5 Hee is a father of the fatherlesse, and defendeth the cause of the widowes: euen God in his holy habitation.

6 Hee is the God that maketh men to bee of one minde in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captiuitie: but letteth the runnagates continue in scarcenesse.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people, when thou wentest through the wilderness.

8 The earth shooke, and the heauens dropped at the presence of God: euen as Sinai also was mooued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious raine vpon thine inheritance: and refreshedst it when it was wearie.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodnesse prepared for the poore.

11 The Lord gaue the word: great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited: and they of the house hold diuided the spoile.

13 Though ye haue lien among the pots, yet shall ye beas the wings of a Dove: that is couered with siluer wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings for their sake: then were they as white as snow in Salmon.

15 As the hill of Basan, so is Gods hill: euen an high hill, as the hill of Basan.

16 Why hop ye so ye high hills? this is Gods hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell: yea, the Lord will abide in it for euer.

17 The chariots of God are twentie thousand, euen thousands of Angels: and the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone vp on high, thou hast led captiuitie captiue, and receiued gifts for men: yea, euen for thy enemies, that the Lord God may dwell among them.

19 Praised be the Lord daily: euen the God which helpeth vs, and poweth his benefits vpon vs.

20 He is our God, euen y God of whom cometh saluation: God is the Lord by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies: and the hairy scalpe of such a one as goeth on still in his wickednesse.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people againe as I did from Babel: mine owne will I bring againe, as I did sometime from the deepe of the Sea.

23 that thy foote may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.

24 It is well then, O God, how thou goest: how thou my God and King goest in the Sanctuary.

25 The fingers go before, the minstrels follow after: in the midst are the Damocels playing with the timbrels.

26 Giue thanks, O Israel, vnto God the Lord in the congregations: from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the Princes of Iuda their counsell: the Princes of Zabulon, and the Princes of Nephthali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in vs.

29 For thy Temples sake at Ierusalem: so shall Kings bring presents vnto thee.

30 When the company of the spearmen, & multitude of the mighty, are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people: (so that they humbly bring pieces of silver) and when hee hath scattered the people that delight in warre.

31 Then shall princes come out of Egypt: the Mo-rians land shall soon stretch out her hands vnto God.

32 Sing vnto God, O ye kingdomes of the earth: Ofing praises vnto the Lord.

33 Which sitteth in the heauens ouer all from the beginning: loe, he doeth send out his voyce, yea, and that a mighty voyce.

34 Ascribe ye the power to God ouer Israel: his worship and strength is in the cloudes.

35 O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, he will giue strength & power vnto his people, blessed be God.

Salomon ms. far. Psal. 69.

SAue me, O God: for the waters are come in, euen vnto my soule.

2 I sticke fast in the deepe myre where no ground is: I am come into deepe waters, so that the floods runne ouer me.

3 I am weary of crying, my throat is dry: my sight faileth me for waiting so long vpon my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause, are moe then the haire of my head: they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guiltlesse, are mighty.

5 I payed them the things that I neuer tooke: God thou knowest my simplicitie, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee, be confounded through me. O Lord God of Israel.

7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.

8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an aliaut vnto my mothers children.

9 For the zeale of thy house hath euen eaten me: & the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fall vpon me.

10 I wept and chastened my selfe with fasting: and that was turned to my reproofe.

11 I put on sackcloth also: & they iested vpon me.

12 They that sit in the gate speake against me: and the drunkards make songs vpon me.

13 But Lord, I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable time.

14 Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercie: euen in the truth of thy saluation.

15 Take me out of the myre that I sinke not: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe waters.

16 Let not the water flood drowne me, neither let the deepe swallow me vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.

17 Heare mee, O Lord, for thy lowing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto mee, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, and heare me.

19 Draw nigh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast known my reproofe, my shame and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heauines: I looked for some to haue pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gaue me gall to eate: and when I was thirsty, they gaue me vinegar to drinke.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal: & let the things (that should haue bin for their wealth) be vnto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they see not: and euer bow downe their backs.

25 Powre out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be void: and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they take how they may vex him whom thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickednesse to another: and not come into thy right ouerlesse.

29 Let them be wiped out of the booke of the liuing: and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poore and in heauinesse: thy helpe (O God) shall lift me vp.

31 I will praise the Name of God with a song: and magnifie it with thanksgiving.

32 This also shall please the Lord: better then a bullocke that hath hornes and hooves.

33 The humble shall consider this and be glad: seeke ye after God, and your soules shall liue.

34 For the Lord heareth the poore: and despiseth not his prisoners.

35 Let heauen and earth praise him: the Sea, and all that moueth therein.

36 For God will saue Sion, and build the cities of Iuda that men may dwell there, & haue it in possession.

37 The posterity also of his seruants shall inherit it: and they that loue his Name shall dwell therein.

Deus in adiutorium. Psal. 70.

HAste thee, O God, to deliuer me: make haste to helpe me, O Lord.

2 Let them bee ashamed and confounded, that seeke after my soule: let them bee turned backward and put to confusion that wish me ill.

3 Let them (for their reward) bee soone brought to shame: that crie ouer me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seeke thee, be ioyfull and glad in thee: and let all such as delight in thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

5 As for me, I am poore and in misery: haste thee vnto me, (O God.)

6 Thou art my helper and my redeemer: O Lord make no long tarying.

In te Domine speravi. Psal. 71.

In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me neuer be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliuer me in thy righteousness, encline thine eare vnto me, and saue me.

2 Be thou my strong hold, wherunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

3 Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand of the vngodly: out of the hand of y^e vnrighteous & cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope euen from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I been holden vp euer since I was borne: thou art he that took me out of my mothers wombe, my praise shall be alway of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: (that I may sing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

8 Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

9 For mine enemies speake against me, and they that lay wait for my soule, take their counsell together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliuer him.

10 Goe not farre from me, O God: my God haste thee to helpe me.

11 Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soule: let them be couered with shame and dishonour, that seeke to doe me euill.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praye thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall dayly speake of thy righteousness and saluation: for I know no end thereof.

14 I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness only.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me, from my youth vp vntill now: therefore will I tel of thy wondrous works.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: vntill I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousness, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

18 O what great troubles and aduersities hast thou shewed me, & yet didst thou warne and refresh me: yea, and broughtest me from the deepe of the earth again.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honor: & comforted me on euery side.

20 Therefore will I praye thee and thy faithfulness (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musike: vnto thee will I sing vpon the harpe, O thou holy One of Israel.

21 My lips will be faine when I sing vnto thee: and so will my soule whom thou hast deliuered.

22 My tongue also shall talke of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded & brought vnto shame that seeke to doe me euill.

Deus iudicium Psal. 72.

Give the King thy iudgements (O God:) and thy righteousness vnto the Kings sonne.

2 Then shall he iudge the people according vnto right: and defend the poore.

3 The mountaines also shall bring peace: and the little hills righteousness vnto the people.

4 He shall keepe the simple folke by their right: defend children of the poore, & punish the wrong doer.

5 They shall feare thee as long as the Sunne and Moone endureth: from one generation to another.

6 He shall come downe like the raine into a fleece of woll: euen as the drops that water the earth.

7 In his time shall the righteous flourish: yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the Moone endureth.

8 His dominion shall bee also from the one Sea to the other: and from the flood vnto the worlds end.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall kneele before him: his enemies shall like the dust.

10 The kings of Tharsis & of the yles shall give presents: the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

11 All kings shall fall downe before him: all nations shall doe him seruice.

12 For he shall deliuer the poore when he crieth: the needy also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall be sauourable to the simple and needy: and shall preserve the soules of the poore.

14 He shall deliuer their soule from falsehood and wrong: and deare shall their blood be in his sight.

15 He shall lue, and vnto him shall be euen of the gold of Arabia: prayer shall be made euer vnto him, and dayly shall he be praised.

16 There shall bee an heape of corne in the earth high vpon the hills: his fruit shall shake like Libanus, & shall be green in the city, like grass vpon the earth.

17 His Name shall endure for euer, his Name shall remaine vnder the Sun among the posterities: which shall be blessed through him, and all the heathen shall praise him.

18 Blessed be the Lord God, euen the God of Israel: which onely doth wondrous things.

19 And blessed bee the Name of his Maiestie for euer: and all the earth shall be filled with his Maiestie. Amen. Amen.

Quam bonus Israel Psal. 73.

Truly God is louing vnto Israel: euen vnto such as are of a cleane heart.

2 Neuertheles my feete were almost gone: my treadings had welnigh slip.

3 And why? I was grieued at the wicked: I doe also see the vngodly in such prosperity.

4 For they are in no perill of death: but are lusty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folke: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they bee so holden with pride: and ouerwhelmed with cruelty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they doe euen what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speake of wicked blasphemy: their talking is against the most highest.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth vnto heaven: and their tongue goeth through the world.

10 Therefore fall the people vnto them: and therefore sucke they no small aduantage.

11 Tush (say they) how should God perceiue it: is there knowledge in the most highest?

12 Lo, these are the vngodly, these prosper in the world, and these haue riches in possession: and I said, Then haue I cleansed my heart in vaine, and washed mine hands in innocencie.

13 All the day long haue I been punished: and chastened euery morning.

14 Yea, and I had also said: men as they: but lo, then should I haue condemned the generation of thy children.

15 Then thought I to vnderstand this: but it was too hard for me.

16 Vntill I went into the Sanctuary of God: then vnderstood I the end of these men.

17 Namely, how thou dost let them in slippery places: and castest them downe, and destroyest them.

18 Oh, how suddenly do they consume: perish, and come to a fearefull end?

19 Yea, euen like as a dream while one awaketh: so shalt thou make their imageto vanish out of the city.
 20 Thus my heart was grieved: and it went euen through my reins.
 21 So foolishly was I and ignorant: euen as it were a beast before thee.
 22 Neuertheless I am alwayes by thee: for thou hast holden me by my right hand.
 23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsell: and after that receiue me with glory.
 24 Whom haue I in heauen but thee: and there is none vpon earth that I desire in coparison of thee.
 25 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for euer.
 26 For lo, they y^e fortake thee that perish: thou hast destroyed all the that count fornication against thee.
 27 But it is good for me to hold me fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speake of all thy works (in the gates of the daughter of Sion.)

Vt quid Deus. Psal. 74.

O God wherefore art thou absent from vs so long: why is thy wrath so hot against the sheepe of thy pasture?

2 O thinke vpon thy Congregation: whom thou hast purchased and redeemed of old.

3 Thinke vpon the tribe of thine inheritance: and mount Sion wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift vp thy feete, that thou mayest vtterly destroy euery enemy: which hath done euill in thy Sanctuary.

5 Thine aduersaries roare in the midst of thy congregations: and set vp their banners for tokens.

6 Hee that hewed timber afore out of the thicke trees: was known to bring it to an excellent worke.

7 But now they breake downe all the carved worke thereof: with axes and hammers.

8 They haue set fire vpon thy holy places: and haue defiled the dwelling place of thy Name, euen vnto the ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let vs make haucke of them altogether: thus haue they burnt vp all the houses of God in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one Prophet more: no not one is there among vs that vnderstandeth any more.

11 O God, how long shall the aduersary doe this dishonour: how long shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name for euer?

12 Why withdrawest thou thy hand: why pluckest thou thy right hand out of thy bosome to consume the enemy?

13 For God is my King of old: the helpe that is done vpon earth he doth it himselfe.

14 Thou didst diuide the sea through thy power: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

15 Thou smotest the heads of Leviathan in pieces: and gauest him to be meate for the people in the wilderness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains, and waters out of the hard rocks: thou driedst vp mighty waters.

17 The day is thine, and the night is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the Sunne.

18 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made Summer and Winter.

19 Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy hath rebuked: and how the foolish people haue blasphemed thy Name.

20 O deliuer nor the soule of the Turtle doue vnto the multitude of the enemies: and forget not the congregation of the poore for euer.

21 Look vpon the Covenant: for all the earth is full of darkenesse, and cruell habitations.

22 Oh let not the simple goe away ashamed: but let the poore and needy giue praise vnto thy Name.

23 Arise, O God, maintaine thine owne cause: remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily.

24 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the presumption of them that hate thee, increaseth euer more and more.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. 75.

Vnto thee (O God) doe we giue thanks: yea, vnto thee doe we giue thanks.

2 Thy Name also is to high: and that doe thy wonderous workes declare.

3 When I receiue the Congregation: I shall iudge according vnto right.

4 The earth is awake, and all the inhabitants thereof: I beare vp the pillars of it.

5 I said vnto the fooles, Deale not so madly: and to the vngodly set not vp your horne.

6 Set not vp your horne on high: and speake not with a stifte necke.

7 For promotion cometh neither from the East nor from the West: nor yet from the South.

8 And why? God is the Iudge: he putteth down one, and setteth vp another.

9 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full mixt, and he powreth out of the same.

10 As for the dregs thereof: all the vngodly of the earth shall drinke them and sucke them out.

11 But I will talke of the God of Jacob: and praise him for euer.

12 All the horns of the vngodly also will I breake: and the hornes of the righteous shall be exalted.

Notum in iudea. Psal. 76.

In Iury is God knowne: his Name is great in Israel.

2 At Salem is his Tabernacle: and his dwelling in Sion.

3 There brake hee the arrowes of the bowe: the shield, the sword, and the battell.

4 Thou art of more honour and might: then the hills of the rockes.

5 The proud are robbed, they haue slept their sleep: and all the men (whose handes were mighty) haue found nothing.

6 Arth rebuke (O God of Jacob) both the charret and horse are fallen.

7 Thou, euen thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when thou art angry?

8 Thou didst cause thy iudgements to bee heard from heauen: the earth trembled and was still.

9 When God arose to iudgement: and to helpe all the mecke vpon earth.

10 The fiercenesse of man shall turne to thy praise: and the fiercenesse of them shalt thou reframe.

11 Promise vnto the Lord your God, and keepe it al ye that be round about him: bring presents vnto him that ought to be feared.

12 Hee shall reframe the spirit of princes: and is wondrous full among the Kings of the earth.

Vox mea ad Dominum. Psal. 77.

I will crie vnto God with my voice: euen vnto God I will crie with my voice, and he shall hearken vnto mee.

2 In the time of my trouble I sought the Lord: my fore ran, and ceased not, in the night season my soule refused comfort.

3 When I am in heauinesse, I will thinke vpon God: when my heart is vexed I will complaine.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am feeble feeble that I cannot speake.

Morning prayer.

5 I haue considered the dayes of old: and the yeres that are past.

6 I call to remembrance my song: & in the night I commune with mine owne heart, and teach out my spirits.

7 Will the Lord absent himselfe for euer: and will he be no more intreated?

8 Is his mercie cleane gone for euer: and is his promise come vnto to an end for euer more?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he thut vp his louing kindnesse in displeasure?

10 And I said, It is mine owne inimicitie: but I will remember the yeres of the right hand of the most High: ft

11 I will remember the workes of the Lord: and call to mind thy wonders of old time.

12 I will thinke also of all thy workes: and my talking shall be of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God is holy: who is so great a God (as our God)?

14 Thou art the God that doth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people.

15 Thou hast mightily deliuered thy people: euen the tonnes of Iacob and Ioseph.

16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters sawe thee, and were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 The clouds powred out water, the ayre thundered: and thine arrowes went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was heard round about: the lightnings shone vpon the ground, the earth was moued and shooke withall.

19 Thy way is in the Sea, & thy paths in the great waters: and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like sheepe: by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Attendite popule. Psal. 78.

HEARE my Lawe, O my people: incline your eares vnto the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of old.

3 Which we haue heard and known: and such as our fathers haue told vs.

4 That wee should not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but to shew the honor of the Lord, his mighty and wonderfull workes that he hath done.

5 Hee made a couenant with Iacob, and gaue Israel a Law: which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children.

6 That their posterity may knowe it: and the children which were yet vnborne.

7 To the intent that when they came vp: they might shew their children the same.

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the workes of God, but to keepe his commandments.

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithlesse and stubborne generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaueth not steadfastly vnto God.

10 Like as the children of Ephraim which being harnessed and carying bowes, turned themselves backe in the day of battell.

11 They kept not the Couenant of God: and would not walke in his Law.

12 But forgate what he had done: and the wonderfull workes that he had shewed for them.

13 Marueilous things did he in the sight of our forefathers in the land of Egypt: euen in the land of Zoan.

14 He diuided the Sea, and let them goe through:

he made the waters to stand on an heape,

15 In the day time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night through with a light of fire.

16 He claue the hard rocks in the wilderness: and gaue them drinke thereof, as it had been out of the great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the stony rocke: so that it gushed out like the riuers.

18 Yet for all this they sinned more against him: and prouoked the most high in the wilderness.

19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meate for their lust.

20 They spake against God also, saying: Shall God prepare a cable in the wilderness?

21 He smote the stony rocke indeed, that the water gushed out, and the streames flowed withall: but can he giue bread also, or prouide flesh for his people?

22 When the Lord heard this, hee was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Iacob, and there came vp heated displeasure against Israel.

23 Because they beleueed not in God: and put not their trust in his helpe.

24 So he commanded the cloudes aboue, and opened the doores of heauen.

25 He rained downe Manna also vpon them for to eate: and gaue them foode from heauen.

26 So man did eate Angels food: for he sent them meate enough.

27 Hee caused the East wind to blow vnder heauen: and through his power hee brought in the South west wind.

28 Hee rained flesh vpon them as thicke as dust: and feathered foules like as the fawnd of the sea.

29 He let it fall among their tents: euen round about their habitation.

30 So they did eate and were well filled, for hee gaue them their owne desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

31 But whilest the meat was yet in their mouthes, the heauy wrath of God came vpon them, and slew the weakst of them: yea, and smote downe the chofen men that were in Israel.

32 But for all this they sinned yet more: and beleueed not his wonderous workes.

33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in vanity: and their yeres in trouble.

34 When he slew them, they sought him: and turned them early, and enquired after God.

35 And they remembered that God was their strength: and that the high God was their redeemer.

36 Neuertheles, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue.

37 For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they stedfast in his Couenant.

38 But hee was so mercifull, that hee forgave their mildeedes: and destroyed them not.

39 Yea, many a time turned hee his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.

40 For he considered that they were but flesh: and that they were euen a wind that passeth away, and cometh not againe.

41 Many a time did they prouoke him in the wilderness: and grieved him in the desert.

42 They turned backe, & tempted God: and moued the holy one in Israel.

43 They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he deliuered them from the hand of the enemy.

44 How hee had wrought his miracles in Egypt: and his wonders in the field of Zoan.

45 He turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drinke of the riuers.

46 Hee sent lice among them, and deuoured them vp: and frogs to destroy them.

47 He gaue their fruit vnto the Caterpillar: and their labour vnto the grasshopper.

48 Hee destroyed their vines with hailestones: and their mulberry trees with frost.

49 He smote their cattell also with hailestones: and their flockes with hot thunde-bolts.

50 He call vpon them the vniuersities of his wrath, anger, displeasure and trouble: and sent euill angels among them.

51 He made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soules from death: but gaue their life ouer to the pestilence.

52 And smote all the first borne in Egypt: the most principall and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.

53 But as for his owne people, he led them forth like sheepe: and caried them in the wilderness like a flocke.

54 He brought them out safely that they should not feare: and ouerwhelmed their enemies with the sea.

55 And brought them within the borders of his Sanctuary: euen to his mountaine which he purchased with his right hand.

56 He callt out the heathen also before the: scaued their land to be diuided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

57 So they tempted and displeaced the most High God: and kept not his testimonies.

58 But turned their backs, and fell away like their forefathers: starting aside like a broken bow.

59 For they grieved him with their hill altars: and prouoked him to displeasure with their images.

60 When God heard this, he was wroth: & tooke sore displeasure at Israel.

61 So that he forsooke the tabernacle in Silo: euen the tent that he had pitched among them.

62 He deliuered their power into captivity: and their beauty into the enemies hand.

63 He gaue his people ouer also vnto the sword: and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their yong men: and their maidens were not giuen to marriage.

65 Their Priests were slaine with the sword: and there were no widows to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord awaked as one out of sleepe: and like a giant refreshed with wine.

67 He smote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetual shame.

68 He refused the tabernacle of Ioseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.

69 But chose the tribe of Iuda: euen the hill of Zion, which he loued.

70 And there he builded his Temple on high: and laid the foundation of it like the ground which hee hath made continually.

71 Hee chose Dauid also his seruant: and tooke him away from the shepfold.

72 As he was following the Ewes great with yong ones, he tooke him: that he might feed Iacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

73 So he fed them with a faithfull and true heart: and ruled them with prudence with all his power.

Deus uenerunt. Psal. 79.

O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance: thy holy Temple haue they desired, and made Hierusalem an heape of stones.

2 The dead bodies of thy seruants haue they giuen to be meate vnto the foules of the ayre: and the flesh of thy Saints vnto the beasts of the land.

3 Their blood haue they shed like water on euery side of Hierusalem: & there was no man to bury them.

4 We are become an open shame to our enemies: a very scorne and derision vnto them that are round about vs.

5 Lord how long wilt thou be angry: shal thy iellousie burne like fire for ever?

6 Powre out thine indignation vpon the heathen that haue not known thee: and vpon the kingdons that haue not called vpon thy Name.

7 For they haue deuoured Iacob: and layd waste his dwelling place.

8 O remember not our old finnes, but haue mercy vpon vs, & that soon for we are come to great misery.

9 Helpe vs, O God of our saluation, for the glory of thy Name: O deliuer vs, and be mercifull vnto our enemies for thy Names sake.

10 Wherefore doe the heathen say: Where is now their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy seruants blood that is shed: be openly shewed vpon the heathen in our sight.

12 O let the sorrowfull sighing of the prisoners come before thee: according to the greatness of thy power, preserve thou those that are appointed to die.

13 And for the blasphemie wherewith our neighbours haue blasphemed thee: reward thou them, (O Lord) seven fold into their bosome.

14 So we that be thy people & sheep of thy pasture, shal giue thee thanks for ever: & wil alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation.

Queregu Israel. Psal. 80.

Hear O thou shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Ioseph like a sheepe: shew thy selfe also thou that sittest vpon the Cherubims.

2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasses: stirre vp thy strength, and come and helpe vs.

3 Turne vs againe, O God: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

4 O Lord God of hostes: how long wilt thou be angry with thy people that praye?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of teares, and giurst them plenteousnesse of teares to drinke.

6 Thou hast made vs a very strife vnto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh vs to scorne.

7 Turne vs againe thou God of hostes: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou madest fountaine for it: when it had taken route, it filled the land.

10 The hills were couered with the shadow of it: & the boughs thereof were like goodly Cedar trees.

11 She stretched out her branches vnto the sea: and her boughes vnto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges: that all they that goe by plucke off her branches?

13 The wild Bore out of the wood doth reote it vp: and the wild beasts of the field deuoure it.

14 Turne thee againe thou God of hostes, looke downe from heauen: behold, and visiethis vine.

15 And the place of the vineyard that thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest so strong for thy selfe.

16 It is burnt with fire, and cut downe: and they shal perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand bee vpon the man of thy right hand: and vpon the sonne of man whom thou madest so strong for thine owne selfe.

18 And so will not we go backe from thee: O let vs liue, and we shall call vpon thy Name.

19 Turne vs againe, O Lord God of hostes: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Exultate

Exultate Deo. Psal. 81.

Sing wee merrily vnto God our strength: make a cheerefull noyle vnto the God of Iacob.

2 Take the Psalme, bring thither the Tabret: the merrie Harpe with the Lute,

3 Blow vp the trumpet in the new Moone: euen in the time appointed, & vpon our solemne feast day.

4 For this was made a statute for Israel: and a law of the God of Iacob,

5 This hee ordained in Ioseph for a testimonie: when he came out of the land of Egypt, & had heard a strange language,

6 I eased his shoulder from the burthen: and his hands were deliuered from making of the pots,

7 Thou calledst vpon me in troubles, and I deliuered thee: and heard thee what time as the storme fell vpon thee.

8 I prouoed thee also: arthe waters of strife.

9 Heare, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel: if thou wilt hearken vnto me,

10 There shall no strange god be in thee: neither shalt thou worship any other god.

11 I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.

12 But my people would not heare my voyce: and Israel would not obeye me.

13 So I gaue them vp vnto their own hearts lust: and let them follow their owne imaginations,

14 O that my people would haue hearkened vnto me: for if Israel had walked in my wayes, 15 I should soone haue put downe their enemies: and turned my hand against their aduertaries.

16 The haers of the Lord should haue been found lyars: but their time should haue endured for euer.

17 Hee should haue led them also with the finest wheate floure: and with hony out of the stony rocke should I haue satisfied thee.

Deus Iteis. Psal. 81.

God standeth in the congregation of princes: he is a iudge amongst gods.

2 How long will yee giue wrong iudgement: and accept the persons of the vngodly?

3 Defend the poore and fatherlesse: see that such as be in need and needfull, haue right.

4 Deliuer the outcast and poore: saue them from the hand of the vngodly.

5 They will not be learned, nor vnderstand, but walke on still in darkenesse: all the foundations of the earth be out of course.

6 I haue said, Ye are gods: and ye all are children of the most Highest.

7 Buteye shall die like men: and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, and iudge thou the earth: for thou shalt take all heauen: to thine inheritance.

Deus qui similes. Psal. 83.

Hold nor thy tongue, O God, keepe not still silence: refrainenot thy selfe, O God,

2 For loe, thine enemies make a murmuring: and they that hate thee, haue lift vp their head.

3 They haue imagined craftily against thy people: and taken counsell against thy secret ones.

4 They haue sayd, Come, and let vs rootethem out: that they be no more a people: and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they haue cast their heads together with one consent: and are confederate against thee.

6 The tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Ismaelites: the Moabites and Hagarenes.

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalech: the Philistines, with them: that dwell at Tyre,

8 Affur also is ioyned vnto them: and haue holpen the children of Lot,

9 But doe thou to them as vnto the Madianites: vnto Sifera, and vnto Iabin, at the brooke of Kilton,

10 Which perished at Endor, and became as the dung of the earth.

11 Make them & their Princes like Oreb and Zeb: yea, make all their Princes like as Zeba & Salmama,

12 Which say, Let vs take to our selues the houses of God in possession,

13 O my God, make them like vnto a wheele: and as the stubble before the winde,

14 Like as the fire that burneth vp the wood: and as the flame that consumeth the mountaines.

15 Persecute them euen so with thy tempest: and make them afraid with thy storme.

16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord: that they may seeke thy Name, 17 Let them be confounded and vexed euer more and more: let them be put to shame and perish.

18 And they shall know that thou (whose name is Iehouah:) art only the most highest ouer all earth.

Quam dilectus. Psal. 84.

O How amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hostes?

2 My soule hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh reioyce in the liuing God,

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her yong: euen thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy wayes.

6 Which going through the vale of misery, vie it for a well: and the pooles are filled with water.

7 They will go from strength to strength: & vnto the God of gods appeareth euerie one of the in Sion.

8 O Lord God of hosts, heare my prayer: hearken O God of Iacob.

9 Behold, O God, our defender: and looke vpon the face of thine Anointed.

10 For one day in thy courts: is better then a thousand.

11 I had rather be a doore keeper in the house of my God: then to dwell in the tents of vngodlinesse.

12 For the Lord God is a light and defence: the Lord wil giue grace and worship, and no good thing shall be withhold from them that lue a godly life.

13 O Lord God of hostes: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Benedixisti Domine. Psal. 85.

Lord, thou art become gracious vnto thy land: thou hast turned away the capitiuity of Iacob,

2 Thou hast forgotten the offence of thy people: and couered all their sinnes.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: and turned thy selfe from thy wrathfull indignation.

4 Turne vs then, O God our Saviour: and let thine anger cease from vs.

5 Wilt thou be displeased at vs for euer: and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turne againe and quicken vs: that thy people may reioyce in thee?

7 Shew vs thy mercy, O Lord: and grant vs thy saluation.

8 I wil hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me: for he shall speake peace vnto his people, and to his Saints that they turne not againe.

9 For his saluation is nigh them that feare him: that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousness and peace haue kissed each other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth: and righteousness shall looked downe from heauen.

12 Yea, the Lord shall shew louing kindnesse: and our land shall giue her increase.

13 Righteousnesse shall goe before him: and he shall direct his going in the way.

Isaiah Dominus. Psal. 86.

Bow downe thine eare, O Lord, and heare mee: for I am poore and in misery.

2 Preseue thou my soule, for I am holy: my God, saue thy seruant, that putteth his trust in thee.

3 Be mercifull vnto mee, O Lord: for I will call dayly vpon thee.

4 Comfort the soule of thy seruant: for vnto thee (O Lord) doe I lift vp my soule.

5 For thou, Lord, art good and gracious: and of great mercie vnto them that call vpon thee.

6 Giue eare Lord vnto my prayer: & ponde the voyce of my humble desires.

7 In the time of my trouble I will call vpon thee: for thou hearest me.

8 Among the gods there is none like vnto thee (O Lord:) there is not one that can doe as thou doest.

9 All nations who thou hast made, shall come and worship thee, O Lord: and shall glorifie thy Name.

10 For thou art great, & doest wonderous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walke in thy truth: O knit my heart vnto thee, that I may feare thy Name.

12 I will thanke thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and will praile thy Name for euermore.

13 For great is thy mercie toward me: and thou hast deliuered my soule from the nethermost hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me: and the congregations of naughty men haue fought after: my soule, and haue not let thee before their eyes.

15 But thou (O Lord God) art full of compassion & mercy: long suffering, plenteous in goodness & trueth.

16 Ourne thee then vnto me, and haue mercy vpon me: giue thy strength vnto thy seruant, and help the sonne of thine handmaid.

17 Shew some good:oken vpon me for good, that they which hate me may see it: and be ashamed, because thou Lord hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Fundamenta eius. Psal. 87.

Her foundations are vpon the holy hills: the Lord loveth the gates of Sion, more then all the dwellings of Iacob.

2 Very excellent things are spoken of thee: thou Citie of God.

3 I will thinke vpon Rahab and Babylon: with them that know me.

4 Behold ye the Philistines also: & they of Tyre, with the Morians, for there was he borne.

5 And of Sion it shall be reported, that hee was borne in her: and the most high shall establish her.

6 The Lord shall rehearse it: when he writeth vp the people that he was borne there.

7 The singers also and trumpeters shall hee rehearse: all my fresh springs shall be in thee.

Dominus Deus. Psal. 88.

O Lord God of my saluation, I haue cried day and night before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy presence, encline thine eare vnto my calling.

2 For my soule is full of trouble: and my life draweth nigh vnto hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that goe downe into the pit: and I haue veene euen as a man that hath no strength.

4 Free among the dead, like vnto them that be wounded and lie in the graue: which bee out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

5 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit: in a place of darkenesse, and in the deepe.

6 Thine indignation lieth hard vpon me: and thou hast vexed me with all thy stormes.

7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance farre from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.

8 I am lo fall in prison: that I cannot get forth.

9 My sight faileth for very trouble: Lord, I haue called dayly vpon thee, I haue stretched out mine hands vnto thee.

10 Doest thou shew wonders among the dead: or shall the dead rise vp againe and praile thee?

11 Shall thy louing kindnesse bee shewed in the graue: or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wonderous workes be known in the darke: and thy righteousness in the land where all things are forgotten?

13 Vnto thee haue I cried, O Lord: and early shall my prayer come before thee.

14 Lord, why abhorrest thou my soule: and hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am in misery, and like vnto him that is at the point to die: (euen from my youth vp): thy terrors haue I suffered with a troubled minde.

16 Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth ouer me: and the feare of thee hath vndone me.

17 They came round about me: dayly like waters: and compassed me together on euery side.

18 My louers and friends hast thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

Miserere Domini. Psal. 89.

MY long shall be alway of the louing kindness of the Lord: with my mouth will I euer be shewing thy truth, from one generation to another.

2 For I haue said, Mercy shall be set vp for euer: thy truth shall thou establish in the heauens.

3 I haue made a covenent with my chosen: I haue sworn vnto David my seruant.

4 Thy seed will I establish for euer: and set vp thy throne from one generation to another.

5 O Lord, the very heauens shall praise thy wonderous workes: and thy truth in the Congregation of the Saints.

6 For who is he among the cloudes: that shall be compared vnto the Lord?

7 And what is hee among the gods: that shall be like vnto the Lord?

8 God is very greatly to be feared in the counsell of the Saints: and to be had in reuerence of all them that are about him.

9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like vnto thee: thy truth (most mightie Lord) is on euery side.

10 Thou wast the raging of the Sea: thou stillest the waues thereof when they arise.

11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it: thou hast scattered thine enemies abroad with thy mighty arme.

12 The heauens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast laid the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is.

13 Thou hast made the North and the South: Tabor and Hermon shall reioyce in thy Name.

14 Thou hast a mightie arme: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

15 Righteousnes and equity is the habitation of thy grace: mercy and truth shall goe before thy face.

16 Blessed is the people (O Lord) that can reioyce in thee: they shall walkein in light of thy countenance.

17 Their delight shall be daily in thy Name: and in thy righteousness shall they make their boast.

18 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy louing kindnes thou shalt lift vp our hornes.

19 For the Lord is our defence: the holy One of Israel is our King.

20 Thou spakest sometimes in visions vnto thy Saints, and saidst: I haue laid helpe vpon one that is mighty, I haue exalted one chosen out of 5 people.

21 I haue found David my seruant: with my holy oyle haue I anointed him.

22 My hand shall hold him fast: and mine arme shall strengthen him.

23 The enemy shall not bee able to doe him violence: the sonne of wickednesse shall not hurt him.

24 I shall smite down his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

25 My truth also and my mercy shall be with him: and in my Name shall his horne be exalted.

26 I will set his dominion also in the sea: and his right hand in the floods.

27 He shall call me. Thou art my Father: my God and my strong saluation.

28 And I will make him my first borne: higher then the kings of the earth.

29 My mercy will I keepe for him for euermore: and my Couenant shall stand fast with him.

30 His seede also will I make to endure for euer: and his throne as the dayes of heauen.

31 But if his children forsake my law: and walke not in my iudgements.

32 If they breake my statutes, and keepe not my Commandements: I will visite their offences with the rod, and their sinne with scourges.

33 Neuertheless, my louing kindnesse will I not utterly take from him: nor suffer my truth to faile.

34 My Couenant will I not breake, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: I haue sworn once by my Holinesse, that I will not faile David.

35 His seed shall endure for euer: and his seate is like as the Sunne before me.

36 He shall stand fast for euermore as the Moone: and as the faithfull witness in heauen.

37 But thou hast abhorred and forsaken thine anointed: and art displeased at him.

38 Thou hast broken the couenant of thy seruant: and cast his crowne to the ground.

39 Thou hast ouerthrowen all his hedges: and broken downe his strong holds.

40 All they that goe by spoyle him: and he is become a rebuke to his neighbours.

41 Thou hast let vp the right hand of his enemies: and made all his aduersaries to reioyce.

42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his sword: and giuest him not victory in the battell.

43 Thou hast put out his glory: and cast his throne downe to the ground.

44 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortened: and covered him with dishonour.

45 Lord, how long wilt thou hide thy selfe, for euer: and shall thy wrath burne like fire?

46 O remember how short my times: wherefore hast thou made all men for nought?

47 What man is he that liueth, & shall not see death: and shall he deliuer his soule from the hand of hell?

48 Lord, where are thy old louing kindneses: which thou wast vnto David in thy truth.

49 Remember (Lord) the rebuke that thy seruants haue: & how I doe beare in my bosome the rebukes of many people.

50 Wherewith thine enemies haue blasphemed thee, and slandered the footsteps of thine anointed: praised be the Lord for euermore. Amen, Amen.

Domine refugium Psal 90.

Lord, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountaines were brought forth, or euer the earth and the world were made: thou art God from euerlasting and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction: againe thou sayest, Come againe ye children of men.

4 For a thousand yeeres in thy sight, are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

5 As soone as thou scatterest them, they are euen as a sleepe: and fade away suddenly like the grasfe.

6 In the morning it is greene, & groweth vp: but in the evening it is cut down, dried vp and withered.

7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathfull indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee: and our secret finnes in the sight of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angry, all our dayes are gone: we bring our yeeres to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The dayes of our age are threescore yeeres and ten, and though men be so strong, that they come to fourescore yeeres: yet is their strength then but labor and sorrow, so soone passeth it away, & we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for euen thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teach vs to number our dayes: that we may apply our hearts vnto wisdom.

13 Turne thee againe (O Lord) at the last: and be gracious vnto thy seruants.

14 O satisfie vs with thy mercy, and that soone: so shall we reioyce and be glad all the dayes of our life.

15 Comfort vs againe, now after the time that thou hast plagued vs: and for the yeeres wherein wee haue suffered aduersity.

16 Show thy seruants thy worke: and their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious maiesty of the Lord our God be vpon vs: prosper thou the worke of our hands vpon vs, O prosper thou our hardie worke.

Qui habitas Psal 91.

Who dwelleth vnder the defence of the most High: shall abide vnder the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say vnto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong hold: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For hee shall deliuer thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noyome pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee vnder his wings, and thou shalt be safe vnder his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in darkenesse: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noone day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the vngodly.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall no euill happen vnto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall giue his Angels charge over thee: to to keepe thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shall beare thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foote againſt a ſtone.

13 Thou ſhalt go vpon the Lion & Adder: the yong Lion and the dragon ſhalt thou tread vnder thy feet.

14 Becauſe he hath ſet his loue vpon me, therefore ſhall I deliuer him: I ſhall ſet him vp becauſe he hath known my Name.

15 He ſhal call vpon me, and I will heare him: yea, I am with him in trouble, I will deliuer him and bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I ſatiſſie him: and ſhew him my ſaluation.

Bonum & conſideri. Pſal. 92.

IT is a good thing to giue thanks vnto the Lord: and to ſing praifes vnto thy Name: O moſt Higheſt.

2 To tell of thy louing kindeſſe early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night ſeaſon.

3 Vpon an inſtrument of ten ſtrings, and vpon the Lute: vpon a lowd inſtrument, and vpon the harpe.

4 For thou Lord haſt made me glad through thy workes: and I will reioyce in giuing praife for the o- perations of thy hands.

5 O Lord, how glorious are thy workes: and thy thoughts are very deepe.

6 An vnwiſe man doth not well conſider this: and a foole doth not vnderſtand it.

7 When the vngodly are Greene as the graſſe, and when all the workers of wickedneſſe doe flouriſh: then ſhall they be deſtroyed for euer, but thou Lord art the moſt Higheſt for euermore.

8 For loe, thine enemies (O Lord) loe thine enemies ſhall periſh: and all the workers of wickedneſſe ſhall be deſtroyed.

9 But my horne ſhall be exalted like the horne of an Vnicorne: for I am anointed with freſh oyle.

10 Mine eye alſo ſhal ſee his luſt of mine enemies: and mine eare ſhal heare his deſire of the wicked that riſe vp againſt me.

11 The righteous ſhall flouriſh like a Palme tree: and ſhall ſpread abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as bee planted in the houſe of the Lord: ſhall flouriſh in the courts (of the houſe) of our God.

13 They alſo ſhal bring forth more fruit in their age: and ſhall be ſafe and well liking.

14 That they may ſhewe how true the Lord my ſtrength is: and that there is no vnrighteouſneſſe in him.

Dominus regnauit. Pſal. 93.

THe Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparell: the Lord hath put on his apparell, and girded himſelfe with ſtrength.

2 Hee hath made the round world to ſure: that it cannot be mooued.

3 Euer ſince the world began hath thy ſeat bene prepared: thou art from eueraſting.

4 The floods are riſen (O Lord) the floods haue liſt vp their voyce: the floods liſt vp their waues.

5 The waues of the ſea are mighty and rage horribly: but yett the Lord that dwelleth on high is mightier.

6 Thy teſtimonies, O Lord, are very ſure: cholineſſe becommeth thine houſe for euer.

Domus Vltionum. Pſal. 94.

O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth: thou God to whom vengeance belongeth ſhew thy ſelfe.

2 Ariſe thou Iudge of the world: and reward the proud after their deſerting.

3 Lord, how long ſhall the vngodly; how long ſhall the vngodly triumph?

4 How long ſhall all wicked doers ſpeake to diſdaineſully: and make ſuch proud boaſting?

5 They ſmite downe thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

6 They murder the widow and the ſtranger: and put the fatherleſſe to death.

7 And yett they ſay, Tuſh, the Lord ſhall not ſee: neither ſhall the God of Iacob regard it.

8 Take heede ye vnwiſe among the people: O yee fooles, when will ye vnderſtand?

9 Hee that planted the eare, ſhall hee not heare: or he that made the eye ſhall hee not ſee?

10 Or he that nurtereth the Heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, ſhall hee not be puniſh?

11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man: that they are but vaine.

12 Bleſſed is the man whom thou chaſteſteſt (O Lord): and teacheſt him in thy law.

13 That thou maielt giue him patience in time of aduerſitie: vntill the pit be digged vp for the vngodly.

14 For the Lord will not taile his people: neither will he forſake his inheritance.

15 Vntill righteouſneſſe turne againe vnto judgement: all ſuch as be true in heart ſhall follow it.

16 Who will riſe vp with me againſt the wicked: or who will take my part againſt the euill doers?

17 If the Lord had not helped me: it had not failed but my ſoule had bene put to ſilence.

18 But when I ſaid, my foote hath ſlipped: thy mercy (O Lord) held me vp.

19 In the multitude of the ſorrowes that I had in my heart: thy comforts haue reſreſhed my ſoule.

20 Wilt thou haue any thing to do with the ſtoole of wickedneſſe: which imagineth miſchiefe as a law?

21 They gather them together againſt the ſoule of the righteous: and condemne the innocent blood.

22 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the ſtrength of my confidence.

23 Hee ſhall recompence them their wickedneſſe, and deſtroy them in their owne malice: yea the Lord our God ſhall deſtroy them.

Venite, exultemus. Pſal. 95.

O Come, let vs ſing vnto the Lord: let vs heartily reioyce in the ſtrength of our ſaluation.

2 Let vs come before his preſence with thankſgiuing: and ſhew our ſelues glad in him with Pſalmes.

3 For the Lord is a great God: and a great King aboue all gods.

4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the ſtrength of the hilles is his alſo.

5 The ſea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the drie land.

6 O come, let vs worſhip & fall down: and kneele before the Lord our maker.

7 For he is the Lord our God: & we are the people of his paſture, and the ſheepe of his hands.

8 To day if ye will heare his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderneſſe.

9 When your father ſtempted me: proued me, and ſaw my workes.

10 For tie yeres long was I grieved with this generation, and ſaid: it is a people that doe erre in their hearts, for they haue not known my wayes.

11 Vnto whom I ſware in my wrath: that they ſhould not enter into my reſt.

reling of his saluation from day to day.

3 Declare his honour vnto the heathen: and his wonders vnto all the people.

4 For the Lord his great, and I cannot worthily be praised: he is more to be feared then all gods.

5 As for all the gods of the heathen they bee but idoles: but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

6 Glory and worship are before him: power and honour are in his Sanctuary.

7 Ascribe vnto the Lord (O ye kindreds of the people:) ascribe vnto the Lord worship and power.

8 Ascribe vnto the Lord the honour due vnto his Name: bring presents, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holinesse: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

10 Tell it out among the heathen, that the Lord is King: and that it is he which hath made the round world to fast that it cannot be moued, and how that he shall iudge the people righteously.

11 Let the heavens reioyce, and let the earth bee glad: let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.

12 Let the field be ioyfull, & all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood reioyce before the Lord.

13 For he commeth, for hee commeth to iudge the earth: and with righteousnesse to iudge the world, and the people with his truth.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. 97.

THe Lord is King, the earth may bee glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the yles may be glad thereof.

2 Cloudes and darkenesse are round about him: righteousnesse and iudgement are the habitation of his seat.

3 There shall goe a fire before him: and burne vp his enemies on euery side.

4 His lightnings gaue shine vnto the world: the earth saw it, and was afraid.

5 The hills melted like waxe at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens haue declared his righteousnesse: and all the people haue seene his glory.

7 Confounded bee all they that worship carued images, and that delight in vaine gods: worship him all ye gods.

8 Sion heard of it, and reioycied: and the daughters of Iuda were glad because of thy iudgements, O Lord.

9 For thou Lord art higher then all that are in the earth: thou art exalted faire above all gods.

10 O yee that loue the Lord, see that yee hate the thing which is euill: the Lord preferreth the foules of his Saints, he shall deliuer them from the hand of the vngodly.

11 There is sprung vp a light, for the righteous: and ioyfull gladnesse for such as bee ne hearted.

12 Reioyce in the Lord yee righteous: and giue thanks for a remembrance of his holinesse.

Cantate Domino. Psal. 98.

OSing vnto the Lord a new song: for hee hath done maruillous things.

2 With his owne right hand, and with his holy arme: hath hee gotten him selfe the vict'ry.

3 The Lord declared his saluation, his righteousnesse hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

4 Hee hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and at the ends of the world haue seene the saluation of our God.

5 Shewy our felices ioyfull vnto the Lord, all ye lands: sing, reioyce, and giue thanks.

6 Praise the Lord vpon the Harpe: sing to the Harpe with a Psalm of thanksgiving.

7 With Trumpets also and Shawmes: O shewe your felices ioyfull before the Lord the King.

8 Let the Sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

9 Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be ioyfull together before the Lord for he is come to iudge the earth.

10 With righteousnesse shall he iudge the world: and the people with equite.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. 99.

THe Lord is King, bee the people neuer so vnpatient: hee sitteth betweene the Cherubims, bee the earth neuer so vquiet.

2 The Lord is great in Sion: and high aboue all people.

3 They shall giue thanks vnto thy Name: which is great, wonderfull and holy.

4 The King sheweth iudgement, thou hast prepared equitie: thou hast executed iudgement and righteousnesse in Iacob.

5 O magnifie the Lord our God: and fall downe before his footstool, for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his Priests, and Samuel among such as call vpon his Name: the called vpon the Lord, and he heard them.

7 He spake vnto them out of the cloudie pillar: for they kept his testimonies, & the law he gaue them.

8 Thou heardest them (O Lord our God:) thou forgavest them, O God, and punishedst their owne iniquities.

9 O magnifie the Lord our God, and worship him, vpon his holy hill: for the Lord our God is holy.

Subilate Deo. Psal. 100.

OBe ioyfull in the Lord, all yee lands: serue the Lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a Song.

2 Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made vs, and not we our felices, we are his people and the sheepe of his pasture.

3 O goe your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: bee thankfull vnto him, and speake good of his Name.

4 For the Lord is gracious, his mercie is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Misericordiam & iudicium. Psal. 101.

MY long shall bee of mercy and iudgement: vnto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

2 O let me haue vnderstanding in the way of godlinesse.

3 When wilt thou come vnto me: I will walke in my house with a perfect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand, I hate the sins of vnfaithfulnesse: there shall no such cleaue vnto me.

5 A froward heart shall depart from me: I wil not know a wicked person.

6 Who so piously slandereth his neighbour: him will I identify.

7 Who so hath also a proude looke, and high stomacke: I will not suffer him.

8 Mine eyes looke vnto such as be faithfull in the land: that they may dwell with me.

9 Who so leadeth a godly life hee shall be my seruant.

10 There shall no deceitfull person dwell in my house: he that telleth lies, shall not tary in my sight.

11 I shall soone destroy all the vngodly that are in the land: that I may roote out all wicked doers from the Citie of the Lord.

Domine exaudi. Psal. 102.

Hear my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come vnto thee.

2 Hide

2 Hide not thy face from mee in the time of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto me when I call, O heare me, and that right soone.

3 For my dayes are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are burnt vp as it were a firebrand.

4 My heart is smitten downe, and withered like grasse: so that I forget to eate my bread.

5 For the voyce of my growning: my bones will scarce cleaue to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pelicane in the wildernes: and like an Owle that is in the desert.

7 I haue watched, and am euen as it were a sparow: that sitteth alone vpon the houletop.

8 Mine enemies teile me all the day long: & they that are mad vpon me, are sorne together against me.

9 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drinke with weeping.

10 And that because of thine indignation & wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me downe.

11 My dayes are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grasse.

12 But thou O Lord shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise and haue mercy vpon Sion: for it is time that thou haue mercy vpon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why thy seruants thinke vpon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The hea:en shall feare thy Name, O Lord: and all the Kings of the earth thy Maiestie.

16 When the Lord shall build vp Sion: and when his glory shall appeare.

17 When hee turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute, and despiseth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that came after: and y people which shall be borne, shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his Sanctuary: out of the heauen did the Lord behold the earth.

20 That he might heare the mourning of such as be in captiuitie: and deliuer the children appointed vnto death.

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion: and his worship at Hierusalem.

22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdome also to serue the Lord.

23 He brought downe my strength in my journey: and thorned my dayes.

24 But I said, O my God: take mee not away in the midst of mine age: as for thy yeeeres, they endure through out all generations.

25 Thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heauens are the worke of thy hands.

26 They shall perishe, but thou shalt endure: they all shall waxe old as doeth a garment.

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeeres shall not faile.

28 The children of thy seruants shall continue: and their seede shall stand fast in thy sight.

Benedic anima mea. Psal. 103.

PRaise the Lord, O my soule: and all that is within me, praise his holy Name.

2 Praise the Lord, O my soule: and forget not all his benefits.

3 Which forgiveth all thy sinne: and healeth all thine infirmities.

4 Which saucth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and loving kindeesse.

5 Which satisfieth thy mouth with good things: making thee yong and lusty as an Eagle.

6 The Lord executeth righteousnesse and iudgement: to all them that are oppressed with wronge.

7 Hee shewed his wayes vnto Moyses: his workes vnto the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy: long suffering, and of great goodnesse.

9 He wil not alway be chiding: neither keepe he his anger for euer.

10 He hath not dealt with vs after our sinnes: nor rewarded vs according to our wickednesse.

11 For looke how high the heauen is in comparison of the earth: so great is his mercy alio toward them that feare him.

12 Looke how wide also the East is from the West: so farre hath he set our sinnes from vs.

13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his owne children: euen so is the Lord mercifull vnto them that feare him.

14 For he knoweth wherof wee be made: he remembreth that we are but dust.

15 The daies of man are but as grasse: for hee flourisheth as a flower of the field.

16 For as soone as the winde goeth ouer it, it is gone: and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercifull goodnesse of the Lord endureth for euer: and euer, vpon them that feare him: and his righteousness vpon childrens children.

18 Euen vpon such as keepe his Couenant: and thinke vpon his commandements to doe them.

19 The Lord hath prepared his seat in heauen: and his kingdome ruleth ouer all.

20 O praise the Lord, ye Angels of his, ye that excell in strength: ye that fulfill his Commandement, and heare in vnto the voyce of his words.

21 O praise the Lord al yeec his kofls: yee seruants of his that see his pleasure.

22 O speake good of the Lord al ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: praise thou the Lord, O my soule.

Benedic anima mea. Psal. 104.

PRaise the Lord, O my soule: O Lord my God, thou art become exceeding glorious: thou art clothed with Maiestie and honour.

2 Thou deckest thy selfe with light as it were with a garment: and spreadest out the heauens like a curtaine.

3 Which is yerh the beames of his chamber in the waters: and maketh the cloudes his chariet, and walketh vpon the wings of the winde.

4 He maketh his Angels spirits: and his ministers a flaming fire.

5 He laid the foundations of the earth: that it neuer should moue at any time.

6 Thou coverdest it with the deepe like as with a garment: the waters stand in the hills.

7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of thy thunder they are afraid.

8 They goe vp as high as the hills, and downe to the valleys beneath: euen vnto the place which thou hast appointed for them.

9 Thou hast set them their bounds, which they shall not passe: neither turne againe to couer the earth.

10 He sendeth the springs into the riuers: which runne among the hills.

11 All beastes of the field drinke thereof: and the wilde Ases quench their thirst.

12 Beside them, shall the fowles of the ayre haue their habitation: and sing among the braeshees.

13 He waretheth the hills from aboue: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy workes.

14 He bringeth forth grasse for the cattel: & greene herbe for the seruice of men.

15 That he may bring foode out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man: and oyle to make him a cheerful countenance, & bread to strengthen mans heart.

16 The trees of the Lord also are full of sap: euen the Cedars of Libanus which he hath planted.

17 Wherein the birds make their nests: and the Firre trees are a dwelling for the Storke.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild Goats: and so are the stonier rocks for the Conies.

19 Hee appointed the Moone for certaine seasons: and the Sunne knoweth his going downe.

20 Thou makest larkenesse, that it may be night: wherein all the beasts of the Forrest doe moue.

21 The Lions roaring after their pray: doe seeke their meate at God.

22 The Sunne ariseth, and they get them away together: and lay them downe in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth to his worke, and to his labour: vntill the evening.

24 O Lord, how manifold are thy workes: in wisdom hast thou made them all, the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is the great and wide sea also: wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There goe the ships & there is that Leviathan: whom thou hast made to take his pisme therein.

27 These waite all vpon thee: that thou mayest giue them meate in due season.

28 When thou givest it them, they gather it: and when thou openest thy fist, they are filled with good.

29 When thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath, they die, and are turned againe to their dust.

30 When thou letteth thy breath goe forth, they shall be made: & thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

31 The glorious Maiesie of the Lord shall endure for euer: the Lord shall reioyce in his workes.

32 The earth shall tremble at the looke of him: if he doe but touch the hills, they shall smoke.

33 I will sing vnto the Lord as long as I liue: I will praise my God, while I haue my being.

34 And so shall my words please him: my ioy shall be in the Lord.

35 As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, & the vngodly shall come to an end: praise thou the Lord, O my soule praise the Lord.

Confitemini Domino. Psalm 105.

O Give thanks vnto the Lord, and call vpon his Name: tell the people what things hee hath done.

2 O let your songs be of him, and praise him: and let your talking be of all his wondrous workes.

3 Reioyce in his holy name: let the heart of them reioyce that seeke the Lord.

4 Seek the Lord and his strength: seeke his face euermore.

5 Remember the marueilous workes that he hath done: his wonders and the iudgements of his mouth.

6 O yee seed of Abraham his seruants: yee children of Iacob his chosen.

7 Hee is the Lord our God: his iudgements are in all the world.

8 He hath bene alwayes mindful of his Couenant: and promised that he made to a thousand generations.

9 Euen the Couenant that hee made with Abraham: and the oath that he sware vnto Ishaac.

10 And appointed the same vnto Iakob for a Law: and so Iured for an euermlasting Testament.

11 Saying, Vnto thee wil I giue the land of Chanaan: the lot of your inheritance.

12 When there were yet but a few of them: and they strangers in the land.

13 What time as they went from one Nation to another: from one kingdome to another people.

14 He suffered no man to doe them wrong: but re-proued euen Kings for their sakes.

15 Touch not mine Anointed, & doe my Prophets no harme.

16 Moreouer he called for a dearth vpon the land: and destroyed all the prouision of bread.

17 But he had sent a man before them: euen Ioseph which was sold to be a bondseruant.

18 Whose feete they hurt in the stocks: the yron entred into his soule.

19 Vntill the time came that his cause was knowne: the word of the Lord triad him.

20 The King lent and deliuered him: the Prince of the people let him goe free.

21 Hee made him Lord also of his house: and Ruler of all his substance.

22 That he might enforme his Princes after his will: and teach his Senators wisdom.

23 Isaac also came into Egypt: and Iacob was a stranger in a land of Ham.

24 And hee encreased his people exceedingly: and made them stronger then their enemies.

25 Whose heart turned so that they hated his people: and dealt vntuly with his seruants.

26 Then sent hee Moles his seruants: and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkenesse, and it was darke: and they were not obedient vnto his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood: and slewed their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogges: yea, euen in their kings chambers.

31 Hee spake the word, and there came all manner of flies: and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gaue them hailestones for raine: and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and figge trees: and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.

34 He spake the word, & the grasshopper came, and caterpillars innumerable: and did eat vp all the grasse in their land, and deuoured the fruit of their ground.

35 He smote all the first borne in their land: euen the chiefe of all their strength.

36 He brought them forth also with silver & gold: there was not one feeble person among the tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraid of them.

38 He spread out a cloud to be a couering: and fire to giue light in the night season.

39 At their desire he brought quailles: and he filled them with the bread of heauen.

40 Hee opened the rocke of stone, and the waters flowed out: so that riuers ran in dry places.

41 For why? he remembered his holy promise: and Abraham his seruants.

42 And he brought forth his people with ioy: and his chosen with gladnesse.

43 And gaue them the lands of the Heathen: and they took the labours of the people in possession.

44 That they might keepe his statutes: and obserue his lawes.

a Who

2 Who can expresse the noble actes of the Lord Lord: or shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that alway keepe Iudgement: and doe righteousnesse,

4 Remember me, O Lord, according to the fauor that thou bearest vnto thy people: O visit me with thy saluation.

5 That I may see the felicity of thy Chosen: and reioice in the gladnesse of thy people, and giue thanks with thine inheritance.

6 We haue sinned with our fathers: we haue done amisse, and dealt wickedly.

7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodnes in remembrance: but were disobedient at the sea, euen at the red Sea.

8 Neuerthelesse, hee helped them for his Names sake: that he might make his power to be knownen,

9 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dried vp: so he led them thorow the deepe, as thorow a wilderness.

10 And he saued them from the aduersaries hand: and deliuered them from the hand of the enemye.

11 As for those that troubled them, the waters ouerwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.

12 Then beleued they his words: and sang praise vnto him.

13 But within a while they forgot his works: and would not abide his counsaile.

14 But lust came vpon them in the wilderness: and they tempted God in the desert.

15 And hee gaue them their desire: and sent leanness withall into their soule.

16 They angered Moses also in the Tents: and Aaron the Saint of the Lord.

17 So the earth opened, & swallowed vp Dathan: and covered the congregation of Abiram.

18 And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt vp the vngodly.

19 They made a calfe in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they turned their glory into the similitude of a calfe that eateth hay.

21 And they forgate God their Sauour: which had done so great things in Egypt.

22 Wonderous workes in the land of Ham: and fearefull things by the red Sea.

23 So he said he would haue destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap: to turne away his wrathfull indignation, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they thought scorne of that pleasant land: and gaue no credence vnto his word.

25 But murmured in their Tents: and hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lord.

26 Then lift he vp his hand against them: to ouerthrow them in the wilderness.

27 To cast out their seed among the Nations: and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They ioyned themselves vnto Baal Peor: and ate the offerings of the dead.

29 Thus they prouoked him to anger with their owne inuentions: and the plague was great among them.

30 Then stood vp Phinees and prayed: and so the plague ceased.

31 And that was counted vnto him for righteousness: among all posterities for euer more.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moses for their sakes.

33 Because they prouoked his spirit: so that hee spake vnadvisedly with his lips.

34 Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commanded them.

35 But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their workes.

36 In so much that they worshipped their idoles, which turned to their owne decay: yea, they offered their sonnes and daughters vnto deuils.

37 And shed innocent blood: euen the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they offered vnto the idoles of Chanaan, and the land was defiled with blood.

38 Thus were they stained with their owne workes and went a whoring with their owne inuentions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: in so much that hee abhorred his owne inheritance.

40 And hee gaue them ouer into the hand of the Heathen: and they that hated them, were lords ouer them.

41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subiection.

42 Many a time did he deliuer them: but they rebelled against him with their owne inuentions, and were brought downe in their wickednesse.

43 Neuerthelesse, when he saw their aduersitie, he heard their complaint.

44 He thought vpon his couenant & pitied them according vnto multitude of his mercies: yea, he made all those that had led them away captiue to pity them.

45 Deliuer vs (O Lord our God) & gather vs from among the heathen: that we may giue thanks vnto thy holy Name, and make our boate of thy praise.

46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from everlasting, and world without end: and let all the people say, Amen.

Confitemini Domino, Psal. 107.

O Giue thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

2 Let them giue thanks, who the Lord hath redeemed: and deliuered from the hand of the enemy.

3 And gathered them out of the lands from the East & from the West, from the North, & from the South.

4 They went astray in the wilderness out of the way: and found no citie to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty: their soules fainted in them.

6 So they cryed vnto the Lord in their troubles: and he deliuered them from their distresse.

7 Heeled them forth by the right way: that they might goe to the citie where they dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

9 For he satisfieth the empty soule: and filleth the hungry soule with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkenesse and in the shadowe of death, being fast bound in miserie and yron.

11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord: & lightly regarded his counsell of the most High.

12 Hee also brought downe their heart through heavinesse: they fell downe, and there was none to helpe them vp.

13 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

14 For he brought them out of darkenesse, and out of the shadow of death, & brake their bonds in sunder.

15 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass: and smitten the barres of yron in sunder.

17 Foolish men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickednesse,

18 Their soules abhorred all manner of meat: and they were euen hard at deaths doore.

19 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

20 Hee sent his word and healed them: and they were sau'd from their destruction.

21 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

22 That they would offer vnto him the sacrifice of thanksgiuing: and tell out his works with gladnesse.

23 They that goe downe to the Sea in ships: and occupie their businesse in great waters.

24 These men see the works of the Lord: and his wonders in the deepe.

25 For as his word the stormy wind ariseth: which lifteth vp the waues thereof.

26 They are caried vp to the heauen: and downe againe to the deepe: their soule melteth away because of the trouble.

27 They reele to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: an' late at their wits end.

28 So when they cry vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

29 For he maketh the storme to cease: so that the waues thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad, because they bee at rest: and so hee bringeth them to the haueu where they would be.

31 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

32 That they would exalt him also in the Congregation of the people: and praise him in the feat of the Elders.

33 Which turneth the floods into a wildernes: and dryeth vp the water springs.

34 A fruitful land maketh he barren: for the wickednesse of them that dwell therein.

35 Again hee maketh the wildernes a standing water: and water springs of a dry ground.

36 And there hee seareth the hungry: that they may build them a city to dwell in.

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards: to yeld them fruits of increase.

38 Hee blesteth them, so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattell to decrease.

39 And againe, when they are ministred & brought lowe: through oppression, through any plague or trouble.

40 Though hee suffer them to bee euill intreated: through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wildernes.

41 Yet helpeth he the poore out of misery: and maketh him households like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous will consider this, and reioyce: and the mouth of all wickednesse shall be stopped.

43 Who so is wise, will ponder these things: and they shall vnderstand the louing kindnes of the Lord.

Paratum cor meum. Psal. 108.

O God, my heart is ready (my heart is ready:) I will sing and giue praise with the best member that I haue.

2 Awake thou Lute and Harpe: I my selfe will awake rightearely.

3 I will giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing praises vnto thee among the Nations.

4 For thy mercie is greater then the heauens: and thy trueth reacheth vnto the cloudes.

5 Set vp thy selfe (O God) aboute the heauens: and thy glory aboute all the earth.

6 That thy beloued may be deliuered: let thy right hand saue them, and heare thou me.

7 God hath spoken in his holinesse: I will reioyce therefore and diuide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasse is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

9 Iuda is my Lawginer, Moab is my washpot: ouer Edom will I cast out my shoe, vpon the Philistians will I triumph.

10 Who will leade me into the strong Citie: and who will bring me into Edom?

11 Hast not thou forsaken vs, O God: and wilt not thou, God, goe forth with our hosts?

12 O helpe vs against the enemies: for vaine is the helpe of man.

13 Through God we shall doe great acts: and it is he that shall tread downe our enemies.

Deus laudem. Psal. 109.

Hold not thy tongue, O God of my praise: for the mouth of the vngodly, yea, and the mouth of the deceitfull is opened vpon me.

2 And they haue spoken against mee with false tongues: they compassed me about also with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.

3 For the loue that I had vnto them, loe they take now my cōtrary part: but I giue my selfe vnto praiser.

4 Thus haue they rewarded me euil for good: and hatred for my good will.

5 Set thou an vngodly man to be ruler ouer him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

6 When sentence is giuen vpon him, let him bee condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sinne.

7 Let his dayes be few: and let another take his office.

8 Let his children bee fatherlesse: and his wife a widow.

9 Let his children be vagabonds, and begge their bread: let them seeke it also out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume all that hee hath: and let the stranger spoile his labour.

11 Let there bee no man to pitie him: nor to haue compassion vpon his fatherlesse children.

12 Let his posteritie be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be cleane put out.

13 Let the wickednesse of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lord: and let not the sione of his mother be done away.

14 Let them alway be before the Lord: that he may roote out the memorie of them from off the earth.

15 And that because his mind was not to do good: but persecuted the poore helpelesse man: that he might slay him that was vixed at the heart.

16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen vnto him: hee shal not be blessing, therefore shall it bee farre from him.

17 He clothed himselfe with cursing like as with a rayment: and it shall come into his bowels like water, and like oyle into his bones.

18 Let it be vnto him as the cloake that hee hath vpon him: and as the girdle that he is alway girded withall.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lord vnto mine enemies: & to those that speake euill against my soule.

20 But deale thou with me (O Lord God) according vnto thy Name: for sweet is thy mercy.

21 O deliuer me, for I am helpelesse and poore: and my heart is wounded within me.

The xxiii. day.

22 I goe hence like the shadow that departeth: and am driuen away as the grasshopper.

23 My knees are weak through fasting: my flesh is dried vp for want of fatnesse.

24 I became also a rebuke vnto them: they that looked vpon me, shaked their heads.

25 Helpe me (O Lord my God:) O saue me according to thy mercy.

26 And they shal know how that this is thy hand: and that thou Lord hast done it.

27 Though they curse, yet blesse thou: and let them be confounded that rise vp against me, but let thy seruants reioyce.

28 Let mine aduersaries bee clothed with shame: and let them couer themselves with their own confusion, as with a cloake.

29 As for mee, I will giue great thanks vnto the Lord with my mouth: and praise him among the multitude.

30 For he shal stand at the right hand of the poore: to saue his soule from vnrighteous iudges.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. 110.

THe Lord said vnto my Lord: Sit thou on my right hand, vntill I make thine enemies thy foote stooke.

2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Zion: bee thou Ruler euen in the mids among thine enemies.

3 In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free will offerings with an holy worship: the dew of thy birth is as the wombe of the morning.

4 The Lord warre, and will not repent: thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech.

5 The Lord vpon thy right hand: shal wound euen kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shal iudge among the heathen, he shal fill the places with the dead bodies: and smite in sunder the heads ouer diuers countreys.

7 He shal drinke of the brooke in the way: therefore shal he lift vp his head.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 111.

IWill giue thanks vnto the Lord with my whole heart: secretly among the faithfull, and in the Congregation.

2 The workes of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that haue pleasure therein.

3 His worke is worthy to be praised and had in honour: and his righteousness endureth for euer.

4 The mercifull and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous workes: that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5 He hath giuen meate vnto them that feare him: he shal euer be mindfull of his Couenant.

6 He hath shewed his people y^e power of his workes: that he may giue them the heritage of the Heathen.

7 The workes of his hands are veritie and judgement: all his Commandements are true.

8 They stand fast for euer and euer: and are done in truth and equitie.

9 Hee sent redemption vnto his people: hee hath commanded his Couenant for euer, holy & reuerent is his Name.

10 The feare of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good vnderstanding haue all they that doe thereafter, the praise of it endureth for euer.

Beatus vir. Psal. 112.

Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in his Commandements.

2 His seed shall be mighty vpon earth: the generation of the faithfull shall be blessed.

3 Riches and plenteousnesse shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for euer.

4 Vnto the godly there ariseth vp light in the darkness: he is mercifull, louing, and righteous.

5 A good man is mercifull, and lendeth: and will giue his words with discretion.

6 For he shall neuer be moued: and the righteous shal be had in an euerlasting remembrance.

7 He will not be afraid for any euil tidings: for his heart standeth fast, and belueth in the Lord.

8 His heart is stablished and will not shrink: vntill he see his desire vpon his enemies.

9 He hath dispensed abroad, & giuen to the poore: and his righteousness remaineth for euer, his honoure shall be exalted with honour.

10 The vngodly shall see it, and it shal grieve him: he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away, the desire of the vngodly shal perish.

Laudate pueri. Psal. 113.

Praise the Lord (ye seruants:) O praise the Name of the Lord

2 Blessed be the Name of the Lord from this time forth for euermore.

3 The Lords Name is praised: from the rising vp of the Sunne, vnto the going downe of the same.

4 The Lord is high aboue all Heathen: and his glory aboue the heauens.

5 Who is like vnto the Lord our God, that hath his dwelling so high: and yet humbleth himselfe to behold the things that are in heauen and earth?

6 Hee taketh vp the simple out of the dust: and lifteth the poore out of the mire.

7 That he may set him vp with the Princes: euen with the Princes of his people.

8 Hee maketh the barren woman to keepe house: and to be a ioyfull mother of children.

Incipit Israel. Psal. 114.

When Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Iacob from among the strange people.

2 Iuda was his Sanctuary: and Israel his dominion.

3 The Sea sawe that and fled: Iorden was driuen backe.

4 The mountaines skipped like rammes: and the little hilles like yong sheepe.

5 What aileth thee, O thou Sea, that thou fleddest: and thou Iordan, that thou wast driuen backe?

6 Yee mountaines that ye skipped like Rammes: and ye little hilles like yong sheepe?

7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the God of Iacob.

8 Which turned the hard rocke into a standing water: and the flint stone into a spring well.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. 115.

Not vnto vs, O Lord, not vnto vs but vnto thy Name giue the praise: for thy louing mercy, and for thy truthes sake.

2 Wherefore shall the heathen say: Where is now their God?

3 As for our God, hee is in heauen: hee hath done whatsoever pleased him.

4 Their idoles are siluer and gold: euen the worke of mens hands.

5 They haue mouthes and speake not: eyes haue they, and see not.

6 They haue eares and heare not: noses haue they, and smell not.

7 They haue bandes and handle not, feete haue they, and walk not: neither speake they through their throat.

- 8 They that make them as like vnto them : and to are all such as put their trust in them.
- 9 But thou house of Israel, trust thou in the Lord: he is their succour and defence.
- 10 Ye house of Aaron, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.
- 11 Ye that feare the Lord, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.
- 12 The Lord hath bin mindfull of vs, and he shall blesse vs: euen he shall blesse the house of Israel, hee shall blesse the house of Aaron.
- 13 Hee shall blesse them that feare the Lord, both small and great.
- 14 The Lord shall increase you more and more: you and your children.
- 15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord: which made heauen and earth.
- 16 All the whole heauens are the Lords: the earth hath he giuen to the children of men.
- 17 The dead praise not thee, O Lord: neither all all they goe downe into the silence.
- 18 But wee will praise the Lord, from this time forth for euer more. Praise the Lord.

Dil ex quoniam, Psal. 116.

I Am well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voyce of my prayer.

2 That hee hath inclined his eare vnto mee: therefore will I call vpon him as long as I liue.

3 The snares of death compassed me round about: and the paines of hell gate hold vpon me.

4 I shall finde trouble and heauinesse, and I shall call vpon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee deliuer my soules.

5 Gracious is the Lord and righteous: yea, our God is mercifull.

6 The Lord preferueth the simple: I was in miserie, and he helped me.

7 Turne againe then vnto thy rest, O my soule: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

8 And why? thou hast deliuered my soule from death: mine eyes from teares, and my feete from falling.

9 I will walke before the Lord: in the land of the liuing.

10 I beleueed, and therefore will I speake, but I was foretroubled: I saide in my haste, All men are lyars.

11 What reward shall I giue vnto the Lord: for all the benefites that he hath done vnto me?

12 I will receiue the cup of saluation: and call vpon the Name of the Lord.

13 I will pay my vowes now in the presence of all his people: right deare in the sight of the Lord, is the death of his Saints.

14 Behold (O Lord) how that I am thy seruant: I am thy seruant, and the sonne of thine handmaide, thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.

15 I wil offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiuing: and will call vpon the name of the Lord.

16 I will pay my vowes vnto the Lord, in the sight of all his people: in the courts of the Lords house, euen in the middes of thee, O Hierusalem, Praise the Lord.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 117.

O Praise the Lord all ye heathen: praise him all yee nations.

2 For his mercifull kindnesse is euer more & more toward vs: and the trueth of the Lord endureth for euer, Praise yethe Lord.

Confitemini Domino, Psal. 118.

O Giue thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercy endureth for euer.

2 Let Israel now confesse that he is gracious: and that his mercy endureth for euer.

3 Let the house of Aaron now confesse: that his mercie endureth for euer.

4 Yea, let them now that feare the Lord, confesse: that his mercy endureth for euer.

5 I called vpon the Lord in trouble: and the Lord heard me at large.

6 The Lord is on my side: I will not feare what man doeth vnto me.

7 The Lord taketh my part with them that helpe mee: therefore shall I see my desire vpon mine enemies.

8 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me round about: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.

11 They kept me in on euery side, they kept me in (I say) on euery side: but in the name of the Lord will I destroy them.

12 They came about me like bees, and are extinct euen as the fire among the thornes: for in the Name of the Lord I will destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust fore at me, that I might fall: but the Lord was my helpe.

14 The Lord is my strength and my song: and is become my saluation.

15 The voice of my ioy & health is in the dwellings of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to passe.

16 The right hand of the Lord hath the preheminnence: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mightie things to passe.

17 I will not die but liue: and declare the workes of the Lord.

18 The Lord hath chastened and corrected mee: but he hath not giuen me ouer vnto death.

19 Open mee the gates of righteousness: that I may goe into them, and giue thanks vnto the Lord.

20 This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.

21 I will thanke thee, for thou hast heard me: and art become my saluation.

22 The same stone which the builders refused: is become the head stone in the corner.

23 This is the Lords doing: and it is maruillous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will reioyce and be glad in it.

25 Helpe me now, O Lord: O Lord send vs now prosperitie.

26 Blessed bee hee that commeth in the Name of the Lord: we haue wished you good lucke, ye that be of the house of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord which hath shewed vs light: bind the sacrifice with cords, yea, euen vnto the hornes of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will thanke thee: thou art my God, and I will praise thee.

29 O giue thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

Beati immaculati, Psal. 119.

Blessed are those that are vndeliled in the way: and walke in the law of the Lord.

2 The same is my comfort in my trouble: for thy word hath quickened me.

3 The proud haue had me exceedingly in derision: yet haue I not shrinken from thy Law.

4 For I remembered thine euerslasting iudgments, O Lord: and received comfort.

5 I am horribly afraid, for the vngodly that forsake thy Law.

6 Thy statutes haue bene my songs: in the house of my pilgrimage.

7 I haue thought vpon thy Name O Lord, in the night season: and haue kept thy Law.

8 This I had: because I kept thy commandments.

Portio mea Domine.

Thou art my portion, O Lord: I haue promised to keepe thy Law.

2 I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart: O be mercifull vnto me according to thy word.

3 I called mine owne wayes to remembrance: and turned my feet vnto thy testimonies.

4 I made haste, and prolonged not the time to keepe thy commandments.

5 The congregation of the vngodly haue robbed me: but I haue not forgotten thy Law.

6 At midnight I will rise to giue thanks vnto thee: because of thy righteous iudgements.

7 I am a companion of all them that feare thee: and keepe thy commandments.

8 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: O teach me thy statutes.

Bonus autem scilicet.

OLord, thou hast dealt graciously with thy seruant: according vnto thy word.

2 O let me not trust vnderstanding and knowledge: for I haue beleieued thy commandments.

3 Before I was troubled, I went wrong: but now haue I kept thy word.

4 Thou art good and gracious: O teach mee thy statutes.

5 The proud haue imagined a lie against me: but I will keepe thy commandments with my whole heart.

6 Their

6 Their heart is as fat as brawne: but my delight hath beene in thy Law.

7 It is good for me that I haue beene in trouble: that I may learne thy statutes.

8 The Law of thy mouth is dearer vnto me then thousand of gold and filuer.

Manus tu fecerunt me.

Thy hands haue made me and fashioned me: O giue mee vnderstanding that I may learne thy commandements.

2 They that feare thee will be glad when they see mee: because I haue put my trust in thy word.

3 I knew (O Lord) that thy iudgments are right: and that thou of very faithfullnesse hast caused me to be troubled.

4 O let thy mercifull kindeesse be my comfort: according to thy word vnto thy seruant.

5 O let thy louing mercies come vnto me, that I may liue: for thy Law is my delight.

6 Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to destroy me: but I will be occupied in thy commandements.

7 Let such as feare thee, and haue knownen thy testimonies: be turned vnto me.

8 O let my heart be found in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

Deficit anima mea.

My soule hath longed for thy saluation: and I haue a good hope because of thy word.

2 Mine eyes long fore for thy word: saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?

3 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet doe I not forget thy statutes.

4 How many are the dayes of thy seruant: when wilt thou be auenged of them that persecute me?

5 The proud haue digged pits for me: which are not after thy Law.

6 All thy commandements are true: they persecute me falsely, O be thou my helpe.

7 They had almost made an end of me vpon earth: but I forlooke not thy commandements.

8 O quicken mee after thy louing kindeesse: and so shall I keepe the testimonies of thy mouth.

In aeternum Domine.

O Lord thy word: endureth for euer in heauen.

2 Thy trueth also remaineth from one generation to another: thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.

3 They continue this day according to thine ordinance: for all things serue thee.

4 If my delight had not bene in thy Law: I should haue perished in my trouble.

5 I will neuer forget thy commandements: for with them thou hast quickened me.

6 I am thine, oh laue me: for I haue sought thy commandements.

7 The vngodly laid waite for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.

8 I see that all things come to an ende: but thy commandement is exceeding broad.

Quomodo dilexi.

Ord, what loue haue I vnto thy Law: all the day long is my study in it.

2 Thou through thy commandements hast made me wiser then mine enemies: for they are euer with me.

3 I haue more vnderstanding then my teachers: for thy testimonies are my study.

4 I am wiser then the aged: because I keepe thy commandements.

5 I haue restrained my feet from euery euill way: that I may keepe thy word.

6 I haue not shrunke from thy iudgements: for thou teachest me.

7 O how sweet art thy words vnto my throat: yea, sweeter then hony vnto my mouth.

8 Through thy commandements I get vnderstanding: therefore I hate all wicked wayes.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

Thy word is a lantern vnto my feet: and a light vnto my pathes.

2 I haue (worne and am stedfastly purposed: to keepe thy righteous iudgements.

3 I am troubled about measure: quicken me (O Lord) according to thy word.

4 Let the free will offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord: and teach me thy iudgements.

5 My soule is alway in my hand: yet doe I not forget thy Law.

6 The vngodly haue laid a snare for me: but yet I swarued nor from thy commandements.

7 Thy testimonies haue I claimed as mine heritage for euer: & why? they are my very ioy of my heart.

8 I haue applyed my heart to fulfill thy statutes alway: euen vnto the end.

Iniqui oculo habui.

I Hate them that imagine euill things: but thy lawe doe I loue.

2 Thou art my defence and shield: and my trust is in thy word.

3 Away from me ye wicked: I will keepe the commandements of my God.

4 O stablish me according vnto thy word, that I may liue: and let me not be disappointed of my hope.

5 Hold thou me vp and I shall be safe: yea, my delight shall be euer in thy statutes.

6 Thou hast troden downe all them that depart from thy statutes: for they imagine but deceit.

7 Thou putt'st away all the vngodly of the earth like drosse: therefore I loue thy testimonies.

8 My flesh trembleth for feare of thee: and I am afraid of thy iudgements.

Eci iudicium.

Deale with the thing that is lawfull and right: O giue me not ouer vnto mine oppressors.

2 Make thou thy seruant to delight in that which is good: that the proud doe me no wrong.

3 Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health: and for the word of thy righteousnes.

4 O deale with thy seruant according vnto thy louing mercy: and teach me thy statutes.

5 I am thy seruant, O grant mee vnderstanding: that I may know thy testimonies.

6 It is time for thee Lord, to lay to thine hand: for they haue destroyed thy Law.

7 For I loue thy commandements: aboue gold and precious stone.

8 Therefore hold I straight all thy Commandements: and all false wayes I vterly abhorre.

Mirabilia.

Thy testimonies are wonderfull: therefore doth my soule keepe them.

2 When thy word goeth forth: it giueth light and vnderstanding to the simple.

3 I opened my mouth and drew in my breath: for my delight was in thy commandements.

4 O looke thou vpon me, and be mercifull vnto me: as thou v'st to doe vnto those that loue thy Name.

5 Order my steps in thy word: and so shall no wickednesse haue dominion ouer me.

6 O deliuer mee from the wrongfull dealings of men: and so shall I keepe thy commandements.

7 Shew the light of thy countenance vpon thy seruants:

Evening
prayer.

Morning
prayer.

seruant: and teach me thy statutes,

8 Mine eyes gush out with water: because men keepe not thy Law.

Influs es Domine.

Righteous art thou, O Lord: and true is thy iudgement.

2 The Testimonies that thou hast commanded: are exceeding righteous and true.

3 My zeale hath euen consumed me: because mine enemies haue forgotten thy words.

4 Thy word is tryed to the vetermost: and thy seruant loeeth it.

5 I am small, and of no reputation: yet doe I not forget thy commandements.

6 Thy righteousness is an euerslasting righteousness: and thy Law is the truth.

7 Trouble and heaviness haue taken hold vpon me: yet is my delight in thy commandements.

8 The righteousness of thy testimonies is euerslasting: O grant me vnderstanding, and I shall liue, Clamavi in toto corde meo.

I Call with my whole heart: heare mee, O Lord, I will keepe thy statutes.

2 Yea, euen vpon thee doe I call: helpe me, and I shall keepe thy testimonies.

3 Early in the morning doe I cry vnto thee: for in thy word is my trust.

4 Mine eyes preuent the night watches: that I might be occupied in thy words.

5 Heare my voice, O Lord, according vnto thy louing kindnesse: quicken mee according as thou art woont.

6 They draw nigh that of malice persecute mee: and are as farr from thy Law.

7 Be thou nigh at hand, O Lord: for all thy commandements are true.

8 As concerning thy testimonies, I haue known long since: that thou hast grounded them for euer.

Vide humilitatem.

O Consider mine aduersity, and deliuer mee: for I do not forget thy Law.

2 Auenge thou my cause, and deliuer me: quicken me according vnto thy word.

3 Health is far from the vngodly: for they regard not thy statutes.

4 Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken mee as thou art woont.

5 Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me: yet doe I not fwarre from thy testimonies.

6 It grieueth mee when I see the transgressors: because they keepe not thy Law.

7 Consider, O Lord, how I loue thy commandements: O quicken mee according to thy louing kindnesse.

8 Thy word is true from euerslasting: all the iudgements of thy righteousness endure for euermore.

Principes persecuti sunt.

Princes haue persecuted mee without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy words.

2 I am as glad of hand: as one that findeth great spoiles.

3 As for lies, I hate and abhorre them: but thy Law doe I loue.

4 Seven times a day doe I praise thee: because of thy righteous iudgements.

5 Great is the peace that they haue which loue thy law: and they are not offended at it.

6 Lord, I haue looked for thy saving health: and done after thy commandements.

7 My soule hath kept thy testimonies: and loued them exceedingly.

8 I haue kept thy commandements and testimonies: for all my wayes are before thee.

Appropinquat deprecatio.

Let my complaint come before thee, O Lord: giue me vnderstanding according to thy word.

2 Let my supplication come before thee: deliuer me according to thy word.

3 My lips shall speake of thy praise: when thou shalt taught me thy statutes.

4 Yea, my tongue shall sing of thy word: for all thy commandements are righteous.

5 Let thine hand helpe me: for I haue chosen thy commandements.

6 I haue longed for thy saving health, O Lord: and in thy Law is my delight.

7 O let my soule liue, and it shall praise thee: and thy iudgements shall helpe me.

8 I haue gone astray like a sheepe that is lost: O seeke thy seruant, for I do not forget thy commandements.

Ad Dominum. Psalm. 120.

When I was in trouble, I called vpon the Lord: and hee heard me.

2 Deliuer my soule, O Lord, from lying tyts: and from a deceitfull tongue.

3 What reward shall be giuen or done vnto thee, thou false tongue: euen mighty and sharpe arrows, with hot burning coals.

4 Woe is me that I am constrained to dwell with Mesch: and to haue mine habitation among the tents of Cedar.

5 My soule hath long dwelt among them: that be enemies vnto peace.

6 I labour for peace, but when I speake vnto them: therof: they make them ready to battell.

Leuamus oculos Psalm. 121.

I Will lift vp mine eyes vnto the hills: from whence I cometh my helpe.

2 My helpe cometh euen from the Lord: which hath made heauen and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foote to be moued: and he that keepeth thee will not sleepe.

4 Behold, hee that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleepe.

5 The Lord himselfe is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence vpon thy right hand.

6 So that the Sunne shall not burne thee by day: neither the Moone by night.

7 The Lord shall preserue thee from all euill: yea, it is euen he that shall keepeth thy soule.

8 The Lord shall preserue thy going out and thy conning in: from this time forth for euer.

Letatus sum. Psalm. 122.

I Was glad when they said vnto me: we will goe into the house of the Lord.

2 Our feet shall stand in thy getes: O Ierusalem: Ierusalem is builded as a citie: that is at vnty in it selfe.

3 For thither the tribes goe vp, euen the tribes of the Lord: to testifie vnto Israel, to giue thanks vnto the Name of the Lord.

4 For there is the seate of iudgement: euen the seate of the house of David.

5 O pray for the peace of Ierusalem: they shall prosper that loue thee.

6 Peace be within thy walles: and plenty in thy palaces.

7 For my brethren and companions sakes: I will wish thee prosperitiu.

8 Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God: I will seeke to doe thee good.

Ad te leuauis oculos meos. Psal. 123.

VNto thee lift I vp mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heauens.

2 Behold, euen as the eyes of seruants looke vnto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden vnto the hand of her mistresse: euen so our eyes waite vpon the Lord our God, vntill he haue mercy vpon vs.

3 Haue mercy vpon vs, O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs: for we are vterly despised.

4 Our soule is filled with the scornfull reproofe of the wealthy: and with the despitfullnesse of the proud,

Nisi quia Dominus. Psal. 124.

IF the Lord himselfe had not bene on our side (now may Israel say): if the Lord himselfe had not been on our side, when men rose vp against vs.

2 They had swallowed vs vp quicke: when they were so wrathfully displeased at vs.

3 Yea, the waters had drowned vs: and the streame had gone ouer our forde.

4 The deepe waters of the proude: had gone euen ouer our soule.

5 But prayed be the Lord: which hath not given vs ouer for a pray vnto their teeth.

6 Our soule is escaped euen as a bird out of the snare of the fowler: the snare is broken and we are deliuered.

7 Our helpe standeth in the Name of the Lord: which hath made heauen and earth.

Qui confidunt. Psal. 125.

THEY that put their trust in the Lord shall be euen as the mount Sion: which may not be remoued, but standeth fast for euer.

2 The hills stand about Ierusalem: euen so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for euermore.

3 For the rod of the vngodly commeth not into the lot of the righteous: lest the righteous put their hand vnto wickednesse.

4 Doe well, O Lord: vnto those that be good and true heart.

5 As for such as turne backe vnto their own wickednesse: the Lord shall lead them forth with the euil doers: but peace shall be vpon Israel.

Inconuertendo. Psal. 126.

WHen the Lord turned againe y captiuitie of Sion: then were we like vnto them that dreame

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter: and our tongue with ioy.

3 Then said they among the Heathen: the Lord hath done great things for them.

4 Yea, the Lord hath done great things for vs alreadie: whereof we reioyce.

5 Turne our captiuitie, O Lord: as the riuers in the South.

6 They that sow in teares: shall reape in ioy.

7 Hee that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed: shall doubtlesse come againe with ioy, and bring his sheaves with him.

Nisi Dominus. Psal. 127.

EXcept the Lord build the house: their labour is but lost that build it.

2 Except the Lord keep the citie: the watchman waketh but in vaine.

3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise vp early, and so late take rest, and eate the bread of carelesnesse: for so he giueth his beloued sleepe.

4 Lo, children and the fruit of thy wombe: are an heritage and gift that commeth of the Lord.

5 Like as the arrows in the hand of the Giant: euen so are the yong children.

6 Happy is the man that hath his quier full of them: they shall not be ashamed when they speake with their enemies in the gate.

Beati omnes. Psal. 128.

Blessed are all they that feare the Lord: and walke in his wayes.

2 For thou shalt eate the labours of thine hands: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

3 Thy wife shall bee as the fruitfull Vine: vpon the wallles of thy house.

4 Thy children like the Oliue brances: round about thy Table.

5 Loe, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

6 The Lord shal out of Sion shal so blesse thee: that thou shalt see Ierusalem in prosperitie all thy life long.

7 Yea that thou shalt see thy childrens children: and peace vpon Israel.

Sepe expugnauerunt. Psal. 129.

MAny a time haue they fought against mee from my youth vp: (may Israel now say.)

2 Yea, many a time haue they vexed mee from my youth vp: but they haue not preuailed against mee.

3 The plowers plowed vpon my backe: and made long furrowes.

4 But the righteous Lord: hath hewen the snares of the vngodly in pieces.

5 Let them be confounded and turned backward: as many as haue euill will at Sion.

6 Let them be euen as the grasie growing vpon the house tops: which withereth afore it be plucked vp.

7 Whero: the mower filleth not his hand: neither he that bindeth vp the sheaves his bosome.

8 So that they which goe by, say not so much as the Lord prosper you: we wish you good lucke in the Name of the Lord.

De profundis. Psal. 130.

OVt of the deepe haue I called vnto thee (O Lord:) Lord heare my voyce.

2 Oh, let thine eares consider well: the voyce of my complaint.

3 If thou Lord wilt be extreme to marke what is done amisse: Oh Lord, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared:

5 I looke for the Lord, my soule doth waite for him: in his word is my trust.

6 My soule fleeth vnto the Lord: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: & with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shall redeeme Israel: from all his finnes.

Domine non es. Psal. 131.

Lord, I am not high minded: I haue no proude lookes.

2 I doe not exercise my selfe in great matters: which are too high for me.

3 But I refrain my soule, and keep it low, like as a childe that is weaned from his mother: yea, my soule is euen as a weaned childe.

4 O Israel trust in the Lord: from this time forth for euermore.

Memento Domine. Psal. 132.

Lord remember Dauid: and all his trouble.

2 How he sware vnto the Lord: and vowed a vow vnto the Almighty God of Iacob.

3 I will not come within the tabernacle of my house: nor clime vp into my bed.

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber: neither the temples of my head to take any rest.

5 Vntill I finde out a place for the Temple of the Lord: an habitation for the mighty God of Iacob.

6 Loc., wee heard of the same at Ephrata: and found it in the wood.

7 We will go into his Tabernacle: and fall low on our knees before his footstole.

8 Arise, O Lord, into thy resting place: thou and the Aske of thy strength.

9 Let thy Priests be clothed with righteousnesse: and let thy Saints sing with ioyfulness.

10 For thy seruant Dauid's sake: turne not away the presence of thine anoynted.

11 The Lord hath made a faithfull oath vnto Dauid: and he shall not shrinke from it.

12 Of the fruit of thy body: shall I set vpon thy seat.

13 If thy children wil keepe my couenant and my testimonies: that I shall learne them: their children also shall sit vpon thy seat for euermore.

14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habitation for himselfe: he hath longed for her.

15 This shall bee my rest for euer: heere will I dwell, for I haue a delight therein.

16 I will blesse her vitales with increase: and will satisfie her poore with bread.

17 I will decke her Priests with health: and her Saints shall reioyce and sing.

18 There shall I make the horne of Dauid to flourish: I haue ordained a lanterne for mine anoynted.

19 As for his enemies, I shall clothe them with shame: but vpon himselfe shall his crowne flourish.

Eccen quoniam bonum. Psal. 133.

BEhold, how good and ioyfull a thing it is: brethren to dwell together in vnity.

2 It is like the precious oymnt vpon the head, that ranne downe vnto the beard: euen vnto Aarons beard, and went downe to the skirts of his clothing.

3 Like as the dew of Hermon: which fell vpon the hill of Sion.

4 For theretoe the Lord promised his blessing: and life for euermore.

Eccen uenit. Psal. 134.

BEhold (now) praise the Lord: all yee seruants of the Lord.

2 Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord: euen in the courts of the house of our God.

3 Lift vp your hands in the Sanctuary: and praise the Lord.

4 The Lord that made heauen and earth: giue thee blessing out of Sion.

Laudate nomen. Psal. 135.

O praise the Lord, laud yee the Name of the Lord: praise it, O yee seruants of the Lord.

2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord: in the courts of the house of our God.

3 O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious: O sing prayes vnto his Name, for it is louely.

4 Fo why? the Lord ha. h. chosen Iacob vnto himselfe: and Israel for his owne possession.

5 For I know that the Lord is great: and that our Lord is aboue all gods.

6 Whatsoeuer the Lord pleased, that did he in heauen and in earth: and in the sea, & in all deepe places.

7 He bringeth forth the cloudes from the ends of the world: and sendeth forth lighteninges with the raine, bringing the winds out of his treasures.

8 He smote the first borne in Egypt: both of man and beast.

9 He hath sent tokens and wonders into the mids of thee, O thou land of Egypt: vpon Pharaoh and all his seruants.

10 He smote diuers nations: & slew mighty kings.

11 Schon king of the Amorites, and Og the king of Basan: and all the kingdomes of Chanaan.

12 And gaue their land to be an heritage: euen an heritage vnto Israel his people.

13 Thy Name O Lord, endureth for euer: so doth thy memorial, O Lord, from one generation to another.

14 For the Lord will auenge his people: and be gracious vnto his seruants.

15 As for the images of the Heathen, they are but silver and gold: the worke of mens hands.

16 They haue mouthes, and speake not: eyes haue they, but they see not.

17 They haue eares, and yet they heare not: neither is there any breath in their mouthes.

18 They that makethem, are like vnto them: and so are all they that put their trust in them.

19 Praise the Lord, ye house of Israel: praise the Lord, ye house of Aaron, 20 Praise the Lord, ye house of Levi: ye that feare the L. o. d., praise the Lord.

2 O giue thanks vnto the God of all gods: for his mercy endureth for euer.

3 O thanke the Lord, of all lords: for his mercie endureth for euer.

4 Which only doth great wonders: for his mercie endureth for euer.

5 Which by his excellent wisdom made the heauens: for his mercy endureth for euer.

6 Which laid out the earth aboue the waters: for his mercy endureth for euer.

7 Which hath made great lights: for his mercie endureth for euer.

8 The Sunne to rule the day: for his mercy endureth for euer.

9 The Moone and the Starres to gouerne the night: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Super flumina. Psal. 137.

Dy the waters of Babylon we sate downe and wept: When we remembered (thee) O Sion.

1 As for our haipes, wee hanged them vp: vpon the trees that are therein.

2 For they that led vs away captiue, required of vs then a song and melodie in our heauens: sing vs one of the songs of Sion.

3 How shal we sing y Lords song in a strange land.

4 If I forget thee, O Ierusalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.

5 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleaue to the roofof my mouth: yea, if I preferre not Ierusalem in my mirth.

6 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Ierusalem: how they said, Downe with it, downe with it, euen to the ground.

7 O daughter of Babylō, wast thou misery: yea, happy shal he be y rewarder: thee as thou hast serued vs.

8 Blessed shal he be that taketh thy children: and throweth them against the stones.

Consolator tibi. Psal. 138.

I Wil giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: euen before y gods wil sing praise vnto thee.

1 Wil worship toward thy holy temple, & praise thy Name, because of thy louing kindnes & truth: for thou hast magnified thy name, & thy word aboue all things.

2 When I called vpon thee, thou heardest me: and enduedst my soule with much strength.

3 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they haue heard the words of thy mouth.

4 Yea they shall sing in the wayes of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.

5 For though the Lord be high, yet hath hee respect vnto the lowly: as for the proud, hee beholdeth them asure off.

6 Though I walke in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou rescue me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand vpon the furiousnesse of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall saue me.

7 The Lord shall make good his louing kindnes toward me: yea, thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for euer, despite not then the works of thine owne hands.

Domine probasti. Psal. 139.

O Lord thou hast searched me out, and known me: thou knowest my downe sitting, and mine vprising, thou vnderstandest my thoughts long before.

1 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and spiest out all my wayes.

2 For loe, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

3 Thou hast fashioned mee behind and before: and laid thine hand vpon me.

4 Such knowledge is too wonderfull and excellent for me: I cannot attaine vnto it.

5 Whither shall I goe then from thy Spirit: or whither shall I goe then from thy presence?

6 If I clime vp in o heauen, thou art there: if I goe downe to hell, thou art there also.

7 If I take the wings of the morning: and remaine in the vitermost parts of the Sea.

8 Euen then also shal thy hand lead me: and thy right hand shall hold me.

Morning prayer.

10 If I say, Peradventure the darkenesse shall couer me: then shall my night be turned to day.

11 Yea, the darkenesse is no darkenesse with thee: but the night is as cleare as the day: the darkenes and light (to thee) are both alike.

12 For my reins are thine: thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.

13 I will giue thanks vnto thee, for I am fearefully and wonderfully made: maruelous are thy works, and that my soule knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee: though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being vnperfected: & in thy booke were all my members written.

16 Which day by day were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17 How deare are thy counsels vnto me, O God: O how great is the summe of them?

18 If I tell them, they are moe in number then the sand: when I awake vp, I am present with thee.

19 Wilt not thou slay the wicked, O God: depart from me, ye blood-thirstie men.

20 For they speake vnto thee: against thee: and thine enemies take thy Name in vaine.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I grieved with those that rise vp against thee?

22 Yea, I hate them right sore: euen as though they were mine enemies.

23 Trie me, O God, and seeke the ground of my heart: proue me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Lookes well if there be any of wickednesse in me: and leade me in the way euerlasting.

Eripe me Domine. Psal. 140.

Deliver me, O Lord, from the euill man: and preserve me from the wicked man.

2 Which imagine mischief in their hearts: and stirre vp strife all the day long.

3 They haue sharpened their tongues like a serpent: Adders poyson is vnder their lips.

4 Keepe mee, O Lord, from the hands of the vngodly: preserve mee from the wicked men which are purposed to ouerthrow my goings.

5 The proud haue laid a snare for mee, and spread a net abroad with cordes: yea, and set trappes in my way.

6 I said vnto the Lord, Thou art my God: heare the voyce of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast couered my head in the day of battell.

8 Let not the vngodly haue his desire, O Lord: let not his mischicuous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud.

9 Let the mischief of their owne lippes fall vpon the head of them: that compass me about.

10 Let hote burning coales fall vpon them: let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they neuer rise vp againe.

11 A man full of wordes shall not prosper vpon the earth: euill shall hunt the wicked person to ouerthrow him.

12 Sure I am that the Lord will auenge the poore: and maintaine the cause of the helpelesse.

13 The righteous also shall giue thanks vnto thy Name: and the iust shall continue in thy sight.

Domine clamasti. Psal. 141.

Lord, I call vpon thee, heare thee vnto me: and consider my voyce, when I cry vnto thee.

2 Let my prayer bee set forth in thy sight, as the incense: and let the lifting vp of my hands be an euening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch (O Lord) before my mouth: and keepe the doore of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be inclined to any euill thing: let me not be occupied in vngodly works, with the men that worke wickednesse, lest I eate of such things as please them.

5 Let the righteous rather smite me friendly: and reprove me.

6 But let not their precious balmes breake mine head: yea, I will pray yet against their wickednesse,

7 Let their iudges be ouerthrowen in stony places: that they may heare my words, for they are sweet.

8 Our bones lie scattered before the pie: like as when one breaketh & heweth wood vpon the earth.

9 But mine eyes looke vpon thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soule.

10 Keepe me from the snare which they haue laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the vngodly fall into their owne nets together: and let me euer escape them.

Vocet tua ad Dominum. Psal. 142.

I Cryed vnto the Lord with my voice: yea, euen vnto the Lord did I make my supplication.

2 I powered out my complaints before him: and shewed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heavines, thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked, haue they priuily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked alio vpon my right hand: and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee vnto: and no man cared for my soule.

6 I cryed vnto thee, O Lord, and said: Thou art my hope and my portion in the land of the liuing.

7 Consider my complaint: for I am brought very low.

8 O deliuer me from my persecutors: for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soule out of prison, for I may giue thanks vnto thy Name: which thing if thou wilt grant me, then shall the righteous resort vnto my company.

Dominicaudi. Psal. 143.

Hear me prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire: hearken vnto mee for thy truth and righteousness sake.

2 And enter not into iudgment with thy seruant: for in thy sight shall no man liuing be iustified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darknesse, as the men that haue bin long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet doe I remember the time past. I muse vpon all thy workes: yea, I exercise my selfe in the workes of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands vnto thee: my soule gapeth vnto thee as a thistleland.

7 Heare me, O Lord, and that soone, for my spirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me: lest I belike vnto them that goe downe into the pit.

8 O let me heare thy louing kindeste betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shew thou me the way that I should walke in, for I lift vp my soule vnto thee.

9 Deliuer mee, O Lord, from mine enemies: for I flee vnto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to doerh thing that pleaseeth thee, for thou art my God: let thy louing spirit leade me forth into the land of righteousness.

11 Quickene me, O Lord, for thy Names sake: & for thy righteousness sake bring my soule out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodness lay mine enemies: and destroy al them that vex my soule, for I am thy seruant.

Benedictus Dominus. Psal. 144.

Blessed be the Lord my strength: which teacheth my hands to warre, and my fingers to fight.

2 My hope and my fortresse, my castle and deliuer, my defender, in whom I trust: which subdeth my people that is vnder me.

3 Lord, what is man that thou hast such respect vnto him: or the Son of man? thou forgettest him?

4 Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadow.

5 Bow thy heauens, O Lord, and come downe: touch the mountaines, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth thy lightening, and teare them: shoot out thine arrowes, and consume them.

7 Send down thine hand from aboue: deliuer me and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of strange children.

8 Whole mouth talketh of vanitie: and their right hand is a right hand of wickednesse.

9 I will sing a new song vnto thee, O God: and sing praises vnto thee vpon a ten stringed Lute.

10 Thou hast giuen victorie vnto kings: and hast deliuered Dauid thy seruant (to the perill of the word)

11 Save me & deliuer me from the hand of strange children: whole mouth talketh of vanitie, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity.

12 That our sonnes may grow vp as the yong plants: and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the Temple.

13 That our garners may be full and plenteous with all manner of store: that our sheepe may bring forth thousands, and ten thousands in our streets.

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay: no leading into captiuitie, and no complaining in our streetes.

15 Happy are the people that be in such a case: yea, blessed are they people which haue the Lord for their God.

Exaltabo te Deus. Psal. 145.

I Will magnifiethee, O God, my King: and I will praise thy Name for euer and euer.

2 Euerly day will I giue thanks vnto thee: and praise thy Name for euer and euer.

3 Great is the Lord, and maruelous worthy to be praised: there is no end of his greatnessse.

4 One generation shall praise thy workes vnto another: and declare thy power.

5 As for mee, I will be talking of thy worship: thy glory, thy praise, and wonderous workes.

6 So that men shall speake of the might of thy maruelous acts: and I will also tell of thy greatnessse.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kindeste: shall be shewed: and men shall sing of thy righteousnessse.

8 The Lord is gracious and mercifull: long suffering, and of great goodnessse.

9 The Lord is louing vnto euery man: and his mercy is ouer all his workes.

10 All thy workes praise thee, O Lord: and thy Saints giue thanks vnto thee.

11 They shew the glory of thy kingdome: and talke of thy power.

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightinesse: of thy Kingdome: might be known vnto men.

13 Thy kingdome is an everlasting kingdome: and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

14 The Lord vpholdeth all such as fall: and lifeth vp all those that be downe.

15 The eyes of all looke vpon thee, O Lord: and thou giuest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things liuing with righteousnessse

Praise the Lord, O my soule, while I liue will I praise the Lord: yea, as long as I haue any being, I will sing prayes vnto my God.

2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man: for there is no helpe in them.
 3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turne againe to bis earth: and then all his thoughtes perish.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Iacob for his helpe: and whose hope is in the Lord his God.

5 Which made heauen and earth, the sea and all that therein is: which keepeth his promise for euer.

6 Which helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: which feedeth the hungry.

7 The Lord looseth men out of prison: the Lord giueth sight to the blinde.

8 The Lord helpeth them that are fallen: the Lord careth for the righteous.

9 The Lord careth for the strangers, he defendeth the fatherlesse and widow: as for the way of the vngodly, he turneth it vnder side downe.

10 The Lord thy God, O Syon, shall beking for euermore: and throughout all generations.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 147.

2 The Lord doth build vp Ierusalem: and gather together the outcasts of Israel.

3 Hee healeth those that are broken in heart: and giueth medicine to heale their sicknesse.

9 Which giueth fodder vnto the cattell: and feedeth the yong rauens that call vpon him

10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse: neither delighteth he in any mane legs.

11 But the Lords delight is in them that feare him: and put their trust in his mercy.

12 Praise the Lord, O Ierusalem: praise thy God, O Syon.

13 For he hath made fast the barres of thy gates: and hath blessed all children within thee.

14 Hee maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flower of wheat.

15 Hee sendeth forth his commandement vpon earth: and his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giueth snow like wooll: and scattereth the hoare frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his yce like morfels, who is able to abide his frost?

18 He fendeth out his word and melteth them: he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.

19 Hee sheweth his word vnto Jacob: his statutes and ordinances vnto Israel.

¶ A prayer conteining the duty of euery true Christian.

Most mighty God, mercifull and louing Father, I wretched sinner come vnto thee in the Name of thy dearely beloued Sonne Jesus Christ, my onely Sauour and Redeemer: and most humbly beseech thee for his sake, to be mercifull vnto me, and to cast

all my finnes out of thy sight and remembrance, through the merits of his bloody death and passion.

Powre vpon mee, (O Lord) thy holy Spirit of wisdome and grace: Gouverne and lead me by thy holy Word, that it may bee a lantern vnto my teete, and a light vnto my steps. Shewe thy mercy vnto me, and so lighten the naturall blindnes and darkenesse of my heart through thy grace, that I may daily be renewed by the same Spirit and grace. By the which (O Lord) purge the grossenes of my hearing & vnderstanding, that I may profitably read, heare, and vnderstand, thy word and heauenly wil, beleuee and practise the same in my life and conuersation, and euermore hold fast that blessed hope of euerslasting life.

Mortifie and kill all vice in me, that my life may expresse my faith in thee: mercifully heare the humble suite of thy seruant, and grant mee thy peace all my dayes: graciously pardon mine infirmities, and defend me in all dangers of body, goods, & name: but chiefly my soule, against all assaults, temptations, accusations, subtil baits and sleights of that old enemy of mankind, Satan that roaring Lion, euer seeking whom he may deuoure.

And here (O Lord) I prostrate, with most humble mind, craue of thy diuine Maiessty to be mercifull vnto the vniuersall Church of thy Son Christ: And especially according to my bounden duty, beseech thee for his sake to blesse, saue and defend the principall member thereof, thy seruant our most deare and Soue-raigne Lord King James, increase in his royall heart true faith, godly zeale, & loue of the same: And grant him victory ouer all his enemies, a long prosperous and honourable life vpon earth, a blessed end, and life euerslasting.

Moreover, O Lord, grant vnto his maiesties most honourable Counsellours, and euery other member of this thy Church of England, that they and we in our seuerall callings, may truly & godly serue thee. Plant in our hearts true feare and honour of thy Name, obedience to our Prince, and loue to our neighbours: Increase in vs true Faith and Religion: Replenish our minds with all goodnes, and of thy great mercy keepe vs in the same till the end of our liues: giue vnto vs a godly zeale in prayer, true humility in prosperitie, perfect patience in aduersity, and continual ioy in the holy Ghost.

And lastly, I commend vnto thy Fatherly protegi-on, all that thou hast giuen me, as wife, children, and seruants: Aide me, O Lord, that I may gouerne, nourrish, and bring them vp in thy feare and seruice. And forasmuch as in this world I must alwayes be at war and strife, not with one sort of enemies, but with an infinite number: not onely with flesh and blood, but with the deuil which is the Prince of darknes, & with wicked men, executors of his most damnable will, grant me therefore thy grace, that being armed with thy defence, I may stand in this battell with an inuicible constancie against all corruption, which I am compassed with on euery side, vntill such time as I hauing ended the combat which during this life I must sustaine, in the end I may attaine: to thy heauenly cit, which is prepared for me, & all thine elect, through Christ our Lord and onely Sauour, Amen.

Almighty God the Father of mercy, and God of all comfort, which onely forgiest sin: forgiue vnto vs our finnes, good Lord, forgiue vnto vs our finnes, that by the multitude of thy mercies they may be couered, and not imputed vnto vs, and by the operation of the holy Ghost we may haue power and strength hereafter to resist sin, by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Tuesday.

O Lord God, which despisest not a contrite heart, and forgettest the sins and wickednesse of a sinner in what houre soeuer hee doth mourne & lament his old maner of liuing: grant vnto vs (O Lord) true contrition of heart, that we may vehemently despise our sinful life past, and wholly be conuerted vnto thee by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Wednesday.

O Mercifull Father, by whose power and strength we may overcome our enemies both bodily and ghostly: grant vnto vs, O Lord, that according to our promise made in our baptisme, we may overcome the chiefe enemies of our soule, that is, the desires of the world, the pleasures of the flesh, and the suggestions of the wicked spirit: and to after leade our liues in holiness and righteounesse, that we may eternally be in spirit and truth, and that by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Thursday.

O Almighty and euersliuing God, which ner onely giueth euery good & perfect gift, but also increa-sest those gifts that thou hast giuen: we most humbly beseech thee (mercifull God) to increase in vs the gift of faith, that we may truly beleuee in thee, and in thy promise made vnto vs: and that neither by our negligence, nor infirmities of the flesh, nor by grieuousnesse of temptation, neither by the subtil crafts & assaults of the deuil, wee be driuen from faith in the blood of our sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Friday.

Grant vnto vs, O mercifull God, (we most heartily beseech thee) knowledge and true vnderstanding of thy word, that al ignorance expelled, we may know what thy will and pleasure is in all things, and how to doe our duties, and truly to walke in our vocation & that also we may expresse in our liuing those things that we doe knowe, that we be not onely knowers of thy word, good Lord, but also bee workers of the same, by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Saturday.

O Almighty God, which hast prepared euerslasting life to all those that bee thy faithfull seruants:
grant vnto vs, Lord, sure hope of the life euerslasting, that we being in this miserable world, may haue some taste and feeling of it in our hearts, and that not by our deservings, but by the merits and deservings of our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

O mercifull

O Mercifull God our only aide, succour & strength at all times: grant vnto vs, O Lord, that in the time of prosperitie we be not proud, & so forget thee, but that with our whole heart and strength we may cleaue vnto thee, and in the time of aduersity that we fall not into infidelity and desperation, but that alwayes with a constant faith, we may call for helpe vnto thee: grant this, O Lord, for our aduocates sake, and Sauour Iesus Christ, Amen.

— Sunday.

O Almighty and mercifull Lord, which giuest vnto thy elect people the holy Ghost, as a sure pledge of thy heavenly kingdome: Grant vnto vs, O Lord, thy holy spirit, that hee may beare witness with our spirit, that we be thy children, and heires of thy kingdome, and that by the operation of this Spirit, wee may kill all carnall lusts, vnlawfull pleasures, concupiscences, euill affections, contrary vnto thy will, by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

A prayer for trust in God.

The beginning of the sal of man, was trust in himselfe. The beginning of the restoring of man, was distrust in himselfe, and trust in God O most gracious and most wise guide our Sauour Christ, which doest lead them by right way to immortal blessednes, which truly and vntainedly trusting in thee, commit themselves to thee: Grant vs, that like as we be blinde and feeble indeed, so we may take and repute our selues, that we presume not of our selues, to see to our selues, but so far to see, that alway we may haue thee before our eyes, to follow thee being our guide, to be ready at thy call most obediently, and to commit our selues wholly vnto thee, that thou which onely knowest the way, mayest lead vs the same way vnto our heavenly desires: to thee with the Father and the holy Ghost, be glory for euer, Amen.

A generall confession of finnes to be saide euery Morning.

Almighty God our heavenly Father, I confesse and acknowledge, that I am a miserable and a wretched sinner, & haue manifold waies most grievously transgressed thy most godly commandements through wicked thoughts, vngodly lusts, sinfull words and deeds committed all my whole life. In sinne am I borne and conceived, and there is no goodnesse in me, in as much as if thou shouldst enter into thy narrow iudgement with me, iudging me according vnto the same, I were neuer able to suffer and abide it, but must needs perish and be damned for euer. So little helpe, comfort, or succour, is there either in me, or in any other creature. Onely this is my comfort (O heavenly father) that thou didst not spare thy onely deare beloued Sonne, but diddest giue him vp vnto the most bitter, and most vile and slanderous death of the crosse for me, that hee might loyallye ransom for my finnes, satisfie thy iudgment, still and pacifie thy wrath, reconcile me againe vnto thee, and purchase me thy grace and fauour, and euertlasting life. Wherefore through the merit of his most bitter death and passion, and through his innocent bloodshedding, I beseech thee, O heavenly Father, that thou wilt vouchsafe to be gracious & mercifull vnto me, to forgive and pardon me of all my sins, to lighten my heart with thy holy spirit, to renew, confirme, and strengthen me with a right and perfect faith, & to inflame me in loue toward thee & my neighbour, that I may henceforth with a willing and glad heart walke as it becometh mee, in thy most godly commandements, and to glorifie and praise thee euertlastingly. And also that I may with a free conscience and quiet heart, in all manner of temptations, afflictions, or necessities & euen in the very pangs of death, cry boldly and merrily vnto thee, and say, I beleue in God the Father almighty maker of heauen and earth, and in Iesus Christ, &c. But, O Lord God heavenly Father, to comfort my selfe in affliction and temptation with these Articles of the Christian faith, it is not in my power, for faith is thy gift: and forasmuch as thou wilt be prayrd vnto, and called vpon for it, I come vnto thee, to pray and beseech thee, both for that and for all other my necessities, euen as thy deare beloued Sonne our Sauour Iesus Christ himselfe hath taught vs. And from the very bottome of my heart I cry and say, Our Father which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name, &c.

Prayers to be said in the Morning.

O Mercifull Lord God, heavenly Father, I tender most high laudes praise, and thanks vnto thee, that thou hast preferred me both this night, and all the times and daies of my life hitherto vnder thy protection, and hast suffered me to liue vntill this present houre. And I beseech thee heartily, that thou wilt vouchsafe to receiue me this day, and the residue of my whole life, from henceforth into thy tuition, ruling and governing me with thy holy Spirit, that al manner of darkenesse, of misbeliefe, infidelity and of carnall lusts and affections may be vterly chased and driuen out of my heart, and that I may be iustified and saved both body and soule through a right and perfect faith and so walke in the light of thy most godly truth, to thy glory and praise, and to the profit & furtherance of my neighbour, through Iesus Christ our Lord and Sauour, Amen.

All possible thanks that we are able, we render vnto thee, O Lord Iesus Christ, for that thou hast willed this night past, to be prosperous vnto vs: and we beseech thee likewise to prosper all this same day vnto vs for thy glory, and for the health of our soule, and that thou which art the true Light, not knowing any going downe, and which art the Sonne eternall, giuing life, food and gladnes vnto all things, vouchsafe to shine into our mindes, that wee may not any where stumble to fall into any sinne, but through thy good guiding and conducting, come to the life euertlasting, Amen.

O Lord Iesus Christ, which art the true Sonne of world, euertmore rising, & neuer going downe, which by thy most wholeome appearing and sight, dost bring forth, preferre, nourish & refresh all things as well that are in heauen, as also that are on earth: we beseech thee mercifully & fauorably to shine into our hearts, that the night and darkenesse of finnes, and the mists of errors on euery side driue away, thou brightly shining within our hearts, we may all our life space go without any stumbling or offence, & may decetly and safely walke (as in the day time) being pure and cleane from the works of darkenesse, and abounding in all good works which God hath prepared for vs to walke in, which with the Father and with the holy Ghost liue & reigne for euer and euer. Amen.

O God

O God and Lord Iesus Christ, thou knowest, yea, and hast also taught vs how great the infirmity and weaknesse of man is, and how certaine a thing it is that it can do nothing without thy good helpe. If man trust to himselfe, it cannot be auoyded, but that he must runne headlong, and fall into a thousand vndoings and mischies. O our Father, haue thou pity and compassion vpon the weaknesse of vs thy children, bee thou preit and ready to helpe vs, alwayes shewing thy mercy vpon vs, and prospering whatsoever we godly go about, so that thou giuing vs light, we may see what things are truly good indeed: thou encouraging vs, we may haue an earnest desire to the same: and thou being our guide, we may come where to obtaine them: for we hauing nothing but mistrust in our selues, do yeeld and commit our selues full and wholly vnto thee alone, which worketh all things in all creatures, to thy honour and glory. So be it.

A prayer against temptation.

O Lord Iesus Christ, the onely stay and fence of our mortal state, our onely hope, our onely saluation, our glory, and our triumph, who in the flesh (which thou hadst for our onely cause taken vpon thee) diddest suffer thy selfe to bee tempted of Satan, and who onely and alone of all men diddest vtterly overcome and vanquish sin, death, the world, the deuill, and all the kingdome of hell: and whatsoever thou hast to overcome, for our behoofe it is that thou hast recommended: neither hath it bene thy will to haue any of thy seruants to keepe battell, or fight with any of the foresaid euils, but of purpose to reward vs with a crowne of the more glory for it. And to the intent that thou mightest likewise overthrow Satan in thy members, as thou haddest afore done in thine owne person, giue thou (we beseech thee) vnto vs thy souldiers (O Lion most victorious of the tribe of Iuda) strength against the roaring Lyon, which continually wandreth out and fro, seeking whom hee may deuore. Thou being that same Serpent, the true giuer of health and life, that was nailed on high vpon a tree, giue vnto vs thy filly ones, wilnesse against the deceitfull awaiting of the most subtille Serpent. Thou being a Lamb as white as snow, the vanquisher of Satans tyranny, giue vnto vs thy little sheepe the strength and vertue of thy Spirit, that being in our owne selues weak and feeble, and in thee strong and valiant, we may with stand and overcome all assaults of the deuill, so that our ghostly enemy may not glory on vs, but being conquered through thee, we may giue thanks to thy mercy, which neuer leauest them destitute that put their trust in thee, who liuest and reignest God for euer without end. Amen.

A prayer for the obtaining of wisdom.

O God of our fathers, and Lord of mercy, thou that hast made all things with thy word, & ordered man through thy wisdom, that he should haue dominion ouer creatures which thou hast made, that hee should order the world according to equity & righteousness, & execute iudgment with a true heart: giue me wisdom, which is euer about thy seate, and put me not out from among thy children: for I thy seruant and sonne of thy handmaide, am a feeble person, of a short time, and too young to the vnderstanding of thy iudgement and lawes: yea, though a man bee neuer perfected among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, he shall be nothing worth. O send thy wisdom out of thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy Maieste, that he may be with me, and labour with me, that I may know what is acceptable in thy sight, for thee knoweth and vnderstandeth all things, and the shall condukt me right soberly in thy works, and preferre me in her power, so that my workes be acceptable. Amen.

A prayer against worldly carelesnesse.

O Most deare and tender Father, our defender and nourisher, indue vs with thy grace that wee may cast off the great blindness of our minds, and carefulnesse of worldly things, and may put our whole stuy and care in keeping of thy holy Law, and that we may labour and trauaile for our necessities in this life, like the birds of the ayre, and the Lillies of the field without care. For thou hast promised to be careful for vs, and hast commanded that vpon thee wee should cast all our care: which liuest and reignest world without end, Amen.

A prayer necessary for all persons.

O Merciful God, I a wretched sinner reknowlege my self bound to keepe thy holy comandements, but yet vnahle to performe them, & to be accepted for iust without the righteousnes of Iesus Christ thy onely Sonne, who hath perfectly fulfilled thy Law, to iustifie all men that beleue and trust in him. Therefore grant me grace, I beseech thee, to be occupied in doing of good works, which thou comandest in holy Scripture, all the dayes of my life, to thy glory, and yet to trust onely in thy mercy, and in Christs merits, to be purged from my sins, and not in my good works, be they neuer so many. Giue mee grace to loue thy holy word feruently, to search the Scriptures diligently, to reade them humbly to vnderstand them truly, to liue after them effectually. Order my life. O Lord, that it may be alway acceptable vnto thee. Giue me grace not to reioyce in any thing that displeaeth thee, but euermore to delight in those things that please thee, be they neuer so contrary to my desires. Teach me so to pray that my petitions may be graciously heard of thee. Keepe me vpright among diuersities of opinions and iudgements in the world, that I neuer swaue from thy truth taught in holy Scripture. In prosperitie, O Lord, faue me, that I woe not proud. In aduersity helpe me, that I neither dispaire nor blasphem thy holy Name, but taking it patiently, to giue thee thanks, and trust to be deliuered after thy pleasure. When I happen to fall into sinne through frailtie, I beseech thee to worke true repentance in my heart, that I may bee free without desperation, to trust in thy mercy without presumption, that I may amend my life, and become truly religious without hypocrisie, lowly in heart without faining, faithfull and trustie without deceit, merry without lightnesse, fast without mistrust, sober without slouthfulness, content with mine owne without couetousnesse, to tel my neighbour his faults charitably without dissimulation, to instruct my household in thy laws truly, to obey our King and all gouernours vnder him vnfaidely to receiue all lawes and common ordinances (which disageeth not from thy holy word) obediently, to pay euery man that which I owe vnto him truly, to backbite no man, nor slander my neighbour secretly, and to abhorre all vice, loosing all goodnesse earnestly. O Lord grant me thus to dee, for the glory of thy holy Name, Amen.

A prayer for patience in trouble.

How hast thou (O Lord) vmbled and plucked me downe? dare now vneaths make my prayers vnto thee, for thou art angry w me, but not without my deserving. Certainly I haue sinned, Lord I confesse it: I will not denie it: but oh my God, pardon my trespasses, releas my debts, render now thy grace againe vnto me, stoppe my wounds, for I am all to plagued and and beaten: yet Lord this notwithstanding I abide patiently, & giue mine attendance on thee continually waiting for reliefe at thy hand, and that not without kill, for I haue receiued a toké of thy fauour and grace toward me, I meane thy word of promise concerning Christ, who for me was offered on the Crosse for a ransom, a sacrifice and price for my finnes: wherefore according to that thy promise, defend me Lord by thy right hand, and giue a gracious care to my requests, for all mans stayes are but vaine. Beate downe therefore mine enemies thine owne selfe with thy power, which art my onely ayder and protector, O Lord God Almighty. Amen.

¶ A Prayer to be said at night going to bed.

O Mercifull Lord God heauenly Father, whether wee sleepe or wake, liue or die, wee are alwayes thine. Wherefore I beseech thee heartily, that thou wilt vouchsafe to take care and charge of me, and not to suffer me to perish in the works of darkenes, but to kindle the light of thy countenance in my heart, that thy godly knowledg may daily increase in me through a right & pure faith, & that I may alwayes be found to walke and liue after thy will and pleasure, through Iesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

O Lord Iesus, which art the onely health of all men liuing, & the euermolting life of them which die in faith: I wretched sinner giue and submit my selfe wholly vnto thy most blessed wil. And being sure that the thing cannot perish which is committed vnto thy mercy, willingly now I leaue this fraile & wicked flesh in hope of the resurrection, which in better wise shall restore it to me againe. I beseech thee, most mercifull Lord Iesus Christ, that thou wilt by thy grace make strong my soule against all temptation, and that thou wilt couer and defend mee with the buckler of thy mercy against all the assaults of the deuill I see and knowledg that there is in my selfe no hope of saluation, but all my confidence, hope, and trust is in thy mercifull goodnes. I haue no merits nor good works which I may alledge before thee. O finnes and euill workes (alas) I see a great heape, but through thy mercy I trust to be in the number of them to whom thou wilt not impute their finnes, but take and accept me for righteous & iust, and to be the inheritor of euermolting life. Thou mercifull Lord wast borne for my sake, thou didst suffer both hunger and thirst for my sake, thou didst preach and teach, thou didst pray and fast for my sake, thou didst al good works and deeds for my sake, thou sufferedst most grieuous paines and torments for my sake. And finally thou gauest thy most precious body to die, and thy blood to be shed on the Crosse for my sake. Now most mercifull Saviour, let all these things profit me, which thou freely hast giuen me, that hast giuen thy selfe for me. Let thy blood cleanse and wash away the spots and foulness of my finnes. Let thy righteousnesse hide and couer mine vnrighteousnesse. Let the merits of thy passion and blood, be the satisfaction for my sine. Giue me Lord thy grace, that my faith and saluation in thy blood wauer not in mee, but bee euermolting and constant, that the hope of thy mercy and life euermolting neuer decay in me, that charitie waxe not cold in me. Finally, that the weaknesse of my flesh bee not ouercome with the feare of death. Grant me mercifull Saviour, that when death hath shut vp the eyes of my body, yet that the eyes of my soule may still behold and looke vpon thee, that when death hath taken away the vse of my tongue and speech, yet that my heart may cry and say vnto thee, In manus tuas Domine, commendo spiritum meum, (that is to say) O Lord, in to thy hands I giue and commit my soule: Domine Iesu accipe spiritum meum: Lord Iesu receiue my soule vnto thee, Amen.

*Let the word of God dwell plenteously in you, in all wisdom, teaching and exhorting one another, in Psalmes, Hymnes, and spiritu-

LONDON:

Imprinted for the Companie of Stationers. 1617.

Cum Priuilegio.

Veni Creator.

One holy Ghost eter-

nall God, proceeding from above, both from the Father and the Sonne, the God of peace and loue. Visiour minds, and into vs thy heauenly grace inspire, charis all truth and godlinesse we may haue true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter
in all woe and distresse :

The heauenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse.

The fountaine and the liuely spring of ioy celestiall :

The fire so bright, the loue so cleare,
and vnctioa spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifest, whereby Christs Church doth stand :
In faithfull hearts writing thy Law
the finger of Gods hand.

According to thy promise made,
thou giuest speech of grace :
That through thy helpe the praise of God may stand in euery place.

O holy Ghost into our mindes send downe thy heauenly light :
Kindle our hearts with seruent loue, to serue God day and night.

Strength and stablish all our weaknesse
so feeble and so fraile,
That neyther flesh, the world, nor diuell, against vs doe preuaile.

Put backe our enemies farre from vs,
and grant vs to obtaine :
Peace in our hearts with God and man, without grudge or disdain.

And grant O Lord, that thou being our leader and our guide :
We may eschew the snares of sinne,
and from thee neuer slide.

To vs such plenty of thy grace,
good Lord grant we thee pray :
That thou maiest be our comforter at the last dreadfull day.

Of all strife and dissention
O Lord dissolve the bands :

The humble suite of a Sinner.

And make the knots of peace and loue, throughout all Chrillian Lands.

Graunt vs O Lord, through thee to know the Father most of might :
That of his deere beloved sonne,
we may attaine the sight.
And that with perfect faith also,
we may acknowledge thee :
The spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the sonne equall :
And to the holy spirit also,
one God coeternall.
And pray we that thy onely Sonne, vouchsafe his spirit to send,
To all that doe profess his name,
vnto the worlds end.

The humble suite of a Sinner.

O Lord of whom I doe depend, behold my careful heart, And when thy will and pleasure is, release me of my sinart. Thou feelt my sorrowes what they are, my grieue is knowne to thee: And there is none that can remoue or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose aide I craue, whose mercy still is prest :
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou feelt my relesse eyes,
my tears and grievous grone :
Attend vnto my suite O Lord, marke well my plaint and mone.

For sinne hath so enclosed me, and compast me about,
That I am now remedilesse,
if mercy helpe not out :
For mortall man cannot expresse,
or mitigate this paine :
But euen thy Christ my Lord, and God, which for my sinne was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortall eye :

Venite exultemus.

Yet doe thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sinne doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enioy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints,
doe now behold the same :
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praise thy name.
But while I liue here in this vaile, where sinners doe frequent, Assist me euer with thy grace,
my sinnes still to lament.

Left that I tread in sinners trace,
and giue them my consent,
To dwell with them in wickednesse;
where to nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay,
left that I fall downe flat :
And being downe, then of my selfe, cannot recouer that.

Wherefore, this is yet once againe,
my suite and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sinnes,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart, my tongue and voice,
be instruments of praise,
And in the Church and house of Saints, sing Psalmes to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus. Psal. xcv.

Sing this as the Benedicte.

○ Come and let vs now reioyce,
And sing vnto the Lord,
And to our onely Saviour :
Also with one accord.

O let vs come before his face,
With inward reuerence ;
Confessing all our former sinnes,
And that with diligence.

To thanke him for his benefits,
Alway distributing.
Wherefore to him right ioyfully,
In Psalmes now let vs sing :

And that because that God alone,
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke aboue all other Gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake,
At any time or tide :
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.

And with his louing countenance
He looketh euery where :
And doth behold the tops of all,
The mountaines farre and neere.

The sea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made :
And eke his hand hath fashioned,
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him,
And downe before him fall,
And let vs kneele before the Lord,
The which hath made vs all.

Te Deum.

He is our God, our Lord and King,
And we his people are :
His flockes and sheepe of his pasture,
On whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will heare his voice,
Yet harden not your heart.
As in their bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness :
A great and grieuous crime.

Whereas your Fathers tempted me,
And tried me euery way :
They proued me and saw my workes,
What I could doe or say.

These forty yeeres I haue beene grieved,
With all this generation :
And euermore I said they erred
In their imagination.

Wherewith their hearts were sore cumbered
Long time and many daies, Wherefore I know assuredly,
They haue not knowne my waies.

To whom I in my anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my ioy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria patriæ.

All laud and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might art most :
To God the Father, and the Sonne,
And to the holy Ghost.

As it in the beginning was,
For euer heretofore,
And is now at this present time,
And shall be euermore.

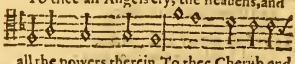

The song of S. Ambrose, called, Te Deum.

VV

E praise thee God, we knowledge thee, the onely Lord to be, and as eternal

Father all, the earth doth worship thee :

To thee all Angels cry, the heavens, and all the powers therein, To thee Cherub and Seraphin, to cry they doe not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabbath Lord the God, Through heauen & earth thy praise is spread,
and glory all abroad.

The Apostles glorious company
yeeld praises vnto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowship praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious hoast of Martyrs sound thy praise:
The holy Church throughout the world,
doth knowledge thee alwayes.
Father of endlesse Maiestie
they doe acknowledge thee, Thy Christ, thine honourable, true, and onely sonne to be.

The holy Ghost the Comforter, of glory thou art King.
O Christ and of the Father art
the sonne euerlasting.
When sinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore;
To be inclos'd in virgins wombe thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst ouercome of death the sharpe and cruell might, Thou heauens kingdome didst set ope to each beleeuing wight.
In glory of the Father thou doest sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Iudge,
our cause to vnderstand.

Lord helpe thy seruants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood:
And in eternall glory set them with thy Saints so good.
O Lord doe thou thy people saue, blesse thine inheritance:
Lord gouerne them, and Lord doe thou for euer them aduance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy name, O Lord, vouchsafe vs to defend From sinne this day. Haue mercy Lord, haue mercy on vs all:
And on vs as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord I haue reposed all my confidence in thee:
Put to confounding shame therefore,
Lord let me neuer be.

Benedictus.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

T He onely Lord of Israel be praised euermore: For through his visitation and mercy kept in store, His people now he hath redeem'd, that long hath beene in thrall: And spread abroad his sauing health vpon his seruants all.

In Dauids house his seruant true,
According to his minde:
And also his annoynted King,
As we in Scripture finde,
As by his holy Prophets all,
Oft times he did declare:
The which were since the world began,
His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be deliuered
From those that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the hands,
Of all that doe vs hate.

The mercies which he promised
Our Fathers, to fulfill:
And thinke vpon his couenant made
According to his will.

And also to performe his oath,
Which he before had sworne
To Abraham our Father deare,
For vs that were forlorne.

That he would giue himselfe for vs,
And vs from bondage bring,
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serue our heauenly King.

And that without all manner feare,
And eke in righteousnesse:
And also for to lead our liues
In stedfast holinesse.

And thou O childe which now art borne,
And of the Lord elect,
Shalt be the Prophet of the highest,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt goe before his face
For to prepare his wayes:
And also for to teach his will
And pleasure all thy dayes.

To giue them knowledge how that their saluation is neere:
And that remission of their sinnes
Is through his mercy meere.

Magnificat.

Whereby the Day-spring from on high
Is come vs for to visit:
And those for to illuminate,
Which doe in darknesse sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be
With death and eke opprest:
And also for to guide their feet
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of the blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soule doth magnifie the Lord, my spirit eke euermore, Reioyceth in the Lord my God, which is my Sauour. And why because he did regard, and gaue respect vnto, So base estate of his handmaid and let the mighty goe.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for euermore
Shall me right blessed call.

Because he hath me magnified
Which is the Lord of might:
Whose name be euer sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth enflame,
Throughout all generations,
To such as feare his name.

He shewed strength with his great arme,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they bare in their heart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones
From their supernall seat:
And did exalt the meeke in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.

The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good:
And through his power he made the rich
Oft times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy euery deale,
Hath holpen vp assistantly
His seruant Israel.

According to his promise made To Abraham before.
And to his seede successively,
To stand for euermore.

The Song of Simeon, called, Nunc dimittis.

O Lord because my hearts desire, hath wished long to see, My onely Lord and Saviour, thy Sonne before I die:

The ioy & health of all mankind, desired long before, which now is come into the world, of mercy bringing store.

Thou sufferest thy servant now,
In peace for to depart,

According to thy holy word,
Which lighteneth my heart :

Because mine eies which thou hast made,
To giue my body light :

Haue now beheld thy saving health
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set,
Of thine abundant grace ;

In open sight and visible,
Before all peoples face.

The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Sathan ouerquell :

And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israell.

The Symbole or Creed of Athanasius, called, Quicumque vult.

V Who man soeuer he be that, saluation will attaine, the Catholike Beliefe he must before all things retaine : Which faith vntlesse he holy keep & vndefiledly :

Without all doubt eternally, he shall be sure to die.

The Catholike beliefe is this,
that God we worship one In Trinity, and Trinity in vinity alone.

So as we neither doe confound the persons of the three.

Quicumque vult.

Nor yet the substance whole of one,
in sunder parted be :

One person of the father is,
another of the sonne :

Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone.

Of father, sonne and holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is :

Like glory coeternall eke,
the Maiestie likewise.

Such as the father is, such is the sonne in each degree :

And such also we doe beleue the holy Ghost to be.

Vncreate is the father, and vncreate is the sonne :

The holy Ghost vncreate so, vncreate is each one.

Incomprehensible father is,
incomprehensible sonne :

And comprehensible also is,
the holy Ghost of none.

The father is eternall, and the sonne eternall so :

And in like sort eternall is,
the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beleue that each of these eternall be ;

Yet there but one eternall is,
and not eternals three.

As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet vncreate three.

But one incomprehensible, one vncreate hold to be.

Almighty so the Father is,
the sonne almighty so :

And in like sort almighty is,
the holy Ghost also.

And albeit that euery one,
of these almighty be :

Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almighties three.

The father God is, God the sonne, God holy Ghost also :

Yet there are not three Gods in all,
but one God and no more :

So likewise Lord the father is,
and Lord also the sonne,

And Lord the holy Ghost, yet are there not three Lords but one.

For as we are compelde to grant
by Christian verity :

Each of the persons by himselfe, both God and Lord to be.

So Catholike Religion,
forbiddeth vs alway,

That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three to say.

Of none the father is ne made,
ne create nor begot :

The sonne is of the father, not create, ne made, but got.

The holy Ghost is of them both the father and the sonne :

Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceede alone.

So we one Father hold not three,
 one Sonne also not three :
 One holy Ghost alone, and not three holy Ghosts to be.
 None in this Trinitie before, nor after other is,
 Ne greater any then the rest,
 ne lesser is likewise.

But every one among themselves,
 of all the persons three,
 Together coeternall all,
 and all coequall be :
 So vnity in trinity,
 as said it is before,
 And trinity in vnity,
 in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soeuer that saluation will attaine :
 This faith touching the trinity,
 of force we must retaine.
 And needfull to eternall life,
 it is that euery wight :
 Of the incarnating of Christ
 our Lord, belecue aright.

For this the right faith is, that we belecue and eke doe know, That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God, is God and man also :
 God of his fathers substance got before the world began,
 And of his mothers substance borne,
 in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man,
 in one, one Iesus Christ,
 That doth of reasonable soules,
 and humane flesh subsist.
 Touching his Godhead equall with, his father God is he,
 Touching his manhood lower then,
 his father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
 and very man also :
 Yet is he but one Christ alone,
 and is not persons two.
 One not by turning of Godhead, into the flesh of man :
 But by taking manhood to God,
 this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the substance into one,
 But onely by the vnity,
 that is one person.
 For as the reasonable soule,
 and flesh but one man is.
 So in one person God and man, is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to saue vs all,
 to hell he did descend :
 The third day rose againe from death,
 to heauen he did ascend.
 He sits at the right hand of God,
 the Almighty father there.
 From thence to iudge the quicke and dead,
 againe he shall reire.

At whose returne all men shall rise, with bodies new restorde :

 And of their owne workes they shall giue account vnto the Lord.
 And they into eternall life shall goe, that haue done well, Who haue done ill, shall goe into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the Catholike beliefe, who doth not faithfully beleue the same, without all doubt, he saued cannot be.
 To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
 all glory be therefore,
 As in beginning was, is now,
 and shall be euermore.

The Lamentation of a Sinner. M.

Lord turne not away thy face, from him that lieth prostrate, Lamenting fore his sinfull life, before thy mercy gate, which gate thou openest wide to those, that doe lament their sin. Shut not that gate against me Lord, but let me enter in.

And call me not to mine accounts,
 How I haue liued here :
 For then I know night well O Lord,
 How vile I shall appeare :
 I need not to confesse my life,
 I am sure thou canst tell :
 What I haue beene, and what I am,
 I know thou knowest it well.

O Lord thou knowest what things be past,
 And eke the things that be,
 Thou knowest also what is to come,
 Nothing is hid from thee :
 Before the heauens and earth were made Thou knowest what things were then :
 As all things else that hath beene since,
 Among the Sonnes of men.

And can the things that I haue done,
 Be hidden from thee then :
 Nay, nay thou knowest them all O Lord,
 Where they were done and when :
 Wherefore with teares I come to thee,
 To beg and to intreat :

The Lords Prayer.

Euen as the Child that hath done euill,
And feareth to be beat :

So come I to thy mercy gate
Where mercy doth abound,
Requiring mercy for my sinne,
To heale my deadly wound.

O Lord I neede not to reapeate,
What I doe beg or craue :
Thou know'st, O Lord, before I aske,
The thing that I would haue.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I aske,
This is the totall summe :
For mercy Lord is all my suite,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater Noster.

O Vr Father which in heauen art, Lord hallowed be thy name, thy Kingdome come, thy will be done in earth, euen as the same in heauen is. 2. Giue vs O Lord our daily bread this day. As we forgiue our debtors, so forgiue our debts we pray. Into temptation lead vs not, from euill make vs free: For kingdome, power and glory thine, both now and euer be.

No worke then shalt thou doe in it,

Thy daughter, seruant, nor handmaid,

Nor stranger that within thy gates,

For in sixe daies God heauen and earth, and all therein did make :
And after those his rest he did

Wherefore he blest the day that he

Ne couet shalt in hauing of

VV
Here righteousnesse doth say, Lord for my sinfull part. In wrath thou shouldst me pay, Vengeance for my defart, I can it not deny, but needs I must confesse, how that continually, thy lawes I doe transgresse, thy lawes I doe transgresse.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend,
Then all thy flocke shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who liueth here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sinnes not in thy sight,
Full oft and every day?

The Scripture plaine tels me
The righteous man offendeth
Seuen times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth.
So that the righteous man,
Doth walke in no such path,
But he fall'th now and than
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands,
That euen the man right wise
Fall'th oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise.
Lord I that am vniust,
And righteousnesse none haue,
Wherto then shall I trust,
My sinfull soule to saue?

But truly to that poist, Wherto I cleane and shall,
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy moode,
Or else we perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare,
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou didst not spare,
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet,

Psalme I.

So moist my heare so drie.
That I with sinne repleat,
May liue and sinne may die.

That being mortified,
This sinne of mine in me:
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I neuer fall,
Into such mortall sinne,
That my foes infernall,
Reioyce my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keepe
From those infernall foes,
And from that lake so deepe,
Whereas no mercie growes.
And I shall sing the songs,
Confirmed with the iust,
That vnto thee belongs,
Which are mine onely trust.

THE PSALMES of DAVID.

Beatus vir. Psal. I. T.S.

This Psalme is set first, as a Preface, to exhort all godly men to studie and meditate the heavenly wisdomme: for they are blessed that so doe, but the wicked contemners thereof as length shall come to misery.

H E man is blest that hath not bent, to wicked read his care: nor led his life as sinners do, nor sate in scorners chaire. 2. But in the Law of God the Lord doth set his whole delight: And in that Law doth exercise himselfe both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that growes fast by the riuer side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit,
in her due time and tide.
Whose lease shall neuer fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Euen so all things shall prosper well that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the vngodly men, they shall be nothing to

But as the dust which from the earth
the winde drue to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men in iudgement stand vpright:
Nor yet the sinners with the iust, shall come in place or sight.

6 For why? the way of godly men
vnto the Lord is knowne:
And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be ouerthrowne.

Quare fremuerunt? Psal. ij. T. S.

Dauid reioyeth, that albeis enemies and worldly power rage, God will aduance his kingdome, euen to the farthest end of the world. Therefore hee exhorteth Princes humbly to submit themselves vnder the same. Herein is signified Christ and his Kingdome.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

Why did the Gentiles tumult raise?
what rage was in their braine?
Why did the Iewish people muse, seeing all is but vaine?

2 The Kings and rulers of the earth conspire, and are all bent, Against the Lord and Christ his Sonne, which he among vs sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let vs reiect the yoke.

4 But he that in the heauen dwels their doings w'll deride:
And make them all as mocking stockes throughout the world fo wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say to them vpon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say:
6 I haue annointed him my King,
vpon my holy hill:
I will therefore, Lord, preach thy lawes, and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himselfe did say to me I wor:
Thou art my deare and onely Sonne, to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will giue to thee,
as heyres at thy request:
The ends an' coasts of all the earth,
by thee shall be possesst.

9 Thou shalt them bruiſe euen with a mace,
as men vnder foot trod:
And as the potters sheards shalt breake them with an iron rod.

10 Now yee, O Kings and rulers all,
be wise thereloſe and learn'd:
By whom the matter of the world be iudged and discern'd.

11 See that ye ſerue the Lord about in trembling and in feare:
See that with reuerence yee reioyce to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kilde and eke embrace his blessed Sonne I say:
Left in his wrath ye ſodainly perish in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath neuer so finally,
shall kindle in his breſt:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ shall happy be and bleſt.

Domine quid? Psal. iij. T. S.

Dauid driven out of his Kingdome by his son Absolon, as greatly tormented in his minde for his ſin. Therefore he calleth vpon God, and v baid in his promiſes, ag'ſt the terror loſe of enemies and preſent death. Then he reioyeth for the victory giuen to him and the Church, ouer their enemies.

O Lord how are my foes increaſt, which vexe me more and more? 1. They kill mine heart when as they ſay, God can him not reſore. But thou O Lord, art my defence, when I am hard beſet: My worſhip and mine honour both, and thou holdſt vp mine head.

4 Then with my voyce vpon the Lord,
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill did heare me by and by.

5 I laid me downe, and quietly
I ſlept and roſe againe:
For why? I know aſſuredly the Lord will me ſuſtaine.

6 If ten thouſand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid:
For thou art ſtill my Lord, my God,
my Sauour and mine aide.

7 Riſe vp therefore, ſaue me my God,
for now to thee I call:
For thou haſt broke the cheekes and teeth of theſe wicked men all.

8 Salvation onely doth belong to thee O Lord about:
Thou doſt beſtow vpon thy folke thy bleſſing and thy loue.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. iij. T. S.

Dauid perſecuted by Saul, calleth vpon God, with aſſured truſt, reſproueth his enemies for reſiſting his dominion, and preferreth the ſauiour of God before all treaſure.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

O God that art my righteousneſſe,
Lord heare me when I call:
Thou haſt ſet me at liberty when

- when I was bound and thrall.
 2 Haue mercy Lord therefore on me,
 and grant me my request :
 For vnto thee vnconstantly to cry I will not rest.
 3 O mortall men how long will ye, my glory thus despise ?
 Why wander ye in vanities, and follow after lyes ?
 4 Know ye that good and godly men,
 the Lord doth take and chuse :
 And when to him I make my plaint
 he doth me not refuse.
 5 Sinne not but stand in awe therefore,
 examine well your heart :
 And in your chamber quietly see you your felues conuert.
 6 Offer to God the sacrifice of righteousnesse, I say :
 And looke that in the liuing Lord
 you put your trust alway.
 7 The greater sort craue worldly goods,
 and riches doe embrace :
 But Lord grant vs thy countenance,
 thy fauour and thy grace.
 8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart more ioyfull and more glad,
 Then they that of their corne and wine, full great increase haue had.
 9 In peace therefore lye downe will I,
 taking my rest and sleepe :
 For thou onely wilt me O Lord, alone in safety keepe.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

Dauid persecuted by Doeg and Achitophel, Sauls flatterers, calleth vpon God to punish their malice. Then assured of successe, he receiveth comfort.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- INcline thine eare vnto my word,
 O Lord my plaint consider :
 2 And heare my voyce, my King, my God,
 to thee I make my prayer.
 3 Heare me betime, Lord tarry not,
 for I will haue respect
 My prayer early in the morne to thee for to direct.
 4 And I will trust through patience,
 in thee my God alone :
 That art not pleased with wickednesse,
 and ill with thee dwels none.
 5 And in thy sight shall neuer stand these furious fooles, O Lord :
 Vaine workers of iniquitie thou hast alwayes abhord.
 6 The lyers and the flatterers, thou shalt destroy them than :
 And God will hate the bloud-thirstie,
 and the deceifull man.
 7 Therefore will I come to thy house,
 trusting vpon thy grace :
 And reuerently will worship thee, toward thy holy place.
 8 Lord lead me in thy righteousnesse, for to confound my foes :

- And eke the wayes that I shall walke,
 before my face disclose.
 9 For in their mouthes there is no truth, their hearts are foule and vaine :
 Their throat an open sepulchre, their tongues doe glofe and faine.
 10 Destroy their false conspiracies, that they may come to nought :
 Subuert them in their heapes of sinne, which haue rebellion wrought.
 11 But those that put their trust in thee,
 let them be glad alwayes :
 And render thanks for thy defence,
 and giue thy name the praise.
 12 For thou with fauour wilt increase the iust and righteous still :
 And with thy grace as with a shield, defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vj. T. S.

Dauid for his finnes sels Gods hand, and conceiveth the horror of euermasting death. Therefore he desireth forgiveness, and not to dye in Gods indignation : then sodainly feeling Gods mercy, he rebuketh his enemies, who reioiced as his affliction.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

- Lord in thy wrath reprove me not,
 though I deserue thine ire :
 Nor yet correct me in thy rage,
 O Lord I thee desire :
 2 For I am weake, therefore O Lord, of mercy me forbear :
 And heale me Lord, for why ? thou knowest,
 my bones doe quake for feare.
 3 My soule is troubled very sore,
 and vexed vehemently :
 But Lord how long wilt thou delay to cure my misery ?
 4 Lord turne thee to thy wonted grace, my silly soule vp take :
 O saue me nor for my deserts,
 but for thy mercies sake.
 5 For why ? no man among the dead
 remembreth thee one whil :
 Or who shall worship thee O Lord,
 in the infernall pit ?
 6 So grievous is my plaint and moane, that I waxe wondrous faint :
 All the night long I wash my bed with teares of my complaint.
 7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old with anguish of my heart :
 For feare of those that be my foes,
 and would my soule subuert.
 8 But now away from me all ye,
 that worke iniquitie :
 For why ? the Lord hath heard the voyce of my complaint and cry.
 9 He heard not onely the request,
 and prayer of my heart :
 But it receiued at my hand,
 and tooke it in good part.
 10 And now my foes that vexed me
 the Lord will soone defame :
 And sodainly confound them all,
 to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vij. T.S.

David falsely accused by Chush Sauls kinsman, calleth God to be his defender. First, for that his conscience did not accuse him of any euill towards Saul. Next that it toucheth Gods glory to award sentence against the wicked. And so vpon Gods mercies, and promises he waxeth bold, threatening that it shall fall vpon their necks, that which his enemies purposed for others.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

O Lord my God, I put my trust,
and confidence in thee:

Save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliuer me.

2 Left like a Lion they me teare, and rent in pieces small:

Whilest there is none to succour me,
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right:

Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight:

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distresse,

Which me pursue most cruelly,
and hated me causelesse:

5 Then let my foes pursue my soule, and eke my life downe thrust

Vnto the earth, and also lay maine honour in the dust

6 Start vp, O Lord, now in thy wrath, and put my foes to paine:

Performe thy kingdome promised,
to me which wrong sustaine.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee, and know thee by this thing:

If thou declare for loue of them thy selfe as Lord and King.

8 And thou that art of all men Iudge,
O Lord now iudge thou me

According to thy righteousnessse, and mine integrity.

The second part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the iust mans guide:

By whom the secrets of all hearts are searched and descride.

10 I take mine helpe to come of God,
in all my griefe and smart:

That doth preserve all those that be of pure and perfect heart.

11 The iust man and the wicked both
God iudgeth by his power:

So that he feeleth his mighty hand
euery day and houre.

12 Except he change his minde, I die, for euery as he should smite:

He whets his sword, his bow he bends, ayming where he may hit.

13 And doth prepare his mortall darts, his arrowes keene and sharpe:

For them that doe me persecute, whiles he doth mischief warpe.

14 But loe, though he in trauell be of his diuellish fore cast:

And of his mischief once conceiued, yet brings forth nought at last.

15 He digs a ditch, and delues it deepe,
in hope to hurt his brother:

But he shall fall into the pit,
that he digd vp for other.

16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt of him in whom it bred:

And all the mischief that he wrought shall fall vpon his head,

17 I will giue thanks to God therefore,
that iudgeth righteously:

And with my song will praise the name,
of him that is most hie.

Domine Deus noſter. Psal. viij. T.S.

The Prophet considering the excellent liberality, and fatherly prouidence of God towards man, whom hee made as it were a God ouer all his works, giueth thanks, and is astonied with the admiration of the same.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

O God our Lord how wonderfull, are thy workes euery where:

Whose fame surmounts in dignity,
about the heauens cleare.

2 Euen by the mouthes of sucking babes, thou wilt confound thy foes:

For in these babes thy might is scene,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heauens high,
the workes of thine owne hand:

The Sunne, the Moone, and all the Starres,
in order as they stand.

4 What thing is man, Lord, thinke I then,
that thou dost him remember:

Or what is mans posterity, that thou dost him consider:

5 For thou hast made him little lesse,
then Angels in degree:

And thou hast crowned him also with glory and dignity:

6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be Lord of all thy workes of wonder:

And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keepe them vnder.

7 As sheepe, and neate, and all beasts else, that in the fields doe feede:

8 Fowles of the aire, fish of the sea, and all that therein breed.

9 Therefore must I say once againe,
O God that art our Lord:

How famous and how wonderfull, are thy workes through the world:

Confitebor tibi Domine. Psal. ix. T.S.

David giuing thanks for his manifold victories re-ceiued, desireth the same vromed helpe againe, against his new enemies, and their malicious ar-rogancie to be destroyed.

Sing this as the 4. Psalme.

With heart and mouth vnto thee, Lord,
will I sing laud and praise:

And speake of all thy wondrous workes,
and them declare alwaies.

2 I will be glad and much reioyce,
in thee O Lord most hie:

And make my songs extoll thy name,
about the starrie skie.

- 3 For that my foes are dinen backe,
and turned vnto flight:
They fall downe flat, and are destroid by thy great force and might.
- 4 Thou hast reuenged all my wrongs,
my griefe and all my grudge:
Thou dost with iustice heare my cause,
most like a righteous Iudge.
- 5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folke,
and wicked to confound:
That afterward the memory of them cannot be found.
- 6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their townes destroyd:
Thou hast thine fame with them defac'd, through all the world so wide.
- 7 Know thou that he which is aboue,
for euermore shall raigne:
And in the seat of equity,
true iudgement will maintaine.
- 8 With iustice he will keepe and gaide;
the world and euery wight:
And so will yeeld with equity,
to euery man his right.
- 9 He is Protector of the poore, what time they be oppressd:
He is in all aduersitie,
their refuge and their rest:
- 10 All they that know thy holy Name,
therefore shall trust in thee:
For thou forsakest not their suite,
in their necessitie.

The second part.

- 11 Sing Psalmes therefore vnto the Lord,
that dwells in Sion hill:
Publish among all Nations his noble acts and will.
- 12 For he is mindfull of the blood of those that be oppressd, Forgetting not the afflicted heart,
that seekes to him for rest.
- 13 Haue mercy Lord on me poore wretch, whose enemies still remaine:
Which from the gates of death art wont to raise me vp againe.
- 14 In Sion that I may set forth thy praise with heart and voice:
And that in thy saluation Lord,
my soule may still reioyce.
- 15 The heathen sticke fast in the pit, that they themselues prepare:
And in the net that they did set,
their owne feet fast are snarede.
- 16 God sheweth his iudgements which were for euery man to marke: (good, When as ye see the wicked man lie trapt in his owne warke.
- 17 The wicked, and the sinfull men
goe downe to hell for euer:
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
- 18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poore mans griefe and paine:
The patient people neuer looke for helpe of God in vaine.
- 19 O Lord arise, lest men preuaile that be of worldly might.

And let the heathen folke receiue their iudgement in thy sight.

20 Lord, strike such terrour, feare and dread into the hearts of them,
That they may know assuredly they be but mortall men.

Vt quid Domine. Psal. x. T. S.

Hee complaineth of all the wrongs which worldly men vs because of their prosperity, who therefore without all feare of God, thinke they may doe all things vnccontrolled. He calleth for remedie against such, and is comforted with the hope thereof.

Sing this as the 3. Psalm.

- What is the cause, that thou, O Lord,
art now so farre from thine:
And keepst close thy countenance, from vs this troublous time?
- 2 The poore doo perish by the proud,
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft, that they themselues conspire.
- 3 For in the lust of their owne heart,
th'vngodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praise himselfe, and doth the Lord despite.
- 4 He is so proud, that right and wrong he setteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he:
for thus he thinks in heart.
- 5 Because his waies doe prosper still,
he doth thy lawes neglect:
And with a blast doth puffe against such as would him correct.
- 6 Tush, tush, saith he, I haue no dread, least mine estate should change:
And why? for all aduersity to him is very strange.
- 7 His mouth is full of cursdnesse, of fraud, deceit, and guile:
Vnder his tongue doth mischief sit,
and trauell all the while.
- 8 He lieth hid in waies and holes,
to slay the innocent:
Against the poore that passe him by,
his cruell cies are bent.
- 9 And like a Lion prillily, lies lurking in his den:
(If he may snare them in his net) to spoile poore simple men.
- 10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth downe, I say:
11 So are great heapes of poore men made,
by his strong power, his pray.
- The second part.*
- 12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore may I be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
- 13 Arise, O Lord, O God in whom the poore mans hope doth rest:
Lift vp thine hand, forget not Lord,
the poore that be oppressd.
- 14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not abhorre it?

- To heare the wicked in their hearts say, Tush, thou carest not for it.
15 But thou seest all their wickednesse, and well dost vnderstand :
16 That friendlesse and poore fatherlesse are left into thy hand.
17 Of wicked and malicious men, then breake the power for euer :
That they with their iniquitie may perill all together.
18 The Lord shall taigne for euermore, as King and God alone :
And he will chase the heathen folke,
out of his land each one.
19 Thou hearest (O Lord) the poore mens their prayers and request : (plaint, Their hearts thou wilt confirme vntill thine cares to heare be prest.
20 To iudge the poore and fatherlesse, and helpe them to their right :
That they may be no more oppress with men of worldly might.

In Domino. Psal. xj. T. S.

This Psalme sheweth first what assaults of temptation and anguish of minde he sustained in persecution. Next, he reioyeth that God sent him succour in necessitie, declaring his iustice as well in governing the good and wicked men, as the whole world.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- Trust in God : how dare ye then say thus my soule vntill, Flee hence as fast as any fowle and hide you in your hill :
2 Behold the wicked bend their bowes,
and make their arrowes prest,
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and hamelesse brest.
3 Of worldly hope all stayes were shrunke, and clearly brought to nought :
Alas, the iust and righteous man,
what euill hath he wrought :
4 But he that in his temple is,
most holy and most hie :
And in the heauens hath his seate of royall maiestie,
The poore and simple mans estate
considereth in his minde :
And searcheth out full narrowly the manners of mankinde.
5 And with a chearefull countenance the righteous man will vse :
But in his heart he doth abhorre
all such as mischief vse.
6 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thicke as any raine :
Fire and brimstone, and whirle-windes thicke, appointed for their paine.
7 Ye see then how a righteous God doth righteousness embrace :
And to the iust and vpright man
shewes forth his pleasant face,

Saluum me fac. Psal. xij. T. S.

*The Prophet seeing the miserable decay of all good order, desireth God speedily to send reformation.
Then comforted with the assurance of Gods helpe* and promises, concludeth that when all orders are most corrupted, then God will deliuer his.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- Help, Lord, for good and godly men
doe perill and decay :
And faith and truth from worldly men,
is parted cleane away.
2 Who so doth with his neighbour talke, his talke is all but vaine.
For euery man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and faine.
3 But flattering and deceifull lips,
and tongues that be so stout,
To speake proud words, & make great brags,
the Lord soone cuts them out.
4 For they say still, we will preuaile, our tongues shall vs extoll :
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speake,
what Lord shall vs controll :
5 But for the great complaint and crye of poore and men oppress :
Arise will I, now saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.
6 Gods word is like to silver pure, that from the earth is tride :
And hath no lesse then seauen times
in fire beene purified.
7 Now since thy promise is to helpe,
Lord keepe thy promise then :
And saue vs now and euermore from this ill kinde of men.
8 For now this wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold,
When vanitie with mortal men
so highly is extold.

Vique quo Domine. Psal. xiiij. T. S.

David as it were overcome with afflictions, flyeth to God his onely refuge, and encouraged through Gods promises, becometh confidence against the extreame horrors of death.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- How long wilt thou forget me Lord :
shall I ne'er be remembered ?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended :
2 In heart and minde how long shall I with care tormented be :
How long eke shall my deadly foe
thus triumph ouer me :
3 Behold me now O Lord my God, and heare me sore oppress :
Lighen mine eyes, lest that I sleepe,
as one by death possesse.
4 Lest thus mine enemy lay to me,
behold I doe preuaile :
Lest they also which hate my soule
reioyce to see me quaille.
5 But from thy mercies and goodnesse
my hope shall neuer start :
In thy reliefe and sauing health, right glad shall be mine heart.
I will giue thanks vnto the Lord,
and praises to him sing :
6 Because he hath heard my request, and granted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xliij. T. S.

He describeth the wickednesse of men, so growne to such licentiousnesse, that God was brought to utter contempt, for which albeit he was greatly grieved, yet perswaded that God would redresse it, he is comforted.

T  Here is no God, as foolish men affirme in their mad mood : Their drifts are all corrupt and vaine, not one of them doth good. The Lord beheld from heauen high the whole race of mankind : And saw not one that sought indeed the living God to finde.

 to finde.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt, and truly there was none;
That in the world did any good,
I say there was not one.

4 Is all their iudgement so far lost, that all worke mischief still :
Eating my people euen as bread, not one to seeke Gods will :

5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great feare on them shall fall :
For God doth loue the righteous men,
and will maintaine them all.

6 Yee mocke the doings of the poore, to their reproach and shame :
Because they put their trust in God,
and call vpon his name.

7 But who shall giue thy people health, and when wilt thou fulfill The promise made to Israel
from out of Sion hill :

8 Euen when thou shalt restore againe such as were captiue lad :
Then Jacob shall therein reioyce, and Israel shall beglad.

Domine quis ? Psal. xv. T. S.

Here is taught why God chose the Iewes his peculiar people, and placed his temple among them, which was, that they by liuing uprightly, might witnesse, that they were his holy speciall people.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

O Lord within thy tabernacle who shall inhabit still :
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill :

1 The man whose life is vncorrupt, whose workes are iust and straight :

Whose heart doth thinke the very truth,
whose tongue speakes no deceit.

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill in body, goods, or name :
Nor willingly doth moue false tales which might impair the same.

4 That in his heart regarded not malicious wicked men :
But those that loue and feare the Lord
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promises that keepeth faithfully :
Although he make his couenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.

6 That putteth not to vsury his money and his coyne :
Ne for to hurt the innocent, doth bribe or else purloine.

7 Who so doth all things as you see,
that here is to be done,
shall neuer perishe in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conferva me. Psal. xvj. T. S.

David praith to God for succour, not for his workes but for his faiths sake, protesting that hee hateth all idolatry, taking God onely for his comfort and security, who suffereth him to lacke nothing.

Sing this as the 14. Psalme.

Lord keepe me, for I trust in thee,
and doe confesse indeed,
Thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no neede.

2 I giue my goods vnto the Saints that in the world doe dwell :
And namely to the faithfull stocke in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heape sorrowes on their heads which runne as they were mad
To offer to the Idoll Gods :
alas it is too bad.

4 As for their bloudy sacrifice, and offerings of that sort :
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why : the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance :
And thou art he that dost maintaine my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beautie did excell :
Mine heritage assigne to me
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thanke the Lord, that caused me to vnderstand the right :
For by this means my secret thoughts doe teach me euery night.

8 I set the Lord still in my sight, and trust him ouer all :
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

- 7 Wherefore my heart and tongue also,
doe both reioyce together :
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider,
3 Thou wilt not leaue my soule in graue,
(for Lord thou louest me)
Nor yet wilt giue thy holy one corruption for to see.
11 But wilt teach me the way to life, for all treasure and store
Of perfect ioy are in thy face, and power for euermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvij. T. S.

Here he complaineth to God of the cruel pride and arrogancy of Saul, who rag'd without any cause, therefore we desireth God to reuenge his innocencie, and deliuer him.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- O Lord giue care to my iust cause, attend when I complaine :
And heare the prayer that I put forth with lips that doe not faine.
2 And let the iudgement of my cause
proceede alwaies from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and cleare
this my simplicitie.
3 Thou hast well tride me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing finde,
That I haue spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the workes of wicked men,
and paths peruerse and ill,
For loue of thy most holy word,
I haue refrained still.
5 Then in the paths that be most pure, stay me Lord and preferre :
That from the way wherein I walke
my steps ma, neuer swerue.
6 For I doe call to thee O Lord, surely thou wilt me aide :
Then heare my prayer, and weigh right well
the words that I haue said.
7 O thou the Saviour of all them that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurne against thy Maiestie.
8 O keepe me Lord, as thou wouldst keepe
the apple of thine eye :
And vnder couert of thy wings defend me secretly.
The second part.
9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy :
And from my foes that goe about my soule for to destroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
so full and eke so far :
That in their pride they doe not spare to speake they care not what.
11 They lie in waite where I should passe, with craft me to confound :
And musing mischiefs in their mindes,
to cast me on the ground.

- 12 Much like a Lion greedily, that would his prey embrace :
Or lurking like a Lions whelp within some secret place.
13 Vp Lord, with haste preuent my foe,
and cast him at my feet :
Sawe thou my soule from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.
14 Deliuer me Lord by thy power, out of these tyrants hands :
Which now so long time raign'd haue,
and kept vs in their bands.
15 I meane from worldly men, to whom all worldly goods are rise :
That haue no hope or part of ioy,
but in this present life.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies fillst with pleasures to their minde :
Their children haue enough, and leaue to theirs the rest behinde.
17 But I shall with pure conscience, behold thy gracious face :
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Domine. Psal. xvij. T. S.

Dauid giueth thanks, entring into his kingdome, extolling the maruellous graces of God in his preseruatiou : wherein is the image of Christs Kingdome, which shal conquere through Christ, by the unspeakable lone of God, though all the world resist.

God my strength & fortitude, of force I must loue thee : Thou art my cable and defence in my necessitie. 2. My God, my rocke, in whom I trust, the worker of my wealth: My refuge, buckler and my shield, the horne of all my health.

- 3 When I sing laud vnto the Lord,
most worthy to be seru'd :
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be prefer'd.
4 The pangs of death did compasse me, and bound me enery where :
The flowing waues of wickednesse did put me in great feare.
5 The slie and subtil snares of hell were round about me set :

And for my death there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus beset with paine and griefe, did pray to God for grace :

And he forthwith did heare my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power, that in his wrath,
he made the earth to quake :

Yea, the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smoake,
when kindled was his ire :

And from his mouth came kindled coales of hot consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from aboue, and bowed the heavens hie :

And vnderneath his feet he cast
the darknesse of the skie.

10 On Cherubs and on Cherubins full royally he rode :

And on the wings of all the windes came flying all abroad.

The second part.

11 And like a den most darke he made his hid and secret place :

With waters blacke, and ayrie clouds, enuironed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face in brightnesse shall appeare :

The clouds consume, and in their stead,
come haile and coales of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts, disperse them here and there :

And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great feare.

14 Lord at thy wrath and threatnings, and at thy chiding cheare,

The springs and the foundations of all the world appeare.

15 And from aboue the Lord sent downe, to fetch me from below :

And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me ouerflow.

16 And me deliuered from my foes, that would haue made me thrall :

Yea, from such foes as were too strong for me to deale withall.

17 They did preuent me to oppresse, in time of my great griefe :

But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and reliefe.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free :

And kept me safe, because he had a fauour vnto me.

19 And as I was an innocent, so did he me regard :

And to the cleanness of my hands
he gaue me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his paths haue trod :

And haue not wauered wickedly against the Lord my God.

The third part.

21 But euermore I haue respect to his law and decree :

His statutes and commandements
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and cleane, and vncorrupt, appear'd before his face :

And did refraine from wickednesse,
and sinne in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I haue done aright :

And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord with him that holy is wilt thou be holy to :

And with the good and vertuous man, right vertuously wilt doe.

25 And to the louing and elect thy loue thou wilt reuerce :

And thou wilt vse the wicked men,
as wicked men deserue.

26 For thou dost saue the simple folke,
in trouble when they lie :

And doest bring downe the countenance of them that looke full hie.

27 The Lord will light my candle so, that it shall shine full bright :

The Lord my God will make alse
my darknesse to be light.

28 For by thy helpe an host of men discomfit Lord I shall :

By thee I scale and ouerleape
the strength of any wall.

29 Vnsported are the wayes of God,
his word is purely true :

He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord ?
for other there is none :

Or else who is omnipotent sauius our God alone ?

The fourth part.

31 The Lord that girdeth me with strength, is he that I doe meane :

That all the wayes wherein I walke doth euermore keepe cleane.

32 That made my feet like to the Harts,
in swiftnesse of my pace :

And for my suretie brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands,
to battell and to fight :

To breake in sunder Lars of brasse he gaue my arme the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy sauius health, thy right hand is my tower :

Thy loue and familiaritie doth still increase my power.

35 And vnder me thou makest plaine
the way where I should walke :

So that my feet shall neuer slip,
nor stumble at a balke.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take my foes that me annoy :

And from the field doe not returne till they be all destroyed.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes, that they can rise no more :

For at my feet they fall downe flat,
I strike them all so fore :
38 For thou dost gird me with thy strength to warre in such a wise :
That they be all scattered abroad that vp against me rise.
39 Lord thou hast put into my hands,
my mortall enemies yoke :
And all my foes thou dost decide,
in sunder with thy stroke :
40 They call'd for helpe, but none gaue eare, nor helpt them with reliefe :
Yea, to the Lord they call'd for helpe, yet heard he not their grieffe.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the wind,
I drive them vnder feet :
And sweepe them out like filthy clay,
that sticketh in the street.
42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folke that still in strife be led :
And thou dost of the heathen folke,
appoint me to be head.
43 A people strange to me vnknowne, and yet they shall me serue :
And at the first obey my word,
wheras mine owne will swerue.
44 I shall be irksome to mine owne,
they will not see my light :
But wander wide out of the way,
and bide them out of sight.
45 But blessed be the liuing Lord,
most worthy of all praise :
That is my rocke and sauing health, praised be he alwaies.
46 For God it is that gaue me power reuenged for to be :
And with his holy word subdued
the people vnto me.
47 And from my foe deliuered me, and set me higher then those :
That cruell and vngodly were,
and vp against me rose.
48 And for this cause O Lord my God, to thee giue thanks I shall :
And sing out praises to thy name,
among the Gentiles all.
49 Thou gauest great prosperitie, vnto the King I say :
To Dauid thine annointed King,
and to his seed for aye.

Cœli enarrant. Psal. xix. T. S.

His mouth the faithfull to glorifie God by the workmanship, proportion, and ornaments of the heavens, and by the law wherein God is reuolued familiarily to his chosen people.

Sing this as the 14. Psalme.

THe heavens and the firmaments, doe wondrously declare :
The glory of God omnipotent,
his workes and what they are.
3 The wondrous workes of God appeare, by euery daies successe :
The nights likewise which their race run,
the selfe same thing expresse.

3 There is no language, tongue or speech,
where their found is not heard :
In all the earth and coasts thereof,
their knowledge is conferrd.
4 In them the Lord made for the Sunne,
a place of great renowne :
Who like a Bridegroom ready trimde doth from his chamber come.
5 And as a valiant Champion, who for to get a prise :
With ioy doth haste to take in hand, some noble enterprise.
6 And all the skie from end to end, he compasseth about :
Nothing can hide it from his heate,
but he will finde it out.
7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his couenant sure :
Conuerting foules and making wise
the simple and obscure.
8 Iust are the Lords commandements, and glad both heart and minde :
His precepts pure and giue light to eyes that be full blinde.
9 The feare of God is excellent, and doth endure for euer ;
The iudgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.
10 And more to be imbrac'd alwaies, then fined gold I say ;
The hony and the hony combe, are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy seruant is forwar'd, to haue God in regard ;
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know,
the errors of his life :
Then cleanse my soule from secret sinnes,
which are in me most ripe.
13 And keepe me that presumptuous sinnes preuaile not ouer me :
And then shall I be innocent and great offences flee.
14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one :
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudite Deus. Psal. xx. T. S.

The people pray to God to heare their King, and receiue his sacrifice, which hee offered before hee went to battell against the Ammonites, declaring that the heathen put their trust in horses, but they trust onely in his name : Wherefore the other shall fall, but the King and his people shall stand.

Sing this as the 14. Psalme.

IN trouble and aduersitie, the Lord God heare thee still :
The maiestie of Iacobs God, defend thee from all ill.
2 And send thee from his holy place his helpe at euery need.
And so in sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed,

- 3 Remembring well the sacrifice,
that now to him is done,
And to receiue right thankfully thy burnt offrings each one :
- 4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant vnto thee :
And all thy counsell and deuice full well performe may he.
- 5 We shall reioyce when thou vs sauest,
and our banners display ;
Vnto the Lord which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.
- 6 The Lord will his annointed saue,
I know well by his grace :
And send him health by his right hand,
out of his holy place.
- 7 In chariots some put confidence, and some in hories trust :
But we remember God our Lord, that keepeth promise iust.
- 8 They fall downe flat, but we doe rise,
and stand vp stedfastly :
Now saue and helpe vs Lord and King,
on thee when we doe crie.

Domine in virtute. Psal.xxj. T.S.

David in the person of the people praised God for the victory giuen them against the Syrians and Ammonites. Sam. 21. when hee was crowned with the crowne of the king of Ammon. 2. Sam. 12. and indued with the manifold blessings of God.

Lord how ioyfull is the King in thy strength and thy power : How veh-mently doth he reioyce in thee his Sauour 12. For thou hast giuen vnto him his godly hearts desire, To him nothing hast thou denide, of that he did require.

- 3 Thou didst preuent him with thy gifts,
and blessings manifold :
And thou hast set vpon his head,
a crowne of perfect gold.
- 4 And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou mad'st him sure,
To haue long life, yea such a life,
as euer should endure.
- 5 Great is his glory by thy helpe,
thy benefits and aide :
Great worship and great honour both,

- thou hast vpon him laid :
- 6 Thou shalt giue him felicity,
that neuer shall decay :
And with thy cheerefull countenance,
wilt comfort him alway.
- 7 For why : the King doth strongly trust in God for to preuaile :
Therefore his goodnesse and his grace,
will not that he shall quail :
- 1 But let thine enemies feeble thy force, and those that thee withstand :
Finde out thy foes and let them feeble,
the power of thy right hand.
- 9 And like an Owen burne them Lord
in fiery flame and fume :
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
- 10 And thou wilt root out of the earth,
their fruit that should encrease,
And from the number of thy folke,
their seed shall end and cease.
- 11 For why : much mischief they doe muse, against thy holy name :
Yet did they faile, and had no power,
for to performe the same.
- 12 But as a marke thou shalt them set,
in a most open place :
And charge thy bow-string ready against thine enemies face.
- 13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore,
in thy strength euery houre :
So shall we sing right solemnely, praising thy might and power.

Deus Deus meus. Psal.xxij. T.S.

David complaineth of his desperate extremities, and declareth whereby hee recovereth himselfe from temptation. Vnder his person Christ is figured.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

- God my God wherefore doest thou forsake me vriterly :
And helpest not when I doe make,
my great complaint and crie :
- 2 To thee my God euen all day long,
I doe both crie and call :
I cease not all the night, and yet thou hearest not at all.
- 3 Euen thou that in thy sanctuary, and holy place doest dwell :
Thou art the comfort and the ioy,
and glory of Israel.
- 4 And he in whom our fathers old,
had all their hope for euer,
And when they put their trust in thee,
so didst thou them deliuer.
- 5 They were deliuered euer when they called on thy name :
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.
- 6 But now I am become a worme,
more like then any man :
An outcast whom the people scorne, with all the sight they can.
- 7 And me despise, as they behold me walking on the way :

They grin, they mow, they nod their heads,
and in this wife they say;

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his fauour and his loue:
Let him redeeme and help him now,
his power if he will proue.

9 But Lord, out of my mothers wombe
I came by thy behest:
Thou didst preferue me still in hope,
while I did sucke her brest.

10 I was committed from my birth, with thee to haue aboad:
Since I was in my mothers:
thou hast beene euer my God.

The second part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from mee,
in this my wretched griefe:
Since I haue none to be my helpe,
my succour and reliefe.

12 So many buls doe compass me, that be full strong of head:
Yea, buls so far, as though they had in Basan field beene fed.

13 They gape vpon me greedily, as though they would me slay:
Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop downe as water shed,
my ioynts in sunder breake:
My heart doth in my body melt like waxe against the heat.

15 And like a potheard drieth my strength, my tongue it cleaueth fast vnto my iawes, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs doe compass me, and wicked counsell eke Conspire against me cursedly, they pierce my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones haue told:
Yet still vpon me did they looke,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they diuided eke in parts among them all:
And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not farre from me at my great neede:
But rather sith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speede.

20 And from the sword Lord saue my soule
by thy might and thy power:
21 And keepe my soule, thy darling deare from dogs that would deuoure.

22 And from the Lions mouth that would me all in sunder thiner:
And from the hornes of Vnicornes
Lord safely me deliuer.

23 And I shal to my brethren all thy maiestie record:
And in thy Church shall praise the name of thee the liuing Lord.

The third part.

24 All yee that feare him praise the Lord,
thou Iacob honour him:

And all yee house of Israel,
with reuerence worship him.

25 For he despiseth not the poore,
he turneth not awry
His countenance when they doe call,
but granteth to their crye.

26 Among the flocke that feare the Lord
I will therefore proclaime Thy praise, and keepe thy promise made for setting forth thy name.

27 The poore shall eate, and be suffic'd, and those that doe their deuer
To know the Lord and praise his name, their hearts shall liue for euer.

28 All coasts of earth shall praise the Lord, and turne to him for grace:
The heathen folke shall worship him before his blessed face.

29 The kingdom of the heathen folke the Lord shall haue therefore:
And hee shall be their gouernour, and King for euermore.

30 The rich men of his goodly gifts shall feede and taste also:
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.

31 And all that shall goe downe to dust,
of life by him must taste:
My feede shall serue and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.

32 My feede shall plainly shew to them that shall be borne hereafter,
His iustice and his righteoufnesse,
and all his workes of wonder.

Dominus regit. Psal. xxijj. W. W.

David hauing tryed Gods manifold mercies diuers simes, gathereth a assurance that God will continue his goodnesse for euer.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

THe Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feede:
How can I then lacke any thing whereof I stand in neede?

2 He doth me fold in coats most safe:
the tender grasse fast by:
And after driues me to the streames, that runne most pleasantly.

3 And when I feelee my selfe neare lost, then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in the right pathes, euen for his owne name sake.
And though I were euen at deaths doore,
yet would I feare none ill:
For with thy rod and shepheards crooke
I am comforted still.

4 Thou hast my table richly deckt in despite of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balme refresht,
my cup doth ouerflow.

5 And finally while breath doth last, thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I my life for euer spend.

Another of the ſame by Th. Stern.

Sing this as the 21. Pſalme.

- MY ſhepherd is the liuing Lord,
nothing therefore I neede:
In paſtures faire, with waters calme
he ſets me for to feede.
- 2 He did conuert and glad my ſoule, and brought my minde in frame:
To walke in paths of righteouſneſſe,
for his moſt holy name.
- 3 Yea, though I walke in vale of death,
yet will I feare none ill:
Thy rod, thy ſtaffe doth comfort me,
and thou art with me ſtill.
- 4 And in the preſence of my foes,
my table thou ſhalt ſpread:
Thou ſhalt O Lord fill full my cup,
and eke annoint my head.
- 5 Through all my life thy fauour is ſo frankly ſhewed to me:
That in thy houſe for euermore my dwelling place ſhall be.

Sing this as the 21. Pſalme.

- THe earth is all the Lords, with all

Yea, his is all the world, and all

Ad te Domine. Pſal. xxv. T. S.

Dauid grieved at his ſinne and malicious enemies, moſt ſeruenly prayeth for ſorgewortheſſe, eſpecially of ſuch ſinnes as he committed in his youth.

Lift mine hart to thee, my God and guide moſt iuſt: Now ſuffer me to take no ſhame, for in thee doe I truſt. Let not my foes reioyce, nor make a ſcorne of mee:
And let them not be ouerthrowne, that put their truſt in thee.

- 3 But ſhame ſhall them befall, which harme them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right waies vnto me Lord diſcrie.
- 4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Sauour, on thee I waite alway.
- 5 Thy mercies manifold:
I pray thee Lord remember:
And eke thy pittie plenteuſſe, for they haue benee for euer.
- 6 Remember not the faults,
and frailtie of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I haue benee of thy truth.
- Nor after my deſerts
let me thy mercie finde:
But of thine owne benignitie
Lord haue me in thy minde.
- 7 His mercie is full ſweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will ſinners teach and ſuch as goe aſide.
- 8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keepe:
He will direct in all his waies
the lowly and the meeke.
- 9 For all the waies of God are truth and mercie both,
To them that keepe his teſtament,
the witneſſe of his troth.

The second part.

- 10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord I thee intreat :
To grant me pardon for my sinne,
for it is wondrous great.
11 Who so doth feare the Lord,
the Lord doth him direct :
To leade his life in such a way,
as he doth best accept.
12 His soule shall cuermore, in goodnesse dwell and stand :
His seede and his posterity,
inherit shall the land ;
13 All those that feare the Lord, know his secret intent :
And vnto them he doth declare, his Will and Testament.
14 Mine eyes and eke my heart, to him I will aduance :
That plucke my feet out of the snare,
of sinne and ignorance :
15 With mercie me behold,
to thee I make my mone :
For I am poore and desolate, and comfortlesse alone.
16 The troubles of my heart, are multiplied indeed : Bring me out of this miserie, necessitie and need.
17 Behold my povertrie,
mine anguish and my paine ;
Remit my sinne and mine offence,
and make me cleane againe.
18 O Lord behold my foes, how they doe still increase :
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that saine would liue in peace, 19 Preferue and keepe my soule,
and eke deliuer me :
And let me not be ouerthrowne,
because I trust in thee.
20 Let my simple purenesse, me from mine enemies shend,
Because I looke as one of thine, that thou shouldst me defend :
21 Deliuer Lord thy folke, and send them some reliefe.
I meane thv chosen Israel, from all their paine and griefe.

Iudica me Dom. Psal.xxvj. I. H.

David intireously oppressed and helpeless, yet assured of his integrity to Saith, calleth God to defend him causeless affected, when he desireth to be in the company of the faithfull in the congregation of God, when he was banished by Saul, promising godly life, open praises, thanksgiving and sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 14. Psalm.

- L Ord be my iudge, and thou shalt see,
my pathes be right and plaine :
I trust in God, and hope that he,
will strength me to remaine.
2 Proue me my God I thee desire,
my waies to search and trie :
As men doe proue their gold with fire,
my reines and heart episic.

- 3 Thy goodnesse laid before my face,
I durst behold alwaies :
For of thy ruth I tread the trace,
and will doe all my daies.
4 I doe not lust to haunt or vse, with men whose deeds are vaine :
To come in house I doe refuse,
with the deceitfull traine.
5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deeds I doe despise :
I doe not once to them resort, that hurtfull things deuise.
6 My hands I wash and doe proceed, in works to walke vp right ;
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer thee in sight.
7 That I may speake and preach the praise, that doth belong to thee :
And so declare how wondrous waies,
thou hast beene good to me.
8 O Lord thy house I loue most deare, to me it dorth excell :
I haue delight and would be neere,
whereas thy grace doth dwell.
9 O shut not vp my soule with them, in sinne that take their fill :
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seeke much loud to spill.
10 Whose hands are heapt with craft & guile their lips thereof are full,
And their right hand with wrench and wise,
for bribes both pluck and pull.
11 But I in righteousness intend,
my time and daies to serue :
Haue mercy Lord and me defend,
so that I doe not swarue.
12 My foot is staid for all affaies, it standeth well and right :
Wherefore to God will I giue praise,
in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illum. Psal.xxvij. I. H.

David deliuered from great perill, giueth thanks, wherein we see his constant faith against the assaults of all enemies, and the end why he desireth to liue, and to be deliuered : Then he exhorteth to faith, and to attend vpon the Lord.

Sing this as the 18. Psalm.

- T He Lord is both my health and light, shall man make me dismayd :
Sith God doth giue me strength and might,
why should I be afraid :
2 While that my foes with all their strength begin with me to braille :
And thinke to cate me vp, at length themselves haue caught the fall.
3 Though they in campe against me lie,
my heart is not afraid ;
In bartell fight if they will trie,
I trust in God for aid.
4 One thing of God I doe require, that he will not denie :
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply.
5 That I within his holy place,
my life throughout may dwell,

To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well :
6 In time of dread he shall me hide, within his place most pure,
And keepe me secret by his side,
as on a rocke most sure.
7 At length I know the Lords good grace, shall make me strong and stout :
My foes to foile and cleane deface, that compasse me about.
8 Therefore within his house will I, giue sacrifice of praise :
With Psalmes and Songs I will apply, to laud the Lord alwaies.

The second part.

9 Lord heare the voyce of my request, for which to thee I call :
Haue mercy Lord on me oppressd, and send me helpe withall.
10 My heart doth knowledge vnto thee,
I sue to haue thy grace :
Then seeke my face say'it thou to me,
Lord I will seeke thy face.
11 In wrath turne not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide :
Thou art my helpe still to this day,
be still my God and guide.
12 My parents both their sonne forsooke, and cast me off at large :
And then the Lord himselfe yet tooke,
of me the care and charge.
13 Teach me, O Lord the way to thee, and leade me on forth-right :
For feare of such as watch for me, to trap me if they might 14 Doe not betake me to the will,
of them that be my foes :
For thy surmise against me still,
false witness to depose.
15 My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed fast :
The Lord Gods good grace shall it see,
in life that aye shall last.
16 Trust still in God whose whole thou art, his will abide thou must :
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him doe trust.

Ad te Domine. Psal.xxviii. T.S.

Being in fcare and persuiuers to see God dishonoured by wicked men, hee crieth for vengeance against them, and being assured that God hath heard him, he commendeth all the faithfull to his tuition.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

THou art O Lord my strength and stay,
the succour which I craue : Neglect me not lest I be like to them that goe to graue.
1 The voyce of thy suppliant heare, that vnto thee doth erie,
When I lift vp my hands vnto thy holy Arke most hie.
3 Repute me not among the sort, of wicked and peruerse :
That speake right faire vnto their friends,
and thinke full ill in heart, 4 According to their handy worke,

as they deserue indeed :
And after their inuentions,
let them receiue their meed.
5 For they regard nothing Gods word,
his law, ne yet his lore :
Therefore he will them and their seed, destroy for euermore.
6 To render thanks vnto the Lord,
how great a cause haue I :
My voice, my prayer and my complaint,
that heard so willingly.

7 He is my shield and fortitude, my buckler in distresse,
My hope, my health, my hearts reliefe,
my song shall him confesse.
8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist :
The health and the saluation,
of his elect by Christ.
9 Thy people and thy heritage,
Lord blesse, guide, and preserue :
Increase them Lord and rule their hearts,
that they may neuer swerue.

Afferte Domino. Psal.xxix. T.S.

Dauid exhorteth Princes, (who for the most part thinke there is no God) at the least to feare him for the thunders and tempests, for feare whereof all creatures tremble. And albeit it threatneth sinners ; yet it moueth him to praise his name.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

GIVE to the Lord ye Potentates, ye rulers of the world,
Giue ye all praise, honour and strength,
vnto the liuing Lord.
2 Giue honour to his holy name,
and honour him alone :
Worship him in his maiestie, within his holy throne.
3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
euen as himselfe doth please,
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and gouernes all the seas.
4 The voice of God is of great force, and wondrous excellent :
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.
5 The voice of God doth rend and breake,
the Cedar trees so long :
The Cedar trees of Libanus, which are most high and strong.
6 And makes them leape like as a calfe, or else the Vnicorne :
Not onely trees but mountains great,
whereon the trees are borne.
8 His voice diuides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness :
It makes the desert quake for feare, that called is Cades.
9 It makes the Hinds for feare to calue, and makes the couert plaine :
Then in his temple euery man,
his glory doth proclaime.
10 The Lord was set about the foulds, ruling the raging sea :
So shall he raigne as Lord and King,
for euer and for aye.

11 The Lord will giue his people power,
in vertue to encrease :
The Lord will blesse his chosen folke, with euertlasting peace.

Exaltabo te Domine. Psal. xxx. T. S.

When David should dedicate his house to the Lord, he fell extreme sicke, with us all hope of life, and therefore after recovery he thanketh God, exhorting others to doe the like, and to learne by him that God is rather mercifull then seuer towards his, also that aduersity is sadaine : Then he prayeth and promisseth to praise God for euer.

LL laud and praise with heart and voyce, O Lord I giue to thee : which didst not make my foes reioyce, but hast exalted me, 2. O Lord my God to thee I ride, in all my paine and griefe. Thou gauest an care & didst prouide to ease me with reliefe.

3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back my soule, from hell to saue :

Thou didst reuiue when strength did lack,
and kep'st me from the graue.

4 Sing praise ye Saints that proue and see the goodnesse of the Lord,

In memory of his maiestie,
reioyce with one accord :

5 For why ? his anger but a space doth last and slake againe :

But in his fauour and his grace,
alwaies doth life remaine.

Though gripes of griefe and pangs full sore, shall lodge with vs all night :

The Lord to ioy shall vs restore,
before the day be light.

6 When I enioy'd this world at will,
thus would I boast and say :

Tush, I am sure to feele none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace, hast sent me strength and aid :

But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my minde was sore dismayd.

8 Wherefore againe yet did I crie, to thee O Lord of might :

My God with plaints I did apply, and pray'd both day and night.

9 What gaine is in my bloud said I,
if death destroy my doies ?

Doth dust declare thy maiestie ?
or yet thy truth doth praise ?

13 Wherefore my God some pittie take,
O Lord I thee desire :
Doe not this simple soule forsake ;
of helpe I thee require.

11 Then didst thou turne my griefe and woe into a cheerefull voice :
The mourning weed thou tookest me fro,
and mad'st me to reioice.

12 Wherefore my soule vnrestfully, shall sing vnto thy praise,
My Lord my God, to thee will I, giue laud and thanks alwaies.

In te Domine speraui. Psal. xxxj. T. S.

David deliuered from great danger, sheweth first what meditations hee had by the power of faith, when death was before his eies, and how the fa-uour of God alwaies is ready to thes that feare him. He exhorteth the faithfull to trust in God, because he preserveth them.

Sing this as the 18. Psalm.

O Lord I put my trust in thee, let nothing worke me shame.

As thou art iust deliuer me,
and set me quite from blame.

2 Heare me O Lord and that anone, to helpe me make good speed.

Be thou my rocke and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why ? as stones thy strength is tride, thou art my fort and tower :

For thy names sake be thou my guide,
and leade me in thy power.

4 Plucke forth my feet out of the snare, which they for me haue laid :

Thou art my strength, and all my care is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit my spirit, which is thy due .

For why ? thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folke as will not part,
from things to be abhord :

When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy ioy,
I see it doth excell :

Thou testest when ought would me annoy,
and knowest my soule full well.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me ouercharge :

But thou hast set me out of band,
to walke abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great griefe O Lord doth me assaile, some pittie on me take :

Mine eies waxe dim, my sight doth faile,
my wombe for woe doth ake.

10 My life is worne with griefe and paine,
my yeares in woe are past.

My strength is gone and through dislaine,
my bones corrupt and wast.

11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismayd :

My neighbours and my kinsmen borne,
to see me are afraid.

- 12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot :
As small effe& in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.
- 13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my minde did fray :
How they conspird, and went about,
to take my life away.
- 14 But Lord I trust in thee for aide,
not to be over-trod :
For I confesse and still haue faid,
thou art my Lord my God.
- 15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord is in thy hand :
Defend me from the wrach and rage,
of them that me wishland.
- 16 To me thy seruaunt Lord expresse, and shew thy ioufull face :
And saue me Lord for thy goodnesse, thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

- 17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call,
But let the wicked beare their shame,
and in the grave to fall.
- 18 O how great good hast thou in store,
laid vp full fast for them,
That feare and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men.
- 19 Thy presence shall them fence and guide from all proud brags and wrongs :
Within thy place thou shalt them hide,
from all the strife of tongues.
- 20 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd, on me his grace so farre :
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a towne of warre.
- 21 This did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress'd :
Loe I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
- 22 Ye Saints loue ye the Lord I say,
the faithfull he doth guide :
And to the proud he will repay,
according to their pride.
- 23 Be strong and God shall stay your heart,
be bold and haue a lust :
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sich ye in him doe trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxij. T.S.

David punished with grievous sickness for his sins, counteth them happy to whom God doth not impute their transgressions, and after that hee had confessed his finnes, and obtained pardon, he exhorteth the wicked men to liue godly, and the good to reioyce.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

- THe man is blest whose wickednesse,
the Lord hath cleane remitted,
And he whose sinne and wretchednesse, is hid and also couered.
- 2 And blest is he, to whom the Lord,
imputeth not his sinne :
Which in his heart hath hid no guile, nor fraud is found therein.

- 3 For whilst that I kept close my sinne,
in silence and contraint :
My bones did weare and wast away,
with daily mone and plaint.
- 4 For night and day thy hand on me,
so grievous was and smart.
That all my blood and humours moist,
to drinckesse did conuart.
- 5 I did therefore confesse my fault, and all my sinnes discover :
Then thou O Lord didst me forgiue, and all my sinnes passe ouer.
- 6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seeke thee in due time :
So that the floods of water great,
shall haue no power on him.
- 7 When trouble and aduersitie, doe compass me about :
Thou art my refuge and my ioy,
and thou dost rid me out.
- 8 Come hither and I shall thee teach,
how thou shalt walke aright,
And will thee guide as I my selfe, haue learn'd by prooffe and sight.
- 9 Be not so rude and ignorant,
as is the horse and mule :
Whose mouth without a reyne or bit,
from harme thou canst not rule.
- 10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrowes and griefe sustaine :
But vnto him that trusts in God,
his goodnesse shall remaine.
- 11 Be merrie therefore in the Lord,
ye iust lift vp your voyce :
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke reioyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxij. T.S.

Hee exhorteth good men to praise God for creating and gouerning all things, and his faithfull promise, for scattering the counsell of the wicked, teaching that no creature preserveth any man but onely his mercy.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

- YE righteous in the Lord reioyce,
it is a seemely sight :
That vpright men with thankfull voyce, should praise the Lord of might.
- 2 Praise ye the Lord with harpe and song,
in Psalmes and pleasant things :
With Lute and instrument among,
that soundeth with ten strings.
- 3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage giue him praise :
For why his word is euer true,
his workes and all his waies.
- 4 To iudgement, equitie and right,
he hath a great good will,
And with his gifts he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.
- 6 For by the word of God alone,
the heaucns all were wrought,
Their hostes and powers euery one,
his breath to passe hath brought.
- 7 The waters great gathered hath he,
on heapes within the store,
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

- 1 All men on earth, both least and most,
fear God, and keepe his Law:
Ye that inhabite in each coast,
dread him, and stand in awe.
- 2 What he commaunded wrought it was,
at once with present speede:
What he doth will is brought to passe with full effect indeede.
- 3 The counsels of the Nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude,
of their deuise and thought.
- 4 But his decrees continue still,
they neuer slacke nor swage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in euery age.

The second part.

- 5 And blest are they to whom the Lord,
as God and guide is knowne:
Whom he doth chuse of meere accord to take them as his owne.
- 6 The Lord from heauen cast his sight
on men mortall by birth:
7 Considering from his seat of might the dwellers on the earth.
- 8 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought and working of the same.
- 9 A King that truileth in his host shall nought preuaile at length:
The man that of his might doth boast shall faile for all his strength.
- 10 The troopes of horse-men eke shall faile, their sturdie steeds shall sterue:
The strength of horse shall not preuaile
the rider to preferue.
- 11 But loe the eyes of God intend,
and watch, to aide the iust:
With such as feare him to offend,
and on his goodnesse trust.
- 12 That he of death and great distresse, may set their soule from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.
- 13 Wherefore our soules doe still depend on God our strength and stay:
He is our shield, vs to defend,
and driue all darts away.
- 14 Our soule in God hath ioy and game, reioicing in his might:
For why is in his most holy name
we hope and much delight.
- 15 Therefore let thy goodnesse O Lord, still present with vs be:
As we alwaies with one accord,
doe onely trust in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Psal xxxiiij. T.S.

*David hauing escape d Achis (1 Sam. 21) praiseth
God for his iuriance, giueth others example to trust in God, to saue and serue him, who de-scendeth the eadly with his Angels, and visiter defegeth the wicked in his finnes.*

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

I will giue laud and honour both vnto the Lord alwaies:

- And eke my mouth for euermore shall speake vnto his praise.
- 2 I doe delight to laud the Lord in soule, and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortified may heare, and to reioyce.
- 3 Therefore see that ye magnifie with me the liuing Lord:
And let vs now exalt his name, together with one accord.
- 4 For I my selfe besought the Lord,
he answered me againe:
And me deliuered incontinent from all my feare and paine.
- 5 Who so they be that him behold, shall see his light most cleare:
Their countenance shall not be dasht,
they neede it not to feare.
- 6 This fillie wretch for some reliefe
vnto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.
- 7 The Angell of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in euery place:
To saue all such as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
- 8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and iust:
O happy man that maketh him his onely stay and trust.

- 9 Feare ye the Lord, ye holy ones,
about all earthly thing:
For they that feare the liuing Lord are sure to lacke nothing.
- 10 The Lions shall be hunger-bit, and pin'd with famine much:
But as for them that feare the Lord no lacke shall be to such.

The second part.

- 11 Come neare therefore my children deare,
and to my words giue care:
I shall you teach the perfect way how ye the Lord should feare.
- 12 Who is the man that would liue long,
and lead a blessed life?
- 13 See thou refraine thy tongue and lips from all deceit and strife.
- 14 Turne backe thy face from doing ill,
and doe the godly deed:
Inquire for peace and righteousness,
and follow it with speed.
- 15 For why is the eyes of God about vpon the iust are bent:
His cares likewise doe heare the plaint of the poore innocent.
- 16 But he doth frowne and bend the browes
vpon the wicked traine:
And cuts away the memorie that should of them remaine.
- 17 But when the iust doe call and crie,
the Lord doth heare them so,
That out of paine and miserie forthwith he lets them goe.
- 18 The Lord is kinde, and straight at hand,
to such as be contrite:

The second part.

He saues also the sorrowfull, the meeke and poore in spirit.
19 Full many be the miseries that righteous men doe suffer :
But out of all aduersities
the Lord doth them deliuer.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keepe his very bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perill and decay.

21 The sinne shall slay the wicked man, which he himselfe hath wrought :
And such as hate the righteous man shall soone be brought to nought.

22 But they that serue the liuing Lord,
the Lord doth saue them found :
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xxxv. I. H.

Sauls flatterers persecuted David, who prayeth for revenge, that his innocency may be declared, and that such as take his part may reioyce, for which he promisseth to magnifie Gods name at the dayes of his life.

Sing this as the humble suit of a Sinner.

Lord plead my cause against my foes, confound their force and might :
Fight on my part against all those that seeke with me to fight.

2 Lay hand vpon the speare and shield, thy selfe in armour dresse :
Stand vp for me, and fight the field,
to keepe me from distresse.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand :
That thou vnto my soule maist say,
loe I thy helpe at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame, that seeke my soule to spill :
Let them turne backe and flie with shame,
that thinke to worke me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flie abroad,
as winde doth driue the dust :
And that the Angell of our God, their might away may thrust.

6 Let all their waves be void of light, and slipperie like to fall :
And send thine Angell with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why & without my fault they haue in secret set their gin :
And for no cause haue digd a caue to catch my soule therein.

8 When they thinke least, and haue no care,
O Lord destroy them all :
Let them be trapt in their owne snare,
and in their mischief fall :

9 And let my soule, my heart, and voice,
in God haue ioy and wealth :
That in the Lord I may reioyce, and in his sauing health.

10 And then my bones shall speake and say,
my parts shall all agree :
O Lord though they doe seeme full gay,
what man is like to thee &

11 Thou didst defend the weake from them that are both stout and strong :
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that spoile and doe them wrong.
12 My cruell foes against my rise, to witnesse things vnttrue :
And to accuse me they deuise,
of what I neuer knew.

13 Where I to them did owe good will,
they quite me with disdain :
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soule doth fore complaine.

14 When they were sick I mourn'd therefore, and clad my selfe with sacke :
With fasting I did faint full fore,
to pray I was not slacke.

15 As they had beene my brethren deare,
I did my selfe behaue :
As one that maketh wofull cheare about his mothers graue.

16 But they at my disease did ioy, and gather on a rout :
Yea, abie& slaues at me did toy, with mockes and checkes full stout.

17 The belly-gods, and flattering traine, that all good things diride :
At me did grin with great disdain, and plucke their monthes aside.

18 Lord, when wilt thou amend this geare & why dost thou stay and pause &
O rid my soule, mine onely deare, out of the Lions clawes.

19 And then I will giue thanks to thee, before thy Church alwaies .
And whereas most of people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes preuaile on me,
which hate me for no fault :
Nor yet to winke or turne their eye,
that causelesse me assault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they thinke or say ;
their talke is all vnttrue :
They still consult, and would betray all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouthes they runne at me,
they gape, they laugh, they scerne :
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see the thing that we desire.

23 But Lord thou seest what waies they take, cease not this geare to mend :
Be not farre off, nor me forsake,
as men that faile their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stirre abroad, defend me in my right :
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God, and aide me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free :
And let not them their pride expresse,
nor triumph ouer me.

26 Let not their hearts reioice and crie;
there, there, this geare goes trim :
Nor giue them cause to say on high,
we haue our will on him,

27 Confound them with rebuke and shame, that ioy when I doe mourne :
And pay them home with spite and blame,
that brag at me with scorne.
28 Let them be glad and eke reioyce, which loue mine vpright way.
And they all times with heart and voice,
shall praise the Lord and say, 29 Great is the Lord and doth excell, for why ? he doth delight
To see his seruants prosper well, that is his pleasant fight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply, thy righteoufnesse to praise :
Vnto the Lord my God will I, sing laud and thanks alwaies.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. xxxvj. I. H.

Dauid vexed by the wicked, complaineth of their malice, but considering Gods great mercy to all creatures, specially towards his children, by faith thereof he is comforted and assured of his deliuerance.

Sing this as the humble suite of a sinner.

THE wicked with his workes vnjust, doth thus perfwade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his feare is set a part.
2 Yet doth he ioy in his estate, to walke as he began :
So long till he deserue the hate,
of God and eke of man.
3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught, his tongue no truth doth tell Yet at no hand will he be taught, which way he may doe well.
4 When he should sleep then doth he muse his mischiefe to fulfill :
No wicked waies doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.
5 But Lord thy goodnesse doth ascend, about the heauens high :
So doth thy truth it selfe extend,
vnto the cloudy skie.
6 Much more then hills so hie and steepe,
thy iustice is exprest :
Thy iudgements like to seas most deepe, thou sauest both man and beast.
7 Thy mercy is about all things,
O God it doth excell :
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed, with plenty at their will .
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.
9 For why ? the well of life so pure,
doth ouerflow from thee :
And in thy light we are full sure,
the lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart,
Thy righteoufnesse declare and shew,
to men of vpright heart.
11 Let not the proud on me preuaile
O Lord of thy good grace :

Nor let the wicked me assaile, to throw me out of place.

12 But they in their deuise shall fall, that wicked workes maintaine :
They shall be ouerthrowne with all,
and neuer rise againe.

Noli emulari. Psal. xxxvij. W.W.

Because the godly should not be daunted to see wicked men prosper, Dauid sheweth that all things shall be granted euen with hearts desire to them that loue and feare God : but the wicked, altho they flourish for a time, shall at long hyperish.

Sing this as the 23. Ps. Luc.

GRudge not to see the wicked men in wealth to flourish still ;
Nor yet enuie such as to ill
haue bent and set their will.
2 For as greene grasse and flourishing herbes are cut and wither away :
So shall their great prosperity,
soone passe, fade and decay.
3 Trust thou therefore in God alone, to doe well giue thy minde :
So shalt thou haue the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt finde.
4 In God set all thy hearts delight, and looke what thou wouldest haue,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to craue.
5 Cast both thy selfe and thine affaires, on God with perfect trust :
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and iust.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will cleare as the light :
So that the Sunne euen at noone daies, shall not shine halfe so bright.
7 Be still therefore and stedfastly, on God see thou wait then,
Not shrinking for the prosperous state,
of lewd and wicked men.
8 Shake off despight, enuie and hate,
at least in any wise,
Their wicked steps auoid and flee,
and follow not their guife.
9 For euery wicked man will God, destroy both more or lesse.
But such as trust in God are sure,
the land for to possesse.
10 Watch but a while and thou shalt see no more the wicked traine :
No not so much as house or place,
where once they did remaine.

The second part.

11 But mercifull and humble men,
enjoy shall sea and land :
In rest and peace they shall reioyce, for nought shall them withstand, 12 The lewd men and malicious, against the iust conspire :
They gnash their teeth at him as men which doe his bane desire.
13 But while that lewd men thus doe thinke
the Lord laughs them to scorne.
For why ? he seeth their terme approach,
when they shall sigh and mourne :

- 14 The wicked haue their sword our drawne their bow eke haue they bent :
To ouerthrow and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.
- 15 But the same sword shall pierce their hartes which was to kill the iust :
Likewise the bow shall breake in shiuers, wherein they put their trust.
- 16 Doubtlesse the iust mans poore estate, is better a great deale more,
Then all these lewd and worldly mens,
rich pompe and heaped store.
- 17 For be their power neuer so strong,
God will it ouerthrow :
Where contrary he doth preferue
the humble men and low :
- 18 He seeth by his great providence,
the good mans trade and way.
And will giue them inheritance, which neuer shall decay.
- 19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard bestead :
When other shall be hunger bit, they shall be clad and fed.
- 20 For whosoer wicked is,
and enemie to the Lord :
Shall quaille, yea melt euen as lambes grease, or smoke that flies abroad.

The third part.

- 21 Behold the wicked borroweth much,
and neuer payeth againe :
Whereas the iust by liberrall gifts,
make many glad and faine.
- 22 For they whom God doth blesse, shal haue
the land for heritage,
And they whom he doth curse likewise, shall perish in his rage.
- 23 The Lord the iust mans cause doth guide, and giues him good successe
To euery thing he takes in hand, he sendeth good adresse.
- 24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure,
not vterly to quaille.
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand at need, and doth not faile.
- 25 I haue beene young and now am old,
yet did I neuer see,
The iust man left, nor yet his seede to beg for misery.
- 26 But giues alwaies most liberally, and lends whereas is neede,
His children and posterity, receiue of God their meede.
- 27 Flie vice therefore and wickednesse, and vertue doe embrace :
So God shall grant thee long to haue, on earth a dwelling place.
- 28 For God so loueth equity, and sheweth to his such grace,
That he preferres them euermore,
but stroyes the wicked race.
- 29 Whereas the good and godly men,
inherit shall the land:
Hauing as Lords all things therein,
in their owne power and hand.
- 30 The iust mans mouth doth euer speake,
of matters wise and bie :

His tongue doth talke to edifie, with truth and equity.

- 31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth fill abide :
So that whereas euer he goe or walke,
his foot can neuer slide.
- 32 The wicked like a rauening wolfe,
the iust man doth beset :
By all meanes seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

- 33 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send,
Though men against him sentence giue,
God will him yet defend.
- 34 Waite thou on God and keepe his way,
he shall preferue thee then ;
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd these wicked men.
- 35 The wicked haue I scene most strong,
and placed in high degree :
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Lawrell tree.
- 36 But sodainly he passeth away,
and loe he was quite gone :
Then I him sought but could scarce finde,
the place where dwelt such one.
- 37 Marke and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase :
For the iust man shall haue at length, great ioy with rest and peace.
- 38 As for transgressours woe to them, destroy'd they shall all be :
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.
- 39 But the saluation of the iust,
doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble sends them aide,
of his meere grace and loue.
- 40 God doth him helpe, saue and deliuer, from lewd men and vniust.
And still will saue them while that they in him doe put their trust.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. xxxvij. I. H.

*Dauid sick of some grievous disease, acknowledgeth himselfe to be chastised of the Lord for his sins :
and therefore prayeth God to turne away his wrath; but in the end with firme confidence commending his cause to God, hopeth for speedie helpe at his hand.*

Sing this as the humble suite of a Sinner.

- PVt me not to rebuke (O Lord)
in thy provoked ire : Ne in thy heauie wrath (O Lord) correc& me I desire.
- 2 Thine arrowes doe sticke fast in me,
thy hand doth presse me sore :
And in my flesh no health at all,
appeareth any more.
- 3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in :
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sinne.
- 4 For loe my wicked doings Lord,
aboue my head are gone :
A greater loaden then I can beare,
they lie me sore vpon.

5 My wounds stincke and are festered sore,
as loathsome for to see:
Which all through mine owne foolishnesse betideth vnto me.
6 And I in carefull wise am brought in trouble and distresse:
That I goe wailing all the day
my dolefull heauinesse.
7 My loynes are fill'd with sore disease, my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am, and broken sore,
I roare for griefe of heart.
6 Thou know'st Lord my desire, my groanes are open in thy sight:
10 My hart doth paine, my strength hath faild, mine eyes haue lost their light.
11 My louers and my wonted friends stand looking on my woe:
And eke my kinsmen farre away are me departed fro.
12 They that did seeke my life laid snares, and they that sought the way To doe me hurt, spake lies, and thought on treason all the day.

The second part.

13 But as a deafe man I became,
that cannot heare at all:
14 And as one dumbe that opens not his mouth to speake withall.
15 For all my confidence O Lord is wholly set on thee:
16 O Lord, thou Lord that art my God, thou shalt giue eare to me.
17 This did I erane, that they my foes triumph not ouer mee:
For when my foot did slip, then they did ioy my fall to see.
And truly I poore wretch am set in place a wofull wight:
And eke my grieuous heauinesse is euer in my sight.
18 For while that I my wickednesse in humble wise confesse:
And while I for my sinfull deedes
my sorrowes doe expresse.
19 My foes doe still remaine aliue, and mighty are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully in number hugely grow.
20 They stand against me that my good,
with euill doe repay:
Because that good and honest things
I doe ensue alway.
21 For sake me not my Lord my God,
be thou not farre away:
Haste me to helpe, my Lord my God,
my safety and my stay.

Dixi custodiam. Psal. xxxix. I. H.

Dauid being determined silence, yet brast forth into word, that he would not, through his bitter griefe. For hee maketh certaine requests which taste of mans infirmities, yet mixed with many prayers, and all to shew a minde wonderfully troubled, that it might appeare how he did strue mightily against death and desperation.

Sing this is the humble suite of a Sinner.

I said I will looke to my wayes:
for feare I should goe wrong:

I will take heed all times that I offend not in my tongue.
2 As with a bit I will keepe fast my mouth with force and might:
Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in sight.
3 I held my tongue, and spake no word, but kept mine close and still:
Yea from good talke I did reframe,
but fore against my will.
4 My heart waxt hot within my breast, with musing, thought, and doubt:
Which did increafe and stire the fire,
at last these words burst out.
5 Lord number out my life and dayes, which yet I haue not past:
So that I may be certified how long my life shall last.
6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing vnto thee,
so vaine is euery man.
7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vaine himselfe annoy:
In getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same ioy.
8 Now Lord sith things this wise doe frame,
what helpe doe I desire?
Of truth my helpe doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 From all the sinnes that I haue done
Lord quite me out of hand:
And make me not a scorner to fooles that nothing vnderstand.
10 I was as dumbe, and to complaine
no trouble might me moue:
Because I knew it was thy worke,
my patience for to proue.
11 Lord, take from me thy scourge & plague
I can them not withstand:
I faint and pine away for feare of thy most heauy hand.
12 When thou for sinne dost man rebuke
he waxeth woe and wan:
As doth a cloath that moths haue frer,
so vaine a thing is man.
13 Lord heare my suite, and giue good heed, regard my teares that fall:
I sojourne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.
14 O spare a little, giue me space
my strength for to restore:
Before I goe away from hence,
and shall be scene no more.

Expectans expectavi. Psal. xl. I. H.

Dauid deliuered from great danger, doth magnifie
God therefore, and commendeth his providence towards all mankind. Then he promiseth to giue himselfe wholly to Gods seruice, and declareth how God is truly worshipped, afterward hee giueth thanks, and hauing complained of his enmi-nies he calleth for aide and succour.

Sing this as the 35. Psalme.

I waited long, and sought the Lord, and patiently did beare
At length to me he did accord,

- my voice and cry to heare.
- 2 He pluckt me from the lake so deepe,
out of the mire and clay :
And on a rocke did set my feet,
and he did guide my way.
- 3 To me he taught a Psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad :
And sing new songs of thanks alwaies, vnto the Lord our God.
- 4 When all the folke these things shall see,
as people much afraid :
Then they vnto the Lord will flee, and trust vpon his aid.
- 5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
dorth in the Lord remaine :
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lye and faine.
- 6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deedes in greatnesse farre doe passe : Thy fauour towards vs exceeds all things that euer was.
- 7 When I intend, and doe deuise thy workes abroad to shew :
To such a reckoning they doe rise, thereof no end I know.
- 8 Burnt offerings thou delightst not in,
I know thy whole desire :
With sacrifice to purge his sinne, thou dost no man require,
- 6 Meat offerings and sacrifice, thou wouldst not haue at all :
But thou O Lord hast open made mine eares to heare wicall.
- 10 But then said I, behold and looke,
I come a meane to be :
For in the volume of thy Booke,
thus is it said of me;
- 11 That I O God should doe thy minde, which thing doth like me well :
For in my heart thy Law I finde, fast placed there to dwell.
- 12 Thy iustice and thy righteousness
in great resorts I tell :
Behold my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord thou knowst full well.
- The second part.*
- 13 I haue no hid within my breast thy goodnesse as by stealth :
But I declare and haue exprest, thy truth and sauing health.
- 14 I keepe not close thy louing minde, that no man should it know :
The trust that in thy truth I finde, to all the Church I shew.
- For I with mischiefs many one am fore beset about :
My sinnes increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.
- 15 For why : in number they exceede
the hayres vpon my head :
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.
- 16 With speede send helpe, and set me free,
O Lord I thee require :
Make haste with aide to succour me,
O Lord at my desire.

- 17 Let them sustaine rebuke and shame,
that seeke my soule to spill :
Drive backe my foes, and them defame that wish and would me ill.
- 18 For their ill feates doe them deserie, that would deface my name :
Alwaies at me they raile and crye, sie on him, sie for shame.
- 19 Let them in thee haue ioy and wealth,
that seeke to thee alwaies :
That those that loue thy sauing health,
may say, to God be praise.
- 20 But as for me, I am but poore, opprest, and brought full low :
Yet thou O Lord, wilt me restore to health full well I know :
- 21 For why : thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, helpe, and stay :
Wherefore my God, as thou art iust, with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xlj. T.S.

David grievously afflicted, blesteth them that pity his case, complain'g of faithlesse friends, such as Judas, Ioh. 15. Then he giueth thanks for Gods mercy, in chastising him gently, not suffering his enemies to triumph.

- 3 And in his bed when he lies sicke, the Lord will him restore :
And thou O Lord wilt turne to health his sicknesse and his fore.
- 4 Then in my sicknesse thus say I,
haue mercie Lord on me :
And heale my soule, which is full woe that I offended thee.
- 3 Mine enemies wisht me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say :
When shall he die, that all his name may vanish quite away :
- 6 And when they come to visit me,
they aske if I doe well :
But in their hearts mischiefe they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.
- 7 They bite their lips, and whispe so,
as though they would me charme :

And cast their fetches how to trap me with some mortall harme.
8 Some grievous fiaine hath brought him to this sicknesse say they plaine:
He is so low that without doubt rise can he not againe.
9 The man also that I did trust, with me did vse deceit:
Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me laid wait.
10 Have mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preserved:
That I may render vnto them,
the things they haue deserued.
11 By this I know assuredly,
I am beloued of thee:
When that mine enemies haue no cause to triumph ouer me.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy presence place assign'd,
where I shall dwell for aye.
13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised euermore:
Euen so be it, Lord will I say, euen so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xliij. I.H.

Dauid grieued that through persecution he could not be present in the congregation, protesting his presence in heart, albeit in body separate: as last hee sheweth, that notwithstanding these sorrows and thoughts, yet hee continually putteth his confidence in the Lord.

Sing this as the 35. Psalm.

LIke as the Hart doth breathe and bray
the wellspring to obtaine:
So doth my soule desire alway with thee Lord to remaine.
2 My soule doth thirst, and would draw neare
the liuing God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appeare in presence of his sight?
3 The teares all times are my repast, which from mine eyes doe slide:
When wicked men crie out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas, what griefe is this to thinke what freedome once I had:
Therefore my soule as at pits brinke
most heauie is and sad.
When I did march in good aray,
furnished with my traine, Vnto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most faine.
5 My heart why art thou sad alwaies,
and farest thus in my brest?
Trust still in God, for him to praise
I hold it ever best.
By him I haue succour at need against all paine and griefe:
He is my God which with all speede will haste to send reliefe, 6 And thus my soule within me Lord doth faint to thinke vpon
The land of Iordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

7 One griefe another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:
The fouds of euill that doe fall,
runne ouer me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt thy goodnesse, and helpe at all assaies:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the liuing God to praise.
9 I am perswaded thus to say to him with pure pretence:
O Lord, thou art my guide and stay,
my rocke, and my defence.
Why doe I then in pensiuenesse hanging the head thus walke?
While that mine enemies me oppresse and vex me with their talke.
10 For why? they vex mine inward parts,
with pangs to be abhor'd:
When they crie out with stubborn hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soone why dost thou faint and quail,
my soule, with paine oppress?
With thoughts why dost thy selfe assaile,
so sore within my brest?
12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwaies, and thou the time shalt see,
To giue him thanks with laud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

Iudicame Dom. Psal. xliij. T.S.

He prayeth to be deliuered from them which conspire with Absolon, to the end that he might ioy-fully praise God in his holy congregation.

Sing this as the 35. Psalm.

IVdge and reuenge my cause O Lord, from them that euill be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliuer me.
2 For of my strength thou art the God
why putt thou me thee fro?
And why walke I so heauily oppressed with my foe.
3 Send out thy light, and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the Altar goe of God my joy and cheare:
And on my Harpe giue thanks to thee,
O God my God most deare.
5 Why art thou then so sad my soule,
and farest thus in my brest?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it alwaies best.
6 By him I haue deliuerance against all paine and griefe:
He is my God, which doth alway at need send me reliefe.

Deus auribus. Psal. xliij. T.S.

A most earnest prayer made in the name of the faithfull in persecution. for sustaining the quarrels of Gods word, as in Paul, Rom. 8.

O Vr eares haue heard our fathers tell,
C and and reuerently record, The wondrous works that thou haſt done in alder time (O Lord.)

2. How thou didſt caſt the Gentiles out, and ſtroid them with ſtrong hand: Planting our fathers in their place, and gau't to them their land.

3 They conquer'd not by ſword, nor ſtrength,
the land of thy beſeſt:

But by thy hand, thine arme, and grace:
becauſe thou loueſt them beſt.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that holpe
Iacob in ſundry wiſe:

5 Led with thy power, we threw downe ſuch
as did againſt vs riſe.

6 I truſted not in bow, ne ſword,
they could not ſaue me ſound:

7 Thou kept'ſt vs from our enemies rage, thou didſt our foes confound.

8 And ſtill we boaiſt of thee our God,
and praife thy holy name:

9 Yet now thou goeſt not with our hoaiſt,
but leaueſt vs to ſhame.

10 Thou mad'ſt vs flee before our foes,
and ſo were ouer-trod:

Our enemies rob'd and ſpoil'd our goods,
while we were ſperſt abroad.

11 Thou haſt vs giuen to our foes
as ſheepe for to be ſlaine:

Among the heathen euery where ſcattered we doe remaine.

12 Thy people thou haſt ſold like ſlaues,
and as a thing of nought:

For profit none thou haſt thereby,
no gaine at all was fought.

13 And to our neighbours thou haſt made of vs a laughing ſtocke:

And that they round about vs dwell,
at vs doe grin and mocke.

The ſecond part.

14 Thus we ſerne for none other uſe,
but for a common talke:

They mock, they ſcorn, they nod their heads,
where euer they goe or walke:

15 I am aſham'd continually, to heare theſe wicked men:

Yea, ſo I bluſh that all my face with red is couered then.

16 For why? we heare ſuch ſlandrous words, ſuch falſe reports and lies:

That death it is to ſee their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries,

17 For all this we forget not thee,
nor yet thy couenant breake:
18 We turne not backe our hearts from thee,
nor yet thy paths forſake.

19 Yet thou haſt trod vs downe to duſt, where dens of Dragons be:
And couered vs with ſhade of death and great aduerſitie.

20 If we had our Gods name forgot;
and helpe of Idols fought:

21 Would not God then haue tride this our for he doth know our thought.

22 Nay, nay, for thy names ſake O Lord, alwaies are we ſlaine this:

As ſheepe vnto the ſhambles ſent, right to they deale with vs.

23 Vp Lord, why ſleepeſt thou & awake, and leaue vs not for all:

24 Why hideſt thou thy countenance, and doſt forget our thrall?

25 For downe to duſt our ſoule is brought,
and we now at laſt caſt:

Our belly like as it were glude, vnto the ground cleaues faſt.

26 Riſe vp therefore for our defence, and helpe vs Lord at neede:

We thee beſeech of thy goodneſſe, to reſcue vs with ſpeeche.

Eructauit cor meum. Pſal. xlv. I. H.

Salomon his maiesty, honor, strength, beauty, riches and power are praised, his marriage with the Egyptian and beaſten woman is bleſt, if that ſhe renounce her people and countrey, and giue her ſelfe wholly to her husband. Here is figured the wonderful maiesty and increaſe of Chriſts kingdome, and the Church his Spouſe, now taken of the Gentiles.

Sing this as the 25. Pſalme.

MY heart doth take in hand
ſome godly ſong to ſing:
The praife that I ſhall ſhew therein pertaineth to the King.
My tongue ſhall be as quicke,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any Scribe that vſeth faſt to write.

2 O faireſt of all men,
thy ſpeech is pleaſant pure:
For God hath bleſſed thee with gifts
for euer to endure.

3 About thee gird thy ſword,
O Prince of might elect:
With honour, glory, and renowne,
thy petſon pure is deckt.

4 Goe forth with godly ſpeeche, in meekneſſe, truth, and right:
And thy right hand ſhall thee inſtruct in workes of dreadfull might.

5 Thine arrowes ſharpe and keene, their hearts ſo ſore ſhall ſting:
That folke ſhall fall, and kneele to thee,
yea, all thy foes O King.

6 Thy royall ſeate O Lord, for euer ſhall remaine:
Be cauſe the ſcepter of thy Realme doth righteousness maintaine.

 7 Because thou louest the right and dost the ill detest:
 God euen thy God hath nointed thee,
 with ioy above the rest.
 8 With mirhe and fauours sweer, thy clothes are all bespred:
 When thou dost from thy palace passe, therein to make thee glad, 9 Kings daughters doe attend,
 in fine and rich array:
 At thy right hand the Queene doth stand,
 in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

10 O daughter take good heed, encline and giue good care;
 Thou must forget thy kindred all,
 and fathers house most deare:
 11 Then shall the King desire,
 thy ioye faire and true,
 For why? he is the Lord thy God,
 and thou must worship him.
 12 The daughters then of Tirc, with gifts full rich to see;
 And all the wealthy of the land, shall make their suite to thee.
 13 The daughter of the King, is glorious to behold:
 Within her closet she doth sit,
 all deckt with beateu gold.
 14 In robes well wrought with needle,
 and many a pleasant thing:
 With Virgins faire on her to wait,
 she commeth to the King.
 15 Thus are they brought with ioy and mirth on euery side:
 Into the palace of the King,
 and there they doe abide.
 16 In stead of parents left,
 (O Queene thy chance so stands)
 Thou shalt haue sounes whom thou maist set,
 as Princes in all lands.
 17 Wherefore thy holy name,
 all ages shall record:
 Thy people shall giue thanks to thee,
 for euermore O Lord.

Deus nostrum. Psal. xlvj. I. H.

A song of thanksgiving for the deliuerance of Ierusalem, after Sennacherib with his armie was driven away, or some other like sadate & marvellous deliuerance, by the mighty hand of God, whereby the Prophet commendeth this great benefite, doth exhort the faithfull to giue themselves wholly into the hands of God, doubting nothing but that vnder his protection, they shall be safe against all the assaults of their enemies.

T He Lord is our defence and aide, the strength whereby we stand: when we with woe are much dismayd, he is our helpe at hand. 2. Though th'earth remoue, we will not feare, though hills so high and steepe, be thrust and hurled heare and there, within the sea so deepe.

3 No though the waues doe rage so sore, that all the bankes ir spoils:
 And though it overflow the shore,
 and beate downe mighty hills, 4 For one faire flood doth send abroad,
 his pleasant streames apace:
 To fresh the Cicie of our God,
 and wash his holy place.
 5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
 she can no whit decay:
 All things against her that rebell,
 the Lord will truly slay.
 6 The heathen folke the kingdomes feare,
 the people make a noise:
 The earth doth melt and not appeare,
 when God puts forth his voice.
 7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
 to vs he hath an eie,
 Our hope of health with all our heart,
 on Iacobs God doth lie.
 8 Come neare and see with mind & thought the working of our God:
 What wonders he himselfe hath wrought,
 through all the earth abroad.
 9 By him all warres are hushd and gone, which countries did conspire;
 Their bowes he brake and speares each one,
 their Chariots burnt with fire:
 10 I came off therefore (saith he) and know
 I am a God most stout:
 Among the heathen high and low,
 and all the earth throughout.
 11 The Lord of hosts doth vs defend,
 he is our strength and tower,
 On Iacobs God doe we depend,
 and on his might and power.

Omnes Gentes. Psal. xlvj. I. H.

An exhortation to worship God for his mercies towards Iacobs posterity. Herin is prophesied the kingdome of Christ in the time of the Gospell.
Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

YE people all with one accord,
 clap hands and cke reioyce:
 Be glad and sing vnto the Lord,
 with sweet and pleasant voice.
 2 For he the Lord and dreadfull is,
 with wonders manifold:
 A mighty King he is also,
 in all the earth extold.

5 The people he ſhall make to be,
 vnto our bondage thrall:
 And vnderneath our feet he ſhall,
 the nations make to fall.
 6 For vs the heritage he choſe, which we poſſeſſe alone:
 The flouriſhing worſhip of Iacob, his welbeloued one.
 7 Our God aſcendeth vp on hie, with ioy and pleaſant noiſe:
 The Lord goeth vp about the ſkie, with trumpets royall voice.
 8 Sing praifes to our God, ſing praife, ſing praifes to our King:
 9 For God is King of all the earth,
 all ſkilfull praifes ſing.
 10 God on the heathen raignes, and ſits
 vpon his holy throne:
 11 The Princes of the people haue, them ioyned euery one,
 To Abrahams people, for our God which is exalted hie:
 As with a buckler doth defend,
 the earth continually.

Magnus Dom. Pſal. xlvij. I.H.

Thankes are giuen to God for the notable deliuerance of Ieruſalem from the hands of many kings, the eſtate whereof is praiſed, for that God is preſent at all times to defend it: this Pſalme ſeemeth to be made in the time of Aſax, Iſa-phat, Aſa, or Ezekiꝰas, for then chiefly was the Citie by foraine Princes aſſaulted.

Sing this as the 46. Pſalme.

GREAT is the Lord, and with great praife, to be aduanced ſtill:
 Within the Citie of our God,
 vpon his holy hill.
 2 Mount Sion is a pleaſant place,
 it gladdeth all the land:
 The Citie of the mighty King,
 on her North ſide doth ſtand.
 3 Within the Pallaces thereof,
 God is a refuge knowne:
 For loe the Kings are gathered, and together eke are gone.
 4 But when they did behold it ſo, they wondred, and they were Aſtonied much, and ſodainly, were driuen backe with feare.
 5 Great terrors then on them doe fall,
 for very woe they crye:
 As doth a woman when ſhe ſhall, goe trauell by and by.
 6 As thou with Eaſterne winde the ſhips, vpon the ſea doſt breake:
 So they were ſtaid, and euen as we heard our fathers ſpeake.
 7 Loe in the Citie of our God,
 we ſaw as it was tould:
 Yea in the Citie which our God,
 for euer will vphold.
 8 O Lord we wait and doe attend, on thy good help and grace,
 For which we doe all times attend within thy holy place.

9 O Lord according to thy name, for euer is thy praife:
 And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteouſneſſe alwaies.
 10 Let for thy iudgement Sion mount, fulfilled be with ioyes:
 And eke of Iuda grant O Lord,
 the daughters to reioyce.
 11 Goe walke about all Sion hill,
 ye around about her goe:
 And tell the towers that thereupon are builded on a row.
 12 And marke ye well her bulwarks all,
 behold her towers there:
 That ye may tell thereof to them,
 that after ſhall be here.
 13 For this God is our God, our God for euermore is he:
 Yea and vnto the death alſo, our guider ſhall he be.

Audite hæc. Pſal. xlix. I.H.

Gods ſpirit moueth the conſideration of mans life, ſhewing that the wealthie are not happieſt, but noteth how all things are ruled by Gods prouidence, who as he iudgeth theſe worldly miſers to euerlaſting torment, ſo hee preſerueti hū, and will reward them in the day of reſurrection.
 1 Theſe.

Sing this as the 46. Pſalme.

ALL people hearken and giue care,
 to that that I ſhall tell:
 2 Both high and low, both rich and poore,
 that in the world doe dwell.
 3 For why ſ my mouth ſhall make diſcourſe, of many things right wiſe:
 In vnderſtanding ſhall my heart,
 his studie exerciſe.
 4 I will encline mine eares to know,
 the parable ſo darke:
 And open all the doubtfull ſpeech,
 in metre on my harpe.
 5 Why ſhould I feare afflictions, or any carefull toiles:
 Or elſe my foes which at my heeles,
 are preſt my life to ſpoile:
 6 For as for ſuch as riches haue, wherein their truſt is moſt:
 And they which of their treaſures great,
 themſelues doe brag and boaiſt.
 7 There is not one of them that can,
 his brothers death redeeme:
 Or that can giue a price to God,
 ſufficient for him.
 8 It is too great a price to pay,
 none can thereto attaine, 9 Or that he might his life prolong,
 or not in graue remaine.
 10 They ſee wiſe men as well as fooles, ſubiect vnto deaths bands:
 And being dead, ſtrangers poſſeſſe their goods, their rents, their lands.
 11 Their care is to build houſes faire, and to determine ſure
 To make their name right great on earth,
 for euer to endure.
 12 Yet ſhall no man alwaies enioy, high honour, wealth, and reſt,

But shall at length taste of deaths cup,
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

13 And though they trie their foolishnesse to be most lewd and vaine:

Their children yet approue their talke,
and in like sinne remaine.

14 As sheepe into the fould are brought,
so shall they into graue:

Death shall them eate, and in that day,
the iust shall Lordship haue.

Their image and their royall port shall fade and quite decay:

When as from house to pit they passe with woe and well-away.

15 But God shall surely preserue me from death and endless paine:

Because he will of his good grace
my soule receiue againe.

16 If any man waxe wondrous rich, feare not I say therefore:

Although the glory of his house encreaseth more and more.

17 For when he dyeth, of all these things nothing shall he receiue:

His glory will not follow him,
his pompe will take her leaue.

18 Yet in this life he takes himselfe
the happiest vnder Sunne:

And others likewise flatter him,
and say all is well done.

19 And presuppose he liue as long as did his fathers old:

Yet must he needes at length giue place,
and be brought to deaths fould.

20 Thus man to honour God hath call'd, yet doth he not consider:

But like brute beasts so doth he liue, which turne to dust and powder.

Deus Deorum. Psal. L. W.W.

He prophesieth that God will call all nations by the Gospel, and require no other sacrifice of his people, but confession of his benefits, and thanksgiving; and how he detesteth all such as serue zealous of ceremonies, and not of the pure word of God onely.

He mighty God th'eternall hath thus spoke, And all the world he wil call and prouoke, Euen from the East, and so forth to the West. 2. From toward Sea which place him liketh best: God will appeare in beauty most excellent. 3. Our God will come before that long time be spent.

Deuouring fire

shall goe before his face,

A great tempest shall round about him trace.

4 Then shall he call the earth and heauens bright,

To iudge his folke

with equitie and right.

5 Saying, goe to,

and now my Saints assemble:

My peace they keepe,

their gifts doe not dissemble.

6 The heauens shall declare his righteousness:

For God is iudge

of all things more and lesse.

7 Heare my people,

for I will now reueale:

Lift Israel,

I will thee nought conceale;

Thy God, thy God

am I, and will not blame thee,

8 For giuing not all manner offerings to me.

9 I haue no neede

to take of thee at all

Goats of thy fould,

or Calfe out of thy stall:

10 For all the beasts

are mine within the woods;

On thousand hills

Cattell are mine owne goods.

11 I know for mine

all birds that are on mountaines:

All beasts are mine

that haunt the fields and fountaines.

12 Hungry if I were

I would not thee it tell:

For all is mine

that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eate I the flesh of great buls and bullocks;

Or drinke the bloud

of Goates, and of the flockes;

14 Offer to God

praise and hearty thanksgiving:

And pay thy vowes

vnto God euertliuing.

15 Call vpon me

when troubled thou shalt be:

Then will I helpe,

and thou shalt honour me.

16 To the wicked

thus saith th'eternall God;

Why dost thou preach

my lawes and hefts abroad?

Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused, 17 And ha'st to be by discipline reformed.

My words I say,
thou dost rectify and hate :

18 If that thou see a theefe, as with thy mate,

Thou runn'st with him and so your prey doe seeke :

And art all one with bawds and ruffians eke.

19 Thou giu'st thy selfe to backbite and to slander,

And how thy tongue
deceiveth it's a wonder.

20 Thou sitt'st musing
thy brother how to blame,

And how to put thy mothers sonne to shame.

21 These things thou dost, and whilst I held my tongue

Thou dost me iudge, because I staid so long,

Like to thy selfe :

yet though I keepe long silence,
Once shalt thou feele of thy wrongs iust recompence.

22 Consider this ye that forget the Lord :

And feare not when he threatneth with his word ;

Left without helpe
I spoyle you as a prey.

23 But he that thankes
offieth, praiseth me aye,

Saith the Lord God :

and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach

Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by J.H.

THE God of Gods, the Lord, hath call'd the earth by name :
From where the Sunne doth rise, vnto
the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his faire place, his glory bright and cleare :

The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.

3 Our God shall come in haste, to speake he shall not doubt :

Before him shall the fire waste, and tempest round about.

4 The heauens from on hie
the earth below likewise :

He will call forth to iudge and trie his folke he doth deuise.

5 Bring forth my Saints (saith he) my faithfull flocke so deare :

Which are in bond and league with me,
my Law to loue and feare.

6 And when these things are tride
the heauens shall record :

That God is iust, and all must bide
the iudgement of the Lord.

7 My people O giue heede,
Israel to thee I crie :

I am thy God, thy helpe at neede, thou canst it not denie.

8 I doe not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slacke :

Thou offerest daily vnto me much more then I doe lacke.

9 Think'st thou that I doe neede thy cattell young or old ?

Or else desire so much to feede on Goates out of thy fold ?

10 Nay, all the beasts are mine, in woods that cate their fil.

And thousands more of meate and kine that runne wilde on the hills.

The second part.

11 The birds that build on high in hills, and out of sight :

And beasts that in the fields doe lye, are subiect to my might.

12 Then though I hungred sore,
what neede I ought of thine :

Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine ?

13 To buls flesh haue I minde, to cate it, dost thou thinke ?

Or such a sweetnesse doe I finde
the bloud of Goates to drinke ?

14 Giue to the Lord his praise, with thanks to him apply :

And see thou pay thy vowes alwayes
vnto the God most hie.

15 Then seeke and call to me, when ought would worke thee blame :

And I will sure deliuer thee, that thou maist praise my name.

16 But to the wicked traine, which talke of God each day :

And yet their workes are foule and vaine,
to them the Lord will say ;

17 With what a face dar'st thou my word once speake or name ?

Why dost thou talke my Law allow ?
thy deedes denie the same.

18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art so slacke :

My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behinde thy backe.

The third part.

19 When thou a theefe dost see by theft to liue in wealth :

With him thou runst, and dost agree likewise to thriue by stealth.

20 When thou dost them behold, that wiles and maids defile :

Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold, to leade that life most vile.

21 Thy lips thou dost apply to slander and defame :

Thy tongue is taught to craft and lye, and still doth vse the same.

22 Thou studi'st to requite, thy friends to thee to requite,
With slander thou would'st needs defile,
thy mothers sonne most deere, 23 Hereat while I doe winke, as though I did not see:
Thou goest on still, and so dost thinke,
that I am like to thee:
24 But sure I will not let,
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sinne.

25 Marke this I you require, that haue not God in minde:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your helpe be farre to finde, 26 He that doth giue to me,
the sacrifice of praise:
Doth please me well, and he shall see,
to walke in godly waies.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lj. W.W.

David rebuked by the prophet Nathan for his great offences, acknowledged the same to God, professing his naturall corruption, wherefore he prayeth God to forgive his sins, and renew in him his holy spirit, promising that hee will not be unminde-full of those great graces. Finally, fearing lest God would punish the whole Church for his sins, he requies that he would rather increase his grace towards the same.

Lord consider my distresse and now with speed some pittie take, My sins deface, my faults redresse, good Lord for thy great mercies sake. 1. Wash mee O Lord, and make me cleane, from this vniust & shauall act, and purifie yet once againe my hainous crime and bloody fact.

3 Remorse and sorrow doth constraîne, me to acknowledge mine excesse:
My sinnes alas doe still remaine, before my face without release:
4 For thee alone I haue offended, committing euill in thy sight,

And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy iudgements iust and right.

5 It is too manifest alas, that first I was conceived in sinne:
Yea of mother so borne was,
and yet vile wretch remaine therein,
6 Also behold Lord thou dost loue,
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wife doing from above,
thou hast reueal'd me to conuert.

7 If thou with I stop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glasse,
And if thou wast away my spot,
the snow in whitenesse shall I passe.
8 Therefore O Lord (such loy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespassse.

9 Turne backe thy face and frowning ire,
for I haue felt enough thy hand:
And purge my finnes: I thee desire,
which doe in number passe the sand.
10 Make new my heart within my brest, and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirit in me let rest, which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedily my torment end:
Take not from me thy spirit and grace, which may from dangers me defend.
12 Restore me to those ioyes againe, which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit retaine, which vnto thee may flint my minde, 13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall sie sinne, 14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgiue me this my bloodie vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord,
to sing thy mercies and iustice,

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue vntie,
O Lord which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testifie,
thy wondrous works and praise alway.
16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would haue offered many one:
But thou esteemest them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest none.

17 The heauie heart, the minde oppress,
O Lord thou neuer dost reiect:
And to speake truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the effect.
18 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face, powre out thy mercy on thy hill,
And on Ierusalem thy grace, build vp the walls and loue it fill.

12 Thou shalt accept then our offerings, of peace and righteousness: I say:
Yea calues and many other things,
vpon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same by T.S.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAue mercy on me God after,
thy great abundant grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
doe thou my finnes deface.
2 Yea, wash me more from mine offence, and cleanse me from my sinne,
For I doe know my faults, and still my finnes are in mine eyne.

3 Against thee, thee alone I haue offended in this case:
And euill haue I done before the presence of thy face.
4 That in the things that thou dost say, vpright thou maist be tride:
And eke in iudgement that the doome may passe vpon thy side.

5 Behold in wickednesse my kinde, and shape I did receiue:
And loe my sinfull mother eke,
in sinne did me conceiue.

6 But loe the truth in inward parts, is pleasant vnto thee:
And secrets of thy wisdom thou,
reuealed hast to me.

7 With Ilope Lord besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea, wash thou me, and so shall I,
be whiter than the snow.

8 Of ioy and gladnesse make thou me,
to heare the pleasant voyce:
That so the brused bone, which thou hast broken may reioyce.

9 From the beholding of my finnes,
Lord turne away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickednesse, doe vtterly deface.

10 O God create in me a heart, vnspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels Lord,
renue a stabled spire.

11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy spirit away:
The comforts of thy sauing helpe, giue me againe I pray.

12 With thy free spirit establish me, and I will teach therefore Sinners thy waies, and wicked shall, be turn'd vnto thy lore.

The second part.

13 O God that art my God of health,
from bloud deliver me:
That praises of thy righteousness,
my tongue may sing to thee,

14 My lips that yet fast elased be,
doe thou O Lord vnloose:
The praises of thy maiestie,
my mouth shall so disclose.

15 I would haue offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt offerings,
I know thou wilt not be:

16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice, delightfull in Gods cies.

A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deale gently Lord,
to Sion, and withall:

Grant that of thy Ierusalem, vpreard may be the wall.

18 Burnt offrings, gifts, and sacrifice, of iustice in that day:

Thou shalt accept, and Calues they shall vpon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris? Psal. Lij. I.H.

Dauid describeth the arrogant tyrannie of Dauid Sauls chiefe shepheard, who by falsse surmises caused Abimelech and the Priests to be slaine. hee propheseth his destruction, encourageth the faithfull to trust in God, who must sharply reuengeth him, and vendeth thanks for his deliuerance. Herein is liuely set forth the kingdome of Antichrist.

VV

For why I my trust all times hath beene vpon the liuing God.

For this therefore will I giue praise, to thee with heart and voyce :
I will set forth thy name alwaies, wherein thy Saints reioyce.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. Lijj. T.S.

Dauid describeth the crooked nature, cruelty and punishment of the wicked, when they looke not for it, and desireth the deliuerance of the godly, that they may reioyce together.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

THE foolish man in that which he,
within his heart hath said,
That there is any God at all,
bath vtterly denaid.

They are corrupt, and they also,
a haynous worke haue wrought :
Among them all there is not one,
of good that worketh ought.

The Lord lookt downe on sons of men,
from heauen all abroad,
To see if any were that would be wise, and seeke for God.

They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all :
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

Doe not all wicked workers know, that they doe feed vpon,
My people as they feed on bread,
the Lord they call not on.

Euen there they were afraid, and stood,
with trembling all dismayd :
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

For God his bones, that thee besieg'd, hath scattered all abroad :
Thou hast confounded them, for they reioiced are of God.

O Lord giue thou thy people health, and thou O Lord fulfill :
Thy promise made to Isracell,
from out of Sion hill.

When God his people shall restore,
that east was captiue lad.
Then Iacob shall therein reioyce, and Isracell shall be glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. Lijj. I.H.

Dauid in great danger through Ziphians, calleth vpon God to destroy his enemies, promising sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

GOD saue me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodnesse sake :
Vnto the strength Lord of the same,
I doe my cause betake.

Regard O Lord, and giue an care to me when I doe pray, Bow downe thy selfe to me and heare,
the words that I doe say.

For strangers vp against me rise, and tyrants vex me still,

Which haue not God before their eyes,
they seeke my soule to spill.

But loe, my God doth giue me aide,
the Lord is straight at hand :
With them by whom my soule is laid,
the Lord doth euer stand.

With plagues repay againe all those,
for me that lie in waite :

And in thy truth destroy my foes,
with their owne snare and baite.

An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make :
And praise thy name, for therein still great comfort I doe take.

Lord at length doe set me free,
from them that craft conspire :
And now mine eyes with ioy doe see,
on them my hearts desire.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lv. I.H.

Dauid in great distresse, complaineth of Sauls cruelty, and falshood of his familiar acquaintance, effectually mouing the Lord to pity him. Then assured of deliuerance, he setteth forth the grace of God, as if he had already obtained his request.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

O God giue care, and doe apply,
to heare me when I pray :
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy face away.

Take heed to me, graunt my request,
and answer me againe :
With plaints I pray, full sore oppress, great griefe doth me constraîne.

Because my foes with threats and cries,
oppresse me through despight :
And to the wicked sort likewise,
to vex me haue delight.

For they in counsell doe conspire, to charge me with some ill :
So with their hastes wrath and ire,
they doe pursue me still.

My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my brest :
The terrors and the dread of Death,
doth worke me much vnrest.

Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith doe quake :
Such horror whelmeth me withall, that I no shift can make.

But I doe say, who will giue me
the swift and pleasant wings,
Of some faire doue that I may flye, and rest me from these things ?

Loe then I would goe farre away,
to flie I would not cease :
And I would hide my selfe and stay,
in some great wilderness.

I would be gone in all the fast,
and not abide behinde :
That I were quite and ouerpast, these blasts of boisterous winde.

Denide them Lord, and from them pull,
their diuellish double tongue :
For I haue spide their Citie full,
of rapine, strife and wrong.

- 11 Which things both night & day thought-did cloſe her as a wall; (out In miſd of her is miſchiefe ſtout, and ſorrow eke withall.
12 Her priuie parts are wicked plaine, her deeds are much too vile:
And in her ſtreets there doth remaine,
all craftie fraud and guile.

The ſecond part.

- 13 If that my foes did ſecke my ſhame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies check and blame,
ſome where I could me hide:
14 But thou it was my fellow deare, which frienſhip didſt pretend:
And didſt my ſecret counsell heare,
as my familiar friend.
15 With whom I had delight to talke,
in ſecret and abroad:
And we together oft did walke,
within the houſe of God.
16 Let death in haſt vpon them fall,
and ſend them quick to hell:
For miſchiefe raineth in their hall,
and parlour where they dwell.
17 But I vnto my God doe erie, to him for helpe I flee:
The Lord doth heare me by and by,
and he doth ſuccour me.
18 At morning, noone, and euening tide,
vnto the Lord I pray:
When I ſo inſtantly haue eride,
he doth not fay me nay.
19 To peace he ſhall reſtore me yet, though warres be neere at hand:
Although the number be full great,
that would againſt me ſtand.
20 The Lord that firſt and laſt doth raigne,
both now and euermore.
Will heare when I to him complaine, and puniſh them full fore.
21 For ſure there is no hope that they
to turne will once accord:
For why, ſ they will not God obey,
nor doe not feare the Lord.
22 Vpon their friends they laid their hands, which were in couenant knit:
Of frienſhip to neglect the bands,
they paſſe or care no whit.
23 While they haue war within their hearts,
as butter are their words:
Although their words were ſmooth as oile,
they cut as ſharpe as ſwords.
24 Caſt thou thy care vpon the Lord, and he ſhall nourish thee:
For in no wiſe will he accord,
the iuſt in thral to ſee.
25 But God ſhall caſt them deepe in pit, that thiſt for blood alwaies:
He will no guilefull man permit,
to liue out halſe his daies.
26 Though ſuch be quite deſtroi'd and gone,
in thee O Lord I truſt:
I ſhall depend thy grace vpon, with all my heart and luſt.

David being brought to Achis the King of Gath, 1 Sam. 21. 12. complaineth of his enemies, de-mandeth ſuccour, truſteth in God, and promiſeth to performe his vow, which was to praiſe God in his Church.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

- HAnc mercy Lord on me I pray, for man would me deuoure:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.
2 Mine enemies dayly enterpriſe, to ſwallow me outright:
To fight againſt me many riſe,
O thou moſt high of might.
3 When they would make me moſt afraid with boatts and brags of pride:
I truſt in thee alone for aide,
by thee will I abide:
4 Gods promiſe I doe minde and praiſe,
O Lord I ſticke to thee:
I doe not care at all aſiaies,
what man can doe to me.
5 What things I either did or ſpake, they wreſt them at their will:
And all the counſell that they take,
is how to worke me ill.
6 They all conſent themſelues to hide, cloſe watch for me to lay:
They ſpie my patches, and ſnares haue laid,
to take my life away.
7 Shall they thus ſcape on miſchiefe ſet thou God in their wilt frowne:
For in his wrath he doth not let,
to throw whole kingdomes downe.
8 Thou ſeeſt how oft they make me ſee,
and on my teares doſt looke:
Reſerue them in a glaſſe by thee,
and write them in thy booke.
9 When I doe call vpon thy name,
my foes away doe ſtart:
I well perceiue it by the ſaine, that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of God,
to praiſe it I accord:
With ioy I will declare abroad,
the promiſe of the Lord.
11 I truſt in God and yet I ſay, as I before began:
The Lord he is my helpe and ſtay,
I doe not care for man.
12 I will performe with heart ſo free,
to God my vowes alwaies:
And I (O Lord) all times to thee, will offer thankes and praiſe.
13 My ſoule from death thou doſt defend,
and keepſt my feet vpriſt:
That I before thee may aſcend, with ſuch as liue in liſt.

to God, with full confidence that hee will per-forme his promiſe, and ſhew his glory in heauen, and in earth, againſt his cruell enemies, therefore he reuerſeth laud and praiſe.*

Sing this as the 44. Psalm.

TAKE pity for thy promise sake,
haue mercy Lord on mee:
For why? my soule doth her betake
vnto the helpe of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings
I let my selfe full fast:
Till mischiefe, malice, and like things,
be gone and ouerpast.
3 I call vpon the God most high,
to whom I sticke and stand:
I meane the God that will stand by the cause I haue in hand.
4 From heauen he hath sent his aide,
to saue me from their spight:
That to deuoure me haue assaid,
his mercie, truth, and right.
5 I lead my life with Lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell, that fret like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are speeres and arrowes long,
as sharpe as I haue seene:
They wound and cut with their quick tongue like swords and weapons keene.
7 Set vp and shew thy selfe O God,
aboue the heauens bright:
Exalt thy praise in earth abroad,
thy maiestie and might.
8 They lay their nets, and doe prepare a priuie caue and pit:
Wherein they thinke my soule to snare,
but they are fallen in it.
9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to ioy alwayes:
My heart I say doth well accord to sing his laud and praise.
10 Awake my ioy, awake I say,
my lute, my harpe, and string:
For I my selfe before the day will rise, reioyce, and sing.
11 Among the people I will tell the goodnesse of my God:
And shew his praise that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.
12 His mercie doth extend as farre
as heauens all are hie:
His truth as high as any starre, that shineth in the skie.
13 Set forth and shew thy selfe O God,
aboue the heauens bright:
Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy maiestie and might.

Si vere vtique. Psal. Lviij. I.H.

Hee describeth his malicious enemies, Sauls flatterers, who secretly and openly sought his destruction, from whom he appealed to Gods iudgment, shewing that the iust shall reioyce at the punishment of the wicked, to Gods glory.

Sing this as the 48. Psalm.

YE rulers which are put in trust to iudge of wrong and right:
Be all your iudgements true and iust, not knowing neede or might:
2 Nay, in your hearts ye marke and muse in mischiefe to consent.

And where ye should true iustice vse, your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked fort from their birth-day
haue erred on this wise:
And from their mothers wombe alway
haue vsed craft and lies.
4 In them the poyson and the breath of Serpents doe appeare:
Yea, like the Adder that is deafe and fast doth stop her eare, 5 Because she will not heare the voyce of one that charneth well:
No though he were the chiefe of choise,
and did therein excell.
6 O God breake thou their teeth at once, within their mouthes throughout:
The tuskes that in their great chaw-bones,
like Lions whelpes hang out, 7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs soorth right:
The shafts that they doe shoot in hast,
let them be broke in sight:
8 As Snailles doe waste within the shell,
and vnto slime doe turne:
As one before his time that fell,
and neuer saw the Sunne.
9 Before the thornes that now are young to bushes big shall grow:
The stormes of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.
10 The iust shall ioy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in blood of them that him forsake.
11 Then shall the world shew forth and tell that good men haue reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell, that iustice doth regard.

Eripe me. Psal. Lix. I.H.

David in great danger of Saul, who sear to slay him in his bed, declareth his innocencie, and their fury, praying God to destroy all malicious sinners, who lue for a time to vex his people: but in the end consume in his wrath, to Gods glory. For this he singeth praise to God, assured of his mercies.

S End aide and saue mee from my foes, O Lord I pray to thee: Defend and keepe me from all those, that rise and strue with mee. 2. O Lord preferue me from those men, whose doings are not good: And set me sure and safe from them that still thirst after blood.

- 3 For loe they waite my soule to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea, for no fault that I did make:
I neuer did them ill.
- 4 They runne, and doe themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise, and saue me from their snare,
and see what they intend.
- 5 O Lord of hostes of Israel arise and strike all lands:
And pittie none that doe rebell, and in their mischiefe stands.
- 6 At night they stirre and seeke about,
as hounds they howle and grin:
And all the Citie cleane throughout,
from place to place they runne.
- 7 They speake of me with mouthe alway,
but in their lips are swords:
They greed my death, and then would say, what? none doth heare our words.
- 8 But Lord thou hast their wayes espyde,
and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folke thou shalt deride, and mocke them to their face.
- 9 The strength that doth my foes withstand,
O Lord doth come of thee:
My God he is my helpe at hand,
a fort of fence to me.
- 10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case such as my heart doth will.

The second parte.

- 11 Destroy them not at once O God,
lest it from minde doe fall:
But with thy strength drue them abroad,
and so consume them all.
- 12 For their ill words & truthlesse tongues, confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths, with lyes and wrong,
let all the world deride.
- 13 Consume them in thy wrath O Lord, that nought of them remaine:
That men may know throughout the world that Iacobs God doth raigene.
- 14 At euening they returne apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the streets in euery place,
they runne about and spie.
- 15 They seeke about for meate I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.
- 16 For I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God,
at neede in all assaies.

- 17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me staid,
O Lord I hang to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a louing God to mee.

Deus repulisti Psal. Lx. I. H.

Dauid now king ouer Iudah, after many victories, sheweth by euident signes, that God elected him King, assuring the people, that God will prosper them if they approve the same. After he prayeth vnto God to finish that that he had begun.

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

- O Lord, thou didst vs cleane forsake, and scattered'st vs abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take:
returne to vs O God.
- 2 Thy might did moue the land so sore,
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore;
for it doth bow and quake.
- 3 With heauy chance thou plaguest thus the people that are thine:
And thou hast giuen vnto vs
a drinke of deadly wine.
- 4 But yet to such as feare thy name
a token shall ensue:
That they might triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.
- 5 So that thy might may keepe and saue thy folke that fauour thee:
That they thy helpe at hand may haue,
O Lord grant this to mee.
- 6 The Lord did speake from his owne place,
this was his ioyfull tale:
I will diuide Sichein by pace,
and mete out Succoth vale.
- 7 Gilead is giuen to my hand,
Manasses mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my Law doth Iuda guide.
- 8 In Moab I will wash my feete, ouer Edom throw my thooce:
And thou Palestine ought'st to seeke, for fauour me vnto.
- 9 But who will bring me at this tide,
vnto the City strong:
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I goe not wrong.
- 10 Wilt thou O God which didst forsake, thy flocke, their land and coasts:
Our warres in hand thou wouldest not take,
nor walke among our hostis.
- 11 Giue aide O Lord, and vs relieue, from them that vs disdain:
The helpe that hostis of men can giue,
it is but all in vaine.
- 12 But through our God we shall haue might to take great things in hand:
He will tread downe, and put to flight all those that vs withstand.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lxj. I. H.

Whether hee were in danger of the Ammonites, or pursued of Absolon, here hee cryeth to be deliuered, and comforted with his kingdome, promising perpetuall praises.

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

Regard O Lord, for I complaine, and make my suit to thee,
Let not my words returne in vaine,
but giue an eare to me.
2 From off the coasts and vtmost parts, of all the earth abroad
In griefe and anguish of my heart,
I crie to thee O God.

3 Vpon the rock of thy great power,
my wofull minde repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort, and tower,
my fence against my foes.
4 Within thy tents I lust to dwell,
for euer to endure:
Vnder thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With goodly gifts doth he reward,
all them that feare his name.
6 The king shall he in health maintaine, and so prolong his daies:
That he from age to age shall raigne,
for euermore alwaies.

7 That he may haue a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:
O let thy mercy, truth, and grace, defend him from decay.
8 Then shall I sing for euer still,
with praise vnto thy name:
That all my vowes I may fulfill,
and dayly pay the same.

Nonne Deo. Psal. Lxij. I.H.

Dauid declareth by his example and the nature of God, that he and all people must trust in God alone, seeing that al without God goes to naught, who only is of power to saue, and that he rewar-deth man according to his workes.

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

My soule to God shall giue good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.
3 For he alone is my defence,
my rocke, my health and aide:
He is my stay, that no pretence, shall make me much dismayd.
3 O wicked folke how long will ye use craft? sure you must fall,
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
4 Whom God doth loue, ye seeke alwaies, to put him to the worse,
Ye loue to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.
5 Yet still my soule doth whole depend,
on God my chiefe desire:
From all ill feares me to defend,
none but him I require.
6 He is my rocke, my strength and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me, that no power can moue me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my soules desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is mine onely trust.
8 Oh haue your hope in him alway,
ye folke with one accord:
Powre out your hearts to him and say,
our trust is in the Lord.
9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on ballance but a sight:
With things most vile doe them compare, for they can keepe no weight.
10 Trust not in wrong, robbery or stealth,
let vaine delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
set not your hearts thereon.
11 The Lord long sith one thing did tell, which here to minde I call:
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou Lord art good and kinde, thy mercy doth exceed:
So that all sorts with thee shall finde,
according to their need.

for his wonderfull deliuerance, in whose mercies hee trusteth euen in the midst of misery, prophesying the destruction of Gods enemies, and contrariwise happinesse to all them that trust in the Lord. 1 Sam. 3.*

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

O God my God I watch betime, to come to thee in hast:
For why? my soule and body both,
doe thirst of thee to tast.
2 And in this barren wildernesse, where waters there are none:
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.
3 That I might see yet once againe, thy glory, strength and might,
As I was wont it to behold, within thy temple bright.
4 For why? thy mercies farre surmount,
this life and wretched daies:
My lips therefore shall giue to thee,
due honour, laud and praise.
5 And whilst I liue I will not faile, to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift vp,
my hands when I doe pray.
6 My soule is fill'd as with marrow, which is both fat and sweet,
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs,
as are for thee most meet.
7 When as in bed I thinke on thee, and eke all the night tide:
For vnder couert of thy wings,
thou art my ioyfull guide.
8 My soule doth surely sticke to thee,
thy right hand is my power, 9 And those that seeke my life to stroy, them death shall soone deuoure.

- 10 The sword shall them deuoure each one,
their carcases shall feede
The hungry foxes which doe runne, their prey to seeke at need.
11 The King and all men shall reioyce, that doe professe Gods word :
For liars mouthes shall then be stoppt, which haue the truth disturb'd.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lxiiij. I.H.

David prayeth against the false reporters and slanderers; hee declareth their punishment and destruction, to the comfort of the iust, and the glory of God.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

- O Lord vnto my voice giue care,
with plaints when I doe pray :
And rid my life and soule from dread, off soes that threat to slay.
2 Defend me from that sort of men, which in deceits doe lurke :
And from the frowning face of them,
that all ill seates doe worke.
3 Who whet their tongues as we haue seene men whet and sharpe their swords :
They shoot abroad their arrowes keene,
I ragane most bitter words.
4 With priuie sleights shoot they their darts
the vpright man to hit :
The iust vnware to hit by craft,
they care or feare no whit.
5 A wicked worke they haue decreed,
in counsell thus they erie :
To vse deceit let vs not dread,
what ? who can it espie ?
6 What waies to hurt they talke and muse,
all times within their heart :
They all consult what feats to vse,
each doth inuent his part.
7 But yet all this shall not auail,
when they thinke least vpon :
God with his dart shall sure assault,
and wound them euery one.
8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withall, shall worke themselues such blame :
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
9 Then all that see shall know right well,
that God the thing hath wrought :
And praise his wittie workes, and tell what he to passe hath brought.
10 Yet shall the iust in God reioyce, still trusting in his might :
So shall they ioy with minde and voice, whose heart is pure and right.

Te dect hymnus. Psal. Lxv. I.H.

A thanksgiving vnto God by the faithfull, who are signified by Sion and Ierusalem, for the chusing, preservation, and gouernance of them, and for the plentifull blessings poured forth vpon all the earth.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

- Thy praise alone (O Lord) doth raigne,
in Sion thine owne hill.
Their vowes to thee they doe maintaine, and their benefitts fulfill.
2 For that thou dost their prayers heare, and dost thereto agree.

Thy people all both farre and neere, with trust shall come to thee.

- 3 Our wicked life so farre exceeds,
that we should fall therein :
But Lord forgie our great misdeeds, and purge vs from our sinne.
4 The man is blest whom thou dost chuse, within thy courts to dwell :
Thy house and temple he shall vse, with pleasures that excell.
5 Of thy great iustice heare vs God,
our health of thee doth rise :
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.
6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compait with thy power :
Thou mak'st the Mountaines strong & stout,
to stand in euery shower.
7 The swelling seas thou dost assuage, and make their streames full still :
Thou dost restraîne the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
8 The folke that dwell full farre on earth, shall dread thy signes to see :
Which morne and euening in great mirth,
doe passe with praise to thee.
9 When that the earth is chopt and dry, and thirsteth more and more :
Then with thy drops thou dost apply,
and much increase her store.
The flood of God doth ouerflow, and so doth cause to spring :
The seed and corne which men doe sow,
for he doth guide the thing.
10 With wet thou dost her furrowes fill,
whereby her clods doe fall :
Thy drops on her thou dost distill, and blest her fruit withall.
12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good grace, with faire and pleasant crop :
Thy clouds distill their dew apace, great plenty they doe drop.
12 Whereby the desert shall begin,
full great increase to bring :
The litle hills shall ioy therein, much fruit in them shall spring.
13 In places plaine the flocke shall feed,
and couer all the earth :
The vales with corne shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

Iubilare Deo. Psal. Lxvj. I.H.

Hee exhorteth to praise the Lord in his wonderfull works, hee sets forth the power of God to affray rebels, and sheweth Gods mercy to Israel, to prouoke all men to heare and praise his name.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

- YE men on earth in God reioyce, with praise set forth his name :
2 Extoll his might with heart and voice,
giue glory to the same.
3 How wonderfull (O Lord) say ye, in all thy workes thou art :
Thy foes for feare doe seeke to thee,
full fore against their heart.
4 All men that dwell the earth throughout,
doe praise the name of God,

The laud thereof the world about is shew'd and set abroad:
5 All folke come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:
Make well the wondrous workes that he for man to passe hath brought.

6 He laid the sea like heapes on hie, therein a way they had:
On foot to passe both faire and drie, whereof their hearts were glad.

7 His might doth rule the world alway, his eyes all things behold:
And such as would him disobey, by him shall be controul'd.

8 Ye people give vnto our God due laud and thanks alwaies:
With ioyfull voyce declare abroad,
and sing vnto him praise.

9 Which doth endue our soules with life,
and it preferue withall:
He staieeth our feet, so that no strife can make vs slip or fall.

10 The Lord doth proue our deeds with fire,
if that they will abide:
As workemen doe when they desire to haue their mettals tride.

11 Although thou suffer vs so long in prison to be cast:
And there with chaines and fetters strong to lye in bondage fast.

The second part.

12 Although I say thou suffer men on vs to ride and raigne:
Though we through fire and water runne of very griefe and paine.

Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace dispose it to the best:
And bringst vs out into a place to liue in wealth and rest.

13 Vnto thy house resort I will,
to offer and to pray:
And there I will my selfe apply
my vowes to thee to pay.

14 The vowes that with my mouth I spake
in all my griefe and smart:
The vowes I say which I did make in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt offerings I will giue to thee of Oxen fat and Rams:
None other sacrifice shall be,
of Bullockes, Goates and Lambs.
16 Come forth and harken here full soone,
all yee that feare the Lord:
What he for my poore soule hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call vpon his grace,
this mouth to him doth crie:
And thou my tongue make speede apace,
to praise him by and by.

18 But if I feele my heart within,
in wicked workes reioyce:
Or if I haue delight to sinne
God will not heare my voice.

19 But surely God my voice hath heard, and what I doe require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.

20 All praise to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut, which I did euer finde.

Deus misereatur. Psal. Lxvij. I. H.

A sweet prayer for all the faithfull to obtaine the fauour of God, and to be comforted with his countenance to the end that his wayes & iudgements may be knowne throughout the earth: a reioycing that God is the gouernour of all nations.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

HAVE mercy on vs Lord,
and grant to vs thy grace:

To shew to vs doe thou accord
the brightnesse of thy face.

2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:

And all the nations on a row may see thy fauing health.

3 Let all the world O God,
giue praise vnto thy name:

O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.

4 Throughout the world so wide,
let all reioyce with mirth:

For thou with truth and right dost guide the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
giue praise vnto thy name:

O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.

6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall:

And then our God the God of peace, shall blesse vs eke withall.

7 God shall vs blesse I say,
and then both farre and neere,

The folke throughout the earth alway, of him shall stand in feare.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. Lxvij. T. S.

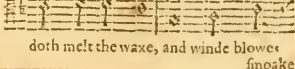

*David expresseth the wonderfull mercies of God towards his people, who by all means and most strange sort, declareth himselfe vnto them. Gods Church therefore by reason of his promises, grace and victories, doth excell all worldly things:
wherefore all men are moued to praise God for euer.*

L  Et God arise, and then his foes will turne themselves to fight: His enemies then will runne abroad, and scatter out of sight. 2. And as the fire doth melt the waxe, and winde blowe smoke

ſmoake away : So in the preſence of the Lord, the wicked ſhall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord,
ſhall heartily reioyce :

They ſhall be glad, and merrie all,
and chearefull in their voice.

4 Sing praiſe, ſing praiſe vnto the Lord,
who rideth on the ſkie :
Extoll the name of Iah our God,
and him doe magnifie.

5 The ſame is he that is aboue
within his holy place :

That father is of fatherleſſe, and iudge of widowes caſe.

6 Houſes he giues, and iſſue both,
vnto the comfortleſſe :
He bringeth bond-men out of thrall, and rebels to diſtreſſe.

7 When thou didſt march before thy folke, the Egyptians from among :
And brought'ſt them through the wildernes, which was both wide and long.

8 The earth did quake, the rain pour'd down, heard were great claps of thunder :
The mount Sinai ſhook in ſuch ſort,
as it would cleave in ſunder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of raine abundantly was waſht :
And iſſo be it barren wakt,
by thee it was reſreſht.

10 Thy choſen ſlocke doth there remaine, thou haſt prepar'd that place :
And for the poore thou doſt prouide of thine eſpeciall grace.

The ſecond part.

11 God will giue women cauſes iuſt to magnifie his name :

When as his people triumphs make,
and purchaſe brute and fame.

12 And pauſant Kings for all their power,
ſhall ſie, and take the ſoile :
And women which remaine at home,
ſhall helpe to part the ſpoile.

13 And though ye were as blacke as pots,
your hew ſhall paſſe the Doue :
Whoſe wings and feathers ſeeme to haue ſiluer and gold aboue.

14 When in this land God ſhall triumph
ouer Kings both hie and low :
Then ſhall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any ſnow.

15 Though Baſan be a fruitfull hill, and in height others paſſe :
Yet Sion Gods moſt holy hill doth farre excell in grace.

16 Why brag ye thus, ye hills moſt hie, and leape for pride together :
The hill of Sion God doth loue, and there will dwell for euer.

17 Gods armie is two millions of warriours good and ſtrong :

The Lord alſo in Sinai

is preſent them among.

18 Thou didſt O Lord aſcend on high,
and captiue led them all,
Which in time paſt thy choſen ſlocke in priſon kept and thrall.

Thou mad'ſt them tribute for to pay,
and ſuch as did repine,

Thou didſt ſubdue that they might dwell in thy temple diuine.

19 Now praiſed be the Lord, for that he poures on vs ſuch grace :
From day to day he is the God of our health and ſolace.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone,
ſaluation commeth plaine :

He is the God, by whom I ſcape all dangers, death, and paine.

21 Thus God will wound his enemies head, and breake the hayrie ſcalpe Of thoſe that in their wickedneſſe continually doe walke.

22 From Baſan will I bring ſaid he my people and my ſheepe :
And all mine owne, as I haue done from danger of the deepe.

23 And make them dip their feet in blood of thoſe that hate thy name :
And dogs ſhall haue their tongues imbrued with licking of the ſame.

24 All men haue ſene how thou O God, thine enemies doſt deſace :
And how thou goeſt as God and King,
into thine holy place :

25 The fingers goe before with ioy, the minitrels follow after :
And in the midſt the damſels play,
with timbrell and with taber.

26 Now in the congregation,
(O Iſrael) praiſe the Lord :

And Iacobs whole poſteritie, giue thanks with one accord.

27 Their chiefe was little Benjamin, but Iuda made their boſt :
With Zabulon and Neptalim, which dwell about their coaſt.

28 As God hath giuen power to thee, ſo Lord make firme and ſure
The thing that thou haſt wrought in vs,
for euer to endure.

29 And in thy temple gifts will wee giue vnto thee O Lord :
For thine vnto Ieruſalem, ſure promiſe made by word.

The fourth part.

Yea, and ſtrange Kings to vs ſubdued, ſhall doe like in thoſe dayes :

I meane to thee they ſhall preſent their gifts of laud and praiſe.

30 He ſhall deſtroy the ſpeare-mens rancks, their calues and buls of might :
And cauſe them tribute pay, and daunt
all ſuch as loue to fight.

31 Then ſhall the Lords of Egypt come, and preſents with them bring :

The Moores most blacke shall stretch their vnto their Lord and King. (hands)

33 Therefore ye kingdomes of the earth
giue praise vnto the Lord :

Sing Psalmes to God with one consent, thereto let all accord.

34 Who though he ride, and euer hath,
above the heauens bright :

Yet by the fearefull thunder claps men may well know his might.

35 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascriber to God on hie :

Whose might and power doth farre extend about the cloudy skie.

36 O God thy holinesse and power is dread for euermore :

The God of Israel giues vs strength, praised be God therefore.

Saluum me fac. Psal. Lxix. I. H.

Christ and his elect are figured in Davids reals & anguish, the malicious cruelty of whose enemies and their punishment, Iudas and such traitors noteth, who are accused : then gathereth hee courage in afflictions, and offereth prayes to God, which are more acceptable then all sacrifices. Finally, he doth prouoke all creatures to praises, prophesying of the kingdome of Christ and building of Iudea, where all the faithfull and their seede shall dwell for euer.

S Aue me O God, and that with speed, the waters flow full fast: So nigh my soule doe

they proceed, that I am sore agast. 2. I sticke full deepe in filth and clay, whereas I feele

no ground : I fall into such fouds I say, that I am like be drown'd.

3 With crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and drie:

With looking vp my sight doth faile,
for helpe of God on hie.

4 My foes that guiltlesse doe oppresse my soule, with hate are led :

In number sure they are no lesse,
then hayres are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore, they prosper and are glad :

They doe compell me to restore the things I neuer had.

6 What I haue done for want of wit, thou Lord all times canst tell :

And all the faulces that I commit to thee are knowne full well.

7 O God of hosts, defend and stay all these that trust in thee :

Let no man doubt or shrink away for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake that I doe beare this blame :

In spight of thee they would me make to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers' sonnes, my brethren all forsake me on a row :

And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

10 Vnto thy house such zeale I beare, that it doth pine me much :

Their checkes and taunts at thee to heare
my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I doe fast my flesh to chafe, yea, if I weepe and mone :

Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they passe not thereupon.

12 If I for griefe and paine of heart, in sack-cloth vse to walke :

Then they anon will it peruert, thereof they iest and talke.

13 Both high and low, and all the throng that sit within the gate :

They haue me euer in their tongue,
of me they talke and prate.

14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chiefe pastime

To seeke which wayes to worke me spight, of me they sing and time.

15 But thee the while O Lord I pray, that when it pleaseth thee,

For thy great truth thou wilt alway send downe thine aide to mee.

16 Plucke thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning doe me keepe :

From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deepe.

17 Left with the waues I should be drown'd, and depth my soule deuoure :

And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hosts to me giue eare, as thou art good and kinde :

And as thy mercy is most deare,
Lord haue me in thy minde.

19 And doe not from thy seruant hide,
nor turne thy face away :

I am oppress'd on euery side,
with hate giue eare I say.

20 O Lord vnto my soule draw nie,
the same with aide repose :

Because of their great tyrannie,
acquite me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame thou know'st, and thou canst tell :

For those that seeke and worke the same,
thou seest them all full well.

22 When they with brags doe break my hart,
I seeke for helpe anone :

But finde no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.

22 But in my meate they gaue me gall, too cruell for to thinke:

And gaue me in my thirst withall strong vinegar to drinke.

23 Lord turne their table to a snare,
to rake themselves therein:
And when they thinke full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

24 And let their eyes be darke and blinde, that they may nothing see:
Bow downe their backe, and doe them binde in thraldome for to be.

25 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold vpon them all.

26 As desert dry their house disgrace, their off-spring eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents doe dwell.

27 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lye fell fore:
And if that thou dost wound the same,
they seeke to hurt him more.

28 Then let them heape vp mischief still,
sith they are all peruert:
That of thy fauour and good will they neuer haue no part.

29 And dash them cleane out of the booke of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their names they neuer looke,
in number of the iust.

The fourth part.

30 Though I (O Lord) with woe and griefe, haue beene full sore oppress:
Thy helpe shall giue me such reliefe, that all shall be redrest.

31 That I may giue thy name the praise, and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwayes, with hearty thanks among.

32 Which is more pleasant vnto thee, such minde thy grace hath borne:
Then eyther Oxe or Calfe can be that hath both hoofe and horn.

33 When simple folke doe this behold,
it shall reioyce them sure:
All yee that seeke the Lord, behold,
your life for aye shall dure.

34 For why? the Lord of hoasts doth heare
the poore when they complaine:
His prisoners are to him full deare,
he doth them nor disdain.

35 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the sea with floud and streame,
His praise they shall declare and shew,
with all that liue in them.

36 For sure our God will Sion saue, and Iudaes Cities build:
Much folke possession there shall haue,
her streets shall all be filld.

37 His seruants seede shall keepe the same all ages out of minde:

And there all they that loue his name
a dwelling place shall finde.

Deus in adiutor. Psal. Lxx. I. H.

Hee prayeth to be right speedily deliuered, his enemies to be abhained, and all that seeke the Lord to be comforted.

Sing this as the 72. Psalm.

O God to me take heede:
of help I thee require:

O Lord of hoasts with haste make speed, helpe, helpe, I thee desire.

2 With shame confound them all,
that seeke my soule to spill:
Rebuke them backe with blame to fall,
that thinke and wish me ill.

3 Confound them that apply, and seeke to worke me shame:
And at my harme doe laugh and cry,
so, so, there goeth the game.

4 But let them ioyfull be in thee with ioy and wealth:
Which onely trust and seeke to thee,
and to thy sauing health.

5 That they may say alwayes,
in mirth and one accord:
All glory, honour, laud, and praise be giuen to thee O Lord.

6 But I am weake and poore, come Lord, thine aide I lacke:
Thou art my stay and helpe, therefore make speed and be not slacke.

In te Domine. Psal. Lxxj. I. H.

Hee prayeth in faith, established by promise, and confirmed by the worke of God from his youth, to be deliuered from his wicked and cruell sonne Absolon, with his confederacie, promising to be thankfull therefore.

Sing this as the 69. Psalm.

MY Lord my God in all distresse,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soule oppress,
nor once take hold on me:

2 As thou art iust defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Giue care, and to my suite accord,
and seud me helpe at need.

3 Be thou my rocke, to whom I may for aide all times resort:
Thy promise is to helpe alway, thou art my fence and fort.

4 Saue me my God from wicked men, and from their strength and power:
From folke vniust, and eke from them,
that cruelly denoure.

5 Thou art the stay, wherein I trust,
thou Lord of hoasts art hee:
Yea, from my youth I had a lust,
still to depend on thee.

6 Thou hast me kept euen from my birth, and I through thee was borne:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth,
both euening and at morne.

7 As to a monster seldome scene, much folke about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast beene

my fence and aide so strong.
 8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack,
 thy glory and thy praise:
 And eke my tongue shall not be slack,
 to honour thee alwaies.
 9 Refuse me not O Lord I say, when age my limbs doth take:
 And when my strength doth waste away,
 doe not my soule forsake.
 10 Among themselves my foes enquire,
 to take me through deceit:
 And they against me doe conspire, that for my soule laid waite.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now they said,
 for God from him is gone:
 Dispatch him quite, for to his aide,
 I wis there commeth none,
 12 Doe not absent thy selfe away,
 O Lord, when need shall be:
 But that in time of griefe thou mayst
 in hast giue helpe to me.
 13 With shame confound and ouerthrow,
 all those that seeke my life:
 Oppresse them with rebuke also,
 that faine would worke me strife.
 14 But I will patiently abide,
 thy helpe at all affaires,
 Still more and more each time and tide,
 I will set forth thy praise.
 15 My mouth thy iustice shall record, that daily helpe doth send:
 But of thy benefits O Lord,
 I know no count nor end.
 16 Yet I will goe and seeke forth one,
 with thy good helpe O God:
 The sauing health of thee alone,
 to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou tookest the care, and dost instruct me still:
 Therefore thy wonders to declare,
 I haue great minde and will.
 18 And as in youth from wanton rage, thou didst me keepe and stay, Forsake me not vnto mine age,
 and till my head be gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy strength and might may shew to them that now be heere:
 And that our seed thy power may know,
 hereafter many a yeere.
 20 O Lord thy iustice doth exceed, thy doings all may see:
 Thy workes are wonderfull indeed,
 oh who is like to thee?
 21 Thou madst me feeble affliction sore,
 and yet thou didst me saue:
 Yea, thou didst helpe and me restore,
 and tookest me from the graue.
 22 And thou mine honour dost encrease,
 my dignitie maintaine:
 Yea, thou dost make all strife to cease,
 and comfort'st me againe.
 23 Therefore thy faithfullnesse to praise,
 I will both lute and sing:
 My harpe shall sound thy laud alwaies,
 O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth shall ioy with pleasant voyce,
 when I shall sing to thee:
 And eke my soule shall much reioyce,
 for thou hast made me free.

25 My tongue thy vprightnesse shall sound, and speake it daily still:
 For griefe and shame doe them confound, that sought to worke me ill.

Deus iudicium. Psal. Lxxij. I.H.

Gods kingdome by Christ is represented by Salomon, vnder whom shall be righteousness, peace and silencie, vnto whom all kings and nations shall doe homage, whose name and power shall endure for euer.

Ord giue thy iudgements to the King, therein instruct him well: And with his son that princely thing, Lord let thy iustice dwell

1. That he may gouerne vprightly, and rule thy folke aright. And so defend through equity, the poore that haue no might.

3 And let the mountaines that are high,
 vnto their folke giue peace,
 And eke the little hills apply,
 in iustice to increase:

4 That he may helpe the weak and poore with aide, and make them strong:
 And eke destroy for euermore
 all those that doe them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and feare thy might:
 So long as Sunne shall shine by day,
 or else the Moone by night.

6 Lord make the King vnto the iust, like raine to fields new mowne:
 And like to drops that lay the dust,
 and fresh the land new sowne.

7 The iust shall flourish in his time,
 and all shall be at peace:
 Vntill the moone shall leaue to prime,
 waste, change, and to increase.

8 He shall be Lord of Sea and land, from shore to shore throughout,
 And from the fouds within the land,
 through all the earth about.

9 The people that in desert dwell, shall kneele to him full thicke:

And all his enemies that rebell,
the earth and dust shall lick.
10 The Lords of all the Iles thereby, great gifts to him shall bring :
The Kings of Saba and Araby, giue many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All Kings shall seeke with one accord,
in his good grace to stand :
And all the people of the world,
shall serue him at his hand.
12 For he the needie sort doth saue, that vnto him doe call :
And eke the simple folke that haue
no helpe of man at all.
13 He taketh pitie on the poore, that are with need oppress :
He doth preferue them euermore, and brings their soule to rest.
14 He shall redeeme their life from dread, from fraud, from wrong, from might.
And eke the bloud that they shall bleed,
is precious in his sight.
15 But he shall liue, and they shall bring to him of Sabas gold :
He shall be honoured as a King,
and daily be extold.
16 The mighty mountaines of his land,
of corne heall beare such throng :
That like Cedar trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their Cities eke full well shall speed, the fruits thereof shall passe :
In plenty it shall faire exceede, and spring as greene as grasse.
18 For euer they shall praise his name,
while that the sunne is light :
And thinke them happy through the same,
all folke shall blesse his might.
19 Praise ye the Lord of hostes and sing, to Israels God each one :
For he doth euery wondrous thing,
yea, he himselfe alone.
20 And blessed be his holy Name,
all times eternally,
That all the earth may praise the same,
Amen, Amen say I.

Quam bonus Deus. Psa. Lxxij. T.S.

Dauid teacheth that neither the prosperity of the ungodly, nor the affliction of the good ought to discourage Gods children, but rather moue them to consider Gods providence, and to reuerence his iudgements, for that the wicked vanisheth away like smoke, and the godly enter into life euerslasting, in hope and rest hee resigneth himselfe to Gods hands.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

HOW euer it be, yet God is good,
and kinde to Israel :

And to all such as safely keepe their conscience pure and well.

2 Yet like a foole I almost slippe,
my feete began to slide :

And ere I wist ereen at a pinch,
my steps awry ganglde.

3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudge'd and did disdain :

That wicked men all things should haue, without turmoile or paine.

4 They neuer suffer pangs nor grieue,
as if death should them smite :
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and euer in good plight.

5 And free from all aduersity,
when other men be fient :

And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chaine :
And are euen wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.

7 They are so fed that euen for fat, their eies oft times out-start :

And as for worldly goods they haue,
more then can with their heart.

8 Their life is most licentious, boasting much of the wrong
Which they haue done to simple men, and euer pride among.

9 The heauens and the liuing Lord, they spare not to blasphem :
And prate they doe of worldly things,
no wight they doe esteeme.

10 The people of God oft times turne backe, to see their prosperous state :
And almost drinke the selfe same cup,
and follow the same race.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God say they, should know or vnderstand
These worldly things, since wicked men be Lords of sea and land :

12 For we may see how wicked men, in riches still increase :
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and liue in rest and peace.

13 Then why doe I from wickednesse,
my fantasie reframe :

And wash my hands with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vaine :

14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subiect to all blame :

And euery morning from my youth,
sustaine rebuke and shame :

15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate :

But that I should thy children iudge,
as folke vnfortunate.

16 Then I bethought me how I might,
this matter vnderstand :

But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand.

17 Vntill the time I went vnto thy holy place, and then,

I vnderstood right perfectly,
the end of all these men.

18 And namely, how thou testest them,
vpon a slipperie place :

And at thy pleasure and thy will,
thou dost them all deface.

19 Then shall men muse at that strange sight, to see how suddenly,

They are destroy'd, dispatcht, consumed,
and dead so horribly.

20 Much like a dreame when one awakes, so shall their wealth decay:

Their famous names in all mens sight, shall ebbe and passe away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my minde was much oppressit :

22 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a beast.

23 Yet neuertheless by my right hand,
thou hold'st me euer fast :

24 And with thy counsell dost me guide to glory at the last.

25 What thing is there that I can wish,
but thee in heauen aboue :
And in the earth there is no thing like thee that I can loue.

26 My flesh and eke my heart doth faile,
but God doth faile me neuer :

For of my heart God is the strength,
my portion eke for euer.

27 And loe, all such as thee forsake, thou shalt destroy each one :

And those that trust in any thing,
sauiug in thee alone.

28 Therefore will I draw neare to God, and euer with him dwell :

In God alone I put my trust,
his wonders I will tell.

Vt quid Deus ? Psal. Lxxiiij. I. H.

A complaint of the destruction of the Church and true Religion, vnder the name of Sion, and the Altars destroyed. But trusting in the might and free mercies of God by his couenant, he requirerh helpe and succour, to the glory of his name, the saluation of his poore afflicted seruants, and the confusion of his proud enemies.

Sing this as the 72. Psalme.

Why art thou Lord so long from vs,
in all this danger deepe :

Why doth thine anger kindele thus at thine owne pasture sheepe :

1 Lord call the people to thy thought which haue bene thine so long :

The which thou hast redeem'd and brought from bondage fore and strong.

Haue minde I say, and thinke vpon,
remember it full well :

Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion, where thou wast wont to dwell.

3 Lift vp thy foot, and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface :

Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

4 Amid the congregations all thy enemies roare O God :

They set as signes on euery wall their banners spai'd abroad.

5 As men with axes hew downe trees, that on the hills doe grow :

So shine the bills and swords of these,
within thy temple now.

6 The feeling saw'd, the carued boards,
the goodly grauen stones,

With axes, hammers, bills, and swords,
they beat them downe at once.

7 Thy places they consume with flame, and eke in all this toile

The house appointed to thy name, they raze downe to the soile.

8 And thus they said within their heart, dispatch them out of hand :

Then burnt they vp in euery place,
Gods houses through the land.

9 Yet thou no signe of help dost send,
our Prophets all are gone :

To tell when this our plague shall end
among vs there is none.

10 When wilt thou Lord once end this shame and cease thine enemies strong :

Shall they alway blaspheme thy name,
and raile on thee so long :

11 Why dost with-draw thy hand abacke,
and hide it in thy lap :

O plucke it out, and be not slacke to giue thy foes a rap.

The second part.

12 O God thou art my King and Lord, and euermore hast bene :

Yea, thy good grace throughout the world,
for our good helpe hath scene.

13 The seas that are so deepe and dead,
thy might did make them dry :

And thou didst breake the serpents head,
that he therein did die.

14 Yea, thou didst breake the head so great of Whales that are so fell :

And gau'st them to thy folke to eate,
that in the deserts dwell.

15 Thou mad'st a spring with streames to rise from rocks both hard and hie :

And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deepe riuers to be drie.

16 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun :

Thou set'st to serue vs with their shine
the light and eke the Sunne.

17 Thou dost appoint the ends and coasts of the earth about :

Both summer heates, and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

18 Thinke on O Lord, no time forget thy foes that thee defame :

And how the foolish folke are set to raile vpon thy name.

19 O let no cruell beast deuoure
the Turtle that is true :

Forget not alwayes in thy power
the poore that much doe rue.

20 Regard thy couenant, and behold thy foes possesse the land :

All sad and darke, forworne and old,
our realme as now doth stand.

21 Let not the simple goe away with disappointed shame :

But let the poore and needy aye,
giue praise vnto thy name.

22 Rise Lord, let be by thee maintain'd the cause that is thine owne :

Remember how that thou blasphem'd art by the foolish one :

23 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presuming hie,

Is more and more increas'd of those,
that hate thee sightfully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. Lxxv. N.

The faithfull praise the Lord, who shall come to iudge at his time, when the wicked shall drinke the cup of his wrath, but the righteous shall be exalted to honour.

Sing this as the 45. Psalm.

Vnto thee God we will giue thanks,
we will giue thanks to thee :

Sith thy name is so neare, declare thy wondrous workes will we.

I will vprightly iudge, when get conuenient time I may :

The earth is weake, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously :

And vnto the vagodly ones, set not your hornes on high.

I said vnto them, set not vp your raised hornes on hie :

And see that you doe with stiffe necke,
not speake presumptuously.

For neither from the Easterne part nor from the Westerne side :

Nor from forsaken wildernesse, protection doth proceede.

For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Iudge alone :

He putteth downe the one, and sets another in the throne.

For why? a cup of mighty wine is in the hand of God :

And all the mighty wine therein himselfe doth poure abroad.

As for the lees and filthy dregs, that doe remaine of it :

The wicked of the earth shall drinke, and sucke them euery whit.

But I will talke of God I say, of Iacobs God therefore :

And will not cease to celebrate his praise for euermore.

In Iunder breake the hornes of all vngodly men will I :

But then the hornes of righteous men shall be exalted hie.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore :

As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be euermore.

In Iudea. Psal. Lxxvj. I.H.

Here is described the power of God, and care for the defence of his people, by the destruction of Senacheribs army, for which the faithfull are exhorted to be thankfull.

Sing this as the 66. Psalm.

TO all that now in Iurie dwell
the Lord is clearely knowne :

His name is great in Israel a people of his owne.

At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarry there a space :

In Sion eke he hath delight, to make his dwelling place.

And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the speare and shield :

And brake the ray to ouerthrow,
in battell on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord, more might in thee doth lie,

Then in the strongest of the world, that rob on mountaines hie.

5 But now the prond are spoild through thee, and they are fallen on sleepe :

Through men of warre no helpe can be, themselves they could not keepe.

6 At thy rebuke O Iacobs God, when thou didst them reprove :

As halfe asleepe their chariots stood,
no horseman once did moue.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord indeede, what man the courage hath

To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath :

8 When thou dost make thy judgments heard from heauen through the ground :

Then all the earth full fore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou O God dost stand, in iudgement for to speake :

To saue th' afflicted of the land, on earth that are full weake.

10 The fury that in man doth raigne, shall turne vnto thy praise :

Hereafter Lord doe thou restrain their wrath and threats alwaies.

11 Make voves and pay them to your God, ye folke that nigh him be :

Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad, for dreadfull sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might from Princes great of birth :

And full of teriour is his sight,
to all the Kings on earth.

Voce mea ad. Psal. Lxxvij. I.H.

David rehearseth his great afflictions and grievous temptations, whereby he is driuen to consider his former conuersion, and the course of Gods workes in the preservation of his seruants, and so he confirmeth his faith against these temptations.

took : But stretcht my hands to him abroad

abroad, my soule comfort forlooke.
 3 When I to thinke on God endend, my trouble then is more :
 I spake but could not make an end,
 my breath was stopt so fore.
 4 Thou holdst mine eies alwaies from rest,
 that I alwaies awake :
 With feare am I so fore opprest,
 my speech doth me forsake.
 5 The daies of old in minde I cast, and oft did thinke vpon
 The times and ages that are past, full many yeeres agone.
 6 By night my songs I cail to minde, once made thy praise to shew :
 And with my heart much talke I finde,
 my spirits doe search to know.
 7 Will God said I, at once for all, cast off his people thus :
 so that henceforth no time he shall be friendly vnto vs :
 8 What is his goodnesse cleane decayd,
 for euer and a day :
 Or is his promise now delaid :
 and doth his truth decay :
 9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold :
 Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
 his mercies to withhold :
 10 At last I said, my weakenesse is the cause of this mistrust :
 Gods mighty hand can helpe all this,
 and change it when he list.

The second part.

11 I will regard and thinke vpon :
 the working of the Lord,
 Of all his wonders past and gone,
 I gladly will record.
 12 Yea, all his workes I will declare,
 and what he did deuise :
 To tell his facts I will not spare,
 and eke his counsell wise.
 13 Thy workes O Lord are all vpight, and holy all abroad :
 What one hath strength to match the might of thee O Lord our God :
 14 Thou art a God that oft dost shew thy wonders euery houre :
 And so dost make thy people know,
 thy vertue and thy power.
 15 And thine owne folke thou dost defend with strength and stretched arme :
 The sonnes of Iacob that descend, and Iosephs seed from harme.
 16 The waters Lord perceined thee,
 the waters saw thee well :
 And they for feare aside did flee,
 the depths on trembling fell.
 The clouds that were both thicke and blacke did raine full plenteously :
 The thunder in the aire did cracke,
 thy shafts abroad did flie, 17 The thunder in the aire was heard,
 the lightnings from above :

18 With flashes great made them asfeard, the earth did quake and moue.

19 Thy waies within the sea doe lie,
 thy pathes in waters deepe :

Yet none can there thy steps espie, nor know thy pathes to keepe.

20 Thou leadest thy folke vpon the land,
 as sheepe on euery side,

Through Moses and through Aarons hand, thou didst them safely guide.

Attendite populi. Psal. Lxxviii. T. S.

He sheweth how God of his mercy chose his Church of the posterity of Abraham, casting in their teeth the rebellion of their fathers, that their children might acknowledge Gods free mercies, and be ashamed of their perverser ancestors. The holy Ghost hath comprehended as it were the summe of all Gods benefits, that the grosse people might see in few words the effect of the whole historie.

Tend my people to my law, and to my words incline. 2. My mouth shall speake strange parables, and sentences diuine. 3. Which we our felues haue heard and leard, euen of our Fathers old, and which for our instruction

our Fathers haue vs told.

4 Because we should not keepe it close, from them that should come after :
 Who should Gods power to their race praise,
 and all his workes of wonder.

5 To Iacob he commandement gaue,
 how Israel should liue :

Willing our Fathers should the same vnto their children giue.

6 That they and their posterity, which were not sprung vp tho :

Should haue the knowledge of the law,
 and teach their seed also,

7 That they may haue the better hope in God that is above,

And not forget to keepe his lawes,
 and his precepts in loue.

8 Not being as our Fathers were,
 rebelling in Gods sight :

And would not frame their wicked hearts to know their God aright.

How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoile :
Shooting their darts the day of warre,
and yet they tooke the foile :
For why they did not keepe with God,
the couenant that was made :
Nor yet would walke or leade their liues,
according to his trade.
But put into obliuion, his counsell and his will :
And all his works most magnifique, which he declared still.

The second part.

What wonders to our forefathers,
did he himfelfe difclose :
In Egypt land within the field,
that called is Thancois :
He did diuide and cut the sea,
that they might paffe at once :
And made the water stand as still,
as doth an heape of stones.
He led them secret in a cloud
by day, when it was bright :
And in the night when darke it was,
with fire he gaue them light.
He brake the rocke in wilderneffe,
and gaue the people drinke,
As plentifull as when the deepes doe flow vp to the brinke.

He drew out riuers out of rocks, that were both dry and hard :
Of such abundance that no floods,
to them might be comparde.
Yet for all this against the Lord,
their sinne they did increafe :
And stirred him that is most hie,
to wrath in wilderneffe.
They tempted him within their hearts,
like people of mistrust :
Requiring such a kinde of meate,
as serued to their lust, Saying with murmuration,
in their vnfaithfulnesse,
What can this God prepare for vs,
a feast in wilderneffe :
Behold he strake the stonie rocke, and floods forth-with did flow :
But can he now giue to his folke, both bread and flesh also :
When God heard this he waxed wroth,
with Iacob and his seed.
So did his indignation on Israel proceed.

The third part.

Because they did not faithfully beleue, and hope that he Could alwaies helpe and succour them in their necessity.
Wherefore he did command the clouds, forthwith they brake in sunder :
And rained downe Manna for them to eat,
a food of mickle wonder.
When earthly men with Angels food, were fed at their request :
He bad the East winde blow away,
and brought in the South-west.
And rain'd downe flesh as thick as dust,

and fowle as thicke as sand :
Which he did cast amidst the place, where all their tents did stand.
Then did they eate exceedingly,
and all men had their fill,
Yet more and more they did desire,
to serue their lusts and wils.
But as the meate was in their mouthes,
his wrath vpon them fell :
And slew the flower of all their youth,
and choise of Israel,
Yet fell they to their wonted sinne,
and still they did him grieve,
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him nor beleue.
Their daies therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vaine :
Their yeeres did waste and paffe away,
with terroure and with paine.
But euer when he plagued them, they sought him by and by :
Remembring then he was their strength,
their helpe and God most hie.
Though in their mouthes they did but and flatter with the Lord : (glose,
And with their tongues and in their hearts, dissembled euery word.

The fourth part.

For why : their hearts was nothing bent to him, nor to his trade :
Nor yet to keepe nor to performe,
the couenant that was made.
Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they deserued to die :
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.
Yea many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himfelfe aduise :
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
Considering that they were but flesh,
and euen as a winde,
That passeth away, and cannot well
returne by his owne kinde.
How oftentimes in wilderneffe,
did they the Lord prouoke :
How did they moue and stirre the Lord,
to plague them with his stroke :
Yet did they turne againe to sinne,
and tempted God oft-soone :
Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would haue done.
Not thinking of his hand and powre, nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands, of the fierce enemy.
Nor how he wrought his miracles,
as they themselues beheld In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.
Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood,
That no man might receiue his drinke
at riuier nor at flood.
Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them fore annoy.

And kild their country full of frogs, which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
vnto the Caterpillar :
And all the labour of their hands,
he gaue to the Grasshopper.
47 With hailestones he destroyed their vines,
so that they were all lost :
And not so much as wilde figge trees,
but he consumed with froit.

48 And yet with hailestones once againe,
the Lord their cattell smote :
And all their flocks and herds likewise, with thunderbolts full hot.
49 He cast vpon them in his ire, and in his fury strong :
Displeasure, wrath, and euill spirits, to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way, and spared not the least :
But gaue vnto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast.

51 He strake also the first borne all, that vp in Egypt came :
And all the chiefe of men and beasts,
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his owne deare folke,
he did preserve and keepe.
And carried them through wilderness,
euen like a flocke of sheepe.

53 Without all feare, both safe and sound,
he brought them out of thrall :
Whereas their foes with rage of seasas, were overwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coasts,
of his owne holy land :
Euen to the mount which he had got,
by his strong arme and hand.

55 And there cast out the heathen folke, and did their land diuide :
And in their tents he set the tribes of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God most hie, they sinned and tempted still :
And would not keepe his testament, nor yet obey his will.

57 But as their fathers turned backe,
euen so they went astray,
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip, and start a way.

The sixth part.

58 And grieved him with their hill altars, with offerings and with fire,
And with their Idols vehemently, prouoked him to ire.

59 Therewith his wrath began againe, to kindle in his breast :
The naughtinesse of Israel,
he did so much detest.

60 Then he forsooke the tabernacle of Silo, where he was Right conuersant with earthly men, euen as his dwelling place.

61 Then suffred he his might and power,
in bondage for to stand :
And gaue the honour of his Arke, into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage :

63 The young men were deuour'd with fire, maides had no marriage.

64 And with the sword the Priests also, did perish euery one :

And not a widow left aliue, their death for to bemoene.

65 And then the Lord began to wake, like one that slept a time :

And as a valiant man of warre, refreshed after wine.

66 With Emrods in the hinder parts, he strake his enemies all :

And put them then vnto a shame,
that was perpetuall.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle, of Ioseph did refuse :

As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.

68 But chose the tribe of Iehuda, whereas he thought to dwell :

Euen the noble mount Sion, which he did loue so well.

69 Whereas he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure :

Like as the earth, which he hath made
for euer to endure.

70 Then chose he Dauid him to serue,
his people for to keepe :

Whom he tooke vp and brought away,
euen from the folds of sheepe.

71 As he did follow the Ewes with young,
the Lord did him aduance :

To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.

72 Then Dauid with a faithfull heart, his flocke and charge did feed :

And prudently with all his power,
did gouerne them indeed.

Deus venerunt. Psal. Lxxix. I. H.

The Israelites complaine to God for the calamitie that they suffered, when Antiochus destroyed their Temple and Citie, desiring ayde against his tyrannie, lest God and religion should be condemned by the heathen, who should see them forsaken and perish.

Sing this as the 79. Psalme.

O Lord the Gentiles doe invade, thine heritage to spoile, Ierusalem an heape is made,
thy Temple they desile.

2 The bodies of thy Saints most deare abroad to birds they cast :

The flesh of such as doe thee feare,
the beasts deuoure and waste.

3 Their blood throughout Ierusalem,
as water spilt they haue,

So that there is not one of them,
to lay their dead in graue.

4 Thus are we made a laughing stocke, almost the world throughout :

The enemies at vs iest and mocke, which dwell our coast about.

5 Wilt thou O Lord thus in thine ire, against vs euer fume ?

And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folke for to consume :
6 Vpon those people powre the same,
which did thee neuer know :
All realmes which call not on thy name, consume and overthrow.
7 For they haue got the vpper hand,
and Iacobs seed destroyed :
His habitation and his land,
they haue left waste and void.
8 Beare not in minde our former faults, with speed some pitie shew :
And aide vs Lord in all assaults, for we are weake and low.

The second part.

9 O God that giu'st all health and grace,
on vs declare the same :
Weigh not our works, our sinnes deface,
for honour of thy name.
10 Why shall the wicked still alway, to vs as people dumbe :
In thy reproach reioyce and say,
where is their God become :
11 Requite O Lord, as thou see'st good,
before our eyes in sight :
Of all those folke thy seruants blood,
which they spilt in despight.
12 Receiue into thy sight in haist,
the clamours, griefe and wrong,
Of such as are in prison cast, sustaining yrons strong.
Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord set them out of band,
Which vnto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand.
13 The nations which haue become so bold,
as to blasphemie thy name :
Into their laps with seuen fold, repay againe the same.
14 So we thy folke and pasture sheepe, will praise thee euermore :
And teach all ages for to keepe,
for thee like praise in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. Lxxx. I.H.

A lamentable prayer to God to help the miseries of the Church, desiring him to consider the first estate when his fauour shined towards them, that hee might finish that worke which he had begun.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

Thou Heard that Israel dost keepe, giue care and take good heed :
Which leade'st Ioseph like a sheepe,
and dost him watch and feed.
2 Thou Lord I say, whose seate is set,
on Cherubins so bright, Shew forth thy selfe, and doe not let,
send downe thy beames of light.
3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses eke likewise :
To shew thy power doe thou begin,
come helpe vs Lord arise.
4 Direct our hearts vnto thy grace,
conuert vs Lord to thee :
Shew vs the brightnesse of thy face,
and then full safe are we.
5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,

how long wilt thou I say, Against thy folke in anger swell,
and wilt not heare them pray :
6 Thou dost them feed with sorrowes deepe, their bread with teares they eate,
And drinke the teares that they doe weepe,
in measure full and great.
7 Thou hast vs made a very strife to those that dwell about :
And that our foes doe loue a life,
they laugh and iest it out.
8 O take vs Lord vnto thy grace, conuert our mindes to thee :
Shew forth to vs thy ioyfull face,
and we full safe shall be.
9 From Egypt where it grew not well, thou brought'st a vine full deare :
The heathen folke thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.
10 Thou didst prepare for it a place, and set her rootes full fast :
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were couered round about,
with shade that from it came,
And eke the Cedars high and stout,
with branches of the same.
12 Why then didst thou her wall destroy :
her hedge pluckt vp thou hast :
That all the folke that passe thereby,
thy vine may spoile and waste.
13 The Bore out of the wood so wild, dorth dig and root it out :
The furious beaists out of the field
deuoure it all about.
14 O Lord of hosts returne againe, from heauen looke betime :
Behold and with thy helpe sustaine,
this poore vineyard of thine.
15 Thy plant I say, thine Israel, whom thy right hand hath set :
The same which thou didst loue so well,
O Lord doe not forget.
16 They lop and cut it downe apace,
they burne it eke with fire :
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.
17 Let thy right hand be with them now, whom thou hast kept so long :
And with the sonne of man, whom thou,
to thee hast made so strong.
18 And so when thou hast set vs free,
and saued vs from shame,
Then will we neuer fall from thee,
but call vpon thy name.
19 O Lord of hosts through thy good grace conuert vs vnto thee :
Behold vs with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Exultate Deo. Psal. Lxxxj. I.H.

An exhortation to praise God for his benefitts, condemning their ingratitude.

Be light and glad in God reioyce, which

which is our strength and pray : Be ioyfull and lift vp your voyce, to Jacobs God I say. 2. Prepare your instruments most meet, some joyfull Psalme to sing : Strike vp with Harpe and Lute so sweet, on euery pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new Moone, with Trumpets of the best :
As it is vsed to be done at any solemne feast.

4 For this is vnto Israel a statute and a trade :
A law that must be kept full well which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Ioseph was decreed, when he from Egypt came :
That as a witness all his seede should still obserue the same.

6 When God I say had thus prepar'd to bring him from that land :
Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not vnderstand.

7 I from his shoulders tooke faith he,
the burden cleane away :
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning bricke of clay.

8 When thou in griefe didst cry and call
I holpe thee by and by :
And I did answere thee withall in thunder secretly.

9 Yea, at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and proue :
Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord with muttering thou didst moue.

10 Heare O my folke, O Israel, and I assure it thee :
Regard and marke my words full well,
if thou wilt cleaue to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reuerse of any land abroad :
Nor in no wise to bow or serue
a strange and foraine God.

12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt see thee free :
Then aske of me abundantly,
and I will giue it thee.

13 And yet my people would not heare
my voice, when that I spake :
Nor, Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

14 Then did I leaue them to their will,
in hardnesse of their heart :

To walke in their owne counsell still,
themselues they might peruert,

15 O that my people would haue heard the words that I did say :
And eke that Israel would regard to walke within my way.

16 How soone would I confound their foes, and bring them downe full low :
And turne my hand vpon all those that would them ouerthrow :

17 And they that at the Lord doe rage,
as flanes should seeke him ill :
But of his folke the time and age should flourish euer still.

18 I would haue fed them with the crop and finest of the wheate :
And made the rocke with hony drop,
that they their fils should eate.

Deus stetit. Psal. Lxxxij. I. H.

Dauid declaring God to be present with Iudges and Magistrates, reprimeth their partialitie and vnrightheousnesse, and exhorteth them to doe iustice, but seeing no amendment, he desireth God to execute iustice himselfe.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

A Mid the praise with men of might,
the Lord himselfe did stand :
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with Iudges of the land.

2 How long, said he, will you proceede, false iudgement to award :
And haue respect for loue of meede,
the wicked to regard :

3 Whereas of due you should defend the fatherlesse and weake :
And when the poore man doth contend in iudgement iustly speake.

4 If ye be wise, defend the cause of poore men in their right :
And rid the needy from the clauies of tyrants force and might.

5 But nothing will they know or learne,
in vaine to them I talke :
They will not see, or ought discerne
but still in darknesse walke.

For loe euen now the time is come that all things fall to nought :
And likewise lawes both all and some,
for gaine are sold and bought.

6 I had decreed it in my sight,
as Gods to take you all :
And children to the most of might for loue I did you call.

7 But notwithstanding ye shall dye
as men, and so decay :
O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and plucke you quite away.

8 Vp Lord, and let thy strength be knowne, and iudge the world with might :
For why : all nations are thine owne,
to take them as thy right.

Deus quis similis ? Psal. Lxxxij. I. H.

The Israelites pray the Lord to deliuer them from their enemies both at home and far off : also that all such wicked people be stricken with his stermy tempests that they may know his power.

Sing

Sing this as the 77. Psalm.

Do not O God refraine thy tongue,
in silence doe not stay:
With-hold not Lord thy selfe so long,
nor make no more delay.
2 For why? behold thy foes, and see how they doe rage and drie:
And those that beare an hate to thee hold vp their heads on hie.

3 Against thy folke they vse deccit, and craftily enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait their counsell doth conspire.
4 Come on, say they, let vs expell,
and plucke these folke away:
So that the name of Israel may vtterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their hearts how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Edomites, the Ismaelites also:
The Haggarens, and Moabites, with diuers others mee.

7 Geball with Ammon, and likewise doth Awelecke conspire:
The Philistims against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tire.
8 And Assur eke is well afraid, with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid to Lots posteritie.
9 As thou didst to the Madianites, so serue them Lord each one:
As to Siser, and to Iabin, beside the brooke Kison.
10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy, and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open sight.

The second part.

11 Make them now and their Lords appeare like Zeb and Oreb than:
As Zeba and Zalmana were,
the Kings of Madian.
12 Which said, let vs throughout the land in all the coasts abroad, Possesse and take into our hand
the faire houses of God.
13 Turne thee O God with stormes as fast as wheeles that haue no stay:
Or like the chaffe which men doe cast with windes to flie away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty forrests spils:
And as the flame doth quire consume
the mountaines and the hills.
15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
vpon their neckes be laid:
And of thy stormy wrath and shower
Lord make them all afraid.
16 Lord bring them all I thee desire to such rebuke and shame:
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learne to seeke thy name.

17 And let them euermore daily to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie to perish eke withall.

18 That they may know and feele full well, that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excell and raigne throughout the world.

Quam dilecta? Psal. Lxxxiiij. I.H.

Dauid exiled his country, desireth ardently to returne to Gods Tabernacle, and assembly of the Saints, to praise God: then hee praiseth the courage of the people that passe the wilderness, to assemble themselves in Sion.

Sing this as the 67. Psalm.

How pleasant is thy dwelling place,

O Lord of hoasts to me:
The Tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleasant Lord they be?

2 My soule doth long full fore to goe into thy Courts abroad:
My heart doth lust, my flesh also in thee the liuing Lord.

3 The Sparrowes finde a roome to rest, and saue themselves from wrong:

And eke the Swallow hath a nest wherein to keepe her yong.

4 These birds full nigh thine Altar may haue place to sit and sing:
O Lord of hoasts, thou art I say,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell within thy house alwayes:
For they all times thy facts doe tell,
and euer giue thee praise.

6 Yea, happy sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art:
Which to thy house doe minde the way,
and seeke it in their heart.

7 As they goe through the vale of teares they digge vp fountaines still:
That as a spring it all appeares, and thou their pits dost fill.

8 From strength to strength they walke full no faintnesse there shall be: (fast,
And so the God of Gods at last in Sion they doe see.

9 O Lord of hoasts to me giue heede, and heare when I doe pray:
And let it through thine cares proceede,
O Jacobs Gods I say.

10 O Lord our shield, of thy good grace regard and so draw neare: Regard I say, behold the face of thine annointed deare.

11 For why? within thy Courts one day is better to abide:
Then other-where to keepe or stay a thousand dayes beside.

12 Much rather would I keepe a dore within the house of God, Then in the tents of wickednesse to settle mine abroad.

13 For God the Lord light and defence, will grace and worship giue:
And no good thing will he with-hold from them that purely liue.

14 O Lord of hostes that man is blest, and happy sure is he :
That is perished in his brest,
to trust all times in thee.

Bene dixisti Deo. Psal. Lxxxv. I.H.

Because God withdrew not his rod from his Church after the returne from Babilon, first they put him in minde, that he should not leave the work of his grace imperfect, and complaine of their long affliction. Thens they reioyce in hope of promised deliverance, which was a figure of Christs kingdome, under which should be perfect felicity.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

Thou hast bene mercifull indeed,
O Lord vnto thy land :

For thou restorest Iacob's seed, from thralldome out of band.

2 The wicked waies that they were in,
thou didst them cleane remit :

And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou coueredst it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage, that all thy wrath was gone :

And so didst turne thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God of health, doe now conuert thy people vnto thee :

Put all thy wrath from vs apart,
and angry cease to be.

5 Why ? shall thine anger neuer end,
but still proceed on vs ?

And shall thy wrath it selfe extend,
vpon all ages thus ?

6 Wilt thou not rather turne therefore, and quicken vs, that we

And all thy folke may euermore, be glad and ioy in thee ?

7 O Lord on vs doe thou declare, thy goodnesse to our wealth :

Shew forth to vs and doe not spare, thine aide and sauing health.

8 I will hearken what God saith, for he speakes to his people peace :

And to his Saints that neuer they,
returne to foolishnesse.

9 For why ? his helpe is still at hand, to such as doe him feare :

Whereby great glory in the land shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For truth and mercy there shall meete,
in one to take their place :

And peace shall iustice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace,

11 As truth from earth shall spring apace,
and flourish pleasantly :

So righteousnesse shall heau her face,
and looke from heauen hie.

12 Yea, God himselfe doth take in hand, to giue vs each good thing :

And through the crafts of all the land,
the earth her fruits shall bring.

13 Before his face shall iustice goe, much like a guide or way :

He shall direct his steps also,
and keepe them in the way.

Inclina Dom. Psal. Lxxxvj. I.H.

*David sore afflicted, prayeth seriously for deliverance, sometimes rehearsing his miseries and mercies receiued, desiring also to be instructed of the Lord, that hee may feare and glorifie his name.
He complaineth also of his aduersaries, and requreth to be delivered from them.*

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

L Ord bow thine eare to my request, and heare me by and by :

With grievous paine and griefe oppress,
full poore and weake am I.

2 Prefeue my soule, because my waies, and doings holy be :

And saue thy seruant, O my Lord, that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy Lord on the expresse, defend me eke withall :

For through the day I doe not cease, on thee to cry and call.

4 Comfort O Lord thy seruants soule, that now with paine is pinde :

For vnto thee Lord I extoll, and lift my soule and minde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull, thy gifts of grace are free :

And eke thy mercie plentifull,
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord likewise when I doe pray, regard and giue an eare :

Marke well the words that I doe say,
and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me moue, to thee I doe complaine :

For why ? I know and well doe proue, thou answerest me againe.

8 Among the Gods (O Lord) is none, with thee to be compare :

And none can doe as thou alone,
the like hath not bene heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all, which thou didst make and frame :

Before thy face on knees will fall,
and glorifie thy name.

10 For why ? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine owne.

Thou workest wonders still in fight, for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me Lord the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed :

O ioyne my heart to thee so nie,
that I thy name may dread.

12 To thee my God will I giue praise, with all my heart O Lord :

And glorifie thy name alwaies, for euer through the world.

13 For why ? thy mercie shewed to me is great, and dorth excell :

Thou sett'st my soule at liberty,
out from the lower hell.

14 O Lord, the proud against me rise, and heapes of men of might,

That seeke my soule, and in no wise,
will haue thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meeke, full slacke and slow to wrath :

Thy goodnesse is full great, and eke thy truth no measure hath.
16 O turne to me, and mercy grant, thy strength to me apply :
O helpe, and saue thine owne seruante,
thy handmaids sonne am I.
17 On me some signe of fauour show, that all my foes may see :
And be ashamed, because Lord thou dost helpe and comfort me.

Fundamentum eius. Psal. Lxxxvij. I. H.

The holy Ghost promisseth that the Church as yet in misery after the captiuiety of Babylon, should be restored to great excellencie, so that nothing should be more comfortable then to be numbered among the members thereof.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

THE Citie shall full well endure, her ground worke still doth stay :
Vpon the holy hill full sure,
it can no time decay.

2 God loues the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide,
He loues them more then all the rest, of Jacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be,
in Sion and abroad :
Great things I say are said of thee, thou Citie of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye, and beare in minde the same,
And Babylon shall eke apply, and learne to know my name.

5 Loe Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopie likewise,
A people old full long agoe, were borne, and there did rise.
6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that diuers men of fame,
Haue there sprung vp, and the high God hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall,
through Gods deuise appeare :
Of Sion that the chiefe of all had his beginning there.

8 Their trumpeters with such as sing, therein great plenty be :
My fountaines and my pleasant springs,
are compass all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. Lxxxvij. I. H.

The faithfull sore afflicted by sickness, persecution, aduersity, and as it were left of God without any consolation: yet call on God by faith, and strive against desperation.

Ord God of health the hope and stay thou art alone to me, I call and cry through out the day, and all the night to thee,

1. O let my prayers soone ascend, vnto thy sight on hie : Encline thine care, O Lord

entend, and harken to my crie.

3 For why? my soule with woe is filld, and doth in trouble dwell :
My life and breath almost doth yeeld,
and draweth nie to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them,
that in the pit doe fall :
And made as one among those mea, that haue no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead and free from things that here remaine :
It were more ease for me to be,
with them the which were slaine ;
As those that lie in graue I say,
whom thou hast cleane forgot :
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardst them not.

6 Yea, like to one shut vp full sure,
within the lower pit,
In places darke and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

7 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise, full sore on me doth lie :
And all thy stormes against me rise,
my soule to vex and trie.

8 Thou puttst my friends farre off from me, and makest them hate me sore :
I am shut vp in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

9 My sight doth faile through grieve & wo,
I call to thee O God Throughout the day, my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

10 Doeest thou vnto the dead declare, thy wondrous works of fame ?
Shall dead to life againe repaire, and praise thee for the same ?

11 Or shall thy louing kindnesse Lord, be preached in the graue ?
Or shall with them that are destitute,
thy truth her honour haue ?

12 Shall they that lie in darke full low,
of all thy wonders wor ?
Or there shall they thy iustice know, where all things are forgot ?

13 But I O Lord to thee alway, doe crie and call apace :
My prayer eke ere it be day, shall come before thy face.

14 Why dost thou Lord abhorre my soule, in grieve that seeketh thee ?
And now O Lord why dost thou hide, thy face away from me ?

15 I am afflic't as dying still,
from youth this many a yeere,

Thy terrours which doe vex me ill with troubled minde I beare.

16 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full fore vpon me fall :

Thy terrours eke doe not assuage,
but me oppresse withall.

17 All day they compass me about as water at the tide :

And all at once with streames full stout beset me on each side.

18 Thou settest farre from me my friends, and louers euery one :

Yea, and mine old acquaintance all out of my sight are gone.

Miserecordias. Psal. Lxxxix. I. H.

David praisth God for his rowenant made betweene him and his elect by Iesus Christ: then he complained of the desolation of his kingdome, so that the promise seemed to be broken. Finally, he prayeth to be deliuered from afflictions, mentioning the shortnesse of mans life, and confirming himselfe by Gods promises.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall neuer spare :
And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I haue said, that mercy shall for euermore remaine :

In that thou dost the heauens stay thy truth appeareth plaine.

3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a souenant and behest :

My seruant David to perswade,
I swore and did protest.

4 Thy seed for euer I will stay, and stablish it full fast :

And still vphold thy throne alway, from age to age to last.

5 The heauens shew with ioy and mirth, thy wondrous workes, O Lord :

Thy Saints within thy Church on earth, thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equal then in all the clouds abroad :

Among the sonnes of all the Gods
what one is like our God :

7 God in assembly of the Saines is greatly to be dread :

And ouer all that dwell about,
in terrour to be had.

8 Lord God of heaues in all the world,
what one is like to thee :

On euery side most mighty Lord thy truth is seene to be.

9 The raging sea by thine aduise, thou rulest at thy will :

And when the waues thereof arise, thou mak'st them calme and still.

10 And Egypt thou Lord hast subdued, and thou hast it destroid :

Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arme, hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heauens are cehine, and still haue been likewise the earth and land :

The world with all that is therein,
thou foundest with thy hand.

12 Both North & South, with East & West, thy selfe didst make and frame :

Both Tabor Mount, and eke Hermon, reioyce and praise thy name.

13 Thine arme is strong and full of power,
all might therein doth lye :

The strength of thy right hand each houre,
thou listest vp on hie.

14 In righteousnesse and equike, thou hast thy seate and place :

Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and goe before thy face.

15 That folke is blest that knoweth aright
thy present power O God :

For in the fauour of thy sight
they walke full safe abroad.

16 For in thy name throughout the day,
they ioy and much reioyce :

And though thy righteousnesse haue they
a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why ? their glory, strength and aide in thee alone doth lie :

Thy goodnesse eke that hath vs staid,
shall lift our horne on hie.

18 Our strength that doth defend vs well,
the Lord to vs doth bring :

The holy one of Israel
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometime thy will vnto thy Saines in visions thou didst shew :

And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy minde to make them know.

A man of might I haue erect your King and guide to be :

And set him vp whom I elect, among the folke to me.

The third part.

20 My seruant David I appointe, whom I haue searched out :

And with my holy oyle anoint him King of all the rout.

21 For why ? my hand is ready still with him for to remaine :

And with mine arme also I will him strengthen and sustaine.

22 The enemies shall not him oppresse,
they shall him not deuoure :

Ne yet the sonnes of wickednesse,
on him shall haue no power.

23 His foes likewise I will destroy,
before his face in sight :

And those that hate him I will plague, and strike them with my might.

24 My truth and mercy eke withall, shall still vpon him lie :

And in my name his horne eke shall be lifted vp on hie.

25 His kingdome I will set to be vpon the sea and land :

And eke the running foulds shall he embrace with his right hand.

26 He shall depend with all his heart on me, and thus shall say :

My Father and my God thou art,
my rocke of health and stay.

And to thy name O thou most high,
to sing with one accord,
2 To shew the kindnesse of the Lord
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.
3 Vpon ten stringed instruments, on Lute and Harpe so sweet:
With all the mirth you can inuent,
of instruments most meet.
4 For thou hast made me reioyce in things so wrought by thee:
And I haue ioy in heart and voyce thy handy workes to see.
5 O Lord, how glorious and how great are all thy workes so stout:
So deeply are thy counsels set:
that none can try them out.
6 The man vnwise hath not the wit this geare to passe to bring:
And all such fooles are nothing fit to vnderstand this thing.
7 When so the wicked at their will,
as grasse doe spring full fast:
They when they flourish in their ill for euer shall be waste.
8 But thou art mighty Lord most high, yea, thou dost raigne therefore:
In euerie time eternally,
both now and euermore.
9 For why? O Lord, behold and see, behold thy foes I say:
How all that worke iniquitie shall perish and decay.
10 But thou like as an Vnicorne, shalt lift my horne on hie:
With fresh and new prepared oyle, thine oynted King am I.
11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that vp against me rise,
mine ear shall heare the same.
12 The iust shall flourish vp on hie,
as Date trees bud and blow:
And as the Cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.
13 For they are planted in the place and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.
14 And in their age much fruit shall bring,
both fat and well besene:
And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughes and branches greene.
15 To shew that God is good and iust, and vp right in his will:
He is my rocke, my hope and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xCiiij. I. H.

He praiseth the power of God, in the creation of the world, and beateth downe all people which lift themselves against his Maiesty, and prouoketh to consider his premises.

Sing this as the 77. Psalm.

THe Lord as King aloft doth raigne,
in glory goodly dight:

And he to shew his strength and maine hath girt himselfe with might.
2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made,
and shaped it so large:
No might can make it moue or fade,
at stay it doth endure.
3 Ere that the world was made or wrought,
thy seate was set before:
Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast bene euermore.
4 The fouds O Lord, the fouds doe rise, they roare and make a noyse:
The fouds (I say) did enterprise,
and lifted vp their voyce.
5 Yea, though the stormes arise in sight, though seas doe rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.
6 And looke what promise he doth make his houshold to defend,
For iust and true they shall it take all times without an end.

Deus ultionum. Psal. xCiiij. I. H.

He prayeth God against the violence of tyrants, and comforteth the afflicted, by the good issue of their afflictions, and by the ruine of the wicked.

Sing this as the 78. Psalm.

O Lord thou dost reuenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong, declare that all may see.
2 Set forth thy selfe, for thou of right
the earth dost iudge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.
3 How long shall wicked men beare sway, with lifting vp their voyce?
How long shall wicked men I say,
thus triumph and reioyce?
4 How long shall they with brags burst out, and proudly prate their fill?
Shall they reioyce which be stout, whose workes are euer ill?
5 Thy flocke O Lord, thine heritage, they spoile and vex full sore:
Against thy people they doe rage still daily more and more.
6 The widowes which are comfortlesse, and strangers they destroy:
They slay the children fatherlesse, and none doth put them by.
7 And when they take these things in hand
this taile they haue of thee:
Can Iacobs God this vnderstand?
tush no, he cannot see.
8 O folke vnwise and people rade, some knowledge now discern:
Ye fooles among the multitude,
at length begin to learne.
9 The Lord which made the care of man,
he needes of right must heare:
He made the cyne, all things must than before his sight appeare.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct, and make them vnderstand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect?
how can ye scape his hand?

The second part.

- 11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man his heart he seeth full plaine :
- The Lord I say mens thoughts doth scan,
and findeth them but vaine.
- 12 But Lord that man is happy sure, whom thou doest keepe in awe :
- And through correction doest procure,
to teach him in thy law.
- 13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest, in time of trouble sit :
- When wicked men shall be suppress,
and fall into the pit.
- 14 For sure the Lord will not refuse,
his people for to take :
- His heritage whom he did chuse,
he will no time forsake.
- 15 Vntill that iudgement be decreed, to iustice to conuert :
- That all may follow her with speed :
- that are of vpright heart.
- 16 But who vpon my part shall stand, against the cursed traine :
- Or who shall rid me from their hand,
that wicked works maintaine :
- 17 Except the Lord had bene mine aide,
mine enemies to expell :
- My soule and life had now bene laid almost as low as hell.
- 18 When I did say, my foote doth slide,
and I am like to fall :
- Thy goodnesse Lord did so provide,
to stay me vp withall.
- 19 When with my selfe I mused much,
and could no comfort finde :
- Then Lord thy goodnesse did me teuch, and that did ease my minde :
- 20 Wilt thou inhabit thy selfe and draw with wicked men to fit :
- Which with pretence in stead of law,
much mischief doe commit :
- 21 For they consult against the life of righteous men and good :
- And in their counsels they are wise,
to shed the guiltlesse blood.
- 22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence or rocke :
- He is my God, to him I flee,
he is my strength and rocke.
- 23 And he shall cause their mischiefes all themselues for to annoy :
- And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus. Psal. XCv. I. H.

An earnest exhortation to praise God for the government of the world & election of his Church, to rebuke the rebellion of the old fathers, who tempted God in the wilderness, and therefore entered not the land of promise.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

- Come let vs lift vp our voyce,
and sing vnto the Lord :
- In him our rocke of health reioyce let vs with one accord.
- 2 Yea, let vs come before his face,
to giue him thanks and praise :

In singing Psalmes vnto his grace,
let vs be glad alwaies.

- 3 For why : the Lord he is no doubt,
a great and mighty God,
A king aboue all Gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.
- 4 The secrets of the earth so deepe, and corners of the land :
- The tops of hills that are so steepe,
he hath then in his hand.
- 5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought,
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.
- 6 Come let vs bow and praise the Lord,
before him let vs fall :
- And kneele to him with one accord,
the which hath made vs all.
- 7 For why : he is the Lord our God,
for vs he doth prouide :
- We are his flocke, he doth vs feed, his sheepe, and he our guide.
- 8 To day if ye his voyce will heare, then harden not your heart :
- As ye with grutching many a yeere prouokt me in desert.
- 9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to proue :
- My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me moue.
- 10 Twice twenty yeeres they did me grieue,
and I to them did say :
- They erre in heart, and not beleue, they haue not knowne my way.
- 11 Wherefore I sweare when that my wrath was kindled in my brest :
- That they should neuer tread the path, to enter in my rest.

Cantate Dom. Psal. XCvj I. H.

An exhortation both to the Iewes and Gentiles to praise God for his mercie: and thus specially ought to be referred to the kingdome of Christ.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

- S Ing ye with praise vnto the Lord new songs of ioy and mirth :
- Sing vnto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
- 2 Yea, sing vnto the Lord, I say, praise ye his holy name :
- Declare and shew from day to day, saluation by the same.
- 3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about :
- To shew his wonders doe not spare, in all the world throughout.
- 4 For why : the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway :
- And he is to be dread of right,
aboue all Gods I say.
- 5 For all the Gods of heathen folke, are Idols that will fade :
- But yet our God he is the Lord, that hath the heauens made.
- 6 All praise and honour eke doe dwell,
for aye before his face :

Both power and might likewise excell
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe vnto the Lord alway, ye people of the world,
All might and worship eke, I say, ascribe vnto the Lord.

8 Ascribe vnto the Lord also,
the glory of his name :
And eke into his courts doe goe, with gifts vnto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall downe, and worship ye the Lord,
within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world,
be fearefull at his sight.

10 Tell all the world, be not agast,
the Lord doth raigne aboute :
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can neuer moue.

11 And that it is the Lord alone, that rules with princely might,
To iudge the nations euery one,
with equity and right.

12 The heauens shall great ioy begin,
the earth eke shall reioyce :
The sea withall that is therein, shall shout and make a noyse.

13 The field shall ioy, and euery thing that springeth on the earth:
The wood and euery tree shall sing,
with gladnesse and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord, and comming of his might,
When he shall iustly iudge the world,
and rule his folke with right.

Dominus reg. Psal. XCvij. I.H.

David exhorteth all to reioyce for the comming of the kingdome of Christ, dreadfull to the rebels and Idolaters, and ioyfull to the iust, whom he exhor-teth to innocency, to reioicing and thanksgiuing.

Sing this as the 95. Psalm.

THe Lord doth raigne, whereat the earth may ioy with pleasant voyce :

And eke the Illes with ioyfull mirth,
may triumph and reioyce.

2 Both clouds and darknesse eke doe swell, and round about him beat :

Yea, right and iustice ener dwell,
and bide about his seat.

3 Yea, fire and heate at once doe runne, and goe before his face :

Which shall his foes and enemies burne, abroad in euery place.

4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appeare :

Whereat the earth did looke and gaze,
with dread and deadly feare.

5 The hils like waxe did melt in sight, and presence of the Lord :

They fled before that rulers might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heauens eke declare and shew his iustice all abroad :

That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such,

as worship Idols vaine :

And eke to those that glory much,
dumbe pictures to maintaine.

8 For all the Idols of the world, which they as Gods doe call :
Shall feele the power of the Lord,
and downe to him shall fall.

9 With ioy shall Sion heare this thing,
and Iuda shall reioyce :

For at thy iudgement they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noyse.

10 That thou O Lord art set on high,
in all the earth abroad,

And art exalted wondrously, about each other God.

11 All ye that loue the Lord doe this, hate all things that are ill :

For he doth keepe the soules of his,
from such as would them spill.

12 And light doth spring vp to the iust, with pleasure for his part :
Great ioy with gladnesse, mirth and lust,
to them of vpriht heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
his holinesse proclaim :

Be thankfull eke with heart and voyce,
and mindfull of the same.

Cantate Dom. Psal. XCvij. I.H.

An earnest exhortation to all creatures to praise the Lord for his power, mercy and fidelity in his promise by Christ by whom he hath communicated his saluation to all nations.

Sing this as the 95. Psalm.

O Sing ye now vnto the Lord
a new and pleasant song :

For he hath wrought throughout the world,
his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worldlyly,
he doth his foes deuoure :

And gets himselfe the victory,
with his owne arme and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his sauing health and might.

The Lord doth eke his iustice show,
in all the heathens sight.

4 His grace and truth to Israel,
in minde he doth record :

That all the earth hath scene right well,
the goodnesse of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with ioyfull voyce,
all people on the earth :

Giue thanks to God, sing and reioyce to him with ioy and mirth.

6 Vpon the harpe vnto him sing,
giue thanks to him with Psalmes :

Reioyce before the Lord our King :
with trumpets and with shalmes.

7 Yea, let the sea with all therein, for ioy both roare and swell :

The earth likewise let it begin, withall that therein dwell.

8 And let the founts reioyce their fil, and clap their hands apace.

And eke the mountaines and the hils,
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to iudge and try
the world and euery wight :
And rule the people mightily with iustice and with right.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. xcix. I. H.

He commendeth the power, equitie, and excellency of the kingdomes of God by Christ, ouer the Iewes and Gentiles, prouoking them to magnifie the same, and to feare the Lord as the ancient Fathers, Moses, Aaron, and Samuel, who calling upon God, were heard in their prayers.

Sing this as the 65. Psalme.

The Lord doth raigne, although at it the people rage full sore :

Yea, he on Cherubins doth sit,
though all the world doe roare.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell, is high and wondrous great :
Abooue all folke he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty name, for it is fearefull sure :
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The Princely power of our King doth loue iudgement and right :
Thou rightly rulest euery thing in Iacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God denise,
all honour to him doe :
His foot-stoole worship him before,
for he is holy to.

6 Moses, Aaron and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call :
When they did pray, he heard them well,
and gaue them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake, then did they labour still :
To keepe such lawes as he did make and pointed them vntill.

8 O Lord our God thou didst them beare, and answerdst them againe :
Thy mercy did on them appeare, their deeds didst not maintaine.

9 O laud and praise our Lord and God, within his holy hill :
For why ? our God throughout the world is holy euer still.

Iubilatio Deo omnes Psal. C.

He exhorteeth all men to serue the Lord, who hath made vs to enter into his courts and assemblies, to praise his name.

A  All people that on earth doe dwell,

 sing to the Lord with chearefull voyce :

 2. Him serue with feare, his praise forth tell,

 Come ye before him and reioyce.

3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did vs make :
We are his flocke he doth vs feede, and for his sheepe he doth vs take.

4 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with ioy his courts vnto, Praise, laud and blesse his name alwaies,
for it is seemely so to doe.

5 For why ? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for euer sure :
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

IN God the Lord be glad and light, praise him throughout the earth :
Serue him and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.

2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did vs make and keepe :
Not we our selues, for we are his owne flocke and pasture sheepe.

3 O goe into his gates alwaies, giue thanks within the same :
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.

4 For why ? the goodnesse of the Lord for euermore doth raigne :
From age to age throughout the world his truth doth still remaine.

Misericordiam. Psal. Cj. N.

Dauid describeth what gouernments he will obserue in his house and Kingdome, by rooting out the wicked, and cherishing the godly persons.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

I Mercy will and iudgement sing
O Lord God vnto thee :

2 And wisely doe in perfect way, vntill thou come to me.

3 And in the midst of my house walke,
in purenesse of my spirit :
And I no kinde of wicked thing will set before my sight.

4 I hate their workes that fall away,
it shall not cleaue to me :
From me shall part the froward heart, none euill will I see

5 Him will I stroy that slandereth his neighbour priuily :
The lofty heart I cannot beare,
nor him that looketh hie.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within the land, that faithfull be :
In perfect way who walketh shall be seruant vnto me.

7 I will no guilefull person haue within my house to dwell :
And in my presence he shall not remain that lyes doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy euery all the wicked of the land :
That I may from Gods Citie cut the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cij. I.H.

It seemeth that this prayer was appointed to the faithfull to pray in the captiuitie of Babilon. A consolation for the building of the Church, whereof followeth the praise of God to be published vnto all posterities. The conuersion of the Gentiles, and stabilitie of the Church.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

O Heare my prayer Lord, and let my cry come vnto thee :

2 In time of trouble doe not hide thy face away from me.

3 Incline thine eares to me, make haste to heare me when I call :

For as the smoake doth fade, so doe my dayes consume and fall.

4 And as a harth my bones are burnt, my heart is smitten dead :

And withers as the grasse, that I forget to eate my bread.

5 By reason of my groaning voyce, my bones cleaue to my skin :

6 As Pelican in wilderness, such case now am I in.

7 And as an Owle in desert is, loe I am such a one :

7 I watch, and as a Sparrow on the house top am alone.

8 Loe daily in reproachfull wise mine enemies doe me scorne :

And they that doe against me rage, against me they haue sworne.

9 Surely with ashes as with bread, my hunger I haue sild :

And mingled haue my drinke with teares, that from mine eyes haue stild.

10 Because of thy displeasure Lord, thy wrath, and thy didaine :

For thou hast lifted me aloft, and cast me downe againe.

11 The dayes wherein I passe my life, are like the fleeting shade :

And I am withered like the grasse, that soone away doth fade.

12 But thou O Lord for euer dost remaine in steady place :

And thy remembrance euer doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend :

The time of mercy, now the time fore-set, is come to end.

14 For euen in the stones thereof thy seruants doe delight :

And on the dust thereof they haue compassion in their spirit.

15 Then shall the heathen people feare the Lords most holy name :

And all the Kings on earth shall dread thy glory, and thy fame.

16 Then when the Lord the mighty God againe shall Sion reare :

And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appeare,

17 To prayer of the desolare when he himselfe shall bend :

When he shall not disdain vnto their prayers to attend.

18 This shall be written for the age that after shall succede :

The people yet vncreated the Lords renowne shall spread.

19 For he from his high Sanctuary hath looked downe below :

And out of heauen hath the Lord beheld the earth also.

20 That of the mourning captiue he might heare the wofull crye :

And that he might deliuer those that damned are to dye.

21 That they in Sion might declare the Lords most holy name :

And in Ierusalem set forth the praises of the same.

22 Then when the people of the land, and Kingdomes with accord,

Shall be assembled for to doe their seruice to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force and strength he hath abated in the way :

And shorter he did cut my dayes, thus I therefore did say :

24 My God in midst of all my dayes now take me now away :

Thy yeares endure eternally, from age to age for aye.

25 Thou the foundation of the earth before all times hast laid :

And Lord the heauens are the worke, which thine owne hands haue made.

26 Yea, they shall perish and decay, but thou shalt tarry still :

And they shall all in time waxe old, euen as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change, and changed shall they be :

But thou dost still abide the same, thy yeares doe neuer flee.

28 The children of thy seruants shall continually endure :

And in thy sight their happy feede for euer shall stand sure.

Benedic anima. Psal. Cij. T. S.

The Prophet praueth men and Angels, and all creatures to praise the Lord for his fatherly mercies, in deliuerance of his people from euill, in his providence ouer all things, and in preservation of the faithfull.

M

Y soule giue laud vnto the Lord, my spirit shall doe the same : And all the secrets of my heart, prayse ye his holy name, Giue thanks to God for all

all his gifts, ſhew not thy ſelfe vnkinde,
And ſuffer not his benefites to ſlip out of thy minde.

3 That gaue thee pardon for thy faults, and thee reſtor'd againe :
For all thy weake and fraile diſeaſe,
and heald thee of thy paine, 4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldeſt not flee,
His mercy and compaſſion both,
he did extend to thee.

5 That fill'd wiſh goodneſſe thy deſire, and did prolong thy youth :

Like as the Eagle caſts her bill,
whereby her age reneweth :

6 The Lord wiſh iuſtice doth repay
all ſuch as be oppreſt :
So that their ſufferings and their wrongs,
are turned to the beſt.

7 His waies and his commandements, to Moſes he did ſhew.

His counſels and his valiant acts,
the Iſraelites did know.

8 The Lord is kinde and mercifull, when ſinners doe him grieue,
The ſloweſt to conceive a wrath,
and readieſt to forgive.

9 He chides not vs continually, though we be full of ſtrife :
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our ſinfull life.

10 Nor yet according to our ſinnes
the Lord doth vs regard :
Nor after our iniquities,
he doth not vs reward.

11 But as the ſpace is wondrous great,
twixt earth and heauen above :
So is his goodneſſe much more large,
to them that doe him loue.

12 God doth remote our ſinnes from vs, and our offences all :

As farre as is the ſunne riſing, full diſtant from his fall.

The ſecond part.

13 And looke what pitie parents deare vnto their children beare :
Like pitie beareth God to ſuch
as worſhip him in feare.

14 The Lord that made vs knowes our ſhape, our mould and faſhion iuſt :
How weake and fraile our nature is,
and how we be but duſt.

15 And how the time of mortall men,
is like the withering hay :

Or like the flower right faire in field,
that fades full ſoone away.

16 Whoſe gloſſe and beauty ſtormy windeſ, doe vtterly diſgrace.

And make that after their aſſaults,
ſuch bloſſomes haue no place.

17 But yet the goodneſſe of the Lord,
with his ſhall euer ſtand :

Their childrens children doe receiue,
his righteouſneſſe at hand.

18 I meane which keepe his covenant, with all their whole deſire :
And not forget to doe the thing,
that he doth them require.

19 The heauens high are made the ſeate, and footſtoole of the Lord :

And by his power imperiall,
he gouernes all the world.

20 Ye Angels which are great in power, praiſe ye and bleſſe the Lord :

Which to obey and doe his will,
immediatly accord.

21 Ye noble hoſts and Miniſters, ceafe not to laud him ſtill :

Which ready are to execute,
his pleaſure and his will :

22 Ye all his workes in euery place,
praiſe ye his holy name :

My heart, my minde, and eke my ſoule, praiſe ye alſo the ſame.

Benedic. anima. Pſal. Ciiij. W.K.

A thankſgiving for the creation of the world, and gouernance of the ſame, by his maruelous providence : alſo a prayer againſt the wicked, who are occaſions that God ſhould in ſhew his bleſſings.

Y ſoule praiſe the Lord, ſpeake good of his name: O Lord our great

God, how doſt thou appeare : So paſſe

ſing in glory, that great is thy fame,

Honour and maielte in thee ſhine moſt clear: With light as a robe, thou haſt thee beclad, whereby all the earth thy greatneſſe may ſee, the heauens in ſuch fort thou alſo haſt ſpread, That it to a curtaine compared may be.

- 3 His chamber beames lie,
in the cloudes full sure:
Which as his chariot,
are made him to beare.
And there with much swiftnesse his course doth endure:
Vpon the wings riding,
of winde in the ayre.
4 He maketh his spirits as heralds to goe:
And lightnings to serue,
we see alio preit.
His will to accomplish,
they runne to and fro.
To saue or consume things as seemeth him best.
5 He grounded the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to moue,
none shall haue such power:
The deepe a faire covering,
for it made thou hast:
Which by his owne nature
the hills would deuourc.
7 But at thy rebuke,
the waters doe flie,
And so giue due place,
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearefull they be.
That in their great raging,
they haste soone away.
8 The mountaines fullhie,
they then vp ascend:
If thou doe but speake thy word they fulfill.
So likewise the waues
most quickly descend.
Where thou them appointest, remaine they doe still.
9 Their bounds thou hast set, how farre they shall runne.
So as in their rage,
not that passe they can.
For God hath appointed,
they shall not returne,
The earth to destroy more,
which was made for man.

The second part.

- 10 He sendeth the springs to strong streames and lakes:
Which runne doe full swift among the huge hills.
11 Where both the wilde asses their thirst oft-times slakes:
And beasts of the mountaines, thereof drinke their fill.
12 By these pleasant springs, or fountaines full faire:
The fowles of the aire abide shall and dwell.
13 Who moued by nature,
to hop here and there:
Among the greene branches their songs shall excell.

- 14 The mountaines to moyft
the cloudes he doth vse:
The earth with his workes, are wholly replcate.
15 So as the brute cattell he doth not refuse:
But grasse doth provide them,
and hearbe for mans meate.
Yea bread, Wine and Oyle,
he made for mans sake.
His face to refresh
and heart to make strong.
16 The Cedars of Liban, this great God did make.
Which trees he doth nourish, that grow vp so long.
17 In those may birds build and make there their nest:
In firre trees the Storkes remaine and abide.
18 The high hills are succours for wilde Goates to rest:
And eke the rocks stonie,
for Conies to hide.
19 The Moone then is set,
her seasons to runne:
The daies from the nights, thereby to discern,
And by the descending also of the Sunne,
The cold from heate alway thereby we doe learne.
20 When darknesse doth come,
by Gods will and power,
Then creepe forth doe all the beasts of the wood.
21 The Lions range roaring, their prey to deuoure:
But yet it is thou Lord which giuest them food.
22 As soone as the Sunne is vp, they retire:
To couch in their dens
then are they full saine 23 That man to his worke may as right doth require,
Till night come and call him,
to take rest againe.

The third part.

- 24 How sundry (O Lord)
are all thy works found:
With wisdom full great,
they are indeede wrought.
So that the whole world of thy praise doth found.
And as for thy riches
they passe all mens thought.
25 So as the great Sea, which large is and broad,
Where things that creepe swarme,
and beasts of each fort.
26 There both mighty ships saile, and some lie at road:
The Whale huge and monstrous,
there also doth sport.
27 All things on thee waire, thou dost them relieue,
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.

28 Now when it doth please thee,
the same so to giue.
They gather full gladly those things which they need.
Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace :
That they with good things are filled we see.
29 But sore are they troubled,
if thou turne thy face :
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust they they be.

30 Againe, when thy spirit from them doth proceed :
All things to appoint and what shall ensue.
31 Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed :
And dost by thy goodnesse
the dry earth renewe.
32 The praise of the Lord for euer shall last :
Who may in his works
by right well reioyce.
His looke can the earth make to tremble full fast :
And likewise the mountaines to smooke at his voyce.

33 To this Lord and God, sing will I alwaies,
So long as I liue
my God praise will I.
34 Then am I most certaine, my words shall him please :
I will reioyce in him,
to him will I cry.
35 The sinners O Lord, consume in thine ire,
And eke the peruerse them root out with shame :
But as for my soule now,
let it still desire :
And say with the faithfull, praise ye the Lords name.

Confitemini Dom Psal. Cv. N.

He praiseth the singular goodnesse of God, for chusing a peculiar people to himselfe, neuer ceasing to doe them good, euen for his promise sake.

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

GIue praises vnto God the Lord,
and call vpon his name :
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.
2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I say,
and sing vnto him praise,
And talke of all the wondrous works,
that he hath wrought alwaies.
3 In honour of his holy name,
reioyce with one accord :
And let the heart also reioyce,
of them that seeke the Lord.
4 Seeke ye the Lord, and seeke the strength of his eternall might :
And seeke his face continually,
and presence of his sight.
5 The wondrous works that he hath done,
keepe still in mindfull hearr.
Ne let the iudgements of his mouth,

out of your mindes depart.
6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham his seruant are the seed :
Ye his elect, the children that of Iacob doe proceed.
7 For he, he onely is I say,
the mighty Lord our God :
And his most rightfull iudgements are through all the earth abroad.
8 His promise and his couenant, which he hath made to his :
He hath remembered euermore, to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The couenant which he hath made,
with Abraham long agoe :
And faithfull oath which he hath sworne, to Isaac also :
10 And did confirme the same for law,
that Iacob should obey :
And for eternall couenant, to Israel for aye.
11 When thus he said, loe I to you all Canaan land will giue :
The lot of your inheritance, wherein your seed shall liue.
12 Although the number at that time,
did very small appeare :
Yea very small, and in the land they then but strangers were.
13 While yet they walkt from land to land without a sure abode.
And while from sundry kingdomes they did wander all abroad.
14 And wrong at no oppressors hand,
he suffered them to take :
But euen the great and mighty Kings, reproved for their sake.
15 And thus he said, touch none of those,
that mine annointed be :
Ne doe the Prophets any harme, that doe pertaine to me.
16 He call'd a dearth vpon the land, of bread he stroyd the store :
But he against their time of neede had sent a man before.

The third part.

17 Euen Ioseph which had once bene sold to liue a slave in woe :
18 Whose feet they hurt in stockes, whose the iron piers did also. (soule) 19 Vntill the time came when his cause was knowne apparently :
The mighty word of God the Lord his faultlesse truth did trie.
20 The King sent and deliuered him from prison where he was :
The ruler of the people then did freely let him passe.
21 And ouer all his house he made him Lord, to beare the sway :
And of his substance made him haue
the rule and all the stay.
22 That he might to his will instruct the Princes of the land :
And wisdomes lore his ancient men might teach to vnderstand.

- 23 Then into the Egyptian land, came Israel also :
And Iacob in the land of Ham did liue a stranger tho.
- 24 His people he exceedingly in number made to flow :
And ouer all their enemies in strength he made them grow.
- 25 Whose hart he turn'd, that they with hate his people did intreat :
And did his seruants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

- 26 His faithfull seruant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to goe to them,
his message to disclose.
- 27 The wondrous message of his signes among them they did shew :
And wonders in the land of Ham then did they worke also.
- 28 Darknesse he sent and made it darke,
in stead of brighter day :
And vnto his commillion
they did not disobey.
- 29 He turn'd their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay :
- 30 Their land brought frogs, euen in the place where their King Pharaoh lay.
- 31 He spake, and at his voyce, there came great swarms of noyesome flies :
And all the quarters of their land were fill'd with crawling lice.
- 32 He gaue them cold and stony haile
in stead of milder raine :
And fiery flames within their land
he sent vnto their paine.
- 33 He smote their vines, and all their trees whereon their figs did grow,
And all the trees within their coasts,
downe did he ouerthrow.
- 34 He spake, then Caterpillers did,
and Grasshoppers abound.
- 35 Which eate the grasse in all their land, and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

- 36 The first begotten in their land,
eke deadly did he smite :
Yea the beginning and first fruit, of all their strength and might.
- 37 With gold and silver he them brought,
from Egypt land to passe :
And in the number of the tribes,
no feeble one there was.
- 38 Egypt was glad and ioyfull then,
when they did thence depart :
For terror and the feare of them,
was false into their heart.
- 39 To throude them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display,
And fire he sent to giue them light,
when night had hid the day.
- 40 They asked, and he caused Quails to raigne at their request :
And fully with the bread of heauen,
their hunger he repress.

- 41 He opened then the stonie rocke, and water gushed out :
And in the dry and parched grounds,
like riuers ranne about.
- 42 For of his holy couenant, aye mindfull was he tho :
Which to his seruant Abraham,
he plighted long agoe.
- 43 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with ioy :
Out of the cruell land, where they had liu'd in great annoy.
- 44 And of the heathen men he gaue to them the fruitfull lands,
The labours of the people eke,
they tooke into their hands,
- 45 That they his holy statutes might obserue for euermore :
And faithfully obey his lawes,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cvj. N.

The people dispersed vnder Antiochus, do magnifie the goodness of God among the repentant, and pray to be gathered from among the heathens, that they may praise his name.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

- PRAISE ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye:
- 2 Who can expresse his noble acts, or all his praise display :
- 3 They blessed are that iudgement keepe,
and iustly doe alway :
- With fauour of thy people Lord,
remember me I pray.
- 4 And with thy sauing health O Lord, vouchsafe to visit me :
That I the great felicity of thine elect may see.
- 5 And with thy peoples ioy I may,
a ioyfull minde possesse :
And may with thine inheritance,
a glorying heart expresse.
- 6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
haue sinned euery one :
We haue committed wickednesse, and lewdly we haue done.
- 7 The wonders great which thou O Lord,
hast done in Egypt land :
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not vnderstand.
- Nor they thy mercies multitude did keepe in thankfull minde,
But at the sea, yea the red sea, rebelled most vnkinde.
- 8 Neuertheless he saued them,
for honour of his name :
That he might make his power knowne,
and spread abroad his fame.
- 9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dride :
And as in wildernesse, so through the deepe he did them guide.
- 10 He saued them from the cruell hand of their despitefull foe :
And from the enemies hand he did deliuer them also.

The second part.

- 11 The waters their oppressors whelme,
not one was lefrallie :
- 12 Then they beleue'd his words, and praise in song they did him giue.
- 13 But by and by vnthankfully his works they cleane forgot :
- And for his counsell and his law they did neglect to waite.
- 14 But lusted in the wilderness with fond and greedy lust :
- And in the desert tempted God,
the slay of all their trust.
- 15 And then their wanton minde desire
he suffer'd them to haue :
- But wasting leauesse therewithall into their soules he gaue.
- 16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch :
- Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they enuy much.
- 17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did deuoure :
- And all Abirams company did couer in that houre.
- 18 In their assembly kindled was the hot consuming fire :
- And wasting flames did then burne vp the wicked in his ire.
- 19 Vpon the hill of Horeb they an Idoll Calse did frame :
- And there the moulten image they did worship of the same.
- 20 Into the likeness of a Calse, that feedeth on the grasse :
- Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did escape.
- 21 And God their onely Saviour vnkindly they forgot :
- Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought,

The third part.

- 22 And in the land of Ham, for them
moit wondrous workes had done :
- And by the red sea dreadfull things performed long ago.
- 23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and vnkinde :
- To bring destruction on them all he purposed in his minde.
- Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the breake :
- To turne his wrath lest he on them, with slaughter should him wreake.
- 24 They did dispise the pleasant land,
that he beight to giue :
- Yea, and the words that he had spoke they did no whit beleue.
- 25 But in their tents with grudging hearts,
they wickedly repin'd :
- Nor to the voyce of God the Lord they gaue an harkning minde.
- 26 Therefore against them lifted he his strong reuenging hand :
- Them to destroy in wilderness, ere they should see the land.

- 27 And to destroy their seed among the nations with his rod :
- And through the countries of the world to scatter them abroad.
- 28 To Baal-Peor then they did adioyne themselves also :
- And ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsooke him tho.
- 29 Thus with their owne inuentions his wrath they did prouoke :
- And in his so enkindled wrath
the plague vpon them broke.
- 30 But Phineas stood vp with zeale
the sinners vile to slay :
- And iudgement he did execute,
and then the plague did slay.

The fourth part.

- 31 It was imputed vnto him for rightcousnesse that day :
- And from thence-forth so counted is from race to race for aye.
- 32 At waters cke of Meribah they did him angry make :
- Yea, so farre forth that Moses was then punish't for their sake :
- 33 Because they vex't his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heat,
His lips spake vnadvisedly, his seruour was so great.
- 34 Nor as the Lord commanded them,
they slew the people tho :
- 35 But were among the heathen mixt, and learn'd their workes also.
- 36 And did their Idols serue, which were their ruine and decay :
- 37 To friends their sons and daughters they did offer vp and slay :
- 38 Yea, with vnkindly murdering knife
the guilelesse blond they spilt :
- Yea, their owne sonnes and daughters bloud, without all cause of guilt.
- Whom they to Canaan Idols then offered with wicked hand :
- And so with bloud of innocents desiled was the land.
- 39 Thus were they stained with the workes of their owne filthy way :
- And with their owne inuentions a whoring did they stray.
- 40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled sore :
- And euen his owne inheritance, therefore he did abhorre.
- 41 Into the hands of heathen men,
he gaue them for a prey :
- And made their foes their Lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

- 42 Yea, and their hatefull enemies oppress't them in the land :
- And they were humbly made to sloop,
as subiect to their hand.
- 43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he deliuered them before :
- But with their counsels they to wrath prouokt him euermore.

Therefore they by their wickednesse were brought full low to lye :

44 Yet when he saw them in distresse, he hearkned to their cry.

45 He cald to minde his covenant, which he to them had sworn :

And by his mercies multitude, repented him therefore.

46 And saue he them made to finde before the sight of those

That led them captiue from their land, when earlt they were their foes.

47 Saue vs O Lord that art our God, saue vs O Lord we pray :

And from among the heathen folke,
Lord gather vs away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise of thy most holy name :

That we may glory in thy praise,
and founding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel,
be blest for euermore :

Let all the people say Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cviij. W.K.

*Dauid exhorteth all that are redeemed by the Lord, and gathered vnto him, to give thanks therefore,
who by sending prosperitie and aduancement bringeth men vnto him. Therefore as the righteous there reioyce, so shall the wicked haue their mouthes stopped.*

Sing this as the 96. Psalme.

GIVE thanks vnto the Lord our God,
for gracious is hee :

And that his mercy hath no end all mortall men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath, with thanks should praise his name :

And shew how they from foes are freed,
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands that lay so farre about :

From East to West, from North to South,
his hand did finde them out.

4 They wandred in the wildernesse, and strayed from the way :

And found no citie where to dwell,
that serue might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great,
in those deserts so void :

That faintnesse did them fore assault,
and eke their soules annoy.

6 Then did they cry in their distresse
vnto the Lord for aid :

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they praid.

7 And by that way that was most right,
he led them like a guide :

That they might to a citie goe,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his goodnesse then :

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

9 For he the empty soule sustaine, whom thirst had made to faint :

The hungry soule with goodnesse fed,
and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as doe dwell in darknesse deepe, where they on death doe wait :

Fall bound to taste such troublous tonnes as iron chaines doe cheate.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords owne word,
they sought so to rebell :

Esteeming light his counsels hie, which doe so farre excell.

12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell downe with griefe :

And none was found so much to helpe, whereby to get reliefe.

13 Then did they cry in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aid :

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they praid.

14 For he from darknesse out them broughe, and from deaths dreadfull shade :

Bursting with force the iron bands, which did before them lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then :

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

16 For he threw downe the gates of brasce, and brake them with strong hand :

The iron barres he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folke great plagues doe feele, and cannot from them wend :

But heape on more to those they haue,
because they doe offend.

18 Their soules so much did loath all meate, that none they could abide :

Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tride.

19 Then did they cry in their distresse
vnto the Lord for aid :

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they praid.

20 For he then sent to them his word, which health did soone restore :

And brought them from those dangers deep,
wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then :

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice, with thanks and also feare :

And speake of all his wondrous workes, with glad and ioyfull cheare.

23 Such as in ships or brittle barkes into the seas descend :

Their merchandize through fearefull fowds to compasse and to end.

24 Those men are forced to behold the Lords workes what they be :

And in the dangerous deepe the same most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormy winde, arise in a rage :

And stirreth vp the surges so,
as nought can them aswage.

26 Then are they lifted vp on high,
the clouds they seeme to gaine.

And plunging downe the depth vntill their soules consume with paine.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reele :
As men with feare of wit bereft,
or had of sense no feele.

28 Then did they cry in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aide,
Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they praide.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make the sturdie stormes to cease :
So that the great waues from their rage,
are brought to rest and peace.
30 Then are men glad, when rest is come,
which they so much doe eraue,
And are by him in haueu brought,
which they so faine would haue.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindenesse then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folke, with praise extoll his name :
And where the Elders doe conuent,
let them there doe the same.

33 For running floods to dry deserts
he doth oft change and turne,
And drieth vp as it were dust,
the springing well and bourne.

34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt, full barren doth he make :
When on their sinnes that dwell therein,
he doth iust vengeance take.

35 Again, the wildenesse full rude,
he maketh fruit to beare :
With pleasant springs of waters cleere, though none before were there.

36 Wherein such hungry soules are set,
as he doth freely chuse :
That they a citie may them build to dwell in for their vse.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land, and vineyards also plant :
To yeeld them fruits of such increase,
as none may seeme to want.

38 They multiply exceedingly, the Lord doth blesse them so :
Who doth also their bruit beasts make by numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are low brought,
by the oppressors stout,
And minish doe through many plagues, that compass them about :

40 Then doth he Princes bring to shame, which did them fore oppressit :
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wildernesse.

41 But yet the poore he raiseth vp out of their troubles deepe :
And oft-times doth his traine augment, much like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous shall behold this sight, and also much reioyce :
Whereas the wicked and puerse with griefe shall stop their voyce.

43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record :
For certainly such shall perceiue
the kindenesse of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. Cviij. N.

David with heart and voyce praiseth the Lord, and assureth himselfe of the promise of God concerning hūking dome ouer Israel, and his power against other nations, who though he seeme to forsake vs for a time, yet hee alone in the end will cast downe our enemies.

Sing this as the 95 Psalm.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so :

I will aduance my voyce in song, and giuing praise also :

Awake my violl and my harpe
sweet melody to make :
And in the morning I my selfe, right early will awake.

By me among the people (Lord) still praised shalt thou be :

And I among the heathen folke, will sing (O Lord) to thee.

Because thy mercy Lord is great aboue the heauens high :
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds within the lofty skie.

Aboue the starre heauens high,
exalt thy selfe O God :

And Lord display vpon the earth thy glory all abroad,

That thy dearly beloued may be set at liberty :

Helpe O my God with thy right hand, and hearken vnto me.

God in his holinesse hath spoke :
(wherefore my ioyes abound,)

Sichem I will diuide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.

And Gilead shall be mine owne, Manasses mine shall be :

My head-strenght Ephraim, and Law shall Iuda giue for me.

Moab my washpot, and my shooe on Edom will I throw :

Vpon the land of Palestine in triumph will I goe.

Who shall into the citie strong be guide to conduct me :

Or how by whom to Edom land, conueyed shall I be :

It is not thou (O God) which late hadst vs forsaken quite :

And thou (O Lord) which with our host didst not goe forth to fight :

Giue vs (O Lord) thy saving aide,
when troubles doe assaile :

For all the helpe of man is vaine,
and can no whit auale.

Through God we shall doe valiant acts,
and worthy of renowne :

He shal subdue our enemies, yea he shall tread them downe.

Deus, laudem meam Psal Cix N.

David being falsely accused by Saub flatterers, prayeth

*prayeth God to helpe him to destroy his enemies.
whorepresente Iudas the traitor vnto Iesus Christ and all like enemies of the Children of God.*

Sing this as the 98. Psalme.

- IN speechlesse silence doe not hold,
O God thy tongue alwaies :
- O God euen thou I say that art
the God of all my praise.
- The wicked mouth and guilefull lips, on me disclosed be :
- And they with false and lying tongue,
haue spoken vnto me.
- They did beset me round about,
with words of hatefull spight :
- Without all cause of my desert, against me they did fight.
- For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray :
- My good with ill, my friendlinesse with hate they did repay.
- See thou the wicked oner him, to haue the vpper hand :
- At his right hand eke suffer thou,
his hatefull foe to stand.
- When he is iudged, let him then condemned be therein :
- And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sinne,
- Few be his daies, his charge also,
let thou another take :
- His children let be fatherlesse,

- Let his off-spring be vagabonds,

- Wandering out of the wonted place,

- And let the strangers spoile the fruit of all his toyle before.
- Let there be none to pitie him, let there be none at all :
- That on his children fatherlesse, will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

- And so let his posterity,
for euer be destroyde :
- Their names out-blotted in the age,
that after shall succede.
- Let not his fathers wickednesse,
from Gods remembrance fall :
- And let thou not his mothers sinne,

- That from the earth their memory,

- Sith mercy he forgot to shew,

- The troubled man, and sought to slay

- As he did cursing loue, it shall

- And as he did not blessing loue, it shall be farre him fro.
- As he with cursing clad himselfe, so it like water shall

Into his bowels, and like oile,

- As garment let be to him,
to couer him for aye :
- And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.
- Loe let the same be from the Lord,
the guerdon of my foe :
- Yea, and of those that euill speake

- But thou O Lord that art my God,
deale thou I say with me :
- After thy name deliue me,
for good thy mercies be.
- Because in depth of great distresse,
I needy am and poore :
- And eke within my pained brest,
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

- Euen so doe I depart away,
as doth declining shade :
- And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
- With fasting long from needfull food, enfeebled are my knees :
- And all her fauness hath my flesh enforced beene to leese.
- And I also a vile reproch

- And they that did vpon me looke did shake their heads at me.
- But thou O Lord that art my God,
mine aide and succour be :
- According to thy mercy Lord, saue and deliue me.
- And they shall know thereby, that this Lord is thy mighty hand :
- And that thou, thou hast done it Lord,
so shall they vnderstand.
- Although they curse with spice, yet thou shalt blesse with louing voyce :
- They shall arise and come to shame,
thy seruant shall reioyce.
- Let them be cloathed all with shame,
that enemies are to me :
- And with confusion as a cloake, eke couered let them be.
- But greatly I will with my mouth
giue thanks vnto the Lord :
- And I among the multitude his praises will record.
- For he with helpe at his right hand, will stand the poore man by,
- To saue him from the man that would condemne his soule to die.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. Cx. N.

Dauid prophesieth of the power and euertlasting kingdome of Christ, and of the Priesthood, which should put an end to the Priesthood of Leui.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

- The Lord did say vnto my Lord, sit thou on my right hand,
- Till I haue made thy foes a steele, whereon thy feete shall stand.
- The Lord shall out of Sion send,
the Scepter of thy might.

Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their sight, 3 And in the day on which thy raigne and power they shall see:
Then hereby free-will offerings shall the people offer thee.
Yea, with an holy worshipping,
then shall they offer all:
Thy birth dew is the dew that doth from wombe of morning fall.
4 The Lord hath sworn, and neuer will repent what he doth say:
By th' order of Melchisedech thou art a Priest for aye.
5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand that standeth for thy stay:
Shall wound for thee the stately Kings
vpon his wrathfull day.
6 The heathen he shall iudge, and fill the place with bodies dead:
And ouer diuers countries shall in funder smite the head.
7 And he shall drinke out of the brooke that runneth in the way:
Therefore he shall lift vp on high his royall head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. Cxj. N.

Hee giueth thanks to the Lord for his mercifull works towards his Church, and declareth wherein true wisdom and right knowledge consisteth.

With heart I doe accord, to praise and laud the Lord, in presence of the iust: 2. For great his workes are found, to search them such are bound, as doe him loue and trust. 3. His workes are glorious, also his righteousnesse it doth endure for ever. 4. His wondrous workes hee would, wee still remember should,
his mercie faileth neuer,
5 Such as to him loue beare
A portion full faire
he hath vp for them laid.

For this they shall well finde,
He will them haue in minde, and keepe them, as he said.
6 For he did not disdain
His workes to shew them plaine, by lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did giue into their hand, where they beheld his wonders.
7 Of all his workes ensueth
Both iudgement, right and truth, whereto his statutes tend:
8 They are decreed sure
For euer to endure,
which equitie doth end.
Redemption he gaue,
His people for to saue:
9 And hath also required
His promise not to faile,
But alwayes to preuaile:
his holy name be feared.
10 Who so with heart full faime True wisdom would attaine,
the Lord feare and obey,
Such as his lawes doe keepe Shall knowledge haue full deepe, his praise shall last for aye.

Beatus vir. Psal. Cxij. W. K.

He prayeth the felicitie of them that feare God, and condemneth the cursed state of the contemners of God.

Sing this as the Lords Prayer.
The man is blest that God doth feare,
And that his lawes doth lone indeede:
2 His seede on earth God will vpeare,
And bleste such as from him proceede:
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousnesse endure shall still.
4 Vnto the righteous doth arise
In trouble ioy, in darknesse light:
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercie alwayes in his sight:
5 Yea, pittie moueth such to lend,
He doth by iudgement things expend.
6 And surely such shall neuer faile,
For in remembrance had is hee:
7 No tidings ill can make him quail,
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see:
8 His heart is firme, his feare is fast,
For he shall see his foes downe cast.
9 He did well for the poore prouide,
His righteousnesse shall still remaine,
And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain:
10 Yea, gnash his teeth thereat shall he,
And so consume his state to see.

Laudate pueri. Psal. Cxij. W. K.

*An exhortation to praise the Lord for his proudence, in that contrary to the course of nature
he worketh in his Church.*

Ye children which doe serue the Lord, praise ye his name with one accord:

cord, yea, blessed be alwayes his name :

Who from the rising of the Sunne, till it returne where it begunne, is to be praysed with great fame. The Lord all people doth surmount : As for his glory

we may count, about the heauens high to be. With God the Lord who may compare, whose dwellings in the heauens are :

off such great power and force is he.

- 6 He doth abase himselfe we know Things to behold both here below, and also in heauen above.
- 7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poore which helpe none saw,
his onely mercy did him moue.
- 8 And so him fer in high degree
With Princes of great dignitie, that rule his people with great fame.
- 9 The barren he doth make to beare,
And with great ioy her fruit to reare :
therefore praise ye his holy name.

In .xiiij. Israel. Psal. Cxiiij. W. W.

Israels deliuey out of Egypt, putteth vs in remembrance of Gods great mercies towards his children, and of our unthankfulness for the same.

Sing this as the 85. Psalme.

- When Israel by Gods adresse, from Pharaohs land was bent :
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same traine went.
- 2 In Iuda God his glory shew'd his holinesse most bright :
So did the Israelites declare his kingdome, power, and might.
 - 3 The sea it saw, and sodainly
as all amaz'd did flie :
The roaring streames of Iordans floud reuled backwardly.
 - 4 As rammes afraid the mountaines skippt,
their strength did them forsake :

And as the silly trembling Lambes their tops did beate and shake.

- 5 What aild thee sea as all amaz'd,
so sodainly to flie ?
Ye rolling waues of Iordans floud, why ranne ye backwardly ?
- 6 Why thooke ye hils as rammes afraid ?
why did your strength so shake ?
Why did your tops as trembling Lambes, for feare quier and quake ?
- 7 O earth confesse thy soueraigne Lord, and dread his mighty hand :
Before the face of Iacobs God, feare ye both sea and land.
- 8 I meane the God which from hard rockes doth cause maine flouds appeare :
And from the stonie flint doth make,
gush out the fountaines cleare.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. Cxv. N.

The faithfull oppressed by idolatrous tyrants, promise that they will not be vnmindfull of so great a benefite, if it would please God to heare their prayer, and deliuer them by his omnipotens power.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

- Not vnto vs Lord, not to vs,
but to thy name giue praise :
Both for the mercy and the truth that are in thee alwayes.
- 2 Why shall the heathen scornors say,
where is their God become ?
 - 3 Our God in heauen is, and what he will, that hath he done.
 - 4 Their Idols siluer are and gold, worke of mens hands they be :
 - 5 They haue a mouth, and doe not speake ;
and eyes and doe not see :
 - 6 And they haue eares ioynd to their heads, and doe not heare at all :
And noses eke they formed haue,
and doe not smell withall.
 - 7 And hands they haue and handle not,
and feet and doe not goe :
 - 8 A throat they haue, yet through the same they make no sound to blow.
Those that make them be like to them, and those whose trust they be :
 - 9 O Israel trust in the Lord :
their helpe and shield is he.
 - 10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he :
 - 11 Trust ye the Lord that feare the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he.
 - 12 The Lord hath mindefull beene of vs, and will blesse vs also :
 - On Israels and on Aarons house his blessing he will shew.
 - 13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will blesse them all :
Euen he will blesse them euery one,
the great and eke the small.
 - 14 To you I say the liuing Lord will multiply his grace :
To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.
 - 15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,

euen of the Lord I say :
Which both the heauen and the earth hath made and set in stay.
16 The heauens, yea, the heauens high belong vnto the Lord :
The earth vnto the sonnes of men
he gaue of free accord.
17 They that be dead doe not with praise set forth the Lords renowne :
Nor any that into the place of silence doe goe downe.
18 But we will praise the Lord our God from henceforth and for aye :
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. Cxvi. N.

Dauid being in great danger of Saul in the desert of Maon, perceiving the great and inestimable love of God towards him, magnifieth such great mercie, and protesteth that he will be thankfull for the same.

Sing this as the 111. Psalme.

I Loue the Lord, because my voyce and prayer heard hath he :

2 When in my dayes I cald on him,
he bowed his eare to me.
3 Euen when the snares of cruell death about beset me round :
When paines of hell me caught, and when I woe and sorrow found.

4 Vpon the name of God the Lord,
then did I call and say :

Deliuier thou my soule O Lord,
I doe thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull, and iust he is also :
And in our God compassion doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safetie doth preserve all those that simple be :

I was in wofull misery and he relieved me.

7 And now my soule, sith thou art safe,
returne vnto thy rest :

For largely loe the Lord to thee his bounty hath exprest.

8 Because thou hast deliuered my soule from deadly thrall :
My moistned eyes from mournfull teares,
my sliding feet from fall.

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walke therefore :

10 I did beleene, therefore I spake, for I was troubled fore.

The second part.

11 I said in my distresse and feare, that all men lyers be :

12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefites to me :

13 The wholesome cup of sauing health
I thankfully will take :

And on the Lords name I will call when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
that I haue him beight :

Yea, euen at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.

17 Right deare and precious in his sight
the Lord doth aye esteeme
The death of all his holy ones, what euer men doe deeme.

16 Thy seruant Lord, thy seruant loe
I doe my selfe confesse :

Sonne of thy handmaid, thou hast broke the bonds of my distresse.

17 And I will offer vp to thee
a sacrifice of praise :

And I will call vpon the name of God the Lord alwayes.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
that I haue him beight :

Yea, euen at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.

19 Yea, in the courts of Gods owne house,
and in the midst of thee,

O thou Ierusalem, I say :
wherefore the Lord praise yee.

Laude Dom. Psal. Cxviij. N.

Hee exhorteth the Gentiles to praise God, because hee hath accomplished as well to them, as to the Iewes, the promise of life everlasting by Iesus Christ.

Sing this as the 98. Psalme.

O All yee nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwayes :

And all yee people euery where,
set forth his noble praise.

2 For great his kindnesse is to vs,
his truth endures for aye :

Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord I say.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cxviij. N.

Dauid rescued of Saul and of the people, at the time appointed obtained the kingdom, for the which he biddeth all them that feare the Lord to be thankfull, vnder whose person Christ is liuely set forth, who should be of his people rescued.

Sing this as the 84. Psalme.

O Giue ye thanks vnto the Lord,
for gracious is hee :

Because his mercy doth endure
for euer towards thee.

2 Let Israel confesse and say,
his mercy dures for aye :

Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dures for aye.

4 Let all that feare the Lord our God
euen now confesse and say :

The mercy of the Lord our God, endureth still for aye.

5 In trouble and in heavinesse vnto the Lord I cride :

Which louingly heard me at large,
my suite was not denied.

6 The Lord himselfe is on my side :
I will not stand in doubt,

Nor feare what man can doe to me,
when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them that helpe to succour me :

Therefore I shall see my desire vpon mine enimie.

8 Better it is to trust in God, then in mans mortall seede :

Or to put confidence in Kings,
or Princes in our need,
All nations haue enclosed me,
and compassed me round :
10 But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.
11 They kept me in on euery side,
they kept me in I say :
But through the Lords most mighty name
I shall worke their decay.
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords name
I quencht their thornes that were on fire, and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me, that I indeede might fall :
But through the Lord I found such helpe, that they were vanquisht all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength, my ioy, my mirth, and song :
He is become for me indeed a Saviour most strong.
15 The right hand of the Lord our God doth bring to passe great things :
He causeth voyce of ioy and health in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty things to passe :
His hand hath the preheminnence, his force is as it was.
17 I will not die, but euer liue to vtter and declare
The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his workes, and what they are.
18 The Lord himselfe hath chastened, and hath corrected me :
But hath not giuen me ouer yet to death, as yee may see.
19 Set open vnto me the gates of truth and righteousnesse :
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to confesse.
20 This is the gate euen of the Lord, which shall not so be shut,
But good and righteous men alway shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will giue thanks to thee O Lord, because thou hast heard me :
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour vnto me.
22 The stone which ere this time among the buildes was refused :
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be vsed 23 This was the mighty worke of God, this was the Lords owne fact :
And it is maruellous to behold with eyes that noble act.
24 This is the ioyfull day indeed, which God himselfe hath wrought :
Let vs be glad and ioy therein,
in heart, in minde, in thought, 25 Now helpe vs Lord and prosper vs,
we wish with one accord :
26 Blessed be he that comes to vs

in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shewes vs light, binde ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the Altar, and giue thanks to the Lord.
28 Thou art my God, I will confesse, and render thanks to thee :
Thou art my God, and I will praise thy mercy towards me.
29 O giue ye thanks vnto the Lord,
for gracious is hee :
Because his mercy doth endure
for euer towards thee.

Beati inmaculati. Psal. Cxix. W.W.

The Prophet wonderfully commendeth Gods Law, wherein he cannot satisfie himselfe, nor expresse sufficiently his affections, thereunto adding notable complaints and consolations, meets for the faithfull to haue both in heart and voyce : and in Hebrew euery eight verses beginne with one letter of the Alphabet.

Blessed are they that perfect are,

and pure in minde and heart : Whose lines and conuersation, from Gods

Lawes neuer start. 2. Blessed are they that giue themselves his statutes to obserue : Seeking the Lord with all their heart, and neuer from him swerue.

3 Doubtlesse such men goe not astray,
nor doe no wicked thing :
Which stedfastly walke in his pathes without any wandring.

4 It is thy will and commandement, that with attentive heede, Thy noble and diuine precepts
we learne and keepe indeede.

5 O would to God it might thee please my wayes so to adresse :
That I might both in heart and voyce thy lawes keepe and confesse.

6 So should no shame my life attaine, whilst I thus set mine eyes :
And bend my minde alwayes to muse on thy sacred decrees.

9 Then will I praise with vpright heart,
and magnifie thy name,
When I shall learne thy iudgements iust,

and

and likewise proue the same.
B And wholly will I giue my selfe, to keepe thy lawes most right : Forsake me not for euer Lord but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

BY what meanes may a young man best,
 his life learne to amend :
 If that he marke and keepe thy word,
 and therein his time spend.
10 Vnfaignedly I haue thee sought, and thus seeking abide :
 O neuer suffer me O Lord,
 from thy precepts to slide.
11 Within my heart and secret thoughts, thy words I haue hid still :
 That I might not at any time, offend thy godly will :
12 We magnific thy name O Lord, and praise thee euermore :
 Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
 O Lord teach me therefore.
13 My lips haue neuer ceast to preach,
 and publish day and night :
 The iudgements all which did proceed, from thy mouth full of might.
14 Thy testimonies and thy waies, please me no lesse indeed :
 Then all the treasures of the earth,
 which worldlings make their meed.
15 Of thy precepts I will still muse, and thereto frame my talke :
 As at a marke so will I ayme,
 thy waies how I may walke.
16 My onely ioy shall be so fixe, and on thy lawes so set :
 That nothing can me so farre blinde,
 that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

GRAUNT to thy seruant now such grace,
 as may my life prolong :
 Thy holy word then will I keepe, both in my heart and tongue.
18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut vp so open and make bright :
 That of thy law and merriuous workes,
 I may haue the cleare sight.
19 I am a stranger in this earth,
 wandring now here now there :
 Thy word therefore to me disclose,
 my footsteps for to cleare.
20 My soule is rauisht with desire,
 and neuer is at rest :
 But seekes to know thy iudgements hie,
 and what may please thee best.
21 The proude men and malicious thou hast deftroyed each one.
 And cursed are such as doe not thy hefts attend vpon.
22 Lord turne from me rebuke and shame, which wicked men conspire :
 For I haue kept thy covenants, with zeale as hot as fire.
23 The Princes great in counsell sate, and did against me speake :
 But then thy seruant thought how be thy statutes might not breake.

24 For why : thy covenants are my ioy, and my hearts great solace :
 They serue in stead of counsellors,
 my matters for to passe.

DALETH. The fourth part.

I Am alas as brought to graue,
 and almost turn'd to dust :
 Restore therefore my life againe,
 as thy promise is iust.
16 My waies when I acknowledged, with mercy thou didst heare :
 Heare now est-foones and me instruct,
 thy lawes to loue and feare.
27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know,
 thy precepts and thy lore :
 Thy workes then will I meditate,
 and lay them vp in store.
28 My soule I feeble so sore oppress, that it melteth for griefe :
 According to thy word therefore,
 hast Lord to send reliefe.
29 From lying and deceitfull lips, let thy grace me defend :
 And that I may learne thee to loue, thy holy law me send.
30 The way of truth both straight and sure,
 I haue chosen and found :
 I set thy iudgements me before,
 which keepe me safe and found.
31 Since then O Lord I forc't my selfe, thy covenants to embrace :
 Let me therefore haue no rebuke,
 nor check in any case.
32 Then will I runne with ioyfull cheare, where thy word dorth me call,
 When thou hast set my heart at large,
 and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth part.

INstruct me Lord in the right trade, of thy statutes diuine.
 And it to keepe euen to the end,
 my heart will I incline :
34 Graunt me the knowledge of thy law,
 and I shall it obey :
 With heart and minde, and all my might,
 I will it keepe I say.
35 In the right path of thy precepts, guide me Lord I requie :
 None other pleasure doe I wish,
 nor greater thing desire.
36 Incline my heart thy lawes to keepe, and covenants to embrace :
 And from all filthy auarice,
 Lord shield me with thy grace.
37 From vaine desires and worldly lusts turne back mine eyes and sight.
 Giue me the spirit of life and power,
 to walke thy waies aright.
38 Confrme thy gracious promise Lord, which thou hast made to me :
 Which am thy seruant, and doe loue,
 and feare nothing but thee.
39 Reproach and shame which I so feare, from me O Lord expell :
 For thou dost guide with equity,

and therein dost excell.
 40 Behold my hearts desire is bent, thy lawes to keepe for aye :
 Lord strengthen me so with thy grace,
 that it performe I may.

P. A. V.

The vi. part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold, let me obtaine (O Lord) Thy sauing health let me enioy, according to thy word.
 42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouthes, of lewd men and vnjust :
 For in thy faithfull promises, stands my comfort and trust.
 43 The word of truth within my mouth,
 let euer still be prest :
 For in thy iudgements wonderfull,
 my hope doth stand and rest.
 44 And whilst that breath within my brest, doth naturall life preserue :
 Yea till this world shall be dissol'd,
 thy law will I obserue.

45 So walke will I as set at large, and made free from all dread :
 Because I sought how for to keepe, thy precepts and thy read.
 46 Thy noble acts I will describe, as things of most great fame :
 Euen before Kings I will them blaze, and shrinke no whit for shame.

47 I will reioyce then to obey, thy worthy helts and will Which euermore I haue lou'd best,
 and so will loue them still.
 48 My hands will I list to thy lawes, which I haue dearly sought :
 And practise thy commandements, in will, in deede, in thought.

Z. A. I. N.

The viij. part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me,
 thy seruant, Lord remember,
 For therein haue I put my trust,
 and confidence for euer.
 50 It is my comfort and my ioy,
 when troubles me affaie :
 For were my life not by thy word,
 my life would soone me faile.
 51 The proud and such as God contemne, still made of me a scorn :
 Yet would I not thy law forsake,
 as he that was forlorne.
 52 But call'd to minde Lord thy great works, shew'd to our fathers old :
 Whereby I feele my ioyes surmount
 my griefe an hundred fold.
 53 But yet alas for feare I quake, seeing how wicked men Thy law forsooke, and did procure thy iudgements, who knoweth when ?
 54 And as for me, I framde my songs thy statutes to exalt :
 When I among the strangers dwelt,
 and thoughts gan me assault.
 55 I thought vpon thy name O Lord,
 by night when others sleepe :
 As for thy law also I kept,

and euer will it keepe.

56 This grace I did obtaine, because thy couenants sweet and deare :
 I did embrace and also keepe, with reuerence and with feare.

H. E. T. H.

The viij. part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
 my comfort and my stay :
 I haue decreed and promised,
 thy law to keepe alway.
 58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue,
 in presence of thy face :
 As thou therefore hast promised,
 Lord grant me of thy grace.
 59 My life I haue examined, and tride my secret heart :
 Which to thy statutes caused me my feet straight to conuert.
 60 I did not slay, nor linger long, as they that sloathfull are :
 But hastily thy lawes to keepe,
 I did my selfe prepare.
 61 The cruell hands of wicked men, haue made of me their pray :
 Yet would I not thy law forget,
 nor from thee goe astray.
 62 Thy righteous iudgements shewd toward so great are and so hie, (me,
 That euen at midnight will I rise,
 thy name to magnifie.
 63 Companion am I to all them, which feare thee in their heart :
 And neither will for feare nor dread,
 from thy commandements start.
 64 Thy mercies Lord most plenteously doe all the world fulfill :
 O teach me how I may obey, thy statutes and thy will.
 T. E. T. H. The ix. part.
 65 According to thy promise Lord, so hast thou with me dealt :
 For of thy grace in sundry sorts,
 haue I thy seruant felt.
 66 Teach me to iudge alwaies aright, and giue me knowledge fare :
 For certainly beleue I doe, that thy precepts are pure.
 67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod,
 I erred and went astray :
 But now I keepe thy holy word,
 and make it all my stay.
 68 Thou art both good and gracious, and giu'st most liberally :
 Thy ordinances how to keepe, therefore (O Lord) teach me.
 69 The proud and wicked men haue forg'd against me many a lie :
 Yet thy commandements still obserue, with all my heart will I.
 70 Their hearts are swolne with worldly as greafe so are they fat : (wealth,
 But in thy law doe I delight, and nothing seeke but that.
 71 O happy time may I well say,
 when thou didst me corre& :

For as a guide to learne thy Lawes, thy rod did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and Law is dearer manifold,
Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

30D. The x. part.

73 Seeing thy hands haue made me Lord to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learne
to put thy Lawes in vrc.
74 So they that feare thee shall reioyce, when euer they me see:
Because I haue lea'n'd by thy word,
to put my trust in thee.
75 When with thy rod the world is plagu'd,
I know the cause is iust:
So when thou dost correct me Lord,
the cause iust needes be must.
76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray some comfort to me send:
As thou to me thy seruant heit'st,
so from all ill me shend.
77 Thy tender mercies poure on me,
and I shall surely liue:
For ioy and consolation both thy Lawes to me doe giue.
78 Confound the proud, whose false pretence is me for to destroy:
But as for me thy helts to know
I will my selfe employ.
79 Who so with reuerence doe thee feare, to me let them retire:
And such as doe thy couenants know,
and them alone desire.
80 My heart without all wauering
let on thy lawes be bent:
That no confusion come to mee, whereby I should be shent.

CAPH. The xi. part.

81 MY soule doth faint, and ceaseth not thy sauing health to craue:
And for thy words sake still I trust
my hearts desire to haue.
82 Mine eyes doe faile with looking for thy word, and thus I say:
Oh when wilt thou me comfort Lord?
why dost thou thus delay?
83 As a skin bottle in the smoake,
so am I parcht and dride:
Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandements slide.
84 Alas how long shall I yet liue, before I see the houre:
That on my foes which me torment thy vengeance thou wilt poure?
85 Presumptuous men haue digged pits, thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrary against thy Law
my hurt they doe procure.
86 But thy commandements are all true,
and causelesse they me grieve:
To thee therefore I doe complaine, that thou mightst me relieue.

87 Almost they had me cleane destroyed, and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.
88 Restore me Lord againe to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy couenants keepe, till death my life expell.
LAME D. The xij. part.
89 IN heauen Lord where thou dost dwell, thy word is stablish't sure:
And shall for all eternitie,
fast grauen there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witnesse:
Whose ground-works thou hast laid so sure,
as no tongue can expresse.
91 Euen to this day we may well see, how all things perseuere
According to thy ordinance, for all things thee reuere.
92 Had it not bene that in thy Law my soule had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distresse,
I had bene brought to nought.
93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye,
in memory keepe fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd,
when I was at last cast.
94 No wight to me can tittle make,
for I am onely thine:
Saue me therefore, for to thy Lawes mine cares and heart incline.
95 The wicked men doe seeke my bane,
and thereto lye in waite:
But I the while considered, thy noble acts and great.
96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath not end:
But thy commandements and thy word, beyond all end extend.
MEM. The xij. part.
97 What great desire and seruent loue, doe I beare to thy Law?
All the day long my whole deuise, is onely on thy law.
98 Thy word hath taught me faire to passe
my foes in policie:
For still I keepe it as a thing of most excellencie.
99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:
Because I doe thy couenants keepe,
and them to others tell.
100 In wisdome I doe passe also the ancient men indeed:
And all because to keepe thy Lawes,
I held it aye best need.
101 My feet I haue refrained eke from euery euill way:
Because that I continually thy word might keepe I say.
102 I haue not sweru'd from thy iudgements, nor yet shrunk'e any dell:
For why? thou hast me taught thereby to liue godly and well.

- 103 O Lord how sweet vnto my taste
finde I thy words alway :
Doublelesse no hony in my mouth
feele ought so sweet I may.
104 Thy lawes haue me such wisdom learn'd, that vtterly I hate
All wicked and vngodly wayes, in euery kinde of rate.

XCIN. The xiiij. part.

- 105 E Ven as a lanterne to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright :
And to my pathes where ere I goe
it is a flaming light.
106 I haue both sworne, and will performe most certainly doublelesse :
That I will keepe thy iudgements iust,
and them in life expresse.
107 Affliction hath me sore oppress'd, and brought me to deathes dore :
O Lord as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.
108 The offerings which with heart & voice
most frankly I thee giue, Accept, and teach me how I may after thy iudgements liue.
109 My soule is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me assaile :
Yet doe I not thy Law forget, nor it to keepe will faile.
110 Althoughe the wicked laid their nets, to catch me at a bay :
Yet did I not from thy precepts,
once swerue, or goe astray.
111 Thy Law I haue so claim'd alway, as mine owne heritage :
And why for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage.
112 For euermore I haue bene bent thy statutes to fulfill :
Euen so likewise vnto the end,
I will continue still.

SAMECH. The xvj. part.

- 113 T He crafty thoughts & double hearts,
I doe alwayes detest :
But as for thy Lawes and precepts
I lou'd them euer best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place, my shield and strong defence :
Therefore I haue thy promises, look't for with patience.
115 Goe to therefore ye wicked men, depart from me anone :
For the Commandements will I keepe of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promis'd, so performe, that death me not assaile :
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quaille.
117 Vphold me and I shall be safe, for ought they doe or say :
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.
118 Thou hast trod such vnder thy feet,
as doe thy statutes breake :
For nought auailles their subtiltie, their counsell is but weake.

- 119 Like drosse thou casts the wicked out,
where ere they goe or dwell :
Therefore can I as thy statutes,
loue nothing halfe so well.
120 My flesh alas is taken with feare, as though it were benumb'd :
For when I see thy iudgements straight
I am as one aston'd.
AIN. The xvij. part.
121 D oe the thing that lawfull is,
and giue to all men right : Resigne me not to them that would opresse me with their might.
122 But for thy seruant suretie be in that thing that is good :
That proud men giue me not the foile, which rage as they were wood.
123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blinde, thy health so much I craue :
And eke thy righteous promise Lord, whereby thou wilt me saue.
124 Intreat thy seruant leuiagly,
and fauour to him show :
Thy statutes of most excellencie, teach me also to know.
125 Thy humble seruant Lord I am,
grant me to vnderstand :
How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.
126 It is now time Lord to beginne, for truth is quite decay'd :
Thy Law likewise they haue transgress'd, and none against them said.
127 This is the cause wherefore I loue thy Lawes better then gold :
Or Jewels fine, which are esteem'd most costly to be sold :
128 I thought thy precepts almost iust, and so them laid in store :
All crafty and malicious wayes
I doe abhorre therefore.

PE. The xvij. part.

- 129 T Hy covenants are most wonderfull, and full of things profound :
My soule therefore doth keepe them sure,
when they are tride and found.
130 When men first enter into thy word,
they finde a light most cleare :
And very Ideots vnderstand,
when they it reade or heare.
131 For ioy I haue both gap'd and breath'd to know thy commandement :
That I might guide my life thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.
132 With mercie and compassion Lord behold me from aboue :
As thou art wont to behold such as thy name feare and loue.
133 Direct my foot-steps by thy word, that I thy will may know :
And neuer let iniquitie thy seruant ouerthrow.
134 From slanderous tongues & deadly hate preserue and keepe me sure :

Thy

Thy precepts then will I obserue, and put them eke in vire.

135 Thy countenance which doth surmount
the Sunne in his bright hew:
Let shine on me, and by thy Law, teach me what to eschew.

136 Out of mine eies great flouds gush out, of drearie teares and fell:
When I behold how wicked men, thy lawes keepe neuer a dell.

Z A D E. The xviij. part.

137 IN euery point Lord thou art iust, the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou doest sentence pronounce, thou art a righteous Iudge.

138 To render right and flye from guile, are two chiefe points most hie:
And such as thou hast in thy law, commanded vs straitly.

139 With zeale and wrath I am consume, and euen pinde away:

To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I doe may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deeme:
And if thy seruant nothing more,
doe loue or yet esteeme.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:

Yet doe I not thy heistes forget, nor thinke away from thee.

142 Thy righteounesse Lord is most iust,
for euer to endure:

Also thy law is truth it selfe,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and griefe haue seaz'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:

Yet doe I still of thy precepts, delight to heare and know.

144 The righteounesse of thy iudgements, doth last for euermore:

Then teach thou me, for euen in them
my life lieth vp in store.

R O P H. The xix. part.

145 WITH seruent heart I call'd and cride,
now answer me O Lord:

That thy commandements to obserue,
I may fully accord,

146 To thee my God I make my suit,
with most humble request:

Saue me therefore, and will keepe thy precepts and thy best.

1 To thee I cry euen in the morne, before the day waxe light:

Because that I haue in thy word,
my confidence whole plight.

148 Mine eies preuent the watch by night,
and ere they call I wake:

That by deuising on thy word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine cares to heare my voice, and pitie on thee take:

As thou wast wont, so iudge me Lord, lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw nere, and doe procure my death maliciously:

Which from thy law are farre gone backe,
and straid from it lewdly.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou neere for neede doth so require:

And all thy precepts true they are,
then helpe I thee desire.

152 But thy commandements I haue learn'd not now, but long agoe:
That they remaine for euermore, thou hast them groundd so.

R E S H. The xx. part.

153 MY trouble and affliction, consider and behold:

Deliver me, for of thy law,
I euer take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause, with speed me succour send:

From death as thou hast promised,
Lord keepe me and defend.

155 As for the wicked farre they are,
from hauing health and grace:

Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I graunt, what tongue can them attaine:

And as thou hast me iudg'd ere now,
so let me life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:

Yet from thy lawes I neuer shrunke, nor went awry therefore.

158 And truth it is for griefe I die, when I these traitors see:

Because they keepe no whit thy word,
nor yet seeke to know thee.

159 Behold, for I doe loue thy lawes, with heart most glad and faine:

As thou art good and gracious Lord, restore my life againe.

160 What thy word doth decree, must be,
and so it hath bene euer:

Thy righteous iudgements are also,
most true and decay neuer.

S C H I N. The xxj. part.

161 PRinces haue sought by cruelty, causelesse to make me couch:

But all in vaine, for of thy word,
the feare did my heart touch.

162 And certainly euen of thy word,
I was more merrie and glad,

Then he that of rich spoiles and preyes, great store and plenty had.

163 And for all lies and falsity,
I hate most and detest:

For why thy holy lawes doe I, aboue all things loue best.

164 Seuen times a day I praise the Lord, singing with heart and voyce:

Thy righteous acts and wonderfull,
so cause me to reioyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such haue
as doe thy statutes loue:

No danger shall their quiet state impaire or once remove.

166 Mine onely health and comfort Lord,
F 4 I looke

I looke for at thy hand :
And therefore haue I done those things, which thou didst me commaund.

167 Thy lawes haue beene my exercise, which my soule most desired :
So much to them my loue was bent,
that naught else I required.
168 Thy statutes and commandements
I keepe, thou knowest aright :
For all the things that I haue done, are present in thy sight.

TAV. The xxij. part.

O Lord let my complaint and crye,
before thy face appeare :
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to feare.

170 Mine humble supplication, toward thee let finde access :
And grant me Lord deliuerance, for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speake,
after most ample sort :
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

172 My tong shall sing and preach thy word, and on this wise say shall :
Gods famous acts and noble lawes, are iust and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech, and speedily me saue :
For thy commandements to obserue, chosen O Lord I haue.

174 Of thee alone Lord I craue health,
for other I know none :
And in thy law and nothing else,
I doe delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to liue,
thy name to magnifie :
And of thy iudgements mercifull,
let me the fauour trie.

176 For I was left and went astray, much like a wandring sheepe.
Oh seeke me, for I haue not fail'd, thy commandements to keepe.

Ad Dominum Psal. Cxx. T. S.

David being banished among the barbarous Arabians through false reports of envious flatterers, lamenteth his long abode among such infidels, giuen to all kinde of wickednesse and contention.

Lord I call, and he doth me comfort :

Deliuer me, I say, from lyers lips al-way, and tongues of false report.

Getst thou thus for to sing,

5 Thy tongue doth hurt I weene,
No lesse then arrowes keene of hot consuming fyre.

6 Alas too long I slake,
Within these tents so blacke,
Which Kedars are by name :
By whom the flocke elect,
And all of Isaacks seed
Are put to open shame.

7 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make,
and set a quiet life :

8 But when my tale was told,
Causelesse I was controld,
by them that would haue strife.

Leuau i oculos. Psal. Cxxj. W.W.

The Prophet sheweth by his owne example, that the faithfull ought to looke for all their succour of God alone, who will gouerne and giue good successe to all their godly enterprises.

Lift mine eies to Sion hill,

from whence I doe attend, that succour

God me send : The nightie God me succour will, which heauen and earth framed, and all things therein named.

3 Thy foote from slip he will preserue,
And will thee safely keepe :
For he will neuer sleepe.

4 Loe, he that doth Israel conserue,
No sleepe at all can him catch,
But his eies doe euer warch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee couer,
As at thy right hand euer :

6 The Sunne shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the Moone not halfe so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keepe thee from distresse,
And will thy life sure saue,
And thou also shalt haue

8 In all thy businesse good successe,
Where euer thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

Lætatus sum. Psal. Cxxij. W.W.

David reioiceth that God accomplished his promise and placed his Arke in Sion, giuing thanks, and praying for the prosperity of the Church.

Did in heart reioicé to heare the peoples voice, in offering so willingly,

For

For let vs vp say they, and in the Lords house pray, thus spake the folke full lovingly. Our feet that wandred wide, shall in thy gates abide. O thou Ieru-salem full faire, which art so seemely set, much like a Citie neat, the like whereof is not else where.

4 The tribes with one accord,
the tribes of God the Lord,
are thither bent their way to take :

So God before did tell,
That there his Israel, their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
and that for this respect:
to set forth iustice orderly :

Which thrones right to maintaine,
To Dauids house pertaine,
his folke to iudge accordingly.

6 To pray let vs not cease, for Ierusalems peace,
thy friends God prosper mightily,

7 Peace be thy wals about,
And prosper thee throughout,
thy places eke continually.

8 I wish thy prosperous state, for my poore brethrens sake :
that comfort haue by means of thee,

Gods house doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure :
So much alwaies as lies in me.

Adre leuati. Psal. Cxxij. T. S

A prayer of the faithfull, which are afflicted by the wicked worldlings, and contemners of God.

Sing this as the 119. Psalme.

O Lord that heauen dost possesse,
I lift mine eyes to thee :

Euen as the seruant listeth his,
his masters hands to see.

2 As handmaids watch their mistresse hands
some grace for to attaine :

So we behold the Lord our God,
till he doe vs forgiue.

3 Lord grant vs thy compassion, and mercie in thy sight :

For we are fill'd and overcome with hatred and despight.

4 Our mindes be stuff'd with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wile.

Doe make of vs their mocking flockes,
the proud doe vs despise.

Nisi quia Dom? Psal. Cxxij. W.W.

The faithfull deliuered out of great danger, acknowledge not to haue escaped by their owne power, but through the fauour of God.

Ow Israel may say, and that truely, if that the Lord had not our cause maintain'd, if that the Lord had not our right sustain'd, When all the world against vs furiously, made their vproes, and said we should all die.

3 Now long agoe,
they had deuour'd vs all,
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deeme,
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteeme :

4 And as the floods with mightie force doe fall :
So had they now
our liues euen brought to thrall.

5 The raging streames, most proud in roaring noise :
Had long agoe,
o'rewhelm'd vs in the deepe.

6 But loued be God, which doth vs safely keepe :
From bloodie teeth,
and their most cruell voice.

Which as a prey,
to eate vs would reioyce.

7 Euen as a bird,
out of the fowlers grin, Escapeth away,
right so it fareth with vs :

Broke are their nets,
and we escaped thus.

8 God that made heauen and earth is our helpe then :
His name hath saued vs,
euen from these wicked men.

Qui confidunt. Psal. Cxxv. W.K.

Hee describeth the assurance of the faithfull in their afflictions, and desireth their wealth, and the destruction of the wicked.

Vch as in God the Lord doe trust,

2 As mighty mountaines huge and great,
Ierusalem about doe clefe:
So will the Lord be vnto those,
Who on his godly will doe waite,
Such are to him so deare,
They neuer need to feare.

3 For though the righteous trie doth he,
By making wicked men his rod.
Least they through griefe forsake their God,
It shall not as their lot still be,

4 Giue Lord to those thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turne aside,
By crooked waies which they out sought:
The Lord will surely bring to nought,
With workes most vile they shall abide,
But peace with Israel
For euermore shall dwell.

Another of the same by R.W.

Sing this as the 10. Commandments.

THose that doe put their confidence
Vpon the Lord our God onely:
And flie to him for their defence,
In all their need and misery.
Their faith is sure firme to endure.
Grounded on Chriſt the corner stone,
Moued with none ill but standeth still,
Stedfast, like to the mount Syon.

And as about Ierusalem,
The mighty hills doe it compasse:
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that towne in any case.
So God indeed, in euery need,
His faithfull people doth defend:
Standing them by, assuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly:
The sinners and vngodlies rod,
To tarric vpon his family.
Least they also from God should goe
Falling to sinne and wickednesse:
O Lord defend world without end,
Thy christian flock through thy goodnes.

O Lord doe good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide.
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,

With hypocrites throwne downe to hell,
God will them send paines without end,
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to his Sonne our Sauour,
And to the holy Ghost whose light,
Shine in our hearts and vs succour.

That the right way from day to day,
We may walke and him glorifie:
With hearts desire all that are here,
Worship the Lord and say, Amen.

In conuertendo. Psal Cxxvj. N.

This Psalm was made after the returne of the people from Babylon, and sheweth that the meanes of their deliuerance was wonderfull, after the seventy yeeres of captiuitie, foreſpoken by Ieremy. 23. 11. & 29. 10.

2 The heathen folke were forced then this to confesse:
How that the Lord,
for them also great things had done:
3 But much more we,
and therefore can confesse no lesse:
Wherefore to ioy,
we haue good cause as we begun.
4 O Lord goe forth,
thou canst our bondage end,
As to Deserts,
the flowing riuers send.

5 Full true it is, that they which sow in reares indeed,
A time will come when they shall reape in mirth and ioy.
6 They went and wept,
in bearing of their precious seed:
For that their foes full oftentimes did them annoy:
But their returne

with ioy they shall sure see:
Their sheaues home bring,
and not impaired be.

Nisi Dominus. Psal. Cxxvij. W.W.

It is not mans wit, power, or labour, but the free goodnesse of God that giueth riches, preserveth townes and countries, granteth nourishment and children.

Sing this as the Lords prayer.

EXcept the Lord the house doe build,
And thereunto doe set his hand:
What men doe build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vaine men undertake Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morne,
And so at night goe late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with browne bread:
Yet were your labour lost and worne.
But they whom God doth loue and keepe
Receiue all things with quiet sleepe.

3 Therefore marke well when euer you see
That men haue heires to enioy their land,
It is the gift of Gods owne hand:
For God himselfe doth multiply
Of his great liberaltie,
The blessing of posteritie.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and actiuenesse,
In person and in comelinesse:
So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arme,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harme.

5 O well is he that hath his quier
Furnished with such artillerie:
For when in perill he shall be,
Such one shall neuer shake nor shiner,
When that he pleadeth before the Iudge Against his foes that beare him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. Cxxvij. W.W.

Here is described the prosperous estate of persons married in the feare of God, and the promises of Gods blessings to all them that live in this honorable estate according to his commandements.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way:
For of thy labour thou shalt eate, happy art thou I say.

2 Like fruitfull Vine on thy house side,
so doth thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like Olive plants thy table round about.

3 Thus art thou blest that fearest God, and he shall let thee see The promised Ierusalem, and his felicitie.

4 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
to thy great ioyes increase:
And likewise grace on Israel prosperitie and peace.

Sæpe expugnauerunt. Psal. Cxxix. N.

He admonisheth the Church to reioyce though afflicted in all ages, for God will deliuer and sodainly destroy the enemies thereof.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

OFt they, now Israel may say,
me from my youth affaild:
2 Oft they affaild me from my youth,
yet neuer they prevail'd.
3 Vpon my backe the plowes plow'd, and furrowes long did cast:
4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords of wicked foes at lait.
5 They that hate me shall be asham'd, and turned backe also:
6 And made as grasse vpon the house, which withereth ere it grow.
7 Whereof the mower cannot finde enough to fill his hand:
Nor he can fill his lap, that goeth to gleane vpon the land.
8 Nor passers by pray God on them to let his blessing fall:
Nor say we blesse you in the name of God the Lord at all.

De profundis. Psal. Cxxx. T.S.

An effectfull prayer to obtaine mercy and forgivnesse of his sinne, and at length deliuerance from all emils.

Lord to thee I make my mone, when dangers me oppresse: I call, I sigh, plaine, and grone, trusting to finde release. Heare now O Lord my request, for it is full due time: And let thine eares aye be prest vnto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God if thou weigh our finnes, and them peruse:
Who shall then escape and say,
I can my selfe excuse?
4 But Lord thou art mercifull, and turn'a to vs thy grace:

Thar

That we with hearts most carefull, should feare before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust, my soule waites on his will :
For his promise is most iust, and I hope therein still.
6 My soule to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway :
More then they that watch and ward to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly in the Lord put his trust :
He is that God of mercy that his deliner must.

8 For he it is that must saue
Israel from his sinne :
And all such as surely haue their confidence in him.

Domine non est. Psal. Cxxxj. N.

Dauid charged with ambition, protesteth his humilitie before God.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

O Lord, I am not puffed in minde,
I haue no scornfull eye :

I doe not exercise my selfe in things that be too hie.
2 But as the childe that wained is cuen from his mothers brest :
So haue I Lord behau'd my selfe in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay :
From this time forth for euermore,
from age to age for aye.

Memento Domine. Psal. Cxxxij. N.

The faithfull grounded on Gods promise made vnto Dauid, desireth that hee would establish the same, both as touching his posteritie, and the building of the Temple, to pray there as was fore-spooken.

R

Emember Dauids troubles Lord,

how to the Lord he swore, and vow'd a vow to Jacobs God, to keepe for euermore. I will not come within my house, nor climbe vp to my bed : Nor let my temples take their rest, or the eyes in my head.

5 Till I haue found out for the Lord,
a place to sit thereon :

A house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.

6 We heard of it at Euphrata, there did we heare this sound :
And in the fields and forrests there, these voices first were found.

7 We will assay and goe in now his tabernacle there :
Before his foot-stoole to fall downe,
vpon our knees in feare.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say, into thy resting place :
Both thou and the Arke of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy Priests be clothed Lord with truth and righteousness :
Let all thy Saints and holy men sing all with ioyfulness.

10 And for thy seruant Dauids sake refuse not Lord, I say
The face of thine anointed Lord,
nor turne thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to Dauid swore in truth, and will not shrinke from it :
Saying, the fruit of thy body
vpon thy seate shall sit.

12 And if thy sonnes my covenant keepe, that I shall learne each one :
Then shall their sonnes for euer sit vpon thy Princely throne.

13 The Lord himselfe hath chose Sion, and loues therein to dwell :

14 Saying, this is my resting place,
I loue and like it well.

15 And I will blesse with great increase her victuals euery where :
And I will satisfie with bread
the needy that be there.

16 Yea, I will decke and clothe her Priests with my saluation :
And all her Saints shall sing for ioy of my protection.

17 There will I surely make the horne of Dauid for to bud :
For I haue there ordain'd for mine
a lanterne bright and good.

18 As for his enemies I will clothe with shame for euermore :
But I will cause his crowne to shine more fresh then heretofore.

Ecce quam ? Psal. Cxxxij. W. W.

The commendation of godly and brotherly amitie, compared to the most precious oyle mentioned in Exodus 30.

Sing this as the 127. Psalm.

O How happy a thing it is,
and ioyfull for to see Brethren together fast to hold,
the band of amitie :

2 It cald to minde the sweet perfume,
and that costly oynment,
Which on the sacrificers head,
by Gods precept was spent.

- 3 It wet not Aarons head alone, but diench't his beard throughout:
And finally it did runne downe his rich attire about :
- 4 And as the lower ground doth drinke
the dew of Hermon hill :
And Syon with her fluer drops,
the fields with fruit doth fill.
- 5 Euen so the Lord doth powre on them,
his blessings manifold :
Whose hearts and mindes without all guile,
this knot doe keepe and hold.

Eccerunc. Psal. Cxxxiiij. W.K.

He exhorteth the Leuites that watch in the Temple to praise the Lord.

Ehould and haue regard, ye ser-uants of the Lord : Which in his house by night doe watch, praise him with one accord.

- 2 Lift vp your hands on high,
vnto his holy place,
And giue the Lord his praises due his benefits embrace.
- 3 For why? the Lord who did both earth and heauen frame, Doth Sion blesse, and will conferre for euermore the same.

Laudate nomen. Psal. Cxxxv. N.

He exhorteth all the faithfull to praise God for his marueilous works & graces, wherewith he hath declared his Maiestie, to the confusion of all Idolaters.

Praise the Lord, praise him, praise him, praise him with one accord : O praise him still, all ye that be the seruants of the Lord. O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord : ye of his court and of his house

praise him with one accord.

- 3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
sing praises to his name :
It is a comely and good thing, alwaies to doe the same.
- 4 For why? the Lord hath chose Iacob, his very one we see :
So hath he chosen Israel,
his treasure for to be.
- 5 For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great :
He is indeed aboue all Gods,
most easie to intreat.
- 6 For whatsoeuer pleas'd him,
all that full well he wrought,
In heauen. in earth, and in the sea,
which he hath fram'd of nought.
- 7 He lifts vp clouds euen from the earth
he makes lightnings and raine :
He bringeth forth the windes also,
he made nothing in vaine.
- 8 He smote the first borne of each thing,
in Egypt that tooke rest,
He spared there no liuing thing,
the man nor yet the beast.
- 9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great,
O Egypt voide of vaunts,
On Pharaos thy cursed King and his seuerer seruants
- 10 He smote then many nations.
and did great acts and things :
He slew the great and mightiest, and chiefest of their Kings.
- 11 Sehon King of the Amorites, and Og King of Basan :
He slew also the kingdomes all,
that were of Canaan.
- 12 And gaue their land to Israel, an heritage we see :
To Israel his owne people, an heritage to be.

The second part.

- 13 Thy name O Lord shall still endure, and thy memoriall
Throughout all generations,
that are or euer shall.
- 14 The Lord will surely now auenge his people all indeed :
And to his seruants he will shew faueur in time of neede.
- 15 The Idols of the heathen are made,
in all their coasts and lands :
Of siluer and of gold be they,
the works euen of mens hands.
- 16 They haue their mouthes & cannot speak,
and eies and haue no sight :
- 17 They eke haue eares and heare nothing, their mouthes be breathlesse quite.
- 18 Wherefore all they are like to them,
that doe so set them forth,
And likewise those that trust in them, or thinke they be ought worth.

- 19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord :
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.
- 20 And ye that be of Leuies house,
praise ye likewise the Lord :
And all that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.
- 21 And our of Sion sound his praise,
the great praise of the Lord,
Which dwelleth in Ierusalem,
praise him with one accord.

Super flumina. Psal. Cxxxvij. W.W.

The Isacites in their captiuitie hearing the Chal-deans reproach and blaspheme God and his retrigion, desire God to punish the Edonites, who prouoked the Babylonians against them, and prophesied the destruction of Babylon.

W Hen as we sate in Babylon, the riuers round about : And in remembrance of Sion, the teares for griefe burst out. We hang'd our harpes and instruments the willow trees vpon : For in that place men for their vie had planted many one.

3 Then they to whome we prisoners were,
said to vs tauntingly :
Now let vs heare your Hebrew songs, and pleasant melody.

4 Alas, said we, who can once frame his sorrowfull heart to sing
The praises of our liuing God, thus vnder a strange King :

5 But yet if I Ierusalem out of my heart let slide :
Then let my fingers quite forget the warbling harpe to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth be tyed for euer fast,
If that I ioy before I see thy full deliuerance past.

7 Therefore O Lord remember now,
the cursed noife and cry,
That Edoms sons against vs made,
when they raz'd our Citie.

8 Remember Lord their cruell words,
when as with one accord,
They cryed, on, sacke, and raze their wals
in despite of the Lord.

9 Euen so shalt thou (O Babilon) at length to dust be brought :
And happy shall that man be cald that our reuenge hath wrought.

10 Yea blessed shall that man be cald, that takes thy children young,
To dash their bones against hard stones which lye the streetes among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. Cxxxviii. N.

Dauid prayeth the goodnesse of God towards him, for which euen foraine Princes shall praise the Lord together with him, and he is assured to haue like comfort of God hereafter, as heretofore.

Sing this as the 137. Psalm.

Thou wilt I praise with my whole heart,
my Lord my God alwayes :
Euen in the presence of the Gods
I will aduance thy praise.

2 Toward thy holy Temple I will looke, and worship thee :
And praised in my thankfull mouth,
thy holy name shall be.

3 Euen for thy louing kindnesse sake, and for thy truth withall :
For thou thy name hast by thy word, aduanced

advanced ouer all.
 4 When I did call thou heardest me, and thou hast made also
 The power of increased strength within my soule to grow.
 5 Yea, all the Kings on earth they shall giue praise to thee O Lord:
 For they of thy most holy mouth
 haue heard the mighty word.
 6 They of the wayes of God the Lord in singing shall intreat:
 Because the glory of the Lord
 it is exceeding great.
 7 The Lord is he, and yet he doth behold the lowly spirit:
 But he contemning knowes asafre
 the proud and lofty wight.
 8 Although in midst of trouble I doe walke, yet shall I stand:
 Renewed by thee, O my Lord, thou wilt stretch forth thy hand 9 Vpon the wrath of all my foes, and saued shall I be:
 By thy right hand the Lord God will performe his worke to me.
 10 Thy mercy Lord endures for aye,
 Lord doe me not forsake:
 Forsake me not that am the worke which thine owne hand did make.

Domine probasti. Psal. Cxxxix. N.

Dauid to cleanse his hart from all hypocrisie, sheweth that nothing is so secret which God seeth not, after declaring his zeale and feare of God, he protesteth to be enemy to all them that contemne God.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

O Lord, thou hast me tride and knowne,
 my sitting thou dost know:
 2 And rising eke, my thoughts asafre, thou vnderstandst also.
 3 My perches, yea, and my lying downe, thou compasshest alwayes:
 And by familiar custome art acquainted with my wayes.
 4 No word is in my tongue O Lord,
 but knowne it is to thee:
 Thou me behinde hold'st, and before,
 thou layest thy hands on mee.
 6 Too wonderfull aboue my reach Lord is thy cunning skill:
 It is so high, that I the same cannot attaine vntill.
 7 From sight of thy all-seeing spirit,
 Lord, whither shall I goe?
 Or whither shall I flee away,
 thy presence to scape fro?
 8 To heauen if I mount aloft, loe thou art present there:
 In hell if I lye downe below,
 euen there thou dost appeare.
 9 Yea, let me take the morning wings, and let me goe and hide Euen there where are the farthest parts, where flowing seas doe slide.
 10 Yea, euen thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide:
 And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
 and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, the darknesse shall yet throud me from thy sight:
 Loe, euen also the darkest night about me shall be light.
 12 Yea, darknesse hideth not from thee,
 but night doth shine as day:
 To thee the darknesse and the light are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessedst my reines, and thou hast couered mee:
 When I within my mothers wombe enclosed was by thee.
 14 Thee will I praise, made fearefully, and wondrously I am:
 Thy workes are maruellous, right well my soule doth know the same.
 15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
 although in secret place
 I haue beene made, and in the earth beneath I shaped was:
 16 When I was formelesse then thine eye saw me, for in thy booke Were written all, nought was before, that after fashion tooke.
 17 The thoughts therefore of thee O God,
 how deare are they to mee:
 And of them all how passing great the endlesse numbers be:
 18 If I should count them, loe their summe more then the sand I see:
 And whensoeuer I awake,
 yet am I still with thee.
 19 The wicked and the bloody men,
 oh that thou wouldest slay:
 Euen those O God, to whom depart, depart from me I say.
 20 Euen those of thee O Lord my God, that speake full wickedly:
 Those that are lifted vp in vaine,
 being enemies to thee.
 21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
 and that in earnest wise:
 Contend I not against them all,
 against thee that arise:
 22 I hate them with vnfaigned hate,
 euen as my very foes:
 23 Try me O God, and know my heart,
 my thoughts proue and discloie.
 24 Consider Lord if wickednesse in me there any be:
 And in thy way, O God my guide, for euer lead thou me.

Eripe me Domine. Psal. Cxl. N.

Dauid prayeth vnto the Lord, against the cruelty, falsehood, and injuries of his enemies, assuring himselfe of his succour. Wherefore he prouoketh the same to praise the Lord, and to assure themselves of his tuition.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

L ord saue me from the euill man,
 and from the cruell wights 2 Deliuer me, which euill doe imagine in their sprites.
 3 Which make on me continuall warre, their tongues loe haue they whet Like Serpents, vnderneath their lips is Adders payson set.

- 4 Keepe me O Lord from wicked hands, preserue me to abide Free from the cruell man, that meane to cause my steps to slide.
- 5 The proud haue laid a snare for me,
and they haue spread a net
With cords in my path wayes, and gine for me eke haue they set.
- 6 Therefore I said vnto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:
Hear me O Lord, O heare the voyce, wherewith I pray and mone.
- 7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
the strength that saueh mee:
My head in day of battell hath bene couered still by thee.
- 8 Let not O Lord the wicked haue
the end of his desire:
Performe not his ill thought, lest he with pride be set on fire.
- 9 Of them that compassie about,
the chiefeest of them all:
Lord let the mischiefes of their lips vpon themselves befall.
- 10 Let coales fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame:
And in deepe pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.
- 11 For no backbiter shall on earth,
be set in stable plight:
And euill to destruction still shall haue the cruell wight.
- 12 I know the Lord th' afflicted will revenge, and iudge the poore:
The iust shall praise thy name, lest shall dwell with thee euermore.

Domine clamauit. Psal. Cxli. N.

Dauid being grievously persecuted under Saul, de-sireth succour and pence, till God take re-vengeance of his enemies.

Lord vpon thee doe I call, Lord hast thee vnto me. And hearken Lord, vnto my voyce, when I doe cry to thee,

2. As incense let my prayer be directed in thine eyes: And the vplifting of my hands as evening sacrifice.

- 3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth set thou a watch before:
And also of my mouing lips
O Lord keepe thou the dore.

- 4 That I should wicked workes commit,
Incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicacies
Lord let me eate no part.
- 5 But let the righteous smite me Lord,
for that is good for mee:
Let him reprove me, and the same a precious oyle shall be.
Such smiting shall not breake my head,
the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their misery make prayers for them all.
- 6 Then when in stony places downe their Iudges shall be cast:
Then shall they heare my words, for then they haue a pleasant tast.
- 7 Out bones about the graues mouth, loe scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he that diggeth vp the ground.
- 8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes
doe looke vp vnto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soule forsaken be.
- 9 Which they haue laid to catch me in,
Lord keepe me from the snare:
And from the subtil gins of them that wicked workers are.
- 10 The wicked iato their owne nets together let them fall:
While I doe by thy helpe escape the danger of them all.
- Voce mea ad Dom. Psal. Cxlij. N.
- Dauid neither for feare nor anger would kill Saul, but with a quiet minde prayeth vnto God, who preserueth him.*
- Sing this as the 141. Psalme.*
- B Efore the Lord God with my voyce,
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voice vnto
the Lord God prayed I.
- 2 My meditation in his sight to poure I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.
- 3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was knowne to thee:
In way where I did walke a snare they slyly laid for me.
- 4 I lookt and view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge failed me, and for my soule none cared tho.
- 5 Then cryde I Lord to thee, and said,
my hope thou onely art:
Thou in the land of liuing art
my portion and my part.
- 6 Hearke to my cry, for I am brought full low, deliuer me
From them that doe me persecute, for me too strong they be.
- 7 That I may praise thy name, my soule
for prison Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me the iust shall praise me round about.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cxliij. N.

An earnest prayer for remission of sinnes, acknowledging that the enemies did cruelly persecute him by Gods iust judgement, he desires to be restored to grace, to be comforted by the holy Spirit, that hee may spend the rest of his life in the service and worship of God.

Sung thus as the 141. Psalm.

Lord heare my prayer, hearken the plaint,
that I doe make to thee:

Lord in thy mercie truth, and in thy iustice answer me.

In iudgement with thy servant Lord,
oh enter: not at all:

For iustified be in the sight not one that lieth still.

The enemies hath persecute my soule,
my life to ground hath throwne:
And laid me in the darke like them that dead are long agoone.

Within me in perplexitie was mine accumbered spirit:
And in me was my troubled heart, amazed and adright.

Yet I record time past, in all thy workes I meditate:

Yea, in the workes I meditate that thy hands haue create.

To thee O Lord my God, see I doe stretch my craving handes:
My soule desireth after thee
as doe the thurle lands.

Hear me with speed, my spirit doth faile, hide not thy face me from:

Else shall I be like them that downe into the pit doe goe.

Let me thy loving kindeesse in the morning heare and know:

For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way that I shall goe.

For I lift up my soule to thee,
O Lord deliver me

From all mine enemies: for I haue hidden me with thee.

Teach me to doe thy will, for thou,
thou art my God I see:

Let thy good spirit into the land of mercie me conuay.

For thy name: like with quickning grace alme doe thou me make:

And out of trouble bring my soule,
even for thy iustice sake.

And for thy mercy say my foes,
O Lord deliver them all

That doe oppress my soule, for I thy servant am and shall.

Benedictus Dominus, Psal. Cxliij. N.

David prayeth the Lord for his mercies and long-drawn patience, yet calling for the deliverance of his people's afflictions.

Sung thus as the 141. Psalm.

Bless be the Lord with strength, that doth in me & my hands to fight:

The Lord that doth my fingers frame to battell by his might.

He is my goodnesse, fort and tower,
deliverer and shield:

In him I trust, my people he subdues to me to yield.

O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou holdest in to price:

O sonne of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in this wise:

Man is but like to vaine,
so passe his dayes to end.

As fleeing shade, bowe downe, O Lord,
the heauens and descend.

The mountaines reach, & they shall smoke,
cast forth thy light and flame,

And scatter them: thine arrows thence,
consume them with the same.

Send downe thy hand euen from above,
O Lord deliver me:

Take me from waters great, from hand of strangers make me free.

Whereof shall I mouth of vanitie and fondnesse doth intreat:

And their right hand is a right hand
of falsehood and deceit.

A new song will I sing O God, and singing will I be

On Viol and on Instrument:
ten stringed vato thee.

Each he it is that onely giues deliuerance to Kings:

Vnto his servant Dauid help from hurtfull sword he brings.

From strangers hand me face and shield,
whose mouthes talke vaine:

And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtiltie.

That our sonnes may be as the plants,
whom growing youth doth reare:

Our slaughterers as carved corner stones,
like to a Palace faire.

Our garners full, and plenty may with ready sorts be found:

Our sheepe bring thousands in our streets
ten thousand may abound.

Our Oxen be to labour strong,
that none doe vs invade:

There be no going out, no cries within our streetes be made.

The people blessed are that wish such blessings are to God:

Yea, blessed all the people are,
whose God is God the Lord.

Exultabore. Psal. Cxliij. N.

David describeth the wonderful prescience of God in governing and in comforting all the other creatures. He saith, for God for his infinite mercy and speciall blessing, vnto the creature which is called a quene, that she is true and true love.

Here will I and my God and King and blisse thy name for euer. For euer will I praise thy name, and blisse thee

- 5 I of thy glorious Maiestie,
the beaurie will record:
And meditate vpon thy workes,
most wonderfull O Lord.
- 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearefull acts declare:
And I to publish all abroad,
thy greatnesse will not spare.
- 7 And they into the mention shall breake of thy goodnesse great:
And I aloud thy righteousness,
in singing shall repeat.
- 8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull also:
Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow.
- 9 Yea good to all, and all his workes his mercie doth excede:
- 10 Loe all thy workes doe praise thee Lord,
and doe thy honour spread.
- 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they doe thy kingdomes glory shew:
- 12 And blasse thy power to cause the sonnes of men thy power to know.

The second part.

- 13 And of his mightie kingdome eke, to spread the glorious praise:
Thy kingdome Lord, a kingdome is,
that doth endure alwaies.
- 14 And thy dominion through each age,
endures without decay:
The Lord vpholdeth them that fall, their sliding he doth stay.
- 15 The cies of all doe waite on thee,
thou doest them all relieue;
And thou to each suffring foode,
in season dost giue.
- 16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand,
and bounteously dost fill:
All things whatsoever doe liue, with gifts of thy good will.
- 17 The Lord is iust in all his waies,
his workes are holy all:
Neere all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
- 18 He the desires which they require, that feare him will fulfill:
And he will heare them when they crie,
and saue them all he will.
- 20 The Lord preferues all those, to him that beare a louing heart:

But he them all that wicked are,
will utterly subuert.
21 My thankfull mouth shall gladly speake
the praises of the Lord:
All flesh to praise his holy name, for euer shall accord.

Lauda anima mea. Psal. Cxlvj. I.H.

Dauid teacheth that none should put their trust in men, but in God alone, who is almighty, and deliuereth the afflicted, nourisheth the poore, setteth prisoners at liberty, comforteth the fatherlesse, widowers, strangers, and is king for euer.

Sing this as the 137. Psalm.

- MY soule praise thou the Lord alwaies,
my God I will confesse:
- 2 While breath and life prolong my daies,
my tongue no time shall cease.
 - 3 Trust not in worldly princes then,
though they abound in wealth:
Nor in the sonnes of mortall men,
in whom there is no health.
 - 4 For why? their breath doth soone depart to earth anon they fall,
And then the counsels of their hearts decay and perish all.
 - 5 O happy is that man I say,
whom Iacobs God doth aide:
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.
 - 6 Which made the earth and waters deepe,
the heauens high withall:
Which doth his word and promise keepe,
in truth and euer shall.
 - With right alwaies he doth proceede,
for such as suffer wrong:
The poore and hungrie he doth feede, and lose the setters strong.
 - 7 The Lord doth send the blinde their sight
the lame to limmes restore:
The Lord I say doth loue the right and iust man euermore.
 - 8 He doth defend the fatherlesse,
and strangers sad in heart,
And quit the widdow from distresse, and ill mens waies subuert.
 - 9 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Sion still shall raigne:
In time of all posterity,
for euer to remaine.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlvij. N.

The Prophet praiseth the bounty, wisdom, power, iustice and providence of God vpon all creatures, but specially vpon his Church, which he gathered together after their dispersion, declaring his word and iudgments so toward them, as he hath done to no other people.

the earth prepareth raine:
And on the mountaines he doth make the grasse to grow amaine.

9 He giues to beasts their food, and to young Rauens when they crye.
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.
11 But in all those that feare the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight:
And such as doe attend vpon his mercies shining light.

The second part.

12 O praise the Lord Ierusalem, thy God O Sion praise:
13 For he the barres hath forged strong, wherewith thy gates he stayes.
14 Thy children he hath blest in thee, and in thy borders he doth settle peace, and with the flower of wheat he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement vpon
the earth he sendeth out:
And eke his word with speedy course,
doth swiftly runne about.
16 He giueth snow like wooll, hoare frost like ashes he doth spread:
17 Like morsels casteth his Ice thereof the cold who can abide.

18 He sendeth forth his mightie word,
and melteth them againe:
His winde he makes to blow, and then the waters flow amaine:

19 The doctrine of his holy word,
to Iacob he doth shew:
His statutes and his iudgements he giues Israel to know.

20 With euery nation hath he not so dealt, nor haue they knowe His secret iudgements, ye therefore, praise ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxliiij. I. H.

Hee prouoketh all creatures to praise the Lord, in heauen, and in all places, specially for the power that he hath giuen to his people Israel.

Iue laud vnto the Lord, from heauen that is so hic: Praise him in deed and word, about the starrie skie.

2. And also yee, his Angels all, annies royall, praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both Moone and Sunae,
Which are so cleare and bright:
The same of you be done,
Ye glistering starres of light.
4 And eke no lesse,
Ye heauens faire,
And cloudes of the aire,
His laud expresse.

5 For at his word they were,
All formed as we see:
At his voice did appeare,
All things in their degree:
6 Which he set fast:
To them he made,
A law and trade,
for aye to last.

7 Extoll and laud Gods name,
On earth ye Dragons fell:
All deapes doe ye the same,
For it becommeth you well.
8 Him magnifie,
Fire, haile, ice, snow,
And stormes that blow,
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountaines all,
And trees that fruitfull are:
The Cedars great and tall,
His worthie praise declare.
10 Beasts and cattell,
Ye birds flying,
And wormes creeping,
that on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and lesse,
With all their pompous traine:
Princes and all Iudges,
That in the world remaine,
12 Exalt his name,
Young men and maides,
Old men and babes,
Doe ye the same.

13 For his name shall we proue,
To be most excellent:
Whose praise is farre about
The earth and firmament.
14 For sure he shall,
Exalt with blisse,
The borne of his,
And helpe them all.

Psalm Cxlix. CL.

15 His Saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthinesse,
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and lesse:
16 And also they
That with good will His words fulfill and them obey.

Cantate Domino. Psal. Cxlix. N.

An exhortation to the Church to praise the Lord for his victory and conquest that he giveth his Saints against all mans power.

Sing this as the 145. Psalme.

- Sing ye vnto the Lord our God
a new reioycing song:
And let the praise of him be heard his holy Saints among.
2 Let Israel reioyce in him, that made him of nothing.
And let the seede of Sion eke be ioyfull in their King.
3 Let them sound praise with voice of flute
vnto his holy name:
And with the Timbrell and the Harpe,
sing praises of the same.
4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
And by deliuerance he will raise the mecke to glory great.
5 With glory and with honour both let all the Saints reioyce:
And now aloud vpon their beds
aduaunce their singing voyce.
6 And in their mouthes let be the acts of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands eke let them beare
a double edged sword.
7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:
8 To binde their stately Kings in chaines, their Lords in iron bands.
9 To execute on them the doome that written is before:
This honour all his Saints shall haue,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dom. Psal. CL. N.

And praise him in the firmament, that shewes his power on hie.
2 Advance his name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwayes:
According to his excellency of greatnesse giue him praise.
3 His praises with the Princely noyse of sounding Trumpets blow: Praise him vpon the Violl, and vpon the Harpe also.
4 Praise him with Timbrell, and with Flute, Organs and Virginals:
5 With sounding Cimbals praise ye him, praise him with loud Cimbals.

Praise ye the Lord so bounteous, which worketh our saluation.

Lift vp your hands in his holy place,
yea, and that in the time of night:
Praise yee the Lord which giueth all grace, for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion, which made heauen & earth by his power,
Giue to you and your nation,
his blessing mercy, and fauour.
Glory be to God the Father, &c.

Ttend my people and giue care, of ferly things I will thee tell: See that my words in minde thou beare, and to my precepts listen well.

The Lords Prayer.

1 I am thy foueraigne Lord and God,
Which haue thee brought from careful thrall,
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod,
Make thee no Gods on them to call.

2 Nor fashioned forme of any thing,
In heauen or earth to worship it :
For I thy God by reuenging,
With grievous plagues this flane will smite.

3 Take not in vaine Gods holy name, Abuse it not after thy will :
For so thou might'st soone purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seuenth day ceast,
And brought all things to perfect end :
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods hefts yee may attend.

5 Vnto thy Parents honour giue,
As Gods Commandements doe pretend,
That thou long dayes and good maist liue
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruell hate.
7 All filthy fornication feare.
8 See thou steale not in any rate.
9 Falsse witnesse against no man beare.

10 Thy neighbours house with not to haue,
His wife, or ought that he calls mine :
His field, his Oxe, his Ass, his slaue,
Or any thing that is not thine.

A Prayer.

THe Spirit of grace grant vs (O Lord)
To keepe these Lawes our hearts restore:
And cause vs all with one accord
To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our selues no strength we haue
To keepe these lawes after thy will:
That might therefore (O Christ) we craue,
That wee in thee may them fulfill.

Lord, for thy names sake graunt vs this,
Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ :
Of thee to speede how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist :

To thee for euermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect :
And with the holy Spirit alwayes,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lord Prayer.

The Creed.

not with lips alone : But with the hearts

deepe sigh and groane.

Thy blessed name be sanctified,
Thy holy word might vs inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy name :
From all errors defend and keepe
The little flocke of thy poore sheepe.

Thy kingdome come euen at this houre,
And henceforth euermore :
Thine holy Ghost into vs poure,
With all his gifts most plentifully.
From Sathans rage and filthy baad Defend vs with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heauen in earth also :
In trouble grant vs patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and woe.
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill
Preuaile against thy holy will.

Giue vs this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine :
Keepe vs from warre, and from bloud-shed,
Also from sickness, dearth, and pine :
That we may liue in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefulnesse.

Forgiue vs our offences all,
Reliue our careful conscience :
As we forgiue both great and small
Which vnto vs haue done offence :
Prepare vs Lord for to serue thee
In perfect loue and vnitie.

O Lord into temptation
Leade vs not when the fiend doth rage :
To withstand his inuasion,
Giue power and strength to euery age,
Arme and make strong thy feeble host,
With faith and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord from euill deliuer vs,
The dayes and times are dangerous,
From euermore death saue vs,
And in our last neede comfort vs :
A blessed end to vs bequeathe,
Into thy hands our soule receiue.

For thou O Lord art King of Kings,
And thou hast power ouer all :
Thy glory shine in all things,
In the wide world vniuersall.
Amen, let it be done O Lord,
That we haue pray'd with one accord:

The Creed.

And in like manner I beleeue,
In Christ our Lord his Sonne :
Coequall with the deitie,
And man in flesh and bone :
Conceiued by the holy Ghost,
His word doth me assure :
And of his mother Mary borne,
Yet she a Virgin pure.

Because mankinde to Sathan was,
For sinne in bond and thrall,
He came and offered vp himselfe,
To death to saue vs all.

And suffering most grieuous paine :
Then Pilate being Iudge,
Was crucified on the Crosse,
And thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
But quickned in the spirit :
His body then was buried,
As is our vse and right,
His Soule did after this descend
Into the lower parts :
To them that long in darknesse were,
The true light of their hearts.

And in the third day of his death :
He rose to life againe :
To th'end he might be glorified,
Out of all griefe and paine.

Ascending to the heauens high,
To sit in glory still :
On Gods right hand his father deare,
According to his will.

Vntill the day of iudgement come,
When he shall come againe,
With Angels power, yet of that day
We all be vncertaine.

To iudge all people righteously,
Whom he hath dearly bought :
The liuing and the dead also,
Which he hath made of nought,

And in the holy spirit of God,
My faith to satisfie,
The third person in Trinitie,
Beleeue I stedfastly,

The holy and Catholike Church,
That Gods word doth maintaine :
And holy Scripture doth allow,
Which Satan doth disdain.

A prayer to the holy Ghost.

And also I doe trust to haue,
By Iesus Christ his deatch :
Release and pardon for my sinnes :
And that onely by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise againe,
Before the Lord of might :
And see him with their bodily eies,
Which now doe giue them light.

And then shall Christ our Sauour,
The sheepe and goates diuide :
And giue life euerlastingly,
To those whom he hath tride.
Within his Realme celestiall,
In glory for to rest :
With all the holy companie,
Of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serue the Lord omnipotent, Obediently each houre :
To whom be all Dominion,
And praise for euenmore.

A prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

Sing this as the 119. Psalme.

Come holy Spirit the God of might, comforter of vs all :
Teach vs to know thy word aright,
that we doe neuer fall.
O holy Ghost visit our coast, defend vs with thy shield :
Against all sinne and wickednesse,
Lord helpe vs winne the field.

Lord keepe our King and his Counsell, and giue them will and might,
To perseuere in thy Gospell, which can put sinne to flight.
O Lord that giuest thy holy word,
send Preachers plenteously :
That in the same we may accord,
and therein liue and die.

O holy spirit direct aright,
the Preachers of thy word :
That thou by them maiest cut downe sinne,
as it were with a sword :
Depart not from those Pastors pure,
but aide them at all neede :
Which breake to vs the bread of life,
whereon our soules doe feede.

O blessed spirit of truth keepe vs,
in peace and vnitie :
Keepe vs from sects and errors ail,
and from all Papistrie.
Conuert all those that be our foes,
and bring them to thy light :
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord encrease our faith in vs,
and loue so to abound :
That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about vs round.
In our time giue thy peace O Lord, to nation farre and nie :

that we may sing to thee.

*All glory to the Trinitie, that is of mighties most,
The liuing Father, and the Sonne,

As it is now, and so shall be,

Iue peace in these our daies O Lord, great dangers are now at hand: thine enemies with one accord, Christs name in eue-ry land seeke to deface, root out and race thy true right worship indeed: be thou our stay, Lord we thee pray, thou helpst alone in all need.

Giue vs that peace which we doe lack,
Through mitbeliefe and ill life:
Thy word to offer thou dost not slack,
Which we vnkindly gaine strue.
With fire and sword,
This healthfull word,
Some persecute and oppresse:
Some with the mouth
Confesse the truth,
Without sincere godlinesse.
Giue peace, and vs thy spirit downe send,
With griefe and repentance true,
Doe pierce our hearts our liues to amend,
And by faith Christ reue:
That feare and dread,
Warre and bloudshed.
Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from vs slide,
Thy truth may bide,
And shine in euery place.

The Lamentation.

Through perfect repentance the sinner hath a sure trust in God, that his sins shall be washed away in Christs blood.

O

Lord in thee is all my trust, giue care vnto my wofull cry: Refuse me not that am vniust, but bowing downe thine heavenly eie, behold how I doe still lament my sinnes wherein I doe offend: O

Lord for them shall I be shent, such thee to please I doe intend.

No, no, not so, thy will is bent, to deale with sinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they shall repent,
thou grant'st with speed their iust desire.
To thee therefore still shall I cry,
to wash away my sinfull crime:
Thy bloud O Lord is not yet dry,
but that it may helpe me in time.

Hast thee O Lord, hast thee I say, to powre on me the gifts of grace:
That when this life shall sit away,
in heauen with thee I may haue place.
Where thou dost raigne eternally, with God which once did downe thee send,
Where Angels sing continually, to thee be praise world without end.

A thanksgiuing after the receiuing of the Lords Supper.

Sing this as the 137. Psalm.

THe Lord be thanked for his gifts,
and mercies euermore:
That he doth shew vnto his Saints,
to him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord,
as he doth right deserue:
Our hearts cannot of him so thinke,
as he doth vs preferre.
His benefites they be so great,
to vs that be but sine:
That at our hands for recompens,
there is no hope to winne.
O sinfull flesh that thou shouldst haue
such mercies of the Lord:
Thou dost deserue more worthily, of him to be abhord.
Naught else but sinne and wretchednesse,
doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornely against the Lord,
we daily play our parts.
The Sunne above the firmament which is to vs a light:
Doth shew it selfe more cleare and pure,
then we be in his light.

The heauens aboue, and all therein, more holy are then we :
They serue the Lord in their estate,
each one in their degree.
They doe not strue for mastership, nor slack their office set :
But feare the Lord and doe his will,
hate is to them no let.

Also the earth and all therein,
of God it is in awe :
It doth obserue the formers will,
by skilfull natures law.
The sea and all that is therein,
doth bend when God doth beck :
The spirits beneath doe tremble all,
and feare his wrathfull check.

But we alas for whom all these were made them for to rule :
Doe not so know or loue the Lord,
as doth the Oxe or Mule.
A law he gaue for vs to know, what was his holy will :
He would vs good, but we would not auoid the thing is ill.

Not one of vs that seeketh out,
the Lord of life to please :
Nor doe the thing that might vs ioyne,
to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not denie :
And he againe of his good will,
would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedy was none,
to bring vs vnto life :
The Sonne of God our flesh he tooke, to end our mortall strife.
And all the law of God the Lord,
he did it full obey :
And for our sinnes vpon the Crosse,
his bloud our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget,
what good he to vs wrought :
A signe he left our eies to tell,
that he our bodies bought,
In bread and wine here visible,
vnto thine eies and tast :
His mercies great thou maist record,
if that his spirit thou hast.

As once the corne did line and grow,
and was cut downe with sicke :
And threshed out with many stripes, out from his huske to drue.
And as the mill with violence,
did teare it out so small :
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all.

And as the ouen with fire hot,
did close it vp in heate :
And all this done that I haue said, that it should be our meate.
So was the Lord in his ripe age, ere downe by cruell death he was His soule he gaue to torments great, and yeldded vp his breath.

Because that he to vs might be an euerglasting bread :
With much reproach and troubles great,
on earth his life he led.
And as the grapes in pleasant time,
are pressed very fore :
And plucked downe when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more.

Because the iuice that in them is,
as comfortable drinke :
We might receiue and ioyfull be,
when sorrowes make vs shrinke.
So Christ his bloud our pressed was,
with nailes and cke with seare :
The iuice whereof doth sate all those,
that rightly doe him feare.

And as the cornes by vnity into one loafe is knit :
So is the Lord and his whole Church,
though he in heauen sit,
As many grapes make but one Wine,
so should we be but one.
In faith and loue in Christ aboue, and vnto Christ alone.

Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace :
From enuie and from malice both,
our hearts and tongues to cease.
Which if we doe, then shall we shew, that we his chosen be
By faith in him to leade a life, as alwaies willed he.

And that we may so doe indeed,
God send vs all his grace :
Then after death we shall be sure,
with him to haue a place.

FINIS.

A forme of Prayer to be vsed in priuate houses euery Morning and Euening.

Morning Prayer.

Almightie God and most mercifull Father, we doe not present our felues heere before thy Maiesty, trusting in our owne merits, or worthinesse, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to heare our prayers and graunt our requests, which wee shall make to thee in the name of thy beloued Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord, who also hath commaunded vs to assemble our felues together in his name, with full assurance, that wee will not onely be amongst vs, but also be our mediator and aduocate to thy Maiestie, that we may obtaine all things which shall seeme expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee sweet Father, to turne thy louing countenance towards vs, and impute not vnto vs our manifold sinnes and offences, whereby we most iustly deserue thy wrath & sharpe punishment, but rather receiue vs to thy mercie, for Iesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a iust recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with vs. And seeing that of thy great mercie wee haue quietly passed this night: Graunt (O heauenly Father) that we may bestow this day wholly in thy seruice, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds, may redound to the glorie of thy name and good ensample of all men, who seeing our good workes, may glorifie thee our heauenly Father. And forasmuch as of thy meere fauour and loue, thou hast not onely created vs to thine owne similitude and likenesse, but also hast chosen vs to be heires with thy deare sonne Iesus Christ, of that immortall kingdom, which thou preparedst for vs before the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to encrease our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy spirit, that we may in the meane time liue in godly conuersation and integritie of life, knowing that Idolaters, adulterers, conuictous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons and such like, shall not inherite the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commaunded vs to pray one for another, we doe not onely make request (O Lord) for our felues, and for them that thou hast alreadie called to the true vnderstanding of thy heauenly will, but for all people and nations of the world, who as they know by thy wonderful works, that thou art God ouer all, so they may be instructed by thy holy spirit, to beleeeue in thee, their onely Saviour and Redeemer, but forasmuch as they cannot beleeeue, except they heare, nor cannot heare but by preaching, and none can preach, except he be sent: therefore (O Lord)

raise vp faithfull distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seeke thy glorie. Continually confound Satan, Antichrist, with all hirelings, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sence, that they may not by sects, schismes, heresies, & errors, disquiet thy little flocke. And because, O Lord, we be fallen into the latter daies and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the vpper hand, and Satan by his Ministers seekes by all meanes to quench the light of thy Gospell: wee beseech thee to maintaine thy cause against those rauening Wolues, and strengthen all thy seruants, whom they keepe in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion, either to encrease their tyrannie, or to discourage thy children: neither yet let our sins and wickednes, be a hindrance to thy mercies, but with speed (O Lord) consider their great miserie. For thy people Israel many times by their sin prouoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy iust iudgement, yet though their sins were neuer so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receiuedst them to mercy. We therefore most wretched sinners bewaile our manifold sins, and earnestly repeat vs of our former wickednes, and vngodly behauiour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our felues purchase thy pardon, yet wee humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercie vpon vs, and receiue vs againe to thy fauour. Graunt vs deare Father these our requests, and all other things necessarie for vs, and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Iesus Christ our Lord. In whose name wee beseech thee, as he hath taught vs, saying: Our Father which art in heauen, &c.

Euening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father euerlasting, and full of pitie, wee acknowledge and confesse, that wee bee not worthe to lift vp our eyes to heauen, much lesse to present our felues before thy Maiestie, with confidence that thou wilt heare our prayers, and graunt our requests: if we consider our owne desertings: for our consciences doe accuse vs, and our sins do witness against vs, and wee know that thou art an vpriight Judge, which doest not iustifie the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faultes of all such as transgresse thy commandments: yet most mercifull Father, since it hath pleased thee to command vs to call on thee in all our troubles and aduersities, promising euen then to help vs, when we feeble our felues, (as it were) swallowed vp of death & desperation, we vterly renounce all worldly confidence, and flie to thy soveraigne bountie as our only stay & refuge: beseeching thee not to cal to remembrance our manifold sinnes.

finnes and wickednesse, whereby we continually prouoke thy wrath & indignation against vs, neyther our negligence and vnkindnesse, which haue neither worthily esteemed, nor in our liues sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospell reuealed vnto vs, but rather to accept the death and obedience of thy Son Iesus Christ, who by offering vp his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Haue mercy therefore vpon vs, O Lord, and forgie vs our offences. Teach vs by thy holy Spirit, that we may rightly waigh them, and earnestly repent for the same. And so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobare and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot praise thee, nor call vpon thy name, but the repenting heart, the sorrowfull minde, the conscience oppressed, hungering and thirsting for thy grace, shall euer set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit wee be but wormes and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the worke of thine hands: yea, thou art our Father, and wee thy Children: thou art our Shepheard, and wee thy Flocke: thou art our Redeemer, and wee thy people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and wee thine inheritance. Correct vs not therefore in thine anger (O Lord) neither according to our desert punish vs, but mercifully chastise vs with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know at what time soeuer a sinner doth repent him of his sinne from the bottome of his heart, thou wilt put away all his wickednesse out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thy holy Prophet.

Finally, for as much as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to trauel in, grant O deare Father, that we may continually watch for the time that our Lord Iesus Christ shall appeare for our deliuerance out of this mortal life, and in the meane season, that we be not overcome by any fantasies, dreames, or other temptations, may fully set our mindes vpon thee, loue thee, feare thee, and rest in thee. Furthermore, that our sleepe be not excessive or ouer-much, after the vn-satiabie desires of our flesh, but onely sufficient to content our weake nature, that wee may be the better disposed to liue in all godly conuersation, to the glory of thy holy name, and profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

HONOUR and praise be giuen to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most deare Father of heauen, for all thy mercies and louing kindnesse shewed vnto vs, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodnesse, freely and of thine owne accord to elect and chuse vs to saluation before the beginning of the world: And euen like continuall thanks be giuen to thee, for creating vs after thine owne image, for redeeming vs with the precious blood of thy deare Sonne, when wee were utterly lost: for sanctifying vs with thy holy Spirit in the reuelation and knowledge of thy word: for helping and succouring vs in all our needes and necessities, for sauing vs from all dangers of body and soule, for comforting vs so fatherly in all our tribulations and persecutions, for sparing vs so long, and giuing vs so large a time of repentance. These benefits O most mercifull Father, like as wee acknowledge to haue received them of thy onely goodnesse, euen so we beseech thee for thy deare Sonne Iesus Christs sake, graunt vs alwayes thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted in all aduersities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in seruency and loue towards thee, and our neighbours for thy sake: suffer vs not (most deare Father) to receiue thy word any more in vaine: but graunt vs alwayes the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word, and deed, we may sanctifie and doe worship to thy name, helpe to amplifie and increase thy kingdome, and whatsoeuer thou sendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let vs not lacke the thing, O Father, without the which we cannot serue thee: but blesse thou so all the workes of our hands, that we may haue sufficient, and not be chargeable but rather helpfull vnto others. Be mercifull O Lord to our offences, and seeing our debt is great which thou hast forgiven in Iesus Christ, make vs to loue thee and our neighbours so much the more: be thou our Father, Captaine, and defender in all temptations: hold thou vs by thy mercifull hand, that we may be deliuered from all inconueniences, and end our liues in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy name, through Iesus Christ our Lord and onely Saviour.

Let thy mighty hand and out-stretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence, thy mercy and louing kindnesse in Iesus Christ thy deare Sonne our saluation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation vnto the end and in the end. So be it.

O Lord increase our faith.

A Confession for all estates and times.

OEternall God and most mercifull Father, we confesse and acknowledge here before thy diuine Maiesty, that we are miserable sinners, conceived and borne in sin and iniquitie, so that in vs there is no goodnes. For the flesh euermore rebellet against the spirit, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy precepts and commandements: and so purchase to our selues through thy iust iudgement, death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heauenly Father) for as much as we are displeased with our selues for the sinnes that wee haue committed against thee, and doe vnfeignedly repent vs of the same, wee most humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercy vpon vs. to forgive vs all our finnes, and encrease thy holy Spirit in vs; that we acknowledging from the bottome of our hearts, our owne vnrighteousnesse, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinfull lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will, not for the worthinesse thereof; but for the merits of thy dearely beloved Sonne Iesus Christ our onely Saviour, whom thou hast already given an oblation and offering for our finnes, and for whose sake wee are certainly perswaded that thou wilt deny vs nothing that we shall aske in his name, according to thy will. For thy Spirit doth assure our consciences, that thou art our mercifull Father, and so lovest vs thy children through him, that nothing is able to remoue thy heavenly grace and fauor from vs. To thee therefore (O Father) with the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory world without end. Amen.

A Prayer to be said before a man begin his works.

O Lord God, most mercifull Father and Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command vs to traueile, that wee may relieue our neede, wee beseech thee of thy grace to be blest our labours, that thy blessing may extend vnto vs, without the which wee are not able to continue, and that this great fauour may be a witness vnto vs of thy bountifullnesse and assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast ouer vs.

Moreouer (O Lord) wee beseech thee that thou wouldst strengthen vs with thy holy Spirit, that wee may faithfully traueile in our estate and vocation, without fraud or deceit, and that wee may endeavour our selues to follow thine holy ordinance, rather then to seeke to satisfie our greedy affections or desire to gaine. And if it please thee (O Lord) to prosper our labours, giue vs a minde also to helpe them that need, according to that ability that thou of thy mercy shalt giue vs: And knowing that all good things come of thee, graunt that wee may humble our selues to our neighbours, and not by any meanes lift our selues above them which haue not received so liberal a portion as of thy mercy thou hast giuen vnto vs. And if it please thee to try and exercise vs by greater pouerty and need then our flesh would desire, that thou wouldst yet (O Lord) grant vs grace to know that thou wilt nourish vs continually, through thy bountifull liberalitie, that we be not so tempted, that we fall into distrust, but that wee may patiently waite till thou fill vs, not onely with corporall graces and benefits, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spirituall treasures, to the intent wee may alwayes haue more ample occasion to giue thee thanks, and wholly to rest vpon thy mercies. Heare vs O Lord of mercy, through Iesus Christ thy Sonne our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the whole estate of Christs Church.

Almighty God and most mercifull Father, we humbly submit our selues and fall downe before thy Maiestie, beseeching thee from the bottome of our hearts, that this seed of thy word now sowne amongst vs, may take such deepe roote, that neyther the burning heate of persecution cause it to wither, neyther the thorny cares of this life choake it, but that as seed sowne in a good ground, it may bring forth thirtie, sixtie, and an hundred folde, as thy heavenly wisdom hath appointed. And because we haue neede continually to craue many things at thy hands, we humbly beseech thee (O heavenly Father) to graunt vs thy holy Spirit, to direct our petitions, that they may proceede from such a seruent minde, as may be agreeable to thy most holy will, and seeing that our infirmities are able to doe nothing without thy help, and that thou art not ignorant with how many and great temptations we poore wretches are on euery side enclosed and compassed, let thy strength (O Lord) sustaine our weaknesse, that we being defended with the force of thy grace, may be safely preserved against all assaults of Sathan, who goeth about continually like a roaring Lion, seeking to deuoure vs. Increase our faith (O mercifull Father); that we doe not swerue at any time from thy heavenly word, but augment in vs hope and loue, with a carefull keeping of all thy commandments, that no hardnesse of heart, no hypocrisie, no concupiscence of the eyes, nor enticements of the world doe draw vs away from thy obedience. And seeing wee liue now in these most perilous times, let thy fatherly prouidence defend vs against the violence of our enemies, which seek by all means to oppress thy truth.

Furthermore, for as much as by thy holy Apostle wee be taught to make our prayers and supplications for all men: Wee pray nor onely for our selues here present, but beseech thee also to reduce all such as be yet ignorant from the miserable captiuitie of blindnes and errour, to the pure vnderstanding and knowledge of thy truth, that we all with one accord and vnitie of minde may worship thee our onely God and Saviour. And that all Pastors, Shepheards, and Ministers, to whom thou hast committed the dispensation of thy holy word, and charge of thy chosen people, may both in their life and doctrine be found faithful, setting only before their eyes thy glory, and that by them all poore sheepe which wander and goe astray, may be gathered and brought home to thy fold.

Moreouer, because the hearts of Rulers are in thy hands, wee beseech thee to direct and gouerne the hearts of all Kings, Princes, and Magistrates, to whom thou hast committed the sword: Especially (O Lord) according to our bounden duty, wee beseech thee to maintaine and increase the Honourable estate of the Kings Maiestie; and all his most noble Counsellors and Magistrates, with all the spirituall Pastors and Ministers, and nisters, and althe whole body of this common-weale. Let thy fatherly fauour so preserue them, & thy holy spirit so gouerne their hearts, that they may in such sort execute their office, that thy religion may be purely maintained, manners reformed, and sin punished, according to the precise rule of thy holy word: and for that we be all members of the mysticall body of Iesus Christ, we make our requests vnto thee (O heauenly Father) for all such as are afflicted with any kind of crosse or tribulation; as warre, plague, famine, sickness, pouertie, imprisonment, persecution, banishment, or any other kind of thy rods, whether it be calamitie of body, or vexation of mind, that it would please thee to giue them patience and constancie, till thou send them full deliuerance of all their troubles. Root out from hence, O Lord, all rauening Volumes, which to fill their bellies, seek to destroy thy flock. And shew thy great mercies vpon those our brethren in other countries, which are persecuted, cast into prison, and daily condemned for the testimonie of thy truth. And although they be utterly destitute of all mans aide, yet let thy sweet comfort neuer depart from them, but so inflame their hearts with thy holy spirit, that they may boldly & chearefully abide such triall as thy godly wisdom shall appoint: So that at length as well by their death, as by their life, the kingdom of thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ, may encrease and shine through all the world. In whose name wee make our humble petitions vnto thee, as hee hath taught vs. Our Father, &c.

A Prayer against the Diuell and his manifold tentations, made by
S. Augustine.

THere wanted a tempter, and thou wast the cause that hee was wanting: there wanted time & place, and thou wast the cause that they wanted. The tempter was present, and there wanted neither place nor time, but thou heldest me backe that I should not consent. The tempter came full of darknes as he is, and thou didst harden mee that I might despise him. The tempter came armed and strongly, but to the intent he should not overcome me, thou didst restraine him and strengthen me. The tempter came transformed into an Angell of light, and to the intent he should not deceiue me, thou didst rebuke him, and to the intent I should know him, thou didst enlighten me. For he is the great red dragon, the old serpent, called the Diuell & Sathan, which hath seauen heads and ten hornes, whom thou hast created to take his pleasure in this huge and broad sea, wherein there creepe liuing wighes innumerable, and beasts great & small, that is to say, diuers sorts of fiends, which practise nothing else day and night, but goeth about seeking whom he may deuoure, except thou resist him O Lord Iesus. For it is that old dragon which draweth down the third part of the starres of heauen with his taile, and casteth them to the ground, which with his venome poysoneth the waters of the earth, that as many men as drinke of them, may die, which trampleth vpon gold, as if it were mire, & is of opinion that Iordan shall run into his mouth, and which is made of such a mould that hee feareth no man: And who shall saue vs from his chops, O Lord Iesus, who shall plucke vs out of his mouth, sauing thou O Lord, who hast broken the head of this great Dragon? Helpe vs Lord, spread out thy wings ouer vs O Lord, that we may flee vnder them from the face of this Dragon that pursueth vs: and fence thou vs from his hornes with thy shield: For this is his continuall endeavour, this is his only desire to deuour the soules which thou hast created. And therefore we cry vnto thee O God, deliuer vs from our daily aduersary, who whether we sleep or wake, whether we eate or drinke, or whether wee be doing of any thing else, preaseth vpon vs by all kinde of meanes, assaulting vs day and night with traines and policies, and shooting his venomous arrowes at vs, sometimes openly, and sometimes priuily, to slay our soules. And yet such is our great madnesse O Lord, that whereas wee see the dragon continually in a readinesse to deuoure vs with open mouth, we neuertheless do sleep, and reioyce in our owne slothfulness, as though we were out of his danger, who desireth nothing else but to destroy vs. Our mischieuous enemy to the intent to kill vs, watcheth continually and neuer sleepe, & yet will not we awake from sleepe to saue our selues. Behold he hath pitched infinite snares before our feet, and filled all our wayes with sundry traps to catch our soules. And who can escape O Lord Iesu, so many and great dangers? He hath laid snares for vs in our riches, in our pouerty, in our meat, in our drinke, in our pleasures, in our sleepe, and in our waking. Hee hath set snares for vs in our words and our workes, and in all our life. But thou O Lord, deliuer vs from the net of the fowler, and from hard words, that wee may giue praise to thee, saying: Blessed be the Lord who hath not giuen vs to be a prey for their teeth: our soule is deliuered as a sparrow out of the fowlers net, the net is broke and we escaped.

The Confession of the Christian Faith.

Beleeue and confesse my Lord God, eternall, infinite, vnmeasurable, incomprehensible, and inuisible, one in substance, and three in person, Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost, who by his almighty power and wisdom, hath not onely of nothing created heauen and earth, and all things therein contayned, and man after his owne image, that he might in him be glorified, but also by his fatherly prouidence gouerneth, maintaineth, and preseruet the same, according to the purpose of his will.

I beleeue also and confesse Iesus Christ the onely Sauour and Messias, who being equall with God, made himselfe of no reputation, but tooke on him the shape of a seruant, and became man, in all things like vnto vs, except sinne,

sinne, to assure vs of mercie and forgiveness: for when through our Father Adams transgression, we were become children of perdition, there was no meane to bring vs from the yoke of sinne and damnation, but only Iesus Christ our Lord, who giving vs that by grace, which was by nature his, made vs through faith the children of God, who when that fullness of time was come, was conceived by the power of the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Mary (according to the flesh) and preached in earth the Gospel of saluation, till at length by tyrannie of the Priests, he was guiltlesly condemned vnder Pontius Pilate, then President of Iury, and most scandalously hanged on the Crosse betweene two theues, as a notorious trespasser, where taking vpon him the punishment of our finnes, hee deliuered vs from the curse of the law.

And for as much as hee being onely God, could not feelee death, neither being onely man, could ouercome death, hee ioyned both together, and suffered his humanitie to be punished with most cruell death, feeling in himselfe the anger and seuerie iudgement of God, euen as he had been in extreame torments of hell, and therefore cryed with a loud voyce, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Thus of his mercie, without compulsion, he offered vp himselfe as the onely sacrifice to purge the finnes of all the world, so that all other sacrifices for sin, are blasphemous and derogate from the sufficiency hercof, which death, albeit it did sufficiently reconcile vs to God, yet the Scriptures commonly doe attribute our regeneration to his resurrection. For as by rising again from the graue, the third day hee conquered death, euen so the victorie of our faith standeth in his resurrection: and therefore without the one, wee cannot feelee the benefits of the other. For as by his death sinne was taken away, so our righteousness was restored by his resurrection. And because hee would accomplish all things, and take possession for vs in his kingdome, hee ascended into heauen, to enlarge the same kingdome, by the abundant power of his spirit, by whom wee are most assured of his continuall intercession towards God the Father for vs.

And although hee be in heauen as touching his corporall presence, where the Father hath now set him at his right hand, commencing vnto him the administration of all things, as well in heauen above, as in earth beneath: yet is hee present with vs in his members, euen to the end of the world, in preserving and governing vs with his effectual power and grace; who when all things are fulfilled, which GOD hath spoken by the mouth of all his Prophets, since the world began, will come in the same visible forme, in the which hee ascended, with an vnspokeable Maiestie, power, and companie, to separate the Lambes from the Goates, the elect from the reprobate: So that none, whether hee be alive then, or dead before, shall escape his iudgement.

Moreover, I beleene and confesse the holy Ghost, God equall with the Father, and the Sonne, who regenerateth and sanctifieth vs, ruleth and guideth vs vnto all traeth, perswading most assuredly in our consciences, that wee be the children of GOD, brethren to Iesus Christ, and fellow heires with him of life euertlasting: yet notwithstanding it is not sufficient to beleuee that GOD is omnipotent and mercifull, that Christ hath made satisfaction, or that the holy Ghost hath his power and effect, except wee doe apply the same benefits to vs which are Gods eids.

I beleuee therefore and confesse one holy Church, which as members of Iesus Christ, the onely head thereof, consent in faith, hope, and charity, vsing the gifts of God, whether they be temporall or spirituall, to the profit and furtherance of the same, which Church is not seene to mans eye, but onely knowne to God, who of the lost fontnes of Adams, hath ordained some as vessels of wrath to damnation, and hath chosen others as vessels of his mercie to be saued: the which in due time he calleth to integritie of life, and godly conuerfation, to make them a glorious Church in himselfe.

But that Church which is visible, and seene to the eye, hath three tokens and marks whereby it may be knowne. First, the word of GOD, contained in the olde and new Testament, which as it is aboue the authoritie of the same Church, and onely sufficient to instruct vs in all things concerning saluation: so is it left for all degrees of men, to reade and vnderstand. For without this word, neither Church, Counsell, nor Decree, can establish any point touching saluation. The second is, the holy sacraments, to wit, of Baptisme, and the Lords Supper, which Sacraments Christ hath left vnto vs, as holy signes and seales of Gods promises. For as by Baptisme once received, is signified, that wee (as well Infants as others of age and discretion) being strangers from GOD by original sinne, are receiued into his family and congregation, with full assurance, that although this roote of sinne lye hid in vs, yet to the Elect it shall not be imputed: So the Supper declareth that GOD as a most provident Father, doth not onely feede our bodies, but also spiritually nourisheth our soules with the graces and benefits of Iesus Christ, (which the Scripture calleth eating of his flesh, and drinking of his blood) neither must wee in the administration of these Sacraments, follow mans fantasie, but as Christ himselfe hath ordained, so must they be administered, and by such as by ordinary vocation are therunto called. Therefore whoeuer reuereneth and worshippeth these Sacraments, or contrariwise contemneth them in time and place, procureth to himselfe damnation.

The third marke of this Church, is Ecclesiasticall Discipline, which standeth in admonition and correction of faults. The finall end whereof is Excommunication, by the consent of the Church determined, if the offender be obdurate: And besides this Ecclesiasticall Discipline, I acknowledge to belong
